TERRY HODGSON

The Intelligent Bowler

by Frank Weiler

SAN BERNARDINO — I am told that the American public thinks of bowling as a blue collar sport. A sport whose participants are primarily construction workers, truckers, party girls and a colorful assortment of other yahoos.

To some extent this picture is accurate but who cares. As a country boy myself I enjoy mixing with my own and I know that JESUS the carpenter would have been a bowler.

So what does that have to do with Terry Hodgson? Do you think I'm saying Terry is country? NO I'm not. Do you think I'm saying Terry is a trucker or maybe a biker? NO I'm not. Do you think....? NO, NO, NO!

What I'm talking about is that Terry Hodgson is a bowler and a very smart guy to boot. His IQ is rumored to be north of 140! Dear friends, that is GENIUS level and I repeat: "Terry is a bowler". By the way, while most bowlers are not super intelligent like Terry they are darn smart.

Besides being smart Terry is a darn good bowler. He has been bowling his entire life, 60 of his 67 years. Oh what a sport is bowling. A sport which allows anyone a chance to participate for 60 years. I wonder if anyone has ever bowled for 100 years? I know that there have been 100 year old bowlers but have any of them actually bowled for 100 years?

I DIGRESS. As I said, Terry is one heck of a bowler. He rolled his first bowling ball in his uncle's South Euclid Bowl in South Euclid, Ohio. As everyone knows South Euclid is near CLEVELAND - the home

Team USA Wins Team, Sweeps All-Events at PABCON

CALI, Colombia — Team USA dominated the field to win the team gold medal, swept the all-events medals and qualified for the 2015 Pan American Games on Tuesday in an eventful day at the 2014 Pan American Bowling Confederation Women's Championships.

Team USA took the lead by nearly 150 pins after the first game of team event and never looked back en route to a record-breaking six-game total of 6,738 at the Cali Bowling Coliseum. Canada took the silver with 6,301, and Mexico earned the bronze with 6,195.

Missy Parkin led the way for the United States with 1,452 and was followed by Liz Johnson (1,375), Kelly Kulick (1,341), Shannon O'Keefe (1,261), Shannon Pluhowsky (664) and Danielle McEwan (645).

Not only did the United States win the event by 428 pins, it also broke its own PABCON Women's Championships record of 6,713 set in 2012.

"We bowled amazing and it was just incredible," Parkin

said. "We were really good at communicating with each other and keeping up with the moves, which was important because the lanes were changing quickly."

Parkin set a record of her own as she blew past the all-events record with a 24-game total of 5,515 (229.79 average). Kulick, who won the silver with 5,426, held the previous all-events record of 5,463, set in 2008. Johnson took the bronze medal with 5,354 to complete the Team USA sweep.

The top eight players in the all-events standings advanced to Wednesday's final event, the match-play Masters. The Masters will consist of three rounds of best-of-three match play to determine the medalists.

O'Keefe qualified fourth, Clara Guerrero of Colombia was fifth, Sandra Gongora of Mexico was sixth, McEwan was seventh and Aumi Guerra of the Dominican Republic got the last spot.

Four countries qualified for the 2015 Pan American Games on Tuesday from standings based on the combined all-events of the top two bowlers from each non-qualified country.

USA Takes Gold, Silver in Trios at PABCON Women's

CALI, Colombia — In a tight race to the finish, Team USA earned the gold and silver medals in the trios event Monday at the 2014 Pan American Bowling Confederation Women's Championships.

Team USA's Shannon O'Keefe, Danielle McEwan and Missy Parkin combined to shoot 3,885 to capture the gold medal at the Cali Bowling Coliseum. Teammates Liz Johnson, Shannon Pluhowsky and Kelly Kulick took the silver with 3,860.

Host Colombia finished 26 pins out of first and one pin out of second with 3,859 in what was a close battle until the final frame of the six-game event.

O'Keefe led the way for her trios team with a 1,400 total, while McEwan shot 1,260 and Parkin added 1,225.

"We feel really good about what we accomplished tonight and now we are ready to jump right into the team event tomorrow and win gold again," O'Keefe said. "Our looks are getting better each day, and we

Many a mother worries if her youngster seems too interested in a sport, be it football, baseball, field hockey or bowling.

