BALLARD, WEBB AND GIANOTTI ELECTED TO USBC HALL OF FAME

ARLINGTON, Texas - Del Ballard Jr., Wayne Webb and Carol Gianotti have been elected to the United States Bowling Congress Hall of Fame in the Superior Performance category.

The three bowlers join Jeff Richgels (Outstanding USBC Performance), Roseann Kuhn (Meritorious Service) and Cheryl Robinson (Veterans), who were elected in November by the USBC Hall of Fame Committee. The induction ceremony for the 2011 class will be July 1 at the Gaylord Texan Resort and Convention Center in Grapevine, Texas.

Ballard, 47, of Keller, Texas, won 13 Professional Bowlers Association Tour titles between 1987 and 1993, including the USBC Masters in 1988 and the Firestone Tournament of Champions in 1989. He was No. 29 on the list of the 50 Greatest Players in PBA History in 2008.

"It feels great, and it's a little bit of a relief," Ballard said. "After being on the ballot and not getting in the last three years, I was wondering if it was ever going to happen, or if maybe I didn't deserve it. I felt like I belonged, but sometimes you have an opinion of yourself that other people may not agree with. Now, this shows that people feel I'm deserving, and I'm extremely grateful."

Being a member of the USBC Hall of Fame has been a dream for Ballard since he watched family friend Bill Lillard Sr. of Houston get inducted in 1972. When Ballard joined the PBA Tour, he set his sights on the PBA Hall of Fame as well.

Ballard, who also owns

17 PBA regional titles and nearly $1.3 million in PBA career earnings, made the PBA Hall of Fame in 2009, joined the Dallas USBC BA Hall of Fame later that year and was inducted into the Texas State USBC Hall of Fame in 2010.

Also in 2010, he was diagnosed with tonsil cancer but has had successful treatment.

"In a way, this completes the circle for me, and it's a very nice feeling," Ballard said. "This is a very uplifting end to an emotional, roller coaster of a year for me."

Webb, 53, of Columbus, Ohio, won 20 PBA Tour titles from 1978-1997, including the Firestone Tournament of Champions in 1980. He is among the 50 Greatest Players in PBA History (No. 18) and was elected to the PBA Hall of Fame in 1993. "When I got the phone call, I got pretty emotional, and it was actually hard for me not to cry a little bit," Webb said. "It came as such a surprise that it overwhelmed me and was hard to process. Of course, it's something you always hope for, but I never thought it would happen this soon, if at all."

While Webb was a familiar face on the lanes for more than three decades, he renewed his place in the spotlight as a dominating player on the PBA Senior Tour. He was named Rookie of the Year in 2008 and has claimed five titles, including three majors.

In 2010, Webb was named PBA Senior Player of the Year and joined Mark Roth as the only players to earn PBA Tour and Senior Tour Player of the Year awards during their careers.

"When you're out there competing, you can only hope to be considered among the best," said Webb, who was the PBA Player of the Year in 1980. "Earning both player-of-the-year awards was something I was proud to accomplish, and being inducted into both halls of fame is incredible. Everyone has a bucket list, and mine is now full."

Gianotti, 43, of Perth, Australia, won 16 Ladies Pro Bowlers Tour/ Professional Women's Bowling Association titles between 1989 and 2000, including the 1989 USBC Queens. She teamed with Ann Maree Putney to take the silver medal in doubles at the 2009 World Tenpin Bowling Association World Women's Championships.

"This feels great, and it's something that just tops off my career," Gianotti said. "It was a call that I wasn't expecting, especially at a quarter past 5 in the morning, but it was so worth it."

Gianotti has been part of three team titles at the USBC Women's Championships and teamed with Missy Klug to take the Scratch Doubles title in 2010. "To be recognized for something you love to do and elected to something you've always had as a goal is really special," Gianotti said. "Del and I have been talking about this a little bit lately, and now we get to go in together. I wouldn't have it any other way."

This Sunday on ESPN: PBA USA vs. The World Team Competition SUNDAY, JANUARY 9TH, 11 A.M. PACIFIC

LAS VEGAS — After a one-week break, the Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour returns to ESPN this Sunday with an international flavor and a unique team format.

The PBA World Series of Bowling's Team Competition pits six American bowlers who finished highest in the 60-game qualifying session against six international players who had fared best while bowling 12 games per day on five different lane conditions.

