INDIANA BOWLER ROLLS 900 SERIES

ARLINGTON, Texas – Bob Kammer Jr. of Crown Point, Ind., rolled a perfect 900 series Saturday night. The series is still pending formal approval by the United States Bowling Congress.

Kammer, who would be the 18th bowler in history to roll a USBC-approved 900 series, tossed 36 consecutive strikes in the Saturday Invitational League at Stardust Bowl II in Merrillville, Ind. He would be the first bowler from the state of Indiana to record a certified 900 series.

“It was unbelievable, and I was nervous,” said Kammer, a 41-year-old right-hander. “It’s not something that happens every day.”

Competing on lanes one and two, Kammer said the rest of the league stopped play to watch him after the seventh frame of his third game.

“I was just thinking, please carry,” Kammer said in describing his final strike. “I was taking deep breaths and trying to get the ball clean off my hand.”

Kammer works for Ford Motor Company and may be a local celebrity when he returns to work.

“My phone has been blowing up,” Kammer said. “I am having my 15 minutes of fame and it’s fun.”

Kammer’s 900 series would be the 19th USBC-approved in history. The first USBC-approved 900 occurred Feb. 2, 1997 when Jeremy Sonnenfeld rolled three consecutive perfect games in Lincoln, Neb. There has never been a 900 on Sport Bowling lane conditions.

2011 PBA Tournament of Champions Returns To ABC January 22nd

LAS VEGAS—The Professional Bowlers Association’s greatest tradition will return to Red Rock Lanes in Las Vegas Jan. 16-22 with a record $1 million prize fund. The Tournament of Champions is filled with great storylines. To arrange for interviews or photography, please contact Bill Vint at 414-339-0404 or Jerry Schneider at 262-366-2157:

Record prize fund: The $1 million prize fund and $250,000 first prize are the richest prizes ever paid for in a professional bowling event.

The PBA returns to ABC Television: The Tournament of Champions finals will return to ABC on Saturday, Jan. 22, at 2:30 p.m. Eastern, for the first time since 1997. The Pro Bowlers Tour aired for 36 consecutive years on ABC as a lead-in to the old Wide World of Sports telecasts. The 2011 TOC telecast will be the first PBA event ever to air in high-definition.

Hall of Famer Nelson Burton Jr. to help celebrate return to ABC: PBA Hall of Famer Nelson Burton Jr., who teamed with broadcasting great Chris Schenkel for 23 seasons (1975-97) on Pro Bowlers Tour telecasts on ABC, will be on a part of the TOC telecast, to help celebrate the PBA’s return to ABC. Schenkel and Burton became one of the most recognizable broadcast duos in sports.

Kelly Kulick will return to defend her Tournament of Champions title: Kelly Kulick of Union, N.J., made sports history in 2010 by becoming the first woman ever to win a PBA Tour event. Kulick defeated top qualifier Chris Barnes of Double Oak, Texas, 265-195, to win a $40,000 first prize and a two-year exhibition to bowl on the Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour. This year, seven other women are entered in the event.

Walter Ray Williams Jr. still trying for a TOC title: Walter Ray Williams Jr. has accomplished nearly everything there is to accomplish in professional bowling except winning the Tournament of Champions. The all-time leader in titles (47) is an eight-time

Player of the Year including winning that honor last season at age 50. A TOC title would make Williams the third player in history to complete the PBA “Grand Slam” (titles in the Tournament of Champions, U.S. Open, PBA World Championship and USBC Masters). Mike Aulby and Norm Duke are the only players who have completed the Grand Slam.

Jason Couch to try for record fourth Tournament of Champions title: Jason Couch of Clermont, Fla., is the only bowler to win the Tournament of Champions in three consecutive years (1999, 2000 and 2002; the event was not conducted in 2001). The only other bowler to win the classic three times is retired PBA Hall of Famer Mike Durbin who won in 1972, 1982 and 1984.

14 Tournament of Champions past winners are entered: Past TOC champions entered are Kelly Kulick (2010), Patrick Allen (2009), Chris Barnes (2006), Jason Couch (1999, 2000 and 2002), Dave D’Entremont (1996), Norm

by Dick Sanders

LAKEWOOD — This past weekend at Cal Bowl, in Lakewood, CA, Steve Smith (San Diego), captured, his 2nd WCST Regular Division Title, rolling some great scores on the Kegel Pattern “Beaten Path”.

