Why I Stopped Watching Football - Part 3

by Dave Williams

(Part 1 April 13, 2017 / Part 2 June 8, 2017)

SAN FRANCISCO – From the San Francisco 49ers to Dick Weber, and finally to Mel's Drive-In, the "Why I Stopped Watching Football" trilogy has taken on a world of its own with recollections of football, bowling, and "tool-ing" up and down the avenue in memory of the iconic "American Graffiti" film.

As I prepared for my interview with Jim Wangeman, owner of Harvest Park Bowl in Brentwood, California (and former District Manager for American Recreation Centers in the San Francisco Bay Area), my curiosity was peaked at just how the Mel's Bowl properties became a part of ARC.

But when Jim learned more about Part 3 of the "Why I Stopped Watching Football" segment, he was sorry to report that he could not help.

"I started with ARC in 1968, and the Mel's Bowl properties were already a part of the organization," said Wangeman. But he did say that there was a total of 4 or possibly 5 Mel's Bowl properties.

In addition to Mel's Redwood Bowl (Redwood City) and Mel's South shore Bowl (Alameda), there was also Mel's Palm Bowl (renamed Fiesta Lanes) and Saratoga Lanes, both in San Jose. Another Fiesta Lanes existed in Hayward, but it's unclear if Saratoga Lanes and Fiesta Lanes - Hayward were Mel's Bowl properties.

Wangeman gave me some names of people that might be able to help me, among them G. Gervais Davis III (a member of

DIARA PAJAK WINS FIRST TITLE AT PWBA GREATER DETROIT OPEN

GREEN BAY, Wis. – When Daria Pajak considered leaving her home in Poland to pursue a college education and bowling career in the United States, she needed an extra push. Her father was the person to do it.

Now, Pajak can call herself a Professional Women's Bowling Association champion after defeating Verity Crawley, her friend and Webber International teammate, 224-203, to win the 2017 PWBA Greater Detroit Open.

After a spare in the first frame, Pajak rattled off three consecutive strikes before leaving a 3-4-6-7 split in the fifth. The 24-year-old right-hander converted the split and rode the momentum to her first career PWBA title.

It was a title that may never have happened had it not been for her father, and Pajak dedicated the victory to her dad.

"My dad is a great man and has been my idol," Pajak said. "He's an athlete. He used to be a bodybuilder, and he has that athlete's mind, where he knows what it takes to win. He's always been pushing me outside of my comfort zone."

"Coming to the (United) States was something I always wanted, but if he didn't push me here, I don't think I would've ever made the decision. Father's Day back home was a few days ago (the show was taped June 25), and he said the TV show was his present. He doesn't need anything else."

Pajak advanced to the title match by defeating 2012 United States Bowling Queens champion Diandra Asbaty of Chicago, 190-186. Asbaty was making her first televised appearance since winning the major title.

The match was close throughout, with Asbaty needing a double in the final frame to advance, but she was unable to strike on

Jauregui & Duarte Win 2nd Annual Scotch Doubles at Keystone Lanes

NORWALK – The 2nd Annual Scotch Doubles tournament was held on July 15th, 2017 at Keystone Lanes. We had a total of 35 teams participate.

This group of bowlers consisted of teams from Northern LA County, our local bowling centers, a team from Ventura County, a few teams from Orange County, and another team from Norco. It took a couple of games for the teams to get into a rhythm. During game two, Sarah Schneider and Zach Norman had the front 9. Sarah left a 4 pin in the tenth frame. Zach failed to convert the spare for a very a nice 267 scratch game.

After game two, scores started getting higher. Michelle Silver and Jim Harvey had back to back 246 games during the 3rd and 4th games.

Jessica Jauregui and

Vince Duarte did not win a side pot until the 4th game with a nice 240 scratch game. They were consistent throughout the tournament.

Their low game for the six game set was 203 scratch. They averaged 224 as a team for the tournament,

A Blast From the Past: Anthony Sharpsteen's Historic 888

by Fred Eisenhammer

WINNETKA – Anthony Sharpsteen has a well-deserved nickname. He’s known as “Mr. 888,” or as elite bowler Johnnie Englehart calls him: “Triple 8.”

The monikers are a tribute to Sharpsteen’s majestic performance on Jan. 25, 2011. That was the night when Sharpsteen rifled the top series in Los Angeles-area history. He finished with scores of 289, 299 and 300 during competition in the Men’s Classic League at now-defunct Mission Hills Bowl. Those scores add up to an 888 and that figure has been challenged but not surpassed by any area bowler since then.

