Demetrius Cash Wins First ABT Championship at AMF Carter Lanes

FULLERTON—Demetrius Cash won his first Amateur Bowlers Tour (ABT) championship at AMF Carter Lanes on Saturday, February 16, 2008 during our one-day 4-game Beat-the-Board tournament. Demetrius bowled in our 4PM squad and shot games of 268, 268, 289, and 302 for a handicap series of 1127 on his way to winning the $1000 first place prize. Roger Romero from Carson came in second shooting a 1022 handicap series and took home $500. Greg Nardo from Lakewood came in third shooting a handicap series of 996, taking home $250.

Demetrius Cash has been bowling for about 30 years. Demetrius has a high game of 300 and 816 series to his credit. Demetrius bowls in leagues at Jewel City Bowl and Pickwick Lanes. He was using an Ebonite Clash drilled by Brandon McGinnis at the pro shop inside Jewel City Bowl. Demetrius is an event planner for C.P. Enterprises and is father to Jordan, Jayden, Jaycen, Justin, Jonavan and Layla. Demetrius wanted to thank Desiree and Hazel for putting up with him and all the league bowlers at Jewel City and Pickwick for their support and encouragement. He dedicated his win this weekend, and sends a blessed thank you to his grandmothers, Berdie Johnson and Edna Cooper. Demetrius also wanted to thank AMF Carter Lanes for hosting the tournament and to the ABT Staff and Directors for running an outstanding tournament. Demetrius plans on using his winnings for more tournaments.

Mark Ellet was the winner of the optional 4-game Scratch Sweeper and $145 with a 958 scratch series (including a 300 game). Demetrius Cash came in second for $70 with a scratch series of 894 with Joshua James coming in third with an 866 series for $45.

We also started a Senior Sweeper this weekend. Roger Romero came in first for $100, Art Gaoy, Sr. came in second for $45 and Kay Johnson came in third for $35.

The Mystery Game Pot of Gold game and score were drawn after our final squad. Game #3 was the game drawn, and 221 (possibly good for $300) was drawn for the first chance. The second chance score of 248 (possibly good for $150). Kay Johnson was the winner of the second chance. Remember, the Mystery Pot of Gold is available to all members (Classic and Masters) and only costs $5.

Jason Belmonte Wins Columbia 300 Mini-Eliminator At Texas Station

LAS VEGAS, NV—Jason Belmonte, one of the premier international bowlers, earned another prestigious title by winning the 2008 Columbia 300 Mini-Eliminator Amateur Only Classic at Texas Station in Las Vegas. Jason rolled a 255 in the Shootout Round to earn the $20,000 top prize.

Jason, who is only 24 years old and resides in Orange, Australia, needed a little luck in the finals to capture the title. His road to the finals started typically as Jason rolled a 751 series on Thursday to lead the day and earn one bye. Jason breezed through the early rounds in the finals with games of 245, 237, and 238. But in Round 5 Jason only shot a 216 game and needed an open in the 10th frame from one of his competitors to advance. Jason's fortunes in Round 6 were even greater as he needed a double in the 10th to advance. His first shot went extremely high and briefly left the 4-10 split standing. Amazingly both pins fell and he threw a perfect 2nd strike to advance to the Shootout Round.

In the Shootout Jason took immediate control with 6 consecutive strikes. His opponents, Pete Thomas from Oklahoma City, OK (46 and over champion) and Sol Cericos from Arcadia, CA (210 and under champion) both had early opens and no doubles through 5 frames. With a 50+ pin lead in the 5th frame Jason cruised to victory with a 255 game. In 2nd place, with a 215, was Pete who earned $10,000. Sol took

Brand New Man

Mike Scroggins moved up to fourth in the PBA Player of the Year race with his second win this season.

OMAHA, Neb. — Mike Scroggins probably had a feeling in the first frame Sunday, when the normally automatic Walter Ray Williams Jr. missed a single-pin conversion, things would go his way.

That was certainly the case as Scroggins got all the breaks Sunday, coupled with some smart decisions, to defeat Williams, 214-194, in the 2008 Pepsi Championship at Thunder-Alley, winning his fifth career Denny's PBA Tour title and his second of the season.

The Tour veteran has finally figured out how to win on TV. Prior to his win in January in the 2008 Motel 6 Dick Weber Open, Scroggins was just 9-22 in televised matches and was riding an eight-game losing streak. He broke the streak in a big way, winning four matches as the No. 5 seed to win his fourth title.

Scroggins' path to victory was much shorter this Sunday as he earned the No. 1 seed for the stepladder finals, giving him an automatic berth in the title match. He had the tall task of facing the Tour's all-time titles leader, who was looking for his third title of the season and 45th of his career.

Instead, Williams missed a 10-pin in the first frame and had trouble carrying the rest of the way, leaving three 10-pins, two 7-pins and a stone 8-pin in the match.

Scroggins, using a different ball on each lane, struck in four of the first five frames and overcame an open in the seventh by striking in the eighth and ninth to all but seal the deal.

With the two other left-handed bowlers in the finals — Billy Oatman and Rhino Page — going by the wayside, Scroggins new he had to make some changes in the title match.

"Seeing the lefties struggle in the first couple matches, I was definitely thinking hard about things," Scroggins (Amarillo, Texas) said. "Billy started with three opens and Rhino threw it good in the second match but then he was totally lost in the next match. Both lanes were completely different. I had to use two different balls, stand in two different places and look at two different targets.

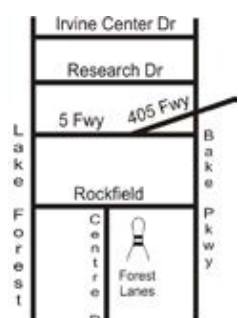

"Luckily, Walter Ray struggled to carry the 10-pin and I was able carry it."

Scroggins, who also beat Williams for his second career title in 2004, is enjoying the finest season of his 17-year career, winning two titles in a season for the first time. With the win, he moved up to fourth in the 2007-08 PBA Player of

Jackson Wins ABTA Title at CAL

Keystone is Our Host in a Two Day Event

Vickie Smith Hits Match Series $344 • Engelbrecht Cops a $1,000 3-6-9

Match game is $3,500 this week • Match Series est $350 3-6-9 is $500

Qualify Saturday 12:00-1:30-3:00 & 4:45 PM 1 in 5 to finals Sunday

Sunday One Big Squad 10:15 AM • Takes 1 in 5 to Semis at 11:45 AM

LAKEWOOD—Another One of the “Good Guys” Greg Jackson, was the best as he won his 3rd ABTA title with a stellar performance, winning five straight matches to down top seed Angel Asuncion in the title game to take home a nice $1,700 1st Prize at popular Cal Bowl..

