Silver Lake Atom Splitters Win 2014 PBA League Elias Cup

Chris Hardwick's Atom Splitters defeat Chris Paul's L.A. X 4-2 in 'Battle of Los Angeles' finals

NORTH BRUNSWICK, N.J. – Down 2 points to 1 and trailing by 31 pins in the deciding final Baker game, the Silver Lake Atom Splitters presented by Spiceworks rallied to defeat L.A. X presented by GoBowling.com to win the 2014 Professional Bowlers Association League Elias Cup.

In the fifth frame of the Baker game, which was worth three points, Silver Lake's Bryon Smith, Chris Barnes, Dom Barrett, Wes Malott and Tommy Jones combined to string the last seven strikes to overtake the L.A. X lineup of Mika Koivuniemi, EJ Tackett, Andres Gomez, Jason Belmonte and Parker Bohn III, winning the game, 225-203, and the match 4-2.

The finals, seen Sunday on ESPN from Brunswick Zone Carolier, opened with a battle between reigning PBA Player of the Year and nine-time Tour titlist Belmonte bowling for L.A. Clippers all-star guard Chris Paul's L.A. X, and former Player of the Year and 17-time Tour winner Barnes, bowling for television and Internet personality Chris Hardwick's Atom Splitters.

Belmonte, wearing his Google Glass headset that provides a point-of-view look at his release, dominated from the start firing the first nine strikes and finishing with a 279-259 victory over Barnes to give L.A. X the early 1-0 lead.

In the alternate-shot doubles game, Barnes teamed with Smith to defeat the L.A. X pairing of Bohn and Koivuniemi, 261-228, to even the match at 1-1. Down by 12 pins in the third frame after Smith left a 2-10 split that Barnes was unable to convert, the pair came back with eight consecutive strikes to win handily.

In the Baker trios contest, the momentum swung back to L.A. X with Belmonte, Gomez and 2012-13 PBA Rookie of the Year Tackett defeating Silver Lake's Jones, Barrett and Malott, 216-190, to regain the match lead, 2-1, setting up the deciding Baker team game.

"The important thing is to have a lineup where you know everyone has your back," said Barnes, who earned the PBA League's Mark Roth Most Valuable Player award. "Whether you strike or split you have to know that the guy behind you is giving it his all."

"You have to remember that the singles game is the only part of the tournament where you're not bowling with a teammate(s). Personally, I felt these guys put me in a position to succeed. I couldn't think of a better group of guys who had that 'have-your-back' mentality."

Team manager and four-time Tour winner Mark Baker also stressed the importance of the Atom Splitters' player chemistry and putting together the right lineups in the right situations throughout the whole PBA League season.

"We put this team together for the sole purpose of getting to this point," said Baker. "With a team that has this much talent it makes it easy—you could make a decision and feel confident you could stick

Citrus Belt's DARRON PETERS Leads Seniors at Bowlers Journal Championship

by Frank Weiler

RENO — What happens in Vegas stays in Vegas but what happens in Reno goes viral. So what happened in Reno that all Citrus Belt bowlers should know about? How about our own Darron Peters leading the BOWLERS JOURNAL National Senior Singles Tournament.

Darron headed to Reno about a week ago and generated enough electricity on the lanes to light up my iPad inbox. As his scores appeared on my screen it seemed as if Apple's 4Gs were pulsating like a movable icon. Scores too hot to handle.

After bowling well in the USBC Open Tournament [All Events 2129 (4th), Singles 719 (27th) and Doubles 1344 (6th)] Darron marched to the far end of the Bowling Stadium and laced up his shoes again for the Bowlers Journal Tournament. There he bowled even better.

While things went well during practice, carry improved as the competition continued. His senior singles series of 740 (197 - 300 - 243) placed him in first place. With partner CLIFF CONNORS he posted a solid 1376 (740 and 630) for fourth place. Last year Darron and Cliff bowled 1341 for a top ten finish.

If Darron's singles score holds up, he may be the first Citrus Belt bowler to win a Bowlers Journal national title. Come July we will know if our guy takes home the "BLUE RIBBON" and a hefty check.

