100-Year-Old Bowler Takes On TV Star Regis Philbin

by Wendy Clem and Aaron Smith USBC Communications

RENO, Nev. - Emma Hendrickson, the 100-year-old bowler from Morris Plains, N.J., who became the oldest participant in the history of the United States Bowling Congress Women's Championships last month, put her bowling skills to the test against television personality Regis Philbin.

Philbin challenged Hendrickson to a bowling competition after her milestone appearance at the National Bowling Stadium on April 18 became national news and landed her on ESPN Top 10 Plays and ESPNEWS.

The Philbin-Hendrickson match was taped at AMF's 300 NY in the Chelsea Piers Center in New York on May 14 and was shown on "Live! With Regis and Kelly" this Friday morning, May 22. The episode will be available on the show's Web site.

Although the results were kept a secret until the show aired, the contest was the subject of numerous ongoing jokes and comments by Philbin and his co-host, Kelly Ripa.

"I had a lot of fun doing the show," said Hendrickson, who competed in the USBC Women's Championships for the 50th consecutive year. "I have been on TV before for interviews, but not as part of this type of activity. Regis seemed very concerned about my health, and kept asking me if I was OK. I guess he didn't want me to throw the ball and go down with it."

Hendrickson said Philbin spent time clowning around and faking pulled muscles, claiming it had been many years since he had bowled - all as an excuse for his lack of bowling prowess.

The media frenzy surrounding Hendrickson's accomplishment started in Reno when local news crews were on hand to see her break the record she shared with Ethel Brunnick of Santa Monica, Calif. Brunnick was 99 years old when she competed in the

Emma Hendrickson on the set with Regis Philbin

Women's Championships in 1987.

The excitement hasn't died down, and Hendrickson currently is working on a photo shoot with British and Australian newspapers for upcoming features. She also has been invited to serve as the bowling spokesperson at the New Jersey Senior Olympics being held in Woodbridge, N.J., in September. There also have been offers to appear on "Ellen," "Good Morning America" and "The Tonight Show," according to Hendrickson's family. "I don't really feel any different, but I do get a kick out of it," said Hendrickson, who already is signed up for the 2010 Women's Championships in El Paso, Texas. "It seems like everybody is talking about it here, and I am even hearing from people who are asking for my autograph."

Presenting sponsors for the 2009 USBC Women's Championships are Eldorado Hotel Casino, Silver Legacy Resort Casino and Circus Circus Reno. Other participating sponsors are Kegel, official lane maintenance provider, Atlantis Hotel and Casino, Sands Regency Casino Hotel, Harrah's Hotel and Casino, Club Cal Neva, and Storm Products Inc.

King and Queen of Seniors Announced at Keystone

by Rob Hartley

NORWALK—This Last weekend we had the 10 Pin Hootenanny Tournament and it was a blast! It started off a poem dedicated to all the seniors and I thought it would be nice to share it with you! A very "Special Thanks to Don and Isla Meyer for sharing the talents of their family, who are fantastic poets! (If you ever get the chance ask Isla for some of the poems she has written, we think they should be in a book, but that's another story!) We had asked Isla to write us a poem, but after a short discussion with her sister, Alice, she wrote and sent the poem to Isla. It fit like a glove on a hand and thus we had our name for our tournament, "TEN PIN HOOTENANNY"!

Joe Talasy, who is 92 years young and Liz Stockton who is just a tad bit younger than Joe, (89 to be exact!) were named as the King and Queen of Senior bowlers. The two of them combined have over 135 years between them of league bowling! What an amazing accomplishment. Joe and Liz were a part of 50 other seniors above the age of 70 to compete against each other. Although, we could write a book about these two marvelous bowlers, it's more of what they represent is the real story.

I have had the opportunity to work with Joe and Liz for over 4 years as the Senior Director and in four years, I've never heard them complain about their health, their age, or what they can't do. I have heard them tell me stories of years past, of great bowling nights and a great appreciation for the game and what it does for them.

I think Liz and Joe are the real heroes of bowling for they set the example and the attitude that you are never too old to bowl that last strike, spare or better yet, pick up a split! Joe and Liz you are the real definition of what a true bowler is.