Our return to CAL was just great. We had a nice 224 entrants in the early 3 Squad Event which had squads at 12:30-2:00 & 3:30 and Semis at 5 PM. We had 118 entrants in the 3:30 PM squad. Sidepots went for $214 a game and in the ABTA side pots are only $2.00 per game.

Due to the nice turnout, 51 bowlers advanced to the semis. Leading the Semis was the hot shooting Angel Asuncion +133. He would sit out and be able to bowl the title game. Right behind was the smooth lefty Greg Jackson at +125. Angel would sit out and bowl for the title and Greg to receive a first round bye in the single elims and enter in round two. It took a nice +$7 for the men and 3 guaranteed women to make the Sweet 16 Single Elim Finals.

The Bowlers took to the lanes. In the first round single elims losing were Michael Gill, Debra Sanders, Isagani Villanueva, Je Je Gabriel, Greg Barron, Dino Cantoria and Krystal Alvarado. They got checks of $105 in 10-16th places.

In round two being eliminated were Elmer Ferrer, Vickie Smith, Louis Castillo and David Jones. They cashed in 6-9th places and $115 each. Round three had Greg Jackson down Randy Antazo 243-165. Dominic Tambio struck often, downing newcomer Lasandra Chaney 255-209. Lasandra and Randy were 4th and 5th, and $125 each, with great bowling. Greg and Dominic met for the right to bowl Angel for the title.

In a most exciting game Greg won out in a hard fought 232-219 game. Dominic was 3rd with great bowling, and Greg off to the title match vs Angel.

The title game was set and the horses were paid! Jackson returned $59 in the horse bets for everyone who had him at $5.00 entry.

The title game was set. Jackson led off and was clean through three frames as was Angel. Greg found the line in frames 4-5-6 with a three bagger to take the lead, but Angel was hanging around keeping clean. After Greg split and opened, Angel also opened in frame 9. Greg who had won finished with a double and a 214/222-179/209 win. He has bowled our ABTA League, and now his third title over 20 Plus years in our club. Great bowling by one of the Good Guys. A nice man to say the least

Great bowling by Angel Asuncion,, another one of the Good Guys! He is well liked by all who know him. He is a ABTA Blueblood, hardly misses a tourney and is also in our ABTA League We are lucky to have people as Angel in our club. Great Bowling!

Dominic Tambio also an ABTA veteran did well. He was so on his game. He could easily have won this one. Great bowling Dominic.

Tourney Hi Qualifiers were Dominic Tambio at a huge +246, and Tomeikia Lemons led the Ladies at +111 for lady hi qualifier. They both get paid entries.

Longtime member John Engelbrecht was last standing in the 3-6-9 roll off and he made it pay off as he got the necessary 5 9's or better in a row to take a nice $1,000 on home to his pretty wife. His sons Bryan and Jeff were on hand at Cal to witness the feat.

The Match Game was again UN-Matched at a 286 drawn by Asuncion. So the pot will be worth $3,500 again this week with the balance going to a reserve pot.

Match Series worth $344 was Matched by pretty ABTA regular Vicki Smith and she is soo well deserving. Vickie is an ABTA regular and liked by all.. We will estimate a $350 Match Series this week at Keystone and for only $2.00 to enter.

Champion Greg Jackson hails from Bellflower, and used a Game Breaker drilled by Billy Myers at Cal Bowl. He is a father of two daughters Brittany, and Danielle, He thanks Billy Myers Sr. and Mike Wahl for the help.

Angel Asuncion is from Long Beach and Chicago, and used a Morich drilled by Greg at Cal Bowl. He has a girlfriend Lisa. He thanks Rico, Boylee, Tres and all the Cal Bowlers who inspire him..

Dominic Tambio hails from Corona and used a Fury drilled by Mikey Wahl at Cerritos Lanes. He is an avid ABTA supporter and well liked by all. He is married to Esther and has 3 kids, Marilyn, Melinda and Michael and 11 grandchildren. He thanks the ABTA staff for a great job and Greg Velarde and Mike Wahl for tips.

It was great to bowl at CAL and will return there soon. Thanks to the very helpful staff there! It is history folks, as Greg Jackson enters the archives as our latest champion. Make plans for this weeks Two Day Event Keystone Lanes. There will be qualifying at 12:00-1:30- 3:00 - & 4:45 PM Saturday with 1 in 5 making the Semis plus the Super Seniors.

Inland Empire NABI Champion Todd Wolsten

RIVERSIDE—We want to thank Arlington Lanes for hosting our last Saturday tournament, especially to Genka Cabatu for all her help.

Our champion, Todd Wolsten, would seem like a bowling veteran with all he has accomplished in the past year. In fact, he is a young man who is very talented & just loves to bowl & compete. In just the last year, Todd has won 4 rings for two 300 games, one 298 game & one 800 series; all sanctioned by USBC.

Todd also likes to snow board, wake board at the river, play video games & was in a basketball league last year.

He bowls in a Viva Las Vegas league at Arlington Lanes & won this tournament with his Morich LEVRG, drilled by Memo at Action Lanes in El Monte.

He wants to dedicate this win to his girlfriend, Brooke, who was there to see him win, to his mom, Monica & his Granny Francis (Todd says that he loves you). Todd won $600, a champion shirt, a 11 in a row plaque from USBC & an entry into the Tournament of Champions for the July, 2008 Nationals at the Orleans.

We actually had quite a lot of excitement at the Arlington Lanes tournament, for Jaymond Williams bowled a 300 game to win a ring from USBC & Mike Vredevoogd, along with Todd won a 11 in a row plaque from USBC. Congratulations to them! Our stepladder began with:

Michael Richards bowling Mike Vredevoogd. Mike bowled a 218 to Michael's

222. Michael, then bowled Jon Cottingim. Jon bowled a 199 to Michael's 251. Michael then went on to bowl James Doolen. Michael bowled a 220 to James 230. James then met Todd Wolsten, our high qualifier.

James bowled a 204 to Todd's 262 for Todd to win. Our sidepot winners were: Jaymond Williams, Mike Rasmussen, Brad Bebout, Jay Shackelford, Mike Vredevoogd (2), William Samson, Kenneth Bonnett & Guy Clear. Our next tournament will be held on Sat., Feb. 23 at Riverside Lanes. See our ad in the Bowling News this week. See ya there!

3 High Roller Champs: Ron Mohr - A Game, Bob Perry - High Roller, Ed Smaglik - Red Hot

Bob Purzycki Converts the 2-10 in 10th for 2nd High Roller Title!

LAS VEGAS—A record number of new bowlers and a record percentage of senior players helped fill the lanes at Sam's Town for the 19th annual February High Roller! In fact, seniors won 2 of the 3 events!