Steve bowled 2383 to lead the 10 game qualifying, and then in a very competitive battle with Greg Neuer, it came down to the Position Round, where Steve holding only a 30 pin lead, won the match 216-204, and with the 30 pin bonus for the win, ended up winning his Division, by 76 pins.

This win for Steve is now two wins back to back, with his victory in Laughlin, last December, and now this one. Greg Neuer finished in 2nd place. The strongest Close of the tournament, Jeff Gordon, with 2 games left in the finals, went from 7th and ended up in 3rd Place, with games of 266 and a 300 game.

Top 3: 1st Place, Steve Smith, $650.00, 2nd Place, Greg Neuer (Covina) $450.00, and 3rd to Jeff Gordon (Ventura), $360. 23 bowlers entered this division, which is starting to improve again in entries. 8 checks were paid out for a total of $2,990.00 in Prize Fund.

Total pay-off for the tournament was $6,390.00, counting the Super Senior Division. Over-all for 322 tournaments, a total of $3,479,345.00 paid out.

Our thanks to Mr. Charlie Kinstler, Proprietor of the Cal Bowl, his Bowling Mgr, Leonard Ruiz, and to the workers of the lanes. Thanks to Ben Laney & Heidi, doing the Brackets, and starting their 4th Year as a coverage sponsor with the WCST, EBONITE INTERNATIONAL CO, makers of the best bowling balls in the country today.

SUPER SENIOR NEWS

the finals, 9 times, getting as close as 2nd in one of them. This time, Paul not only led the qualifying with 2349, he also had the highest total pins for the finals with 1848 for the 8 games, and a solid 168 pin victory, over 2nd place finisher, Paul Appling.

Places were close from 2nd to 4th separated by only 24 pins. Finalist Bill Stempke had rolled a 300 game in the qualifying on Saturday. For the ages of 70 and up out of higher money, one for every 4 entered, was won by Corky DeMaio, with 2126, and $175.00 prize..

Top 3: 1st Place: Paul Phounsavath, $700.00, 2nd To Paul Appling (Camarillo), $500.00, and 3rd to Jim Zimmerman (Tehachapi), $400.00. Nine Checks paid out for a total of $3,400.00.

Alan Libao First ABTA Champion of 2011 at Oak Tree

Suase, Tan, Franke, and Barraca share Match Game of $1,505

Match Series estimate of $900 • Next week Match Game estimate of $1,700

ABTA Returns to West Covina Lanes this Weekend for HANDICAP FROZEN EVENT

3-6-9 is $2,600 at West Covina Lanes • LAS VEGAS OPEN Jan 20-21-22-23

After our holiday break, we returned to action in our first tournament of 2011 at Oak Tree. We had 228 entries this week. Cut scores were a +33 for the men and +10 for the women. This week, our three Super Seniors added to the board were Vic Paolucci (+27) and Ely Cruz(+31) for the men and Bobbie Nakunz (+5) for the women. That would give us 52 bowlers making it to the semi-finals this week.

For all qualifying squads our top qualifier for the Men was Andrew Toro with a +152, and for the women it was Sandy Rosenblum with a +51. Each will get paid entries into a future regular ABTA event. Each week our top seed overall draws the Match Series, and this week it was worth $400. Andrew drew a 414 but we had no one that bowled that score. Next week at West Covina Lanes we will estimate the Match Series at $900. For the 3-6-9 qualifying this week, we had 4 people miss on the last shot so no one would go for the $2,500, they would all share the $50 consolation. We will add another $100 at West Covina Lanes for total of $2,600.

In the doubles this week, we had 127 groups get into the doubles, with 16 spots paid out. The top prize this week went to Jerry Chang and Don Chung with a 1354 for $160. In 2nd place, it was Don Chung and Giang Huynh with a 1324 for $140. The low to cash was 1275, we paid out $1270 in doubles.

In the semis this week we saw David Quon lead the semis from start to finish with a +138 to sit out and bowl for the title. Tony Tang came in second at +126 and would sit out the first round. It took a +26 for the men and a +6 for the women to make the top 16.

