Hardeman and Takahashi Take Weekend WWPB One-Day Events

by Lori Yamasaki

NORWALK—Laura Hardeman and Lauren Takahashi basked in the thrill of victory last weekend in WWPB events held at Keystone Lanes and Del Rio Lanes respectively.

Saturday's action was at Keystone Lanes where General Manager Dave Piazza and his staff welcomed back the Western Women Professional Bowlers in fine fashion. Laura Hardeman and Laurie Soto battled for the lead throughout qualifying and match play with fellow finalists Lori Yamasaki, Janine Ditch, Pam Pancoast, and AnnMarie Robles in hot pursuit. With mere pins between the top seeds, Hardeman and Soto, going into the final match play game - the winner of the position round match would be the victor. Hardeman kept on striking to take Saturday's title.

Laura wanted to thank her family and friends, as well as her husband Michael. She also recognized Luis Prodigal at Bowler's Depot and Steve Hamaguchi for drilling up the XXXCel she used along with Dave Piazza and the staff at Keystone Lanes for their continued support in hosting WWPB events.

Sunday's action remained intense as the WWPB moved to Del Rio Lanes. The 5-game qualifying portion of competition saw high scores keeping players close. The top three qualifiers, Dede Davidson,

Laura Hardeman, and Katrina Fujikami, saw only one pin between each position going into match play competition. Our eventual champion, Lauren Takahashi strung games in the 240 range to make it into the final match play portion of competition.

With so many players within pins of each other, finals were intense. Lauren kept shooting games in the 240 range, winning her matches and Dede just kept striking. With one game to go, once again the winner of the position round match with would be the victor. So the stage was set, Lauren vs. Dede. Although Lauren split in the first frame, she strung strikes in frames 3-8 to seal her third WWPB title.

Lauren wanted to be sure to thank Mike Cammarata and the staff at Del Rio Lanes for putting on a great event and for supporting the WWPB over the years. In reflecting upon her most recent victory, Lauren stated, "Many thanks to Dede Davidson, who (ironically) gave me a lesson about two weeks ago, Ricky Corona, Rod Ross, Eddie Williams, Tom Cristi, John Nakashima & Vise Inserts, and my dear friends and family (for their never-ending unconditional support though the ups and downs of competitive bowling)".

Both Laura and Lauren are hard working, faithful officers of the Western Women Professional Bowlers, not to mention friends to all. We congratulate them on their victories. Please visit our website at www.wwpb.com for updates on future tournaments as well as details about our organization.

An awesome 5'7" trophy was presented to Archie Winczewski in McClellan (Sacramento Area) on Saturday evening, May 21, 2005 by the bowling group that goes to the California State Bowling Tournament with Archie. This was his 50th consecutive tournament. Setting a state record for consecutive but only tied for amounts of tournaments. He tied George Braheme who set the record in 2001 in Antioch. The rotating one-of-a-kind trophy was designed and built by Jeff Cohn and is on display at Classic Pro Shop in San Diego.

NATIONAL DEAF BOWLING NEWS

64TH ANNUAL PACIFIC COAST DEAF BOWLING RESULTS AT HAWAII

by Connie Marchione

35 TEAMS WITH BOWLERS FROM SCATTERED CITIES OF US ENTERED HAWAII... For more than a decade Hawaiian Ralph Collier made frequent trips to mainland to bowl in Pacific Coast Deaf Bowling Tournaments and other deaf tournaments whenever he could afford. He thought of having the PCDBA tournament some day in Hawaii.

So five years ago with his Hawaii Silents Club's approval, Collier made a bold bid for the 2005 Pacific Coast Deaf Tournament asking the mainland deaf bowlers to plan their vacation with bowling in Hawaii. The captains and delegates voted for it and the word spread out and the bowlers began saving their money for this once in a lifetime trip.

Then later Collier and his club found it hard to get a hotel headquarter during the Memorial Day weekend which Pacific Coast Deaf established its tournaments for the past 60 years. A one-time change to middle of June was met with approval with reasoning that schools closed for summer so families and deaf school teachers who are bowlers could plan their vacation. There were thoughts of a 50-team entry.