After taking 100 of the world's best amateurs and making them ineligible, High Roller officials were leery about how the turnout would be. But after the last ball was thrown and the check for $25,000 was awarded, we were proud, pleased and appreciative that this year's event reached last year's entry numbers!

And with so many other events in town, we thank you for choosing us!

The event started with an amazing 6 bowlers on a pair in the very first squad and that quickly 56 prizes of $1,000 were paid on the first day of qualifying, more than other tournaments paid at the end! A total of 266 prizes of $1,000 to $25,000 were paid and that doesn't even include the Sweepers, the A Game or the Red Hot!

Most of the bowling world knows of Bob Purzycki and his drug and alcohol troubles throughout his life. Many know that fresh out of rehab, he won the 1997 Super Bowl High Roller. Now, here 11 years later, the 55-year old Paterson, New Jersey native showed the world that he still has the touch. That touch came into play in the 10th frame of the final round as finalists Dave Guindon, Don Tesh and Matt Gilman watched Purzycki, formerly Perry, convert the 2 - 10 "for the money"!

There were some in the crowd who knew Purzycki from the old days and swore that he left the 2-10 on purpose and made it just to entertain the crowd. Whether that is true or not, what is true is that Purzycki is now the owner of High Roller title #2.

Dave Guindon, owner of megabuck titles as well, doesn't view that split as bad luck. Guindon, a former High Roller finalist, knew he had a chance to shut Purzycki out and didn't so the 40 year old right-hander from West Seneca, New York, amicably accepted his fate and the runner-up prize of $12,500. Guindon is now inducted into High Roller's famed $10,000 Club for the 4th time, matching Chris Barnes and Craig Harrington. Easily the veteran of the group, Guindon was bowling in his 45th High Roller!

Part of the excitement of the week was that each of 4 divisions was guaranteed to have a $10,000 winner. Although the "40's" qualified in the 49 & Under division, they had their own match play division in the finals. Don Tesh, from Winston-Salem, NC and representing the 205 Average & Under division, finished 3rd for $11,000 and Matt Gilman, of Pembroke Farms, FL and the 39 & Unders was 4th for $10,000.

More 5-figure prizes were earned! From the senior division, Ron Mohr emerged as the "A Game" champ for $10,000. Mohr, from Eagle River, Alaska, defeated red hot Rob Gotchall. Gotchall, from Lincoln, Nebraska, would stay red hot all week, firing a 300 game among many big games and $1,000 prizes.

Ed Smaglik won $12,000 as he bested the field in the Las Vegas Red Hot. Smaglik, from Flagstaff, AZ, stayed ahead of Bill Green of Westfield, MA who earlier won a Sweeper.

Almost 400 Storm balls were awarded to players from luck-of-the-draw and awards for bowling multiple entries. Players took home the new Rapid Fire, the Attitude Shift and the new Gravity Shift. Visit www.high-roller.com for complete results of High Roller week as well as pictures and news releases. Brochures for the July High Roller will be available shortly online and in your mail box. For more info, call us toll-free at 1-800-257-6179 or email us at info@high-roller.com.

High Roller has now paid over $80 Million in prize money to bowlers since 1982!

by Frank Kietz

MISSION VIEJO — Saddleback Lanes 9:00 p.m. Tuesday 12-team four-player 820 Scratch Classic waited 21 weeks for someone to roll a 300 game. It was Tim Porritt anchor for Team #7's Pro Care Auto, as they made a move to take the loop's third seed rolloff spot.

Samantha J Jimenez is an 18-year old graduate of Rowland High School, Rowland Heights, and Class of 2007, posting a Grade Point Average of 3.80. She was an outstanding member of the high school Volleyball team from 2003-2007.

Samantha is currently enrolled as a freshman at San Antonio Community College in Walnut, majoring in Photography and Business. Her goal is to graduate with her masters in both majors and has hopes to open her own Photography Studio.

Samantha leaves a legend as having been an extraordinarily dedicated student, only missing six days of school within 13 years and has recorded perfect attendance the past nine years.

It goes without saying that bowling has played a big part in Samantha’s family throughout the ages. Her grandparents were bowlers; her aunts and uncles were bowlers; her dad Joseph and mom Connie continue to bowl. And then at age seven, Samantha joined the sport. Many have said Samantha has been bowling longer than she has been alive, since mother Connie bowled while pregnant with her. Sister Natalie, now sixteen, also enjoys the sport.

Inspire of having Open Heart Surgery at age four and being told future participation in sports was questionable, Samantha displayed amazing potential and strong will to follow in her family foot-steps. She knows that without her dad’s coaching and encouragement to do better, she would not be where she is in her game today, allowing her to help pay for her education and earn her degree.

Samantha has a passion for the game and possesses an extraordinary talent in applying the techniques required to allow one to adjust to the PBA lane patterns as well as the Sport Shot. Currently bowling under these extremely competitive lane conditions, Samantha averages 198 (which is equivalent to a 218 average on normal lane oil conditions.)

Samantha is a member and Secretary of the (JAT’s) Junior Amateur Tour and (JST) Junior Scratch Tour of America. She is recorded as in the top (36) in 2006 Junior Gold; top (16) in 2005 and 2007.

While bowling on the Sport Shot conditions this season, Samantha scored a high game of 279; 723 series She had an 805 in 2007; and from 2003-2007 recorded (30) 700 series and in 2005-2006 season, (2) 299 games and has (3) 300 games to her credit from 2004, 2006 & 2007.

Samantha holds First Place finishes in the 2005 State All Events; 2004 State Pepsi Finals; JATs 2001, 2002, 2004; and the JAT Farm Club in 2004, 2005.

Samantha has been a member of the Junior Scratch Tour of America for over 6 years. She has been the JST Gold League Secretary for the past two seasons and inspire of these additional duties, Samantha qualified for National Gold each year, as well as maintaining the highest female average in the league. Director of the JST Butch Hesketh, describes Samantha as consistently friendly and professional in her attitude towards the game and her fellow bowlers.

Samantha uses every spare time she has to practice for she knows how much hard work is ahead of her, especially since she is hopeful that one day in the near future she will qualify as a member of Team USA

In addition to such a full schedule, Samantha has never abandoned her 10-Year membership with the Girl Scouts, and works part-time as an intern at the Photo Arts Industry.

Samantha will be honored and presented her awards at the California USBC Second Annual Meeting of the Delegates April 27th at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Foster City.

