Marchione Surprised With Humanitarian Award At Las Vegas

by Connie Marchione

LAS VEGAS—During the 5 days Bowling Writers Association of America convention and the BPAA International Bowl Expo at Hilton Hotel and Convention Center, Columbia 300 Industries hosted a Press Awards Dinner on Tuesday evening June 27 in Hilton Hotel. The dinner with a stage show invitees were BWAA members and their spouses and new and previous USBC Hall of Famers and their spouses.

This writer a long time member of BWAA and a friend, Ed Abakumoff a newly joined BWAA member attended this dinner.

We sat at a table along with famous writers Chuck Pezzano and Joe Lyou, BWAA member Joan Romeo and her daughters, Hall of Famer Robin Romeo and Tori Carter. Ed also served as my interpreter.

At the completion of show and dinner, Columbia 300 host John Jowdy announced the three previously named BWAA Awards winners Carmen Salvino honored with the John O. Martino Award, Al Matzelle with the Rip Van Winkle Award and Joe Gennaro with the Mort Luby, Sr. Hall of Fame Award. Salvino and Gennaro spoke and gave their thanks and a friend spoke for Matzelle.

Then Jowdy spoke on the next award Remo Picchietti Humanitarian Award which goes to a person who unselfishly gave his or her time for the good of bowling. The winner was kept secret until announced at this Dinner.

When Ed finger-spelled my name “Connie Marchione” and said it’s for you, I was shocked in disbelief. It did not get in me till after Joe told me “it is you and go”. Then I got all choked up on the way to the head table with Ed following me. Ed interpreted what I signed, “this is an unexpected surprise and I am sorry I do not know what to say but I thank you for this honor and I love you all.”

About this award, the late Remo Picchietti, when President of DBA Products, started it for his company years ago to honor persons by surprise for his or her humanitarian efforts in bowling. When Picchietti sold his company to Columbia 300, Columbia took over and named it, Remo Picchietti Humanitarian Award.

I am proud to be among the other winners of this award and thank Columbia 300 and Jowdy for this honor. For years I have done many thankless tasks for deaf bowling which I just accept as “God knows I have done my best”. Winning this award took a load off my shoulder. Thank you, Ed for being there with me.

California Bowling News reporter Connie Marchione (left) became the 21st recipient of the Remo Picchietti Humanitarian Award on June 27 during the Bowling Writers Association of Americas 73rd convention in Las Vegas. The award, presented by Columbia 300 (represented by PBA and USBC Hall of Famer John Jowdy), recognizes special individuals who have made contributions not only to the sport of bowling but to their fellow man. ## Generations Tour is Full Speed Ahead

Details Revealed at Bowl Expo

LAS VEGAS—If there were any doubts that dynamic promoter Steve Sanders would pull off his latest project – an all-new senior bowling tour – they were erased June 29 at International Bowl Expo in Las Vegas.

In a press conference attended by over 50 bowling writers and industry dignitaries at the Las Vegas Convention Center, Sanders unveiled the details of his new venture, launched his new website www.gbtour.com, and answered every question from bowling’s top writers with candid and honest replies.

Joining Sanders in the conference were more than a dozen new GBT staffers and several legends of the sport that will compete in the events. Bowling legends Mark Roth, Johnny Petraglia, Dave Davis, and David Ozio were at the head table and pledged their support for the new tour. “This is what we’ve been waiting for,” said Roth. Davis also expressed his excitement by saying, “There’s snow on the roof, but we still have the fire in the belly. We want to compete and win as much as ever.”

When asked how he would decide which tour to bowl in, Petraglia said, “I’ll bowl in both, and the great thing about this new tour is finally we will get back to a lot of the places we used to bowl and the fans will get to know us again.”

Another highlight of the conference was the live launching of the official Generations Tour website www.gbtour.com. In front of the entire room, Andrew Aiello, GBT’s website director, navigated the new site to reveal its features at Sanders’ direction.

A press kit given attendees contained the full 36-week schedule, feature articles on the tour and its players, and a list of 40 frequently asked questions and answers. At the Bowl Expo trade show, the GBT booth was a popular stop for attendees from across the globe. GBT also announced a regional tour program to support the new national tour.

