Macpherson and Wodka First Repeat Winners at Yorba Linda WWPB Event

by Lori Yamasaki

YORBA LINDA—Last weekend, Dave Wodka and Wendy Macpherson were crowned champions once again as the first ever repeat champions of the Jim Lee Memorial Mixed Doubles Championship at Yorba Linda Bowl over a field of 48 teams!

It was a weekend filled with great people, great bowling, and great fun. Yorba Linda Bowl's Jim Hornung described the weekend perfectly in his statement, "It was so exciting to see such a big draw of players and a really appreciative crowd, it's always a pleasure to have the WWPB here every year". As with every year, a donation from the weekend's proceeds will be made to the American Cancer Society in memory of our beloved friend Jim Lee.

Wendy wanted to be sure to thank Jim and Betty Hornung for their continued support of the WWPB and their terrific pro-am as well as Hammer/Ebonite for sponsoring the event. "It was wonderful to see a lot of new faces and new teams along with the familiar ones, it was nice to see everyone again for such a great cause". Wendy brought her niece, Kendyl Smith, along for her championship ride. Wendy said of her partner, "I absolutely love bowling with Dave, we match - we laugh together as well as we compete together".

Dave Wodka - Champion, Jim Hornung - Yorba Linda Bowl, Wendy Macpherson - Champion

Dave also wanted to recognize Jim and Betty Hornung for their tremendous efforts in putting on this memorable event and the WWPB for hosting yet another successful tournament. "I have to thank Wendy for running me over again", Dave recalled on how well Wendy bowled over the weekend.

Prior to Saturday's pro-am event, Jim floored his annual Battle of the Stars (Sexes) with Dave teaming with fellow pro Ben Laughlin and Yorba Linda Bowl's Scott Roberts. The men faced off against Wendy Macpherson and Tennifer Milligan teamed with Yorba Linda Bowl's Karen Neal in a two game baker match. As in years past, the men were victorious again. Not to worry, the women will be ready to battle again next year!

Highlighting an awesome weekend of scoring were perfect games by Missy Bellinder and Michelle Silver on Sunday. This makes five perfectos for Michelle already this season. She shot one on her birthday (last Thursday) and Sunday's came on her mother's birthday. Quite a celebration indeed!

Our next WWPB tournament will be held over Memorial Weekend at Santa Clarita Lanes. Details and entry information are available on our website, www.wwpb.com. Hope to see you there!

AMF Eagle Lanes Hosts "Left/Right Doubles" Saturday, April 15 At Noon

SAN MARCOS, CA — AMF San Marcos Lanes, located at 945 West San Marcos Blvd. in San Marcos is a little off the beaten path, but the challenge of this "LEFT/RIGHT DOUBLES" should be worth the drive.

With only 20 teams entered, at $180 per team, the top four teams will go into a stepladder play-off format. Payoffs will be $400, $600, $800 and $1,000! Now we're talkin' pressure. "Can't let my partner down."

So pick your "partner of steel" — pack-up your equipment and head south (or north from San Diego). Bring cash only! Sidepots are $20. Additional places will be paid on a 1 in 5 ratio.

Eagle Lanes phone number 760-744-7000 is one to put in your pocket in case you get lost. Or tuck a copy of this paper in your bag for Saturday.

Call your partners today — then call and reserve your spot. Casey B. says "Come on down." See ad on page 6.

Ozzie's Senior Mixed Scotch Doubles, April 15th

ANAHEIM — Linbrook Bowl will be rolling out the red carpet April 15 for Ozzie's favorite game — SCOTCH DOUBLES.

This mixed SENIOR event is so popular it is limited to the first 50 couples signing up. Pre-Sign-ups are taken at the desk all week, with final sign-up at 11:30 AM on bowling day, April 15.

Since this event is limited to seniors and all handicapped — you all have a chance! Don't forget, this is doubles, you need to show up and sign-in with your partner.

Linbrook Bowl is easy to find. Just take the Brookhurst off-ramp of the 91 Freeway and head south. There it is, right on the corner, with the big sign out front. Very vintage and homey.

The number at Linbrook is 714-774-2253 for more information.

Barnes Bounces Back

UNCASVILLE, Conn.—An up-and-down season for Chris Barnes couldn't have ended on a higher note.

Barnes won his second career Denny's PBA Tour Major title, defeating defending champion Steve Jaros, 234-227, in the title match of the 2006 Dexter Tournament of Champions Sunday at Mohegan Sun Arena.

Barnes, who withdrew from five events early in the season with a back injury and was in danger of not winning a title for the first time since 1998, won $100,000 for his seventh career title.

"My belief in everything turning out holds true," said Barnes, who came in having lost 12 of his last 13 matches on TV. "There was an opportunity for it to go the other way. I bowled a good game but sometimes it seems like the way my luck goes, the other guys just bowl a little better. He had a chance and I thought I was going to have to strike out, but I was fortunate he gave me an extra miss."

After starting the match with a strike, Barnes left a 6-7 split and opened in the 2nd frame, but he responded with six consecutive strikes to take the lead. After Barnes' run ended with a spare, Jaros - working on three straight strikes - could have pulled even with a strike, but he spared in the 9th, then struck and spared in his 10th frame. Barnes then picked up a spare and knocked down eight pins in the 10th to win.

