Danny Ontiveros

TORRANCE — Danny Ontiveros Jr. passed away unexpectedly on September 21, 2013 at the age of 38, after losing his four day battle to regain consciousness subsequent to a seizure and massive coronary.

Danny started bowling at the age of 8 at Clark Center Lanes. Over the years, he had racked up more than 30 sanctioned perfect games and countless 800 series, the highest of which was 867. He competed in the Junior Amateur Tour, the Greater Los Angeles Jr. All Stars, as well as in leagues at Moreno Valley Bowl, Forest Lanes, Saddleback Lanes, Fountain Bowl, Paradise Lanes, Del Rio Lanes, and most recently at Palos Verdes Bowl, where he was a manager and operated the pro shop.

Not only was Danny an accomplished bowler, he was also highly involved with his son, Ryan's activities, and served as a little league manager in Torrance Little League; a volunteer coach with the South Bay Surf travel ball 8U team Ryan plays on; and even as the basketball coach for the Howard Wood K-2 basketball teams. In addition to coaching, Danny played co-ed softball on the Springfield Isotopes of Torrance at Wilson Park (the team name a play on his favorite team the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim), as well as with the Hurricanes at Alta Vista Park.

Recently, Danny had become the number one fan of Aimee's Celtic band, Craic in the Stone, and had even started teaching himself the guitar, so he could play along with their debut album. He had managed to get the chords to his favorite song Zombie down, and was starting to learn Chasing Cars, just because it was on youtube and seemed easy to him.

Danny leaves behind his beloved Ryan and Aimee; parents Danny Sr. and Roberta; siblings, Nani, Marcus, Dillon and Katie; and many other close family members.

The viewing will be Thursday, October 3 from 6-8 pm in the Green Hills Memorial Chapel at 27501 S. Western, Rancho Palos Verdes, 90275. Services will be Friday, October 4 at 11 am, in the same chapel, followed by interment. Reception to follow at Palos Verdes Bowl 24600 Crenshaw Blvd, Torrance, 90505.

Some of Danny's close friends are planning an event to be held Sunday, October 20 at Palos Verdes Bowl. For more info call Charlotte or Chris at 310.326.5120.

A college savings fund has been established for Danny's 8-year-old son, Ryan, at <http://gradsave.com/ryanontiveros>. Cards can be mailed to Palos Verdes Bowl. Call or text Aimee for any additional information 310.892.1925.

Bowling is Back in Barstow

by Randy Gulley

BARSTOW — On September 27, 2013, bowling returned to Barstow after being closed since December 2011. Three So Cal natives and avid bowlers, Alex Hernandez, Bonnie Launder-Hernandez and Paula Vidad officially became proprietors and opened their doors to Revolutions Barstow Bowl at 3pm.

The 24 wood lane center has an "old school" feel, but upgrades to the Route 66 Bar & Grill give it a modern sports bar atmosphere with 13 big screen TV's, large projector screen, 3 pool tables, electronic dart board and 3 reclining lounge chairs with 6 personal TV's. The bar also offers Directv NFL Sunday Ticket to watch all the professional football games.

A full service Pro Shop now replaces the arcade redemption center. Owner Ed Hanson has over 15+ years experience and spent 10 of those years at Victor Bowl in Victorville, CA. He has an full array of bowling balls, bags, shoes and accessories available. A 10% discount is being offered through Oct. 11th.

Alex was very positive about getting this center up and going so that the Barstow and Fort Irwin personnel have a place to come to and relax.

Paula Vidad is the General Managing Partner since Alex and Bonnie still have full-time jobs.

Paula founded the Women's Bowling Alliance which offers tournaments for scratch women bowlers other than the major tourneys. She is on DV8 Regional Pro Staff and recently won the 2013 Senior U.S. Women's Open and 8 Senior Gold Medals for Team USA at the Tournament of the Americas. I know with these three running the center you can expect the best customer service possible. Their motto is "Owned by Bowlers, for Bowlers."

The Grand Opening is set for Sat., Oct. 12th from 10am-2am with lots of food, fun, prizes & giveaways and a 4-person No-Tap tournament. Leagues are currently forming and start within the next few weeks.