The six-man team event will award one point for each of six head-to-head matches, plus three points to the team with the highest total pinfall.

Making up the U.S. team will be 2008-09 PBA Player of the Year Wes Malott, 2007-08 Player of the Year Chris Barnes, two-time Tour Champion Michael Haugen Jr., 2010 Viper winner Bill O'Neill, four-time Tour titlist Sean Rash and Ronnie Russell.

Making up the International squad will be PBA Hall of Famer Amleto Monacelli, Venezuela, two-handed specialists Jason Belmonte of Australia and Osku Palermaa of Finland who won the 2010 Shark Championship.

Two more Finns — eight-time PBA Tour winner Mika Koivuniemi and Kimmo Lehtonen — along with Dan MacLelland of Canada round out the international team. Check your local listings.

Top Qualifier O'Neill Picks "Viper" for PBA World Championship at South Point on Friday, Jan. 14

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (Jan. 4, 2011) — Bill O'Neill of Southampton, Pa., who won his third career Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour title in the Pepsi Viper Championship in the 2010 PBA World Series of Bowling in October, has selected the Viper lane condition for the 2011 PBA World Championship finals as the PBA Tour launches the live television portion of its schedule Jan. 14-16 at South Point Bowling Center.

The first-ever three-day, eight-player stepladder finals will air on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 14-16, on ESPN2 and ESPN. O'Neill, the top qualifier after 60 World Series games bowled on five different PBA lane conditions, earned the right to select which lane condition would be used

NATIONAL DEAF BOWLING NEWS

TWO IMPORTANT DEAF BOWLING TOURNAMENT DEADLINES COMMING UP

LAKE ELSINORE—This writer regretted having misplaced his mail containing entry forms and information about the coming 27th annual Southern Nevada-California Deaf Bowling Association tournament. So he tried the National Deaf Tournaments Schedule and found SNCDBA ‘s website but unfortunately that was not updated and contained only the results of last year’s tournament in Cabazon, CA.
As writing this now, this writer is not sure of the deadline being on January 10th or 15th. So he and others not having entry forms, better hurry to get them from SNCDBA Secretary-treasurer Stan Booth by emailing him at stsncdba@yahoo.com.
The 27th annual SNCDBA tournament will be on February 19-20 at Trevi Zone Lanes in Lake Elsinore. Like last year’s tournament at Canyon Lanes in Cabazon which was new to deaf bowlers, Trevi Zone Lanes and Lake Elsinore are new places which many deaf bowlers have not tried and so it will be equal field for all.
Last year at Canyon Lanes Carl Malucci set a world record for deaf bowlers with 2333 in all events that puts SNCDBA on the map. As big as 2333 was but Malucci only helped his team won the team event and other bowlers beat in other four handicap events including the Deaf Eliminations.

DEADLINE FOR ENTRIES IN LAS VEGAS 75TH GLDBA TOURNAMENT FEB. 7

LAS VEGAS—This writer got this email from friend Mike Jasko, Cleveland, OH who is the secretary-treasurer of Great Lakes Deaf Bowling Association, requesting to place his letter in this column for all to read.

Hello Bowlers and Friends:
This message is to remind you about deadline for GLDBA 2011 / Las Vegas entry form and money in full. DEADLINE is February 7, 2011.
If you already paid $100.00 for hold your spot, you can pay the different from the total of entry fee you want to participate.
For example: The total of entry fee is $280.00 and you already paid $100.00 so you owe $180.00.
Please click on “UPDATED” box to enter and click each subject you want to watch. Plus there is more information about several other events.
www.gldba-gldwba.org/LV/lv.htm
Please spread it to anyone you know who want or plan to go there.

