“World Series”

by John Jowdy

EL CAJON—The Professional Bowlers Association Tour is, by far, the most important and effective promotional vehicle in bowling.

A new era in the PBA will feature 23 tournament telecasts slated for the 2009-10 season, beginning with the creation of the Lumber Liquidators PBA World Series of Bowling. The World Series of Bowling will be held in the Detroit area and kick off at longtime PBA host center, Taylor Lanes, in Taylor, Michigan, about 20 miles southeast of Detroit.

This will mark the first time the PBA tour will spend an extended period of time in one city. Six events will be staged at Thunderbowl Lanes. This is a 90-lane facility featuring a unique setup for taping of the ESPN telecasts; as well as continuous online coverage of the PBA Tour's live streaming video service “Xtra Frame” on pba.com. Thunderbowl Lanes features an arena that originally housed the Detroit franchise of the old National Bowling League and later catered to the Detroit All-Star bowling league.

The seven PBA championship events will air out what has been traditionally the first half of the PBA season from mid-October to early December 2009; Sunday afternoons on ESPN. The second half of the season, from January to April will feature live Sunday telecasts and travel to at least 10 cities across the country, including three major championships; USBC Masters, PBA Tournament of Champions, and the US Open.

In my estimation, the advantage of the seven-week stand in one location FAR outweighs the loss of tournaments in other areas, particularly from a financial standpoint. The savings in travel costs will be a financial boom to the PBA as well as the PBA players.

The World Series of Bowling is exactly what it implies. All events are open to professionals as well as amateurs. Amateurs may enter directly into the open event fields; (Motor City Open; PBA World Championship; PBA Women's World Championship; and PBA Senior World Championship). Amateurs may also enter Lumber Liquidator's PBA exempt Tour events; but must qualify through Pro Tour Qualifying Rounds. All amateurs who finish among the top 10 in TQR's will advance to the field of 72.

World Series of Bowling exempt events will consist of 41 players from the 2008-09 points list; eight players from the PBA Tour Trials; seven players from the PBA Regional Players Invitational; three international players exemptions; one Golden Parachute qualifier; one player from a medical deferment in 2008-09; (Tommy Delutz) the 2008-09 TQR points list leader; and 10 players (including one amateur) that advance from the TRQs'.

One of the main features of the World Series of Bowling is the appearance of THREE two-handed-thumbless bowlers; Finland's Osku Palermaa, Australia's Jason Belmonte, and former Team USA member, Cassidy Schaub.

After a deal with the European Bowling Tour, the World Series of Bowling asked all international stars to apply for exemptions. They had dozens of applications and decided on three outstanding international players that included Osku Palermaa, the European Bowling Tour points leader; Tae-Hwa Jeong, a 10-time Korean PBA Tour winner as well as a five-time Japan PBA Tour titlist; and Amleto Monacelli, a 19-time PBA champion.

In addition to this, there were entries into World Series events from players from Sweden, Denmark, and Russia. Add to this, Mika Koivoniemi of Finland and Jason

Citrus Belt's KARLIE LOOP A Junior Bowler On The Rise

by Frank Weiler

MENIFEE—Fourteen year old Karlie Loop is a girl headed to Henderson, Nevada to participate in the All Conference Touring Players Championship.

She will participate as a member of the Southern California Conference All Star Team. Karlie was selected for the Southern California team after finishing second in the 2008 Junior Bowlers All Star Tourney.

Karlie has been bowling for six years and bowls in two leagues at Brunswick Cal Oaks Bowl in Murrieta. She currently averages 180 with a high game of 262, and high series of 715. Her favorite bowling ball is the Storm Hy Road because of its' good reaction and pin carry. Karlie's goal is to receive a college bowling scholarship and compete on a college team.

Karlie is grateful to her mom Luann and dad David for supporting her pursuit of her bowling dreams. She also wants to thank her coaches JIM MURTISHAW and NEAL WRIGHT for their help, and DAVE TENNEY manager of Brunswick Cal Oaks Bowl for supporting his junior bowlers.