For more information call 760.256.8676 or visit www.BarstowBowl.com Hours are Monday 12pm-10pm, Closed Tuesday & Wednesday, Thursday 3pm-10pm, Friday 3pm-2am, Saturday 10am-2am and Sunday 10am-10pm.

TOBY LEE is Back - Better Than Before

by Frank Weiler

REDLANDS — Sometimes you reach the top of a mountain and there is nothing left to do but step away and start climbing another mountain. Sometimes a person steps away from bowling to conquer other worlds, sometimes one steps away for family reasons, sometimes for personal reasons and sometimes for no reason at all. A few years ago Toby Lee stepped away from bowling while at the top of his game.

NATIONAL DEAF BOWLING NEWS

by Connie Marchione

DEAF TOURNAMENTS SCHEDULE SHOWS TWO SENIOR EVENTS ON SAME DATES

LAS VEGAS — When I received the latest Deaf Bowling Classics and Tournaments Schedule by email from Walter Niesluchowski, I noticed that there is a new 1st annual Deaf Senior Bowling Tournament starting this October in Maryland. That is right along with Deaf Senior Bowlers of America (DSBA) 17th annual Tournament this October 15-17 in Las Vegas.

Why two tournaments in the same month for the deaf seniors to choose?

Apparently, as DSBA is a fixture bowling annually in Las Vegas at The Orleans Hotel Bowling Center, many Eastern senior bowlers want to bowl but disliked going to Las Vegas each year. It cost them more money to fly there and too far to drive.

While DSBA in as early as last November made it's October 15-17 dates known, the new group should show its respect to the older group by selecting different dates. There are some senior bowlers who would be happy to enter both tournaments even if scheduled a month or so apart.

As I do not have the new group's flyer, so its rules and format may be different than DSBA.

Therefore I contacted DSBA Secretary-Treasurer Ed Abakumoff who also did not have a flyer. Abakumoff is curious because he would enter in the new tournament if it were on different date.

After I told him that I would miss bowling this year in Las Vegas because of family plans on that week. That would be my second time in 17 years.

Abakumoff announced that DSBA has 75 senior entries in this October tournament and needs one more senior for doubles. He also said that someone informed him that the new senior group has 90 entries. Not surprising because there are lots of deaf senior bowlers in both central and eastern sections of US.

This column would like to have the results of the tournament and hope to obtain to get them.

New Bowler's Warm Up Tool Improves Your Swing and Your Average

NORWALK — Bowling Buddy gets you going in the right direction with the right tempo In baseball you see hitters in the on deck circle swing the bat with a weight collar attached. In golf, players often swing two clubs to warm up or use a smaller collar on their driver. Now bowling has its own unique warm up tool – Eileen’s Bowling Buddy.

The Bowling Buddy is an easy to use and easy to perfect swing product that gets any bowler, regardless of size or ability, into the perfect rhythm and tempo before any casual outing, practice session, or serious competition. It will help anyone get warmed up and ready to play at their best level. Put simply, Bowling Buddy helps bowlers learn proper timing, a leveraged swing plane, and a feel that develops muscle memory.

The dynamic new product is enthusiastically endorsed by Collegiate National Champion, Team USA Star and Teen Masters Champion Ashly Galante and many other top bowlers as it is making its way into pro shops and coaching programs everywhere.

“I love the Bowling Buddy”, said Galante. “You can use it at home while you are working out, or at the center to warm up before a league or tournament. It teaches your arm and body the way the swing is supposed to feel, and I have not seen anything else that does that. I don’t hesitate to recommend it to anyone including the students I teach.” Other professionals using and praising the product are Gold Coach Ron Hoppe, Gold Medalist Lucy Sandelin, and PBA star Ryan Ciminelli.

Eileen’s Bowling Buddy was developed by bowler and company founder Rex Byron about three years ago, and after extensive testing and more than 20 prototypes, it is ready for the bowling marketplace. Byron’s mom Eileen was the inspiration for the product, and for his wife Sandy, it has become a full time job with marketing, order taking and shipping. Both Rex and Sandy are passionate about the sport.