Douglas G. Frisbie, 19-year old from Concord, California is the youngest son of Mark and Karen Frisbie and a 2007 graduate from De La Salle Catholic High School for young men in Concord. Students accepted into this particular High School are selective. While maintaining an Academic Excellence in Spanish II and..... Music Theory, Douglas recorded a Grade Point Average of (3.81). Besides being a member of the school’s Bicycle and Bowling Clubs, Douglas has been an accomplished musician since learning to play the clarinet in the 4th grade and benefited much from his participation in the high school’s Concert and Marching Band.

While brother Brian studies engineering at UC Berkeley, Douglas is currently enrolled as a freshman at College of the Pacific in Stockton, where he can be closer to his bowling commitments. He is majoring in the field he loves, Computer Science, and hopes to spend his life being helpful to the world through computer technology.

Douglas’ interest in the game of bowling was sparked at the age of 9 while on a Cub Scout outing..... in a bowling center!. He took to the game like a duck to water.... and proved to be a natural. But why not, his dad had been a youth bowler and being so inspired, Douglas entered as many leagues possible; many times teaming with his dad; to bring home the First Place trophies.

With ten years of participating in league and tournament play, Douglas has learned the game WELL and has become a TRUE competitor. He currently averages 220... posting 213 and 225 the two previous seasons. On December 3, 2006, Douglas hit the headlines in the local bowling publications. While participating in the Junior Adult Classic League, he rolled strike after strike with games of 277-233 and 299 for an 809 series. A wobbly 7-pin had robbed Douglas of his first “300” game.

However, not to be discouraged, Douglas came back just 8 days later, in the 400 Junior Adult Scratch League on December 11th, sparing in his first two frames, then throwing 10 strikes in a row for a 278; and the second game 12 in a row for his first “300” game and finished with a 221, leaving a solid 10-pin for a 799 series.

During all his years as a youth member at Diablo Lanes, Douglas has gained the respect of the staff, management and fellow bowlers. as a bowler; a student coach and an all around volunteer. He never misses a league schedule or paying his league fees, and always displays the best in attitude and good sportsmanship to the game and other bowlers.

Aside from school and his bowling schedule, Douglas finds the energy to work part-time in a dental office and walk his elderly neighbor’s dog. And, most importantly, has never abandoned his commitments for over ten years to his Boy Scout programs. His Leadership abilities were extraordinary having held positions as Senior Patrol Leader, Den Chief, Patrol Leader, Troop Guide, Scribe and now..... last year earned and was awarded the highest rank..... of Eagle Scout.

Douglas will be honored and presented his awards at California USBC Second Annual Meeting of the Delegates April 27th at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Foster City.

Instruction to Help Raise Your Scores

Problem Solving Short Cuts Part II
Short cuts can be dangerous. Had Little Red Riding Hood taken a short cut to grandma’s house, the wolf may have eaten her instead!

Cute...but without the wolf we might never have heard of Little Red Riding Hood...so maybe short cuts have some value after all.

Short cuts come in two categories:

- 1 - Simply shorten an already familiar procedure by eliminating some of its parts.
- 2 - Use a totally different, but quicker method of arriving at the desired result. The following short cuts will involve both kinds, so read on.

The Outside Gutter-ball Shortcut

As we all know, current computerized lane oiling machines, synthetic lanes, modern balls, etc. have revolutionized our game. The old lacquer or water base sealed wood lanes, oiled by hand, have gone the way of the dinosaurs. During those past years, lane conditions sometimes required far outside shot lines, using targets only 2 or 3 boards from the gutter. Developing such shots without guttering was one reason for the deadly accuracy of better bowlers of those days. They seldom guttered those shots because of their deadly accuracy.

CATS machine tests reveal, that even today’s 220 plus average bowlers have an accuracy quotient of no better than 3 ¼ inches in the target (arrow) area. Even some of today’s pros can’t match the champions of the past in accuracy. This gets worse when far outside target lines are attempted. Many bowlers, when asked to deliver a ball to a first arrow (5 board) board target, end up pulling the ball, hitting the 9, 10 or 11 board instead, due to a subconscious fear of the gutter.

Of course it’s possible to overcome this habit by endlessly practicing outside shots. But the following short cut will often create more accurate outside shots within just a few minutes.

- Guttering The Ball On Purpose
- 1 - Choose a far outside target, such as a 3 or 4 board.
  - 2 – Deliberately stand too far inside...deep enough so that hitting that target board will deliberately force the ball into the gutter;
  - 3 – Just before starting, tell yourself, “I’m going to throw my strike shot into the gutter on purpose, but I won’t consider it a successful shot unless the ball goes over the 3 board!” Then throw that deliberate gutter shot 4 or 5 times.
  - 4 - Next, adjust your feet far enough outside so that when you now hit your 3 or 4 board target, the ball will stay on the lane and find the pocket. All you’re trying to prove to yourself is that you can accurately hit the extreme outside area of the lane whenever oil conditions demand such a shot!

Why Does This Work?

Simple...Normally, the subconscious (our little “Inner Voice”) has a tendency to visualize what we don’t want as well as what we do want. So if I tell you, “Don’t think of a pink elephant”, that’s the first thing that comes to mind, right? Therefore that outside target, being so close to the gutter, carries with it an automatic desire to stay away from that gutter. So our subconscious deals with this problem by visualizing a safer target farther away from the gutter...causing the pulled shot.

However (and this is important) when you tell yourself to throw a gutter ball on purpose, that same subconscious visualizes the gutter and allows you to throw it there. So once our subconscious has accepted that gutter balls are no longer dangerous, it allows a more accurate outside shot without pulling.

Now all that information won’t do us any good at all...unless we go to the lanes and deliberately go through that “Gutter ball on purpose” routine for a few games.

The Straight Spare Ball Shortcut

As the game has continued to evolve, constantly changing lane conditions have created the need for a super straight spare shot. Yet many better bowlers still can’t straighten the ball enough. Ball manufactureres cash in on this shortcoming by manufacturing hard plastic spare balls. But in the long run this is counterproductive, because it fools the bowler into believing it unnecessary to develop a true straight ball release. Then, in super dry lanes, even that spare ball will hook just enough to miss that much needed spare, often turning a potential win into a loss.

- Here’s a short cut solution:
- 1 - Execute a backswing during which the hand opens up so that at the top, the ball faces away from the body.
  - 2 - On the downswing, go with the heel of your palm leading. This keeps that hand “open” all the way down.
  - 3 - Maintaining this hand position as much as possible, release the ball. That will tend to bring the fingers around the opposite side of the ball, creating a back-up (reverse hook) type shot. Practice this for a few shots, keeping the hand in that position all the way to the finish of the follow through. That will convince you that you can repeat this back-up shot at will.
  - 4 – Once you’ve mastered that back-up release, you will want to slightly reduce that back-up result into what you really want...that frozen rope straight ball. So...now, simply reduce the amount that the hand stays open at the follow through...just barely enough to kill the back-up rotation. Presto! There’s your true straight ball!
- Think of your straight ball as being an “Almost back-up ball”. There’s a short cut that really works!