You love the game, you smile through the splits and opens and nothing is better than seeing you still score the 200's. You inspire a lot of us and you give us the motivation to keep bowling! Keep up the great work and now for some fun stats from the Seniors, 70's, 80's and 90's tournament this last week.

We had 50 bowlers, which when all the ages were added up came up to 4,232 years represented. During the tournament, 36,725 pins were scored and if that wasn't enough, look at some of the scores from this event! The three categories we had were the 70's, the 80's and yes Joe was the only 90 year old and he beat over 35 people with his 709 series! You can see the rest of the group age and scores below!

We owe a lot to our seniors and last but not least a big thank you for the organizational skills of Ruth Shultz and the other gals in the group for helping out so much. (Addrienne Baber, Vickie McLane, Lannis Perucci,) Our Seniors are still making a big dent in bowling! We are thankful for the 10 Pin Hootenanny Tournament! See results page 8.

Unbelievable!!! Wes Fires Another Televised Perfect Game...

FLORIDA—Roto Grip Superstar Wes Malott of Pflugerville, Texas, became the first bowler in PBA history to bowl two nationally-televised 300 games, defeating Parker Bohn III of Jackson, N.J., 300-223, in the King of Bowling by Amp Energy series finale at Kegel Training Center.

The victory, televised Wednesday on ESPN2, was Malott's fifth consecutive as he swept the King of Bowling series, earning a grand total of $50,000. In successive weeks, Malott defeated Chris Barnes of Double Oak, Texas, 268-214; Patrick Allen of Wesley Chapel, Fla., 258-234; Walter Ray Williams Jr. of Ocala, Fla., 300-238, and Rhino Page of Topeka, Kan., 257-233, before rolling his second perfect game against Bohn.

Malott used a Cell Pearl on the telecast.

Bohn advanced to the week five title match with a 260-187 victory over Brad Angelo of Lockport, N.Y.

"In practice, I moved up on the approach a little, and that slowed everything down a little bit more so I could get the ball to hook in the right part of the lane," Malott said of his mastery of the Scorpion lane condition pattern he selected for each telecast as reigning "King." "Once I did that, I had an unbelievable look. It actually got in my head that I could shoot another 300.

"I'm usually pretty laid back, not very excitable, but I actually did fall on the floor after the 12th shot. I was wondering what else in the world could happen to me this season? It was an unbelievable way to cap off a great season." It was also a victory that provided some self-redemption for Malott.

"I knew I had bowled well enough to win Player of the Year, but to have that title go down to the last frame of the last game of the season?" he asked himself, referring to Mike Scroggins' victory over Norm Duke in the title match of the Lumber Liquidators U.S. Open which denied Duke the title. "I'd rather have dominated and run away with the points title. Maybe that gave me a little more motivation.

"It was kind of unfulfilling the way the season ended. But after the King of Bowling series, I'm a little more satisfied with the whole thing. The lanes might have been scoreable, but you still have to bowl well to put up the numbers I put up."

After his King of Bowling Powered by Amp Energy sweep and a runner-up finish to Allen in the Dydo Japan Cup, Malott and his Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour competitors will head to Jackson, N.J., for the PBA GEICO Team Shootout hosted by Six

Lady Champion Jinny Lei Tops 652 Bowlers Wins ABTA Memorial at West Covina $9,300 4 Share $3,500 Match Game Three Share Record $4,392 Huge Pots and Payoffs for our Members

Mission Hills in One Day Event Saturday Vegas Rooms are Due by June 13

WEST COVINA—Jinny Lei was the best last weekend as the Pretty lady won her first ABTA Title in fine style finally downing upstart Joe Poole the house favorite, at West Covina Lanes to take home a sweet $9,350 topping 652 entrants. Jinny was best in the Semis and won from the top seeded position.

This event had semi tough scoring conditions each day in the four day event making it very fair for our members.

This event saw much action and great payoffs for our members as the Match Game, Match Series and Big Shot pot were hit. There were some nice drawings also.