BELMONTE, WALTER RAY WILLIAMS JR. ACHIEVE PBA PINFALL MILESTONES

NORWALK — One of the most notable pinfall milestones a grassroots bowler can accomplish is membership in the United States Bowling Congress Open Championships' 100,000 pinfall club, a feat long-time PBA member and current Storm Products Vice President-Public Relations Bob Hart accomplished recently in Reno.

In his 58th USBC Open appearance, Hart became the 14th bowler to join that elite club. By way of comparison, Australia's Jason Belmonte is the first member a new PBA 100,000 pinfall club, and it only took him five years to do it.

The reigning PBA Player of the Year is the first player to surpass that milestone in PBA World Series of Bowling competition, knocking over 101,431 pins in 456 games (a 222.43 scoring pace). Sean Rash will likely become the second member of the WSOB 100,000 pinfall club this fall in his sixth World Series. Rash has a 99,717 total for 445 games, averaging 224.04.

While membership in any 100,000 pinfall club is noteworthy, PBA Hall of Famer Walter Ray Williams Jr. has established a standard for PBA Tour competition that will be hard to beat. Williams closed the 2012-13 PBA Tour season as the first-and-only player to knock down more than five million pins in PBA Tour competition.

As of Dec. 31, 2013, Williams had bowled 22,926 games in 775 PBA Tour events and knocked down a total of 5,019,834 pins – a lifetime average of 218.95.

To put WRW's career into perspective, an average league bowler rolling 100 games in a season would need to average nearly 219 for a little more than 229 years to match that feat.

Williams' closest challenger is fellow Hall of Famer Pete Weber who has toppled 4,650,511 pins in 21,482 games during a career that began in 1979. Weber has averaged 216.48 in his 750 PBA Tour events.

You are Invited....

The California USBC and the California Bowling Writers have partnered to bring a coming together of bowling leaders and guests for a first ever joint Awards Banquet that promises to be an Evening to Remember. The event will be held on June 7, 2014 at the beautifully refurbished Crowne Plaza Hotel (formerly the Holiday Inn) in Sacramento.

Guest speaker will be the talented Jennifer Cunningham who is Executive Director of Marketing of the Reno Sparks Convention & Visitors Authority responsible for developing and coordinating the communications, public information, website, and social media, creative and all marketing aspects of the RSCVA as well as special events. She is no stranger to bowling via her dealings with National, State and Local associations and has also been part owner of two restaurants!

Award winners being honored are:
Hall of Fame - Meritorious Service (Posthumously) - Diddy Watts
Hall of Fame - Superior Performance - Tori Romeo Carter
Proprietor of the Year - Scott Poddig, Bowlum Lanes
Star of Tomorrow - Tre Webber, Central Sonoma County
Scholarship recipients from the Youth Committee:
Morgan Cunneen, Vista, CA, North County USBC (female)
Charles Sandfer, Twenty-nine Palms, CA, Citrus Belt USBC (male)

CBW will also award their Marijane Viat Writing Contest Award and Prizes, fun and good food will enhance the experience. We invite you to help us kick-start this promising working relationship and look forward to providing an Evening to Remember. Call the Crowne Point at (916) 338-5800 using code "WBC" for a special rate. Check the CBW website www.calbowlingwriters.org for more information.

Got a Complaint? Step up!

Seems since merger mania took over and all the changes in USBC and our local and state associations, enthusiasm for being a part of the process is disappearing. A lot of what centers around making an organization a success is being able to have eyeball to eyeball communication on solving problems. With strong individuals ascending to the helm sometimes it is difficult to ever get your point across. There is a way to do this. Step up! If you don't like the way something is going and are not just a chronic complainer, you can be heard.

- 1) Be sure your complaint is sound – have the facts
- 2) Put your argument together – in writing so you don't ramble
- 3) Offer a solution and be prepared for reasonable discussion.

I am hearing people complain about so many things but you can't change or fix anything if you don't sensibly state your case and offer a solution. Our meetings are democratically run and you do have the opportunity to speak. Meetings? Oh, yes, you need to come to the meeting! With delegates opting out of attending meetings you are leaving the decision making up to a few and no one ever hears your input because you are preaching to the choir.

We can affect change. We can work together but we need to show up to state our case. Step up!

