Chan Stevie Hou Wins First ABT Championship at Linbrook Bowl

ANAHEIM—Chan Stevie Hou won his first Amateur Bowlers Tour (ABT) championship at Linbrook Bowl on Saturday, February 23, 2008 during our one-day 4-game Beat-the-Board tournament. Stevie bowled in our 12:30PM squad and shot games of 209, 254, 261, and 271 for a handicap series of 995 on his way to winning the $750 first place prize plus $1500 from the Progressive Pot. Jason Haring from Huntington Beach and Som Seng from Long Beach tied for second shooting a handicap series of 960, each taking home $265.

Stevie Hou has been bowling for just over a year. Stevie is married to Muysin and has two children, Chandler, 6 and Chason, 6 months old. Stevie does his league bowling at Cal Bowl and has a 243 game and 600 series to his credit. Stevie was using an Ebonite Game Breaker drilled by Josh Montgomery at Cal Bowl. Stevie wanted to thank Chandler for supporting him at the tournament this weekend and to his wife for letting him bowl. Stevie also wanted to thank Som Seng and Sophia and Marc Sy for helping him with his

Inland Empire NABI Champion Eugene Haynes

RIVERSIDE—Our new champion, Eugene Haynes, won this last Sat. at Riverside Lanes, a great house to bowl. We thank them for their hospitality, as always. With this win, Eugene is a 3 time NABI champion. He won with his Ebonite ICE, drilled by Chris Hagin at Deer Creek Lanes in Rancho Cucamonga. Eugene keeps very busy with his job at Kellogg's Cereal. He has worked there for 17 years, and travels all over the United States as a transportation co-ordinator. However busy, Eugene was very happy to find time to bowl at Riverside this past Sat to win $600, another champion shirt and says "I will see you at the Nationals" Eugene also enjoys basketball & track & field. He has been a NABI member for about 1 year and bowled his highest game last year, a 280 scratch at Chapparral Lanes in San Dimas. He dedicates this win to his daughters, Jenene &

Sad News From Orange County

by Joy McGregor

It is with a very heavy heart that I report the passing of our OC/USBC President Bill Huntington. Bill passed peacefully in his sleep this morning, February 26th. Services will be held this Saturday, March 1 at 10:00 am at Fairhaven Memorial Park (in the Waverly Chapel) in Santa Ana.

The family asks that in lieu of flowers a donation be made to the American Cancer Society. Cards may be sent to Cheryl and her family at 1115 W. Hampshire, Anaheim, 92802.

Bill Huntington

Bill was always there for you with a helping hand and a big heart, full of laughs and lots of jokes to share...I reckon he's probably already gathering his papers and preparing to bring down the gavel at the next meeting.

Our thoughts and prayers are with the Huntington family. Bill will be greatly missed... Our loss is Heaven's gain!

California Bowler Celebrates Milestone with Career-Best Performance at USBC Open Championships

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - In 1980, Bruce Harner of Azusa, Calif., began a journey that has taken him to 17 cities in 14 states, and this week he celebrated his 25th United States Bowling Congress Open Championships appearance by traveling to the top of the leaderboard in Regular All-Events.

The 50-year-old left-hander uses the annual tournament as a chance to see places he wouldn't necessarily travel to

Deja Duke

Norm Duke captured his third Major title and 27th overall.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.— Same location, same opponent, different circumstances. Same result.

For the second consecutive year, Norm Duke defeated Ryan Shafer to a win a title at Woodland Bowl, but this one meant so much more.

Duke, who came into the week on the verge of losing his Denny's PBA Tour exemption, defeated Shafer, 202-165, to win the Denny's World Championship for his third career Major and 27th title overall.

The win gives Duke a much-needed two-season Tour exemption. The veteran has struggled through various injuries this season and came into the week 51st in the PBA World Point Rankings with just five events remaining. The top 39 via the point rankings earn exemptions at season's end.

