Barnes Sixth Player in PBA History to Complete PBA's Triple Crown

LAS VEGAS — Chris Barnes of Double Oak, Texas, exorcised his television demons Sunday, upsetting top qualifier Bill O'Neill of Southampton, Pa., 267-237, to win the Professional Bowlers Association World Championship at South Point Bowling Center and become the sixth player in PBA history to complete the sport's Triple Crown.

Along with his 13th career title, the 40-year-old Barnes won a $50,000 first prize. He previously had won the 2005 U.S. Open and the 2006 PBA Tournament of Champions, the other two legs in the PBA Triple Crown. The only other Triple Crown winners are Billy Hardwick, Johnny Petraglia, Pete Weber, Mike Aulby and Norm Duke — all PBA Hall of Famers.

Barnes, the No. 4 qualifier, came into the PBA World Championship with a 7-14 record on television in major championships, but he won four consecutive matches for the title to improve his record to 11-14. He defeated Michael Haugen Jr. of Carefree, Ariz., in Saturday night's elimination round, 243-172, to reach Sunday's finals where he eliminated Finland's Osku Palermaa, 246-176, and Sean Rash of Montgomery, Ill., 237-161, for the chance to meet O'Neill for the title.

In the title match, Barnes started with six strikes to build a 31-pin lead after seven frames, but O'Neill refused to back down, finishing with a string of four strikes to force Barnes to mark in the 10th frame. Barnes' strike on his first shot in the clinched the title.

"I feel bad for Bill," Barnes said. "He was the best bowler in the PBA World Series to get here, but I've been in his shoes a few times and I'm not going to give the trophy back.

"There are a lot of guys who have won the PBA World Championship, but it's a short and distinguished list of guys who have won the Triple Crown," he added. "Right after I won, Billy Hardwick called my wife and told her to welcome me to the club."

"I'm not unhappy with my performance," O'Neill said. "I threw all but one shot on line. When I needed shots to make Chris show up in 10th, they were all good. That's something I've struggled with out here. I think it's a good sign of things to come."

The Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour immediately moved to Red Rock Lanes in northwest Las Vegas later Sunday for the opening qualifying round for the Champions Field in the $1 million PBA Tournament of Champions. Following a second qualifying round Monday morning, half of the Champions Field will join the elite field for the duration of the Tournament of Champions.

The richest tournament in PBA history concludes Saturday when a record $250,000 first prize will be decided live on ABC at 2:30 p.m. Eastern.

KULICK NAMED WORLD BOWLING WRITERS WOMEN'S BOWLER OF THE YEAR

ARLINGTON — After a year filled with major victories, Team USA's Kelly Kulick has been named the 2010 World Bowling Writers Women's Bowler of the Year.

The seven-time Team USA member became the first woman to win a Lumber Liquidators Professional Bowlers Association Tour title last January. She defeated Chris Barnes, 265-190, to win the Tournament of Champions.

"I'm thrilled by all the accolades I've received for last year's performances, and to be named the best bowler in the world is a tremendous accomplishment," Kulick said. "It's like 2010 hasn't ended yet for me. I'm constantly reminded of what I accomplished."

Kulick also won both women's bowling majors in 2010. She claimed the United States Bowling Congress Queens title in April and the U.S. Women's Open in May. She was the first woman to win both events in the same year.

In her only Team USA event in 2010, Kulick earned gold medals in doubles and team, a silver medal in all-events and bronze medals in singles and trios at the Pan American Bowling Confederation Women's Championships.

Kulick also traveled to Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, in March and won the women's division at the Malaysian International Open.

England's Dominic Barrett was named the World Bowling Writers Men's Bowler of the Year for the third consecutive year. He topped the 2010 European Bowling Tour rankings with three titles and 12 finishes in the top five. Barrett also won a bronze medal in singles at the World Tenpin Bowling Association World Men's Championships.

The World Bowling Writers also announced that two players were elected to its Hall of Fame. England's Kristen Penny and Finland's Mika Koivuniemi will be inducted later this year.

ENTRY DEADLINES EXTENDED FOR 2011 USBC WOMEN'S AND OPEN CHAMPIONSHIPS

ARLINGTON—Tournament season is right around the corner, and it's not too late to be part of the action at the 2011 United States Bowling Congress Women's and Open Championships.