Barnes advanced to the title match with a 255-191 win over Amleto Monacelli. Barnes was perfect through the first seven frames, but his bid for a 300 game ended when he left a 10-pin in the 8th frame. Monacelli, who was trying to become the oldest bowler to win a Tournament of Champions, never got on track.

Jaros defeated Tommy Jones, 247-233, in the first semifinal. Jones led early after Jaros had back-to-back spares in the 3rd and 4th frames, but Jones opened in his 4th frame after a 4-7-10 split. Jaros took advantage with five consecutive strikes and his spare in the 10th frame shut Jones out.

Jaros took home $30,000 for 2nd, while Jones and Monacelli earned $10,000 apiece for the 3rd and 4th place finishes, respectively. The Tournament of Champions offers a two-season exemption on the Denny's PBA Tour, but Barnes was already exempt through 2007-08 due to his U.S. Open win last season.

The 2006 Dexter Tournament of Champions concludes the 2005-06 Denny's PBA Tour season. Next week, six bowlers will compete in a special event, the "Motel 6 Roll to Riches" which features a winner-take-all $200,000 prize. The event is comprised of the four Major winners from the 2005-06 season (Barnes, Mike Scroggins, Jones and Walter Ray Williams Jr.) as well as two PBA stars chosen by the fans via an online vote (Pete Weber and Norm Duke).

Jim Myers 800 at Parkway

EL CAJON—An 800 series was bowled this week at Parkway Bowl in El Cajon. Jim Myers, age 65, bowled a 257, -300, -278 for 835. The 300 game was Jim's 36th in his lifetime, and this is his second 800 series within a year. Ohio Becomes 18th State To Add High School Varsity Bowling

Boys, girl programs will begin in 2006-07 season

GREENDALE, Wis.—By unanimous vote Thursday, the Ohio High School Athletic Association added boys and girls bowling as a varsity sport starting with the 2006-07 academic year. During the 2005-06 season in Ohio, about 160 boys teams and 160 girls teams competed in bowling at the club level for their high schools.

Ohio becomes the 18th state to offer bowling as a championship sport at the high school varsity level, joining Alaska, Arkansas, Florida, Hawaii, Illinois, Iowa (girls only), Kansas, Louisiana, Michigan, Mississippi, Nevada, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, Pennsylvania, Tennessee and Washington (girls only). About 25 additional states offer bowling at an inter-scholastic club competition level.

"Now the kids can officially represent their school in the sport they love," said Greg Coules, commissioner of Ohio High School Bowling. "I've spoken to many school athletic directors around the state who support high school bowling. Now they have the opportunity to elevate bowling's status from club to varsity."

Bowling is the fastest-growing high school sport according to a 2005 survey conducted by the National Federation of State High School Associations. Participation in bowling programs jumped by 14 percent for boys and 13 percent for girls from the 2003-04 to 2004-05 school years - more than any other sport. Nearly 40,000 students competed on a high school bowling team during the 2004-05 school year.

"High school bowling has phenomenal support from the Ohio bowling community," said Jeanne Klescewski, director of United States Bowling Congress High School and Collegiate. "The community's solid relationship with school athletic associations led to this addition."

USBC High School is a resource for school administrators, high school state athletic associations, state proprietor associations and industry member organizations in the creation and maintenance of high school bowling programs. USBC High School actively offers guidance to all levels of high school bowling by providing rules, instructional opportunities, awards and industry resources to ensure the success of high school bowling nationwide.

For more information about high school bowling, contact USBC High School at (800) 514-BOWL, ext. 3179, or visit the High School section of bowl.com.

Editors note: The Bowling Proprietors of Southern California have tried unsuccessfully for the past five years to crack the California Athletic Association to make bowling a varsity sport. Maybe we can talk Dave Osborne of Fountain Bowl into an update!! How about it Dave?

Inaugural USBC Convention On The Horizon

2,500 People Expected to Attend April 19-22 in Orlando Florida

GREENDALE, Wis.—About 2,500 people are scheduled to "Experience the Magic" in Orlando, Fla., at the first United States Bowling Congress Convention to be held April 19-22 at the Orange County Convention Center.

Attendees will include state and local bowling association delegates, athletes, bowling center management and general members. All will take advantage of the educational and social opportunities available as the organization conducts the business of bowling.

Participants will learn the latest about USBC and the sport while improving their skills and knowledge at more than three dozen educational workshops and exhibits April 19-20. Workshop topics include "Learning About Bowling Balls and Lane Play," "Leadership Training - Youth Leaders" and "Attracting Tournament Sponsors and Publication/Web Advertisers." The "Exceptional People/Service" topic features two sessions, one subtitled "Extraordinary Association Performance" and the other "Extraordinary Center Profits." Youth programs, coaching, strategic planning, building membership and diversity also will be among the topics explored. In addition, updates on high school, collegiate and Sport Bowling will be available.

Mingling with the sport's stars will take place the evening of April 20 during the Academy Award-themed Awards Night/Hall of Fame induction ceremonies. A variety of USBC and industry awards will be presented before the five newest members of the USBC Hall of Fame (Fran Deken, John Sommer Jr., Ron Pollard, Rick Pollard and Nancy Fehr) are inducted. USBC Chief Executive Officer Roger Dalkin and USBC and Professional Bowlers Association Hall of Famer Nelson Burton Jr. will be the evening's hosts.

