PBA Returns to ABC Television with $1 Million Tournament of Champions

$250,000 top prize to be decided live on PBA's long-time network home; PBA, ESPN agree to three-year extension

SEATTLE — The Professional Bowlers Association on ABC was once synonymous with Saturday afternoons in living rooms across America. The 36-year-long institution ended with a tearful farewell from legendary sportscaster Chris Schenkel in 1997.

Today, the Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour announced its return to that familiar spot after a 14-year absence. The finals of the record $1 million PBA Tournament of Champions will air live Saturday, Jan. 22, on ABC at 2:30 p.m. Eastern from Red Rock Lanes in Las Vegas.

"This is a milestone accomplishment for the PBA and for America's millions of bowling fans," said Fred Schreyer, PBA Tour Commissioner and CEO.

"It's the result of a great deal of hard work and support by the PBA ownership, sponsors, players and broadcast partner ESPN. This is exciting news for the entire sport."

ABC's coverage of the PBA Tournament of Champions is part of the PBA's three-year extension with ESPN which will run through 2013. The PBA has a long-standing relationship with ESPN, which began when the network launched in 1979. For the past seven years, the PBA has aired Sunday afternoons on ESPN.

Perhaps the most memorable moment in bowling history happened at the 1970 PBA Firestone Tournament of Champions when Don Johnson came within one pin of perfection, rolling a 299 en route to capturing the title on ABC. Last year, the Tournament of Champions produced another historic moment when Kelly Kulick became the first woman to win a PBA Tour event on an ESPN telecast that attracted 1.7 million viewers.

PBA Deputy Commissioner and COO Tom Clark said the airing of the Tournament of Champions finals on ABC is exactly what PBA fans have been asking and hoping for.

"The Tournament of Champions is the PBA's signature event," Clark said. "The 2011 Tournament of Champions, especially, will elevate bowling to its rightful place in the world of sports. Not only will it feature the largest prize fund in PBA history and a life-changing first prize for the winner, but it will provide every PBA member who has ever won a PBA title a chance to become an instant star."

The PBA Tournament of Champions, now open to all PBA titlists, will be a week-long celebration, that runs Jan. 16-22, at Red Rock Resort and Bowling Center, with the PBA Hall of Fame ceremonies to follow the telecast on the evening of Jan. 22. Additional schedule details are available on pba.com.

Further details of the remainder of the 2010-11 PBA Tour television schedule will be announced soon.

The PBA's telecast schedule begins on Sunday, Nov. 28, on ESPN with the first event of the PBA World Series of Bowling.

Robert Brown – A Special Man

PINOLE—Robert Brown of Pinole was the first to bring the male perspective to the California Bowling Writers board of directors. After a struggle with several health issues, Robert died on Sept 28 at home with his beloved wife Pat and surrounded by family.

The following bio done on Robert seems appropriate to share:

Born in Newburyport, Massachusetts, Robert said he was raised by Grandfather Brown and Aunt Helen Brown on a dairy farm with no indoor plumbing or electricity. Following graduation from High School in 1945 he joined the U.S. Navy. During the next eight years, after attending Navy schools, he was assigned to the USS Repose (a hospital ship in Tsingtao, China) as a scrub nurse and later transferred to the Marine Corp where he served as a medic during the Korean War. Following his discharge in 1953 he attended City College in Oakland and San Francisco State while working as a lab assistant for Pabco Corporation.

He ultimately went to work for Chevron Research and Technology as a researcher in 1968 and retired from there in 1991.

Robert met his wife Pat in 1972 and says they successfully merged their families (his four and her two) and have lived happily ever since. He discovered bowling at Lucky 60 Lanes in San Pablo, joined the local bowling association in 1978 and proceeded to amass an impressive record of service to bowling. He served as Treasurer of the West Contra Costa Country BA for 11 years, President for two, and is a member of their Hall of Fame. Robert became a director of the California State Senior BA in 1987 and served as its president in 1993.

He had managed the CSS-BA Singles and Doubles tournament since 1989 and is also in their Hall of Fame. A glut-ton for work – he was founder and editor of a monthly senior newsletter labeled Bowleton started in 1994, a contributing writer to Bowling World Newspaper for which he wrote over 180 columns, and a member of the National Women Bowling Writers. He was an avid tournament supporter and delegate for over 26 years.

Robert and wife Pat attended various dances at least once a week and were members of the New Orleans Jazz Club of Northern California. He proudly admitted to being the "designated dancer" at the women's annual BVL Pasta Feed and Dance. That's sort of like "dessert" at a woman's

Smoking in bowling centers - A throwback to an earlier era

by Mark Miller for the Bowling News Network

Some stereotypes are hard to break. Take bowling and smoking for example.