Sharpsteen, a right-hander from the San Fernando Valley, talked recently about that historic night while he was taking part in league action at Winnetka Bowl.

And he offered this shocker about his night for the ages. “I was not in a ‘zone.’ I was just relaxed and having fun,” said Sharpsteen, adding that he enjoyed animated conversations with such players as Rusty Bryant, one of his team’s opponents that night.

When Sharpsteen struck in the fifth frame of the final game, he said he felt really comfortable. “That’s when I knew I had the 800. I was more relaxed,” said Sharpsteen, who left only a packed 9-pin and two solid 7-pins that night.

Amazingly, it was Sharpsteen’s first 800 series. Since then, he has added a second 800. His perfect game was his 11th. He now has 13 300s. Sharpsteen’s previous best series was a 797. In fact, he had recorded that mark four times. “Each time, I got a split on my fill ball,” lamented Sharpsteen, whose powerful 888 avoided any chance he’d be known as “Mr. 797.”

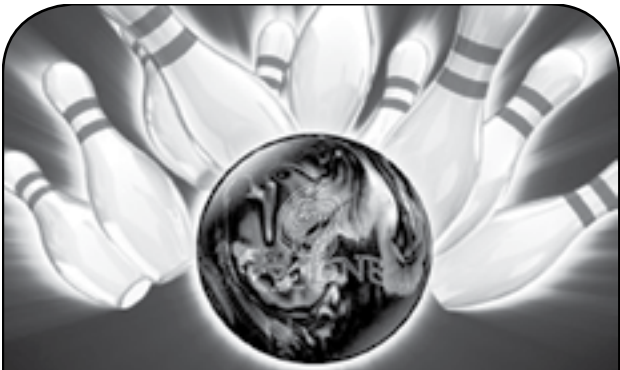

Sharpsteen, who was filling in as a substitute that night for Mario Fiumara, remembers clearly that he used an Ebonite Mission ball for his record series. That history-making ball has since come and gone, he said. “It was all cracked out,” he said. As luck would have it, Sharpsteen’s team lost all three games that night. His team lost by one pin the first game, two pins the next game and one pin again in the finale.

Asked if becoming the first L.A.-area bowler to knock out a 900 series is his goal, he said it was. But Sharpsteen, who is averaging 214, said he has a more important mission when he bowls.

“I just come down [to the lanes] to have fun,” he said.

Anthony Sharpsteen enjoyed a magical night in 2011 during which he blasted scores of 289, 299 and 300 at now-defunct Mission Hills Bowl. Photo by Fred E.

BVL's BEST Awarded to Bowling Center Operators at Bowl Expo

12 operators with centers from New York to California were honored the annual BVL's BEST awards, in recognition for their outstanding support of bowling's own, oldest & most successful charity during the 2015-2016 season.

In the largest single center donation, David and Melanie Kellerman (pictured right with BVL Board Chairman John LaSpina) were on hand to accept the plaque for Mel's Lone Star Lanes (TX). Other single center supporters recognized were Cloverleaf Bowl (CA) Jim Chambers; Fountain Bowl (CA) Gary Forman; Fox Bowl (IL) Steve Bernard; and Georgetown Bowl (IN) Dave Kerschner.

Once again, Maple Family Centers (NY/FL) was at the forefront with their donation of $52,450.00. The centerpiece of the Maple Family Centers' fundraising event was the third annual Johnny Petraglia/BVL PBA 50 Open. Two other long-time multi-unit owner operators were recognized for their commitment to America's veterans through BVL – John Sommer of Don Carter Lanes Group (IL) and Pat and Lisa Ciniello from Bowland/HeadPinz (FL).

Other centers receiving honors were Bowl America (VA, MD, FL); Boje Enterprises (FL) Bill and Jeff Boje; Hall Bowling Centers (MD) Wally Hall; and Thunderbird Lanes (PA) Elaine Brumberg.

"I can't say enough how much we appreciate these industry leaders also leading the way for America's veterans through BVL," noted BVL Executive Director Mary Harrar. "They understand the promise our sport made to those who fought for our freedoms in 1942 and they are committed to seeing that we keep that promise."