April 21 begins nearly two days of official business with the highlight being the keynote address that morning by CBS-TV sportscaster Greg Gumbel. The next day, delegates will vote on 21 playing, league and tournament rules. Five of them deal with general playing rules, seven with league rules and nine with tournament rules. While delegate voting determines what happens to bowling's rules, all members are welcome to give their thoughts on all topics.

P.S. Bowling News', Carol Mancini will be attending as a delegate, hoping to redeem herself after the April fool statement concerning U.S. B.C. mistake.

Greer Gets In Gear!

SAN DIEGO—Mira Mesa hosted our tournament last weekend, & Jeff Greer was completely focused on accomplishing what he set out to do . . . win his first NABI title & an entry into the Tournament of Champions in July during NABI Week 2006. Jeff was the top seed in the finals by just one pin over his wife, Sue, who had been on the DL for a couple of weeks with a knee injury. Sue came roaring back to capture the #2 seed in the finals. Jeff then watched as Corey Ayers was climbing the ladder with confidence from the #5 position. Corey squeaked by his first match against Jay Shackelford by a scant three pins. He picked up steam in matches two & three against Carol Lee & Sue, however, Jeff had both eyes on his goal of qualifying for the TOC in Las Vegas this summer, & accomplished that goal by bowling a real nice 243 scratch. Congratulations to all the finalists!

NABI Champion Jeff Greer shares the moment with wife Sue (3rd place) and Corey Ayers (2nd place).

Capturing $50 guaranteed sidepots were Greg Amrine, Dave Monical, Gil Gissendaner, Ed Johnson (2), Shed Smith, Shackelford (2), & Sue Greer. Perpetual pot action saw Ed Johnson hit 9 in a row for $125, & Homer Bautista, Johnny Graham & Monical share the 3-6-9 strike pot.

Sixth place finisher Shed Smith won the ball rejuvenation & resurfacing from Bowlers Depot & long time NABI supporters Jim Lewis & Rick Stangler. Thank you for your contributions to amateur bowling.

The next NABI event is April 22nd at Kearny Mesa Bowl. Squad details will be included in next week's Bowling News. Plan to join us on the 22nd at Kearny Mesa . . . we'll save a cookie for you!

Columbia bowls the world over.™

Passarino 1st Title at Cerritos

4 Share $1,080 Match Game • 3-6-9 POT is now $1,800 Match Series is est $1,200 • Early Event at CAL

CERRITOS—Good Guys strike again and Paul Passarino tossed many of them in winning his first ABTA title in fine style as he downed five straight opponents in the top 16 single elim finals to win his first ABTA title and $2,300 and deservedly so after downing our top seed John Conway in the title game.

Paul wasn't the only bowler performing well at Cerritos as we saw four bowlers share a $1,080 Match Game Marvin Galsim, Belinda Crowder, Roger Wrase and Steve Hower. They got $270 each for their fine 192 game.

Cerritos had a great shot and produced cut scores of +78 (men) and +24 Ladies. The added Super Seniors at Premiere were Adam Drodz, Ester Wilwayco and the 'Champ' Paul Passarino. Due to a nice turnout of 204 entrants, we had 51 semifinalists in the cash line in hopes of making the top 16 single elim finals.

John Conway led the way in the semis, as he was tops in the Semifinals with a fine +108. He sat out and bowled for the title, and bested Frank Zhen at +102. He received a first round bye in the single elims and entered in round two. It took a +50 Men, to make the sweet 16 single elims and a +34 for the three guaranteed women.

The Bowlers took to the lanes. In the first round single elims, losing their matches were Belinda Crowder, David Olsen, Dave Fairow, Ronnie Cordero, Donnie Johnson Jr. Romy Cajucom and James Abilar. They got checks of $100 in 10-16th places.

In round two, being eliminated were Shelly Hall, Frank Zhen, Anthony Flores, and Rich Yanagita. They cashed in 6-9th places and $110 each.

Round three saw Paul Passarino use his strike ball, downing Vic Garcia 240-208. Tracy Cueto downed Marvin Galsim 228-201. Vic, Marvin and David were 4th and 5th with checks of $120. Tracy and Paul met for the right to bowl Conway for the title. This game was a good one to say the least as Paul recovered from opening the first two frames and a four bagger by the pretty lady to storm back with a huge five bagger and turkey to win 243-241. Tracy was third with fine bowling and $200. Paul was off to the title game vs top seed, Conway. The title game was on. John elected to have Paul lead off and he did with a turkey, split the fourth frame and John just couldn't carry on the right lane. Paul then found the line with a huge four bagger and a 222/232-196/213 win. His first ABTA title, and most deservedly so! Paul is a great guy who has bowled with us the past 1 1/2 yrs and finally got a title. He is glad of the Super Senior program that we have :-). A very affable fellow. He is well-liked by all in our club. Congrats Paul!

Great bowling by one for the good guys, John Conway who almost won his first title. Tracy Cueto bowled awesome in third also!

ABTA Notes: Tourney Hi Qualifiers were Brian Reyes (men) +172, and the pretty cosmetologist Roe Estes who led the ladies at +103. They will get paid entries to our next regular event.

The 3-6-9 was worth a big $1,700. Alan "the Dragon" Aguilar eliminated the field and then missed on the first shot. We will go for $1,800 this Saturday at Cal Bowl in the 3-6-9. That's $50 per ball for the Dragon! :-)

The Match Series was UNmatched as Brian Reyes drew a 551. Was worth a $832. We will estimate the Match Series to be $1,200 this week. For only a $2.00 entry fee.

