NEW! 2011 CA Scratch Classic Tournament

NORWALK—The California USBC Association has revamped an old classic tournament. We present the 2011 CA Scratch Classic Tournament. Does everyone remember the old format for the California Youth State Scratch Tournament back in the 80's?

This used to be a huge tournament that had one weekend of qualifying in the north and south then the top 24 bowlers from each location qualified to the finals that were held the following weekend in Fresno. Well, we are bringing back that format for some great competition!

The format is six games scratch of qualifying at either Cal Bowl in Lakewood or Cloverleaf Bowl in Fremont. There will be 4 squads held and you can re-enter at a lower fee – as many times needed to make the cut!

The qualifying will be September 10-11 and the Finals for the top 48 bowlers (24 from each location) will be held September 17-18 at AMF Rodeo Lanes in Fresno. There is no entry fee for the finals and all 48 bowlers will cash in the finals and there will be bonus awards offered at the qualifiers and at the finals.

Advanced entries post-marked by SEPTEMBER 1 are $125. On-site entries are $150. This event is brand new and we hope that all of the scratch bowlers will come out! There will be side pots and brackets held each squad and also a bowling ball raffle held at each site. Bowling balls were graciously donated from Off the Sheet Pro Shop in San Jose (www.OffTheSheet-ProShop.com). Thank you to Tony Reyes and Lindsey Wong!

The two 2010 CA State Queens and Masters Champions, Laurie Soto and Dave Wodka have been offered a free berth into the qualifying for this event since those two events have been put on hiatus.

Also, since this is a USBC singles event, scratch youth bowlers are eligible to participate. They just need to sign the scholarship waiver prior to the qualifying event.

This is another event that just proves that "The Best Bowlers Come from California!" Entries can be downloaded from www.CalUSBC.com. Hard copies are also available at your local bowling center and local association office. Thank you. Visit us at www.CalUSBC.com. Now GO BOWLING!

Debbie Wade Wins $25,000 at ABT Summer Nationals

LAS VEGAS — Debbie Wade traveled from West Jordan, Utah to Las Vegas and drove home with a truck load of cash after winning the ABT Summer Nationals at Sam's Town. Storm and Roto Grip co-sponsored the event which had a whopping total main tournament prize fund payout of over $200,000.00. Debbie is 53 years young and is married to Robert (an ABT Member) and has 2 children, Kelly and Jessica. Jessica is a Junior ABT Member - it runs in the family! Debbie has one granddaughter Brilynn, who keeps Debbie and Robert on their toes!

This is her second ABT title with the first coming in 1997. She was using a Brunswick C-System drilled by Jordan Harrison (future son-in-law).

Debbie has two 300's to her credit with a 782 high series.

She is also a certified USBC Bronze Level Coach and is a former coach at Taylorsville High School (6 years).

Debbie bowls at Allstar lanes in West Jordan Lanes and plans on using her winnings for 2 weddings!!

She would like to thank her husband Robert, Jessica, Jason (Jessica's fiance') for all their support in Las Vegas.

When asked for any further comments Debbie said "Thanks to Myron & Julie for running ABT Tournaments, the entire ABT Staff, Sam's Town for hosting the tournament and all my fellow ABT bowlers!! Hooray for Utah for bringing home another National ABT Champion!" You too can win up to $25,000 with bonuses at the 34th Anniversary "Mega Event" Labor Day Weekend at Classic Lanes in Norco.

"We Are The Champions, We Are The Champions.... Of The World"

by Frank Weiler

MURRIETA - "We Are The Champions..." so the rock song of the 1980s goes, and we sure feel like champions of the world tonight. We have just won the Cal Oaks Major League Scratch Title, for the summer. The "WE" I am referring to are the members of my doubles team, JERRY DeYAGER and yours truly.

I will always remember what we did Thursday night, to become league champions.

Thursday night was Roll-Off night, the "Playoffs." I'm talking about Cal Oak's summer "WORLD SERIES." The best in-house scratch bowlers going head to head in match play.

Anyone who is anything in “THE OAKS” bowling universe was there.

CITRUS BELT USBC officers, house management and employees, league officers and ordinary league bowlers all mingled. Even the bartender snuck over to see the introductions. There was electricity in the air, an excitement you would only expect at the US OPEN.