Due to the nice turnout. 136 bowlers made the semis from each separate qualifying day and the Re Entry squad and would bowl three games in hopes of making the top 32 singe elim finals

Leading the semis was ABTA regular Jinny Lei at a big +123. She would sit out and bowl for the title. Runner up was Sang Chul Won +114 and would receive a first round bye entering the roll off in round two. It took a good +23 for the men and -4 for the 7 guaranteed ladies to make the top 32 Single Elim Finals.

The roll off was on and losers of round one got checks of $210 in 18-32nd place. Round two losers were Danny Guevarra, Jamescart Alarcio, Anita Smith, Greg Velarde, James Samson, Phil Sujo, “Ace” Cordero, and Ted Villaroman. They got $225 finishing in 10-18th.

Round 3 had Fred Go, Samson Kong,Danny Reece Jr. and Gibin Kim lose out and they got $400 for finishing in 6-9th places.

Round 4 had J.R. DeGuzman fall to Joe Poole 233-186, and Luciano Bruzzoni send Sang Chul Won 221-204 so Sang and J.R. bowled very well and got rewarded at $800 each for finishing 4th and 5th with Luciano and Joe to meet for the right to bowl Jinny for the title.

In this match Poole edged Luciano in a good match 221-211. He was off to the title and Luciano bowled very well 3rd place finish.

The title game Jinny Lei vs Joe Poole was on for the big Bucks.

The match game of $3,500 and a 195 game was shared by 3 of our finest. Michael Kong, Jaime Sulit and Greg Neuer who had it twice so he gets $1,750. Michael and Jaime $875 each. Greg knows when to bowl a 195 game :) Congrats! There is a carryover of $210 so we estimate the Match Game to be $1,750 at Mission Hills Saturday.

Match Series was hit at 440 by three fine people Jaffrey

It's #2 For P2!

SAN DIEGO—The NABI San Diego tournament action was at Mira Mesa Lanes this past week, & Paul Phounsavath earned his second NABI championship when he emerged on top in the eliminator style finals. Bowling all weekend on one of the PBA Experience shots gave the bowlers a chance to improve their skills, & the bowlers that met the challenge soon learned that spare shooting was the key to success. All matches in the finals were close, so a missed easy spare meant the difference between being eliminated or moving on. Paul remained consistent in all three matches, & was rewarded with $1500 for his effort. Second place & $750 went to Phil Horn. Finishing 3rd & 4th were Mike Tangonan & Chad Hill. & 5th through 8th went to Mike Yellen, James Rostello, Paul Willey, Jr. & Ron Tanja.

All squads featured guaranteed $50 sidepots each qualifying game, so Jim Nunnally, Norm Rauch, Jeff Greer, Harold Weisbecker, Sue Greer, Troy Thompson (2), Marissa de Luna, Fred Hutto, Jonny Long, Phil Horn, Mike Yellen (3), Paul Willey (2) & Paul Phounsavath (2) each went home with some extra cash.

Two of the perpetual pots were hit for $150 each...9 in a row by Paul Phounsavath & the 3-6-9 by Paul Willey.

N.A.B.I. Champion Paul Phounsavath

Bowlers want to share their gratitude to John & his staff at Mira Mesa for providing the PBA condition, as it was a great "warm up" for the upcoming NABI Week 2009 Tournament in Las Vegas this July. Thank you again, John!

The next NABI tournament will be June 6th at Kearny Mesa Bowl. Details will be included in the next edition of the Bowling News. See you on the 6th.... we'll save a cookie for you!

"Winning five in a row against the guys I had to bowl?" Malott reflected. "I just worried about my game and made the most of it. I had some luck – good and bad – along the way.

"But that's behind me. I've moved on to the future, and oh my god, to be in the position I'm at now? I've had some pretty good success this early in my career. I'm blessed and I hope I can keep it going."

PBA Tour Introduces PBA World Series of Bowling to Debut in August

SEATTLE—A new era in the Professional Bowlers Association will begin next season with the creation of the Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour World Series of Bowling.

The Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour, currently celebrating its 50th Anniversary, announced the creation of the series today which will offer more than $2 million in prize money and will take place from Aug. 1-Sept. 7, 2009 in Detroit.