The “Rubber Forefinger” Shortcut

All better bowlers know the value of the “Spread” forefinger to help increase revs. Even though there’s no hole for that finger, assisting forefinger friction against the ball surface helps increase those revs.

How? Well, a very effective tool is that little rubber fingertip you can buy in any office supply store, normally used for page turning or money counting. Such finger-to-ball friction enhancers last a fairly long time and really work. Keep some in your little tool pouch. They come in various sizes, so be sure to get a size just tight enough to stay on your finger during the release. You may be surprised to see how well this works to strengthen your hook shots.

“Hit” The Ball

All professionals and most high level amateurs know what is meant by the expression, “hitting the ball”.

Imagine a cotton bowling ball floating in mid-air like magic, a few inches behind the foul line...right about at your release point. Then do a dry run approach and imagine actually hitting that ball into the lane with just your hand. Notice when you do this, that virtually all the force applied to that ball is with the hand only...and at the bottom of the swing only...NOT during the downswing!

This is the way balls are hit in sports such as golf, baseball, handball, tennis, etc...in which the armswing power is slightly delayed to avoid wasting force and speed...and saved until the wrist/hand can snap into action in the “hitting” area. So, in a really correct bowling downswing, all downward force is eliminated, allowing the downswing to be executed with an almost free floating arm. That actually saves the power until the hand reaches that “hitting area” where the ball can best react.

In such a swing you should notice that any force is felt traveling from the hand up the arm, rather than from the shoulder downward! Look for that “feel” and notice the increase in pin action.

To short cut the process even further, apply the old A/B technique...one dry run approach, followed by one with the ball...in rapid repetition several times. The difference in torque, control, accuracy and pin action should turn virtually all flame throwers into believers.

This hit the ball short cut really works!

The Ring Finger Lead Plus “Hitch-Hike” Process

Two common errors made by a great number of bowl-ers are 1), Turning the hand too early and 2), Turning it too much (“Topping” the ball.) Very often the two go together.

The short cut correction for that has two parts: 1), On the downswing, lead with the ring finger all the way to the bottom. That correctly keeps the hand behind the ball. (Hall of Fame coach John Jowdy gets credit for that one). 2), As the hand reaches the finish of the follow through, do a slight outward turning wrist snap, as if hith hiking on the highway...just enough to bring the thumb to 1 o’clock (11 o’clock for left handers).

These take a bit of practice, but they really work!

Never Allow An Opponent to “Get Inside” Your Helmet!

This is a major rule of football. It’s just a cute way of saying, “Don’t let your opponents psych you out! This effort to intimidate opponents often works. Why not? There’s no rule against it, is there?

So, instead of falling victim to such tactics, BE HERE NOW!

What does that mean? Do two simple things: 1), Instead of trying to block out that negative, just allow it to be there, like you do with all the other bowling center distractions you’ve gotten used to. Instead, focus on execution as usual and 2) turn the tables on that opponent...get into his or her helmet instead!

How? Simple. Go about your business showing no outward emotion at all. Let that opponent see that nothing flusters you, by telling yourself to bowl exactly as you do in practice...quietly and unemotionally. There’s nothing that bothers a psych-out artist more than seeing that it isn’t bothering you. While wondering about that, they get bothered and distracted! This short cut can make you the winner!

California WBA Display Ready for Viewing

The long awaited display of California Women’s Bowling Association memorabilia is now on display at the National Bowling Stadium in Reno. Although many fingers had a part in creating the information that is in the display, it was Mary Lynly, Barbara Metzinger, Joan Romeo and Jackie Wyckoff who tackled the final job on behalf of the California Bowling Writers.

As in all things – there were challenges. Two beautiful lighted display cases stood ready to be filled and right off the bat we realized that 52 Hall of Fame plaques would just not go into the cases and allow anything else to be displayed. They are now beautifully displayed in order of induction on Boards that will sit on top of the display cases – Meritorious Service on top and Superior Performance plaques neatly displayed on the large pillar along side the cases. The CWBA flag is proudly hung above the entire exhibit. On your trip down memory lane you will find awards won by the efforts of California bowling leaders. There are pictures of CWBA Stars of Tomorrow, BVL, 50th and 75th Anniversary plaques, pins from every association California had, National Awards and more.

While we could have continued to add more and more of the wonderful California WBA historical information there was only so much we could tastefully display. Thanks to Bette & Chris Addington a beautiful back drop in the left case displays a field of poppies and the California WBA name. A similar back drop will be added to the other case and a TV set will be mounted over the cases in the center to play the CWBA History from the 2006 Celebration.

Sincere thanks to Bob Thomas and staff at the National Bowling Stadium who were more than accommodating. The NBS with contribution from Agnes Duffy secured the display cases.

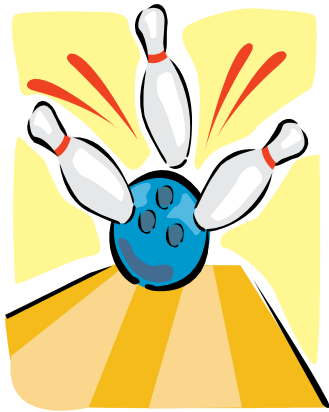

Working on this was a reminder of times past when all through the state associations worked as teams to accomplish their goals culminating at convention time with fun Hospitality Nights and special events. Also a reminder of bowling leaders from throughout the state who came together to take part in Credentials, Sgt-at-Arms, flag bearers, giving reports, putting on related club activities and luncheons and more. They are all a part of this.

The California Bowling Writers are proud to have been able to preserve the memorabilia of this great state.

Bowler of the Week: This week we finally acknowledge a team that lives up to their nickname. We are all saying “Don’t Taze me Bro”, because Tony, Dane, Jim and Damond have had their fill of excellence. They are heating up the Funseekers league with guile and poise. Well, don’t taze them while they are hot. And believe me they’re HOT!!

Sweetness Quote of the Week: I have talked to many Democratic Super Delegates in the last few days and the one thing they all have in common — they don’t want to use their super vote. Yet they discuss that a super vote isn’t needed to make Pinz number 1; they already are. — Daniel McTrollington, Senate Spokesman.

Tenpin Slants

by Joe Lyou

It was reported here recently that USBC Hall of Famers Robin Romeo (Newhall, Calif.) and Jeanne Naccarato (Tacoma, Wash.) will be making their debut in the 2008 National Golden Ladies Classic (NGLC), to be held March 10-13 at the Orleans Hotel/Casino/Bowling Center in Las Vegas.