“It is the type of product that you must try yourself to see the benefits and potential,” said Byron. “After testing it with hundreds of bowlers on all levels, we believe we have the most unique, simple and productive bowling and coaching tool ever created. It works for kids to develop the proper swing, for seniors trying to warm up safely and improve, and for pros trying to fine tune parts of their swing.

Eileen’s Bowling Buddy comes in four sizes and two different models. Extensive information, testimonials, and order instructions can be found on the website www.eileensbowlingbuddy.com.

stepped away but it was from bowling’s Olympus. He stepped away after booking 230, rolling numerous perfect games and multiple 800s. I guess he found himself with nothing more to bowl for. He stepped away with no regrets.

Now, TOBY IS BACK. Toby came back about a year ago not knowing if he would land on his feet or on his “ash.” Friends, Toby not only landed on his feet he landed on his feet running at full speed.

Since coming back Toby has rolled an incredible seven perfect games in the last ten months. Even more incredible is that he only bowled in one league during the past ten months. I REPEAT, seven perfect games in ten months in one league.

Not long ago Toby joined a second league, the monthly Men’s Club.

After twelve games competing against the men he is averaging 245. It was in the Men’s Club that Toby recently finished off a string of thirty-two consecutive strikes. The string started when he finished his Friday Laughlin League with games of 246 and 300 and 18 in a row. On the following Sunday morning he started with 14 strikes for games of 300 and 225. His string was just seven short of MATT MURTISHAW’S Citrus Belt record 39 in a row.

I watched Toby finish seventh at the Citrus Belt Masters Tournament a few months ago. He bowled with the determination, focus and the power of a young MARK ROTH. By the way, Toby’s all-time favorite PBA star just happens to be Mr. Roth.

TOBY IS BACK, better than before.

Toby is happy to be back and grateful to his lovely wife ERIKA for her encouragement. He is also thankful that his brother JEREMY and sister-in-law KRISTI paved the way for his comeback. My thanks to the BOWLING NEWS for recognizing Citrus Belt bowlers.

The Lady is a Champ - Gina Velarde Wins 2nd ABTA Title
All Pots Carry Over-- MATCH GAME - 180, MATCH SERIES - 409
This week we are hosted by CAL BOWL:
MAX POTS Match Series at $5,000 and 3-6-9 $3,000! Est Match Game at $3,600

FONTANA — Foothill Lanes was our host and a lighter turnout this week as we had 147 entries with 39 bowlers advancing to semi finals. All are guaranteed to cash a minimum equivalent to their entry and win $1000 up to $2,900 1st Place. Cut scores were +100 for the men and +31 for the women. Super Seniors added were Rey Varela (+82) and Lonzell Burnett +75 for the men, and Imelda Ahorro 0 for the women.

High qualifiers for the weekend were Tres Catalasan +188 for the men and Wendy Soo Hoo with a +110 for the women. They each get a paid entry to a future ABTA regular event. Top qualifier gets the privilege of drawing for the Match Series and Tres drew the surprisingly unmatched 409 series. This brings our estimated Match Series carry-over to our MAX $5,000.

Greg Kokanour and Marvin Crowder took the top spot in our OPTIONAL DOUBLES with their 1498 for $110. One pin behind was Don Quitangon and Anthony Ta's 1497 for $90. Total doubles payout was $950 for 21 spots with a low to cash score of 1418.

From the 39 semifinals qualifiers, Thomas Licauco was a runaway with his +191. Closest to follow was Kmel Cunanan with +146. Kmel will sit out the first round while Thomas relaxes for the title match. Top seed gets the honor of drawing for Match Game. Thomas drew the unbelievably unmatched 180 game. Our Match Game fund carries over to Cal Bowl next weekend at an estimated $3,600. Our optional 3-6-9 MAXED at $3,000 also carries over to Cal Bowl. Last man standing Randy Sanicolas wins the $50 consolation prize.