The kickoff PBA Motor City Open will take place at longtime PBA host center Taylor Lanes in Taylor, Mich., from Aug. 1-6. The remainder of the World Series of Bowling, including six exempt PBA Tour events, the return of the PBA Women's Series presented by USBC and a revamped PBA Senior Tour World Championship will be held at Thunderbowl Lanes in Allen Park, Mich., just outside Detroit. The World Series of Bowling will culminate with the PBA World Championship open field event, the first major championship of the 2009-2010 season.

The PBA World Series of Bowling will mark the first time the PBA Tour will spend an extended period of time in one city. The event figures to be a financial boon for Detroit with hundreds of competitive bowlers from around the world, including the exempt PBA Tour stars such as Walter Ray Williams Jr., Pete Weber and reigning player of the year Chris Barnes expected to participate. Seven PBA Tour bowling telecasts emanating from the World Series will air on ESPN, bringing further exposure to the city of Detroit.

"The World Series builds on the proud tradition of the Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour being the standard in professional bowling worldwide," said PBA Tour CEO and Commissioner Fred Schreyer. "Detroit will be host to the greatest festival of competitive bowling in history."

Detroit boasts more USBC certified bowlers than any other city in the U.S. Main host Thunderbowl Lanes is a 90-lane bowling center featuring a unique arena setup for the taping of the ESPN telecasts and continuous online coverage on the PBA Tour's live streaming video service Xtra Frame on pba.com.

"We are thrilled to host this revolutionary month in PBA Tour history," said Thunderbowl Lanes owner Tom Strobl. "Detroit's passionate bowling fans are in for a treat."

The seven PBA championship events with dedicated telecasts will be taped at the conclusion of the World Series and air out over what has traditionally been the first half of the PBA Tour season from mid-October to early December 2009, Sunday afternoons on ESPN. The first half of the season on ESPN will conclude with the live finals of the PBA World Championship on Dec. 13, featuring the four finalists decided in early September at the World Series.

The January-April second half of the PBA Tour season will be similar to the current Tour makeup, featuring live Sunday telecasts. The Tour will travel to at least 10 cities across the country for events, including three major championships (USBC Masters, PBA Tournament of Champions and concluding the regular season with the U.S. Open).

Tournament fields for the PBA Tour World Series will be increased from 64 to 72 players. Along with the 58 exempt players, international exemptions will be introduced and at least 10 tournament qualifying round positions will be available to win per event in Detroit.

The PBA Women's Series presented by USBC returns with seven events for the 2009-2010 PBA Tour season. Six will take place at the World Series, including all the PBA "animal pattern" championships and a newly created open-field PBA Women's Series World Championship. The field size for the Women's Series events will improve from 16 to 20 bowlers for each exempt event, and for the first time two TQR spots will be up for grabs for each women's event at the World Series.

The PBA Senior World Championship makes its return to the PBA schedule during the World Series. The championship match of the Senior World Championship will be televised, once again bringing senior tour bowling to ESPN.

While the PBA World Series of Bowling includes the greatest bowlers in the world and the ESPN shows are the centerpiece events, there will also be something for every competitive bowler in the form of side events with diverse formats. Some of the side events and sweepers, which will all be conducted by the PBA, will not include exempt PBA Tour pros.

"The message for now to all PBA members and competitive bowlers from the Midwestern U.S. to Malaysia is this," Schreyer said. "Save August 2009 on your calendar and start practicing."

Further details will be released on the PBA World Series of Bowling and the 2009-10 Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour season regularly. Stay tuned to pba.com.

The Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour airs the live finals of the Etonic Marathon Open from Indianapolis this Sunday at 12:30 p.m. on ESPN.

California Bowler Capitalized on Second Chance at USBC Open Championships

LAS VEGAS—During his United States Bowling Congress Open Championships debut in 1998, Michael Burns of El Cajon, Calif., started a game with eight consecutive strikes before a 10 pin ended his run at perfection.

Another bowler on the same squad matched him strike-for-strike through eight frames and went on to roll one of 17 perfect games that year at the National Bowling Stadium in Reno, Nev. Burns never forgot that experience and even talked about it recently with his teammates.

On Monday, Burns got a second chance at perfection on bowling’s biggest stage and finished it off for the 23rd 300 game of the 2009 USBC Open Championships.