“This has been a dream of mine since we ran our first big senior event in 1996,” said Sanders (his Pinnacle Events operated the ’96 BPAA Senior U.S. Open and two Brunswick Senior World Opens). “Now it’s finally here, and we can’t wait to get started. If we can give these great players a chance to have a new career and give the fans something very special, all of the work we’ve done will be worthwhile,” added Sanders.

The Generations Bowling Tour (www.gbtour.com) is a membership organization that features the greatest bowlers over the age of 50 competing in a national tour throughout the year. The GBT is offering $5 million in prize money for its 36 events and a legendary line-up of bowlers including Nelson Burton Jr., Mark Roth, Dave Soutar and Marshall Holman. To complement the competitive professional tour, all GBT events will include an interactive experience for fans and bowlers of all ages. Contact: Jim Goodwin, GBT Press Director (214) 938-2540.

Sharing With A Friend On The Lanes

by Sue Mellott
SACRAMENTO—Where California Women’s Championship Tournament is currently being held, brought two friends together once again, who have volunteer their service of 35 and 33 years to our bowling sport. A wonderful friendship developed throughout these years of support and love of bowling. I would like to share with you a story of friendship to a friend from a friend.

Juanita Campbell and Phyl Knoll have known each other many years while attending Conventions and bowling tournaments. They both have worked hard helping and sharing in their associations.. The following gives you an idea of their dedication over the years. Phyl is well known for all the activities she is involved in throughout her 35 years of dedication. She has served as President of Los Angeles WBA not only once but twice, served on all committees, appointed to CWBA Board, by Mary Lynly, and presently is director on the USBC Board. Juanita has served 33 years on the following WBA Boards. Santa Rosa WA Board for 22 years as a Director, on the Ways & Means Committee, and Senior Activity committee. She was also, on the San Francisco WBA Board, serving as Sergeant-at- Arms, BVL Chairman for 12 years, and Vice President of 500 club.

Juanita received her 25 year plaque this year, as she bowled in CWBA’s Championship Tournament. Upon receiving this award she remarked, “How gratifying it is, to receive this award”.

FRIEND — a well-wisher, or supporter. Five years ago Juanita was presented, by CWBA president, Linda Johnson a 75 year necklace award, which represents 75 years of age. Congratulations Juanita for your devotion to our sport.

CWBA has given this award out over the years to women bowlers that have participated in our great sport. This year, I’m sure, women bowlers were highly disappointed to find out the 75 year necklace is no longer available. I know of one in particular, Phyl Knoll. She was short four days last year, and didn’t receive hers. Phyl was looking forward to receiving the necklace award this year.

While bowling team event, Juanita and Phyl were discussing how nice the necklace looks and what a great award to receive. You see Juanita, was wearing her necklace that displays — California WBA, outlines the state of California, a woman bowler, and seventy-five years. Juanita saw how disappointed Phyl was - so, guess what? Juanita took her necklace off and put it on Phyl saying, “I want you to have this” giving Phyl a hug.

That’s a wonderful thing to do for a friend! Being a well-wisher, Juanita ~said to me, “I wanted someone to have the necklace that would appreciate it, and if you have a family member who is not aware of our sport, they would get rid of it, they would not understand its worth”. “I wanted to share the happiness of what the 75 year necklace award means”.

In closing this supporter, Juanita, has invited many people into our sport to have fun and enjoy, and she is an example of what she says. Isn’t this what it’s all about? My thanks Juanita it was my pleasure to share with you the joy bowling Has brought you.

Juanita Campbell & Phyl Knoll (wearing necklace)

Division title.

The 38-year-old right-hander, who already owns four titles at the USBC Women's Championships and three USBC Queens victories, posted games of 248, 300 and 264 to edge past Norm Titus of Columbia, Tenn., who finished second with 811.

Macpherson's perfect game was the second of the year by a woman and the third in the history of the Open Championships. In addition, she joined Kristal Scott of Wichita, Kan., as the only two women to record an 800 series on the tournament lanes. Scott made headlines when she rolled an 816 series during team event.