Longtime ABTA Member Romy Cajucom Passes

LAKEWOOD — CAL Bowl was our host. We got a great semi tough fair shot as 179 entrants came and enjoyed the day. The cut scores were decent, +71 for the men and +45 for the women. Super Seniors were added to the board (two Men and one Woman) Ray Varela, Bob Selner, Sierrie Herradura, and Teresita Abing. This gave us 39 bowlers making it to the semi-finals.

High qualifiers for the tournament were Kmel Cunanan +156, and Kerry Lucka led the Femmes +140. The Match Series worth $5,000 (5 K 5- Grand) and Kmel draws the score, a 526 matched by two of our Loyal Members Ge Ge Gabriel, and Emilio Flores YES! They gladly shared $2,500 each and Yes!! they were buying the Beer :=)) Congrats to both men who are Super ABTA Members and deserving to say the least! We have a carryover of $195 and estimate the Match Series at $1,250 this Saturday at Action Lanes.

In the 3-6-9 Roll-off worth $2,900, Kevin Collier and Johnny Tran couldn't eliminate one another so they shared the $50 Consolation Cash. The 3-6-9 is Now $3,000 at Action Lanes. Big Buck are in store for us there!!

In our optional doubles, leaders were Kelly Wynn, and Kmel Cunanan 1407 $130 edging Du Quach. Michael Kong 1407. $110 also Ed Abarca and Chris Kelly 1407 $110. There was a total of $1,300 paid out in doubles and 206 paid spots with low to cash of 1364. The Weekly Doubles are 100% Payback to our Members as an added perk.

During the 4 pm and 6pm squads, we will be using a sign up card for doubles. This means you will need to pay for all entries on your card and list the names you want to double with. This is to help us out with doubles as the number of entries during these two squads is taking us too far into the first, and must be rectified!!.

Leading the Semis was William Ele with a nice +130. So he gets the advantage of sitting out and bowl for the Title. Runner-up was Rithy Ath +100. He gets a first round Bye and will enter in round-2 of the Top 16 Single elimination roll offs. All 39 bowlers cash. The top 16 advancing to the Roll offs.

William had the honor of drawing the Match Game worth $1,920. He drew a 249 with no winner so we estimate the Match Game at $3,250 Saturday at Action Lanes.

This would bring us to our top 16 Match Play finals. In Round One, the seven being eliminated received checks of $100. We advanced to Round Two seeing Mien Barcelona, William Garrett, Rodolfo Martinez, and Easy- Ed Abarca. They finished 6-9th Places and $105 each.

Now down to the final five bowlers. In match one Marina Suos edged Fred Ringor on the final Ball 219-217. Rithy Ath downed Edmund Del Mundo in a good one 231-217. Edmond and Fred are 4th and 5th with nice bowling and Rithy to meet HIS BETTER HALF Marina:=) for the Right to bowl for the title vs Mr. Ele..

The match was on and again, another good match from both bowlers. The match was close thru the first five frames, and saw both bowlers with slim leads. After the fifth frame it was Marina who held a slim lead. During the next three frames it was close and going to the 10th Marina led but she opened, Rithy struck and won the close match. Marina is 3rd with great bowling, and Rithy off to the title game vs William Ele.

The title game now! William started on the left lane and 3-6-10 split/open. Rith Spared and both are clean with Rithy stepping up and doubles in frames 4-5 taking a lead. William had a 5-10 split in the 6th and Rithy with a double in frames 7-8 took a huge lead. William splitting again in frame 9. It is over as Rithy wins in a 244-212 score to take home his second ABTA Title in fine style and a nice $2,700 1st prize with the Cash N Carry Bonus. William who bowled very well til the end would take home $500 for his second place finish.

Congrats to Rithy who I have gotten to know. He is a

Rithy Ath wins 3rd ABTA Title at CAL BOWL $2,800 (L—R) Juan Ellison CAL Bowl Desk Supervisor, Marina Suos 3rd $200, Rithy Ath Champion $2,800, William Ele 3rd $500 and Bob Smith ABTA Tournament Director.

Very fine young gentleman and his bowling has surely improved in the period he has bowled with the ABTA. He is one of the nicest guys around and we are proud that he wins title #2.

William Ele, also one of the Good Guys and a long time ABTA Member got his first title. He has been runner-up 3 times. William is very well-liked by all great bowling!!