She may rightfully feel that a sport could have a distracting influence on the youngster when he or she should be concentrating on the basics of education. There's little need for concern, if the sport is bowling.

If boys and girls are bowling enthusiasts, they must learn the scoring and mathematics necessary. The math end needs close attention, and it can become a bit complicated when the youngster gets involved with averages, high games, high series, point systems and the many other statistics connected with bowling. In addition, they learn to count quickly and true, just to make sure opponents are doing it properly.

So, to keep their place as young bowling experts, they must pay heed to math.

They want to be able to decipher entry blanks and rule books, and they want to read the accounts of leagues and tournaments and the exploits of their bowling heroes in newspapers, bowling publications and magazines, so they have more concern for reading. Whether they know it or not, they become better readers, and more acquainted with words.

They learn how to win, how to lose, how to organize, how important team efforts are, and how it is just as important to be an individual. And they learn that, sometimes all too painfully, and they learn without undue pressure on them.

Boys and girls interested in bowling can't bowl all they want since most allowances won't stretch that far. Many become a little more eager to do some extra chores around the house to earn some extra money to bowl some extra games.

Some take on a part-time job, and many keep score at tournaments. There, mothers have little to fear, a bowling center is a good place for a youngster to be.

A FATHER'S DREAM!!!

NORWALK — In the late 1960s I started my love with Keystone Lanes. As a young girl my older brother introduced my twin and I to bowling. Throughout the years we went through the Juniors program. In 1978 I joined my first adult bowling league. In 1986, while bowling, I met the love of my life Richard. Two years later we married. We joined the Paint Manufactures in 1990, a Las Vegas league.

Three years later we had two children. They grew up in the bowling alley. When my son was about four years old he told His daddy "when Melissa and I get older Dad we're going to bowl on your team and win." They now had the bowling bug. Throughout the years my children spent almost every Saturday in Juniors bowling. Never forgetting the dream they shared with their dad. So in 2014 Melissa finally turned 21 and the team was made. A father and his 2 kids and a good friend made up the team called Find A Way. They bowled the eight-month long season.

Well, we went to Las Vegas and they won first place! It was so moving to see Richard and his children fulfill a dream. The kids are all grown up one married with a daughter. They still all bowl two nights a week together. It's the highlight of our week! Thank you Keystone Lanes!

Sincerely, Michelle, Richard, John, Melissa

Team USA's Missy Parkin, Kelly Kulick Shatter PABCON Women's Doubles Record

CALI, Colombia — Another record was broken at the 2014 Pan American Bowling Confederation Women's Championships as Team USA's Missy Parkin and Kelly Kulick shot 2,861 (238.42 average) to win the Doubles gold medal.

Parkin put together a six-game total of 1,498, while Kulick added 1,363, as the pair rolled to the title at the Cali Bowling Coliseum. Aruba's Kamilah Dammers and Thashaina Seraus won the silver, while Team USA's Shannon O'Keefe and Danielle McEwan took the bronze.

It was a stellar day for Parkin as she had games of 217, 296, 247, 225, 279 and 234 to average 249.67. Kulick fired games of 222, 258, 193, 204, 251 and 235 on the 47-foot Paris pattern, the longest pattern from the World Bowling bank of lane conditioning patterns.

"I thought I might have some issues on the long pattern, so I'm really happy with how we both performed," said Parkin, who helped the pair break the record of 2,780 set by Kulick and Shannon Pluhowsky in 2010.

"I was excited to bowl doubles again with Kelly because last time we bowled together at the World Championships in doubles we got silver. This time we got the gold."

Aruba set the score to beat on the first squad Sunday only to see Parkin and Kulick blast past it. The Arubans totaled 2,754 with Dammers shooting 1,461 and Seraus adding 1,293. It's the first medal in PABCON Women's Championships history for the island nation.

O'Keefe totaled 1,399, while McEwan shot 1,280 to earn the bronze medal with 2,679. The third Team USA doubles pair of Shannon Pluhowsky and Liz Johnson finished seventh with 2,559.

WINNETKA BOWL SET TO ROLL INTO SEPTEMBER LEAGUES

WINNETKA — It's been a busy summer at Winnetka Bowl, where the 56-year-old center has cast off its previous image as Canoga Park Bowl and expanded into what might be called Winnetka Commons.