The Match Game worth $1,080. Matched by four of our fine bowlers Steven Hower, Belinda Crowder, Roger Wrase and Marvyn Galsim. They got a nice $270 each. We will estimate a $1,200 Match game Saturday.

The optional doubles were taken by Brian Reyes and Greg Velarde. Their 1486 got them $130. We paid 11 places and $860 in the doubles this week.

The Columbia 300™ ball of the week went to ABTA Regular Steve "Don't call me Dave" Domon. He will receive the ball of the week, a fine Track Ball of his choice.™. He thanks Columbia for the Sponsorship.

Champion Paul Passarino hails from Lakeside and is single. He used a Trauma ER drilled by Bill Mc Allister at San Diego Bowling Supply. He thanks John Jowdy, Edison Lomibao, and Bill for the fine fit also!. and Cerritos for being great hosts.

John Conway, an ABTA Blueblood is from Anaheim, married to Lisa, with two sons John Jr. and Christopher. He used a Columbia Tribe drilled by Ginny Adams at Linbrook Bowl. He thanks his lovely wife Lisa for support.. He is also in the ABTA League and fighting for the roll-offs.

Tracy Cueto is from Orange and used a Hammer drilled by Steve at Forest Lanes. She is single Guys!

She thanks her pal Kristy, her mom and dad, Rich, K. C. Tita

Merle Phily, Maggie and Bob Crame. And of course the pro shop at Forest Lanes.

Saturday, we return to CAL Bowl New Early Squad times there are 12:30-2:00 & 3:30 with the 3-6-9 and semis at 5:10 PM, so please note these EARLY times!

Defending Champ Bowlers Depot - W.C. Back In The Hunt!

by Randy Myers

DOWNEY—Bowlers Depot – West Covina, the three times defending champions of this league now find themselves in contention once again. BDWC swept past Al's Bar Supply to move into 1st place in Division "A" and will take on Prudential Real Estate next week with a roll-off spot on the line. Leonard Ruiz Jr. and Hermie Lebaquin who rolled 593 and 568 respectively led BDWC. Prudential Real Estate was doing some sweeping of their own as Danny Ontiveros 605 and Maury Griffith 576 took down Boulevard Brakes 5-0 and set up the match for the round next week. In a familiar match up between Round Winners, it was Ebonite sweeping past Threadworks 5-0. Jerry Ernst 630, George Parker 587, and Paul Smith 567 were the top scorers for Ebonite who will take on Tri Star Vending next week. Scott Filipi bombed the pins for 245/661 for Erickson's Food but it wasn't enough to hold off Moneynet Residential Loans as they came back to win Game 3 and Series. Alonzo Lemons shot 562 to lead Moneynet to its 3-2 win. Frank Bellinder stroked 263/638 and Jason Hoppe "Go Lucky" 574 to lead Family Amusement to a 4-1 win over Team Storm. Jim Burke led storm with 252/604. Clyde wasn't playing games Monday night, as Mr. Lumpford shot 250/654 to lead Clyde's Video Games to a 4-1 victory over G.H.C. Clyde got help from teammates Dan Ott and Jay Wilson who both shot 589, while Mr. Invincible Vince "ICE" Wood topped G.H.C. with 613. And lastly, it was David Marinez and Ramiro Garcia leading Columbia 300 with 573 apiece.

On side "B", it will be Overboost.com versus Freek Racing next week to settle the round. Overboost lost to league leading Linder Insurance 3 to 2 while Freek Racing was sweeping past Tri Star Vending. Chris "Venus" Williams overcame a horrible first game to finish with 574 to lead Overboost, while Linder Insurance got solid efforts from Nick Smith 605, Frank Barefoot Jr.

573, and Harry Wong Jr. 569. In Freek Racing's sweep, it was the dynamic duo of Paul Barraco 279/669 and Bong Hwang 623 that led the way over a struggling Tri Star team. Tangeo.com took away any round winning hopes of Western Pacific by defeating them 4 to 1. Herbert Jones 615 and Nick "No Regrets" Negrete 565 led Tangeo to victory, while Ken Dilorio topped Western with 561. In yet another 5 & 0 set, it was Pro Approach – Lakewood sweeping past Reback's Plumbing. Pro Approach got 580 sets from Emerson "Chocolate" Wafer 586 and Greg Jackson 583 to overcome the pair high 599 of John Mongillo of Reback's. Forest Lanes got a sweep of their own by downing Pro Approach – Downey 5 to 0 in a low scoring match, and in the final match, it was Gary "DURAN" Duran leading the league with a huge 258/687 set as Roto Grip defeated J.C. Spas 4 to 1. Steve "Wild and Crazy Guy" Martin helped Duran with 594 while Norm Black Sr. led J.C. with 577.

The side pots had some new names this week as Gary Duran got things started in Game 1 with 258 and Dean Sanderson taking 2nd place with his 7th best 213. Game 2 went to Larry Hanken with his 3rd best 234 while Herbert Jones took 2nd with 225. Game 3 and Super Pots went again to Gary Duran with his 3rd best 235 and Jerry Ernst finishing 2nd with 226. For some reason, Gary wasn't in the Series Pot, so that went to 8th best in the league, Herbert Jones who happily collected his cash. Congratulations to all the Side Pot winners!