DFW Bowling Community Launches Campaign for Special Wheelchairs

Bowlers in the Dallas Fort Worth area are joining together to support a unique fundraiser, in conjunction with the US Women's Open at the Plano Super Bowl, to provide mobility-restricted area military veterans with automated all-terrain wheelchairs. The planned donation will allow veterans access to beaches, hills and otherwise difficult-to-navigate topography. The effort is being championed by area business leader and bowling center owner Jamie Brooks.

The first chair will be presented to Arlington, Tex. resident and Vietnam Vet Mike Smith at the event on August 6. (Mike is pictured left with two of his grandchildren.)

Smith, who comes from a family of veterans, was exposed to Agent Orange which has developed into diabetes and congestive heart failure. Last year, Smith spent nearly 6 months in the hospital and he recently had a toe removed.

Explains Brooks, "When I heard about this opportunity to give our veterans like Mike a chance to get out and really enjoy life through the use of these chairs, I knew it was a great fit for our area bowlers and our BVL effort. Mike's greatest joy would be to expand his world by allowing him to go hiking, fishing and camping with his four grandchildren. Mike would be able to go to the beach and not have to stay up on the sidewalk. With the help of the DFW area bowling community, we can give Mike the gift of his outdoor life back."

BVL supporters are encouraged to help the cause through a special donation, either via the website (note "Wheelchairs" in the "Designation" window), or by mailing a check to BVL Headquarters at 11350 Random Hills Road, Suite 800, Fairfax, VA 22030. Be sure to earmark the check for "Wheelchairs". "We're so thankful that Jamie has chosen to champion this cause and for support of the bowlers of the Dallas Fort Worth area," commented BVL Executive Director Mary Harrar. "This will be a life changer for Mike and the other veterans receiving these chairs. We encourage all DFW area bowlers to get out to the Women's Open on August 6th to see the donation come to life!"

BowlersMart Donates $5,000 to BVL

"On behalf of the veterans we serve, we truly thank Cliff and the BowlersMart organization for this wonderful donation," stated BVL Board Chairman John LaSpina. "They told us they were ready to step up to support BVL, and they certainly walked the walk!"

Beginning with just one pro shop in Hudson, Florida in 2004, BowlersMart now has pro shops throughout the country and continues to grow.

"Although we've known about the great things BVL does to brighten the lives of America's veterans, we decided that on the occasion of their 75th anniversary it was time to launch a targeted collective campaign amongst all our pro shops and our online offerings," stated BowlersMart owner Cliff Barnes.

For their BVL campaign, BowlersMart created signage at all locations highlighting BVL's mission and 75th anniversary. Contributions were solicited at the stores and from leagues where their stores are located.

Barnes credits his staff for the success of the program, "We couldn't have achieved this level of success without the BowlersMart staff accepting this challenge -- they are our boots on the ground for BVL."

"We are delighted to join the growing chorus of bowling-related entities in support our sport's own charity. "This is something we believe in and we're going to keep going with our campaign," concludes Cliff.

*BowlersMart, one of the largest bowling equipment retailers in the country with 40 stores and counting, made a $5,000.00 contribution to BVL recently at Bowl Expo. # The Citrus Belt's TOP TEN Bowlers

by Frank Weiler

SAN BERNARDINO – With this season coming to an end and a new Average Book being distributed in August, I would like to publish the list of the 2015-16 TOP TEN Citrus Belt bowlers. The list took me months to compile and I need to get it out before I get working on this season's list.

Let me describe the process that took me months to complete. The only way to put the list together was to manually review all 125 plus pages of the Association Average Book and record the names of every bowler with a 215 average and every woman with a 200 average. The list includes men bowling at least 60 games and women with 48 games. Each page listed about 100 bowlers and the book itself contains the averages of over 10,000 bowlers!

That means the bowlers listed below are the best of over 10,000 league bowlers in the Citrus Belt. I repeat, the best of over TEN THOUSAND certified bowlers! That's impressive.