“After I got the ninth one, things started getting a little shaky, and by the 12th shot, my knees were definitely knocking,” said Burns, who made his 11th Open Championships appearance. “To me, it’s very rewarding to be able to throw an award score at an event like this. Bowling is a very humbling game, so to be able to do this is the best part.”

Burns’ 300 came between games of 182 and 177 on the way to a 659 series and 1,199 doubles effort. He added 584 in singles and 552 in team for a career-best 1,795 all-events total. His previous high all-events showing was 1,672 at the 2006 tournament in Corpus Christi, Texas.

“I’ve been bowling for 29 years, and I’ve learned you just have to go through the same routine and stay consistent with your shots,” Burns said. “My dad always used to remind me that once you let go of the ball, you have no control over what happens next, but if you’re making good shots, good things will happen.”

Sometime during last year’s event in Albuquerque, N.M., Burns realized that his plan of attack for playing the lanes at the Open Championships had been wrong all along. He felt he’d been overthrowing the ball, so he decided to play a little further inside and more direct to the pocket. Everything seemed to click at that point, and the same strategy paid off at Cashman Center on Monday.

Burns does admit, however, that his biggest challenge at the Open Championships is spare shooting. Because he typically hooks the ball at his spares, he sometimes struggles on the unfamiliar Sport Bowling lane conditions at the tournament. Fortunately, when you’re locked in and striking, you don’t have to worry about spares.

“I got myself in a little bit of trouble by hooking the ball at my spares, but for one game, I didn’t have to worry about it,” Burns said. “My whole goal coming in was just to make good shots. I reminded myself not to be lazy and to make sure to push the ball down the lane. If there’s a place to shoot 300, this is it.”

Presenting sponsors for the 2009 USBC Open Championships are the Coast Casinos in Las Vegas and the Eldorado Hotel Casino, Silver Legacy Resort Casino and Circus Circus in Reno, Nev. LAS VEGAS—The July Mini-Eliminator at The South Point in Las Vegas has created a way for bowlers to be guaranteed $3,000 for making the finals and be only 1 match away from the $35,000 Champion Shootout. A Super Bye will be awarded to one bowler from each division; 49 and under, 50+, and bowlers with a 205 and under average. The Super Byes will be won by the bowler shooting the highest series after they have qualified for the finals and re-entered.

Bowlers entering the earlier squads will have the greatest chance at earning a Super Bye. Although re-entries are normally $180, anyone making the finals and re-entering to earn a Super Bye will get $50 off all of their re-entries. Also, if a bowler purchased the Super Marathon entry, which gives you 5 qualifying squads, and qualifies for the finals on one of their first four entries, they can bowl for the Super Bye for FREE until they use up all of their entries.

The 13th annual Mini-Eliminator is being held Tuesday, June 30 through Saturday, July 4, 2009 and includes 16 qualifying squads and 3 early bird events. The top 6 prizes are guaranteed regardless of entries including $20,000-1st , $10,000-2nd, $5,000-3rd and $3,000 for 4th through 6th place. Also guaranteed is all finalists, 1 in 10, earning a minimum of $500.

The Mini-Eliminator uses a 3-game scratch qualifying format by division with an elimination (beat half-the-field) finals format. One in ten bowlers per division per squad advance to the finals and 1 in 5 bowlers per squad cash. Over $500,000 is projected to be paid out.

To make your Mini-Eliminator experience as affordable as possible we offer a Super Marathon Entry. For only $795 you receive 5 main event entries, 3 early bird entries, a Columbia Power Swing, a triple roller, $300 in match play coupons and $120 in room credit at The South Point. Total value of the Super Marathon is $1,925 which means you save over $1,100.

The South Point Hotel, Casino & Spa, located on the famous Las Vegas Strip, is offering bowlers a super low rate; $47 midweek and $77 weekend. This rate can be reduced even further since a $40 off coupon is included in everyone’s first three Mini-Eliminator entries. Bowlers and guests will be treated to an incredible experience and can book a room by calling 1.866.791.7111.

For more information on The Mini-Eliminator please visit www.minieliminator.com or call the tournament office; 1.877.900.MINI. You can bowl for free by recruiting just 2 new bowlers. You can even earn a free Super Marathon entry by recruiting just 4 new bowlers.

