Inland Empire NABI Champion Kenneth Bonnett

MORENO VALLEY—We want to thank all the bowlers for attending this past Saturday. Our champion, Kenneth Bonnett, is a young man, definitely here to contend with!

He began bowling about 7 years ago & bowls in the Sunday Vegas Winners League at Riverside Lanes. He won with his Storm Paradigan, drilled by Jack Cornelison, at the Riverside Lanes Pro Shop.

He is a student at RCC, majoring in Business. In his spare time, besides bowling, he enjoys working out at the gym, playing basketball & check this out!

He likes to work on his car & his friend's cars. What a good friend is that! His highest game bowled was a 289 at the old, Tava Lanes, which he tied with at this tournament. His highest series was 713 scratch. Kenneth won $200, along with a champion shirt & an entry into the Tournament of Champions, held this July, 2008 at the Orleans (Las Vegas). EVERYONE!

USBC Board Votes to Pursue Moving Headquarters to Texas

ARLINGTON, TX—The United States Bowling Congress Board of Directors has given approval to start negotiations with all parties involved to relocate the organization's headquarters to Arlington, Texas.

The decision, made Sunday during the Board's meeting in Myrtle Beach, S.C., is contingent on negotiations for buildings and land near the Bowling Proprietors' Association of America complex along with any incentives offered by the City of Arlington and State of Texas. The BPAA Board of Directors also must approve the plan which it is scheduled to do at a meeting Wednesday during the BPAA Mid-Winter Meetings in Myrtle Beach.

"After carefully considering the facts, including taking into account the long history of USBC and its predecessors in the Milwaukee area, the Board came to the conclusion that it was in USBC's best business interests to join with BPAA in continued on page 9

Scroggins' Smart Ball Reads Winning Lanes

by Frank Kietz

FOUNTAIN VALLEY — Southern California bowlers enjoyed themselves last week playing host/watching the $150,630 PBA Motel 6, Denny's Dick Weber Open at Fountain Bowl. On ESPN viewing two Texans and two New Yorkers lose the $25,000 title to the lone Missouri leftie, Mike Scroggins.

More than 70 Californians (pro and amateur men and women) were among the 166 field at $500 a pop competed at the 60-lane center. The field started with Monday's practice and finished Sunday on ESPN-TV as Scroggins bumped-off four challengers.

It was a packed house. Owners Dave Osborn and Gary Forman, their staff, Ambassadors and volunteers managed a great pro-am, and professional tournament.

It was Scroggins' show, thrilling to watch him execute each shot stomping his foes.

Texan Pete Weber, Dick's son, started and finished with splits filled the other frames with chops and unusual leaves while the champ turked for a 204-197 victory.

Tom Delutz, NY, tapped a 4 then a 7-count, missed baby worth 244 pins while Scroggins revealed his smart ball with a 7-bagger filled 269 game.

Jack Jurek, NY, show tossed the event's one perfecto posted eight spares for a 199 game. Mike got another 7-bagger and a 254 game.

Chris Barnes, TX, the current PBA big money winner tapped a 4, recovered with a double than a sad bucket, a 4-6 split the clothes line 10 split and capped the 171 game with a 4-6-7-9 split. Mike coasted with a 226 game.

The right side for the righties was plagued with chops and splits while Scroggins seemed to have control. He said, "I just didn't worry. I played what I got". He seemed to know the traps, puddles and knew the lanes were not made up of boards — just solid sheet of synthetic. continued on page 6

Four for Four

Mike Scroggins captured his 4th career Denny's PBA Tour title Sunday

FOUNTAIN VALLEY — Mike Scroggins came into Sunday's final round of the Motel 6 Dick Weber Open two losses away from tying a PBA record for the longest losing streak in televised matches. Now he's on a four-game winning streak.

Scroggins broke an eight-match television losing streak and became the first No. 5 seed since Tommy Jones in 2005 to win a stepladder final on the Denny's PBA Tour, knocking off top-seed Chris Barnes, 226-171, to win his fourth career title at Fountain Bowl.

Just as Wes Malott did as the lone right-hander in last week's Lumber Liquidators Earl Anthony Medford Classic final round against three lefties, the lone lefty Scroggins let the four right-handers in the finals burn up the lanes while he put up high score after high score. After a close game against Pete Weber in the opening match, Scroggins dominated his next three opponents.

In the title match, Barnes was doomed by a 4-6 split and an open in the sixth frame followed by a 1-2-4-10 washout and open in the seventh. Scroggins wrapped up the match with strikes in the eighth and ninth frames.