This week, our top seed in semi-finals had the honor of drawing the match game worth $1,505 and he drew a 174. After a review of all the scores bowled, we had 3 people hit it during qualifying and 1 hit it during semis for a total of 4 people. They were Jonathan Barraca, Shaun Suase, Jhun Tan, and Greg Franke, they will each get $376. We will estimate the pot to be $1,700 at West Covina. This week we had 7 new bowlers join us. Let us welcome these new bowlers to the club, John Delacruz, Melvin Leforbes, Dave Snow, Matt Franke, James Walker, David Mar, and Wes Tiongco.

This would bring us to our Match Play finals now. In the first round the seven losers were Beth Borci (failed to stay for match play), Ed Abarca, Talia St Angelo, Howard Smith, Bedell Vasquez, Donovan Chung, Alex Castillo, they would receive checks of $103 each. In the second round, the losers were Roberta Nakunz, Bryan Moore, Robert Ricketts, and Antonio Chui and each would get checks of $112.50. This would get us down to the final four bowlers. At this point, our horses would be paying anywhere from a low of $33 (Alan Libao) to a high of $86 (Dino Cantoria) depending on who would win. In this round we saw Dino Cantoria (10th seed) bowling Alan Libao (4th seed). In this match, Alan would get the better of Dino with a 237 to 213 finish. In the other match we saw George Parker (14th seed) bowling Tony Tang (2nd seed). In this match, Tony would get the better of George with a 220 to 179 finish. George and Dino finished in 4th and 5th getting checks for $122.50 each. Our semi-final match was set to be bowled on 31 and 32; we had our 2nd and 4th seeds into the top 16 bowling each other. In our horses this week we would see Alan paying $33 and Tony paying $36 if they win their match. In this match, Alan start hot with 3 strikes out of the first 4 frames, and see Tony struggle with 3 opens in the first 4 frames. Tony would try to get close with a 3 bager in the 5th thru 7th frames, with Alan continuing to mark it would only be a 14 pin deficit for Tony going into the 8th frame. But with opens in the 8th and 9th frames by Tony, it would see Alan finish with a 203/230 to Tony's 155/198 giving Alan Libao the win and advance him onto the title match. For those lucky "investors" that had Alan as a horse, he paid $33. Tony finished 3rd and received $200.

The title game is set and bowled on lanes 29 and 30 this week. David being the top seed elected to start the match first. David would spare in the first frame. Alan would come up with strikes in the first and second frames. David would get spares in his second and third frames, giving him a total of 57 going into the fourth. Alan would leave splits in third and fourth frames, giving him 65 after 4 frames. David would continue his marking and so would Alan. After the 7th frame the score would be 135 with a spare in the 8th for David and 125 with strike in the 8 for Alan, still Alan would trail by 27 pins with hcp. In the 9th frame, David would get a spare. Alan would come up and get a strike in the 9th frame and bring him up in the 10th, with a strike on the first ball forcing David to mark. David came up in the 10th and left the 4-7-10 split on his first ball and failed to pick it up. Alan would finish the match with a 201/228 to 180/224, winning his second ABTA championship. Alan would take home $1000 for the win and an additional $850 in Cash and Carry. David finished in 2nd for $500. Alan and David are not strangers to the ABTA as they are faithful members and bowl whenever they can. They are both fine guys!

Champion Alan Libao is from Chino Hills and used a Ebonite Gamebreaker drilled by Chris at Deer Creek. He is single. He would like to thank his mom, dad, sister, ABTA Staff and members, and The boys, team Libaoski.

David Quon (2nd Place) is from Alhambra and used a Roto Grip Road Cell drilled by Billy Chao. He is married with 2 children. He would like to thank the ABTA, Staff, wife Clara, Patricia Lin, Angel Chau for giving him pointers, Mou-Liu bowlers.

Tony Tang (3rd Place) is from Riverside and used an Ultra Zone drilled at King Pin pro Shop. He is single. He would like to say thank you to all his friends at West Covina, Jhun Tan, Jun Contreras, Bobby Concepcion, and Jeannete Chang.

This week, the weekly ball sponsor winner of a 900 Global Ball was Andy Yu. Each time you bowl, you get a free ticket for this prize given away by our Sponsor, 900 Global. This week we were again selling the raffle tickets for a chance at a raffle prizes. Winning a Regular Entry was Ngehim Tran and Adam Drozd. Winning an entry in our January Las Vegas event was Andy Yu. Andy did good this week: :) Winning 2 nights in Las Vegas for our January event was Esther Tambio. Winning ABTA Shirts were George Parker and Ed Abarca. Winning a 900 Global Ball, the Bank, was Mike Moore. The rest of the results are in the payoff sheet in this paper.

