Ryan Shafer Bringing Awareness to Diabetes Through PBA Tour

Shafer to bowl against Tommy Jones and Randy Weiss in PBA Dick Weber Playoffs Go RVing Regional on ESPN Sunday at 1130 a.m.

INDIANAPOLIS—From football players to Olympic athletes to golfers, there is a noteworthy list of athletes who have been able to pursue their passion of competing in sports despite having to deal with the challenges of living with diabetes.

Included on that list is four-time Lumber liquidators PBA Tour champion Ryan Shafer of Horseheads, N.Y.

The 44-year-old Shafer, who will compete against Tommy Jones and Randy Weiss in the Go RVing South Region finals of the Dick Weber PBA Playoffs on ESPN Sunday, March 27 at 2:30 p.m. Eastern, is making his second television appearance of the 2010-11 Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour season after finishing fourth in the Lumber Liquidators U.S. Open in February.

Shafer, who has competed on Tour for 24 seasons, was diagnosed as a Type I diabetic (where the pancreas does not produce insulin) at age 19. He attracted significant media attention during the 2010-11 season in Tour markets by creating awareness for a condition that affects nearly 26 million people in the U.S. — most of whom are able to carry on relatively normal productive lives thanks to advancements in treatment.

Having had diabetes during his entire PBA career, as an athlete Shafer has had to pay particularly close attention to his condition. He began by taking the necessary insulin shots to ensure his blood sugar remained at the proper levels which can sometimes be a burden to those who have the disease.

But thanks to technological advances, he is now able to get his insulin injections automatically through an insulin pump made by the Animas Corporation. It was a change in PBA's tournament schedule several years ago which persuaded Shafer to use the pump device.

"The PBA made a change to its qualifying and single-elimination match play schedule in 2004 and it became difficult for me to take shots during competition. Before that change, I didn't know if I was going to be able to continue my career," Shafer said. "Plus, I had already gotten into a routine taking the shots and was really a little hesitant to try a new technology. That schedule change kind of forced me to see what other alternatives might be available. That's when my doctor suggested I use a pump."

The pump Shafer uses now is about the size of a cell phone and works like an IV. It can be placed anywhere on a person's body, but like many cell phone users, Shafer wears his on his belt. The pump carries a three-day supply of insulin and automatically injects the proper doses of insulin in a constant flow based on information Shafer programs into it. He no longer has to eat during competition rounds, but still has to pay close attention to his diet and how much he bowls during Tour events, especially demanding tournaments like PBA's majors and the Dick Weber Playoffs.

"Even though it's more convenient than having to take shots, you still have to monitor things like your diet and how much physical activity you're doing," Shafer said. "There's some trial and error involved, but after awhile you figure it out. And what's also nice about it is that you can adjust it depending on your activity in a given day."

Originally reluctant, he now enjoys his role as a spokesperson for the disease after it was mentioned on a PBA Tour ESPN telecast several seasons ago that he had the condition. That revelation drew a lot of response especially from parents of children who had the disease.

BOWLING CENTERS SUSTAIN DAMAGE IN JAPAN'S EARTHQUAKE, TSUNAMI

JAPAN—Reports are sporadic and incomplete, but it appears the bowling community in Japan also is suffering severe ramifications from the powerful earthquakes and tsunami that struck the country on March 11. It may be weeks before a complete assessment is available, but an early report was provided by Eastern Sports Sales Manager Koji Yamamoto.

"On March 11, a very strong earthquake struck Tohoku and Kanto area of Japan, and resulted in devastation across large areas in the northeastern area of Japan," Yamamoto reported from his Tokyo office. "I'm safe after this tragedy, however many bowling centers in Japan have suffered a great loss from the earthquake."

"I'm afraid it must take a long time to be repaired to their original conditions, but we will do our best toward the recovery."

3 Generations Shoot 300

by Linda Johnson

SAN DIMAS—People say things happen in "Threes" well here's one for the record.

The Foster family has a "Trio" that's unique. What makes the trio notable is they have all rolled 300 games at Chaparral Lanes in the San Gabriel Valley Bowling Association.