Marina, a past Champion, bowled very well in 3rd place, and almost got her second title. Her better half was surely better at CAL by 3 scant pins:-) She is a Sweet Lady and we are glad to have her with the ABTA. Great Bowling Marina!!

Rithy Ath hails from Long Beach and Married as said, to Marina! He used a Zero Gravity drilled by ABTA Member Charles Weeks! Charles also bowled the event, along with his pretty GF Lanae Kentner. He thanks #1 fan Marina for support, also Royce Angeles and Jean Colian ABTA Members who gave support. He missed his friends who couldn't be at the Event. Congrats again Rithy!!.

William Ele hails from Woodland Hills, and used a ball drilled by Rusty at Mission Hills!! He is single. He thanks CAL for hosting the Event and the ABTA Staff. Also "Barkada" and the Cheering Audience.

Marina Suos is from Long Beach and used a Storm drilled by Yes, again Charles Weeks! She thanks Rithy for all of his support, CAL for Hosting the Event and the ABTA Staff.

Action Lanes is our Host Saturday in a One Day Event with Beat the Board Finals. All will cash and same top 16 go for $100 Min up to $1,000 1st and with Cash n Carry and Bonus $2,900 First Place!! Action Lanes is located on Lower Azusa Rd in El Monte. You can check our website (www.abta1.com) for schedule and directions.

New schedules will be available at ACTION LANES and Mailed next week. If you have moved please let us know your address! Please Check in early at Action Lanes! Pots are huge at 4 & 6 PM. Lots of bracket action in store also.

It's history folks, as Rithy Ath again enters the archives as our latest champion. Hope to see you at Action Lanes. The Following Saturday April 26 we are hosted by BOWLING Lanes! Thank you for being an ABTA member until then!

Make plans for the Big Memorial Event at CAL BOWL May22-23-24-25! Please see the ad for Prepaid Bonus.

Las Vegas here we come July 3-4-5-6 at the Classy South Point. The only place to bowl in Vegas! Saturday night Finals in this one. See our ad or go to www.abta1.com. $14,000 1st with Bonuses in this one. Great payoffs down the line with top 32 single elim Finals, estimating 130 Cashers in this one.

On a very sad note!!

Our Good Friend and ABTA Member Romy Cajucom passed Monday due to a battle with Cancer. Romy was a Good Man, a Gentleman and although unassuming he spoke at the correct times for sure!! He was at nearly every ABTA Event from the birth of ABTA, he loved to bowl! We were fortunate to have this man as an ABTA Member, he was one of the Finest. A full story of Romy will appear in next week's Bowling News, and on Facebook. Viewing is Friday eve 4:00-6:00 PM at Cabot & Son 27 Chestnut St in Pasadena, CA. Funeral Interment is Saturday 10:00AM at Forest Lawn in Glendale, CA. God Bless Him.

Hope to see you at Action Lanes. Make Plans for Las Vegas and Memorial Events.

The Perfect Game

by Steve Felege

A "Beatles Tribute" brought to you by: Carol "Mama" Mancini

YOU SAY GOODBYE.....

Carol: Well Steve, it's a sad day.

Steve: Why do you say that? It's spring! The sun is shining, birds are chirping.....

Carol: Exactly! It's time to say, "Goodbye!" to another bowling season. Doesn't that bother you?

Steve: Look at the bright side Carol; it's been a good year. Thanks to Frank Weiler, a lot of your bowlers got serious about saying, "Adios!" to their old skills too.

Carol: We certainly gave them a lot to think about. Didn't we?

Steve: We sure did. Do you think they took any of our advice seriously?

Carol: Who knows? We'll find out next season. Any final thoughts as we say, "So long!" to 2013-14?

Steve: Just one. Every bowler needs to understand that they have room to improve, even the best of the best. Becoming a better bowler doesn't mean going to the lanes and practicing what you already do well. It means saying, "Bon voyage!" to your comfort zone and trying new things.

Carol: Like what?

Steve: Like: -rolling games using different targets.

-delivering shots with varying wrist positions.

-starting closer to, and farther back from the foul line.

-practicing at different centers.

-buying that new ball you didn't get for your birthday.

Carol: Are you saying that experimenting makes you a better bowler?

