Simonsen Takes Down Belmo To Win Players Championship

by Lucas Wiseman

COLUMBUS, Ohio – Anthony Simonsen became the youngest bowler in PBA Tour history to win two career majors as he captured the 2019 PBA Players Championship on Sunday at Wayne Webb's Columbus Bowl.

Simonsen took down Jason Belmonte, the top-ranked player in the Flo-Bowling PBA Power Rankings, 232-212, in a dramatic championship match in which Belmonte had a chance to win the title.

Needing just a mark to lock up the win, Simonsen tripped out the 9 pin for a strike to begin his celebration. However, it was a stunning final frame for Belmonte just seconds before that took the crowd's breath away.

Belmonte, who has 10 career major titles, had a chance to own the PBA Tour record for majors outright with 11 with a double and eight in the final frame.

Instead, Belmonte stepped up and left a devastating pocket 7-10 split on his first shot in the 10th frame to virtually end his chances.

"The one in the 10th was really good," Belmonte said. "I was really happy with that off my hand and thought I was going to have to throw another one and another to shut him out.

I've had a few of those hits go my way in the 19 times that I've won. It's hard to swallow any time you lose, but it's part of the game."

Simonsen, who won the 2016 USBC Masters at age 19, watched as Belmonte left not one but two pocket 7-10 splits in the championship match, including one in the fourth frame.

"He had the two 7-10s, and I think everyone says the breaks even out down the road," said Simonsen, who lost in the Players Championship final to Belmonte, 221-204, in 2017. "Two years ago, I felt like Belmo got the breaks, and this time I was fortunate to be on the other side of it."

Simonsen made just one major mistake in the match after he was distracted by a cell phone going off in the continued on page 5

When Carmen Speaks, Everyone Listens

"When Carmen speaks, everyone listens," PBA star Sean Rash noted on his Facebook page after 85-year-old PBA legend Carmen Salvino completed his three rounds of qualifying in the PBA Tournament of Champions in Fairlawn, Ohio, and used the center's PA system to address the crowd. "Truly an honor to cross next to one of the Founding Members of the (PBA)."

After breaking his own record as the oldest player ever to compete in a PBA Tour event – again – Salvino delivered a short-but-sweet message, including, "...I'll be back":

<https://www.facebook.com/SeanRashFanPage/videos/336568733866399/>. Salvino, who bowled in the first PBA Tournament of Champions in 1962, also competed in the Go Bowling!

PBA 60th Anniversary Classic a year ago at Woodland Bowl in Indianapolis at the age of 84.

Weber Late Scratch From Players Championship

COLUMBUS, Ohio – A week after flirting with making the cut at the 2019 PBA Tournament of Champions, Hall of Famer Pete Weber has withdrawn from the PBA Players Championship.

According to the PBA, Weber's official reason for withdrawing was because he "needed to go home." No further details were made available.

Weber, 56, who has 37 career PBA titles and more than $4 million in career earnings, had trouble finishing numerous events in 2018. So far this season, Weber has competed in two events and finished both.

Last week at the TOC, Weber was in 24th place and on the cut number with one block of qualifying remaining but struggled in the final six games, finishing the event in 38th place.

He also competed in the PBA Oklahoma Open last month and finished in 78th place.

At the TOC, Weber told FloBowling he was feeling healthy and his chiropractor had worked his injuries out so he could continue to bowl.

He finished all 18 games last week and seemed healthy most of the event, although he could be seen clutching his hip in the final round of qualifying.

Weber remains on the official roster for the next three PBA events. He's scheduled to compete in the PBA Indianapolis Open next week, the PBA Jonesboro open starting Feb. 27 and the World Series of Bowling starting March 12.

Make It A Spectacular Year

by Fred Eisenhammer

WINNETKA – So a new year has dawned and bowlers are striving to accomplish new goals.

Well, perhaps they’re old goals that went undone from 2018.

Whatever the case, it’s time that bowlers think high as they chase their marks, whatever they might be.

For a select few, it may be that seemingly unattainable 900 (three perfect games) – a destination that no one from the L.A. area has reached. That 900 roadmap is something that few bowlers know how to navigate, but a handful of elite bowlers such as Bryan Alpert, Johnnie Englehart, Justin Pluchino, Rick Stine (who recently blasted an 835 series) and Jim Harvey all have shown the makeup and skills to do it.