This Saturday, January 15th, West Covina Lanes is our host for a 1 day special "Handicap Frozen" event. Saturday squads are 12 pm, 1 pm, 2:30 pm, 4:00 pm, and 6:00 pm is the final squad. Please plan on showing up early for squad times. The semi-finals will start at approximately 7:45 pm. Remember to check in early as it will be busy. Remember if you bring in a new member, you get a $15 credit on your entry and bowl for regular entry. See our ad for address and directions, or check our website (www.abta1.com) to link to address for directions.

Its history folks as Alan Libao enters the archives as our latest champion. To say that Alan likes Oak Tree would be an understatement. He has two ABTA titles and You guessed it :) Both at Oak Tree!! Hope to see you at West Covina Lanes! If you have any comments or suggestions, use the contact page on our Website to send comments to us. Thank you for being an ABTA member until then! Reminder there are a few Las Vegas Rooms still available 1st Come 1st Served.

CAL BOWL BOWLING REPORT

2500 E. Carson St., Lakewood, CA 90712 • (562) 421-8448

LAKEWOOD — Welcome back bowlers. Lots of leagues took the 2 weeks of holiday time off and now they are back. Big scores are popping up everywhere! Our Junior Leagues started last Saturday morning at 9:00 a.m. but kids can join anytime during the season! Now is the time to plan Bowling Birthday Parties! Must call at least one week in advance and leave a deposit. Don't forget — we clean up the mess! It's time for our Cal Bowl Bowling Report.

THE OFFICIAL SOFT DRINK OF BOWLING

Storm & Zavala's Taquerias Tied for 1st with 9 Wins

by Aimee Gomez

DOWNEY—Storm Products had a nice night thanks to Ramon Torres, who shot 236-244/663. Torres led the pair in Storm's 4-1 split with Bowlers Depot who pulled out the first game win by five.

Zavala's Taquerias' Greg Neuer led the league with his 252-290/732 set, and helped his team sweep Brylaw Accounting. Neuer got some help from Jeff Garrison 226-247/664 and Paul Danforth 206-228-205/639. Billy Myers Jr. led Brylaw with his 297-219/715 set, as Larry Stephens 237-204-213/654 and Charles Zelaya 227-200/608 contributed.

Danielle Schilling of Herzog Insurance decided she was tired of losing, and shot 279-224-225/728 at the Junior Amateur Tour team, who pulled out the second game win to avoid the sweep. David Yamauchi shot 215-204/612 for JAT, but had no help.

Linder Insurance also had one bowler, Gary Duran, who shot 257-206-257/720 to take four from ABTA's Dean Lopez 238-227-207/672 and David Cogswell 240/614.

Sysco's Paul Barraco 224-223-204/651 defeated Key Container. Strangely, all of the games were close, but Sysco managed the sweep.

Clyde's Video Games won four from Bowlum in spite of the fact that Herbert Jones of Bowlum led the pair 207-245/651.

Tifco use Phillip Sujo 224-242/634 to take four from Threadworks' Jon Reyes 200-217-219/636 and Eric Snow 227-201/623.

Katie Jakes Bar and Grill rode Jon Brandon 200-221-268/689 to a sweep over Pro Approach, taking them back to five hundred.

Not a whole lot to report when only eighteen people are above par. Get out and get some practice! Take care and see everyone soon.

WOMACK STEPHENS WINS FIRST ABT CHAMPIONSHIP AT KEYSTONE LANES

NORWALK—The second stop of the Amateur Bowlers Tour in 2011 saw the bowlers take to the lanes and after the beat the board finals, our newest champion, Womack Stephens emerged with 1 pin victory after a 2-frame roll-off with David Godinez.

Our newest champion, Womack Stephens, is married to Angela and is a commercial truck driver for J.B. Hunt. Womack sports a high game of 300 and high series of 779. Womack was using a 900 Global Bank drilled by Mikey Villarreal at Keystone Lanes for the win this weekend. Womack has been bowling for about 30 years and bowls league at Keystone. Womack wanted to thank his wife, Angela, for her love and support and for sponsoring him in the tournament. Womack also wanted to thank Keystone Lanes for hosting the tournament and the ABT directors for running an outstanding tournament.