"I would never have imagined that something like this could happen," said Macpherson, a 20-time PWBA champion. "I never looked at the top scores, and I didn't really think about it much until I started throwing a lot of strikes. Being announced as a champion is something every bowler thinks about back in the squad room, and I'm just really proud and excited."

USBC Hall of Famer and three-time Open Championships titlist Steve Fehr of Cincinnati waited 24 years to find his way back into the winner's circle at the Open Championships. Since his last title came on the final day of team competition in 1982, he was on the edge of his seat until the very last team finished bowling Sunday night.

Fehr helped Browning Pontiac to a 3,496 effort, the third highest team total in tournament history. George Gohagan III led the way with 715 and was followed by Ken Jessee (710), Jon Murph (710), Ken Abner (696) and Fehr (665).

"It was so hard to wait all of these weeks, but it was such a thrill to sweat it out everyday," said Fehr, who also won the 1994 USBC Masters. "But no matter how good your score is, it's not safe until it's all over. Getting close or being in the hunt are always fun, but nothing compares to grabbing a title, especially after all these years."

In addition to Fehr's return to the top, USBC Director Sam Lantto of Eden Prairie, Minn., led his Linds Lakers 1 teammates to another Team All-Events crown, the same event the group won together at the 2002 event in Billings, Mont.

The group finished its 45 games with a 9,940 total this year. Lantto contributed 2,147 and was followed by USBC Hall of Famer Todd Savoy (2,037), Charles Vashaw (1,952), John Eiss (1,943) and Gary Green (1,861).

"This is just as special as the first time, and it's even better because it was the same five guys," said Lantto, who leads the tournament's lifetime average list with 215.4. "This tournament has always been important to us, and when we go out there we just want to represent the sport and each other the best we can. No matter how we bowl we're out there to have fun, but there's nothing like winning."

In Regular All-Events and Regular Doubles, there were first-time winners. Dave Mitchell of Farmington, Minn., shot 780 in team, 757 in singles and 652 in doubles to take home the all-events title with 2,189, while Bobby Stives of El Paso, Texas, and Paul Yoder of Albuquerque, N.M., teamed up to grab the doubles crown with 1,497.

"To be able to bowl that well and win a national title is amazing, and I'm glad I can relax and finally stop watching the scores on the Internet everyday," Mitchell said. "Everyone told me my score would hold up, but

by Frank Kietz

LAS VEGAS — Yes, yes, Hilton Hotel/Convention Center's International Bowl/Expo (Trade Show) attracted thousands of those who like to roll balls at pins (objects) last week (June 25-30, 2006) to their casino. There was a mix, people who sell those products to eager businesses who lure the public to enjoy them.

For a near century, hand-set American Tenpins was the star attraction. Slowly they developed machines to set up-right sanctioned pins on lanes that people used regulation balls to knock them down, while a computer kept score.

And, accessories that made the game competitive, then easier, pleasant to play, like shoes, apparel, hard rubber balls, then fancy and expensive ones.

The host Hilton had everything. So did the Bowling Proprietors Association of America, who put the show together; a marvelous job. They got every purveyor, manufacturer, supplier. They didn't miss a thing, pool tables, amusement games, even mini-alleys (all kinds of apparatuses you could roll balls at pins), string-setters, from China, a table with cues and cueballs to knock down mini-pins.

Oh, the fun part. Food and beverages, even health drinks (from Acai Berries). If blocking didn't work, an ancient secret from the rainforest might do it. Try it, you might like it.

It wasn't too long ago the call "beer frame" thrilled the proprietor. Now it's creative bartending, fancy wine, mixed hard drinks. Leading breweries took center stage, with regular samples, also introducing new soft drinks.

The make a sale, or get to a person's heart or pocket book, go through their stomach — commissaries were busy feeding tagged visitors the new style fast food on wheels — every fast dish imaginable — back door delivered.

Brunswick and recently merged AMF, QubicaAMF, had the big booths, biggest sales force, pro bowlers, about a dozen signed autographs: U.S.B.C., bowling writers (B.W.A.A.), B.P.A.A., Dexter (shoes), ball distributors, and a number of accessory companies had booths.