A year ago in the PCDBA tournament at San Diego the deaf bowlers were making plans to go but early in this year, they slowly dropped their travel plans. By deadline time the count was 24 men teams and 11 women teams (175 bowlers) entered. The counts included 5 teams from host Hawaii Silent Club, bowlers from as far as Maryland, a couple of bowlers each from Australia, New Zealand and Canada.

The men bowled at Leeward Bowl and the women at Aiea Bowl. Ala Moana Hotel served as the headquarters. Also planned were a golf tournament, beach volleyball and no-tap tournament prior to the bowling tournament and after the tournament several took the 7 island cruise.

ARIZONA-CALIFORNIA TEAM HITS RECORD HANDICAP 3616 FOR TEAM TITLE

At Leeward Bowl on June 17 a make-up team, Arizona-California consisted of bowlers from both states led by Mark Brugnioni, Phoenix's 599 scored games of 942-865-933 for 2740 plus its 2nd highest handicap 876 for a new record total of 3616 to capture the team title.

The host team Hawaii Silent Bowlers which had a couple bowlers from mainland placed 2nd with 3536. Ed Bazan, San Jose led the team with 703, followed by the host co-chairmen Ralph Collier's 698 and Eric dela Pena, Jr's 633. The team scored 924-1058-975 for 2957 plus 579 handicap.

Third place was taken by Angel West-California with 3522 total from 1041-884-976 for 2901 plus 621. Javier Hernandez, Anaheim led with the event's high 704 series, followed by Deaf Team USA's Darrell Stogryn's 645. Malino Mixed from Las Vegas with Barrett Lee's 637 and Chris Smith's 629 scored the event's high scratch team series 2958 with a 1019 first game but placed 5th with 3433.

TRUETT-ESTES DUO REPEATS AS DOUBLES CHAMPS WITH 1466

In the Doubles event Larry Truett and Tim Estes, both from Seattle made PCDBA history as the first doubles team to repeat as champions. Estes rolled 720 and partner Truett 545 and closed with a big 498 game for 1265 plus 222 handicap for 1487 to place first. Last year they won with 1466 and their 1487 was 3 pins short of the record.

Twenty pins back in 2nd placed are Bert Enos and EdBazan, Redwood City with tourney high scratch score of 1335 but with 132 handicap had 1467. Enos shot a big tourney high 753 and Bazan a 682 as they closed with 476 and 467 in their 1335 series.

Minnesota's Alan Sellman (600) and Gregory Burk (642) had 1242 plus 210 to place third. San Diego's Dan Emery (686) and Jim Theyken (628) had 1314 but placed 10th and Darrell Stogryn rolled the other 700 but he and Javier Hernandez, Anaheim placed in a tie for 16th.

BURFORD ROLLS 726/771 TO FIRST IN SINGLES

Indiana's Kris Burford, bowling in his first PCDBA, made good as he closed with a 278 after games of 235-213 for 726 plus 45 handicap for 771 to take the singles title. Four pins back in 2nd place is San Diego's John Buhay with 767 from steady games of 194-205-206 for 605 [;us 162 handicap.

Bert Smith, Phoenix placed third with 762 from his 558 plus 204 handicap. Dan Emery, San Diego rolled a 276 in his 651 but his 717 total placed him in 13th. Also his teammate Jim Theyken had 652 and with 38 handicap placed him in a tie for 32nd.

BAZAN BLAZES LEEWARD PINS FOR FIRST IN ALL-EVENTS WITH 2251

Ed Bazan, Redwood City rolled 703 on team, 614 is singles and 682 in doubles for a 1999 plus 252 handicap for 2251 total to take first place in all-events. Mark Brugnioni, Phoenix placed 2nd with his steady series of 599-612-594/1805 plus 396 handicap 2201. Third place went to Harold Barish, Las Vegas with his 632-629-564 for 1825 plus 360/2185.

Dan Emery, San Diego had scratch 1966 from 629-651-686 but his 198 handicap 2164 put him in 5th. Tough for Tim Estes, Seattle who hit the highest scratch all-events score 2002 with his 634-648-720 but his 90 handicap 2092 put him out of money. Also for Kris Burford, Indiana with his 1987 and 2122 total and Darrell Stogryn's 1966 and 2101 total. Jim Theyken, too with 1914 and 2022.