Michael Foster Sr bowled his first in 1989 at Chaparral Lanes in San Dimas and it was the 1st 300 game bowled at the new center. Several years passed and in 2008 his son Michael Foster Jr rolled his second 300, his first was bowled at BRC West Covina Lanes. Keeping it in the family on January 8, 2011 his grandson Justin Foster bowled his first 300 game.

On a special note, all of the 300 games were bowled

in the Touch of Class Bowling League of which Michael Foster Sr has been the Secretary/Treasurer since the leagues inception.

On a personal note I met the Foster family back in the 1960's while bowling at Five Points Bowling Center in El Monte, CA.

It has been a pleasure to know and work with Mike and the league bowlers through out the years.

Mark Roth Continues Remarkable Recovery

CHEEKTOWAGA, N.Y. - In May of 2009, Professional Bowlers Association Hall of Famer Mark Roth, a 34-time champion and universally regarded as one of the greatest bowlers in history, fell victim to a massive stroke that paralyzed his left side and left his family and friends wondering if he'd ever walk on his own again.

The thought may have entered Roth's mind, but it left quickly as he began a determined battle to recover use of his body. The first signs of significant progress became apparent when he was able to attend the inaugural PBA Mark Roth Plastic Ball Championship in West Babylon, N.Y., in March of 2010. The tournament, named in his honor, was won by amateur Brian Ziesig.

On Wednesday, Roth and his wife Denise again made the trip from their home in Fulton, N.Y., to AMF Thruway Lanes in Cheektowaga for the 2011 edition of the Mark Roth Plastic Ball Championship. And it quickly became apparent that Roth has made even greater strides on his road to recovery when he stepped onto the lanes and bowled a few games.

Roth, who was ranked fifth behind Earl Anthony, Walter Ray Williams Jr., Dick Weber and Pete Weber on the list of PBA's greatest players ever as part of the organization's 50th anniversary in 2009, has improved steadily thanks to therapy and the use of an electronic device called "WalkAide." The device, manufactured by Hanger Prosthetics, provides electronic stimulation to his left leg allowing him to walk more efficiently by overcoming a common stroke complication called "foot drop."

When Roth proved he had the determination to walk again, his doctors recommended bowling as the ideal form of therapy. Roth, who will celebrate his 60th birthday on April 10, returned to the lanes with a six-pound ball and has slowly graduated to heavier equipment. "I've gone from a point where they thought I would never walk again to where I can bowl three games at a time using a 12-pound ball," Roth said. "I can use a 15-pound urethane ball for a few frames, but I'm not able to keep the speed up and it hooks off the lane."

The "hook off the lane" comment is ironic, considering that Roth is widely credited with creating today's "power game" with a unique delivery technique back in the 1970s that allowed him to generate massive hook with plastic bowling balls that few could match. His ability to hook plastic equipment revolutionized both the way modest bowlers throw the ball, and the advanced technology built into today's bowling equipment that enhances hooking power. In addition to the challenge of recovering from his stroke, Roth also developed complications with his hip that hampered his ability to sleep. Hard work in therapy has also alleviated most of that problem.

"Going to therapy five times a week about killed me," he admitted, "but it has helped a lot. Right now I'm on a break from therapy, which I'm enjoying." Roth's recovery has progressed to the point where now he feels good enough to travel longer distances. In fact, he recently passed his driver's test.

"Passing the driver's test was a big milestone for me," Roth said. "Being able to drive again is just another thing that has increased my independence." Attending the tournament named in his honor is also an important part of Roth's therapy. "Mark really needs this," Denise said about attending the Plastic Ball Championship. "This was Mark's family for so many years and he needs to be in this environment—it's good medicine."

Roth, who was busy providing commentary for pba.com's Xtra Frame Thursday and Friday, will be sitting in the front row Sunday when the finals of the Plastic Ball Championship air live on ESPN at 1 p.m. Eastern.