For a few more, joining the 800 club is a mighty goal. For some others,

Rick Stine recently crushed an 835 series and is considered a worthy candidate from the L.A. area to smash a 900. Photo by Fred Eisenhammer logging that initial perfect game – such as what Gary Stines accomplished Jan. 30 at Winnetka Bowl – could provide for a year-long celebration.

Rolling that first 200 or 700 series is a quite an accomplishment as well. The same goes for that first 600 series. And one can definitely be proud of a first-time 500 series.

It’s nice to find motivation. Five years ago, left-hander Bill Plummer made headlines when he rolled back-to-back perfect games at Corbin Bowl in Tarzana.

After learning of Plummer’s dual masterpieces, ace women’s bowler Kelly Gold responded: “I am inspired to do something spectacular.”

Gold, who has left the San Fernando Valley for Las Vegas and has bowled back-to-back 300s herself, seemingly does something magical every time she bowls. Other bowlers should keep her mission in mind as they reach for a highlight performance in 2019. As long as bowlers roll a ball that hits the pins with some force, they’re all capable of something magnificent, or “spectacular.”

Sometimes it might take some luck. But that “spectacular” performance is there for the taking.

Give it your best shot this year!

2018 Champion Jakob Butturff Heads Field for PBA’s Go Bowling! Indianapolis Open

Changes in store as Woodland Bowl hosts another big event on 2019 Go Bowling! PBA Tour schedule

INDIANAPOLIS – The name of the tournament is a little different, but the Professional Bowlers Association’s Go Bowling! PBA Indianapolis Open, set for Feb. 19-24 at Woodland Bowl, will again be a pivotal event on the 2019 Go Bowling! PBA Tour schedule.

Leading an expected capacity field of 120 of the world’s premier bowlers into the seventh event of the 2019 PBA Tour season will be unorthodox left-hander Jakob Butturff, the winner of last year’s Go Bowling! PBA 60th Anniversary Classic at Woodland, and one of the hottest players on Tour in 2019.

Butturff won the 2018 Indianapolis title with a 244-154 romp past Marshall Kent of Yakima, Wash.

After the season’s first five events, the 24-year-old from Tempe, Ariz., ranked third in the new PBA Playoffs points standings after a runner-up finish in the season-opening PBA Hall of Fame Classic, a title in the Oklahoma Open and a record-tying three consecutive events as the qualifying leader. He trailed only Jason Belmonte, the two-hander from Australia who won a PBA record-tying 10th major championship in the PBA Tournament of Champions on Sunday in Fairlawn, Ohio, and carried his hot streak into this week’s PBA Players Championship in Columbus, Ohio, where he’s trying for sole possession of the all-time major titles record.

Trailing Belmonte is Sean Rash of Montgomery, Ill., who won the Mark Roth-Marshall Holman PBA Doubles Championship with Matt Ogle of Louisville, Ky.; finished second in the Lubbock Sports Open and placed ninth in last week’s TOC.

The name of Woodland’s 2019 tournament is slightly different, but there are some other big changes in store for fans and players. Among the most notable differences this year are:

- The finals on Sunday, Feb. 24, at 3 p.m. EST will be televised live on FOX Sport’s FS1 channel as part of the PBA’s historic television package that began in 2019;
- The Go Bowling! Indianapolis Open will be part of a new $1 million bonus program. If either player in the title match rolls a 300 game, he’ll win the bonus;
- In addition, if any player in the nationally-televised stepladder finals rolls a 300 game, title-sponsor Go Bowling.com (the online destination for bowling fans and enthusiasts seeking news and information about one of America’s favorite pastimes and the nation’s number one participatory sport) will award a free game of bowling coupon to every fan who pre-registers (to pre-register to receive the coupon by email, visit: www.gobowling.com/BowlFreeAmerica).
- The seventh of 14 events leading up to the new PBA Playoffs will be classified as a Tier 2 event in a new points program that will qualify 24 players for the inaugural play-offs that begin in Portland, Maine, in April. The winner of the PBA Playoffs will earn a $100,000 first prize. Fans can follow the points race on pba.com (<https://www.pba.com/SeasonStats/PointsList/132?list=1>).
- The Indianapolis Open will be contested entirely on a “mixed lane condition” scoring environment in which every round of qualifying, match play and even the stepladder finals will be contested with the Dick Weber 45 oiling pattern applied to the left lane and the Mike Aulby 38 oiling pattern applied to the right lane (the number indicates the length in feet oil is applied to the lanes).