Suffering from the flu all week, Duke showed his usual flair for the dramatic, gutting it out to advance to the final round, which moved him up to 37th in the point rankings. His win, however, means he doesn't have to worry about points for the next two years.

"The number of times I thought about pulling out of this event and now to see myself sitting here with another Major title and $50,000 and all the things that come with a Major, I just can't believe it. I'm shocked," Duke (Clermont, Fla.) said. "This was the most painful flu I've ever had. Bowling this week was not fun. I really wanted to quit but every time I would go back and lay down I felt miserable so I thought, 'I'm going to be miserable either way. I may as well bowl.'"

In a final round where all four bowlers had a hard time finding their way on the lanes, fore writing the column today

we are sorry to report the passing of Bill Huntington, long time leader of the OCBA and it's merger into the successful
OCUSBC.

With Cheryl at his side, unofficially and officially, through out their marriage and bowling duties, they were truly Mr. and Mrs. Bowling personified. I have no details except Bill died on Monday and their countless friends extend deepest sympathy to Cheryl. See page 1 for details.

The Vegas league bowled
at Valley View Monday. Ann

Huertas Wins Second ABTA Title at Keystone!! $2,200 “Ace” Ronnie Cordero hits 3-6-9 for $500

*Match Game is $3,500 again, Match Series est $700 this week
Westminster Lanes is Our Host in One Day Early Event
Qualify 12:00-1:00-2:30 & 4:00PM - Semi-Finals 5:45 PM
Bring in a New Member and bowl for only $1.00 YES a Buck!*

NORWALK—Mark Huertas was at it again and won his second ABTA title in thrilling fashion, striking out to win his match by one pin and surviving a 9-10 roll off due to a tie in another. He was on his game regardless and finally won the title in a 199-188 count, over the top seed Richard Reams who led till the 7th frame in the match. It was a great tournament and lots of fun at Keystone.

In our return to Keystone we had a nice turnout of 221 entrants in the two day event. It took a nice +73 men, and +52 ladies to make the Saturday cut to the semis. On Sunday morning in the 10:00 AM squad took 1 in 5 to the semis. We saw Men +75 and Women+21 making the grade to the semis. Also added were Super Seniors, Jim Smith, Simon Rojas and Janine Ditch to the board.

Leading the Semis was the pride of Hanford, Richard Reams who fired up a big +182, topping Gina Velarde at +132 to be top seed and sit out to bowl for the title. Gina would receive a first round bye in the single elims and enter in round two. It took a +64 (men) and +13 for the 3 guaranteed ladies to make the Sweet 16 Single Elim Finals.

The Bowlers took to the lanes, and in the first round single elims and losing were Juan Camarena, Sal Galluzzo, Ray Grabinski, Greg Velarde, Simon Rojas, Mike Ake and (Mrs. Ace) Rina Cordero. They got checks of $105 in 10-16th places.

In round two being eliminated were Vic Fabian, Som Seng, Jim Smith, and Gina Velarde, and they cashed in 6-9th places and $115 each.

Round three had newcomer Aaron Storey down Big Adam Mc Kenzie 246-176. Huertas pulled out some magic in the 10th to down Deborah Sanders 224-223 on the final ball, so Adam and Debra were 4th and 5th and $125 each.

It was now Huertas and Storey to meet for the right to meet Reams for the title. In a great match, it ended in a tie as Huertas needed 8 to win and somehow missed way right and luckily a pin rolled from the back to get a 7 count and we had a tie which Mark did prevail in a 9-10 frame roll off with the likeable newcomer, Storey finishing 3rd in his first ever ABTA Event and $200. Great bowling Aaron!

The title game was set and the horses were paid as Huertas returned $43 for the people who had him in the horses!