Karlie's favorite tip came from coach Wright, when he told her that she is not bowling against other bowlers but against the lane condition. Ever since, she has focused on adjusting to the lane and not worrying about her opponents.

Ralph Morton FunTime Bowling No Tap Doubles Tournament Riverside Lanes, Laughlin, NV

by Brad Domes

LAUGHLIN, NV—July 2009! Locals score! Playing in your own backyard has always been an advantage and several locals, who bowl regularly at Laughlin's Riverside Lanes, showed that to be true at Ralph Morton's FunTime summer classic held July 13 -15, 2009. This semi-annual event drew over 230 bowlers from as far as Tennessee, Oklahoma and, of course, the western states. The tournament format consisted of two (2) daily squads competing against each other in two (2) divisions. Each day represented a separate tournament handicapped at 100% from 220.

Leading the local contingent were Oscar & Peggy Leschhorn, Bob Wester, Pat Taranto, Willy Tuquero, Doris Mesa, Diane Burton, Jeff Sanders & Doris Richardson all finishing well into the top 5 in several daily tournaments. In spite of those efforts the overall prize winners came from San Diego. Steve & Amy Gottlieb managed to use their high handicaps to their advantage taking the top money award barely edging out the Leschhorns.

Let's not, however, forget the others who also scored well with their consistent efforts. In Division 1 Roy & Ruby McNeely, Mike & Mary Donnelly, Lee & Mary Lou Peterson, quadriplegic Jeffrey (unbelievable story) &

Carol Lewis, Bea Grajeda, Clarice Byas, Lena & Jack Grace, Howard Oquest, Sunny Lee Kotchever, Dan Miller & Margrit Baird. Division 2, besides those above, were Jack Miller, Bill Barnett, Richard & Cecile Belden, Randi & Debbie Portwood, Charles Spittle, Marlys Adams, Red Kreiger, Russ Valentine, Juan Pena, Ruth Ramsey & Ernie Rymer.

Chuck Meek's (900) three (3) perfect games on Wednesday gave him four (4) for the tournament, after scoring one (1) on Monday, leading all 300 shooters. Others who reached that pinnacle were: Wester & Taranto (3) each, Sanders (2) and Jim McCallum, Bill Moore, Shannon Christian, Ron Prodigalidad, Jerry Wood, Alex Morales, Jim Ledoux, John McCabe, Art Lincoln, Fred Hutto & John Beard with one (1) each. Distaff side honors went to Richardson & Burton with one (1) each.

There were those who came so close to 300 and should be recognized as well. Steve Gottlieb 290 (2), Linda Dennis 278, Bob Bracken 279, Sandra McGee 278, Jim Evanchak 297, Ron Gilbert 278, Jim Coulsby 297, Steve Slezak 296, Linda Dennis 278, Amy Gottlieb 280, Randi Portwood 297, Sixto Santos 279, Jack Grace 276, Luther Goad 275, Ken McTeer 290, Chiiko Smith 261, Alex Bosze 273, Juan Pena 288, Nancy Kenna 267, Gary Anderson 272 & Jim Ziebarth 278.

There were 2442 games bowled over the three days and hopefully this writer hasn't excluded anyone who feels they should be mentioned. Obviously there is not room to name everyone who attended but it is really appreciated that so many of you continue to support this tournament. Many thanks.

The lighter side of the tournament had a couple special happenings. The Sunday night blind draw, for those arriving early, went well with a lot of fooling around and some serious bowling. Bowlers met their partners for the first time making it an ice breaker so to speak. Casino dollars were awarded for special trick shots wrought up by the host Ralph Morton. On Tuesday, following the last squad, Morton, Hounsley and Gary Anderson challenged Riverside Lane's skilled bowling trio of Brian Markowitz, Charlie Emmons & George Kleinstuber to a three game match. Since its inception the locals have had their way so it was decided that the challengers would bowl no tap against regular scoring. It turns out that wasn't necessary as the locals stumbled a bit never really getting untracked. So it looks like kudos finally for the challengers.