- All qualifying and match play rounds of the tournament will be live streamed by PBA’s new online streaming partner, FloBowling (subscriptions are available at FloBowling.com).

As usual, Woodland Bowl will welcome a world-class field of PBA Hall of Famers (Chris Barnes, Norm Duke, Pete Weber and Walter Ray Williams Jr.); past PBA Players and Rookies of the Year; PBA Tour title winners and international champions, and an exciting group of talented young players who are fighting for PBA Rookie of the Year honors. For a roster of players entered, click here: <https://www.pba.com/Rosters/Details/2763>. The field of 120 will be filled during a six-game “Pre-Tournament Qualifier” that will take place on Tuesday, Feb. 19, at 8 a.m. The PTQ also will use the mixed Weber-Aulby lane oiling system.

Continuing a PBA tournament tradition at Woodland Bowl, grassroots league bowlers are invited to bowl with PBA partners in a pro-am tournament. Pro-am squads are scheduled for Saturday, Feb. 23, at noon and 2:30 p.m. To enter, call Woodland Bowl: (317) 844-4099.

ZACK JELLEY & TOBY LEE "Thunder and Lightning"

by Frank Weiler

REDLANDS – It's "MONDAY NIGHT LIGHTS" at Empire Bowl in Redlands. Every Monday night it's SHOWTIME when Zack Jellsey and Toby Lee light up the lanes. In the sixty or so years that Empire Bowl has been operating there has never been scoring on a scale as high as the scores bowled by Zack and Toby.

I call Zack Jellsey and Toby Lee "THUNDER and LIGHTNING". Zack provides the Thunder with a strike ball registering 500 Revolutions or more as it travels down lane. Toby provides the Lightning with a strike ball that he propels down lane at 20 MPH. Every time Toby strikes I call it a "LIGHTNING STRIKE".

Folks, you need to visit Empire Bowl at least one Monday night this season to see the "Thunder and Lightning" show.

Last week Toby rolled a huge 825 series with a 279 game. No big deal for Mr. Lightning. With a 237 average he averages a 711 series every week!

The TOP FIVE bowlers in Empire Bowl's NFL Club-house League on Monday night are:

- | | |
|-----------------|-----|
| 1. Zack Jellsey | 239 |
| 2. Toby Lee | 237 |
| 3. Nathan Groff | 232 |
| 4. Kevin Fossum | 230 |
| 5. Jake Selders | 222 |

Come and see. Come and see "Thunder and Lightning" crowd in the fifth frame. The disturbance caused Simonsen to step back in the middle of his approach and reset.

However, Simonsen got up and left the Greek Church after regrouping and was clearly agitated by the distraction. Although it appeared momentum had shifted in Belmonte’s favor after that moment, Simonsen held strong and fired off four straight strikes heading into the final frame to keep him in the match.

The victory made Simonsen the youngest player in PBA history to win two majors at age 22. Billy Hardwick previously held the record when he won his second major, the PBA Tournament of Champions, in 1965 at age 23.

In the semifinal, Simonsen won with a blowout victory over Kyle Troup, 259-202, for the right to face top seed Belmonte in the championship match.

After winning a pair of matches as the fifth seed, Troup, who had been battling a hand injury since the beginning of match play, said his injury flared up again in the fifth frame. From that point forward, Troup said he wasn’t able to hit the ball the same.

The match was even after six and a half frames, but Simonsen popped two perfect strikes in the seventh and eighth frames to build a 20-pin lead. Troup then left a light 8-10 split in the eighth that all but sealed his fate.

In a match that came down to the final frame, Troup took down third seed DJ Archer, 194-193, to advance into the semifinal.

Archer worked his way back after a 2-4-10 split for an open in the fifth and had a chance to win the match as he finished first. With a double and one pin, Archer would advance, however, he left a 10 pin on his first shot and struck on the fill.