The serious side of the Expo was the seminars, 32 of them, covering every business matter, some free, others had fees. They were all filled.

Former New York Mayor Rudy Giuliani, noted world leader was the General Session keynote speaker, sponsored by QubicaAMF. Bob Cooper, authority on business success, was the opening keynote speaker.

Closing the sessions, leaving the guests with a smile, was "Heeere's Johnny (Carson's ABC-TV Tonight Show) announcer, Ed McMahan. This was a B.P.A.A. early morning breakfast eating meeting.

After McMahan and the breakfast, enthused California proprietors, their managers, financial advisors had their final parade through long aisles of items they could possibly attract paying customers — there was plenty of bargaining. Chances are good that nearby centers will have one of more of those items.

1st Win For The Other P2!

SAN DIEGO—At the NABI Fourth of July Tournament held over the weekend at Kearny Mesa Bowl, Paul Phounsavath grabbed his first title. Paul was very comfortable with Kearny's conditions, as he bowled exceptionally well all weekend. Seeded #2 in the finals, his first match was against the other P2, Paul Passarino.

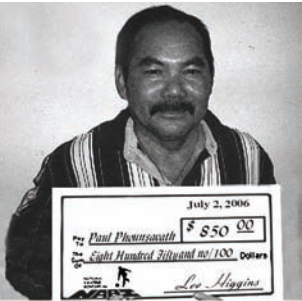

Everyone knew a "Paul" would win, but the match was close all the way through, & at the end, Paul Phounsavath advanced to the title match against James Smith. By this time, Paul was so focused that even Superman would have had a hard time outscoring him! Paul did prevail, & now is a NABI Champion. Congratulations! Other top five participants were Simon Nophalath & Steve Lanning.

N.A.B.I. San Diego Champion Paul Phounsavath

In perpetual pot action, George Hebert, Gericho Bungay, Ed Johnson, Arlene Bautista & Smith shared the 3-6-9, Lanning collected the 300 handicap pot & Mike Lopez, Nophalath & Bungay all rolled 9 in a row to share that pot.

Earning $50 guaranteed sidepots were Jose Bautista, Steve Simmons, Homer Bautista, Justin Whiteley, Brian Watkins, Rick Stangler (3), Arlene Bautista, Lopez, Nophalath, Smith, Lanning (2), Phounsavath (2), & Bungay (2).

NABI Week 2006 (July 14-21), is next on our schedule, so locally we will begin the last part of the year on August 5th at Mira Mesa. Be sure to check for squad times in this publication on the 4th. Join us when we return on the 5th ... we'll save a cookie for you!!

Tim Albin Outscores the Seniors Jim Starks Wins SST JR. Division

by Barb McFadden

WESTMINSTER—The SST (Super Senior Tour) held a one-day event at Westminster Lanes, Saturday, July 1, 2006. After 10 games of qualifying Super Senior Dave Wilson held a narrow 20-pin lead over Tim Albin. They both won 4 games in match play, but Albin outscored Wilson by 87 pins during the next six games to win $600.00 and the Senior Title.

Jim Starks won $540.00 by dominating the Junior division. He qualified first with 2368 (143 pins ahead of Larry Gray). Jim only won three games during match play, but still managed to add 100 more points to his score for a commanding 243 pin lead over second place finisher Jeff Gordon from Ventura.

Tim would like to thank his wife Diana for her support and Larry Gray for drilling his equipment at Albin Bowling Supply in Torrance, CA.

A special thank you goes out to Proprietor Mike Jacoby, Manager Bob Turner and their fine staff for their great hospitality and to San Manuel for adding $500.00 to the bowler prize fund.

LIFE BEGINS AT “80”

Once you reach “80”
Everyone wants to carry your baggage, and help you up the steps.

If you forget your name or somebody else's name, or an appointment, or your own telephone number,
or promise to be three places at the same time,
or can't remember how many grandchildren you have,
You need only explain that you are “80”.

Being “80” is a lot better than being “70”.

At “70”
People are mad at you for everything.
At “80” you have a perfect excuse.

No matter what you do, if you act foolishly, it's your second childhood.