The NGLC, or simply the Golden Ladies, was founded by Jeanette Robinson, also a USBC Hall of Famer, at the old Showboat Bowling Center in 1991. Since then, the tournament--open to women who are 50 and older--has not only grown in stature but it has gained international fame.

The addition of Romeo and Naccarato can only add to that reputation. Together, they have 27 PWBA (Professional Women's Bowling Assn.) titles—17 for Romeo and 10 for Naccarato.

Both are former PWBA Players of the Year—Romeo in 1989 and Naccarato in 1986. And for most of their 20-plus years on the PWBA Tour, they were roommates, so it's fitting that they will be making their debut together in the Golden Ladies.

There's more good news. Tenpin Slants has just learned that still another USBC Hall of Famer, Vesma Grinfelds of San Francisco, will be competing for the first time in the NGLC, often referred to as "Jeanette's baby."

Grinfelds, after retiring from the PWBA Tour with 10 titles, did not touch a bowling ball for more than eight years. Then, in May of 2006, I e-mailed Vesma and suggested that she come out of retirement and compete in the Golden Ladies.

"It's such a fun tournament," I wrote. "Besides, Virginia (Norton, also a USBC Hall of Famer who is Vesma's closest friend) is bowling in this."

This was the answer I got back from Grinfelds: "Don't tell anyone, I actually started to throw, roll (whatever) the ball again after eight years. I'm bowling in an adult-junior league with my son (who is totally into bowling)."

"After week 1, my reaction is: the lanes must be awfully easy; after not bowling so long, I can't be that good. (Author's note: A couple of weeks later, Grinfelds rolled a 300 game in the league.)

"The best part was walking in with a single-ball bag and having bowling shoes that still fit, after opening the laces a little wider.

"Hope you are laughing," she wrote. It is obvious Vesma hasn't lost her sense of humor.

Norton failed in her attempt to persuade Grinfelds to bowl in the Golden Ladies last year. So Norton enlisted the aid of fellow Hall of Famer Pam Buckner, who just happens to be Ebonite's ace western regional sales rep.

Buckner made a deal with Grinfelds. "If I drill up a couple of new balls for you, will you bowl in the Golden Ladies with us? Buckner asked Grinfelds, who finally gave in, but only after Norton convinced Vesma how much fun she would have.

Postscript: Vesma Grinfelds' son is named Dzintars. He is 18 now and a freshman at UC Santa Cruz. Vesma currently bowls in a league with Virginia Norton's son, Scott, a very talented left-handed bowler who is attending law school at UC Hastings in San Francisco.

NGLC Update: Jeanette Robinson, the teaching pro at The Orleans, reports she has received 68 entries so far—"which is good for this time of the year. I'm looking for about 80," she said.

The defending champion is Joan Reilly of Wilmington, N.C. Reilly was a surprise winner, defeating 2006 champion Char Hammel in the title match, 246-225.

Florida's Shirley Levens, a three-time winner, is expected back after missing the past two years because of back and leg surgeries.

Also expected to compete are bowlers from England and Scotland who make the annual journey "just for the fun and camaraderie," These adventurous women look forward to the Golden Ladies each year, even though they rarely cash.

What puzzles me is, why do so many women who are eligible fail to enter the Golden Ladies? Like USBC Hall of Famers Dana Miller-Mackie and Cindy Coburn-Carroll. Both are former touring pros with multiple PWBA titles.

Every cent of the $150 entry fee goes into the prize fund—PLUS there is added monies from The Orleans, tournament cosponsor Storm Products, and others. Last year, Storm donated $1,500 to the prize fund along with a new bowling ball for "most pins over average," after the 15-game qualifying round.

There are many, many ways to cash in the Golden Ladies. In addition to the main prize fund, there is a Second-Chance Sweeper (for those not making the cut to the match play), a separate Super Senior event (for those 70 and up), and of course brackets and high game sidepots.

Anyone wishing to reserve a spot in the Golden Ladies can call Jeanette Robinson at 1-888-365-7111, Ext. 6442. The original dates for the 2008 NGLC were March 3-6, but had to be changed to March 10-13 because of a conflict with the annual Las Vegas 500-mile race at the local motor speedway. "The NASCAR people grabbed up most of the rooms here," Jeanette explained, "so we had to move our tournament back one week."

I had an interesting conversation with Nick Papanos at the recent H&R Block Tournament of Champions at the new Red Rock Lanes in Las Vegas. Nick is the justifiably proud husband of Wendy Macpherson, a four-time PWBA Player of the Year. Nick said that Wendy recently won a big tournament in Japan, where she competes on a regular basis as a member of the Japan Professional Bowlers Assn. "She's been doing great in Japan," Nick said.

Nick added that Wendy plans to compete in West Coast Senior Tour events, "now that she's eligible."

WCST tournaments are open to men from ages 45-59 and women 40-49. There's also a Super Seniors division for men 60-plus and women 50-plus.

Macpherson is eligible because she just turned 40 on Jan. 28. "Wendy's going to bowl the WCST Ebonite All-Star Doubles (March 8-9 at Rancho Bowl in Santa Maria, Calif.)," Nick said. "She's going to bowl with Tennelle Milligan (former USBC Queens champion), because WCST members can bowl doubles with a 'junior' (or younger person)."

According to WCST Tournament Director Dick Sanders, "The All-Star Doubles event is all filled up (with 48 teams), and if anyone wants to be put on the stand-by list, call the WCST office at 760-363-8141."

By the way, Macpherson, who is a native of San Diego and now makes her home in the Vegas suburb of Henderson, has her own website (www.wendy-macpherson.com). Check out the website if you'd like to know more about Wendy and her brilliant career record.

FINAL ITEM: John Jowdy, the irrepressible USBC Hall of Famer from El Cajon, Calif., is going to miss the 2008 National Golden Ladies Classic for the first time in several years. Jowdy is having knee replacement surgery on Feb. 28, and says it'll take about six weeks of therapy after that for the leg to heal.

Jowdy, a world-renowned bowling coach, spent a career as the top sales rep for Columbia 300. After he retired, Jowdy continued to represent Columbia as he became the first manufacturer's rep on the Denny's PBA Tour. He also put together the Columbia Pro Staff, which now includes Chris Barnes as its ace.

When Ebonite took over Columbia a couple of years ago, Jowdy was kept on as their Tour representative. Jowdy used to make every pro stop but now that he is nearing his 88th birthday (in April), he limits his trips mostly to the four majors.

Jowdy, who attended the recent Tournament of Champions in Las Vegas, will be leaving Feb. 18 for the Denny's PBA World Championship in Indianapolis. He will return on Feb. 25, three days before his knee surgery. He hopes to have better luck after he gets back from World Championship than he had after the T of C.