Speaking of the local contingent at Riverside Lanes, the staff, headed by Brian Markowitz, is to be thanked. Brian's staff: Charlie Emmons, Mollie Bradley, Dustin Markowitz, Delora Morris and the entire service core go out of their way to keep the center humming smoothly.

Ralph & Nancy Morton with directors Judee & Jerry Wood, Brad & Lucy Domes, Billy & Ruth Lang, Marge & Ernie Rymer maintain tournament flow. Special thanks to Dick & Donna Hounsley, Gladys Klein & Frieda Pyles who stepped in for backup support. The entire group should be commended for another superb tournament.

JANUARY 2010: Wow! Time does fly! January 11-13, 2010 is the next scheduled tournament. There will be three (3) daily squads with rotating starting times. Squads are being limited to 136 (4 to a lane max) bowlers. No exceptions. Get your entry in early for a preferred squad. Singles welcome and will be paired.

HOTEL: River Palms Resort & Casino will be the new blind draw, for those arriving 2009 WORLD TEN PIN BOWLING ASSN.

WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP

by Agnes Duffy

The 2009 World Ten Pin Assn. Women's World Championship will be held in the Cashman Center in Las Vegas starting with final team arrivals and practice on July 27th. Olympic type opening ceremonies will be that evening with the planned forty-seven nations in their parade uniforms, signs, flags, team of six bowlers, coaches and officials participating.

The Cashman Center with the sixty installed lanes etc. for USBC Open Tournament will close on July 24th and will provide a perfect spot for this International tournament held every two years. The bowlers will compete on a medium lane condition and a short lane condition as selected by the technical delegate Daniel Falconi of Mexico.

As an Olympic sanctioned event nations are sending their finest bowlers to compete so this year the selection includes six women that have at least 72 pro titles. Is there a six women team event. NO but in this tournament substitutions are allowed in the second or third games of the five persob team event. The sixth bowler is put with other sixth bowlers to form the five regular team members. This way everyone has the opportunity to include their scores in team for the All Event Medal and moveup to Match Game event.

Who will represent the United States? Lynda Barnes and Stefanie Nation (both bowled in this tournament in 2007 and 2005 plus won their places in the qualifying tournament). Joining them are familiar names of Carolyn Dorin-Ballard, Liz Johnson, Wendy MacPerson and Kim Terrell-Kearney.

Lynda (Norry) Barnes has bowled in many of these tournaments (I do not have the exact count) but she should be able to calm down some nerves for those representing their country for the first time. When that Gold Medal is won in an event and during the ceremonies our flag goes up the highest middle pole and "The Star Spangled Banner" fills the center the goose bumps are sure to go up and down the spine.

Competition starts with with three squads of Singles. Two bowlers from each nation on a squad which is determined by draw by tthe manager. Then Doubles, Trios and Five Person Team. Each event consists of six games per bowler and winner of All Events is determined by the 24 games total. The top 16 women begin round robin competition, with 10 bonus points for each victory. After 15 games the top three women enter the stepladder elimination. The championship is decided on a two game total pins match between the No. 1 qualifier and the opponent who won the first one game match.

The best showing our women have made was in the 11th WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS IN HELSINKI, FINLAND, 1987- 44 NATIONS 196 WOMEN. I was there - what a thrill. The United States won Third-Bronze Medal - Singles; Doubles - First- Gold Medals; Trios won First and Third - Gold and Bronze Medals; Five Player won First - Gold Medals; All Events First Place - Gold Medal. THE FLAG WENT UP THE HIGHEST POLE FOUR TIMES AND OUR NATIONAL ANTHEM FILLED THE CENTER FOUR TIMES.