The ladies were looking mighty fine during the semis as cut scores of +75 for the men and +63 for the women were needed to make the top 16 Match Play Finals. Eliminated after the first round and getting $100 each were consolation prize. Michael Kong, Justin Ziegler, Don Quitangon, Natalie Perenishko, Tres Catalasan, Rey Josafat Jr., and Imelda Ahorro. Taking home $105 each after losing the second round were Kmel Cunanan, Shed Smith, Will Samson, and William Garrett.

This brings us to our HORSE pick finalists. Pay-outs were $27 for heavily picked Gerald Baker, $55 for Michael Zhang, $75 for Greg Kokanour, and $107 for the only rose among the thorns, Ginalynn Velarde. It was a close match between Greg and Michael but the latter finished stronger with 243/226. On the other hand, Gerald can't get a break while Gina "can't do no wrong". It was a 'no contest' with scores of 280/218. Gerald and Greg finished 4th and 5th, taking home $110 each. Time to decide who the HORSE winner will be. Both bowlers were focused and consistent with their games. Michael missed a 5-pin spare on the 4th frame after throwing a 3-bagger. Gina threw a 6-bagger after a spare on the 1st frame. Michael needed to punch out his last 2 frames in order to get a fighting chance but lady luck wasn't on his side. Gina finished at 259 against Michael's 252. At 3rd place and taking home $200 was likeable Michael Zhang.

Our HORSE winner and advancing to the title match was momma Ginalynn Velarde! She faced top seed Thomas Licauco for the title. It was déjà vu as Gina throws a 5-bagger against Thomas' strike-or-miss game. Thomas couldn't match Gina's fire and finished 2nd with his 215 game for $500. Gina did not need lady luck's help as her game was spot on as she secured her 2nd ABTA Title with her 247 game.

She took home a total of $1,625 which includes $425 from the optional Cash & Carry, $100 for wearing her ABTA shirt and another $100 for using her Global 900 ball during the title match on top of the guaranteed $1,000 prize fund.

Fifth Consecutive Year of Increased BVL Contributions

by Phyl Knoll

NORWALK — “Thanks to several significant contributions from major industry partners, increasing participation from bowling proprietors, and the addition of new associations, The BVL realized an upturn in total donations for the recently-concluded fiscal year – rising from approximately $796,000 in the 11-12 season to $843,000 in the 12-13 season. This marks the fifth consecutive year of growth for the sport of bowling’s oldest and most successful charity.”

“We truly benefited by the outstanding support of three key industry players”, explained USBC BVL Board Chair Darlene Baker. “With the wonderful contribution from the Billiard and Bowling Institute of America $27,000; and a generous gift from Bowling Business Builders International $10,000; all our veterans programs – that help Brighten Veterans Lives – will be preserved and enhanced.”

“The Brunswick Bowl for Freedom’ campaign, which offered bowlers discounted games and contributed proceeds to BVL, created the largest increase in bowling center donations.”

“Once again, California dominated association contributions. However, two states charted a significant increase in contributions: Texas produced an 80% uptick in donations, and Michigan, adding a record 15 new contributing associations, rose 55%. New this year to the BVL roster was the state of Louisiana, bringing in $16,210.30.”

“The top ten states based on contributing associations for 2012-13 season were:

CA $129,766.33; VA $45,276.90; TX $39,928.71; MI $27,110.25; IL $26,068.83; MN $22,780.74; GA $22,312.43; OR $18,502.98; LA $16,210.30; CO $15,449.11.”

“The top ten local association donations for the 2012-13 season were: Citrus Belt USBC $23,026.87; Minneapolis USBC $15,466.87; Nation’s Capital Area USBC $15,319.00; Metro Phoenix USBC $10,300.00; Greater Houston USBC $9,296.00; Orange County USBC $9,117.58; San Diego USBC $8,800.00; Greater Sacramento Area USBC $8,000.00; Greater Atlanta USBC $7,500.00; Virginia Peninsula USBC $7,340.85” (To see the list of the top 50 states and local association contributors, visit www.BowlforVeterans.org.)