So, the bowlers with highest averages, the Citrus Belt TOP TEN bowlers are:

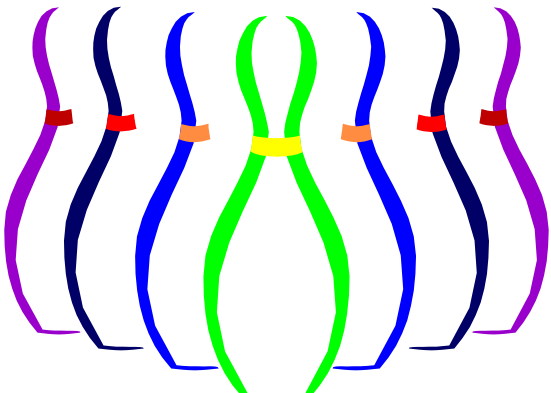

Name	Ave.	Games	Center
1. Darron Peters	239	(72)	Cal Oaks Bowl
2. Jim Starks	239	(102)	Foothill Lanes
3. Jeff Lewen Jr.	238	(97)	Hemet Lanes
4. Bobby Hornacek	237	(99)	Empire Bowl
5. Ronald Zurn	236	(90)	Classic Lanes
Bobby Campagnale	236	(72)	Del Rosa Lanes
7. Andrew Toro Jr.	235	(93)	Empire Bowl
8. Scott LaRiviere	232	(100)	Cal Oaks Bowl
James Doolen Jr	232	(96)	Foothill Lanes
Kevin Gagnon	232	(93)	Riverside Lanes
Chris Moore	232	(87)	Upland Bowl
Lloyd Irvine Jr.	232	(74)	Moreno Valley Bowl

All told sixteen bowlers averaged 230 or higher. The four just missing the TOP TEN are Robert Young (231 at Deer Creek Lanes), Armand Miller (230 at Empire Bowl), Tony Odom (230 at Palm Springs Lanes) and John Perry (230 at Arlington Lanes).

This is Darron Peters first season leading the Association in average and he did so by edging Jim Starks by a tenth of a pin.

Three of the bowlers in the TOP TEN have led the Association in average in previous seasons (Bobby Campagnale, Kevin Gagnon and Ronald Zurn).

Congratulations to all the bowlers averaging 230 or higher and thanks to the BOWLING NEWS for supporting CALIFORNIA BOWLERS.

ARC’s Board of Directors prior to AMF’s acquisition), and Ginny Feuchter (wife of founder Bob Feuchter); but alas, neither could provide further information about the ARC-Mel’s connection.

In response to my question about the Mel’s Bowl properties, Mr. Davis replied that “upon reflection it was so long ago that I just don’t recall anything useful, except that it occurred because Bob (Feuch-ter) was interested in expansion of the company, which is why we acquired so many other bowling centers at the time.”

Davis went on to say that “at age 84, I have trouble remembering who my wife is, or what day of the week, unless I look at my iPhone!”

So once again I headed to the world wide web for information. I was able to find a timeline of con-struction in the “Historic Resource Evaluation Report for Mel’s Bowl, Redwood City, California,” pre-pared by Carey and Company in 2011.

In their report, Carey and Company lists the following construction dates which seem to indicate that the same architect, Goodwin Steinberg, was involved in all of the following projects: Fiesta Lanes, San Jose (Mel’s Palm Bowl) - constructed 1957; Saratoga Lanes, San Jose (1958-59); Mel’s Bowl, Redwood City (1959-60); Mel’s South shore Bowl, Alameda (1960); and Fiesta Lanes, Hayward (con-struction date unknown).

Another article linked to the Carey and Company report cited the sorry state of bowling in San Jose, where no less than 7 of 9 bowling centers have closed in the past 25 years (“Developers Finding Other Uses for Land Under Bowling Centers,” by David Pollack, Mercury News).

Of those that remain, there is hope with the recent construction of Round 1 - Eastridge, a Japanese chain that combines karaoke with more traditional games inside bowling facilities.

If turnabout is fair play, then it is only fitting that Round 1 - Eastridge replaced a Bed, Bath and Be-yond store inside the Eastridge Mall. And that’s not the only example. Round 1 is also locating in a shuttered Macy’s store in Illinois. It’s reversing a trend that saw so many bowling centers close, not because of failing profits, but because the land, originally near the outskirts of town, had become so valuable to developers.

The total number of lane beds is just 100 in San Jose, a city of 1.2 million people. That’s 12,000 people per lane bed! In the heyday of bowling I remember some parts of the country that had less than 500 people per lane bed.

What all this means is that there’s a lot of opportunity for bowling to grow, especially in large metro-politan areas. Boutique offerings like Round 1, Lucky Strike, Dave and Busters, et al, have the formu-la for exponential growth... and a reason to stop watching football!

Let’s hope they don’t forget about organized league play, like Round 1, which does provide opportu-nities for league participation on certain days.