Steve: Absolutely! Trying new and different things makes everyone a more complete bowler, able to say "Sayonara!" to insecurity.

Carol: That's important!

Steve: It sure is, but elevating your skills also means practicing things you do poorly.

Carol: Like shooting the corner pins?

Steve: Bingo! Every right hander hates seeing a ten-pin after making a good shot. Lefties hate the seven pin. The only way to bid "Farewell!" to hatred of those spares is to become proficient at making them.

Carol: And the only way to become good at making them is....

Steve: Shoot at them a lot! Spend a whole game delivering both shots at nothing but the ten (or seven) pin. If you can rent a lane for an hour of "shadow bowling", that's even better.

Carol: That's frustrating when you're used to practicing for high scores.

Steve: I know it is, but "practice" scores are meaningless. They only matter during competition. High scores result if you can leave a corner pin then say, "Auf wiedersehen!" to it with your next shot.

Carol: So the message here is.....

Steve: Remember your passion for the game. Don't settle for your same old average! Say, "Aloha!" to mediocrity.

.....AND I SAY HELLO!

Steve: So, are you still sad about the end of this season?

Carol: Heck no! Say, "HELLOOO!" to summer leagues.

Steve: Say, "Hello!" to new techniques.

Carol: Say, "Bonjour!" to competence.

Steve: Say, "Hola!" to confidence.

Carol: Say, "G'day!" to your newfound game.

Steve: You will never bowl the same.

Carol: So just say, "YO!" to bowling fashion.

Steve: And then say, "HEY!" to renewed passion.

Carol: In case you think we're being silly.....

Steve: We want YOU to be the "Most Improved!".....Really!

Carol: Think of all the respect you'll get.

Steve: Then say, "YOU AIN'T SEEN NOTHING YET!"

BURBANK — Seven years ago, my husband stopped bowling. Just like that! Done. Finito. No more. Since then, it has been my mission to get him back on the lanes. Not an easy task, as he is a very determined man. Or should I say, just plain stubborn?

He's a good bowler. He once bowled a 300! Unfortunately it was in practice, but he did it! He has a verified 700 series. Still, he claims to be mediocre, not good enough. I can only claim those titles in my dreams!

Well, this past week victory was mine and we went to buy him a new ball (he had given all of his away!). It just so happened I had ordered a new one for myself days before so we were there together, getting fitted, ogling the new shoe styles and yakking away with our ball man/coach.

The old times came flooding back. It was exhilarating! Our first practice shots with the new balls were tentative at best but soon the rhythms were flowing and we were actually having fun. It felt awesome to have my best friend/partner back with me doing the sport for which I have such great passion.

The moral of this story is you really can go back home... even if the 'house' is your local bowling center.

Dean of Bowling Writers, PBA & USBC Hall of Fame

The beginnings of most sports are shrouded in mystery, to put it mildly.

But there is no doubt that the father of organized professional bowling was Eddie Elias, the one of a kind pioneer who comes along only every century or so. To succeed at such undertakings, you must have unlimited energy, patience and the lofty hopes of a dreamer who believes.

Eddie's dream lives on, half a century after he came into the spotlight, convinced he would do what no one else had done, convinced he could convince all, even those who needed a little nudge, or a big push.

The young lawyer had to sway players, proprietors, press, manufacturers, sponsors — in short — the entire bowling industry — and the world outside of bowling.

No person ever did it better or did it at all before he came along. He created a tour where bowlers could earn a living for the first time through their talent on the lanes, just as so many other athletes did in their chosen field. He brought credibility to a sport that never had its due visibility. He vaulted bowling to the heights of national network TV and top bowlers became household names because of the highly rated shows.

Elias spurred generations of bowlers into thinking they could make it big, and gave them what they needed, the opportunity. Even if they didn't make it, they could try, and trying is a learning experience in itself.

He uplifted the status, not only of the most talented of bowlers, but all bowlers, and the perception that bowling is a sport for all, from youngsters under five to oldsters pushing 100.

Though Elias left us in 1998 he remains in so many ways. His ideas are still used and memories of him inspire. Eddie always called the pro bowlers "his boys" but he helped every bowler and every group he could whenever he could, despite a heavy schedule with many of his clients from all fields.