Two great guys would now meet for the title. Richard elected to lead off and opened. Richard fired a big three bagger in frames 3-5 but Huertas matched him with 3 of his own. After an open in the 6th by both men, Reams held a 10 pin lead. Reams then did it again leaving another 2-10 in the 7th, and was now down by 9 pins but still very much in the game. He again trusted the ball too much leaving the 1-2-4-6-10 and yes, again in the 9th, he trusted it again!! leaving a the 2-4-8-10. Mark was keeping clean and Richard tried in vain striking out but fell short in a 169/188-192/199 margin and was the runner up. Huertas the fortuitous but deserving winner and his second ABTA title in as many years. (Both came at Keystone) where Mark performs very well.

In fact he bowls well most every ABTA stop. He has been a faithful member for many years and is most deserving!! A nicer guy you will not find! Great Bowling Mark! Mark had the crowd oohing, and awing in the suspenseful finishes. Not a dull moment to be sure! :-)

Great bowling by Richard Reams also, a true competitor. He also could have been our winner this week, and also Aaron Storey in his ABTA debut.

Ronnie “Ace” Cordero thrilled the crowd hitting the 3-6-9 for a cool $500. It will be

The Match Series worth $350 was as also UN-matched and will go for an estimated $700 Saturday at Westminster.

Champion Mark Huertas is from Fontana. He used an Awesome Hook drilled by Joe Staton for the win. He is single, and available Gals! He thanks his pals Rowie Jucal, John Cortes, Boo and Lara, Elvin, Nancy, Mark Mauna, and Edwin and God and let's not forget Joe Staton and Sarah Magno! Note to Sarah, it all turned out very well! :-)

Aaron Storey is from Northridge and used a Hammer sold to him by Verne at Mission Bowl. He thanks Dan Stipkovich for tipping him about the ABTA saying it is the best tournament club to join!

We had several new members at Keystone. First time Cashers were Aaron Storey, Joey Marino, Deb Bradley, Ernie Reynoso of Indio fame, and a big welcome back to Mike Ake, who cashed in his return to ABTA action.

It is history folks, as Mark Huertas enters the archives as a two time Champion!

Tenpin Slants

by Joe Lyou

Did you watch the 2008 Denny's World Championship on ESPN? The annual Professional Bowlers Assn. "major" tournament was staged at Woodland Bowl in Indianapolis.

Woodland Bowl? They should have called the brickyard the "Woodlake 500 Bowl"—after the original "brickyard" that hosts the famed Memorial Day 500-mile auto race.

You know why? Check the scores posted in the World Championship by "the greatest bowlers in the world," as the PBA likes to refer to its members.

In the first ESPN match, Australian amateur Andrew Frawley—wasn't he a breath of fresh air!—who said he "wanted to have fun and not embarrass myself," did just that, struggling to shoot 158.

His opponent, four-time Denny's PBA Tour champion Ryan Shafer had 204—but he had to carry a Brooklyn strike, giving him a double, to do it.

In the second match, Walter Ray Williams Jr., who owns more titles (44) than anyone else, was completely lost as he shot a buck-eighty.

At least Ol' Deadeye lost to a good bowler, Norm Duke (26 titles), who had 208—thanks also to a Brooklyn strike.

In the title match, Duke, in spite of being sick all week (flu and bronchitis), sniffled his way to 202—and title No. 27—while Shafer had to settle for a paltry 165.

As if that weren't bad enough, TV announcer Rob Stone kept reminding the audience that "Shafer has never beaten Duke on television." (Shafer is oh-for-seven against Duke.)

So, why were the scores so low in the World Championship? Frank Kietz has a theory. He says, "The PBA wanted low scores."

Now, you have to remember that anything Kietz says has to be taken with a grain of salt, so to speak. For one thing, the guy's 91 years old. On the other hand, Kietz has been bowling since Count Gengler was a kid, so perhaps Kietz knows what he's talking about.

Also, Kietz is a past president of the Bowling Writers Assn. of America, plus he's the Historian and a longtime staff writer for the California Bowling News. And in spite of his ancient bones, he still bowls open play several times a week.

On the chance that Kietz is right this time, I got to thinking, "Why would the PBA want the scores to be low in the World Championship?"