Or maybe, just maybe, we will see the return of Mel’s Drive-In and Bowl in our galaxy. The Force (bowling) will be with us. Always.

Six titles decided at 2017 Junior Gold Championships

SPOILER ALERT: The following story contains information about the finals of all six 2017 Junior Gold Championships events - the final matches of the U12, U15 and U20 divisions (boys and girls) that will air on CBS Sports Network in the coming weeks. Complete stories will be distributed after each final airs.

WICKLIFFE, Ohio – The 2017 Junior Gold Championships presented by the Brands of Ebonite International was contested at seven bowling centers in the Cleveland area from July 17-22, concluding with six titles being handed out over three CBS Sports Network broadcasts.

The finals for each of the event’s three divisions - 12-and-under, 15-and-under and 20-and-under - were taped Saturday at Game of Wickliffe for broadcast on CBS Sports Network. Each crowned a girls and a boys champion.

The U12 finals will air July 25 at 11 p.m., the U15 finals will air Aug. 1 at 11 p.m. and the U20 finals will air Aug. 8 at 11 p.m.

The 20th edition of the Junior Gold Championships featured a record field of more than 3,500 participants and a record scholarship fund of more than $320,000. Participants also were vying for spots on Junior Team USA.

The tournament took place in seven centers across the greater Cleveland area - Freeway Lanes of Parma, Wickliffe Lanes, Yorktown Lanes, AMF Brookgate Lanes, Game of Mentor, Roseland Lanes and Game of Wickliffe.

On the lanes Saturday in Wickliffe, Wesley Low of Palmdale, California, became the first two-time U20 boys champion, and Allie Leiendecker of Wooster, Ohio, captured the girls title in her home state in her U20 debut.

Low, the 2013 champion, made his final Junior Gold appearance and defeated David Hooper of Greenville, South Carolina, 394-357. Leiendecker, a 16-year-old right-hander, averaged 230 for her two games against Caitlyn Johnson of Lumberton, Texas, on her way to a 460-379 victory.

The U20 division this year featured 1,418 boys and 840 girls.

In the U15 division, defending boys champion Solomon Salama of Beverly Hills, California, made history as he was able to successfully defend his title, and Jennifer Loredo of Fresno, California, rallied to victory in the girls division.

Salama, a 14-year-old two-hander, finished with a 299 game on his way to a 553-380 win over Anthony Neuer of Lewisburg, Pennsylvania, the 2014 U12 champion. Salama left a 7 pin on his final shot.

Loredo, a 14-year-old left-hander, erased a 30-pin deficit after the first game to secure the win against Sarah Sanes of Murfreesboro, Tennessee, 411-395.

The U15 division included 602 boys and 327 girls.

The U12 titles were won by Karina Capron of Fremont, Nebraska, and Brandon Bohn of Jackson, New Jersey.

Karina, an 11-year-old right-hander, defeated Lauren Hunter of Smithton, Illinois, 328-309, to earn the girls title, while Brandon, a 12-year-old southpaw and the son of United States Bowling Congress and Professional Bowlers Association Hall of Famer Parker Bohn III, cruised to a 412-299 victory over Rylan Breese of Wilmington, North Carolina, on the boys side.

The U12 division of the 2017 Junior Gold Championships featured 243 boys and 124 girls.

All rounds of qualifying and match play leading up to the televised finals were broadcast live on BowlTV.

Wearing the red, white and blue

Six boys and six girls automatically earned spots on Junior Team USA for 2018 through their performances at Junior Gold this week.

Jeffery Mann of West Lafayette, Indiana, Kristopher Yadao of Pearl City, Hawaii, Pete Vergos of Apopka, Florida, Ryan Winters of Livonia, Michigan, and Michael Martell of Brooklyn, New York, earned spots on the boys team through qualifying, while Hooper also made the team by advancing to the championship round.

Mann, the 2016 U20 Junior Gold champion, and Vergos, each are making their second appearances on the team, while Yadao, Winters, Martell and Hooper will represent Junior Team USA for the first time.

Two-time Junior Gold champion Breanna Clemmer of Clover, South Carolina, will represent Junior Team USA for the fifth consecutive year after earning her spot through qualifying.

Johnson, Alexis Neuer of Lewisburg, Pennsylvania, Crystal Elliott of Palm Bay, Florida, and Julie Huren of Westland, Michigan, also made the girls team through qualifying, while Leiendecker earned her spot by making her way to the title match.