The entry deadline for the USBC Women's Championships has been extended to March 1, while USBC Open Championships competitors now will have until March 4 to submit their entries.

The 2011 Open Championships will be the first to kick off this year as it begins its 122-day run March 4. Bowlers from all 50 states and several foreign countries will converge on the one-of-a-kind, 78-lane National Bowling Stadium in Reno, Nev., before the tournament concludes on July 3.

More than 12,000 five-player teams already are headed for "The Biggest Little City in the World," but there's still plenty of room available for bowlers interested in trying to earn a share of the $5 million prize fund.

This year, the Women's Championships will return to New York state for the first time since 1996 and settle into Syracuse's Oncenter Complex, where 48 specially-constructed lanes and custom-built, state-of-the-art scoreboards will await more than 30,000 bowlers. The event gets underway April 7 and will run for 88 days, also concluding on July 3.

The Women's Championships received a successful makeover in 2010 and now features three average-based divisions that use a 100-percent handicap format. Between the new look of the venue and the new format, the Women's Championships is a can't-miss opportunity for women of all ages and skill levels.

"We take great pride in our championship events, and we don't want anyone to miss out on the opportunity to compete on bowling's biggest stages," said Brian Lewis, USBC Managing Director of Tournaments.

NATIONAL DEAF BOWLING NEWS

by Connie Marchione

DEAF FRANK GALLO, JR BOWLS IN PBA TOURNAMENT OF CHAMPIONS AT LAS VEGAS

LAS VEGAS—This is the biggest week for Professional Bowlers Association with its first time ever one million dollars prize fund PBA Tournament of Champions running January 16 to 22 at Red Rock Hotel Bowling Center. At stake is the largest ever $250,000 for first place prize. Not only that, the finals is back televised on a major channel ABC on Saturday Jan. 22.

For first time in 51 years history of this Tournament of Champions, PBA opened entry to all former PBA Regional Champions and Women's Series Champions to enlarge the field. Also the entry fee was raised to a cool $1,000.

With the first place $250,000 prize tempting, many former regional champions paid their entry fees for their first time chance in this Tournament of Champions. So that made a record entry field starting off on Sunday January 16.

One deaf PBA bowler, Frank Gallo, Jr. due to winning his first PBA Regional tournament in 2008 after 36 years of trying, grabbed his chance of entering this T0C. The Jacksonville, FL right-hander is the first deaf bowler in history ever to bowl in this major tournament.

Good luck to Gallo as it will be a tough task for him to win as the oddmakers had him on long list of entrants at 600 to 1 chance of winning. If Gallo makes the finals or win, it will make a great story like Kelly Kulick did last year when she became the first woman to beat a male bowler in his major tournament.

YOMA'S 846 TOPS DEAF TRAVEL AT LINBROOK BOWL

ANAHEIM—It is two straight for Pablo Yoma as the leader of the pack in So. Calif. Deaf Traveling League's stop at Linbrook Bowling Center. Rolling games of 214-223-178-233, Yoma's 846 topped the day's honor roll of 7 bowlers. Great for him but an outrage because his teammates did not help him as his Lake Elsinore won measly 6 points and fell back in the cellar. Yoma worked for 5 of his team's 6 points.

The league average leader at 194, Gorman Low placed 2nd on the list with his 780 from 188-207-190-195. Bob Jones followed with 180-205-192-202 for 779 and Ed Abakumoff shot a 215 in his 763. Robert Audette hit a 744, Gardy Rodgers a 702 and Don Millwee after missing two sessions, started with a 205 and finished with 702.

League leader LA City retained its lead after battling with 3rd place Chino to a 10-10 tie. Second place S.F. Valley moved up closer to LA City with a 14 to 6 win over Yoma's Lake Elsinore. Fourth place Mid City closely edged out Riverside 11-9 by taking the team 4th game by one pin and team series by 3 pins.

The 51 years old traveling league thanks Linbrook's manager Stacy Rider and her staff for hosting. Next trip is to its popular house, Keystone Lanes on Sunday Jan. 23 at 1 PM.

WHEN WILL USBC RECOGNIZE GLENN ALLISON'S 900 AS THE FIRST ONE?

When this writer read that an Indiana man rolled an USBC approved 19th 900 series, his stomach turns over. Because in that man's 900 like the 18 other before him, USBC or ABC before that did not check the pair of lanes to find out if it was fixed or blocked so the ball finds its way to make strikes.