If you have any questions for bowling issues, please contact Walter Niesluchowski, walt47ski@aol.com and/or Michael Jasko, gldbastjasko@aol.com
All other issues, contact Ronnie Zuchegno Jr, zuchman2011@aol.com and/or Walter Niesluchowski, walt47ski@aol.com
Thank you for helping us to make it happen.
Michael Jasko
GLDBA 2011 Committees

As this writer recalled, the last time GLDBA held its 61st anniversary tournament in Las Vegas in 1996 was to help celebrate the GLDWBA’s 50th anniversary tournament together. The men drew an all time deaf teams record of 188 teams of fivesomes while women also drew their record 76 five-woman teams. Altogether there were an impressive record gathering of 1320 deaf and hearing-impaired bowlers plus more than a thousand bowling fans in one city.
This year GLDBA raised the entry fees higher than in 1996 to cope with the high rate of the games. Also with the economy at this time, it is doubtful they will break their entry records.
The entry fees for per bowler are $120 for team, doubles and singles events ($40 per event) plus $75 for bowler’s combo tickets for the affairs planned. That’s $195.00 to start with and there are optionals like$15 for all-events, $10 for doubles & singles 6 games event and $60 to enter the Cahen Master Championship. That is the total of $280 mentioned above. For seniors, 55 years old and over there are optionals to add, $15 for Senior Citizen handicap all events and $50 the Senior Citizen Masters.
Remember this 75th anniversary is a big affair, which comes once in your lifetime and this writer as a bowling freak plans to bowl in all the events. That will cost me $345.00 to enter all and have fun. One more thing, entrant must list his last five years averages and his highest will be picked for this tournament.

SO. CALIF. DEAF CLASSIC THIS SATURDAY AT AMF CERRITOS

CERRITOS—The first deaf tournament of year in Southland, 48th annual So. Calif. Deaf Classic is on this Saturday at AMF Cerritos Bowl with 3 squads, 12 Noon, 2 PM and 4 PM. Entry fee is $40.00 each try of 4 games across 8 lanes. Open to both male and female deaf and hearing-impaired bowlers with women getting more handicaps than men do. Come with your friends and have fun.

SO, CALIF DEAF TRAVEL AT LINBROOK BOWL THIS SUNDAY

ANAHEIM...So, Calif. Deaf Traveling League, Southland’s oldest all deaf bowlers scratch traveling league in its 51st season, travels to Linbrook Bowling Center this Sunday at 1 PM.

ANITA MURTISHAW'S

730 Leads Team To Victory

by Frank Weiler
MURRIETA - Anita Murtishaw bowled 730 (227 - 268 - 235) and led her team to twenty-one points (21-3) in Cal Oak’s Scratch Trio League. Better yet, Anita was bowling with and against all guys, and her series was fifty pins better than anything else bowled on her lanes.
In topping the guys on her lanes, it included topping a PBA champion, her husband Jim. Jim rolled a 680 and continues to lead the league with a 240 average.
Several guys scored well on other lanes including JAMES HAWKINS (769), MIKE LAUFFER (750), MATT MURTISHAW (748), MIKE MELATTI (726), MIKE VINYARD (726), and STEVE ISRAEL (714). All of these guys tip their hats to Anita for her outstanding performance, and to the BOWLING NEWS for recognizing their achievements on the lanes. Thank you Bowling News for supporting Citrus Belt bowlers.

Victor Fabian bests 300 entrants at West Covina Christmas Event

7 Share Match Game of $3,500/ Marcella gets $2,096 Match Series
Match Series estimate of $350 next week • Match Game estimate of $1,400
ABTA Returns to Oak Tree Lanes this Weekend • 3-6-9 is $2,500 at Oak Tree Lanes

WEST COVINA — In our return to West Covina Lanes, 300 entrants came out for our Xmas Special Event. We gave away Many, Many, MANY gifts each squad. At the end of the night, a lot of bowlers walked away with nice items.

Cut scores were decent, +44 for the men and +33 for the women. This week, our three Super Seniors added to the board were Art Windsor (+43) and Tom Dahl (+38) for the men and Roberta Nakunz (+27) for the women. Due to the great turnout we would have 70 bowlers making it to the semi-finals this week.

For all qualifying squads our top qualifier for the Men was Michael Hudson with a +198, and for the women it was Susan Eblane with a +181. Each will get paid entries into a future regular ABTA event. Each week our top seed overall draws the Match Series, and this week it was worth $2,096. The top seed drew a 556 and we had 1 bowler who bowled that during the 4 pm squad, and that was Cezar Marcella who says he will pay $2 to win $2,096 any day. Next week at Oak Tree Lanes we will estimate the Match Series at $350. For the 3-6-9 qualifying this week, William Garrett was the final person standing to go for the $2,400 pot. He missed on his first shot and received a $50 consolation. We will add another $100 at Oak Tree Lanes for total of $2,500 (Getting up there folks:_)

In the doubles this week, we had 239 groups get into the doubles, with 25 spots paid out. The top prize this week went to Sean Nguon and Jerry Chang with a 1416 for $200. In 2nd place, was Sean Nguon and Henry Hoang with a 1403 for $180. The low to cash was 1329, we paid out $2390 in doubles.