National Deaf Bowling News

Malucci Ends With Deaf Record 246 Average For 84 Games At Red Rock

by Connie Marchione

LAS VEGAS — The remarkable deaf (actually hearing-impaired) lefthander Carl Malucci finished his league in Red Rock Lanes in Las Vegas with a 780 series on the season finale for a deaf record average of 246 for 84 games. That beats the old deaf record of 240 made by Ken DeGroff in a Reading, PA league in 2005 but it is not even in the top 5 for the nation in USBC records.

During his drive in making his record average, Malucci had an incredible run of 17 consecutive 700 for the new USBC record replacing the old one, which was 16. Additionally, his drive includes his 41st career 300, a 299 which is his career 19th and an 811 which also is his career 19th. His team, Team Nation (Melchora Lee, Joey Harris, Barrett Lee and himself) set two deaf team records for mixed three men and a woman team 974 game and 2745 series.

The oddity of his 811 was the two opens in it, a missed 7 pin spare and a wide split in the 10th frame which he did not covert. I read that in order to get an 800, you must make at least 29 strikes out of possible 36. I counted the strikes in his 268-278-265 games and yes, there were 29 strikes in it.

In the month of April, Malucci bowled in two major tournaments, one hearing USBC Open Championships in Las Vegas and one deaf Great Lakes Deaf Bowling Association 73rd annual in Cleveland. In the first one, he admitted not doing well, struggling in the team and doubles events and then in the singles event he changed balls and made an adjustment to finish with a respectable 668.

In the GLDBA which considers itself as the deaf USBC tournament, Malucci said that he came in 7th in trying to defend his Masters title which he won in last year’s tournament at Columbus, Ohio. He had qualified way down the list and in the next round pulled himself up to finish in 7th. In the other events, he shot 2108 all-events with series of 678-700-730.

At present Malucci is joining a summer PBA Experience League at Suncoast Bowling Center that he is looking forward to see how he does in it.

Malucci 2108 Tops All-Events, Overrated Bowlers Hit 3345 In GLDBA Tourney

MISSION HILLS — Ken DeGroff stopped by Mission Hills Bowl to see me while I bowled in the Tuesday Seniors summer league there with the news and results of the Great Lakes Deaf Tournament. Ken admitted bowling badly; bowled on Carl Malucci’s team there, which finished in 3rd place with 3199 actual pinfall, but he did better in doubles and singles.

Also, Ken said that there were so many 700s bowled in that Cleveland tournament, showing me the list with 7 each in the team and singles events and four in doubles. With that many 700s, I told Ken that Carl Malucci was unsure of where his 2108 placed in the all-events. But the list showed Malucci in actual all-events first place, which is a surprise.

Likewise, Ken showed that his old team Overrated Bowlers, which he left when he moved to California, did better without him with 3345, three pins short of the record 3348 made by the Detroit deaf team, Always Pocket 1-3 two years ago. In second place was another Detroit team, Smashin’ Pins with 3202.

Thanks Ken for the news and results. The article will be in next week if I get more details from GLDBA secretary-treasurer Mike Jasko. Ken also told me the website to contact the other eastern deaf tournament, Eastern Association of Deaf Bowlers is EADB/EADWBA.com which I will contact for another article.

