BOWLING IS SHUTTING DOWN ACROSS THE COUNTRY

by Lucas Wiseman

UNITED STATES – As the coronavirus crisis grips the nation, bowling is, understandably, starting to shut down across the country. Bowling centers are shutting their doors and leagues and tournaments are either being postponed or canceled.

In news just out Tuesday afternoon, Bowlero, the largest operator of bowling centers in the country, said it is closing all of its centers for the next 15 days.

In a statement released on social media, Bowlero said: “We love to bowl. And we love it when you bowl with us. But your safety is – and will always be – our top priority. That’s why, beginning today, we’ll be closing for the next 15 days in an effort to help prevent the spread of COVID-19.”

The impact is being felt at every level of the sport. The PBA Tour was forced to cut short the World Series of Bowling, postponing the Cheetah, Chameleon and Scorpion Championships. The season’s final major, the USBC Masters, has also been postponed.

The PBA did elect to move forward with the stepladder finals of the PBA World Championship with a live show. That broadcast on FS1 ended up bringing in an audience of 397,000, according to ShowBuzzDaily.

In an announcement Tuesday afternoon, the PBA said it “has placed all tournament activities at all levels on hiatus indefinitely due to coronavirus concerns.”

Among the events postponed is the start of the PBA Playoffs on April 6. The PBA said all other scheduled events will be re-evaluated in early April. There was no specific information about the upcoming

PBA50 Tour announced. The Professional Women’s Bowling Association announced Monday that it was postponing the start of its tour indefinitely due to the crisis. The PWBA Tour had been slated to start April 23 in Tucson, Arizona. On the state level, many state associations have announced the cancellation or postponement of state tournaments. Local leagues and tournaments are also starting to shut down across the country. If you were planning to bowl leagues or tournaments, you’d be wise to check the status before heading out to compete.

LAS VEGAS – I hope that all of you are safe, healthy, and able to cope with the rapidly changing COVID-19 pandemic.

Speaking for myself and my family, we are all very saddened that the spread of the virus has affected so many families, schools, businesses, and places of worship. It has forced all of us to respond to a situation that most of us have never faced.

I, like you, am monitoring and keeping informed of the latest information provided by the CDC, WHO, federal, state, and local public health agencies and government officials.

We are all hearing of cancellations, postponements, and suspended events around the world; the vast majority of them originally scheduled to take place in March and April, some in May and fewer in June.

Of course, we have received inquiries about the status of our upcoming 2020 events: the August 5 - 25 Military Team Classic and the October 10 - 16 Columbus Day Senior Team Classic. At this time, both 2020 events will take place as scheduled. We will be in touch with participants if anything changes that would cause us to make any adjustments to those events.

Our top priority is always the health and safety of the High Roller staff, participants and their guests, sponsors, and the host property. While the COVID-19 pandemic is all-new territory for us, we will do the right thing for all concerned.

Until we speak again, my very best wishes to you and your families!

PBA Puts All Tournament Activity on Hiatus Due to Coronavirus Pandemic

PBA Tour, PBA50 Tour, PBA Regionals postponed; events to be re-evaluated in early April

CHICAGO – The Professional Bowlers Association has placed all tournament activities at all levels on hiatus indefinitely due to coronavirus concerns, PBA CEO Colie Edison announced today. Included in the postponements is the start of the 2020 PBA Playoffs which were scheduled to start on April 6.

The announcement, made out of an abundance of preventative caution, means all PBA Tour, PBA50 Tour and PBA Regional tournaments currently scheduled will be put on hiatus as the PBA complies with decisions made nationally and locally in a concerted effort to help avoid “community spread” of the COVID-19 virus. All scheduled events will be re-evaluated in early April.

The PBA postponed the final match play elimination rounds and television finals of the Storm PBA World Series of Bowling

XI animal pattern championships (Go Bowling Cheetah, Chameleon and Scorpion Championships) that were scheduled to take place at South Point Bowling Plaza in Las Vegas Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, allowing all competitors including several international bowlers to return home before federal airline restrictions took effect.

The PBA World Championship finals were conducted Sunday instead of Wednesday, as originally planned, because the five finalists were on hand in Las Vegas and wanted to complete the 2020 Go Bowling PBA Tour’s fourth major championship. Australia’s Jason Belmonte won the event before an audience consisting only of a handful of PBA players, tournament officials, and his own family including wife Kimberly, daughters Aria and Sylvie, and son Hugo who had flown in from Australia to watch. The finals aired live on FS1 and was the network’s most-watched telecast last week.

In addition to PBA’s decision, the United States Bowling Congress indefinitely postponed the USBC Masters that was scheduled for March 23-29 as well as the start of the 2020 USBC Open Championships, a traditional tournament for all USBC members including a number of PBA members who planned to participate.

“This is a completely unforeseen, unprecedented issue of global concern,” Edison said. “The PBA greatly appreciates the understanding and cooperation of its players, business partners, tournament hosts and all other parties impacted as we try to do our part in keeping everyone as safe as we can.”

As circumstances dictate, the PBA will make further announcements regarding the completion of the animal pattern championships, competition points races impacting the postponed PBA League Draft and qualifiers for the 2020 PBA Playoffs. The start of the PBA Playoffs, scheduled for April 6, also will be postponed.