The ABT staff and membership would like to thank the management and staff at Keystone Lanes for hosting our tournament. Our next scheduled event will be a one-day beat-the-board, Sunday, January 16th at AMF Carter Lanes. The address for Carter Bowl is 1501 S. Lemon Street in the city of Fullerton. Their phone number is 714-526-7725. THIS IS A CHANGE IN DAY AND TIMES! Multiple cashing for this tournament. Cash as often as you make the board! Squad times are at 10AM and 12N. The entry fee will be $45. First place will be $1000 with 50 tournament and bonus pot entries.

We hope to see you Sunday at Carter!

Champion, Womack Stephens and ABT member Troy Sucatre.

NORWALK — Back to Keystone Lanes this week and as the league gets closer to the third Position Round the top five places continue to battle for each and every win. Fountain Bowl #2 stays on top with 39, but right on their heels comes Cal Bowl #1, 39; Bowling News 35; Keystone Lanes #1, 33 and Keystone #1, 32.2. The rest of league trails at 26. 25, 22.2, two tied at 21, 19 and 18 wins. Karen Mauricio topped the honor roll with 563, followed by Ana Fukuchi 203-532, Dee Phipps 530. Charron McKnight 525, Betty Phillips 515, Theresa Jackson 513, Margo McClain 505 and Darlene Waken 501.

It hardly seems possible but the league has bowled 18 weeks and there's only seven weeks, plus one more Position Round, remaining in our 53rd year. That means a league meeting is due and it's scheduled on February 21, 9:30 a.m. in the Cal Bowl conference room prior to bowling at 10 a.m. Sweepstakes rules and election of officers are slated.

REMINDER: Final payment to due by the end of this month for those who paid deposits for the bus/hotel Vegas tip in March. NEXT WEEK: 10:30 A.M. MONDAY, JANUARY 17 and Del Rio Lanes.

Duke (1994), Bryan Goebel (1998), Michael Haugen Jr. (2008), Steve Jaros (2005), Tommy Jones (2007), Johnny Petraglia (1971), Wayne Webb (1980), Pete Weber (1987) and Mark Williams (1985 and 1988).

11 PBA Hall of Famers in TOC field: PBA Hall of Famers who will be bowling in the TOC include Tom Baker, Parker Bohn III, Norm Duke, Amleto Monacelli, Johnny Petraglia, Carmen Salvino, Brian Voss, Wayne Webb, Pete Weber, Walter Ray Williams Jr., and Mark Williams.

First father/daughter duo ever to compete in Tournament of Champions: Retired three-time Tour titlist Mike Miller and his daughter Adrienne of Albuquerque are the first father/daughter combination ever to enter the Tournament of Champions. Adrienne became eligible to enter the TOC by winning a regional title in November in Las Vegas.

Las Vegas has emerged as the “bowling capital” of the world: Over the past 10 years, Las Vegas has risen to fifth place in terms of United States bowling population, with 17,520 card-carrying certified league bowlers. And southern Nevada’s 16 bowling centers with 724 lane beds have made the Las Vegas area the world’s No. 1 bowling tourism destination. Every year, thousands of bowlers from around the world travel to Las Vegas for amateur and professional bowling competitions. During PBA Tournament of Champions week, the eyes of the bowling world will be focused on Las Vegas.

Bowling industry leaders visit Las Vegas: to help celebrate the richest event in PBA history, the Bowling Proprietors’ Association of America will host its mid-winter Bowling Summit at Red Rock Resort Jan. 20-22. More than 200 leaders from throughout the bowling industry will not only attend to their own business affairs, but attend the TOC, ABC finals and post-event PBA Hall of Fame dinner.

PBA legend Carmen Salvino is oldest champion entered: Chicago’s Carmen Salvino, a 17-time PBA Tour titlist and the only player in the field who bowled in the first TOC in Indianapolis in 1962, is the oldest player in the field. The PBA charter member celebrated his 77th birthday in November.

Four Las Vegas area bowlers are entered: PBA Regional title winner Anthony Liene, Las Vegas; PBA Senior Regional tistlist Howard Partell, Las Vegas, and PBA Senior Tour champions Kerry Painter, Henderson, and Ron Winger, Las Vegas, will be in the Tournament of Champions field.