Next week will decide two more round winners and the more important qualifying for the end of the year roll-off. In Division "A" it will be Bowlers Depot – West Covina taking on Prudential Real Estate, while in Division "B", it will be Overboost.com versus Freek Racing. The action on the lanes should be hot, so to catch it all out live, come down next Monday night. Thanks.

Tenpin Slants

by Joe Lyou

LAS VEGAS—After Char Hammel won the recent Golden Ladies Classic—that's Jeanette Robinson's annual pinfest for femme flingers who don't mind admitting they've hit the big five-oh-I became intrigued when Hammel told the media that her main occupation was dealing poker at the posh Green Valley Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas.

Hammel, readers will recall, performed brilliantly in capturing the 16th edition of the annual tenpin classic at the Orleans Bowling Center. It was the biggest triumph in 26 years of bowling for the popular 51-year-old righthander who now makes her home in Las Vegas after having moved there from Whittier, Calif. a couple of years ago.

So, I asked Hammel, how did you happen to become a poker dealer? Especially since you had no previous experience? You don't just walk into a hotel/casino and apply for a job dealing poker, do you?

"No," Hammel said, "I learned by spending about three months in (a dealers) school at a cost of $800 tuition.

"I work Thursday through Monday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., about 7-8 hours each day. Dealing poker is a little different from the other pit games, like blackjack. We spend 30 minutes at each table, dealing anywhere from two to four tables in a row, even five tables, if we're really busy.

"I enjoy dealing poker," said Hammel, who also likes playing the game as a hobby. "Sometimes, you feel bad when you put a bad beat (or cards) on someone. But that's poker.

"I also like dealing because they (the players) throw a lot of cash at you (in the form of tokens, or tips). The biggest tip I got was $100 after I dealt a man a royal flush. He had it on the flop (in Texas Hold 'Em), so there was no way he could lose the pot. Plus, our (poker) room pays a bonus of $1,000 for royals. He (the player) was down about $600 that day, so he was happy to get his money back, and then some.

"Poker dealers keep their own tips, not like the blackjack dealers who usually share their tips."

Asked if she had come down from Cloud 9 yet since winning the Golden Ladies Classic, Hammel replied, "I'm not sure about Cloud 9, but I'm still bowling well. I've had so many people congratulate me. I even got a call from my friend, Jim Myers, from the San Diego area, who followed up by sending me a nice card a couple of days later."

When Hammel was asked how she was going to celebrate after her big victory, she said, at that time, she wasn't sure. It turns out that she and hubby Mark went out to their favorite Sushi bar and "had a great dinner."

Hammel says she'll keep her game sharp this summer by bowling in the Wild Dog Scratch Singles, "a tough-shot league," at the Gold Coast, a sister center to The Orleans. Hammel is currently bowling at The Orleans in Jeanette's Scratch Trios, in which she's averaging 214.

Southern Californian will remember Hammel because she used to compete regularly in the WWPB (Western Women Pro Bowlers) events when she lived in Whittier. She was known as Char Ford in those days, before she was married to Mark Hammel, who owned and operated a pro shop (at Canoga Park Bowl, I believe).

"I miss bowling the WWPB's," Hammel said, "because I work every weekend. I might try to bowl in November at Mission Hills Bowl (in Bill Mossontte's annual WWPB Mixed Doubles), if I can get the weekend off. It's always such a great tournament.

"The next MoRich Mixed Doubles at The Orleans is a possibility, depending on the days of the week it runs."

And, of course, Hammel definitely plans to defend her newly won title in next year's Golden Ladies Classic. "I haven't sent in my entry yet, but my reservation is in," she said.

How did you get started in bowling? I asked Hammel.

"I started when I was 25-ish, in a Vacation League at La Puente Lanes in La Puente (near Whittier)," Hammel replied. "The center is long gone, of course. At the end of the league, everyone went on a cruise to the Caribbean.

"I bowled three or four years on Sunday nights in that league, and every year we went to a new (vacation) destination. Then I started to get the bug to become a better bowler. I took a lot of lessons from several coaches. But my best coach became my husband and best friend-Mark. We were blessed that bowling brought us together.

"Mark has always been so supportive. He let me follow my dreams, to bowl on (the PWBA) tour, even though it was not profitable.

"Mark is always honest with me, no sugar coating. Sometimes, we (the bowlers) like to blame the lanes, the ball, or maybe a bird that just flew by. But if Mark thinks it was because of my execution, he lets me know.

"I'm not aggressive by nature, so I have to work at staying aggressive (on the lanes). It was really fun to bowl an entire tournament (the GLC) and have Mark there to share and enjoy how well I bowled, even with the many ups and downs of the tournament. What a great time it was! It was also great to have some friends there (at The Orleans) supporting me too."

Hammel also had some nice words about the Golden Ladies Classic. "Jeanette founded a great tournament," Hammel said. "Jeanette has so much fire in her. She can't wait to get back competing again (following an auto accident in January). I don't know where she gets the energy.

"Nothing would make me happier than to see Jeanette bowling again in next year's GLC. She is a very special person."

Speaking of Jeanette Robinson, the renowned Hall of Famer is already working to make the 2007 Golden Ladies Classic bigger and better than ever.

The GLC has had its growing pains ever since 1991, when Jeanette hosted the inaugural event at the old Showboat Bowling Center. At that time, there were 40 entrants.

Since then, that number has grown slowly, adding a few more entries each year. At the recent GLC, there were 75 ladies at The Orleans. Jeanette says she's shooting for "a total of at least 100 next year."