Next week will have the story of the Pacific Coast Deaf's Connie Marchione Masters with Jed Barish's 300 game and the Pacific Coast Deaf's Don Miller's Senior Masters.

Domingo wins ABTA Title at Bowling Square All Pots have carryovers this week

ARCADIA-Big Vegas Event this week July 1-2-3-4 at the Gold Coast.

Nathan Domingo was the best as he downed upstart Gil Potempo in the title game to take home a nice top prize of $1,000 for his stellar performance. This was a special Tournament with the handicap frozen for the Big ABTA Las Vegas Open this weekend at the Gold Coast. Nathan bowled the best all day as he led the semifinals and sat out to bowl the title match. The scoring was good with Men +96 and ladies +67 to make the semis. Due to a nice turnout of 218 entrants we had 51 bowlers return to the semis including the 3 Super Seniors (added) by the ABTA, they being Rico Cayton, Ely Cruz and Imee Ahorro.

In the Semifinals the bowlers advanced to the Cash Line in hopes of making the top 16 single Elim finals. They were led by Domingo with his nice +137, and right behind with his +130 was Steve Bryant. Nathan would sit out and bowl for the title game with Speedy to enter in round two of the single elims receiving a first round bye. It took a nice +69 and +48 for the women to make the top 16 which included 3 guaranteed women.

The top 16 single elims got going. Losing in the first round of the finals were Rich Warner, Belinda Crowder, Nancy Brown, Lito Dizon, Sol Cericos, William Ele, and Gilbert Liu. They received checks of $105 finishing in 10-16th places.

In round two we had Bryant enter and he blitzed Chris Ko 221-194. Jason Fowler was upended by Gil Potempo 239-192. Lea Viernes sent Ron Chandler trucking 228-218. Chad Lane beat Joseph Baghdadian 261-202. The losers in round two received $120 in 6-9th places.

Round three had Mrs. Viernes strike often in downing Lane 249-217. Potempo downed his portsider pal Speedy 257-208. So Speedy and Chad were 4th and 5th in a good showing and $135 each. Lea and Gil to met for the right to bowl Nathan Domingo for the title.

This was another good one. We saw Gil finally pull away from the feisty lady in a big 249-209 win. Lea was 3rd with great bowling and $210, with Gil off to the title game vs Nathan Domingo.

The title match was on lanes 15 and 16. Nathan elected to have Gil lead off and he pared. Nathan then opened with a double. Gil had a big split in frame #3 and Domingo spared and started his march to the title with another four bagger. Gil having a double keeping it fairly close but then going for a turkey he chopped the 4-7-8 and Domingo had an insurmountable lead. He then doubled the 10th in a resounding 244/262-175/198 win over the affable Mr. Potempo. His first title was well-deserved. A great performance by a super-nice guy who has been with the ABTA about one year now. Nathan is well liked by all and it is nice to see him win. He and pretty girlfriend Laura McIntosh are ABTA regulars and fine bowlers. They will be in Las Vegas going for the $8,000 top prize this week. Great bowling Nathan!. Great bowling by Gil Potempo and also Lea Viernes who did good at Bowling Square.

ABTA Notes: Tourney Hi Qualifiers were Jason Fowler +230 (men) and Belinda Crowder who led the ladies +147 and they will get paid entries into any regular ABTA Event.

The optional doubles were taken by Bedell Vasquez, and Jason Xa. Their 1497 got them $140. Part of the Bowling Romero family Ping and Gil were 2nd by one pin 1496 and $130 and we paid 11 places in the doubles this week.

Two fine lefties Rich Warner and Demetrius Cash couldn't eliminate one another in the 3-6-9 rolloff so we will go for a sweet $800 in the 3-6-9 roll-off in Las Vegas this week. There is a $300 reserve pot also.

The Match Series worth $950 was UnMatched this week as the 654 drew by Jason Fowler was not hit so we will go for an estimated $1,700 in Las Vegas, and for only $2.00

The Match Game 3 worth $2,560 was also Unmatched as Nathan Domingo drew an Unmatchable 283. We will go for the $3,500 Capped Match Game in Las Vegas with the reserve to be put to another huge Match Game pot again at Bowling square on our return July 16th.