Bowling for Soup to provide TOC “Halftime Entertainment.” The Tournament of Champions will have its version of “Super Bowl” halftime entertainment when Grammy-nominated rock band Bowling For Soup performs during the Jan. 22 ABC finals telecast. Musical entertainment has been a part of many of bowling’s major events over the years. Jazz great Pete Fountain once played during a TOC telecast in the 1970s.

PBA Hall of Fame induction ceremonies to cap the week: Following the ABC finals of the TOC on Saturday afternoon, the PBA and Red Rock Resort will host the 2011 PBA Hall of Fame induction ceremonies. Thirteen-time PBA Tour winner and current ESPN color analyst Randy Pedersen, 11-time PBA Senior Tour winner Dale Eagle, and PBA lane maintenance innovator Len Nicholson will be inducted.

Largest field of PBA champions to compete: The 2011 Tournament of Champions will feature the largest field of PBA title-winners ever. More than 170 men and women who have won PBA National Tour, Senior Tour, PBA Regional or PBA Women’s Series titles have been invited to participate in the historic event.

BOYLE, PLUHOWSKY TAKE TEAM USA TRIALS TITLES

HENDERSON — Scott Boyle of Salida, Calif., and Shannon Pluhowsky of Kettering, Ohio, pulled away for victories Friday at the 2011 United States Bowling Congress Team USA Trials.

Boyle led the men’s field with a 36-game total of 8,180, an average of 227.2, while Pluhowsky shot 7,933, an average of 220.3, at Sunset Station’s Strike Zone Bowling Center in suburban Las Vegas.

There wasn’t much drama in either of the two left-handers victories. Boyle won by a 150-pin margin over Walter Ray Williams Jr. of Ocala, Fla., while Pluhowsky topped Liz Johnson of Cheektowaga, N.Y., by 103 pins.

“This means the world to me because everything I have ever worked for - all the hard work and practice - have finally paid off,” said the 19-year-old Boyle, who attends Modesto Community College. “I was able to get off to a good start today and just stayed mentally focused. This is surreal.”

Boyle lurked near the top of the standings all week but had trailed Mike Fagan of Patchogue, N.Y., who led each of the first three rounds. Boyle finally pulled into the lead by shooting 2,064 on the 38-foot Atlanta lane pattern Friday.

Pluhowsky, meanwhile, had the highest total in Friday’s final round, finishing with 2,019 to jump into the lead and take home the title.

“This week was really a chance for me to learn a lot about the new equipment I’m throwing and to get some practice on the patterns that we see throughout the year at Team USA events,” Pluhowsky said. “I felt like everything was pretty good physically, and every day I got a little better.”

The top three men and top three women in the final standings who were not already selected to be on Team USA earned automatic spots on the 2011 Team USA roster. Williams, Pluhowsky and Johnson all were selected in November, so they were not eligible for the automatic spots.

Joining Boyle on the men’s team was third-place finisher EJ Tackett of Huntington, Calif., and Fagan, who finished fourth. On the women’s side, Brenda Padilla of Mansfield, Texas, Brittnei Hamilton of Webster, N.Y., and Kim Yioulos of Rochester, N.Y., all earned the automatic spots by finishing third through fifth, respectively.

The National Selection Committee picked Diandra Asbaty of Chicago, Bryanna Caldwell of Tucson, Ariz., Jarret Mizo of Honolulu and Steve Smith of San Diego to round out the final roster for Team USA in 2011.

Heading into the Team USA Trials, 13 players had already secured spots by virtue of their selection in November. Williams, Chris Barnes, Wes Malott, Tommy Jones, Patrick Allen and Bill O’Neill make up the remainder of the men’s team. On the women’s side, Stefanie Nation, Shannon O’Keefe, Pluhowsky, Johnson, Kelly Kulick, Tennelle Milligan and Carolyn Dorin-Ballard were selected.

The top two boys and top two girls finishers who are 20 years or younger before Jan. 1, 2011 also earned automatic spots on Junior Team USA. Boyle, Tackett and Yioulos all earned spots on both Team USA and Junior Team USA. Elise Bolton of Merritt Island, Fla., took the second girls spot.

The National Selection Committee polished off the Junior Team USA 2011 roster by adding Tyler Herrman of Harrisburg, Pa., TJ Baral of Palm City, Fla., Samantha Kelly of Hoffman Estates, Ill., and Jessica Earnest of Vandalia, Ill., to the team.