Reaching that optimistic figure should not be a surprise to anyone as the GLC is one of the finest tournaments around. Entry fees are $150 per bowler and all of it goes directly into the prize fund. And, even though there are tournament expenses, more money is added to the prize fund because of monetary donations from The Orleans and GLC cosponsor Storm Products. It's one of the best bargains in bowling.

Dates for GLC '07 have been set for March 5-8. Official entry forms will be available after the first of September. Tournament reservations, however, are now being accepted gladly by Jeanette. Call her at 1-888-365-7111, Ext. 6442. That's also the number to call if you have any questions about the GLC. "I've already had several requests from new people regarding next year's tournament," Jeannette says.

As before, there will be two divisions: Ages 50-59 and Super Seniors 60 & Up. First place is guaranteed to be $2,000, but will grow depending upon the number of entries. (For example, Char Hammel received $2,225 when she won in March.)

FINAL ITEM: Brad Edelman, the brains behind those lucrative High Roller tournaments, took umbrage with me about something this scribe wrote in his last column. All I said was that Steve Sanders' Super Bowl Mini Eliminator at The Orleans was "the biggest and best" of four megabuck tournaments being contested that week in Las Vegas. That was my opinion because I spent virtually all my time at the Mini Eliminator. I had no final figures to compare that tournament with the Super Bowl High Roller, which was held at Sam's Town. It was simply my opinion. Edelman, on the other hand, says his High Roller was the biggest and best megabuck tournament. Well, that's his opinion. I'm sure that, if you asked the other promoters, they'd say that their tournament was "the biggest and the best." And shame on them if they didn't think that way.

Changes Will Help Meet Demand For USBC Junior Gold Championships

GREENDALE, Wis.—Due to increased demand, the United States Bowling Congress Junior Gold Championships will undergo several changes for the 2007 event, including a new schedule that will allow for even more participants.

With a sell-out field already slated for the 2006 event in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., the 2007 tournament in Buffalo, N.Y., will accommodate nearly 300 more bowlers.

Instead of having three consecutive days of qualifying, the three six-game blocks will be spread out over four days, giving each bowler one off day during the qualifying period. The change allows for 1,728 participants in Buffalo versus 1,458 in Fort Lauderdale.

"It's very important that we continue to let this event grow," USBC Chief Tournament Officer Roseann Kuhn said. "This schedule change allows us to accommodate even more of the top youth bowlers in the country."

One out of every seven entrants will receive a scholarship with the top 96 boys and 48 girls advancing from qualifying to bowl six more games before the field is cut to the top 32 boys and 32 girls who will bowl a final six games.

The top five boys and girls will earn automatic spots on USBC Junior Team USA. The National Selection Committee will choose three more boys and girls from the final 32 to round out Junior Team USA.

AMF Thruway Lanes will serve as the host center for the 2007 event. Qualifying will also take place at Transit Lanes and AMF Airport Lanes.

Held on USBC Sport Bowling lane conditions, the Junior Gold Championships, which is an individual competition, is the largest youth event in the country.

USBC Youth members who average 175 or better (boys) or 165 or better (girls) and who are members of the USBC Junior Gold program are eligible to qualify to advance to the Championships.

Greg Reed 5th., Dustin Shaw 4th., Paul Passarino 3rd., Champion Donnie Johnson happily accepting his check for $1,050.00 from Dir. David Godinez who is also presenting $400.00 check to lovely Amee Ahorro for second place.

Donnie Johnson Picks Up Donkee Championship at Cerritos

CERRITOS—First of all a big thanks to Randy Johnson and his great staff for hosting the Donkee Tour. Thank you All.

Cerritos Donkee Champion Donnie Johnson happily pockets $800 first place money plus $250 Jack Ace money for a grand total of $1,050. Donnie was due for a win and presently is really on a roll.

I heard he shot the magic 300 game in the ABTA last week. Congratulations go to a very nice young man. In the first squad Sunday morning he also took the first two side pots posting a 222/247 hdcp first game and a 270/305 hdcp second game. His third game was great too a 205/230 for a big 782 series. It just was Donnie's day to shine and his 782 series stayed on top of the board all day.

Lovely Imee Ahorro looking good was on her game too as she posted a well shot 746 series taking second place to pocket $400. Paul Passarino shot a 726 for third, Dustin Shaw a 716 for fourth and Greg Reed was fifth with a 712 series. Greg looking awesome in the second squad came out on a solid ten bagger going for that magic 300. Ouch it didn't happen. He left a ten pin picked it up and got a strike to settle for a 289/299 game.

KIETZ KOMMENTS

Let's Hear It For John Brunswick!

by Frank Kietz

LAKE FOREST— In 1845, John Brunswick built his first ornate billiard table in Cincinnati, Ohio. It was built for America's elite. Coming from Europe's Rhine Valley, more German than Swiss, young Brunswick came as a woodworker journeyman.

First he was a carriagemaker, then any job where they used a saw and hammer. He'd say, if it is make of wood, I can make it; later added broker/sales skills. He took advantage of the fact America was fast becoming sports minded; English made tables were popular catching Brunswick's eyes.

French aristocrats found billiards. The "in" game picked up by other European "swells" particularly the English where the words "snooker" and "english" were popularized.