In the early 1900s, most bowling establishments were connected to taverns where Caucasian men smoked and drank to get away from their wives. Soon after, women took to bowling; and by the 1950s, minorities became more involved in the sport.

When league bowling was at its peak in the 1960s and 1970s, bowling alleys had bars in them and smoking still was a major part of the culture. This shouldn't have been surprising since nearly half of American adults smoked.

Thanks to education about it and a growing amount of laws against it in public places, smoking nationwide has now dropped to around 20 percent. Yet while society was changing, some bowling centers still chose to cater to smokers for fear of losing long-time customers.

That decision has too many people still thinking bowling is played in dark, dingy, smoke-filled facilities. Truth is most of today's centers are clean, bright, family-friendly places.

So some questions need to be asked like, Has smoking been a bigger reason than people realize for the 30-year decline in league bowling? Is it one of the major reasons why to many, bowling's image still is negative? Does it hurt the chance to grow the sport and keep sponsors from helping finance the future?

"I don't know why some proprietors cater to 20 percent of their customers," said retired United States Bowling Congress Chief Executive Officer Roger Dalkin.

"Smoking does affect business in the short term," said Brunswick president of bowling products Brent Perrier. "In the long term, we see people who wouldn't come in are coming in. Once a center gets over the hump – 6 months to a year – they can do pretty well."

The challenge is the battle between freedom of choice and second-hand smoke. Michael Fiore, director of the University of Wisconsin-Madison Center for Tobacco Research and Intervention, is clear on what he believes is making it possible to eliminate tobacco use in America.

"Two things – first the recognition of tobacco use as a drug of dependence, and second, the recognition that when I smoke in your presence, it's not just a choice I'm making, but it's also putting your health in danger," Fiore said in On Wisconsin magazine. "These developments have totally changed the landscape."

So too have governmental smoking bans.

"People get used to them," said Luby Publishing President Keith Hamilton. "Some come back and they learn to deal with it. Bowlers cope and some even come back and bowl more."

Laws curtailing smoking in public places began appearing about 20 years ago. By the middle of the 1990s, the Bowling Proprietors' Association of America introduced the National Restaurant Association's Accommodation Program to meet the needs of both smokers and non-smokers. The idea was to promote non-smoking areas of the center like the bar or specific days when smoking wouldn't be allowed. The program also encouraged centers to improve their ventilation systems to help remove the smoke.

Since then, more local or state anti-smoking laws have been enacted. In states without such laws, centers must weigh the benefits of attracting new bowlers against the drawbacks of alienating their smoking customers.

But in advance of or even in areas without such laws, some bowling centers made the business decision to go non-smoking on their own. For example, some AMF centers in the Midwest banned smoking in many areas of the centers in 2000. Others since have voluntarily made the choice because they understood at a time that when families are looking to do more together, doing so in a healthy environment makes sense.

"It's a generational thing kind of like bumper bowling 20 years ago," said Jim Welch, general manager of Strike Zone at Sunset Station in Henderson, Nev. "Back then they called ahead to see if you had bumper bowling. Now they ask if you are non-smoking. If you are, they will bring the family."

Hillside (Mich.) Lanes went non-smoking in 2009 before a ban went into affect this year. Owner Steve Aemisegger told Bowlers Journal International he was glad he made the decision.

"We lost a few league bowlers but what we gained in open bowling and outings far exceeded what we lost," he told the Jackson Citizen Patriot.

Strike Zone Lanes in Southaven, Miss., has been smoke free since it opened in 1997 and recently earned an award for the smoke-free business of the month from the Mississippi Tobacco-Free Coalition of DeSoto County.

"People in the community appreciate a place to have their child's birthday party and family get-togethers without smelling like smoke when they leave the building," said general manager Dudley Stone in the Bowlers Journal Cyber Report.

While league numbers are at their lowest since the early 1950s, the number of people bowling at least annually keeps rising; now more than 70 million. The growth of family entertainment centers, most of which are non-smoking from Day 1, may be one reason.

"In every single case where I've been involved with traveling around, once a center stops smoking the customer base changes and people are much happier to come when they wouldn't come bowling before," said industry veteran Dale Niemela, currently marketing and event coordinator for Storm Products. "The fact that there's not smoking gets rid of the stereotype of smoke."

So what's the industry to do? Dalkin suggests taking lessons from the American Cancer Society.