That forced Troup to throw all three strikes in the final frame to win, which is exactly what he did. After the first shot was a nearly disastrous runaway Brooklyn, Troup regrouped with a light strike and a dead-perfect strike on the fill to advance.

Troup survived a high-scoring game against EJ Tackett in the opening match of the stepladder, 255-245, to advance.

Tackett, who finished second at the TOC last week, led throughout the match all the way until the ninth frame when he pitched the ball wide right and left the 1-2 combination.

After the match, Tackett said that was his big miss all week, coming around the top of the ball and pitching it right and it happened “at least once per game.”

Tackett made the spare in the ninth and went strike, strike, 10 pin in the final frame to force Troup to go nine, spare, strike to win by one. Troup struck on his first ball to put the match away.

The PBA Tour next heads to Indianapolis for the Go Bowling! PBA Indianapolis Open, which begins live on FloBowling on Wednesday.

SUNDAY'S PBA TOURNAMENT OF CHAMPIONS
VIEWERSHIP ON FOX UP +75% OVER LAST YEAR

FOX PBA

- THE 2019 PROFESSIONAL BOWLERS ASSOCIATION (PBA) TOURNAMENT OF CHAMPIONS ON FOX DELIVERED 1,131,000 VIEWERS ON SUNDAY, UP +75% OVER LAST YEAR, ACCORDING TO NIELSEN MEDIA RESEARCH.
- THE SHOW RANKS AS THE MOST-WATCHED NON-NFL ADJACENT BOWLING TELECAST SINCE 2010.

Live Tournament of Champions Telecast on FOX Again Posts Great Audience Ratings

by Bill Vint

The FOX telecast of the PBA Tournament of Champions finals from AMF Riviera Lanes in Fairlawn, Ohio, averaged 1,131,000 viewers over the course of two hours, according to Nielsen Media Research figures released this week. The audience was 75% larger than last year's 646,000 viewers and ranks as the most-watched non-NFL adjacent PBA telecast since 2010.

Sunday's show, which featured Jason Belmonte's PBA record-tying 10th major championship, also hit a peak of 1.301 million viewers during the championship match according to Nielsen's figures. Belmonte defeated EJ Tackett, 225-196, to tie PBA Hall of Famers Earl Anthony and Pete Weber, the only other players in PBA history to win 10 major championships.

The 2019 telecast drew the largest audience for a live PBA Tour finals telecast since the historic 2010 PBA Tournament of Champions when Kelly Kulick won the PBA Tournament of Champions at Red Rock Bowling Center in Las Vegas to become the first woman ever to win a PBA Tour title.

Through seven events since the PBA on FOX series began, 12,281,000 viewers have tuned-in to watch the PBA on FOX, FS1 or FS2 including repeats, which is up 56% over last year's total audience through seven events (7,891,000) and 13% higher than the total audience for the entire 2018 season (10,907,000).

ANAHEIM — WEEK OF 2/18/19 - Must be mentioned as it seemed as though it was a duel (friendly) between competitors Chris and Eric Hefner.

Chris prevailed with his games of 184, just getting the right area - 259-258 for 701 and added another 258 just for good measure to score a great 959 set.

Eric, although happy for his brother, still wanted to win. He still bowled well as evidenced by his games of 215-247-209 and 237 to tally a fine 908 series.

Danny Janssens came to bowl and bowl well he did! His games of 199-203-279 and 200 gave him a very nice 881.

More Hot Scores: Nick Lam, 248, Bob Turner 242, Mel Cabias 237, Eleazar Munoz 236, Frank Bellinder 235, Willy Bordenave 234, Rod Cantrell 231, Ron Douglass 231, Pete Vodden 231, Lenny Huber 229, David Yeoman 226, Blake Douglass 225, Terry Brent 224, Maiya Tallakson 222, Dave Easel 213, John Camisa 209, Louie Juarez 204 and Karen Bagnall 201.

WEEK OF 2/15/19 - Mel Caabias was the only regular league bowler to come out on top and capture high series. Mel's games 211-248-235 and 189 tally 883.

Popular sub Eddie Vasquez put on a nice 'striking' show on games of 226-256-173 and 202 to set a nice 867 set.