With more and more of our military returning home from deployment to the various war zone areas, ‘Lest we not forget our veterans’. Please, figure out how YOU can help raise money for your association’s BVL donation. One suggestion: encourage your league to participate in a 50-50 each week (if you already have a 50-50 drawing and say maybe have two winners per week, see if your league would be agreeable to giving half to one winner and the other half to the BVL through your secretary to the association office. If they don’t want to do it each week, try every other week or once a month. I know you’ll figure something out, so as to make a difference.

Jr. GOLD

by Stephanie Zavala

NORWALK — On Saturday September 28th Keystone Lanes began hosting a Junior Gold league, this league is for those who wish to advance their skill level and for those who wish to try and win a spot for the 2014 junior gold championships in Buffalo, New York.

It is a very rigorous tournament, and this league helps prepare talented juniors by allowing them to bowl on different patterns every two weeks with a wide variety of averages. No team is stacked and everyone has a fighting chance to win a spot and get scholarship. The league is broken up into three ten-week segments. Each segment will be a new draft to even the playing field and to give each bowler the opportunity to have a new partner. At the end of each segment the winners will be granted a spot for junior gold. They will fight for a spot on Junior Team USA, one of the most coveted of all bowling rewards.

The pattern for the first two weeks is the Bear, 40 ft. long second hardest of all the animal patterns. First round the league managed to average 150.55. We will keep you posted with the results of next week. If you wish to join us we are at Keystone Lanes. Bowling time is noon every Saturday.

The Perfect Game

by Steve Felege

In charge: Carol Mancini

Editor's Note: After taking some time off, our coach has finally returned to, "The Perfect Game" column. To show our appreciation, the CBN has welcomed him with open arms by providing lodging for him, free of charge.

Carol: Welcome back Steve! How is everything going so far?
Steve: Great, Carol!

Carol: Any complaints?
Steve: Well, your broom closet is kind of tiny, but it's warm and I have my privacy so I have no complaints. My feet are getting a little wrinkly from standing in the mop-bucket while I sleep though.

Carol: Some people are just never happy! Well, let's get to this week's column. I noticed two weeks ago that you recommended John Jowdy's book as a "must read" for any bowler seeking elite status.

Steve: I sure do! It's an incredibly informative reference source.

Carol: But since you started writing this column, you have never promoted your own book. Why? Are you afraid of being compared to John Jowdy?

Steve: Wow! That's pretty heavy, but the answer is, "No." I'm not afraid of being compared to anyone. I just don't believe in self-promotion, that's all. John and I were worlds apart. He was a professional; I'm a volunteer. He coached elite bowlers; I'm a blue-collar type of coach. I teach beginners, high school teams, and mid-level bowlers that ask for my help. While John was as advanced as a NASA scientist, I specialize in the basics.

Carol: So, if Jowdy's book is so good, why did you even bother to write The Essentials of Bowling?

Steve: Because most league bowlers have never received instruction from a certified coach. For them, reading Jowdy's book would be like someone studying theoretical physics before even taking a course in basic math.

Carol: So....your book is a primer?

Steve: Exactly. I wrote it to explain the basic bowling theory behind truly universal techniques, and to teach the reader how to think like a bowler in as brief a manual as possible. To the best of my knowledge, no other author had ever done this before. A student of the game will get a lot more out of Bowling Execution, or any other bowling book, after reading The Essentials of Bowling.

Carol: Can I ask how sales of your book are going?

Steve: Sure.....

Carol:Well?!!!

Steve: Well, what?

Carol: How are your sales going?

Steve: Oh, I thought you just wanted to know if you could ask.

Carol: Nobody likes a wise-guy, STEVIE! We could move you out of our broom closet and put you under a desk!

Dean: NOT MY DESK!!!!

Steve: Okay, I'll behave.....oy, you're a tough audience! Anyway, sales are surprising. The Essentials has registered sales in Australia, Sweden and Europe. Of course the best results have come from California and Nevada. I would like to thank your readers for that.

Carol: Go ahead.....

Steve: Go ahead.....what?

Carol: Go ahead and thank our readers!

Steve: I thought that I just did....

Carol: No, you only said that you would like to....now do it! Two can play that "wise-guy" game!