When all the participants were in place, DAVE TENNEY, Cal Oaks general manager and master of ceremonies, called each “actor” on stage and introduced him to the crowd. There was plenty of applause and cheering for all the bowlers, but the house went wild when ROWDY HOUSTON took his bow. Rowdy is a crowd favorite at “The Oaks,” because of his colorful personality. You never know what this retired marine may be up to. He may show up in a cowboy outfit or just decide to sing his favorite song, “BLUE SKIES” if he gets his hand on a microphone. If we had played the national anthem, Rowdy would have belted it out with gusto.

When all the formalities were over, and the bowlers were ready to rumble, there was a sudden whooshing sound, a low whooshing sound coming from the direction of the playroom. Everyone turned slowly and there was Rowdy, making his grand entrance, with a toy stick horse between his legs. Wouldn’t you know that Rowdy would be up to something. Houston had to get out of the saddle in a hurry though, because he was scheduled to bowl in the first match.

The roll-off featured a six team step ladder format, with three block winners and three wild card teams participating. Each match was two games, total pins, single elimination.

Match play began at 8:30 PM and lasted until 1:30 AM the next morning.

After five hours of pressure packed bowling, the doubles team of Jerry DeYager and myself prevailed, and was crowned league champion. Let me tell you how it all went down.

The first match featured our number six seed (“Cowboy” Rowdy Houston and KEVIN STAPP) against fifth seeded Jerry DeYager and myself. The cowboys got off to a fast start, with Kevin opening up with a five bagger, and Rowdy decking eight wracks out of nine. Together they finished up their first game with a 469 total. My team trailed by forty-three sticks at that point.

The table turned suddenly in the second game though. Five big splits, in the first five frames, spelled doom for those cowpokes. Jerry and I only had to fire a 440 second game to clinch the match by fourteen pins.

We moved to another pair of lanes for our second match, to face the fourth seeded team of KEN CLAY and ALAN MOJADO. This duo is known for it’s precision bowling. Two stylists, with steady hands, perfect timing and the silky smooth release seldom seen in the amateur ranks. Everyone in the league feared this combo. They never missed spares and never gave up. They were our winter league champions.

As the match began, I whispered to Jerry: “It’s time for you to kick some butt”. I guess he got my message, firing a 258 for a twenty-nine pin lead. The second game was messy and Jerry’s 213 was enough to carry us to a sixty-seven pin decision.

The third match of the night saw us have to battle the biggest, baddest, bowler this side of the MISSISSIPPI. BIG DWAIN STREATER, at SEVEN FEET TALL and 330 pounds, is the biggest bowler I have ever seen in my life. He usually is a quite guy, but watch out if he gets angry. One night I saw him lose it, when my friend SENG TONG was a little loud. Dwaine gave out a yell like a bull elephant. Everyone in the house stopped bowling. Dwaine picked up Seng in a bear hug and twirled him around like a rag doll, then dropped him to the floor. You could hear a pin drop.

After a few seconds, Dwaine looked around as if nothing had happened and said: “let’s bowl”. Seng was okay, what a relief.

Anyway, I have seen Dwaine play power ball on the lanes and put up some big numbers. He shot a 280 earlier in the season to lead his team to a block title. I knew if he carries, we would be in trouble. Fortunately, it was one of those nights when the six pin was so elevated by Dwaine’s speedball, that it was just flying over the ten. Teammate MIKE LAUFFER went 214 -

238 but it wasn’t enough. My 235 - 237 along with a 233 by Jerry, and we had a fifty-four pin win.

The fourth match started around 11:30 PM. Boy oh boy, was I getting tired. It was already past my bedtime, and we still might have to bowl four more games! Anyway, this match was contested on Cal Oak’s infamous “DEATH VALLEY.” Lanes 11 and 12 are known to be bone dry. Somehow the oil gets absorbed quicker there. The pair can be so difficult, that I have seen good bowlers walk away from them, in utter disgust. I have seen bowlers throw their bowling ball to the floor, from above their head, after being humiliated in the valley.

We had to face the second seeded team of SCOTT FILIPI and JAMES HAWKINS in the valley. What a break it was for us. It is the only pair in the house that Hawkins has difficulties on. He is a nineteen year old two hander, with a 240 average, who happens to struggle on dry lanes.