In the semis this week we saw Greg Velarde bowl a big 2nd and 3rd game to lead the pack with a +205 to sit out and bowl for the title. Vic Garcia came in second at +134 and would sit out the first round. It took a +59 for the men and a +8 for the women to make the top 16.

This week, our top seed in semi-finals had the honor of drawing the match game worth $3,500. The pot maxes out at that amount. We have a second pot growing, and that is currently at $165. After reviewing the scores bowled, there were seven bowlers that bowled 196 during qualifying; they were Brian Caadoy, Bryan Moore, Chris Kelly, David Godinez, Jeff Taino, Michael Kong, and Ryan Nam. They took home $500 each. With the backup pot, we will estimate the pot to be $1400 at Oak Tree Lanes this weekend.. This week we had 13 new bowlers join us, and three returning members. Let us welcome these new bowlers to the club, Joseph Miranda, Lanae Kentner, Angelito Lubid, Gene Oneill, Chory Oneill, Rick Festa Jr, Rick Festa, Kris Benz, David Pruet, Robert Galbraith, Sandie Ironside, Albert Ulibarri, and John Lam.

This would bring us to the top 16 Match Play finals now. In the first round the seven losers were Franki Matush, Scott Johnson, Margie Coronado, Gina Velarde, Cezar Marcella, Michael Benavides, and Joe Page. They would receive checks of $115 each. In the second round, the losers were Vic Garcia, Alvin Francisco, Kin Sang Chung, and Holden Au. Each would get checks of $125 each. This would get us down to the final five bowlers. In this round we saw Wilson Cheung (3rd seed) bowling Sal Galluzzo (8th seed). In this match, Wilson would get the better of Sal with a 218 to 195 finish. In the other match we saw Rodney Payne (6th seed) bowling Victor Fabian (7th seed). In this match, Victor would get the better of Rodney with a 211 to 182 finish. Sal and Rodney finished in 4th and 5th getting checks for $140 each. Our semi-final match was set to be bowled on 7 and 8; we had our 3rd and 7th seeds into the top 16 bowling each other. We had a close match in this one all the way to the end. Wilson would start with an open in the first frame, while Victor would stay clean in the first 5 frames.

Wilson would have another open in the 5th frame, and that would put Victor up by 30 pins after 5 frames. Victor would continue to stay clean through 9 frames, but Wilson would stage a late comeback, with strikes in the 8th, 9th and the first one in the 10th frame to pull close. But Victor would stay clean in the 10th frame to win the match with a 197/248 to 193/236 sending him to the title match. Victor paid $42 on the horses for all you that bet on him to make it all the way. Wilson finished 3rd and received $225.

The title game was set and bowled on lanes 11 and 12 this week. Greg being the top seed elected to have Victor start the match first. Victor would strike in the first frame, that would bring Greg up on 12 and he would match with a strike. He would leave the 10 pin in the 2nd frame and pick that up. Victor would get a spare in the 2nd and get 7 count in the 3rd and pick up that spare.

Greg would get a strike in the 3rd and 4th frames, still leaving him down by 35 pins at this point. Victor would open in the 4th and 5th frames. Greg would come up in the 5th and leave the 6-10 and pick that up and get another spare in the 6th frame. Now he would only be down by 8 pins. Victor would get marks again in the 6th and 7 the frames. Greg would get a spare in the 7th and strike in the 8th frame. He would be down by 9 pins at this point. Victor came up in the 8th and 9th frames with strikes. That would bring up Greg to finish the match first. He would get his double to match Victor with a strike in the 9th frame. On Greg's first ball in the 10th frame he would leave an 8-10 pocket split to send him to a 202/210 finish. That would bring up Victor and he would get his first strike and finish out with a 188/239 to send him to his second ABTA title. O'NEILL continued from page 1 for the championship finals and to no one's surprise, he selected the lane condition he dominated in winning four matches to win the Viper title.