Complete with its Best Western Hotel, Winnetka Center, Lane 33 and the remodeled Village Cafe restaurant, the complex has been reinvigorated with a $1.5 million expansion emblazoned with new signage.

Now with fall upon us, proprietor Rickey Gelb has announced a full schedule of bowling leagues to kick off the September action at the 32-lane center located at Winnetka and Vanowen.

There's the 49ers, Monday Nite Madness and River Maniacs on Mondays, Ladies Travel and Comedians on Tuesdays, Fun-timers, Mixed 5, Copper Bucket and Sport Singles on Wednesdays, 500 Classic, 39ers, Classics and Thirsty Nite Out on Thursdays, SFVCC Nikkei on Fridays, 8 for 8 and Junior Royals on Saturdays and Phil-Am and Van Nuys Eagles on Sundays.

"There's something for everybody," says General Manager Mike Willis. Also there's a new Civic, courtesy of Kolbe Honda up for grabs for league bowlers and tournament qualifiers once a month in a year-long contest.

League information can be obtained by calling Willis at (818) 340-5190.

The most worthwhile project each year is the B.V.L. Tournament. B.V.L means Bowlers to Veterans Link and each year the bowlers of America bowl in tournaments to raise funds for the Hospitalized Veterans. Through your participation and donations, we can help to provide the things to make the hours spent in the hospitals a little more pleasant, because they know "Somebody Cares".

The Perfect Game

by Steve Felege

Author of Bowlings Best Seller: “The Essentials of Bowling”

Carol: Happy Anniversary Stevie!

Steve: What?

Carol: It’s been three years since we started this column.

Steve: Wow! It seems a lot longer than that. Do you remember when we were flooded with emails?

Carol: Not really.....I only told you that to make you feel important.

Steve: Really?

Carol: Never mind, but do you remember that guy who sent a letter asking us to get a national championship started?

Steve: Oh, yeah! Didn’t he send us another letter last year?

Carol: Uh-huh, and guess what.

Steve: Don’t tell me.....he sent another one?

Carol: Yep! Right on schedule!

Steve: Well you’ve got to give him credit; he’s persistent!

Carol: He’s more than persistent, Steve. He’s becoming downright insistent!

Steve: Why do you say that?

Carol: Just read this year’s letter. Here.....

Steve: Ahem. “hey! another year has come and gone already and I still don’t see no national champs being mentioned in the bowling news! what gives? doesn’t anyone give a hoot but me? sincerely yours, (name withheld), san bernardino, ca”

Carol: Any thoughts?

Steve: Yeah, the “caps” key on his computer isn’t working.

Carol: That’s not what I meant!

Steve: I know. Look, we’ve covered this topic before and the establishment hasn’t picked up on it.

Carol: So you think we should just give up on the idea?

Steve: Absolutely! Bowlers don’t deserve a “Super Bowl” or a “World Series.” The sport has been taken over by elites who believe they own every aspect of the game, and the majority of bowlers are okay with that.

Carol: Are you being serious?

Steve: Well.....no.

Carol: You have a plan. Don’t you?

Steve: Actually, I have several.

Carol: Really?! Well, let’s hear them!!!!

Dean: WE ONLY HAVE ROOM FOR ONE! I HAVE SPACE RESTRICTIONS!!! REMEMBER? CRIPES!!!!

Carol: Fine! Okay Stevie, you heard the man! Give me your favorite one.

Steve: Okay, but you’re not going to like it.

Carol: Are you kidding me? If it gets a national championship debate started, I’ll love it!

Steve: Your readers won’t like it.

Carol: GIVE!

Steve: Okay, here goes. “By the powers vested in me by the bowling press (you keep publishing this column), and as a duly certified sponsoring member of the CBW (I paid my dues for the year), certified coach, former bowler, and owner of more than one bowling ball, I hereby declare the City of Erie, PA to be the first to bear the title of “National Bowling Champions of the United States of America”!

Carol: What?!

Steve: You heard me. I declare Erie, PA to be the first “National Champions” of bowling.

Carol: I don’t get it!

Steve: Look, there is no format for a team, or individual, to establish themselves as the premier bowlers in the United States, so the title must be conferred upon a city.