Hawkins opened the match with a 259, but with Filipi struggling, we were able to go 220 - 224 for a twelve pin lead. When Hawkins started to struggle in the second game, the match was over. We won by thirty-nine.

The championship match began at thirty minutes past midnight, with the doors closed for business, and the cleaning crew mopping and vacuuming. As we began, the lights suddenly went out! Well, not all out. Just half the lights were off. We called out to the desk jockey for help. He said the lights were on a timer which couldn’t be overruled. We would have to finish with partial lighting or not at all. So the show went on.

With no lights through the heads, I was having trouble getting lined up. I love using the arrows, and now they were in the dark. The first few frames were a challenge for everyone. The top seeded team of JOHN SOWELL and WILLIAM BOUCHER seemed to adjust to the dark better than us, and took an early lead. I guess that should be expected, since Sowell is a San Diego area professional bowler, with years of experience. His 235 average attests to his experience. We were able to keep pace though, and the first game ended with us leading by eleven.

Game two started big for Sowell, eight consecutive strikes. If it wasn’t for Mister DeYager, we would have been done. Jerry strung eight of his own ten counts, beginning in the second frame, to keep us in the match. I then put together a mid-game five bagger, and we took a lead into the ninth frame of the final game.

At quarter past one, just before my ninth frame, mother nature called.

I bolted for the rest room. It was closed, mopped wet. Water on the floor was at least a quarter inch high. I ran to the other end of the concourse, the only other rest room was flooded. I ran back to where we were competing and jumped into my street shoes. Next thing I know, I’m skating in the men’s room.

Back on the lanes, I’m winded, but ready to go. Of course, I was wrong. I really wasn’t ready to go. I topped the ball and spun it down lane into the headpin. It was in the pocket, but rotating like a top. The result:

an 8-10 split. I thought we had lost. Then Sowell gets up in his ninth and misses a ten pin. I thought we might win after all!

I knew I had to strike out in the tenth, but only managed a spare and strike. Sowell had already struck out for 267. I finished with a 221. Now it was Jerry’s turn.

Again, if he strikes out we win. He leaves a ten pin. The place went dead silent. Then out of nowhere, a spectator yelled out: “JERRY HAS TO MAKE THE TEN PIN TO WIN”. Jerry flinched, moved forward, and yanked his right arm to the right. The ball was in the channel before it could hit the arrows.

It was the worst ten pin shot I ever saw by a scratch bowler. Jerry was about to kill someone. We both thought that shot cost us $500 each. Wait a minute. Before Boucher bowled his tenth, he asked the crowd to tally the score and tell him what he needed to win the match. THERESE LLOYD called out: “You need two strikes and five pins”. Now I knew we were losing. I’ve been on this path before.

Boucher’s first ball was perfect. His second ball was perfect. Oh my God, the ten pin stood. WE WIN! We win by four pins. “WE ARE THE CHAMPIONS... WE ARE THE CHAMPIONS... OF THE WORLD.” Well, maybe we are only the champions of our world, but that’s okay.

GARDEN GROVE — Week two of the Las Vegas Travel League was hosted by AMF Valley View Lanes. The league welcomed a couple new bowlers: Cathy Wyatt and Ora McCormick.

Today’s scoring leader was Doris Lewis who quickly adjusted to the lanes with 210 and 203 games resulting in a very nice 609 series. Nine additional bowlers who adapted well to Valley View lane conditions were: Maxx Paul with a 202-561, Virginia Gray 203-549, Joan Roper 524, Cathy Wyatt 518, Bernice Bennett 222-517, Kim Cato 206-514, Darlene Hom 506, Mary Dixon 502 and Pearlie Watts 203. Very nice bowling ladies.

As promised, here are the results of week one bowling. Three teams successfully swept their series at Cal Bowl with three games each: Cal Bowl 2, Keystone Lanes 2, and Cerritos Lanes 2. Following closely behind were four teams with 2 wins each: Westminster Lanes 2, Del Rio Lanes 2 (also known as Bowling News), Fountain Bowl 1 and Cal Bowl 1. Four teams rounded the week with one win each: Del Rio Lanes 1, Cerritos Lanes 1, Keystone Lanes 1 and Westminster Lanes 2.