The Viper pattern is considered a medium to high-scoring condition that involves oiling the lane to a distance of 37 feet, and allows for multiple angles of attack for those who can successfully read the changes in conditions as competitors break down the original application of oil.

In winning the Pepsi Viper Championship, O'Neill averaged 242.75 in easily defeating PBA Hall of Famer Amleto Monacelli, Mike DeVaney, Tommy Jones and Andres Gomez. In all four matches, O'Neill rarely missed the pocket while all four of his opponents struggled.

O'Neill also knew that none of the other seven PBA World Championship finalists – No. 8 Jason Belmonte, Australia; No. 7 Wes Malott, Pflugerville, Texas; No. 6 Michael Haugen Jr., Care-free, Ariz.; No. 5 Mika Koivuniemi, Hartland, Mich.; No. 4 Chris Barnes, Double Oak, Texas; No. 3 Osku Palermaa, Finland, and No. 2 Sean Rash, Montgomery, Ill. - made it to the Viper championship round.

"I didn't want to bowl on the Cheetah pattern for a major title," O'Neill said in explaining his lane pattern choice. "The Cheetah condition is too easy. I don't want to get into a shootout. I didn't want to bowl on the Shark because that pattern plays to the advantage of Sean (Rash) and Osku (Palermaa), who have higher rev rates than I do.

"I made the show on the Scorpion pattern, but I didn't have a good look," O'Neill continued. "And I won my first title on the Chameleon a year ago in Detroit, but on the Viper, I bowled four games and had a really good ball reaction. I bowled four matches on TV and we'll be bowling on the same pair of lanes for the World Championship finals, so I'll take my chances."

The PBA World Championship finals will be the first ever to include eight players and air over a span of three days. The finals will begin at 5 p.m. Eastern on ESPN2 on Friday, Jan. 14, when the No. 8 World Series qualifier (Belmonte) bowls a one-game match against the No. 7 qualifier (Malott). The winner will then meet No. 6 Haugen.

Friday's winner will advance to Saturday's 9 p.m. Eastern telecast, also on ESPN2, for a one-game match against No. 5 qualifier Koivuniemi. That winner will meet No. 4 Barnes.

Saturday's winner moves into the championship field on the Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour's traditional home, ESPN, for the 1 p.m. Eastern finals on Sunday. The first match will involve Saturday's survivor against No. 3 qualifier Palermaa. Next up will be the semifinal match against Rash. O'Neill will await the final survivor in a showdown for the $50,000 first prize and the season's first major title.

O'Neill has experienced the waiting game before. He was a finalist in the 2009 PBA World Championship where he also had to wait three months between qualifying in suburban Detroit and the live finals in December in Wichita, Kan.

"I spent the whole three months between qualifying and bowling in the finals last year wondering what it would be like to win," he said, "and it kinda negatively impacted me. I put too much pressure on myself."

In Wichita, O'Neill lost his semifinal round match to eventual champion Tom Smallwood of Saginaw, Mich., 211-159.

"This time, I'm going to be more relaxed and just do what I'm going to do," O'Neill said. "I've got one game to bowl and I'm going to try to make every shot count. I'm going to try not to get too worked up, or think too far ahead or worry about winning."

Tickets for the PBA World Championship television shows are available at South Point Bowling Center or online at pba.com. A three-day television pass is $50; tickets for the three individuals shows are $20 each.

Bowler Depot & Storm Sweep to Start Shark

by Aimee Gomez

DOWNEY — The third round on Shark started this week. The round winner match featured Sysco vs. Zavala’s Taquerias. Paul Barraco 201-201-202/604 managed the only six on the pair, but it was not enough to carry a couple of heavy teammates. Zavala’s took all but the first game, landing them in third place for the week.

Bowlers Depot’s Steve Gurrieri 209-278-235/722 really wanted to win, and he got some help from Raul Rosales 222-206/609 in their sweep of Katie Jakes Bar and Grill. Bowlers Depot sits in first while Katie Jakes is in fifteenth.

Brylaw is in fourth after taking four from Bowlum. Scores were not that high on this pair, but the third game came down to two pins, adding a bit of excitement to the pair.

Storm Products sits in second, after sweeping Pro Approach. Ramon Torres 233-215/640 and Chris Porter 244-209/630 led the team to victory in a very one sided match.