The Columbia 300" ball of the week went to our coiffeur and ABTA regular Du Quach so he has a smile on his face at the Barber Shop this week. He thanks the ABTA, and Columbia"300".

Champion Nathan "don't call me Nate" Domingo hails from Los Angeles, and used a Lane Master drilled by Eddie Williamson at Bowling Square. He's Single, but taken by pretty ABTA member Laura McIntosh. He thanks the fine ABTA Staff, and ABTA for sponsoring a great tournament, and AMF Bowling Square for being great hosts. Special thanks to Laura, Cameron Speedy and John for support, and of course Ed for the fine drilling. .

Gil Potempo is one of our Super seniors from the Valley (Sylmar) and he used a Vertigo drilled by Rusty Bryant. He is single ladies and thanks the ABTA Directors and staff, especially Bob for a fine tournament, and Bowling Square for being great hosts.

OCWBA Board Meeting

by Alice Meglemre
WESTMINSTER-OCWBA President Cindy Miles conducted the Board Meeting Monday, June 20. Topping the agenda was news that the OCWBA and OCBA merger will become official on Sunday, July 17 and all Orange County male and female bowlers are welcome to attend. The time is set at 9 a.m. but the proposed site, Westminster Lanes, is not yet official but Secretary Cheryl Huntington will let us know when it is.

The OCWBA 10th annual Senior Singles Tournament was next on the agenda and Theresa Hall, tournament chairman, reported that entry forms are now available at local centers and the office. Held in conjunction with the OCBA Men's Senior tourney at Forest Lanes, Saturday and Sunday, July 23-24. There will be four divisions (by age-not average) in the handicapped USBC sanctioned tourney. Entries close July 1, however, walk-in entry will be accepted if the 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. squads are not filled.

BVL chairman Pam Costanzo reported more upcoming BVL events and especially noted a bowling "Scramble" and a golf tournament is scheduled. Call her at (714) 968-7572 for more information.

Mixed Doubles chairman Gale Johnson reported dates and site for the annual Mixed Doubles will be official at the next Board Meeting 7 p.m. Monday, July 18, and Bertha Lamb will organize a pot luck party to be held prior to the meeting. Call her at (714) 532-0905 for more information.

Membership Promotions supergal, Rae Miller, reported 5,395 awards have been distributed and she expects to send out more before the July 31 cutoff date. OCWBA awards numbered 1,776 and 3,559 came from WIBC.

ALICE'S ADLIBS
Did you read the WIBC 's special commemorative final issue of Frames & Lanes? It feaured 32 pages of past, present and future photos and stories that should become a treasured WIBC souvenir. The magazine was mailed to all current WIBC members but if you failed to get one, I'll share mine with you.

The LAWBA conducted it's final Hall Of Fame induction Sunday at Coco's restaurant in Manhattan Beach. Phyl Knoll and Donna Dilliard did a fine job in presentation of awards to Lori Yamasaki for Superior Performance. See LAWBA story for more about Lori, which I'm sure is in this Bowling News issue. Many LAWBA Hall Of Famers turned out for the ceremony and it was great to see them all together and sharing memories.

This writer was impressed by a recent film review of "A League Of Ordinary Gentlemen" which is playing at the Regent Showcase in Los Angeles. Steve Miller, second to none in marketing, spent a year on the road with the PBA and filmmakers Alex and Chris Browne and according to film critic Glenn Whipp, delivered a movie full of great characters and tense drama. Pete Weber, Walter Ray Williams, Wayne Webb and others are singled out by Miller in spotlighting the past, present and future of bowling.

A pair of special bowlers have been sidelined by medical emergencies. Bob Allender is recovering from recent surgery and Sue Barrington suffered a broken ankle and in a cast several weeks.

LOS ANGELES — L.A. Marathon authorities warn "the streets are full of runners and walkers, and the bowlers are on the side walks and alleys spectating".

'Tis Two For Thomas!

NABI San Diego—After trying for quite a long stretch to capture his first NABI title, Ramiro Thomas, Jr. made it back to back wins with this victory at Parkway last weekend. Ramiro seems to thrive on eliminator format finals, as he outlasted three opponents on the road to his second championship. Good bowling, Ramiro!