Carol: Do you mean like Seattle is the world champions of football, or Boston is baseball’s world champs?

Steve: Exactly!

Carol: News flash: IT’S NOT THE SAME THING!

Steve: Why not? Since the powers-that-be can’t seem to make it happen, I will! Because I say so, Erie is the bowling capital of the world!

Carol: I beg to differ. I think L.A. is.

Steve: Too late! I’ve already bestowed the title upon Erie!

Carol: Based on what?!

Steve: The caliber of bowlers here.

Carol: Ours are better!

Steve: Erie’s a small city but can put together a team no other city can match.....including L.A!

Carol: Really?!

Steve: Sure, just look at all the professional bowling champions who live here. For instance, we have Ron Palombi, Jr.

Carol: We have Mark Baker.

Steve: We have Mike Machuga, Bob Learn, and Mike Shady.

Carol: Well, we have.....uhhhhhh, hey, Dean! Who are the other titled pros that live around here?

Dean: Leave me out of this!

Carol: All right, so you have a lot of pros! So what! This town could still put together a team that could kick Erie’s butt!

Steve: Well, put that team together and bring ‘em here. If they win, they become the national champs. If they don’t, Erie remains The Champions of the Known Bowling Universe.

Carol: Who’s going to pay for all this?

Steve: I don’t know and I don’t care. Your e-mailer wanted a national champion and we just established one. Maybe he’d be willing to pony up a couple bucks to take up the challenge.

Carol: And who’s supposed to coordinate all this?

Steve: If anyone is serious about taking up the challenge I just issued, they can call Karen or Nancy at Eastway Lanes, here in Erie, PA. For years they hosted the most popular stop on the PBA tour. In fact, they were the reason the stadium-style format exists today.

Carol: Steve, you’re a trouble-maker!

Steve: I’ve been called worse<->-)

BURBANK – This past weekend, I had the great pleasure (and pain) of bowling the NLAC Senior Tournament. As I struggled through a very bad set of three games, I found myself comparing the experience of tournament bowling to bowling league.

A feeling of excitement accompanies the tournament play that is not evident in bowling league. Brackets are usually offered as well as side pots and that ups the ante for one’s competitive nature. In the same vein, we bowl with people we don’t necessarily know well, if at all, and the smell of fresh blood is in the air.

The opportunity to show off and best a fellow bowler’s score is irresistible. I say this with fondness since I realize that I too, look like a porterhouse to everyone else! A huge part of my personal excitement is meeting bowlers from other bowling centers than my own. My pair of lanes had seven bowlers from four different centers in four different cities. How cool is that? I happened to be the only female of the group and while that has benefits it also has humorous pitfalls.

For example, before we actually started practice, we were all kind of standing around and one of the male bowlers turns to me and says, “Are you our score monitor?” I replied rather curtly that no, I was a bowler. I had to laugh to myself thinking apparently female bowlers really hadn’t made as much advancement in equality as we may have thought.

All this being said, I highly recommend the occasional tournament for all bowlers. Bowling your league is like visiting family while bowling tournament is like going on a journey to another country. Be adventurous, take a vacation!

of Rock and Roll (per Huey Lewis and the News), the home of the Browns, Indians and LeBron.

That first ball was rolled in 1954. Since then Terry has rolled fifteen perfect games and three 800s, with a high of 808. He has been averaging a deuce for years with a high book of 221. He is currently averaging 214. REPEAT AFTER ME: “Terry is a damn good bowler”.

Before retiring Mr. Hodgson’s career took him to varied parts of the USA and saw him develop into a Telecommunications expert. He knows computers, iphones and ipads. He knows software, passwords and coding. REPEAT AFTER ME: “Terry is a damn smart guy”.

Speaking of smarts, let me give you some examples of Terry’s ENCYCLOPEDIC EXPERTISE:

Can you calculate the square root of the earth’s circumference in less than ten seconds? TERRY CAN.

Do you know the average temperature of Saturn’s surface at sunset? TERRY DOES.

Can you calculate the softness of a bowling ball? TERRY CAN.

Do you know the speed at which a salmon must swim upstream, in the Columbia River, to successfully reach it’s spawning grounds? TERRY DOES.