Week two resulted in two teams topping the leader board with five wins each: Cerritos Lanes 2 and Del Rio Lanes 2 (Bowling News). Running a close 2nd with four wins each are Cal Bowl 2, Westminster 1 and Fountain Bowl 1.

Five teams tied in third position with three games each were: Keystone Lanes 2, Cal Bowl 1, Westminster Lanes 2, Cerritos Lanes 1, and Keystone Lanes 1. Still tightly grouped were two teams with two wins; Del Rio Lanes 1, Valley View Lanes 2 and two teams with one win each: Valley View Lanes 1 and Fountain Bowl 2. Stay tuned as standings can change quickly as the Travel League visits each different bowling center and our ladies test their skills adjusting to lane conditions.

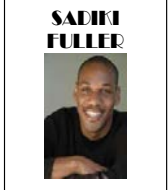

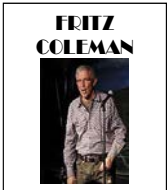

Not to be forgotten are the ladies who traveled this year to the USBC Women’s National Tournament in Syracuse. The checks have been arriving and I am happy to say that 17 of 20 ladies who traveled in my group received checks. Special congratulations to Ana Fukuchi who placed 9th out of 12,645 entries in the Ruby Division All Events. Congratulations to all of you ladies who attended this years nationals and cashed!

Monday August 29 bowling will be at 10:30 AM at Del Rio Lanes. Bowling center address and phone # is on your schedule.

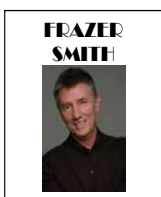

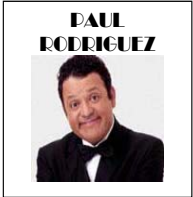

Please note time difference for Del Rio Lanes.

BRENT BRINGS IT, BURNS THE BOARDS AND BAGS TOP BILLING IN ROCKY MARSH TRIOS

by Joy McGregor

ANAHEIM — Terry Brent, always in contention and to-days “Top Dawg”, did what he does best. And what is that pray tell? Well, anyone who knows Terry, knows that bowling IS his baliwick and showed us all just why on Friday. Terry stroked 223-268 & 267 for 758 and added a 225 to boast a league-leading set at 983. Well done, my friend!

Jon Diso, right on Terry's heels, turned in another stellar performance. Jon tossed 279-266 & 189 for 734 and added 247 to post 981.

John Conway is still showin' off and doin' things HIS way. John hits his mark on games of 259-219 & 237 for 715 and added a 215 to register 930.

Al Lara ended the league with his first 900 of the season on solid games of 193-217-258 and 247 to join the famous Club at 915. Good job, buddy, are you still tired?

Josh Boisoineau, bowling oh-so-well these past 12 weeks, ended in fine fashion on games of 233-235-224 and 216 to register 908. Josh bowled a 11 in-a-row 297 game last Friday and has upped his summer average 17 pins. Not too shabby!

More HOT scores: Willy Bordenave 268-(701)-898, Aaron Wilson 232-897, Don Gut-Omen 259-896, Don Lorentzen 259-894, Rich Heid 223-881, Bo Vrabel 235-871, Norm Walker 235-868, Kantral Williams 244-848, Chris Allen 246-848, Mark Allen 237-847, Dick McKenzie 220-832, James Blythe 236-828, Alan Bloom 216-826, Orlando Vanegas 215-814, Steve Basdakiss 221-812, Tony Chaco 216-811, Frank Bellinder 211-811, Melissa Fan 245-801, Shawn St. Andre 243, Shig Shoji 242, Anderson Alcaraz 241, John Phillips 236, Ron Douglass 228, David McNauaght 226, Sandy Magana 225, Rose Williams 225, Bob Gosnell 224, Chuck Morrissey 219, Nancy Smith 215, Nicole Evans 205, Dora Miller 201, Ron Marcus 201, Marie Barbush 201 and Rey Ortiz 200.

Next week is sweeps and so with my final article of the season, we will announce and congratulate all the season winners, hand out monies to the lucky sweep winners and crown our team champs. Lots of awards to present and a delicious luncheon provided by Linbrook to look forward to. I'm going to start meditating and maybe, 'medicating' too, whatever might aid me in grabbing a piece of the pie! Until next week...