After the match, Scroggins was brought tears when talking about what it meant to him to win the tournament named in honor of the late Dick Weber. He recalled the time Weber gave him a hand-clipped newspaper article soon after Scroggins won the 2004 Baby Ruth Real Deal Classic.

"He was such a great guy and for a legend to come up after a tournament and give me press clippings that he actually cut out, I'll never forget that," Scroggins (Amarillo, Texas) said. "He said, 'Mike, put these away and always remember how you felt that day.' He was a special guy and I'll never forget him."

Scroggins was anything but the sentimental favorite going into the finals, facing the unenviable task of going up against Pete Weber, who was making the finals for the first time in the three years the event has been held in honor of his father, who passed away in February 2005. Weber took control of the match after overcoming an early deficit by striking in the seventh, eighth and ninth frames. Needing a strike in the 10th to win, Weber left the 4-9 split which opened the door for Scroggins. Weber picked up the split and struck to force Scroggins to double and Scroggins calmly struck twice to advance.

"I knew bowling Pete was going to be a tough match because the lanes started out so difficult and I knew whoever survived that match would probably go a long way," Scroggins said of his lowest-scoring of the four matches. "On my side, the lanes definitely got better and I was fortunate to double in the 10th to beat Pete. After that just I relaxed."

"Whenever your opponents give you an opening it gives you a boost and fortunately I took advantage of it."

Scroggins was given an opening in all four of his matches and he more than took advantage. continued on page 9

David Becomes Goliath!

SAN DIEGO—Kearny Mesa Bowl was the host center last weekend for the NABI tournament, & David Santos won his first championship. David was the #5 seed, so his climb up the ladder was going to be a challenge! However, with his “coach” encouraging him, he easily overcame any pressures, and was the only bowler in the top five to bowl over his average!

“Coach” Jim Hall has become an accomplished “off hand” bowler & has helped several bowlers improve their competition skills! (Over 205 average bowlers take note!)

This was our first official tournament of 2008, so focus on NABI Week this July has begun. David is now eligible for the Tournament of Champions during NABI Week, & can look forward to receiving his invitation this spring. The other stepladder participants were Tom Brophy, Bert Chadwick, Tim Knight & Tom Cooper.

Guaranteed $50 sidepots each qualifying game went to Jim Nunnally, Riz Lejarde (1/2), Scott Duncan (1/2), Mike Tangonan, Carl Henson, Phil Horn, Jeff Greer, Cooper (2) & Brophy.

In Perpetual Pot action, James Whiteley, Greer & Tangonan shared the 3-6-9, while Santos hit the 10th frame strike out pot that had grown to $400!

Our next tournament is February 2nd at Parkway Bowl. Check for the details about the tournament next week in the Bowling News ad, & plan to join us on the 2nd ... we'll save a cookie (+ some Valentine's Day goodies) for you!

GARDEN GROVE—The Vegas league returned to Valley View Monday and super sub Teri

Bandini® by Mancini

Editor's Note: First — Thank You Fountain Bowl for bringing the Pros (and great local bowlers) together to test their talents. With so much "Hype" about Super Bowl playoffs — bowling hardly gets a mention. 99% of bowlers are pure amateurs, who compete for their own amusement. The one % who takes our game seriously — practices, purchases the latest equipment and sticks their necks out to compete with the Pros once a year.

While watching the "Show" last Sunday from Fountain Bowl the following came to mind:

1. I'm sick of Ham-Bone already!
2. Who were the cashers? Why didn't they run the list? Any local guys make some money?
3. Why weren't the sponsors & proprietors of Fountain introduced?
4. Why wasn't the press invited to any of the week-long activities?
5. Is Frank Kietz (now 92) getting enough to eat?
6. Does the L.A. Times still have a sports section?
7. Did any of the local T.V. stations know the Pros were in town?

Maybe Fountain Bowl will send us a list of the Pro-Am winners and the P.B.A. cashers. Check next weeks paper.

Double thanks to our man Frank Kietz for using his legendary nose for news and coming up with the answers to some of my questions.

Special Event Brings Bowling Back To Network Television

GREENDALE, Wis. - For the first time in nearly a decade, the sport of bowling will return to network television when Bowling's Clash of Champions, a United States Bowling Congress event, airs on CBS Sports in May.