Now you know why I say Terry is darn smart and a darn good bowler. He knows a lot, he bowls a lot, he’s a darn good friend.

Hard to beat the Pros!

by Randy Myers

DOWNEY — Four weeks down, and it appears if Billy Myers Jr & Co. will be tough to beat. Another 4-1 win last night over Team 15 has them sitting on top of the standings at 18-2, one game ahead of Team 12 who they will face next week. Frank “Bad A**” Barefoot 278/744 & Billy 269/718 led the Professional Approach quartet while the other Jr., Leonard Ruiz 260/743 & Ramon Torres 259/676 were tops for Team 15.

The next pair had Team 12 use an all out attack to take down Bowlium who struggled all night to keep pace, as they blasted them 5-0. Three of four bowlers broke 700, & the 4th would have led Bowlium. Can you say DOMINATE? Jeff Carr 289/710, Ashkan Tahvildaran 276/723, and Sam Hitchcock 269/747 bombed their way to a Season High 2838 team series. Eric Snow 279/259/698 & Paul Varela 667 helped Team 10 stay in contention as they overcame a Game 1 loss to defeat Team 15 4-1. Dr. Lee completed his rounds with 257/715 to smoke the rest of the pair. Team 16 came out ready with a 1017 Game 1 to take down Team 7 4-1 and move into a 4th place tie. It was Charles in Charge, as Mr. Zelaya 276/722 with help from Herbert Jones 679 and Arnold Cheesman 675 were better than Team 7’s Kurt Arakaki 689 & Anthony Santos 681.

It was a 7 fest on 19 & 20 as both teams had two bowlers break that barrier. Charlie Kinstler 279/764 & Gabriel Martnez 286/724 had the bigger sets to lead SYSCO’s 4-1 defeat of Team 6 who were led by Mason Sherman 719 & Jon Diso 278/711.

Team 13 won a close match over Team 2 4-1 as Matt Mosley 722, Matt Schermerhorn 278/695 and Steve “Never” Boring 268/710 were on it all night. Kevin Too Tall Jones 268/722 & Miguel Garcia 259/747 could only muster 1 win for Team 2. Vernon Adams 268/734 along with Brian Gonzales 710 got Team 23 back to winning with a 4-1 defeat of Team 17. Tianna Tipton looked hot all night with 673, but couldn’t get any help from her boys til the last game. In one of the few sweeps, J.A.T.

soured the night for Blizz Berry as Barry Couch Jr. 268/723 DeeRonn Booker 259/704 David Mr 273 Yamauchi with 693 took care of business. Super Sub Ramiro got no help from the regulars but continued his hot bowling with 714. Team 11 overcame yet another 1st game loss to come back and win 4 points on the night, as Albert Chen 724 & Mike Jennings 266/707 led the way, while Team 9 was paced by Mr Every Even Week, Spanky Rosales and his 704. Team 8 nearly doubled their win total as they were anything but friendly the first two games with the Buddy Lucas led Team 5. Team 8 won 4-1 as Justin Ziegler 707 & James Doty 280/679 bowled well, while Buddy, who shot 300/279 earlier in the Baker, continued his hot bowling 705. Team 20 finally put together a good night as they shot great to win 5-0. Led by the League’s Top Scorer, Doug Kempt with 289/768 they swept away their opponents, as the bowling Abahazy’s aided the win with Mr. & Mrs. finishing with 715 & 660 respectively.

Sidepot winners were Game 1 Gabriel Martinez 286 Game 2 Doug Kempt 289 and 3rd Game Super Pot also to Mr. Doug Kempt with 247. The Financial Advisor’s 2nd game pot went to Doug Kempt with his 289 ($240) & Jon Diso stormed his way to 2nd place money ($100) with a 278.

Next week the top match will again feature Professional Approach for the Round lead, and hopefully for the rest of us, Team 12 can garner more than 1 win vs them, a feat yet achieved this season. We do have position round EVERY week here, makes for some of the best bowling around. With so many talented bowlers here, I can’t believe nobody has managed to shoot 300, so if you have never witnessed one, come down, the bar help is hot, and the beer is cold!! And I will be surprised if we don’t get that first perfect game. Have a blessed week everyone; see you next Monday at Del Rio Lanes in Downey!