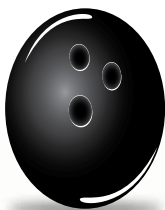

Roth's legacy is firmly established. In addition to his 34 Tour titles which ranks tied for fourth all-time, he is a four-time PBA Player of the Year (1977, 1978, 1979 and 1984). He led the Tour in average six times, including a then-record 221.699 in 1979. His record of eight titles in 1978 may never be broken and for good measure, he followed his record year with another seven titles in 1979. He earned more than $1.6 million in career earnings before moving into PBA Senior Tour competition where he won two more titles, earned Senior Rookie of the Year honors in 2001 and Senior Player of the Year honors a year later.

While Roth has a quite a way to go in his rehabilitation, because of the progress he has made thus far, he's encouraged about one day returning to PBA competition. "I've got a long way to go and need to get a lot of strength back especially in my left leg," Roth said. "But I'm determined and with the progress I've made so far don't count me out."

ABTA Returns to Irvine Lanes this weekend/ Note Squad Times
Qualify 1:00-2:30-4:00-5:30 & 7:00 Beat the Board Semi-Finals 9:00 PM

WHITTIER—We returned to Friendly Hills this past weekend and had a nice turnout of 250 entries in our one day event. We saw a tough shot again this week and scores on the lower side as they were +33 for the men and +15 for the women. The Super Seniors added to the board (2 men and 1 female) were Roger Romero (+34) and Robert Ricketts (+27). For the women it was Wendy Soo Hoo (-46). That would give us 61 bowlers making it to the semi-finals this week, but only 54 took the floor as 7 bowlers failed to show for semi-finals.

For all qualifying squads, our top qualifier for the Men was Nghiem Tran with a +145, and for the women it was Dana Le Count with a +51. Each will get a paid entry into a future regular ABTA event. Each week our top seed overall draws the Match Series, and this week it was worth $1,786. The top seed drew a 522 and we had two bowlers that bowled this score during qualifying. They were BK Harnpatanakitpanich and Michael Kong getting $893 each.

This Saturday at Irvine Lanes, we will estimate the Match Series at $400. For the 3-6-9 qualifying this week, we had David Godinez and Wayne Hohenstein, but both missed in the 2nd round so they split the $50 consolation. We will add another $100 at Irvine Lanes giving us a pot of $1,800.

This week optional doubles, finishing in first were Chris Romero and Julian “Iron Man” Conwi with a 1437 for $160. Finishing second was Nghiem Tran and Marvin Crowder with 1429 for $140. We had a total of $1,550 paid out in doubles with low to cash of 1333.

Now for the semis. Dom La Guardia bowled back to back 220’s in the 2nd and 3rd game to capture the lead with a +102, to sit out and bowl for the title. In second place, Javier Avila finished with a +92 to sit out the first round, and enter in the 2nd round. It took a +28 for the men and a -8 for the women to make the top 16.

This week, our top seed in semi-finals had the honor of drawing the Match Game worth $1,555. Dom drew a 100, by the way that is the lowest score that we have in the pot. After a review of all scores, we had no one who bowled that score. The estimated pot will be $2,800 at Irvine Lanes.

This week we had seven new bowlers joined us. Let us welcome these new bowlers to the club, Dan West, Alexis Gioya, Richard Sevaslian, Lloyd Fujitani, Louraine Vicente, Chang Kim, and Lori Silva.

This would bring us to our Match Play finals. In the first round the seven losers were Richard Lim, Jerry Chang, Annaliza Agoncillo, Greg Kokanour, Cecilia Lung, Roger Romero, and Marvin Crowder. They received checks of $105 each. In the second round, the losers Sonia Coronado, Wayne Hohenstein, Jason “I gotta go” Jones, and Javier Avila received checks of $115 each.

This would get us down to the final four bowlers. At this point, our horses would be paying anywhere from a low of $63 (John Wei) to a high of $158 (Kenny Kwan) depending on who would win.

In this round we saw John Wei (9th seed) bowling “JJ” Soon (8th seed). In this match, John would get the better of JJ with a 214 to 168 finish. In the other match we saw Kenny Kwan (13th seed) bowling Donovan Chung (7th seed). Donovan would get the better of Kenny with a 199 to 152 finish. Kenny and JJ finished 4th and 5th getting checks for $125 each. Our semi-final match was all set. It would be bowled on Lanes 27 and 28 this week and pit our 7th seed against our 9th seed. In the horses we would see John paying $63 and Donovan paying $118 if they would win their match.