Also competing in the finals were Jeff Greer, Mike Lopez, Bob Ulery, Jr., Dan Eide, Anthony Damian, Phil Horn & Mike Castleton.

The 3-6-9 Perpetual Pot was shared by Anthony Damian & Norm Rauch for $75 each, and $50 guaranteed sidepots were collected by Jim Nunnally, Mark Strawn (1/2), Ulery, Horn, Castleton, Lopez, Greer, Eide, Damian & Rauch (1/2).

OCBA Bowling Trailer At OC Fun Fair

By Frank Kietz

GARDEN GROVE — The Orange County Bowling Council's Bowling Trailer is all set for their 2005 County Fair visit. According to Gary Forman, trailer fair secretary, "We're moving out of our school fundraising period into big time exposure — the Orange County Fair/Carnival, July 8-31."

Engineer Bill, Bill Huntington, said "We need volunteers to operate and monitor the 65-foot real tenpin alley. The AMF setter and lane meets ABC/USBC specs."

Trailer manager Alan Thompson added, "Volunteers learn how to "run" an alley, keep order, teach, clean, smile, give out awards, free bowling coupons, don't handle money but handle a valuable product — a fun game."

Sheryl Huntington, social affairs commented, "The trailer does a fantastic job of exposing bowling to the general public, especially the kids."

For more information regarding the trailer call Sheryl at 714-554-0111 or Bill at 714-554-1880.

Forman closed last Tuesday's general meeting at OCBA headquarters urging volunteers to join a sponsor house team, be together. County Fairs are really fun things, bring the kids, even your mother-in-law.

Forman concluded, "Here's a list of sponsor centers and their phone numbers, call and be on a OC Free Fair Fun Team: Concourse Rec. 714-666-2695; Forest Lanes 949-770-0055; Fountain Bowl 714-963-7888; La Habra 300 Bowl 714-526-2058; Saddleback Lanes 949-586-5300; Westminster Lanes 714-893-5005 and Yorba Linda Bowl 714-777-3818."

Forest Lanes Loaded, Ready, And Aim To Please

LAKE FOREST — Forest Lanes, the action center of Orange County, is looking good these days. New lanes, machines, scoring, offices, paint and just in, a new supply of USBC sanctioned strikes.

All this equals a fair playing field, a cool atmosphere, and an honest tournament. The monthly 8-Gamer is scheduled for Saturday, July 2nd at 1:00 P.M. Check-in Starts about 12:15 — or as soon as Mario finishes his coffee.

The $80 entry fee includes sidepots, but the Super Sidepots are $5 per game extra. I heard some skuttle-butt about a "Super Duper Sweeper Scooper" sidepot, but that is unconfirmed!

Once you conquered the freeway drive, and found Forest Lanes, the shot is there. 100% prize fund returned.

R.S.V.P. at 949-770-0055 or show up early Saturday with cash.

Tony, Betty Amelio Wed 64 Years

By Frank Kietz

LAKE FOREST — Betty and Tony Amelio celebrated their 64th wedding anniversary last Wednesday (June 22, 2005) bowling in the Forest Lanes Midweekers Mixer.

The loving pair have been bowling in the 40-lane center the past quarter century. In fact, they have been bowling together for 64 years starting where they got married in Bronx, New York in 1941.

Tony didn't get rich bowling. He was a construction engineer working the East Coast, New York to Florida, then turned West to California.

Tony and his late brother Joe loved bowling so much they operated pro shops on both coasts selling their last shop at Forest Lanes a few years ago to Jeff Carr.

Betty and Joe's wife Mary pitched in keeping the shop pretty and clean.

Tony got involved in organized bowling. Like he said, "I guess I did everything working with a wonderful bunch of guys."

To tell the truth, he is still working, teaching every Saturday by appointment. Call 949-551-3964 to make an appointment or wish them a happy anniversary.

USBC Continues Exploration of Women's Professional Tour

GREENFIELD, Wis. - The United States Bowling Congress Board of Directors has explored available resources and has decided to retain the assets of the Professional Women's Bowling Association until a viable proposal is found.

"As the governing body for the sport of bowling, USBC recognizes the importance of keeping the tour alive and keeping professional women bowlers in the spotlight," USBC President Michael Carroll said. "However, to have sustained success, the tour needs a commitment of financial resources that USBC is not able to provide at this point."