Steve: Well played, Carol! To all the loyal readers of The California Bowling News who have made The Essentials of Bowling an unqualified success, THANK YOU!

ARE PRO BOWLERS ATHLETES?

You've heard that one before, and you'll hear it again and again. Of course they are.

Dictionaries tell us that an athlete is one who contends for a prize. The word books also define an athlete as anyone trained or fit to contend in exercises requiring physical agility, stamina, and often strength.

The pro bowler, male or female, fits, with the possible, and probable, exception of strength. Tough strength is helpful at times, it isn't vital. The type necessary in pro bowling is not the brute strength so needed in the heavy contact sports.

In pro bowling, timing, coordination, and a delicate touch add up to a high degree of finesse needed to go along with limited force to score consistently. Pro bowling takes rhythm, balance, and skilled muscular effort. The muscles must be supple and toned, in shape, strong, but not rock hard.

A pro bowler must be competitive. He pays to play, unlike baseball, football, basketball and other players who are paid to play. The bowler's pay is what he wins, and he cashes only with superior performances.

Dedication is a must for any athlete. A pro bowler must spend long hours for many years perfecting and maintaining his skills. There is a growing school of thought that today's bowling equipment might be better than the players and that this is cutting down on the time needed to get to the top. True or not, too many times a pro bowler is classed with the average fun bowler. That's akin to equating a touch football game at a picnic with the Super Bowl.

IDLE BOWLING THOUGHTS

...It is amazing that people find it difficult to understand why the merger that created the United States Bowling Congress has run into some sharp pebbles in smoothing the road. You can't take more than 100 years of habits and experiences, millions of bowlers, hundreds of paid workers, hundreds of thousands of volunteer workers, a changing sport and business, and expect all the pieces to fit together as quickly as a first grader's puzzle. Patience not only is needed, it is a must from all involved.

...Bowling balls are expensive, but they always were. Back in 1907 the newest rubber balls sold for $15. For many, that was more than a week's pay. And those good looking high top bowling shoes set you back anywhere from two to five bucks, but they lasted for years and years.

...An old newspaper clipping, dated Oct. 25, 1897, reported that Detroit had four bowling leagues that year. In three of them "palm" balls were used, and in a newly formed six team circuit the new "finger" balls were used. And here we are, 110 years later, and the rage in some areas is two handed palm bowling.

...Watch the great instructors in action. They not only teach, they inspire.

...A very little boy told me about the match he had against one of his friends. It was close all the way until he knocked down a pin in the seventh frame to win out, 1-0.

...Good guys never finish last, not if they are good enough.

JUNIOR AMATEUR TOUR

News & Notes

Chan Wins Second Title in Three Events
McBride Goes Back-To-Back

LAKE FOREST — The JAT headed down south to Lake Forest for the PBA Bear Challenge. The bowlers took on the very flat and very challenging pattern on the lanes at Forest Lanes. Thanks to Jon Diso and the staff of Forest Lanes for putting out the pattern and taking great care of the club!

From practice the lanes were brutal with the middles hooking and outside around 9 flooded and creating a huge out of bounds. Three-on-the-right was a pretty common occurrence as the bowlers tried to match up with the flat oil. In the Farm Club, scoring was low with only one 200 game- a 201 by Kylie Shishima- by the entire qualifying field. JT Diso led the field at -158 followed by Kylie boosted by her deuce game to -179 and Ralph Ramirez at -215. Low-to-qualify was Eric Torrence at -250. Alternate was Many Arriola at -264 just missing the cut in her JAT debut.

In match-play, the lanes were still winning the battle with again only one deuce- a 200 by Ryan Cowling propelling him to 2nd seed for the rollofs at -290 just 6 sticks behind 5-0 Ryan McBride at -284. Rounding out the top-3 rolloff was qualifying leader JT Diso going 3-2 to hold on to a rolloff spot at -293. Alana Mycroft just missed the finals at -323 with a strong effort. In the stepladder, the semifinal match wasn't close as JT Diso rolled through Dylan Cowling 173-131 to set up a final with last tournament's champion lefty Ryan McBride. Both bowlers has a look but a few untimely splits were doom for JT as Ryan McBride rolled to a 171-128 win and his second Farm Club title-back-to-back! Congrats Ryan!