Charles Goodyear "invented" a usable substance in 1839. A Brunswick chemical engineer discovered if you mixed sulfur with Goodyear's rubber it created a lively cushion. Before that most tables used cushions made of dipped fabric nailed to the rails.

Old John, was a super salesman, craftsman, a judge of those near-do-well pioneers, they would buy his quality products.

He also knew to be successful you had to have worthy/faithful skilled employees.

A visit to Forest Lanes, any pool player will instantly recognize the quality in the center's three brand new nine-foot Aranith Brunswick tables.

John introduced New England slate for beds fitted into the finest oak and maple frames, fastened with USA hardware.

Some are still in use.

The tables at Forest Lanes has the best, slate from the Far East, wood from Brazil and fasteners from the USA.

The cushions strongs, 18-feet of uniform bounce and the table covered with stain proof Inan Simonis Cloth. Overhead Bud Light shades.

John Brunswick's dream is here to admire — come on over, pay a visit. The 40-lane center is a state of the bowling art.

Dustin Shaw also on a roll in the third squad posted a beautiful 279/281 game. Great games Guys. Lanes were great.

Our next tournament is at West Covina lanes April 23rd. Sunday. Squads are at 10:00am, 11:30am and 1:00pm. Finals follow. (Finals are three games. Where you finish is where you cash.)

April 29th is CAL BOWL Saturday squads are 12:00pm, 1:30pm & 3:30pm Finals follow.

Sidepots at Cerritos in the 10:00am squad were $27. First two side pots went Donnie Johnson rolling a 247 first game and a 305 the second game. Dustin Shaw posted a big 270 the third game. In the 12:00pm squad side pots were $51 Greg Reed posted a big, big 299, JoJo Barcelona a well shot 270 and Don C Johnson a 235 third game. In the 1:30pm squad for $63 Fred Perales posted a 254, Dustin Shaw another 281 and Michael Barcenas a 251 third game.. At 5:00pm for $78 Dustin Shaw still on a roll posted a big 279, Alex Romero a 268 and Pat Dan Forth a 272 game.

Mystery game Donnie Johnson drew was a 260 and Series was a 666. No winners. Have a Happy Easter.

Cerritos Jrs GLAJAS Champs Crowned at Keystone Lanes in Norwalk

by Matt Jones

Cerritos—The Lil Raider's lead this past Saturday with some high scores. For the boy's , it was Jarred Dee with a great 98-181, then Nathaniel Jacobowitz fired a nice 84-167. GLAJAS Champs Crowned at Keystone Lanes in Norwalk

NORWALK—Basically this was one of the most interesting weeks in GLAJAS history to say the least but after it was all said and done we had our league champs.

Sunday afternoon before our final session at Del Rio Lanes the league voted to have the roll off at Keystone Lanes later that night.

At Del Rio, Tri-Star Vending won the final round and Pin-Point Bowling grabbed the wildcard. Our field was now set for the roll off. In the first rounds its was Pin Point Bowling taking out Professional Approach and Tri-Star taking out Keystone Lanes.

The semi-final saw Pin-Point Bowling take a 51 pin lead going into the second game. Then Tri-Star stepped it up the second game winning by 80 and saying see you later boys as they moved onto the championship.

They were now set up to meet Kids Ministry who had Mallari with a 239 game. For the Sr. girls, it was Kathy Liberatore with a 229-597, Jaime Ferry shot a 218-559, Ashlee Raya 245, and Lisa Hom with a 242 game.

There will be no bowling April 15th, due to the Easter Holidays. We would like to take this time to wish you all a Happy Easter.

Great Bowling Everyone!

been leading the whole season. Kids Ministry won the first game by only 13 pins only needing one more win to take the league. Tri-Star Vending then went on to shoot a great set of 516 the second game to force a one game roll off to determine league champs.

Due to timing, the bowlers were then moved to a different pair which played to the advantage of Kids Ministry. Samantha Jimenez fired a 269 having 8 in a row at one point of the game and Kids Ministry took the league championship winning the last game by 69. Congrats to Kids Ministry on their well deserved win. It was an interesting season to say the least and look for some changes in next years league.

We are trying have a much bigger prize fund in the league to attract more competitive bowlers and also trying to land a major sponsor for the league. I hope everyone has a great summer and much luck to everyone for all these tournaments we have in the summer. Show em that no-one can do it like SoCal. And one more note to Kevin Valmonte, make sure that you wipe that powder off your ball with a towel unless your bowling bad because then it doesn't really make a difference I guess. Anyways, have a great summer and Stars will be back in September, peace.

CAL BOWL BOWLING REPORT

2500 E. Carson St., Lakewood, CA 90712 • (562) 421-8448

LAKEWOOD — Wow! Did you see that full page of scores (April 6 issue) that we reported from the past weeks of Cal Bowl's league bowlers? The bowlers like to see their names in print and the league secretaries do a great job of reporting them so we make sure they appear on Cal Bowl's page every week.

It's Happy Easter to everyone. Have a wonderful week and take the time to enjoy the beauty of Spring. New sprouts on trees and flowers in bloom. Now that the daylight hours are longer bring your family and friends to Cal Bowl for an enjoyable time of bowling.

Juan Sandoval Strikes Again... Leads the Pack in Southern California Classic

by Joy McGregor

ANAHEIM—Juan Sandoval (alias Don Juan) is a Striking Machine and that's what's required in the 590 Classic at Linbrook Bowl these days. Leader Sandoval is all business on the lanes, which puts the onus on the rest of the field. Juan put together games of 244-268 & 215 for 727. The lanes were holding until the fourth game when "The Machine" developed a slight cough and a 181 game but the final tally: a fine league leading 908 series. Great bowling, Juan!