The special made-for-television event, presented in cooperation with Strike Ten Entertainment, will take place May 7-8 at the USBC Convention in Kansas City, Mo., and will feature 16 champions from USBC events as well as the U.S. Open. The "Clash" will be taped and is scheduled for broadcast on CBS Sports on Saturday, May 10 from 5-6 p.m. Eastern and Sunday, May 11 from 4-5 p.m. Eastern.

The event will mark the first time bowling has been broadcast on network television since June 26, 1999, when the Professional Bowlers Association's ACDelco All-Star Classic aired on CBS Sports.

"The USBC is proud to bring exciting, high-stakes bowling competition back to network television," USBC Chief Operating Officer Kevin Dornberger said. "Bowling is America's favorite lifetime sport, and on these shows champions from youth players to professional bowling's greatest stars will be battling in a unique setting with a compelling format that no one who has ever bowled can miss."

"We are pleased to welcome the sport of bowling back to network television," said Rob Correa, Senior Vice President, Programming, CBS Sports. "Our viewers will enjoy the exciting format, featuring competitors of all ages."

Four lanes will be constructed on the floor of the Kansas City Municipal Auditorium to host the competition. The USBC Convention stage will be built on top of the pinsetters inside the 10,000-seat arena.

Bowling's Clash of Champions will feature eight men and eight women ranging from teenagers to seniors who won their respective events during the 2007 calendar year. The players will battle for a $50,000 first-place prize and $100,000 overall prize pool.

The men's field will showcase USBC Masters champion Sean Rash, U.S. Open winner Pete Weber, USBC Open Championships Regular All-Events titlist Mike Rose Jr., USBC Senior Masters winner Tom Baker, U.S. Amateur champion David O'Sullivan, U.S. Junior Amateur champion Adam Martinez, USBC Youth Open all-events titlist Jason Price and USBC Intercollegiate Singles Championships winner Tim Pfeifer.

Competing in the women's field is USBC Queens champion Kelly Kulick, U.S. Women's Open winner Liz Johnson, USBC Women's Championships Classic All-Events titlist Wendy Macpherson, USBC Senior Queens winner Lucy Sadelin, U.S. Amateur champion Lynda Barnes, U.S. Junior Amateur champion Jenny Brown, USBC Youth Open all-events titlist Brittni Hamilton and USBC Intercollegiate Singles Championships winner Elysia Current.

The players will start competition with an eight-game seeding round at a local bowling center in the Kansas City area on May 7. The following day, the players will take part in a shootout format at the Municipal Auditorium to shrink the field from 16 to four (two men and two women) on the first telecast. The final round, which follows the shootout, will feature semifinal matches with the remaining man and woman facing off for the title.

The USBC Convention brings the business and sport of bowling together. Industry leaders and stars of the game mingle with representatives from state and local associations and members from across the country in the true spirit of information sharing and determining the sport's future. Approximately 2,000 people are expected to attend the 2008 USBC Convention.

For more information on Bowling's Clash of Champions, visit the event's web page on bowl.com.

by A. A. Turtle

Hope the New Year is being great to everybody and that your bowling scores are all going up. We have lots of tournaments planned for the New Year and hope to see everybody participating in them.

You, the bowlers are the ones asking for these, so we are putting them on. The next one coming up is this Sunday January 27, 2008 for all certified bowlers that are 55 years and older. It is our Annual Seniors Singles Invitational. You don't have to be a San Gabriel Valley member you just need to be a certified USBC card holder. The tournament will be held at AMF Bowling Square in Arcadia. Cost is $20.00 per bowler. Check-in at Noon and bowl at 1:00 p.m.

The next event will be our "Bowl for the Cure" tournament on February 10, 2008 at BRC Covina Lanes. Watch for flyers.

Then we have our final event, for the BVL, on Sunday February 17, 2008. It will be the awards luncheon at 2p.m. Held at BRC West Covina Lanes, cost is $20.00 per person. The meal will be a chicken dinner. Everybody is welcome to attend. We are only $500.00 away from hitting our goal of $10,000.00. We hope you can come and help us meet this goal.