In the Open Division it was a tough play with some bowlers choosing to try and crank the wet outside and quickly moving to 4th and 5th arrow as the shot was just too unforgiving anywhere east of the second arrow. Bobby Hornacek and Wesley Low Jr. were making it look like a house shot at +85 and +62- the only two bowlers plus in the entire tournament. Spencer VanRijsbergen made his season debut in the 3rd spot at -77 followed by solid efforts by Brittany Kolatzny at -91 and Bert Dominick at -108. Low to Qualify was Matthew Zweig at -168 staying exactly 150 sticks ahead of his sister's Farm Club effort.

In the bracket, the top-4 took a rest from the Bear while the bottom-8 bowled their matches. On the top half, 9th seed Frank Aldrete took out 8th seed Luke Holley 2-1 and (5) Bert Dominick swept through (12) Matthew Zweig 2-0. On the bottom, (10) Oscar Chan went straight through (7) Baujee Harlan 2-0 while (6) Tyler Salverda needed three to get past (11) Patrick Rodriguez. The 4 leaders jumped back into action and top-seed Bobby Hornacek was rusty but got through Aldrete 2-1, but (4) Brittany Kolatzny bowed out to Bert Dominick in a good three-game battle. On the bottom, (2) Wesley Low Jr. missed a key spare to allow a game three and Chan took advantage advancing to the semifinals 2-1. (3) Spencer VanRijsbergen charged into the field and swept through Salverda in two.

In the semifinals, Bert Dominick took game one from Bobby Hornacek 164-154, but Hornacek took game two 174-161 and advanced to the finals 201-161. In the other semifinal, Oscar Chan swept to the finals 190-167 and 206-139 over VanRijsbergen. In the Championship Match, Chan took game one 191-175 but Hornacek came back in game two 197-157. In game three, both bowlers were stringing strikes from the 4th frame to the 10th with Hornacek posting a 253 and forcing Chan to get the first strike. Chan made what he thought was a good shot that checked early and crossed over and carried, then filled pins for a 257-253 win and his second title in three tournaments this season. Congratulations to Oscar Chan on the win!

The JAT will hold its annual Awards Banquet on Saturday, November 2, 2013 at SpeedZone in City of Industry. EBONITE WEEK 4

DOWNEY — Week four brought high scores galore! 279's were lucky to win a side-pot. John Daily popped a 300 and Charles Zelaya rounded out an 800/289. Matt Mosley tapped the Financial Advisors Pot with his 280 and Mike Cammarata was #2 in the pot with 279. One more 279 to shout about belongs to Butch Jackson.

Team #21 (I'll be glad when we get SPONSORS names) swept #7 for all five points. Check these matches! Game #1 1017 to 951 — #2 1007 to 921 — #3 926 to 820. All 4 guys on Team 21 shot over 700!!! Harry Wong 736, John Daily 728, Jonathan Gale 715 and Vernon Adams 771, a season team high series of 2950.

"SYSCO" won 4 from #16 putting together a nice 2834 set of their own. Paul Barraco bounced out a 647, Dean Sanderson adviced the pins "to fall" — got 689, Gabriel Martinez tooted and tooted and blew 732 pins down, Joe Torre-super sub-anchored the foursome and hoisted a 766.

"Stats" tell their own stories. The league averaged 222 Monday (highest the last 4 weeks). For the season 218. This round, on the "house shot" will be the highest scoring round of the league. Check your financial advisor on this one!

666 is a devilish score to joke about. Sort of a VOO-DOO number. Juan Ellison, Chris Sutton, Kevin James, Mike Villarreal and Brent Ilagan all conjured up the mystical 666.

Come on Team 7!!! You are not the lowest averaging team, you have more total pins, you just need to go rabbit hunting! If not a rabbits foot, how about bribery???

Pro Approach has shirt catalogs available at the desk. Pick out your favorite, check your size, spell your name clearly and be ready for your sponsor to be assigned. Great looking shirts this year, for a great bunch of bowlers!!