Everybody is looking for symptoms of softening of the brain.
Being “70” is no fun at all.

At that age, they expect you to retire to a house in Florida
And complain about your Arthritis, and you ask everybody to stop mumbling
Because you can't understand them.
(Actually, your hearing is about 50% gone.)

If you survive until you are “80”
Everybody is surprised that you are still alive.
They treat you with respect, just for having lived so long.
Actually they seemed surprised that you can walk and talk sensibly.
So please folks, try to make it to “80”,
It's the best time of life.

People forgive you for anything.
If you ask me,
Life begins at “80”.

Mark Lewen Wins Forest Six-Game $300 Title

LAKE FOREST — The guys are from San Diego. Mark Lewen and BobMarkiewicz ran one, two in last Saturday's Forest Lanes' 1:00 p.m. Six-Gamer.

Lewen started first winning the first $19 high game pot and finishing with a 1385 for the $300 title plus $76 for two high games and $38 for a high block, 725.

Markiewicz opened with a seven bagger the sixth game. If he added four more strikes for a 289 he would have won, 1389 to 1385. Bob settled with a 1353 for second, $140 plus $76.

Jeff Carr placed third with a 1316, $80 plus $19.

Steve Zimmerman was fourth, 1299, for $50 plus a $19 high game pot.

Scores didn't soar. Zimmerman's 266 was the best while Markiewicz's fifth game was low. Lewen said the lanes were competitive; changing balls didn't help but changing boards, reading the lanes did.

Both winners agreed today's lanes were close to PBA Regional conditions; both enjoy sport (style) bowling.

Many of the six-game shooters stayed around for the “good old days” pot game.

Center Manager Allan MacDuffee announced the next 1:00 p.m. Saturday Scratch Six-Game will be July 22, 2006.

Fantasy Lane's Kaylee Riddle To Compete In Pepsi Finals

INDIO, CA—Fourteen-year-old Kaylee Riddle will represent Fantasy Lanes Family Bowling Center at the 2006 Pepsi United States Bowling Congress Youth Championships July 17-19 in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. Riddle, who just took up the sport early last fall, is not lacking in confidence after becoming the girls' handicap champion in the recent state championship in Fresno. The La Quinta High School student will join seven other California youths at the national championships.

While Riddle's mom, grandmother and great-grandmother were all bowlers, her mom influenced her to bowl, she told The (Riverside) Press-Enterprise newspaper in a recent interview. "She has all these bowling trophies, and one day we were sitting around in the bowling alley," Kaylee said. "I think we were there waiting to get a lane to have fun, so she saw the flier and said, 'Do you want to join this bowling league?' and I said, 'Sure.'" Fantasy Lanes General Manager Bob Briney, Riddle's coach, believes she can win the championship tournament with her attitude.

"She's very positive," Briney told the newspaper. "She doesn't think she can't do something." Riddle began bowling as part of Fantasy Lanes' youth program that offers scholarship money to youngsters. For more information on the program, contact Fantasy Lanes at (800) 827-2946.

CERRITOS WEEKLY Jacobowitz Sizzles Senior Summer Session

by Tom Ferry
CERRITOS — Kyle Jacobowitz, a 16 year old from Buena Park, has come up through the program and grown both physically and in bowling prowess. Often he has had big games, only to be overshadowed by the likes of such names as Valmonte, Lawrence, Newberry and Lucas. Not this week, as Kyle led all bowlers with a wonderful 241/677 performance. Other notable scores from the Senior boys include, once again TJ Heath – 223/583, Josh Navarro 220/557 and Mark Newberry 218/ 584.

High honors for Senior girls went to Christina Hefner 207 and Ashlee Raya 206/543.

Always somewhere near the top, Lizzy Raya led the Striking Force with her 209 high game with Kiana Jansen coming up at 186. For the Striking Force boys, Jeff Conwi distanced himself from the field hitting 199 for high honors. Congratulations on the handicapped side go to performances by Ray Boop 221, Quin Ford 213, Lloyd Dimayuga 204 and Josh Henry 202.

Repeating Rookie honors go to Kyli Selley's 107 scratch game and Jacob Hardin's 138 – WOW. Visiting from Hawaii, Ken Hayase-Fong posted a nice 120 and Dylan Ross threw a terrific 119 game.