Entries for the San Gabriel Valley Championship Tournaments (Men, Women and Youth) will be closing on February 1, 2008. So get your entries in. There are no onsite sign-ups. Flyers are at all the bowling centers. Stop by the office or go to our web site and download your entries. There will be two weekends. The first weekend will be February 23 & 24 with Team event on Saturday and Singles/Doubles on Sunday. The next weekend will be March 1 & 2 with Singles/Doubles on Saturday and Team on Sunday. This is for those of you that can not bowl on Saturday will still be able to participate in all 3 events by bowling on the two Sundays. This was a request by you the bowlers from last year. Please come out and support your local association in this tournament. REMEMBER, THE MORE ENTERIES THE BETTER THE PRIZE FUND WILL BE. The next event will be March 8 & 9, 2008, the Singles "Scratch/Handicap" Tournament. Once again this will involve everybody, Men, Women and Youth. The adult side will have a scratch event for those with high averages and a handicap event for the lower average bowlers. The Youth will have 3 divisions, all scratch. This will replace your scratch tournament we used to have during our local championship tournament on Saturday nights. These events are open to all bowlers that have a USBC certified card. Bowl on Saturday as your qualifying and Sunday will be the roll offs.

National Deaf Bowling News

by Connie Marchione

Malucci Wins 3rd Straight Deaf Bowlers Classic with 932 at Linbrook

ANAHEIM—The 45th annual So. Calif. Deaf Bowlers Classic held at Linbrook Bowling Center had succeeded its largest entry with 50 since 1998. For the past 10 years the entries were under 50 because the deaf bowlers avoided or boycotted this handicap tournament because its rules allowed hot shot and PBA deaf bowlers to compete. Last year's Classic at Keystone Lanes was its worst with 31 entries.

Last Saturday the So Calif. Deaf Bowlers officers were gratified when a surprising large 28 entrants started to bowl on the 4 PM squad.

That came after two squads of just 11 entrants each on the 12:30 and 2:15 squads. The bowlers entered in spite of the re-entries of deaf hot shots, Carl Malucci and Ken DeGroff and two former PBA bowlers Mark Fisser and Darrell Stogryn, who bowled on two squads.

The defending champion Malucci who won the last two Classics succeeded for 3rd straight time with games of 240-269-203-220 for a 932 total with zero handicap made on the 2:15 squad. His 932 was his lowest winning score edging Mike Moore's 929 total bowled on the 12:30 squad. Moore, a former champion who was re-rated to 190 average for winning the Donkee tournament last year, had games of 187-258-211-177 plus 96 handicap. Malucci got the $500 first place prize and More $250.00 for 2nd. Miire also got $25.00 for his Early Bird high men;s handicap score.

Third place went to the three time champion Fisser who also bowled with zero handicap on the 4 PM squad scoring 216-227-236-223 for 902 total. Fisser re-entered after a good 859 total on the 2:15 squad.

Fisser received $125.00 for 3rd plus the $25.00 Late Bird men's high scratch score.

For the first time 4 women placed in the next 5 places with Jennifer Vasquez taking 4th place by bowling over her average in each of her 4 games for 538 plus 340 hdep for 878 total good for $70.00.

Fifth place went to a male bowler a former champion Gorman Low with his 723 plus 152 hdep 875 total for $60.00.

The remaining 3 women took next 3, with 6th place $50.00 going to Denise Burrows who bowled over her average in three games after doing badly in first game for 529 plus 340 hdep 869 total. The 7th place was tied by Nicole Elgrably and Faith Rancic with same score 857 and each got $35.00.

Elgrably's 857 bowled on the 12:30 squad also got her the Early Bird Women's handicap $25.00 prize and she also collected $14.00 for her 230 high women's game.

The men Frank Sotelo took 9th place $25.00 with his 856 and Phil Sanchez 10th and last place $23.00 with his 854. Stella Lopez got the women's Late Bird high scratch total with her 579.

As usual there was a large crowd meddling and watching. When Malucci, the deafdom's most 300 game shooter, re-entered on the 4 PM squad, he was not doing well on first three game. In his fourth he caught fire and thrilled the crowd and other bowlers with 10 strikes in row but on his 11th he left one pin standing and spared for a 289 and 896 total. The games got him the $50.00 high men's game prize.

So. Calif. Deaf Bowlers thanks John Haveles and Stacv Rider for hosting the Classic and for the extra lanes for the 4 PM overflow entries. Thanks to Ed, Sharon, Paul and my wife Dorothy for their wonderful assistance in handling the tournament. Most of all, thanks to all bowlers for making it a success.

Johnson, Bohr Surge Into Lead at Team USA Trials

HENDERSON, Nev. - Hall of Famer Tish Johnson of Colorado Springs, Colo., put her experience to the test Wednesday at the 2008 United States Bowling Congress Team USA Trials, firing a 300 game to roll into the lead in the women's division.