Ten Pin Hootenanny

by Alice Bradford

Tonight’s the night, this is the place.
Everybody is happy — big smile on the face.
Short ones, and some really tall.
Curly or straight...or no hair at all.
Each one feeling like a kid again.
Each one certain the Trophy they’ll win.
Big balls, small balls and some in between.
Red balls, black balls...yep...some even green
They gather in groups...laughing and chatting away
As they plot the course they intend to play.
The place is beginning to come alive.
You might even say...IT’S STARTING TO JIVE!!!
After a while the battle begins.
No more kidding around...each team wants to win.
Soon the pins are all in place...the first ball rolls.
Straight as an arrow down the lane it goes.
Smash! Bam!! The pins go down.
Oh...what a wonderful sound.
Suddenly, somewhere...down the lanes...a sharp cry resounds.....
HEY!!! LOOK OUT!!! THE BALL BOUNCED OUT OF BOUNDS!!!!
“IT SLIPPED!!!!” He say, as his face turns red.
OH YEAH...I BET...” someone else has said.
All up and down the place that night,
The sounds of balls rolling and pins knocked out of sight.
Cries of delight...moans of pain...
As someone mutters, “I’ll never try this!!!!...again”.
Slaps on the back, a warm hug or two...
Encouraging...relating...as good friends do.
The games are over— just one team wins.
But the memories remain of being with friends,
No matter the age, the spirit is there...
Loving, caring, each moment to share.
Oh, we may be getting up there is years.
Don’t move as fast as we used to do...
But if you’re ever in the mood to be surrounded by friends...
This one thing, I’ve found to be true...
THE TEN PIN HOOTENANNY is the place for you.

Glover Is The JAT Invitational Champion

Congratulations to Jeremy Glover on taking the JAT Invitational title last event at Jewel City Bowl. The event was highlighted by a 4-game seeding round followed by a double-elimination bracket with two-game total-pins matches on the top bracket and single-game elimination matches in the loser’s bracket. Jeremy attacked the double-elimination format by qualifying third then going undefeated capped by besting loser’s bracket finalist Devin Bidwell 487-386 in the two-game total-pins match. Congratulations Jeremy on some fantastic bowling and a JAT major title!

Tournament of Non-Champs This Sunday

The JAT will bowl its annual (an possibly last) Tournament of Non-Champions this Sunday at AMF Rocket Bowl in Chatsworth. Remember, you are eligible to bowl if you have never won a title in the division you currently bowl in. Farm Club champions are welcome to bowl the Open Division Tournament of Non-Champions without sacrificing their Farm Club eligibility. See you all on the lanes at Rocket this weekend!

JAT Senior Divison Kicks Off August 30, 2009

USBC has made a ruling to change the eligible age for junior bowling to 20 years old beginning next season. The JAT’s new Senior Division for bowlers age 20-25 (As of August 1st) will kick off with the inaugural event Sunday, August 30, 2009. Tournament entry fees will be $50 and all prizes/brackets/side-pots will be paid on the spot. We will hold three “trial events” in August, September, and October and see how attendance goes. Please drop me your comments at director@bowljat.org so we know if you’re thinking of joining us next season!

JAT Farm Club

by David Gordon

GLENDALE – Here is the latest from the JAT Farm Club, where our last event on May 17th, was our special Invitational tournament. This is the tournament that all the bowlers are gathering JAT points throughout the season in hopes of being eligible for this event. This year I took the top 24 bowlers available and put them in to a grueling 12 straight match play format. No qualifying and no finals, just 12 games (with bonus for a win) total score wins.

This tournament was held at Jewel City Bowl which proudly accommodate our needs and even more proudly displayed the center’s recent renovations. To many, the grand changes was like stepping into a brand new bowling center. Also, with JAT alumni (Alyse and Brandon McGinnis) taking the lead on setting up our event, they made sure that the shot was just right for the JAT and accommodations were nearly perfect. Thank you.

There were not that many reportable high scores for the Farm Club, but the group still had a 180 average for the entire field. High games for the first six games came in from Brandon Pekins 237, Brian Hernandez 220-235, Noel Sosa 233, Godfrey Galsim 224, and Robert Kojima 224. At the half way point, the leader came in at plus 157 and stayed plus through the top ten coming in at plus 19.

The scores got a little better for the second half of the tournament, as the oil evened out and the bowlers got more use to relying on their spare game. Stevn Roderick posted up our tournament high game with a 279. Other highs included Sosa 264, Nicole Shepard 244, Christian Hernandez 228, Gary Smith 223, and B. Hernandez 222. At the position game it was down to two bowlers, Galsim (+303) and Sosa (+254). With only 49 points separating the two, mistakes could not be afforded. In the twelve and final match play game and 30 bonus points on the line, Sosa dialed in for a 196 score to win the match. However, Galsim did just what was needed, by staying close enough with a 187 game to hold his slim lead and capture his first JAT Farm Club title by a mere 10 pins. Congratulations Godfrey.