In the first historic rejected 900 before all of these 19, Glenn Allison happened to have the natural talent and ability to be consistent in rolling the ball in the pocket 36 times. The next day ABC sent a man to check the two lanes and rejected Allison's feat because the lanes were fixed. Oh Man, if it was fixed, why didn't others bowling with Allison on the same pair also get lots of strikes like him and made record scores.

Come on, it's time that USBC apologize to Allison and put his 900 as the first one.

Editors Note: The Bowling News agrees with Connie, when it comes to a 900 series... Glenn is 1st in our hearts.. and always will be...

Kmel Cunanan 3rd ABTA Championship at West Covina
8 Bowlers share Match Game of $1,635
Match Series estimate of $2,000 next week • Match Game estimate of $3,000
ABTA Returns to South Point for our LAS VEGAS Open this Weekend Jan 20-23
3-6-9 is $2,700 at South Point / Onsite Entrants welcome Join US!!

WEST COVINA—In our return to West Covina Lanes, we had a very nice turnout of 272 entries this week. Cut scores were good at a +49 for the men and +34 for the women. This week, our three Super Seniors added to the board for the men were Ely Cruz (+45) and Roger Romero (+42) and Mila Fermin (+9) for the women. That would give us 68 bowlers making it to the semi-finals this week.

For all qualifying squads our top qualifier for the Men was Dino Cantoria with a +137, and for the women it was Jeannette Chang with a +85. Each will get paid entries into a future regular ABTA event. Each week our top seed overall draws the Match Series, and this week it was worth $876. The top seed drew a 520 but we had no one that bowled that score. Next week at South Point Hotel and Casino we will estimate the Match Series at $2,000. For the 3-6-9 qualifying this week, we had two people Michael Hudson, and George Parker who missed on the last shot so no one would go for the $2,600, they would both share the $50 consolation. We will add another $100 at South Point Hotel and Casino for total of $2,700.

In the doubles this week, we had 189 groups get into the doubles, with 20 spots paid out. The top prize this week went to Holden Au and Cheng Tse along with Holden Au and Billy Chao with 1416 for $190. The low to cash was 1345, we paid out $1890 in doubles.

In the semis this week we saw Alvin Francisco lead the semis from start to finish with a +146 to sit out and bowl for the title. Keith Nahan came in second at +142 and would sit out the first round. It took a +59 for the men and a +13 for the women to make the top 16.

This week, our top seed in semi-finals had the honor of drawing the match game worth $1,635 and he drew a 156. After a review of all the scores bowled, there were eight people who matched the score. They were George Parker, Minh Dang, Ben Hurtado, Dana LeCount, Daniel Cha, Fred Galvan, Freddie Catamisan, Roland Suase. They will each get $204. We will estimate the pot to be $3,000 at South Point Hotel and Casino. This week we had seven new bowlers join us. Let us welcome these new bowlers to the club, Michelle Lee, Mila Fermin, Ernestine Fermin, Gerardo Leyva, Les Lawless, Johnny Tsang, David M. Jones, Rose Jones. We forgot to mention last week that D. A. Wright of WCST Fame also re-joined us at Oak Tree. Great to have these fine people with us.

This would bring us to our Match Play finals now. In the first round the seven losers were Talia St. Angelo, Emilio Flores, Don Quitangon, Freddie Manansala, Mary Huynh, Alejandro Antazo, Allan Basto. They would receive checks of $105 each. In the second round, losers were Billy Chao, Sonia Coronado, Arnold Trias, Keith Nahan and each would get checks of $115. This would get us down to the final four bowlers. At this point, our horses would be paying anywhere from a low of $52 (Kmel Cunanan) to a high of $100 (Nghiem Tran) depending on who would win. In this round we saw Nghiem Tran (10th seed) bowling Marvin Crowder (11th seed). In this match, Marvin would get the better of Nghiem with a 257 to 216 finish. In the other match we saw Kmel Cunanan (5th seed) bowling Jhun Tan (12th seed). In this match, Kmel would get the better of Jhun with a 241 to 213 finish. Jhun and Nghiem finished in 4th and 5th getting checks for $125 each. Our semi-final match was set to be bowled on 9 and 10; we had our 5th and 11th seeds into the top 16 bowling each other. In our horses this week we would see Marvin paying $78 and Kmel paying $52 if they win their match. In this match, Kmel would start off hot with three strikes out of the first four frames, and see Marvin stay clean, giving Kmel a 25 pin lead after 4 frames. Both bowlers would continue to stay clean through the 6th frame, but in the seventh frame Kmel would miss a 10 pin to cut the lead to 5 pins. Kmel would finish with a strike and spare in the 10th frame and bring Marvin up with a strike in the 9th and needing a strike to give him a chance. He would lose his balance on the shot and leave the 6-10 giving Kmel the victory with a 207/233 to 194/216. For those lucky "investors" that had Kmel as a horse, he paid $52. Marvin finished 3rd and received $210.