Based on the needs of the tour, a successful re-launch would require USBC to partner with a manufacturer or entrepreneur and secure a television contract.

"USBC has been open with its members about the key factors needed to re-launch the tour, mainly television and sponsors," Carroll said. "While we will continue to pursue these avenues, the current marketplace has not provided the resources needed to move forward at this point. USBC is committed to examining any and all future proposals."

The transfer of PWBA assets to USBC includes, but is not limited to, the right to the PWBA name, trademark, logo and Web site domain (pwba.com). The United States Bowling Congress acquired the PWBA when the Women's International Bowling Congress merged with the American Bowling Congress, Young American Bowling Alliance and USA Bowling on Jan. 1, 2005.

In the fall of 2003, the PWBA ceased operations before the completion of its 2003 season, although WIBC had sponsored the tour for the 2003-04 season. The transfer of the assets to WIBC satisfied that sponsorship arrangement.

by Chris Graves

TORRANCE—How about this for timing? With the Fourth of July right around the corner, who knew that the Gable House Youth bowlers would be starting some fireworks of their own on the lanes? The scores tell the story, here are a few examples for your viewing pleasure.

As usual, we start things off with the Disney/Pixar Bowling Club. For the juniors, we had Brandon Rojo 122-237, Joseph Rojo 111-221, Sabrina Walker 119-218, Chris Sager 99-99/198, and Gavin Steed 111-182. The Family Feud continues to live up to its name as the high scores keep coming from all sides. The juniors were again led by Gary "The Devil Made Me Do It?" McInerney at 225-227-214/666. C.C. Cole added a healthy 256-635, followed by Andrew Fontenot 194-569, Tyler Cooke 193-546, Brandon Mullikin 210-540, Nathan Wendel 203-504, Kevin Petersen 162-460, and Randy Fennell 180-456. West Coast Jr. Elims Keystone Lanes

by David Gordon

NORWALK—The West Coast Jr. Elims here at Keystone Lanes has now completed its qualifying round. The bowlers will take a couple of weeks to get tournaments out of their heads, rest, and get ready for two weeks of match play. The top 16 boys and top 8 girls from qualifying will be coming back on the 16th of July where they will find everyone equal. All qualifying scores will be thrown out, computer reset, and a new fresh attitude from the bowlers.

The last week brought us some very good scoring as the bowlers tried to make that position jump or set their position in concrete. For the boys, Jeremy Glover led the way going 223-236-256/909 for the only 900 set. In the 800s he have William Jackson 213-246-216/866, Anthony Williams 214-258/838, Ryan Aguilar 209-210-223/824 and Matthew Harris 239/807. And more scores with Preston Fukumizu 203-212/787, Austin Karns 762, Tyler Hirashima 214/756, Dayton Crossley 748, Darren Hawkins 213/738, J.R. Monteith 201/728, J.D. Pelow 209/712, Jasper White 704 and John Lawson 210.

On the ladies side we find Arisha Piper with a real good set of 214-224-257/859. Following was Samantha Jimenez 205-210-201/814, Natalie Jimenez 214/713, Susy Monteith 705, and Felicia Mara 227. The individual season awards now belong to Aguilar (970) and S. Jimenez (882) for high series. Jackson (279) and Piper (257) capture high game.

Team wise, "Preston Who???" (Jackson/Piper) holds high series with 1725, while "NO Spare" (Fukumizu/S. Jimenez) has high game at 504. The team standings finally came to light with Preston Who???" (137 points) takes the championship with "Glover/Lawson" (128) is second and NO Spare is third (127.5).

And most importantly, the individual standings of those advancing into the match play round: Boys - Jackson (7690), Harris (7367), Glover (7364), J. Monteith (7253), Aguilar (7219), Fukumizu (7181), Crossley (7173), Karns (7172), Milne (7066), Hirashima (7038), Lawson (6555), White (6542), D. Hawkins (6524), Williams (6459), Pelow (6449), and Whitfield (6424). Girls - S. Jimenez (7012), N. Jimenez (6867), Ward (6616), Mara (6446), Piper (6406), S. Monteith (6048), Ijams (6010), and Bryant (5857).