Our next event is this coming Sunday at AMF Rocket Lanes in Chatsworth. This is our Tournament of Non-Champions and is the last event of the season to try to capture that elusive title. Check-in begins at 8:15 as normal with the cost still holding at $35. We have quite a number of bowlers without a title and I expect to see most of you out there. Also, those Farm Club members with a title, can bowl in the Open division’s event to show their true Farm Club stuff. Come one - Come all! I’ll see you on Sunday.

Jr. Elims at Keystone Lanes Hair Goes Back to Back Perfect

by David Gordon

NORWALK – This past Saturday marked our third session of the nine session summer program of the Jr. Elims, here at Keystone Lanes. We added six more bowlers to the group and the 2-person teams are being finalized. To add to this excitement, I am very proud to announce a special feat accomplished by Charlie Hair. Charlie gave us all a thrill with a perfect 300 in game one of the 4-game session. And for those that missed it, Charlie did it again in game two. Back to Back perfect 300 games. Congratulations Charlie on a feat that even the best bowlers (juniors/adults/pros) can only dream of. Charlie then continued his dominance of the conditions with a third game 237, giving him an 837 three game set and then went 259 for a 1096 session. Way to go Charlie and not bad for an hour and a half of work.

This was also the most fitting time to accomplish this amazing feat, as Keystone Lanes was completely full, hosting a Senior No-Tap event on one side of the house and an Adult/Jr. No-Tap event on the other side of the house. Needless to say, my announcements of Charlie’s games were not limited to just our six lanes and soon we had a gallery on on-lookers watching the action.

And the other bowlers did not let the crowd down as Kevin Jones posted up 220-213-246-211/890, Brandyn Roque had 227-205/817, Kim Ferdnace with 201-202-212/802, and Emilio Cruz went 202-203-233/788. Bowling scores like these with behavior that I demand of these bowlers, led to compliments throughout the entire four hours I was there. You all have made me very proud.

This Saturday we have a double session starting at 1:00 pm. That’s eight games for the group in an effort to have a schedule that can accommodate all of the summer’s interruptions. Those on hand also chose to allow new members one more chance to join this coming week only. This is the last chance to get in on this action and a special session has been added at 12:00 noon, for those wanting to join and get in a make-up set. I’ll be there at noon with four lanes, waiting to get you new bowlers registered and under way. We need (at minimum) another three bowlers to complete a field of eight teams.

Don’t let the summer or Keystone conditions get away from you. There is much to your game of bowling that can be worked on in preparation for the summer tournaments and up-coming winter season. From lower averages all the way up to Charlie, each and every bowler can get something good out of this program. For more information, please contact David Gordon at 310-665-9536, email: David_Gordon@sonyusa.com, or just come on by. I hope to see a lot more new faces out here this Saturday. For all others, get plenty of rest and a good week. I’ll see you at Keystone Lanes.

Fast Times at Linbrook Bowl Make For Hot Scores in Rocky Marsh Doubles

by Joy McGregor

The Rocky Marsh Doubles is 26 teams strong this season and started the first session Friday the 22nd by turning up the heat and setting the bar high!!

Easy-going lefty, E.J. Rogers earned the "Crown" this week on games of 228-258-263 for 749 and added 207 to claim high series honors at 956. Superior bowling E.J., your crown suits you well!

Alan Bloom started his summer in fine fashion by planting his ball on just the right groove and watched all those strikes come to life on games of 258-235-222 for 715 and added 208 to grow a 923. Very nice showing Alan!

Not to be outshined by the guys, Rose Williams decided to come to the party after her slow 162 start and a "tiny" bit of adjusting by tossing a 233 and, wow, a 289 game and then added a 237 to post a fine 921. You rock, Rose!

Dapper Terry Brent burned some wood and showed his maple moxy as he stroked 228-233-248 for 709 and added 205 to score 914. Way to go partner!

Tim Blough had all his ducks in a row and polished off the pins with on target games of 218-256-225 and 211 to finish the day at 910. Pretty straight shootin' Tim!

Janine Ditch stepped up to the plate and threw plenty of strikes on games of 236-268-213 for 717 and added 191 to catch a fine 908. Good outing Janine!