The United States team lineup was: Nellie Glandon 1198, Karen Bender 1188, Sandra Jo Sherry 1276, Kathy Vodka 1170, Cora 531, M. Sue Holton 648. for a total of 6011.

The last World Championship was held in Malaysia that included both men and women but with an increasing number of nations entering and with the Olympic officials feeling a sport should hold a world chamionship every year it was changed to women one year and men the next. But to me it has taken some of the glamour out of it. When one sex was bowling the other was there cheering them on. And there were romances that developed into marriages even between nations.

WE WISH THE BEST OF LUCK TO OUR TALENTED TEAM USA IN LAS VEGAS.

USBC TO PROVIDE LIVE VIDEO OF WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS ON BOWL.COM

ARLINGTON, Texas - Bowling fans around the world will be able to watch the finals and select semifinals of the World Tenpin Bowling Association World Women's Championships on bowl.com. The United States Bowling Congress plans to live stream from Las Vegas, Nev., portions of the event that will feature bowlers from 45 countries.

"We believe there is tremendous interest in watching this event both here in the United States and internationally," said USBC Vice President of Media Pete Tredwell.

"Presenting the highest levels of bowling competition online can be a great way to gain additional exposure for the sport."

The live stream will be distributed using Ustream.TV, a service that will insert advertisements over the video at times. USBC does not control the content or frequency of the advertisements.

"At this time, the ad-supported video stream is the financially responsible way for USBC to provide this content for free," Tredwell said. "I am confident fans would rather see a few pop-up ads than not see the action at all."

Qualify 12:00-1:00-2:30 & 4:00 Semis 5:45 PM

New Schedules to be mailed soon, if address has changed let us know

SAN BERNARDINO — Andrew Lung, One of the Good Guys, and definitely an ABTA Regular had a stupendous performance as he won his first ABTA Title at Super Del Rosa Lanes finishing strong to down Don Pulliam in the title game and take a sweet $2,300 on home to Monterey Park.

Besides the exciting championship match there was lots ado at Del Rosa as 282 entrants shoed up in our long awaited return to the nice classy center in San Bernardino.

The scoring was good there taking men+82 and the ladies +63. Due to the great turnout we had 69 bowlers advance to the semifinals. Also added were Super Seniors Leo Tartamella, Kay Johnson and Jay Shackelford.

The 69 Semifinalists took to the floor, of which all would cash and the top 16 to advance to the single elim finals with 3 women min guaranteed to the top 16.

The scoring was still very good and leading the semis was Andrew Lung at a big +192. He will sit out and bowl for the title. In second Brad Le Count +179 who would receive a bye, and enter in round two of the single elim finals. Those advancing to the top 16 finals were men +88 and Ladies (3 guaranteed) +31 to make the top 16 Single Elims.

The first round went and we had Bethany Mendoza, Pete Campabasso, Janine Ditch, Jim Morales, Joseph Lung, Ryan Nam and Christina Cheung lose out. They received checks of $110 each in 10-16th places. In round two Luciano Bruzzoni, Marvin Galsim, Jason Buenviaje, and Brad LeCount fall out. They got checks of $120 in 6-9th places.

Round three saw Alan Basto down Sean Johnson 222-157. Don Pulliam did it to the "Yes Man" Edmond Del Mundo 280-193. So Sean and Ed were 4th and 5th with fine bowling and $130. Donald and Alan to meet for the right to bowl Andrew Lung for the title.

Pulliam in this game out struck Basto in a big 259-239 win and Ala was 3rd and $230 with Donald off to the title game vs Andrew Lung.