In the interim, fans can stay engaged with the PBA through its social media outlets (PBA on Facebook, PBA Tour on Twitter, PBA on Instagram and PBA on YouTube); by using the PBA App for mobile devices; the PBA Pro Bowling console game, and PBA.com.

FOX Sports also is planning multiple re-broadcasts of the PBA World Championship, PBA Tournament of Champions and Roth-Holman PBA Doubles Championship finals on its FS1 and FS2. Check your local listings for dates and times.

LEFTOVER NEWS FROM THE STORM PBA WORLD SERIES OF BOWLING

Bowling fans around the world are aware of mass postponements and cancellations of bowling activities at all levels in the wake of the coronavirus pandemic, including the premature ending of the Storm PBA World Series of Bowling XI.

Left in suspended animation as the PBA – along with thousands of other sporting events – rapidly shut down activities in the interest of complying with urgent safety standards intended to keep players, fans, staff and others as insulated as possible from exposure to the virus were a few news items of interest. Among them:

- The joint announcement by PBA and Storm Products that Storm had become titled sponsor of the Storm PBA World Series of Bowling XI.

- The USA vs. The World team event that was scheduled to conclude WSOB XI was subsequently cancelled. Before the cancellation, however, three-time PBA Tour titlist Bob Learn Jr. was named captain of the United States team, and the players who had qualified for his team were Jakob Butturff, EJ Tackett, Chris Via, Darren Tang and Bill O'Neill, the five highest-finishing American players in PBA World Championship qualifying. The World team, captained by England's Stuart Williams, would have included Sweden's Jesper Svensson, Canada's Francois Lavoie, Australia's Jason Belmonte, Denmark's Carsten Hansen and England's Dom Barrett.

- WSOB XI was full of stories, but one of the most unusual was the extreme case of "lost-and-found" involving second-year PBA Tour competitor Michael Martell of Brooklyn, N.Y. Martell averaged 178.2 with a high game of 196 for his first five games in Go Bowling Cheetah Championship qualifying, finishing the round with a 891 total and sitting in 117th place in the 120-player field. Then, in an historical reversal, the 22-year-old lefthander averaged 267.8 for his next five games, including rolling back-to-back 300 games (the only perfect games among 1,200 games bowled by the entire field in Cheetah qualifying) for a 1,339 block, moving up 96 places to finish 21st – 12 pins shy of making the cut to 16 finalists for Cheetah match play.

- PWBA titlist Danielle McEwan was one of two women in the World Series field, qualifying out of the Pre-Tournament Qualifier, and the only woman to qualify for the match play elimination rounds. McEwan qualified sixth in the Scorpion Championship round, but what happens next remains unresolved as all three of the animal pattern championships were postponed. The domino effect of WSOB postponements also meant PBA competition points races affecting the 2020 PBA Playoffs and PBA League Draft eligibility also remain unresolved. Marie Jose Rodriguez, also a PWBA champion and wife of PBA competitor Nathan Bohr, also made it into the WSOB field, advancing out of the PTQ as "first alternate" but earning a spot in the field when a previously entered player withdrew.

- All PBA tournament activity at all levels (PBA Tour, PBA50 Tour and Regional) have been suspended indefinitely because of the coronavirus. Partly because of the PBA's extensive participation internationally, all parties affected should expect the hiatus to continue until global leaders are certain the virus pandemic is under control. Please watch for official news from the PBA through direct communications, pba.com and the PBA's official social media outlets.

- The United States Bowling Congress has also suspended all tournament activities, including postponements of several events directly impacting PBA members: the USBC Masters, USBC Open Championships, USBC Senior Masters and USBC Super Senior Classic.

PBA REGIONAL UPDATE: PERFECT GAME HELPS DANNY CLARK WIN FIRST PBA TITLE

- Prior to the suspension of PBA Regional competition, Danny Clark of New Palestine, Ohio fired a 300 game in the position round match play finale as he defeated Dave Johnson of Ashtabula, Ohio by 207 pins to win the PBA50 Strike Zone Lanes Central Classic for his first PBA50 Regional title in Canton, Ohio on Sunday, March 8.

Clark finished with an 11-1 match play record and a total of 5,120 pins for 20 games, including match play bonus pins. Along with his first PBA50 Regional title, he also earned $2,100.

- Chris Collins of Myrtle Beach, S.C., defeated Chris Johnson of Nashville, N.C., 217-180, to take the $2,000 first prize in the PBA50 Fayetteville South Open at Lafayette Lanes in Fayetteville, N.C., on Sunday, March 8, improving his all-time PBA Regional titles record to 15.

Collins, who qualified No. 1 for the four-man stepladder finals with a 7-1 match play record and a 16-game total of 3,906 pins, had one of two perfect games in the event. Brett Caramagno of Goose Creek, S.C., had the other.

In the first stepladder match Johnson defeated Jimmy Jean of Kathleen, Ga., 172-155. Johnson then defeated Craig Auerbach of Sunrise, Fla., 203-194, to set up the championship match.

- For an update on PBA Regional activity when it resumes, visit pba.com and open the "schedules" tab periodically to check on PBA Regional Tours.

QUICK NOTES

- Thomas (Gid) Rash and childhood friend Clay Copeland gave "thumbs up" signs in late February after Rash donated a kidney to Copeland in Fort Worth, Texas. Rash was the PBA Southwest Region's 2019 Rookie of the Year.