Then the light came on. The PBA wanted low scores because it is a diabolically clever plot to gain new members!

Imagine all the league bowlers sitting at home and watching the World Championship on TV. Many of them carry "house averages" of 220, or higher. They're thinking, "Hey, I can beat these guys. I'm a much better bowler than them."

So they join the PBA—and promptly discover they can't break an egg on the Scorpion pattern. Nor on any of the other four PBA lane patterns.

Let's face it. The PBA can boast of having more than 4,000 members, but these members are constantly dropping out and relinquishing their membership.

That means the PBA must find "new blood" to keep up its membership at a high level. What better way to recruit new members than by having them believe they're better than Walter Ray Williams Jr. and Norm Duke?

The 2008 National Golden Ladies Classic is a big success—and it hasn't been held yet.

The tournament—for women ages 50 and up—is scheduled March 10-13 at its usual home, the Orleans Hotel/Casino/Bowling Center in Las Vegas.

USBC Hall of Famer Jeanette Robinson, who founded this tenpin classic 18 years ago, issued a last-minute report that she has received 80 entries, a new tournament record.

According to Jeanette, 34 women are in the Regular Division (50 and up), 36 Super Seniors (60 and up), nine who are 70 or older, and one 85-year-old lady who carries a 175 average.

"I may have to create a new division just for her," Jeanette quipped.

"We would've had three more entries, but probably because of the economy, those three ladies from England did not enter the tournament this year. However, there are 24 states represented—the most ever—including three bowlers from Alaska," Jeanette said.

The 80 Golden Ladies will be battling for a $2,000 first-place prize. Defending her title will be Joan Reilly of Wilmington, N.C.

Reilly will have to be at her best if she hopes to repeat. Considered title threats are hometown favorite Char Hammel, who won this tournament in 2006 and was the runner-up last year; Florida's Shirley Levens, a three-time champion; and USBC Hall of Famer Robin Romeo (Newhall, Calif.), who will be competing for the first time in the Golden Ladies.

Romeo won 17 titles on the PWBA (Professional Women's Bowling Assn.) Tour, and was Player of the Year in 1989.

Not everyone can win, of course, but they are all guaranteed of having a fun time.

SLANTING THE NEWS: It was nice of the PBA to give Danny Wiseman some credit for all the charity work he does when he's not bowling. The 12-time champion from Baltimore appeared in a filmed segment featuring auto racing's renowned Team Ganassi during the World Championship. Danny has participated in several fund-raisers for auto racing charities, and often bowls in charity Pro-Ams hosted by some of the nation's best-known athletes...

Did you hear that USBC Hall of Famer John Jowdy, who was scheduled for knee-replacement surgery Feb. 28, had to postpone the procedure for several weeks? Jowdy's blood count was a little low, so his doctor wants to beef him up first. With steroids or HGH, John?...

Add medical report: USBC Hall of Famer Jeanne Naccarato, who was hoping to make her debut in the National Golden Ladies Classic, may not be able to compete because of a sore elbow. The Cleveland native, who was the PWBA Player of the Year in 1986, now lives in Tacoma, Wash., with husband Stan...

And USBC Hall of Famer Robbie Rickard fell and broke her right arm recently. A former resident of Orange County, Robbie is currently living in McKinney, Tex. (near Dallas)...

Bowler of the Week: Gas, no not the natural occurrence or the flatulence that may occur, is our bowler of the week. He bowls with our seniors and Mr. Sunamong bowled himself a triplicate game this past Monday; recording three straight 152's. Great bowling and easy on the chili.

Sweetness quote of the week: Think big, think positive, never show any sign of weakness. Always go for the throat. Buy low, sell high. Fear? That's the other guy's problem. Nothing you have ever experienced will prepare you for the absolute carnage you are about to witness. Super Bowl, World Series - they don't know what pressure is. In this building, it's either kill or be killed. You make no friends in the pits and you take no prisoners. - Trading Places