The title game was on. Donald led off with a strike and Andrew open/split then a big double. But split again in the 4th. Donald clean with a double in frames 5-6 had a lead. Lung then showed his heart with a huge three bagger in frames 5-6-7 and another split in the 8th had Lung leading by 9 pins but he opened missing the 2-8. Donald led going to the 10th frame. Lung finishing first needed a big finish as he was now behind. He struck and then caught a break with a light but great shot that carried. He struck on the final shot to have the lead. Donald would need a double to win. He threw a great shot but the 7 pin stood and finished 192/218 with Mr. Lung at 190/229. Now our latest champion in a thriller and rightly so. Andrew is most deserving, always does his best, very competitive and also one of the nicest people you can hope to meet as is his great family who are ABTA members. We are blessed to have them. Great bowling by a very nice Young man who has had some trying times and is now our latest champion. Great Bowling Andrew! The Mou Liu will be proud :-)

George Trainer bowled lights out also and won four matches before finally falling in the title game.

Great bowling by Donald also a Champion, as he came so close and same for Alan Basto in 3rd place.

ABTA Notes: Tourney Hi Qualifiers were Alan Basto +180. Bethany Mendoza led the ladies +170. They will get paid entries for the fine bowling.

The Doubles were headed by "El Presidente" Danny Guevarra and Alan Basto at 1516 good for $170. Edging Jim Morales and Anna Bautista 1497 and $150. The Champ Lung and Tony Tang in 3rd 1478 $140. We paid a great 25 places and $1712 in the doubles and for a $5 entry to boot.

The Match Game of $3,500 was Matched at 126 and Arie, Yes he was buying the beer:-. That ties the lowest score ever to win. With the carryover of $1,900, the match game is again est at $3,500 this week.

National Deaf Bowling News
News On Deaf Bowling Tournaments

by Connie Marchione

NORWALK — In this article I am listing the deaf tournaments that are going on in U.S. so that the deaf bowlers might be interested to know and plan to enter one or more.

At present, there are three organizations that are national in scope: National Deaf Bowling Association (NDBA), National Deaf Mixed Bowling Association (NDBMA) and Deaf Senior Bowlers of America (DSBA). There are many smaller regional and state deaf tournaments but we will first mention the national ones.

The oldest, NDBA is in limbo since its 42nd tournament at Reno in 2007, had no tournament for last two years for lack of host sponsors. The once mighty men group also has a companion women group NDWBA are still looking for a host sponsor to keep it going. Interested sponsors can contact NDBA President Dennis J. Brady, NY at dj300@twcny.rr.com for details.

A new startup NDMBA that is growing in popularity, recently last month completed its 9th annual tournament in New Jersey and is having its 10th anniversary event in Las Vegas in June 2010. This is a 4-days mixed tournament with events to select and enter. While most of the events are with handicap, it has a scratch King/Queen event.

One interesting thing about its recent NDMBA New Jersey tournament was that my friend, Ken DeGroff "heard" that there were three 300 games made there. That compels me to contact Secretary Gary Burgess, AZ at ndmixedburgess@yahoo.com for the tournament results and truth about the 300s. Any interested bowler can contact him at that e-mail address for the entry form and information about the June Las Vegas NDMBA tournament.

While both NDBA and NDMBA require host sponsors to continue their annual tournaments, DSBA which opens to deaf and hearing impaired seniors 55 years and older, is different. Although DSBA is national in scope drawing deaf senior bowlers from all over U.S. and Canada, it had all its past 12 tournaments in one attractive place, Las Vegas. Its three-days 13th annual tournament will be in its usual bowling center, the Orleans and Casino expecting its loyal followers making their annual trek there. With new seniors and old returnees entrants being icing on the cake, DSBA maintains its own fundraising and gets donations in continuing its annual event. The coming three-day event is on October 13-14-15, 2009. Any deaf senior bowler, 55 years and over can get DSBA information from Carol Moers, Denver who has been DSBA Secretary-Treasurer since its founding 12 years ago, at DSBAsecy@aol.com.

Of all regional deaf tournaments, the oldest largest one, Great Lakes Deaf Bowling Association (GLDBA) is having its 74th annual Tournament in Toledo, Ohio on April 15-18, 2010. Secretary-Treasurer Mike Jasko can be contacted at gldbastjasko@aol.com for entry form and information.