So bowlers, I hope you did well in your tournament and will enjoy the up-coming holiday. I will also be calling each one of you to make sure you get the information about advancing in to match play. So until then.

USBC To Review "System of Bowling"; Governing Body Addresses Credibility Issues in Scoring Environment

GREENDALE, Wis. - The United States Bowling Congress is concerned with the degree of influence technology is having over player skill as the primary factor for success in bowling today at all levels.

As the national governing body, the USBC has begun a thorough review of the entire "System of Bowling," which includes the lanes, lane conditions, bowling balls and pins. Through improved set standards following ongoing research by the USBC Equipment Specifications Team, the USBC will ensure the future of bowling does not suffer from a lack of sporting credibility.

The greatest evidence of this concern is the disproportionate rise in scoring over the past 20 years in certified league play. Similar damage has been inflicted to the credibility levels of specific aspects of the game that made it an endearing lifetime sport, such as bowler-produced power and accuracy.

"Bowling is suffering from a lack of credibility in the scoring environment," says Jeff Henry, USBC Director of Sport. "Advancements in technology together with the artificial assist allowed by current lane dressing specifications have led to an environment which minimizes the influences of player ability and skill development."

Bowling is unique in that it has approximately three million certified league bowlers competing at differing skill levels, with a maximum score for a game at 300. While not all certified bowlers possess the abilities to take advantage of today's technological advances, perceptions of the sport are driven by them.

Among the goals of the USBC's efforts to reset the parameters of the game will be to:

- Grow the sport through the respect that a credible playing field provides.
- Enhance the 'risk vs. reward' element to bowling.
- Better define the stars of the game.
- Develop a renewed level of pride in accomplishment.
- Improve the perception of bowling as a sport.
- Place a higher value on coaching and practice for success.
- Be sure technology does not progress to overwhelm player skill as the key ingredient for success.

Statistical data illustrating the recent scoring boom, along with a detailed explanation of the USBC's philosophy towards addressing these issues can be found on www.bowl.com. The Web site also features testimonials from Hall-of-Fame bowlers Marshall Holman and Mike Aulby and current Team USA member Diandra Asbaty on the need to bring credibility back to the game today.

Two changes to bowling ball specifications are already in effect. One involves the coefficient of restitution, the other the radius of gyration differential, which affects the dynamics of a bowling ball.

Super Sr. John Cocchi and Jr. Terry Henson Win SST at Westminster Lanes

by Paula Vidar

Super Senior John Cocchi won his 11th title and Terry Henson won his 1st Junior title at Westminster Lanes June 26th.

John Cocchi continued his "hot streak" and won his 5th title of 2005. Cocchi was Saturday's high qualifier only 160 pins ahead of Corky Demaio. Ralph Wingert cut the lead to 55 pins when he started out match play with a 299 and 279. But, Cocchi turned on the "after burners" and used a 5-1 match play record and averaged 237 for the $450 prize. John would like to thank Russ Davies, owner of The Cellar Lounge, located at the corner of Sahara and Valley View, in Las Vegas.

Winning his 1st SST Junior title, Terry Henson of La Verne defeated Mike Rick in the title match 228-182. Only 47 pins separated the two bowlers going into the title match, so it was a "winner take all" situation. Henson qualified 2nd on Saturday and used his 6-2 match play record and 218 average to secure the $620 prize. Terry would like to thank Bonnie for her continued support and Dave Edis, "the best ball driller on the planet" of Kingpin Pro Shop located in Covina Lanes.

The "King of the Hill" match saw Junior Division champ Terry Henson defeat Super Senior John Cocchi 246-204 in a one game match for SST bragging rights and $50.

300 games were rolled by Mark Dyer and John Cocchi. Ralph Wingert left a solid 8 pin for 299.

Congratulations to Russ Davies of Las Vegas. His pre-paid entry was drawn and he receives a FREE pair of Dexter

The SST would like to thank Westminster Lanes G.M. Bob Turner for hosting the tournament and his staff for their hospitality, excellent customer service and donuts for breakfast.

Next event - Aug. 6-7, Del Rosa Lanes. San Bernardino, CA. This event has added money from Jan and Sue Niblett of Luster Cote, Inc. (888)625-3934

So Long, Farewell, W.I.B.C.