Missy Bellinder, always in contention, topped the ladies leader board with her 257-901 set. Welcome home, Missy!

Helen Petrowski did not shoot the highest series but she certainly shot the highest game and deserves her moment of fame. Helen flirted with perfection as she wowed the crowd, stroking the front nine and after converting a stone (ox/#!/!ox) 7-pin, recorded a great 278 game for an 815 series. She shot 100 pins over her average and will receive a nice watch from USBC for her efforts. Nice run, Helen and congratulations!

More great scores: Tony Angulo 246-899, Janine Ditch 246-894, John Conway 245-868, Eva Munson 256-862, Willy Bordenave 235-853, Rey Ortiz 233-849, Marie Barbush 222-848, John Phillips 258-843, Al Lara 214-832, Larry Green 224-830, Jim Upton 232-826, Ed Stoute 256-822, Bill Hitchcock 241-819, Frank Bellinder 235-817, Ron Mahler 234-816, Rob Roberts 244-811, Ronny Thompson 225-810, Shig Shoji 208-809, Rose Williams 224-807, Rod Cantrell 268, Adrian Bradley 238, Beth Corona 237, Alan Bloom 236, Gino Vassallo 234, Lloyd Thierry 233, Roy Sager 233, Jerry Knight 230, Dahanna Klerer 230, Lisa Somma 224, Bryan Datuin 223, E.J. Rogers 220, Brian Roberge 214, Ed Hermance 214, Ron Douglass 213, David Wright 213, Nancy M. Smith 211, Janet Anderson 210, Karen Bagnall 208, Diane Salinas 206, Stan Guzy 203, Don Hart 201, Shirley Anderson 201 and Tom Stearn 200.

Until next week, HAPPY EASTER TO ONE AND ALL!!!

Abakumoff 246/841 & Flores 238/836
Led Deaf Travel at Covina Bowl

by Connie Marchione

COVINA—So Calif. Deaf Traveling League had to hastily move to Brunswick Covina Bowl it found out its scheduled stop, Brunswick West Covina Bowl had no lanes open.

The move did not bother the bowlers as five of the 6 trio's teams 2000 plus team series. Two bowlers hit 800s and another missed 800 by 11 pins. Ed Abakumoff, who in his last Wednesday's Moreno Valley league rolled a 961 (276-234-225-226), led the honor roll for the 2nd straight time with his 246-234/841, Dan Flores followed with his 214-238/836. Connie Marchione in one of his rare good showings missed an 800 when he slumped to a 174 after games of 204-204-207.

The league leader South Bay with Marchione's 789 and Pablo Yoma's 224/728 took the day's high team series 2199 to beat Abakumoff's Riverside, 11 to 9. Abakumoff NATIONAL DEAF BOWLING NEWS teammate Robert Audette hit 203/708 as Riverside scored 2109. South Bay also scored the day's high team game 611 with Yoma's 224, Marchione's 204 and Don Millwee's 183.

In the battle for 2nd place Darrell Stogryn shot 216-221/741 as his El Camino Village beat S. F. Valley with Bob Jones absent, 11.5 to 8.5 to gain some ground. On this day Jones had to attend the Los Angeles Bowling Association's Awards Luncheon where he was awarded his trophy as top senior bowler.

Flores's 836 along with Sharon Caldwell's 4 points helped their Hollywood win 12 points over Los Angeles whose Gardy Rodgers had 225/734 and Andy Lorenzo 231/733.

The league thanks Manager Steve Murray and his Brunswick Covina Bowl staff for hosting us on a very short notice. Luckily for the league, everything moved smoothly because Covina Bowl is only two miles from West Covina Bowl.

RIVERSIDE'S DEAF SCHOOL SHOULD HAVE VARSITY BOWLING

This writer received via e-mail from USBC Public Relations stating that Ohio is the 18th state to have established high school varsity bowling to start in 2006-2007 season. Other states that already established high school bowling on varsity level are Alaska, Arizona, Florida, Hawaii, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Michigan, Mississippi, Nevada, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, Pennsylvania, Tennessee and Washington. Iowa and Washington have for girls only.

Also there are 25 other states that have high school bowling on club level. Is California on this list? It did not say. California School for Deaf at both Riverside and Fremont should have bowling competition against high schools in their areas.

GUESS WHAT IS THE FASTEST GROWING VARSITY SPORT?

My wife, Dorothy showed me the latest May issue of Readers Digest which featured America's 100 Best. On page 144, #69 Best Sport Comeback. It says:

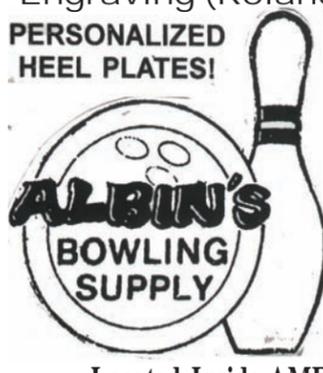

Quick question: What's the fastest-growing high school varsity sport?

Believe it or not, it's neither football nor soccer. According to the National Federation of State High School Association, it's bowling, with nearly 40,000 girls and guys making up teams around the nation. Its fun, fast and competitive. And you won't bang your knees.