He came down with bronchitis and pneumonia and wound up in the hospital for three days. "To make matters worse," Jowdy said, "Brenda (the good-looking half of the Jowdy family), caught a bad case of the flu and was miserable for about five days. The doctor would not let her visit me in the hospital.

"Thank God, we are finally rid of the bug," he said. Hey, Mr. J., remember to pack your long-johns when you go to Indianapolis. It gets pretty cold there.

ORANGE COUNTY/USBC GIVES KUDOS...

by Joy McGregor

Our Annual BVL Tournament held Jan 26 and 27 was very successful as mentioned in a previous article. Putting on and running a tournament takes a lot of team work and commitment not only from the tournament officials, board members, centers and workers but from... our Volunteers. They are the heart of any organization and without THEIR commitment, the job at hand would fail miserably. At this time the Orange County Association would like to say, "THANK YOU" to ALL our special volunteers. A great many hours of your time is given and we appreciate it!

A special "THANK YOU" goes to one Orange County member - Hoagie Wong, who for the past 20 years has done all our printing for BVL mailings. He is retiring this year and will be a man of leisure. We hope we will still see him at our tournaments....Thanks again Hogie and Happy Retirement!

We also give thanks to the following Pro Shop owners and ball manufacturer for their donation of bowling balls; we had one offered at each of our 5 squads. The bowlers certainly loved it. Frank Bellinder Precision Pro Shop - ball won by Marvin Sager; Storm Bowling Ball Manufacturer (2 balls) - won by Jeff Lindenmuth and Ken Hengerford and Jeff Carr Bowling Supply - won by Brian Reggers.

The donated bowling balls were a great hit with the participants and all the proceeds from the tickets generated a greater donation to the hospitalized veterans.

Thank you again to our contributors and volunteers. We could not do it without you. Our hospitalized veterans benefit greatly from all your support.

People connected to our great sport of bowling and the bowlers themselves are to be congratulated. KUDOS... YOU ARE THE BEST!!!

the Year points race, 13 points behind Williams, who took the lead back from Chris Barnes with his runner-up finish. Just five events remain, including two Majors, where Player of the Year points increase.

"He's the greatest bowler alive so it is extra special," Scroggins said of Williams. "I was definitely nervous, mostly because I was unsure of how I was going to play the lanes, but it's nice. This is definitely a career-year for me."

Williams had advanced to the title match with a 236-224 win over the No. 3 Page, a rookie making his fourth championship round of the season. After nine-spares in the third and fourth frames, Williams struck in five of the next six frames while Page suffered an open in the seventh, coming up empty in his fourth attempt at his first career title.

Page defeated No. 4 Pete Weber, 236-231, who had advanced from the first match with a 211-203 win over the 2006-07 PBA Player of the Year Oatman.

Scroggins took home $25,000 for the win while Williams (Ocala, Fla.) earned $13,000 for second. Page (Topeka, Kan.) took home $6,500 for third, Weber (St. Ann, Mo.) earned $5,500 for fourth while Oatman (Chicago) earned Matt used a Momentum to earn the top prize. Tournament week began with Tom Smallwood of Flushing, MI winning the only sweeper and its $5,000 top prize.

The Mini-Eliminator was sponsored by Columbia 300, Kegel, 3G Shoes, Contour Grips, Grip Loc, Knockout Ball Cleaner, The BTM Tournament, and Texas Station. $5,000 for fifth.

The Denny's PBA Tour heads to Indianapolis next week for the 2008 Denny's World Championship, the third of four Majors on the schedule. The live ESPN-televised finals take place Sunday, Feb. 24 at 12:30 p.m. ET. The winner will take home $50,000 and a two-season Denny's PBA Tour exemption.

USBC YOUTH VOLUNTEER, COACH AND AMBASSADORS OF YEAR SELECTED

Winners to be presented with awards at USBC Convention in Kansas City

GREENDALE, Wis. - John Fukasawa, Michael Nyitray, Kayla Chick and Kyle Calcote have been selected as recipients of United States Bowling Congress Youth recognition awards which will be presented May 9 at the 2008 USBC Convention in Kansas City, Mo.

Fukasawa was named USBC Youth Program Volunteer of the Year for his outstanding efforts in fostering, operating and promoting youth bowling programs. The Applegate, Calif., native has volunteered as a youth bowling coach for approximately 10 years at Fireside Lanes in Citrus Heights, Calif. Certified as a USBC Silver coach, Fukasawa assists bowlers during the center’s Saturday morning youth leagues and also developed a Saturday afternoon clinic to offer individual lessons.

“John continues to give of himself because he truly enjoys helping others,” said Debbie Hagerty, the Fireside Lanes youth director who nominated Fukasawa for the award. “He always has a smile and an upbeat attitude and relates well with the juniors. He is a great asset to our program, our center and our bowlers. He sets the mark for our other coaches.”

Nyitray, of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., was selected as the David Dahms Coach of the Year for his outstanding commitment to coaching, sportsmanship, and knowledge of USBC Youth bowling rules. A USBC Gold coach, Nyitray volunteers his time working with youth bowlers at Brunswick Margate Lanes, a 32-lane center in Margate, Fla. He also has worked with parents of youth bowlers to help get high school bowling started at Gulliver Preparatory School in Pinecrest, Fla.

“This season I’ve been more active in developing Gulliver’s bowlers,” Nyitray said. “This ground-up project is a multi-year commitment designed, in part, to promote growth in the sport of bowling in high schools in south Florida.”

Chick and Calcote were named the Female and Male USBC Youth Ambassadors of the Year, respectively, for their exemplary contributions in the sport of bowling, academic accomplishments and community involvement. Each will receive a $1,500 scholarship. One of the two winners may be selected to serve a three-year term as a member of the USBC Youth Committee.

Chick, 17, of Muscatine, Iowa, is a senior at Muscatine High School and bowls on the school’s varsity team. At school she is a member of the National Honor Society, first chair clarinet in wind ensemble, head drum major of the Mighty Muskie marching band and president of the science club. She also is president of both the Muscatine Future Farmers of America and her local 4-H. Her career goal is to become a veterinarian.

“I really enjoy bowling because it is something I am good at and it is one of my favorite extracurricular activities to participate in,” Chick said.

Calcote, 18, of Friendswood, Texas, is a senior at WTM Academy Homeschool, maintains an “A” average and is heavily involved in youth bowling at both the local and state levels. The president of the Greater Houston USBC Youth Leaders, Calcote is serving his second term as a youth representative on the Greater Houston USBC board of directors. He also serves as the president of the Texas State USBC Youth Leaders, a director on the Texas State USBC board, and a member of the youth committees for both the Houston and Texas associations. A bowler since age 8 and owner of a perfect game with a 781 high series, the USBC Junior Gold member has been a youth leader for four years. He plans to study business administration and bowl on a collegiate team next fall.