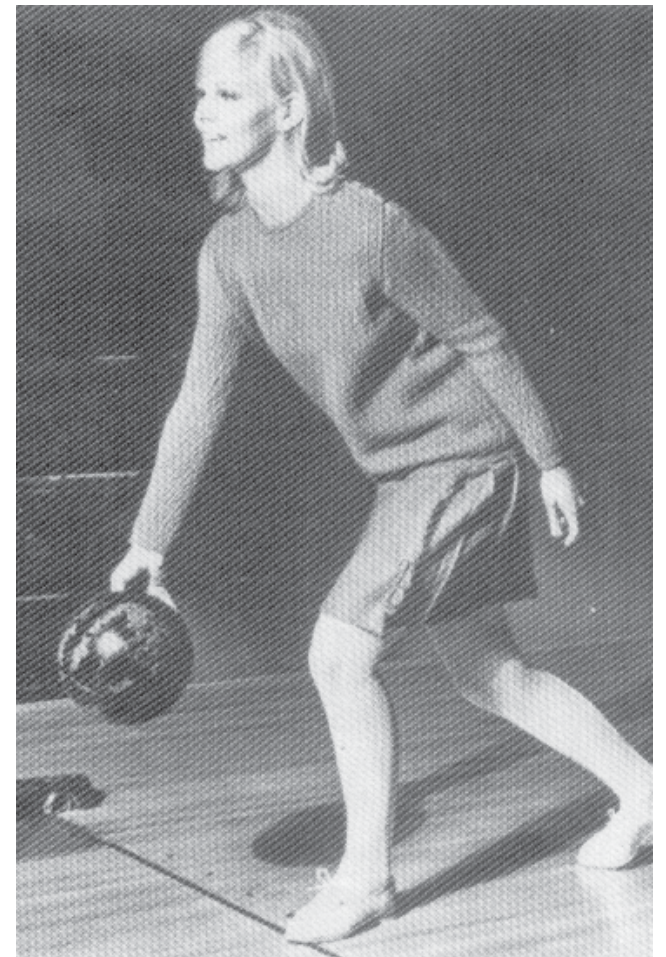

NORWALK, CA — I had mixed feelings at the final W.I.B.C. convention in Tulsa this year. Like thousands of other ladies who attended over the years, it was emotional. To watch the W.I.B.C. flag retired forever was sad. But the excitement stimulated by both the men and the women of the U.S.B.C. makes me anxious to be a part of the "NEW" association.

Those of us that received the Spring/Summer 2005 final issue of "frames and lanes" were sent for a ride down memory lane. A great tribute. I'm sure that millions of photos and stories were edited for this historic issue. Every association will want to keep a copy in their archives.

My only question is, "Why in the _____ did they include a gal with her foot over the foul line?" (Page 15)

Picky — Picky — Picky.

Thanks W.I.B.C. I have enjoyed 52 years of travel, making friends, competing and earning a living.

No Con Here - John's Way Wins... Again, In Rocky Marsh Doubles

by Joy McGregor

Super Sub John Conway showed off his winning style, for the second week in a row, in the Rocky Marsh Doubles at Linbrook Bowl. John tossed games of 224-215-246 and 196 to record 881 and top honors for the day. How much for lessons, Mr. Conway?

Carl Adinolfi, right on John's heels, stroked games of 226-182-231 and 235 to tally 874 for a very close second. Nice bowling, Carl!

More great scores: Terry Brent 235-855, David Wright 233-810, Eva Munson 221-809, Marie Brooks 257, Gino Vassallo 248, Ralph Wingert 241, Chris De Marco 233, Josh Rahm 226, Willy Bordenave 225, Rose Williams 224, Ronny Thompson 221, Bob Gosnell 221, Gloria Ferrulli 221, Frank Bellinder 220, Shig Shoji 216, Janet Anderson 215, Mike Barcenas 214, Martin Angulo 214, Bob McGraw 213, Tony Chaco 211, Rey Ortiz 206, Larry Green 205, Diane Salinas 204, Pete Kizziah 202 and Alan Bloom 201.

Well wishes and a speedy return to the lanes to Stacy Rider whose involvement in a minor (thank goodness), traffic accident last week has her sidelined. Hurry back, Stacy, we all miss you!