More regional tournaments will be listed next week.

News: Bob Jones Hits 681-711
In Calif. State At Modesto

MODESTO — Jim Mohr e-mailed that he and Bob Jones had entered in the California State USBC tournament in Modesto on Jones' friends team. On Saturday's Singles and Doubles events, Bob was doing well with 212-225-244 for 681 in Singles and 230-269-212 for 711 in Doubles. That was great but on the Sunday's team event, he could not carry well ending up with 525 for 1917 all events total. Jim won't tell me his scores.

Belmonte of Australia who are on the PBA exempt list. Stuart Williams from England and George Lambert from Canada qualified through the tour trials, thus establishing the World Series of Bowling as truly an international event.

The women's World Series of Bowling consist of 12 players from their U.S. Women's Tour Trials, six champions from 2008 and at least two players qualifying through TQR's.

The capacity for the Motor City Open is 196. For the PBA World Championships the capacity is 200 entries. The maximum for the Senior World Championships is 140 and the maximum for the PBA Women's Championship is 100.

There will also be eight side events and sweepers. Three side events with a $250 entry fee are restricted to amateurs and non-exempt PBA players. Five sweepers with entry fees of $100 and $80 are open to ALL players. All side action will go directly into the prize fund; no lineage fees or administrative fees will be deducted.

In order to participate in any side event, a bowler must enter at least one of the main tournaments or any of the TQR's. Each of the five sweepers will be contested on five different PBA lane patterns...Earl Anthony, Tournament of Champions, U.S.Open, Dick Weber and Shark.

I feel confident that the "new" PBA format will not only be successful, but with telecasts of the events aired internationally, it will increase TV ratings and create greater worldwide interest. It will surely inspire younger generations of aspiring bowlers.

The regular PBA tour featuring 64 exempt players will include numerous new bowlers and number of veterans who re-qualified. Two of the most notable players failing to gain exemption for the 2009-10 season were David Traber and Dave D'Entremont.

Bowlers who qualified for the 2009-10 season were; Dave Arnold, Mitch Beasley, Joe Ciccone, P.J Haggerty, Tim Mack, John May, Derek Sapp, Cassidy Schaub, Thomas Smallwood, Brian Waliczek, Lonnie Waliczek, Stevie Weber, and Troy Wollenbecker.

Although the "new" PBA look is a product of united and cooperative PBA employees, much of the credit must be attributed to Tom Clark, the deputy commissioner of the PBA. Clark, a former USA Today sports reporter, has demonstrated an uncanny ability to promote bowling as no other individual in recent years. He has been most instrumental in resurrecting women professional bowlers and did an excellent job in his short stint with the USBC. And now he is displaying the greatest promotional skills on the PBA staff since Eddie Elias founded the organization. Perhaps the PBA's greatest coup of the 2009-10 season was the selection of Brian Voss as the Golden Parachute exemption. The choice of Voss, who failed to qualify for the 64-man exemption list, was a no-brainer. The former poster-boy of the PBA tour is a 24-time PBA champion and is fully capable of holding his own among the PBA touring players.

Meanwhile, the addition of several new faces, the re-qualification of a number of veterans, the and the initiation of the World Series of Bowling promises to make the 2009-10 PBA season one of the greatest ever!

 At Oak Tree Lanes

by Ryan Richardson

DIAMOND BAR — On Sunday, July 26 at Oak Tree Lanes, we concluded our 2nd leg of our summer tournament series. We had 28 entries paying out $1,400 in prize fund, and $560 in sidepots and blocks.

Steve Smith got the ball rolling with a red-hot start bowling a 269-279-191. Steve held onto a one-pin lead to win the first block and win the first two sidepots. Dan Mosser was consistent throughout the tournament just missing the first block sidepot, but was able to bowl a nice 270 game and that would be the winner of the third game sidepot, also placing 2nd overall in the tournament.