“Kyle’s people skills and dedication to the sport of bowling make him the perfect candidate to represent the USBC as its Youth Ambassador of the Year,” said John Osfield, the Greater Houston and Texas State Youth Leaders advisor who nominated Calcote for the award.

RASH, SMITH NAMED NEWEST USBC AMBASSADORS

Pro bowlers join other stars to promote USBC and the sport

GREENDALE, Wis. - Star professional bowlers and former top amateurs Sean Rash and Robert Smith have been added to the roster of United States Bowling Congress Ambassadors.

The USBC Ambassador program is a speakers’ bureau that provides a star bowler as the headliner for hall of fame banquets, awards dinners, youth programs, bowling center grand openings or any other function where a guest speaker would enhance the event.

Rash and Smith join a who’s who of PBA and women’s stars such as Norm Duke, Parker Bohn III, Tommy Jones, Walter Ray Williams Jr., Tony Reyes, Chris Barnes, former tour veteran and champion Bob Learn Jr., Kelly Kulick, Carolyn Dorin-Ballard, Cathy Dorin-Lizzi, Kim Terrell, Diandra Asbaty and Stefanie Nulic.

Rash, a Wichita, Kan., resident and Anchorage, Alaska, native, is a four-time Denny’s PBA Tour titlist and the 2007 USBC Masters champion. He also is one of five members of the USBC Board of Directors elected by fellow athletes.

He served on Team USA in 2002, 2004 and 2005 as an amateur and is part of the 2008 USBC Team USA that for the first time includes pros. The 2002 U.S. Junior Amateur champion also was a Junior Team USA 2002 and 2003 member in addition to being a two-time All-American at Wichita State University. He earned the Chuck Hall Star of Tomorrow in 2001.

“I think it’s a great opportunity to try to help our sport grow by either speaking engagements, coaching clinics or just traveling around doing other things,” Rash said. “There are a lot of great people in the Ambassador program and we all want to see the same thing, our sport grow.”

A California native, Smith moved to Captain Cook, Hawaii, in April 2006. He captured his seventh career title and his first since 2004 last November in the CLR Windy City Classic at Hawthorn Lanes in Vernon Hills, Ill. He missed most of the 2006-07 PBA season with hip injury that left him unable to walk for two months.

Like Rash, Smith is a Chuck Hall Star of Tomorrow Award recipient winning the award in 1992. He was the 1993 U.S. Amateur Champion at age 19, the youngest to win the title. The 1994 and 1995 Team USA member was a first team All-American at San Diego State University in 1993.

Organizations seeking a USBC Ambassador are responsible for all related travel expenses and the appearance fees which must be negotiated directly with the Ambassador. USBC will contribute $500 per appearance to help offset expenses. Appearances are subject to the Ambassador’s availability.

Organizations can also offset the cost of hiring an Ambassador by securing event sponsorship, partnering with other participating bowling organizations to share the cost or by adding a nominal markup to the ticket price of the event.

AUSTRALIAN TWO-HANDED STAR EAGERLY AWAITS INTERNATIONAL COACH/INSTRUCTOR TRAINING SEMINAR

GREENDALE, Wis. - Even at the young age of 24, two-handed phenom Jason Belmonte of Australia is well-versed knowing the importance of having elite bowling coaches scattered throughout the world.

“We need more coaches in the world that are of a higher level,” said Belmonte, the reigning World Tenpin Masters champion and runner-up at the 2007 QubicaAMF World Cup. “There just aren’t enough people getting the correct information about how to become better bowlers.”

Belmonte and nearly 20 notable names in bowling from around the world will descend upon United States Bowling Congress Headquarters in suburban Milwaukee for an International Coach/Instructor Training seminar on Feb. 12-16.

This seminar is a continuation of USBC’s effort to assist in the creation of an international coach training program and enhance the strength of federations within bowling’s world governing body, the Federation Internationale des Quilleurs.

The newly trained coaches will certify USBC coaches in their home countries and regions who in turn will develop more high-level bowlers. Those athletes will increase the level of bowling competition around the world, which will help reach the ultimate goal of securing a place for bowling in the Olympic Games.

As it gains popularity throughout the world. Belmonte also hopes to lend some insight to the two-handed delivery - keeping two hands on the ball throughout the swing until the release, at which point being able to create a considerable amount of revolutions - and how to coach it, rather than discourage it.

“Most who don’t understand it, don’t like it and that’s cool. I can understand the traditionalist way of thinking,” said Belmonte, who also will be joined at the seminar by another successful two-hander, Team USA 2007 member Cassidy Schaub. “All I want for people who do decide to bowl two-handed is that they have the option of talking to a coach who ‘understands’ the style, so they can help them. Two-handed bowling will never take over, but it may keep a few more kids in our sport for longer.”

The five-day event, portions of which will be conducted inside the eight-lane USBC Testing Facility, will feature a Silver coach certification program with USBC Gold coach, Master Instructor and Junior Team USA head coach Rod Ross followed by a Bronze Instructor session, where the attending coaches will learn how to teach the USBC Bronze certification conference and certify coaches in their home countries.

Coaches in attendance also will have access to exclusive new coaching technologies being developed by USBC.

Other notables confirmed to participate include former PBA Tour player Andres Gomez of Colombia, 2007 Pan American Games singles silver medalist Daniel Falconi of Mexico and long-time Sweden national team head coach Magnus Johnsson as well as representatives from Argentina, Austria, Brazil, Denmark, England, Germany, Malaysia, Mexico, Hong Kong, Singapore and Thailand.

Also in attendance will be left-handed Philippine bowling legend Rafael “Paeng” Nepomuceno, a USBC Level I coach and Bronze Instructor who has certified numerous coaches throughout Asia since teaming up with USBC in early 2007. Nepomuceno, a four-time World Cup champion, will receive Silver Instructor training at the event.

“Better coaches equal better bowlers, and good bowlers can motivate more people to bowl,” said Falconi, who won the Masters gold medal at the 2005 American Zone Championships in Costa Rica. “It will help to change bowling’s perception from a game to a sport. Having successful coaches in this clinic to share some information will make this experience more complete.”

The USBC Coaching program, which professionally trains and certifies coaches to teach the sport of bowling, currently has tremendous respect as it is the only coaching program for bowling recognized by the United States Olympic Committee. As part of its international strategy, USBC is developing more online coach training with the overall goal to expand USBC’s reach globally through information and education.