Leiendecker was a part of the U15 Developmental Team in 2017, while Johnson, Neuer, Elliott and Huren will make their Junior Team USA debuts in 2018.

Salama and Loredo earned spots on the U15 Developmental Team in 2018 for their wins, and they are joined on the team by both U12 Junior Gold champions from the 2015 event, Spencer Robarge of Springfield, Missouri, and Amanda Naujokas of Ronkonkoma, New York.

her first attempt.

“I was really proud of my spare game, which is my biggest enemy,” said Pajak, who was without an open frame during the final two games on television. “Going into the game with Diandra, I had lost my look, and I couldn’t carry, which shows on the shots where I left a washout and then went high. I was proud of myself and knew I could make all of the spares, so going into the championship game, my confidence was very high.”

In the opening match, Pajak rolled seven consecutive strikes after an early open to defeat Juliana Franco of Colombia, 233-194. Franco was making her second championship-round appearance of the season.

The win earned Pajak $10,000 and a spot in the season-ending Smithfield PWBA Tour Championship, a 16-player invitation-only event that will include the winners and top point-earners from the 2017 PWBA Tour season.

All qualifying and match-play rounds of the PWBA Greater Detroit Open were held at Super Bowl in Canton, Michigan, on June 16-17.

The stepladder was held June 25 at The Ashwaubenon Bowling Alley in conjunction with the live championship round of the 2017 Go Bowling PWBA Players Championship, the second major of the 2017 PWBA Tour season, and the finals of the PWBA Wichita Open and Pepsi PWBA Lincoln Open.

Learn to Bowl Youth Camp Striking Success

by Bette Addington, California Bowling Writers

CLOVIS, CA—Central California USBC teamed up with the Fresno State Bulldog Bowling Team to put on their inaugural Learn to Bowl Youth Camp on Sat., July 15 at AMF Rodeo Lanes in Clovis. The idea came from CCUSBC's newest Director, Kevin Kwok. Then, before they knew it, the Camp became a reality after time for "planning, negotiating with centers, funding, recruiting and execution of the program," according to CCUSBC Association President Mark Dinubilo. Prior to this actual camp, they conducted four "free" practice sessions in the month of June. The intent of this Camp was to have it open to all junior bowlers who were interested. Dynamic Bowling Industries/Greg Geering came on board to help with this venture by providing the ball/bag/shoe package to participants. And, since Geering is a USBC Silver Coach, he also was one of the volunteer coaches.

The Fresno State Bulldog Bowling Team, headed by Coach Chris Preble, contributed to the planning, recruiting, t-shirts and execution (they provided the coaching elements for both the practice sessions and the Camp). With it now being their offseason, and Summer vacation in full swing, they felt this was the time to get this thing started.

Twenty-four participants came from Fresno, Madera and Bakersfield to do this Camp. The youngest participant was just 7 years old. Out of the 24, approximately 10 of them were youth who did not normally bowl so this Camp had two goals—help the youth that bowl better their game and introduce the youth that have not bowled to be excited about the game and want to learn more to be better. Coaches who worked this Camp include Fresno State Bulldog Coach Chris Preble, Craig Donaldson, Chris Pitts, David Street, Lauren Orgeron, Chris Davidson, Phil Chow, Kiel Jordan, Talia St. Angelo and Tom Barnhard. Bakersfield (Golden Empire USBC) Youth Coach Phil Chow said, "The camp was a lot of fun and ran really well. The Fresno State coaches are great and were amazing with the kids. Coach Preble and Craig Donaldson are two great examples of how to run a camp. The rest of the volunteers did an excellent job with the kids as well. Mark Dinubilo did a fantastic job keeping everything moving forward and on time!"

The Camp was six hours long and included a lunch that CCUSBC provided for all participants and coaches. Ten coaches were on hand for the Camp. There were several ways a child could sign up for this Camp. It was $45 for the Camp only or they could pay $150 and get the Camp plus a Rhino ball (drilled), shoes and a bag. Half the juniors did the Camp only and half did the ball package. Participants were on the lanes for three hours while the balance of the time was spent in off-lane drills designed to highlight the fundamentals of the game. Bakersfield/Golden Empire USBC Parent, Stephanie Sanders who brought her daughter, Kira, to this camp said, "I saw close up and personal fundamental instruction. There were quite a few coaches so the kids got a lot of one-on-one which builds the confidence in kids. It looked like the kids were having fun while learning new things. I'm glad there will be more to come. Can't wait for the tournament at the end of this month (July 29)." And Camp Participant, Kira Sanders, 17, added, "I learned a lot from great coaches. I learned better balance and stance in my form and what I should be practicing on to get better. The camp was a lot of fun and a great experience."