Donovan struggled to find his shot, and John was able to continue his hot bowling. John would finish with a 199/248 to 149/191. That would give John the victory and for those “investors” that had John as a horse, he paid $63. Donovan finished 3rd and received $205.

The title game was set and bowled on Lanes 25 and 26 this week. Dom being the top seed elected to have John begin the match first. In the first frame John would open up with a split and we would see Dom get spares in the 1st and 2nd frames. But things would quickly change as John would find his shot and get strikes in the 4th and 5th frame. We would see Dom open in the 6th and 7th frames.

After the 7th frame John had a 37 pin advantage and would not look back as he would go on to finish with a 181/230 to 147/182 for his 2nd ABTA Championship. John would take home $1,000 for the win, and an additional $1,700 in Cash and Carry. This would give him a total of $2,700 for his win. Dom received $500 for 2nd place.

Champion John Wei is from Los Angeles and used a Virtual Energy drilled by Billy Chao. He is single and would like to say thank you to the Mou-Liu League and specially Patricia. John is an avid ABTA supporter and is quite fun to be around. The beer was flowing at Friendly Hills. Great bowling by a greater guy!

LAKE FOREST—What's the best thing a bowler can ever brag about? If you said a 300 game, you are absolutely right. And, Sunday while bowling “The King of the Hill tournament, we had two guys shoot the big 300, that was Lou Dietrich and Rick Cooper. Dietrich's series was a fantastic 743 and Cooper's was a Huge 721. Lou Dietrich also shot a super 720 series while bowling the FRIDAY VEGAS W2010.

Dietrich doesn't sound Irish to me but something must have blessed him recently. Noli De Mesa was next with a great 689 series, followed by Steve Zimmerman and Greg Seachrist who both shot 657 and Joe Petrilla shot 653. For the gals; Kristi Zimmerman gave her husband, Steve, a close call when she shot 655. Anita Kleiman rolled a nice 603 and Sheri Glass 220/592.

The top eight bowlers in the NFL SCRATCH were Oliver Burns 273/910, and Seth Leader 255/910, then Michael Salorio was close behind with 901. Steve Zimmerman barely missed the 900 mark when he shot 899. Jason Brent was another “big shooter” with a big 277 game and 879 series. Then Dave Lindsey also scored big with 879. Butch Hewitt showed his talent with a 260 game and 863 series. Wow, these guys are good!

Top male bowler in the DUTCH WELLS SENIOR SCRATCH THIS WEEK WERE John Ondejko with 626, Art Lange 565 and Don Capobianco 554. For the ladies it was Juanita Mac Morris with 508 and Joanne Prothero shot a nice 203 game. The SCRATCH CHALLENGE was a lot of fun to watch this past week because the scores just got better and better. Starting with Chris Grulke, who scored 267/710, David Lindsay 249/696, Josh Koch 258/692, Deeronn Booker 675, and Sam Hitchcock 241/664.

Howard Stephens was the only bowler in the SVUSD2011 to bowl over 600 this week, he shot a nice 269/628.

SLOTS OF FUN bowled up a storm this week! There were over 15 series over 600 but with my ink running out I'll mention the top 6. Bill Waddington 245-229-245/719, Mike Deliberto 671, Joe Petrella 242/666, Rob Peroozshad 266/653, Eric Watson 640, and Bret August 639. Now let us acknowledge the top bowlers in the HITS & MISSES starting with Drew Sebilian 258/652, Chuck Le Vasseur 225/608 and a very nice game of 242 by Darryl Tahirali. For the ladies, it was Barbara Painter with a nice 210 game.

LOS AMIGOS top scores this week were shot by Larry Anderson a nice 605 for the men and for the ladies it was Carol Cooley with 507.

FUN SEEKERS high man was Jim Peterson with 638 and for the gals, Carol Beers shot 524.