Herzog Insurance also got four wins thanks to some consistent bowling and Phil Lebaquin’s 215/600 set. Ramiro Garcia 242/605 led the pair, but struggled to overcome the deficit put up by one of the bowlers.

Linder Insurance continued the run of four wins using Keith Klagge 207-242/612. Threadworks got one win thanks to Eric Snow’s 220-207/605.

In another four-one split, Junior Amateur Tour’s Aimee Gomez 219-231/620 and Jared Lawrence 205-213/611 contributed to the victory over Tifco’s lone sixer, the pair leading Phillip Sujo 229-230/635.

The final match was a three-two split between ABTA and Key Container. No one broke six on the pair, but Key Container seemed happy to get some wins.

Have a great week. Get out there and practice! Take care and see you all soon.

Longtime St. Louis Bowling Writer and PBA Hall of Famer John Archibald Dies

SEATTLE, Wash. (Jan. 3, 2011) – Veteran bowling writer and PBA Hall of Famer John Archibald died Monday at the age of 83 in suburban St. Louis.

Archibald, who suffered a stroke approximately two years ago, began a four-decade career at the St. Louis Post-Dispatch after graduating from the University of Missouri in 1949. During his career he was also a general assignment sportswriter, feature writer, and a TV critic but was probably best known as the paper's bowling columnist.

Archibald travelled the country covering the sport's biggest tournaments such as the All-Star, World's Invitational, PBA Tournament of Champions and USBC Masters, among many others.

He was inducted into the PBA Hall of Fame in 1989, the same year he retired from the Post-Dispatch. He served as Bowling Writers Association of America President in 1970 and was also a member of the United States Bowling Congress Hall of Fame.

After retiring from the Post-Dispatch he continued to write a syndicated bowling column and during his career won more than 50 bowling writing awards including six PBA writing competition awards.

Funeral arrangements are pending.

BOWLED OVER

NORWALK— Ron Gooch, 52, legally blind since birth, reached bowling nirvana recently when he rolled a perfect game of 300 — that's 12 consecutive strikes. He is believed to be one of 11 legally blind bowlers to do so.

The Morris, Ill., resident says his dad taught him to line up his feet using lane markers and let the ball fly; pins appear only as strips of light to him. Gooch's advice to others, "Stay at it, stick to it, don't give up." Eric Kearney of the United States Bowling Congress says the sport has no boundaries: "We are proud that bowling is inclusive of everyone." — Mike Tucker

Brooks, Low, Ellison, Wodka Take Team Title

LAKEWOOD—The JAT held their first-ever Team Baker Challenge at Cal Bowl to celebrate the holidays. 68 bowlers took the lanes in this 4-man (one Farm Club, one Open Division and 2 adults) baker format for 12 games of qualifying. In qualifying, the team of Parker Brooks, Wesley Low, Nicole Ellison and Dave Wodka led the field at +371 followed by Oscar Chan, Mark Myers, Wishtoyo Vasquez and Nick Wilson at +134 and Michael Ma, Devin Bidwell, David Yamauchi and Larry Campbell at +123. Low-to-qualify was +77.

The top-8 teams headed into match-play and after 6 games it was still Brooks, Low, Ellison and Wodka leading the field at +608 followed by Chan, Myers, Vasquez and Wilson at +457 and Struckman, Maida, Battiest and Maxey Jr. at +350. In the rol-loffs, second-seeded Chan, Myers, Vasquez and Wilson easily took the first match 221-169 advancing to the finals to meet the wire-to-wire leaders Brooks, Low, Ellison and Wodka.

The match was close through the first rotation but a couple of splits and some key strikes led Parker Brooks, Wesley Low, Nicole Ellison and Dave Wodka to the first-ever JAT Baker Team Challenge title.

Thanks to everyone who came out and participated in the tournament- it was definitely a fun event! Watch the title match on YouTube- search for Junior Amateur Tour or visit our website at www.bowljat.org and click on the “Tournament Highlights” page.

Our next tournament is this Sunday at Del Rosa Lanes in San Bernardino- it’s our first visit to the Inland Empire in a while so I hope to see some new faces on the lanes! If you have any questions, e-mail me at director@bowljat.org. See you all this Sunday at Del Rosa!

Happy New Year!