As Phil Donahue said, "Long before free agency, long before pro sports rose to billion-dollar levels, there was Big E., bargaining his heart out for big and small clients alike."

Elias has many monuments to his life in bowling, his Hall of Fame elections, his citations from every group in the sport, his innovations that thrive.

Now there is the Edward G. Elias Bowling Center on the campus of The University of Akron, his alma mater, a fitting way to memorialize the life of Elias and his legacy.

His always caring wife, Peggy, and daughters Rainy and Annie, and many others have and continue to give the center their full support in every way.

The center is now in operation with the vitality and future plans Eddie would have loved. Future plans call for special bowling events for youth and various scholarship plans and any venture that will enhance the sport with particular attention to the young people everywhere.

Donations are being accepted to develop the center's future as a center of bowling, its history and traditions, and the values so well exhibited by one of the greatest names in bowling history — Eddie Elias.

Contributions, large or small, can be sent to The University of Akron, Department of Development, Elias Bowling Center, Akron, OH 44325-2603.

This is the kind of giving that grows our sport.

IDLE BOWLING THOUGHTS

... It is amazing that people find it difficult to understand why the merger that created the United States Bowling Congress has run into some sharp pebbles in smoothing the road. You can't take more than 100 years of habits and experiences, millions of bowlers, hundreds of paid workers, hundreds of thousands of volunteer workers, a changing sport and business, and expect all the pieces to fit together as quickly as a first grader's puzzle. Patience not only is needed, it is a must from all involved.

... Bowling balls are expensive, but they always were. Back in 1907 the newest rubber bowling balls sold for $15. For many, that was more than a week's pay. And those good looking high top bowling shoes set you back anywhere from two to five bucks, but they lasted for years and years.

... An old newspaper clipping, dated Oct. 25, 1897, reported that Detroit had four bowling leagues that year. In three of them "palm" balls were used, and in a newly formed six team circuit the new "finger" balls were used. And here we are, 110 years later, and the rage in some areas is two handed palm bowling.

... Watch the great instructors in action. They not only teach, they inspire.

... A very little boy told me about the match he had against one of his friends. It was close all the way until he knocked down a pin in the seventh frame to win out, 1-0.

... Good guys never finish last, not if they are good enough.

Week 4 - Round 5

by The Great Mancini

DOWNEY — AMATEUR BOWLERS TOUR was the target for LINDER INSURANCE this week. LINDER won game one by 76 pins and thought they were lined up but failed to take into consideration that Nicole's 90 game was a fluke; and would not happen again.

A.B.T. captured #2, #3 and totals to lead this round by one game. So these two teams will be matched again this coming Monday to duke it out one more time.

Look who's watching the stats, hoping for a split at the top and a sweep for one of them ----- J.A.T. (14), PINO'S PIZZA (13), BOWLERS DEPOT (13).

For thirty-two weeks there has been pressure, now REAL pressure has teams leaping up the cashing ladder with each win; especially important to teams not making the roll-off. The guys have always professed they bowl the league for the competition, friendship, and bragging rights — money is 4th on the list.

THE PROFESSIONAL APPROACH spearheaded by Billy Myers Jr's 670 jumped from 18th place last week to 7th this week.

On the reverse side, LOS ALTOS TROPHY dropped from 6th to 17th. These two teams changed places on the leader board and still came away friends!

On the U.S.OPEN pattern next week scores will drop, frustrations will flare, balls will be banished and games will be won by smaller margins. Of the 288 games bowled this week, 204 were under average. YIKES!

Checking the side action, looks like Leonard Ruiz was the Kegel King Kasher, second pot with 247 (plus Advisors Pot) and a third game split with Dave Korach.

Zack Jellsey tucked away the bucks for game one and Larry Campbell took some Advise and tossed a winning 238.

PINO'S PIZZA tallied up the high series of the night on 604 Ramon Torres, 576 Chuck Weeks, 553 Josh Tajiri and 642 by Leonard Ruiz. They played ZUNIGA'S PLUMBING which had a 2326 but only won ONE from PINO'S. Let's give the guys their dues! Vic Fabris 583, David Cogswell 524, Eric Espinoza 595 and Greg Neuer 624 just ran into the best of the night.

Congratulations to Scott Poddig, named California Bowling Proprietor of the Year!