Johnson, who used a different ball on each lane during the perfect game, fired 2,171 for nine games in Round 2, an average of 241 per game, to take the overall lead with 3,942 at Sunset Station's Strike Zone Bowling Center. Former Denny's PBA Tour exempt player Nathan Bohr of Wichita, Kan., had a Round 2 total of 2,332, an average of 259, and leads the men with 4,157.

Johnson, who is joined in the field by fellow USBC Hall of Famers Anne Marie Duggan and Dana Miller-Mackie, rebounded after opening the tournament with a disappointing 1,771. She's ahead of first-round leader Stefanie Nation of Orlando, Fla., by 122 pins.

"The experience is a factor because I know how to adjust faster than some of the younger players," Johnson said. "I tried to help some of them today while we were bowling. I explained you have to watch the ball, the way it's breaking and have to pay attention to the lane. A lot of the new kids are still learning how to make those adjustments."

A 25-time winner on the Professional Women's Bowling Association Tour, Johnson, 45, has always dreamed of becoming a member of Team USA. As a professional bowler much of her career, she was never eligible to join Team USA until a rule change in August allowed her to take a shot.

"To represent your country in anything you do is pretty awesome as far as I'm concerned," Johnson said. "The people who are on Team USA are the best at that given time, and I feel I'm just as good as anyone."

On the men's side, Bohr racked up a 108-pin lead on Cassidy Schaub of Polk, Ohio. Bohr, who was an exempt player on the Denny's PBA Tour during the 2005-06 season and is the PBA Southwest Region points leader with one event remaining, is looking to join Team USA for the first time in his career after being a member of Junior Team USA from 2000-02.

"I had a feeling that this was probably going to be my favorite pattern because of the way I like to see the lane," Bohr said of Wednesday's Short lane condition. "I was able to just be me today and do what I was good at. I was probably further right than almost everybody I bowled with and the spot I was looking at never broke down."

Johnson and Bohr both earned $500 prizes for being squad leaders while Amanda Burgoyne of Newport, Minn., and Del Ballard Jr. of North Richland Hills, Texas, each pocketed $250 for second place. Burgoyne totaled 2,004 while Ballard closed the day with a 299 game for 2,158.

Competition continues Thursday with the third of four nine-game blocks. After 36 games, the top two men and top two women will automatically earn spots on Team USA. An additional two men and two women from the remaining field will be selected to join the team.

JUNIOR AMATEUR TOUR

News & Notes

by David Yamauchi
Mark French Calls It A Career

Very special congratulations to JAT All-Star Mark French on the end of his junior career. Mark started in the Farm Club in 1997 and bowled 10 seasons of JAT Farm Club and Open Division capturing a record 21 Open Division titles. Mark also shattered the JAT scoring records with his 1360 (272.0 average) 5-game qualifying score and his 1617 (269.5 average) 6-game qualifying score. Mark was also the first JAT bowler to shoot 2 800 series in a JAT event- shooting them back-to-back in his record-setting qualifying set. He currently holds the USBC National record for 800 series by a junior and was a former member of TeamUSA. Mark bowled his first National PBA event this week and cashed down at Fountain. My personal best wishes to Mark as he starts his adult career after being a great example of what the JAT is all about.

JAT Alumni Represent At Fountain
Did you know that over 10% of the qualifying field at the Dick Weber Open last week were JAT Alumni? Congratulations to Alum Jon Brandon on making the Match Play field of the top-24 and finishing in 13th place. Nice bowling Jon!

Kraye Is Perfect To Take The Title

Sayles Is Perfect, French Rings A Seven
Congratulations to Eddie Sayles on his perfect 300 game at Moreno Valley. Congrats also go out to Mark French who strung the front-11 and rang a wicked 7-pin for 299. Nice bowling both of you!

Our Next Event
Our next event will be this Sunday, January 27th at Palos Verdes Bowl in Torrance. Check in at 8:30 and bowl at 9:00. There will be brackets for both Farm Club and Open Division and the $142 in the Clean 50 carried over again. You can watch tournament highlights at www.youtube.com and searching for “Junior Amateur Tour” and of course check out our website at www.bowljat.org for up to the date information. Hope to see you all on the lanes this Sunday!

Black, Low, Fraijo & Kraye Earn JST Titles at Del Rosa Lanes

SAN BERNARDINO—Sunday January 20th found JST at Del Rosa Lanes for their first tournament of 2008. I must say it was a great day. To walk into a bowl that is ready for the tournament bowlers was a magnificent feeling, and it didn’t stop there, the whole staff was smiling all the time and very helpful when ever you needed something. The center is under new ownership and you can tell that the new owners and management have brought their passion for the game to the operation of the center. I commend Ms Nicole Ellison the new owner and the management and staff lead by Dave Wodka, If was a pleasure to come to Del Rosa Lanes and I hope you will invite us back. To top it off the bowling was good also. I must thank our great sponsors for all the support and help they give us. Our membership raffle sponsored by Roto Grip was won by Jordan Davis in the Novice division she won a mid to entry level ball of her choice Congratulations Jordan.