The title game is set and bowled on lanes 7 and 8 this week. Alvin being the top seed elected to start the match first. Alvin would start out with a strike.

Kmel would come up with strikes in the first and second frames. Alvin would get a strike in the 2nd frame but in the third frame he would leave the 3-6 and only get the 3 pin. Kmel would get a spare and strike in the 3rd and 4th frames. After the 4th frame, Kmel would only lead by 7 pins. It continued this way to the 6th frame, where we see both bowlers get strikes in the 6th and 7th frames. But Kmel would get his turkey while Alvin would not, and that would allow Kmel to win his 3rd championship. He would finish with a 237/263 to 190/221. Kmel would take home $1100 for the win and an additional $1,700 in Cash and Carry giving him $2,700. Alvin finished in 2nd for $550.

Champion Kmel Cunanan is from Anaheim and used a Track drilled by Mike Wahl. He is married to Mia with two children Adrian and A.C.. He would like to thank Allan Basto, Tres Catalasan, Danny Eguilos, and Timbog team.

Alvin Francisco (2nd Place) is from Long Beach and used an Storm Invasion drilled by Josh. He is single. He would like to thank Annaliza Agoncillo, Arnold Trias, and Leo Silva for their support.

WINNETKA — It certainly felt like we weren't going to see the sun with the cold temperatures that were hanging around. But guess what? The sun came out and also brought with it summer-like temperatures. Can't complain because it certainly has been nice to see people in their shorts and tank tops and everyone seems to be happier while taking their walks. Can we keep this for a while, until it gets hot and people will wish it goes away?

We have great scores to report from the bowlers here at Canoga Park Bowl, so let's ger right to them.

THE OFFICIAL SOFT DRINK OF BOWLING

Zavala's Taquerias Leads with 13 while Linder Insurance is at 12

by Aimee Gomez

DOWNEY—Zavala's Taquerias showed why they are on the top of the leader board, by taking four from Team Storm. Greg Neuer led the way this week, with his 212-278/672 effort, and got a hand from Jeff Garrison 223-205/610. Ramon Torres of Storm was the only one to get to six on the nose, using 239-205/600. Storm now has 10 wins.

Linder Insurance had a nice night as Gary Duran 201-200-243/644 helped his team take four from Herzog Insurance's Danielle Schilling 242/601. Herzog has 9 wins.

Bowlers Depot took four from Sysco thanks to Jeff Carr 201-269/668, Steve Gurrieri 255-202/639 and Raul Rosales 217-259/623 while Sysco's Paul Barraco was the only one over six for his team, shooting 231-252/678. Bowlers Depot has 10 wins while Sysco has 7.

Katie Jakes Bar and Grill's Jon Brandon 220-247/629 and Kevin Valmonte 213-214/605 took four from the struggling Clyde's Video Games team. Katie Jakes has 9 wins.

Larry Campbell of the Junior Amateur Tour team shot 200-256/632 to lead his team to a sweep over Tifco, who had a tough night. JAT has 10 wins.

Brylaw Accounting used Charles Zelaya 265-219/671 and Billy Myers Jr. 201-200-244/645 to take four from ABTA's Carl Labayan 208-237/630. Brylaw has 8 wins.

Bowlum rode Arnold Cheesman's 234-200-227/661 to four wins over Threadworks. Bowlum has 6 wins.

Getting their first sweep of the season was Key Container, who got all five from Pro Approach. Brandon Grant led his Key Container team to the sweep with his 209-211/610. Key Container has 7 wins.

Take care and see you all soon.