MEGA VEGAS FOREST 2011 none other than Phil Newman shot a huge 290 game and ended with a great 662 series. Another great game to yell about was a 279 shot by Bob Wheeler, then Ed Regehr shot 255/665, Sam Hitchcock nailed a 249/656, Ed Rossi wheeled in a 646 and Ernie Nietzsche snagged a 246/610. The ladies also made a nice showing when Paulette Cox shot a 590 series and Sandra Carroll shot a great 223 game.

MEGA VEGAS THURSDAY LEAGUE It was Gary Armstrong AKA “Weak” who shot high series with 648. Note; he once shot a 300 game while bowling in the Business Network League. Mike Hollowell was second with 249/630, followed by Joel Tatlonghari 247/ 608 and Tom Walling 605. Ladies high was Jackie Burns 233/583.

IN THE MIGHTY BUMPERS LEAGUE (KIDS UNDER 7) Sergio Alvarez bowled a 100 game. In the JUNIOR DIVISION Jacob Steele beat his Bowlum and Pro Approach split 3-2. Arnold Cheesman led the league and Bowlum with his 228-242-279/749 set, while Herbert Jones 214-206-233/653 and Mark Fisser 207-225/613 also contributed. # From the Desk of Linda Johnson SGVUSBC Association Manager

by Linda Johnson

COVINA — The 2011 City Tournament for the San Gabriel Valley USBC has come to a close. Entry this year was extremely low, was it because of the economy? Is it because bowlers are too busy or are they just not interested?

So many bowlers said they did not know about the tournaments and I’m sure that means the local association needs to do a better job in promoting the events. They also need to get the word out about how to become the San Gabriel Valley USBC “Bowler of the Year” or be inducted into the SGVUSBC Hall of Fame.

The following is a reply to a couple of comments that were given when asked if they competed in the tournaments.

Do you know how it feels when you ask a fellow bowler, did you bowl the City Tournament and they say “Don’t like the payoff” or “Not enough money in it”? Well I say to you, if everyone that made those statements would join and bring a fellow bowler or team, we would have more teams to have a better payoff and return with more in the prize fund.

Let me break down this year’s $30.00 entry fee per event for you. First the lineage normally $3.25 for each event and you bowl 3 games for each totally $9.75, then the expenses of preparing for the tournaments like paper, printing, postage to name a few things usually around $3.00 leaving $17.00 for prize fund. We are aware you want a lower entry fee if so it would come from the prize fund.

The other factor is the payoff, at this time the return is based on one place for every five entries. This percentage has been recommended from headquarters. If it is lower the percentage it will increase the number of places but would lower the payoff. If increased it would decrease the number of places paid and increase the amount paid.

For any of this to happen the local association would like to hear from you, what thoughts do you have? Do you have any good ideas to make it better not only the bowlers but also for the association and bowling centers?

Contact us by phone - 626-859-5216 or by E-mail - thumpr2@verizon.net or by Mail : 1061 West Badillo St., Covina or by Visiting the office or come to an open meeting. Your input is valuable.

This plea for information is not only for OUR San Gabriel Valley Association, ALL associations are needing your help. Page 11 has association addresses & phone numbers.

Thank you for your support.

JAMES CAMPBELL
Oldest To Bowl
300 In The Citrus Belt?

by Frank Weiler

VICTORVILLE — James Campbell bowled his first perfect game recently at VICTOR BOWL, in the Hesperians League. He was 79 years and 6 months old at the time. Is he the oldest to bowl a 300 in the Citrus Belt? I think he may be. I know that my friend EDESEL SHIPLEY was 78 years old in 2006 when he bowled his last perfect game. Ed just bowled 299 last week, at the age of 83!

Campbell is a veteran of the Korean War and resides in the Veterans Home in Barstow. He likes bowling at Victor Bowl so much that he is willing to drive 80 miles round trip from Barstow to Victorville. He plans to do so as long as gasoline stays under five dollars a gallon. His Victorville bowling days may be numbered.

Jim served ten years in the Navy and was a gunner on an PV2 aircraft. He flew off the aircraft carrier USS PRINCETON.

With his perfect game, Jim rolled a 620 (139 - 300 - 181). He is averaging 174 in the Hesperians League and 185 in his Saturday League. Jim's high average was a 202 when he was 69 years old. He bowled his high series (729) when he was 72 years old.