The novice division bowled well, but Sasha Black bowled very strong to secure her 2nd win of the season. Adam Dubia led the group into match play with a 930 series and an individual high game of 212 let Adam gain the high gm points and high series points, a good days work. Sasha took over in match play winning all three of her matches bring her to the number 1 seed. In the first match Adam rolled a nice 172 to def Vincent Nolan, but Sasha was ready rolling a solid 200 to bests Adam’s 180.

The intermediate div only went total pins not having enough bowlers for a cut to match play. Wesley Low won the intermediate averaging a solid 190 for the 5 games allowing him to win the point for high series. But Randy Mathis took the points for high game with a nice 223 game.

Advance division was a solid field of 20 plus bowlers. Brett Huntoon led the field into match play with a high series of 1044 for the points, he also secured the high game points with a 279 game way to go Brett. In match play a couple of the girls decided it was time they were heard from with Jaime Ferry jumping into the #1 spot, Christina Fraijo crushing them and moving into the # 2 spot, Brett drop to 3rd seed and Glenn Gimeno grip the last spot. In the first match Bret had run out of lane and Glenn rolled a 224 vs Bretts 171, Glenn moving on to meet Christina who was still on kill rolling a 215 to def Glenns 187. It was now time for the battle of the ladies Christina up against Jaime Ferry. Christina stayed solid winning with a 216 to Jaime’s 188.

Open division Shane Peck lead the field into match play rolling high series of 1160 for 5, gaining those points, high game by 1 pin went to J.R with a 279 over Shanes 278. Match play was a different story. Shane was unable to win a match dropped to the #4 seed, J.R won all three moving him to the #1 seed with Brandon Kraye winning 2 moving into the #2 seed and Mark Curtis the #3. Shane rolled 232 to def Mark’s 209, Brandon ended that with a 233 vs Shanes 208. Brandon saved the best for last rolling a 255 to J.R.’s 209. This is Brandon first title in JST Congratulations.

Congratulations to all the winners a good day was had by all. I apologize for the schedule not being updated yet but It will be soon. Keep watching the web site for the next tournament location the site is www.jstbowl.com. Again To Del Rosa Lanes Nicole and her staff THANK YOU. It was great.

by Frank Kietz
MISSION VIEJO — Saddle-back’s 1:00 p.m. Monday Senior Classic went wild recently when Wayne Hom rolled his and the loop’s first 300 game.

League secretary Sue Horn said his teammates Harry Brunke and Joyce Thomas did lots of Oo-Rahing as he started his 12 strike string continued with a 221 and settled with a 169 and a record 690 series. This was Hom’s third perfecto.

SED Jr. Travel

by David Gordon
GLENDALE – Jewel City Bowl played host to the most recent session of SED Jr. Travel last Saturday. This was the first time the group has bowled a regular session here and the bowlers want more. Thank you to the staff and management for the accommodations and conditions. We also had a few missing this week, but made up for it with three house bowlers that wanted to give the league a try. Thank you and let’s make it permanent.

We’re going to start this week with those house bowlers and get these show-offs out of the way first. On top was Andrew Hilvano posting up 239-247-267/945 and on the same pair was Virgil Hilvano going 256-211-204-245/916. Now that’s great bowling, even for house bowlers. The last house bowler was Victor Hilvano with 217-213/727 (yes, he was on the end pair of lanes).

Now for our regulars, we start out with Michael Gaylor leading the way with 257-215-213/866. Welcome back. Joining Mr. Gaylor in the 800 club is Bryan Osborne 205-201-213-244/863, Mark Curtis 215-203-247/852, and Deanna Carrillo 254-212/808. Nice bowling to all of you. Other high scores for the day comes in from Eric Milne 236-211/795, Kevin Jones 236-210/793, Justin LaMere 233/776, Jasmine Morales 215/730, Chris Blankenship 208/718, and Andy Betancourt 709.

This Saturday the group will travel to AMF Midtown Lanes. Start time is 2:00 and this is one of the City tournament sites, so it should be important to you. Have a good week and I’ll see you on Saturday.