At the USBC Junior Gold Championships in Indianapolis last July, 12 players earned spots on Junior Team USA. The boys group includes Marshall Kent, Matt Gasn, Chris Via, Jacob Kent, Kyle King and Andrew Koff, while the girls team includes Hamilton, Addileen Pointer, Kristie Petravich, Kaitlin Quinn, Danielle McEwan and Liz Seibel.

Members of Team USA and Junior Team USA will compete in international competitions through 2011, including the World Women’s Championships, Pan American Bowling Confederation Men’s Championships, the Pan American Games, QubicaAMF World Cup, PABCON Youth Championships and Tournament of Americas.

The members of the team also receive world-class coaching and use of the International Training and Research Center in Arlington, Texas. The top two finishers at the Team USA Trials also have the option to receive free health insurance from the United States Olympic Committee for 2011.

DEGROFF FINALLY WINS SO. CALIF. DEAF CLASSIC WITH 955

CERRITOS...Finally Ken DeGroff (Sunland) had done it but it took 5 years for him to win a prestigious deaf individual tournament in California. During his vagabond years before he settled in Southern California, DeGroff had traveled to other cities to participated in their deaf Classics or tournaments, he had won some of them, even bowled a honor score 300 or 800 in them.

For example, once while living here, Ken traveled out to Baton Rouge, LA to bowl in its prestigious deaf classic, rolled a 300 there and returned home with the title. Ken wanted to win the prestigious So. California Deaf Bowlers Classic not only because it is the longest running (48 years) deaf classic out West, just because it is the only deaf handicap tournament in US that allows entries of elite high average bowlers and even also PBA members who are deaf or hearing-impaired. Most other deaf classics and tournaments forbids entry of PBA members and limited high average deaf bowlers to 210 or 220 and less.

The 48th annual So. California Deaf Bowlers Classic held at AMF Cerritos Bowl last Saturday drew a large crowd but only 31 entries. The crowd included many bowlers who shied away from entering because of its entry rules or the big boys were too good for them in this handicap tournament.

In winning, Ken DeGroff (Sunland) got his name itched in the long list of this Classic winners when on the first squad he rolled games of 235-259-224-238 for 955. Ken received zero handicap because of his 237 average but after the 2nd and 3rd squad completed, his top 955 score stood for the $350.00 first place prize.

Robert Audette (Chino Hills), one of the several brave entrants who challenged thee elite bowlers was rewarded with 2nd prize $170.00 with his 789 plus 147 handicap (for his 174 average) for 936. (This writer regretted not having his game scores.) Third place $90.00 went to Dan Flores (Sunland) for his score of 211-241-227-214 plus 40 handicap 933 total.

Another brave entrant Bob Bergan (Whittier) had a 209 in his 761 plus 156 handicap for 917 for 4th place $75.00. Also another one Jeff Stansell (South Gate) had 915 (sorry no series and handicap totals) for 5th place $65.00. Francisco Navarro () had a good start with 246-212 but went down to finish with 792 plus 108 handicap for 900 good for 6th place $45.00. Seventh and last place $25.00 went to one of few women brave enough to enter for 10% more handicap than men, Faith Ranck () with her 635 plus 256 hdep for 891.

Both DeGroff and Ranck entered in the first squad and made repeat entry in the last squad and were fortunate to win the special men and women prizes of $25.00 each for early bird top handicap scores and also for late bird prizes for scratch scores. Although DeGroff carries zero handicap, his 955 is top handicap score and his last squad’s 899 (235-205-205-254) is the top scratch series. Ranck had top woman’s handicap 866 and top woman’s 635 scratch series.

The defending and 6-time champion, Carl Malucci, (Las Vegas) failed to hit a 900 in his two tries. That proved that he is human just like us as his best was 887 which included a 279 game that tool the men’s high game pot $36.00. Ed Abakumoff (Riverside) who helped ran the tournament and bowled too, hit a 268 for the men’s 2nd place pot $24.00 and DeGroff’s 259 took 3rd pot $12.00. Faith Ranck’s 181 was the women’s high game worth $10.00 and other brave women Celia Salcedo (Westminster) had 178 for 2nd high pot $5.00.

So. Calif. Deaf Bowlers hopes to have a bigger entry in their 49th annual Classic next year. Watch for its flyers in Fall for information of date and bowling center.