When asked if the coaches felt the satisfaction of improvement from the participants, Coach Preble said, "Yes, several of the youth bowlers showed improvement during the camp. More importantly, our focus was to provide these young people with the fundamentals needed to build their games. Each of the participants left with a good idea on what they need to focus on going forward." When asked for his take on what this event and what it means to the Fresno Bulldog Bowling Team, Coach Preble added, "Well right now the camp served as another way of getting our program and its coaches recognized by the youth bowlers in the Central Valley. We probably won't see an immediate impact from a Learn to Bowl Camp with our program; however, it's a bit like a conversation—you can't get to know someone if you don't start having one!"

Speaking of the Fresno State Bulldog Bowling Team, it is recognized as one of the most active bowling teams now in California. Although there are also bowling teams at three other universities in California (San Jose State, UC Davis and Cal Poly) that are similar in size, Fresno State has traditionally fielded both Men's and Women's teams while other schools have focused on Men and Mixed teams. "The Fresno State Bowling Program was founded in 1969 by head coach Glenn Carlson. Coach Carlson laid down a foundation based on teaching the fundamentals of the game and competing with integrity and class. We've been dedicated to continuing his vision since his passing in 2008," said Coach Chris Preble. When asked if a youth bowler ready to enroll at Fresno State this fall could still try out for the bowling team now, Coach Preble said, "with school starting next month, it is unlikely students could be accepted this Fall semester. However, if someone is interested he/she could reach out to Coach Preble immediately (bowldogcoach@comcast.net)." Fresno State will be holding tryouts for its 2017-18 team Sept. 8-9 and Sept. 15-16 at its on-campus center.

Mark Dinubilo and CCUSBC should feel major satisfaction for providing this Camp and engaging the Fresno Bulldog Bowling Team and its alumni. What a success it was! Dinubilo stated, "The CCUSBC is committed to doing this on an annual basis for the next eight years. I have prepared multiple youth events for the next eight years to take to our first board meeting in early August. The youth program will be my main focus as long as I hold the office as President. My current term is up in 2019. We learned quite a bit in our first go-round. Our after-event meeting brought up a few areas that can be improved. The biggest probably being an age-based camp. We were asking a lot of the younger kids to fulfill that long of a camp (some of the 7 and 8-year olds were a little tired come 4pm!)."

And now on to their next event, the CCUSBC Youth Championship Tournament which is taking place on Sat., July 29th starting at 11am at AMF Rodeo Lanes in Clovis. Youth Camp participants are eligible to bowl and other youths are welcome as well. If you are interested, please call Mark Dinubilo at (559) 970-7245 to get registered. Solomon Salama Repeats
as U15 Jr Gold Champion

by David Schiada

Cleveland – New royalty was crowned on Saturday as “King” Solomon did something even King James couldn’t do - defend his title in Cleveland. Solomon Salama, the 14 year old two handed lefty from Beverly Hills via Keystone Lanes’ JAT Sport Juniors league, had an historic performance at Game of Wickliffe lanes, shooting 254 and 299 to defeat Anthony Neuer 553-380 and capture his second consecutive U15 Junior Gold Boys title. Solomon became the first bowler to win back-to-back Junior Gold titles.

With the match already clinched well before the tenth frame, the drama turned to whether Solomon would roll a 300 in his final game. Despite a solid pocket hit with his trusty Hammer urethane, a 7 pin kept him from perfection. So dominate was his performance that PBA hall of famer and CBS Sports Network analyst Marshall Holman started his interview with Solomon by saying he was speechless.

The only thing that seemingly could have stopped Solomon was swelling on his fingers, causing him to bring a homemade rubber glove ice pack to the finals. But he didn’t need any help staying cool on the inside as he calmly rolled 19 strikes in his final two games. The performance will be televised August 1, 5 pm Pacific, on the CBS Sports Network.

Solomon will have a chance for a U15 three peat next year in Dallas as a 15 year old. Congratulations Solomon!