For our Lil Raider (bumper bowlers) Cyril Bustos topped out at 100/191 with his closest follower, Chase Matheney at 96/ 164. Girls high scores belongs to Jameshia Gaddy – 99/183 and Kaitie Johnston 90/175.

JAT/GLAJAS Alum Derrick Salary Passes Away

ORANGE COUNTY—Derrick Salary passed away Thursday, June 29th after suffering a heart attack at his home in Orange County on Thursday. He was just 25 years old.

Derrick was an outstanding junior bowler with experience in the Junior Amateur Tour and Greater L.A. Junior All-Stars culminating in the 2000-2001 season. He then took his talents to Cal State Fullerton where he was currently a member of the school's Titan Bowling Team.

Derrick was an uplifting spirit both on and off the lanes. He will be deeply missed by all those who had the chance to cross paths with him during his short life. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family and friends.

For additional information please feel free to contact Junior Amateur Tour director David Yamauchi at director@bowljat.org.

Thompson Ticks The Ivories To The Tune of “299” In Rocky Marsh Doubles

by Joy McGregor

ANAHEIM—Ronny Thompson was strummin’ along very nicely Friday morning in the Rocky Marsh Doubles, stroking 226-214-201 and then it began to sound like the 4th of July as the sound of the pins exploding re-sounded and those little squares were filled with X’s....11 of them. The Perfect Ball for the Perfect Game was delivered but alas, no fireworks; the stone 7 stood proud...he’s a lefty don’t ya know!! You waz robbed, Ronny! If it’s any consolation, your 940 set sparked the brightest and lit up the scoreboard. Excellent performance, Ronny.

Dapper Terry Brent, another southpaw, joined the party and celebrated with consistency, stroking 213-227-224 and added 247 to register a fine 911.

EYE ON ENTERTAINMENT

by Ken Del Donte

LOS ANGELES — Andy Garcia is a total ARTISTE. He wrote, produced, directed, acted in, AND played five piano pieces in his 2-1/2 hour Epic “THE LOST CITY”. It concerns Cuba and the takeover of Castro and how it affects a family: father, mother and three sons. Like Bogey in CASABLANCA, Garcia is a nightclub owner. His two brothers are rabble-rousers. The story unfolds like an artichoke, one leaf at a time. Engrossing. Great movie-movie. Warning: There is some actual footage of the Castro executions, but this is, after all, an adult film. And Mr. Garcia is a total filmmaker.

Also recommended: “PRAIRIE HOME COMPANION”, especially if you love Old Radio Shows and cowboy songs. And IF you like Kevin Kline and Meryl Streep, you will enjoy this clever work written by the genius of Garrison Keillor with director Robert Altman. See Woody Harrelson and John C. Reilley add their quips and home-spun songs, They are a Hoot.

“CARS” is the Best Animated Feature in years — the vocal talents alone are fantastic. And IMAGINATION — wow! From the opening scene, we are thrown into the world of car racing. A Ford Mustang (Owen Wilson), Hudson Hornet (Paul Newman) with a Tow Truck (Larry, the Cable Guy) carry this story. Good ole Aw-Shucks humor... We sat in an Industry Audience at the Director Guild, and they applauded all through the Amazing End Titles! Two hours of Whiz-Bang Americans. We wish Pizar 20 more years of quality for adults and kids.

SAN BERNARDINO — Hi. We hope you all had an enjoyable 4th of July holiday and are ready to knock down those pins here at Del Rosa Lanes. Here's last week's scores:

Beach Party: Leighton Beach 217-212/621, Diane Kline 489, Mary Jo Medley Jones 206.

Capri: Linda Cunningham 505, Vanessa Simo 191.

S..B.T.A.: Scott Henderson 562, Malcolm Davidson 199, Lory Durkiewicz 175/448.

Mary's Invitational: Russell Ruiz 244-268-268/7880, Adam Sokoloski 237-262-257/756, John Hutchings 213-264-222/699, Marv Sargent 237-266/697, Ken De Maio 289-202-200/691, P.J.