Jason B. (sorry he didn't give his last name) started off slow, but then took off shooting a 171-269 and 243, for the first block. Jason started the 2nd block off with a 299 game, good for the fourth game sidepot, and finished the block off with a 267 and 188 game, giving him the overall victory for the tournament. Other sidepot winners were Dave Brown 279 and Zarcoff Boutell 279.

I would like to thank everyone for coming out and bowling our Scratch 6-Gamer on behalf of Oak Tree Lanes' management. The turnout was great and I look forward to seeing everyone back on August 23rd. Check-in at 10:00 a.m., bowl at 11:00 a.m. $65 entry, $20 sidepots, and blocks. See you there.

BY NICE AND SWEET

STUDIO CITY — Well, welcome back cowpoke to the rodeo that we call Pinz. We here are roping and wrangling all kinds of beastly animals in high hopes that you'll mosey on in and bowl a few games.

PINZ ADULTS

Now, we look at the sky for a smoke signal, it's barely legible. Oh yes, there it is, Pinz has the best bowlers. Well holy smokes, let me keep fanning the flames so you can see your names next week.

PINZ JUNIORS

Now you're back and golly gee wow did we miss you. We can't wait for ADULT/JUNIORS to start since half of the staff will be competing this year. At least Masha and Chana won't be last place for the first week. Have a great season.

PINZ SENIORS/LADIES

You may remember that this article can be satirical and oft deliberate. Yet, we offer this gem to all of you; "your bowling is really stinking up the joint". That's why we keep smelling roses this past week, not because of upcoming proms but from your terrific smelling games, great job. Here's the blooming scores:

Joslyn Seniors: Art Abell 202/507, Sol Stein 481, Betty Dushkin 210/501, Teri Bonato 173/475, Don Thorner 191.

Senior Social: Charlene Gaffney 201/520, Art Michener 178/495, Joel Margolis 184/478, Ruth Gralla 165/425, Allan Lotta 183/422.

Bowler of the Week: This week we want to honor a dynamic duo, a pair of cards, a (please add your own alliteration). Bonnie Perlman and Ed Barnes have been "bowling" us over for the past few weeks, and guess what they have trophies to prove it. Thanks for being you.

Sweetness Quote of the Week: "Oh yeah, we are taking over the Carter". — Nino Brown (Wesley Snipes) from New Jack City

NOTE: The league sheets that were faxed to the Bowling News did not arrive and were not available at the center. Need better smoke signals! See you next week.

Chuo Goes Perfect To Take Tournament of Champions

A field of 14 champions took the lanes at Del Rio for the 2009 Tournament of Champions. Devin Bidwell paced the field blazing out of the gate with a 780 series while Jeremy Glover and DeeRonn Booker both posted perfect 300 games to try and keep pace. Coming down to the final game of match play, Devin had a 22 pin lead over 2nd place Joey Chuo but Joey clutched up with a perfect 300 game to rip the title out of Devin's hands. Joey Chuo won the title at +852 followed by Devin Bidwell at +727, Charlie Hair at +705, and Samantha Jimenez at +664. Nice bowling and congratulations to our ToC winner Joey Chuo!

Pekins in Non-Champs Winner

Congratulations to Brandon Pekins for jumping up with the "big boys" and winning the Tournament of Non-Champions at AMF Rocket Bowl. Kevin Jones dominated qualifying with a whopping 239.7 average for his 6 games followed by 2nd seeded Pekins. Brandon knocked off Steven Manier, Max Slevcove and Cory Koyanagi while 9th seed Mark Myers took down Cort McPherson, Kevin Jones and James Hefley en route to the Championship Match. Pekins stayed locked in and took down Myers 234-204 and 222-215 for the title. Our JAT event was the last tournament ever held at AMF Rocket Bowl as the bowling alley closed for good later that day. Congratulations Brandon on some fine bowling!