DOWNEY — The return to Del Rio was just what the doctor ordered to perk up the weekly scoring report. Doris Lewis topped the honor roll with 214-585, followed by Margo McClain 211-575, Cil Moons 210-564, Karen Mauricio 222-561, Ana Fukuchi 556, Vi Wilson 214-551, Hedy Schoner 202-535, Joy Bennett 532, Cyndie Martin 206-517, Roberta McNaught 515, Jerry Whitehurst, Linda Kinney and Myrt Owens had 501 clusters.

Del Rio’s Carol Mancini dropped by to say hello and Mary Meglemre also was a visitor, as was regular Charlie, Bernice Williams’ husband and the league’s annual Santa Claus.

Mondays action next week is Position Round and features, Fountain Bowl at 42 wins, Cal Bowl #1, 37; Bowling News 37; Keystone #1, 34; Keystone #2, 33.2; Cerritos 29; Cal #2, 28; Del Rio 24.2; Valley View #2, 22; Fountain Bowl #1, 21; Linbrook 22 and Valley View #1, 18.

NEXT WEEK: Monday 10 a.m. January 24 Cerritos Lanes.

There are still prime spots available for 2011. For more information, visit BOWL.com/tournaments or call the tournament entries department at 800-514-2695.

OC BVL Tourney Coming to Upscale 300
Anaheim Center

by B.A. Campbell
ANAHEIM—The Orange County USBC (OC USBC) has arranged for their annual Bowlers to Veterans Link (BVL) Tournament fundraiser to be held on the newest lanes in the OC, at 300 Anaheim in the GardenWalk shopping center (near Disneyland) on January 22 and 23, 2011. A surprise to this reporter was the discovery that 300 Anaheim is a USBC-certified house, which gives competitive bowlers extra incentive to enter the event! OC USBC winners in each division can qualify to represent “the OC” in the State BVL Tournament held later this year. Bring your USBC card; non-OC bowlers can get an affiliate membership at the tournament. Entry fee is $20 per person, re-entries are $15, and optional prize fund fee is $5. Squads are at 1 p.m. and 4 p.m. both days; check-in starts at noon and 3 p.m., respectively. The handicap is 90% of 220, and the prize fund is returned 100%, at 1 place for every 10 entries. Entry forms are available at ocusbc.org or at many local bowling centers. Every entry yields a $10 donation to BVL.

The BVL was founded in 1942 and started raising funds during WWII to purchase med-evac planes to get wounded soldiers home from the European war theater. BVL currently supports veterans recuperating in nearly 500 veteran-related facilities, including vet centers, State veterans homes and VA medical facilities through grants for arts & crafts programs, music and sports activities, reading materials, board games and much more. BVL works alongside the VA to run one of the longest running mail-in bowling tournaments for veterans, and sponsors national veterans events. BVL continues to support active-duty personnel through the shipping of portable carpet bowling lane kits (over 500 to date) to troops in Iraq, Afghanistan and other stations worldwide. 88% of funds raised by BVL go directly to programs and services for veterans. For more info, go to bowlforveterans.org.

300 Anaheim is at 321 W. Katella Ave., Anaheim, CA; Phone 714-783-2810. People bowling in the tourney will be able to get their parking validated for the shopping center garage; details at the event. For queries about the OC BVL tourney, call OC USBC at 714-554-0111.

Leoj Chin, who is 8 years old, shot a 579 series shooting 223, 160, 196 at Bowlum Lanes. Leoj Chin shows bowlers that big things come in little packages. Leoj is a two handed bowler who bowls in Bowlum’s Junior Match Point League with kids much older than himself. His scores erase all doubts and he proves that he can bowl with the best of them. He has enjoyed bowling from the age of 5 1/2.

Chris Sanchez, the owner of Dreamer’s Bowling Supply & Pro Shop, has been his coach and feels that with Leoj’s skills, he is the little man to beat. Leoj enjoys watching and mimicking pro bowlers and by his scores, it is paying off. Leoj has been a two time champion competing against other junior bowlers ranging in ages from 6-20 years old. He never shows any fear or the slightest hint that he is going to back down. He has also been in the Top 5 Step Ladder final as the number seed twice only loosing to two other outstanding champions, Nick Howe (14) and Matthew Rivas (15). Written by: Chris Sanchez