Jim would like to thank TONY ROBBINS for drilling his bowling ball, the Ebonite Elite. He also would like to thank JIM SIMS for his coaching when they were teammates in the Norco Classic League. Campbell said that Robbins is a great ball driller who currently works at the GET-A-GRIP Pro Shop in Arlington Lanes. All Citrus Belt bowlers are grateful to the BOWLING NEWS for supporting our efforts on the lanes.

Dee Phipps continued the final honor roll with 216-565, followed by Karen Mauricio 202-560, Margo McClain 230-557, Kathy Parrish 534, Virginia Gray 530, Vi Wilson 515, Terry Jackson 507, Hedy Schoner 505, and Betty Phillips 220-504.

Bowlers are reminded again to keep the league sheet from sweeps, to remind them what their closing average was in the Vegas league.

Those averages, of 21 games or more, will be submitted to Orange County USBC to appear in the 2011-2012 average book. If you are still bowling other winter leagues, be sure to also keep the ones dated prior to the April 15, when all averages are sent to local associations for their books.

Also, circle the date of Monday, July 18, if you want to bowl next season in the Travel league. League rules, dates, etc will be held at 10 a.m. July 18 in the Cal Bowl conference room.

Although this reporter has retired, Betty Phillips, my replacement, will continue her top notch sheet service as she has the past umpteen years. Also,

If you have any questions about the league before the meeting is held, call her at (562) 597-5441.

NEXT WEEK: Monday 11 a.m. March 28 at the Orleans. Check in time: 10:30 a.m.

We Hear You - Several Format Changes For Summer TAT!

March 21, 2011 – Another exciting week of megabuck bowling at The Orleans in Las Vegas is coming quickly!

Many of the same great TAT features will be in place for the June 28 to July 3rd event this summer but after listening to many players this past February, some new features will make the event even better!

Players will still be able to buy the popular Marathon Entry, the ME, but this summer those entries will count as a full entry, not a half entry, when determining the cut scores. That will bring the cut scores down in each division, each day!

And we all know that means that more bowlers will get to the Finals on Sunday, July 3rd! After all, isn't that the goal? More finalists, more checks!

Also new for this summer's event - now the Bonus Days for your division - is EVERY DAY! Each day, in each division, there will be a Daily Leader earning from $750 to $1,250 plus 2 Bys in the Finals. No reason to sit out any day because it isn't your Bonus Day.

Another new feature is that each round in the Finals will increase your earnings a minimum of $100 - $200 with Big Bucks!

The summer TAT will still feature 3 Free Chance Tournaments with $5,000 in Cash & Prizes and up to 3 new balls as part of your entry fee regardless of whether you buy a Marathon, a Mini Marathon or a single entry.

In the meantime, you seniors out there are welcome to try High Roller's Senior Easter Classic from April 17 to 24 at Sam's Town. There are huge discounts for 1st timers who bowled in the February TAT. This event has separate purses for amateur players aged 50/Over and 60/Over.

For questions about this event or our next event in July, call our toll free number 1-888-828-2695 or e-mail us at tatbowl@hotmail.com.

Next Tournament This Sunday, March 27 Adult/Member Doubles #2 – Palos Verdes Bowl

DeeRonn Booker Strikes A Win

NORWALK- The JAT headed to Keystone Lanes for the last of the three PBA Challenge Series events- this week's lanes condition was the Viper which played pretty tough on the slick surface at Keystone. In qualifying, Kevin Jones took off with a 249 first game and didn't look back leading qualifying at +95. Brian Hernandez was 2nd at +51 and DeeRonn Booker was the only other bowler plus at +1. Mark Curtis Jr., Brandon Kraye and Gary Smith rounded out the cut at -45. In the quarterfinals, Brandon Kraye took game one but Mark Curtis Jr. stormed back and took the next two to advance to the semifinals. On the other side, DeeRonn Booker swept through Gary Smith to advance to meet 2nd seed Brian Hernandez. In the semifinals, tournament leader Kevin Jones swept past Mark Curtis 203-156 and 234-153 while Brian Hernandez took game one 202-200 while DeeRonn Booker came back and advanced with two wins 222-159 and 232-216. In the championship match, DeeRonn Booker drew first blood 180-163 while Kevin Jones came back with a big 236-196 win to force game three. In the final game, DeeRonn Booker wouldn't give up the pocket taking game three and the PBA Viper title 247 -155. Congratulations DeeRonn! You can watch the entire championship match in HD on YouTube by searching for Junior Amateur Tour.

March 27 – JAT Adult/Member #2

Get ready for our second Adult/Junior this Sunday March 27th at Palos Verdes Bowl. Two divisions for the adult/member – 409 and under handicap and 410+ scratch. Get your partners ready now!

Our next tournament is this Sunday at Palos Verdes Bowl in Torrance. It is the second of our Adult/Member tournaments this season- and they are always a great time! If you have any questions, e-mail me at director@bowljat.org. See you all this Sunday at Palos Verdes!

JAT Champ DeeRonn Booker and 2nd Kevin Jones

NORWALK – Once again I welcome you to the JAT Farm Club tournament update. Our last tournament was at Keystone Lanes and was our third PBA Challenge of the season. We only had twenty bowlers wake up on time (a day-light savings day) to take on the Viper pattern. Not too many high scores, but then again – it wouldn't be a challenge if was easy. We thank Keystone Lanes for the, as always, very good accommodations.

In the qualifying round, Adam Dubia put up the tournament high game. He kept the suspense of a reportable or even high game until the fifth and final game of qualifying, where he then posted up his 268. Leading most of the morning though was John Struckman with a reportable of 231 in his mix. Other high games came in from Tristan Beaner 241, Lawrence Merriweather 231, Danny Martinez 222, and Christian Borao 221. Dubia took over the top spot at plus 15, while the last spot to advance (10th seed) came in at minus 107. Dubia also captured the 2010-2011 PBA Challenge title (reigning champion) by having the highest combined qualifying rounds for the three tournaments, at 2928 pins or a 195.2 average.

In the next five games of match play, Dubia kept increasing his lead with highs of 222-221-221 and all 150 bonus points. Gabriella Mayfield though was not about to let Dubia run too far, putting up a 249-221 and pulling into the second seed spot. Matt Miller had a very nice 248 game and Spencer Van Rijsbergen put up a 221. Mayfield made up the most ground on the group, jumping 8 positions.

Before the finals could begin though, we had a roll-off for the fifth and final spot. After nearly getting shut out of match play wins, Struckman found himself in the seventh spot, only one game to go, and thoughts of defeat. After a couple of words of encouragement though, he went out and shot just what he needed, grabbed the 30 bonus pins, and moved into a tie with Martinez for that last position. In the 9th and 10th frame roll-off, Struckman kept to his namesake, striking out for a 60-40 tie-breaker.

So now we had Struckman (-84) with new life in the finals, taking on the 4th seed Ashley Dunn (-81). Struckman started to show the dominance he had at the beginning of the tournament by taking this match 234-174. Now he faced the 3rd seed Van Rijsbergen (+16) who was making his final round debut. Struckman didn't care though as he put up a 244-202 game to move on and meet Mayfield (+29) who was looking for her first title. Struckman was again heartless in his win (just kidding) 221-200 for his shot at a second title. Now though he faced super veteran Dubia (+192) in the best of three final pairing format. Dubia had seen enough of Struckman and made his own statement with the first game 244-179. Dubia then proceeded to end this tournament quickly and merciful, by taking the second game 202-168 for his fourth title of the season. Congratulations Adam on all of your accomplishments in this one tournament. Now, take a rest – will ya!

Our next tournament will be on Sunday March 27th, at Palos Verdes Bowl in Torrance. This will be our second Adult / Jr. (member) tournament of the season. There will be a handicap division for those doubles team that come in at a 409 average or less. All others will be in the scratch division. Please have average verification for both the adult and junior bowler (if less than 4 JAT tournaments). The cost will be $80 per team and check-in begins around 8:15. I expect and hope for a big crowd, so come earlier. Have a good week and contact one of the directors if you need help in finding a teammate. See you at PV!