"You can't change the perceptions of the influential people age 20-50 so we must focus on the next generation," he said. "We have to change the attitudes of kids from first grade to high school. We need to educate parents, high schools; talk about Bowlopolis. Focus on bowling as fun and cool. We have to accept the fact we can have little impact now; but have to start with the kids."

If nothing else works, Hamilton has a different idea.

"Maybe having bowling centers get together to determine which ones will cater to smokers and which ones will be smoke-free is the answer," he said.

Whatever the answer, it does seem true that bowling centers that improve their indoor air quality eventually fare well. If nothing else, fewer patrons come home smelling like ashtrays.

"Many centers are on the edge, and if they lose 10 percent they are out," Dalkin said. "Can they ride out the initial drop? But long term, it helps the image and helps bowling grow."

Small Entries in Deaf Seniors Tourney at Orleans Bowl in Las Vegas

by Connie Marchione

LAS VEGAS—As expected due to the slowing economy, the entries for the 14th annual Deaf Senior Bowlers of America tournament are down for the 2nd straight year. There will be 80 men and 24 women aged 55 and over from all over the country and Canada gathering in the annual event at the Orleans Hotel Bowling Center on October 12 to 14 for the quest of cashing in the total prize fund of $7,540.00.

The numbers is down from last year's 83 men and 32 women but this year's prize fund is only $900.00 less than last year. The first places prizes for senior men are still good as $800 for the singles event, $620 for men's Classic Match Plays $120 for all-events. The women with understandably smaller entry have first place prizes at $240 for singles, $180 for Senior Queens and $50 for all-events. The Mixed Doubles has a grand prize of $1040.00 to split for first place.

Anyway for the majority of the deaf senior bowlers, their annual trek to this event in Las Vegas is for the fun of meeting old and new friends and to try their luck in bowling and at the casino tables and slot machines. Also to some of them is to hit the town's colorful Strip for its fantastic shows.

The list of entries sent by DSBC Secretary-Treasurer Carol Moers, Denver shows some bowlers back for a repeat try. Robert Taylor, Los Angeles is back to defend his singles crown which he won with 2nd highest 759 score from games of 193-278-246 (717) plus 42 handicap. Ditto for former Californian Tom Parker now of Columbus. OH to make two in row in all-events which he won with a record 1379 from (247-227-233)707 in singles and 600 in mixed doubles plus 72 handicap. But John Hesser from Texas had not entered to defend his Match Play Classic crown. Also nor had former (2008) champion Mike Landry, Louisiana who led last year's Classic 4 games qualifying round with 989 from (225-247-233-196)901 plus 88 handicap.

On the women's side, last year's both singles and Senior Queens champion Elaine Bice from Alabama had not entered but former (2008) singles champion Janis Bowers from Colorado is trying for another title. Ditto for last year's Senior Queens runner-up Delores McCarty, CA and former (2008) champion Celia Salcedo, CA both wants to win this one. Patricia Morford, CA who won last year's all-events with 1301 and also Mixed doubles with 1333, has entered with a new partner, Wesley Kay, CA and her last year's winning partner George Loustalot, CA did not enter.

The schedule has two squads of singles and mixed doubles with first squad starting at 8 AM Tuesday October 12 and 2nd squad follows at 11 AM. Each squad bowls 3 games on a pair of lanes then move to another pair for the mixed doubles. In the evening at 7 PM there will be a general meeting for all bowlers in the meeting room near the lanes. On the agenda is an election for new president as President William Heacock, NY is ending his two terms.

On Wednesday October 13, all Match Play Classic and Senior Queens entrants will bowl in 4 games qualifying round with first squad starting at 9 AM and 2nd squad following at 11 AM. Top 32 men and top 16 women at the end of 4 games will return for double elimination match plays on Thursday morning.

On Thursday morning the top 32 men start their one game matches at 9 AM and the women top 16 starts at 9:30 AM with same one game matches. Bowlers with two losses are eliminated until two is left for their respective championship finals.

After the Finals, raffles will be drawn for cash prizes for those who purchase the raffle tickets. Support DSBA by buying the raffle tickets.

FOUNTAIN VALLEY—Monday started pretty bad for this writer when we visited Fountain Bowl. Having bowled there countless times, you would think I would remember how many steps from the concourse to the lanes, but alas, I forgot that last one and sprawled face down and had to sit out all three games. I still think I could have bowled the last two but my team said no and that was that. My thanks to all who expressed such concern for me and I am happy to say a quick trip to the doctor later revealed only bruises.

Despite shaking up Robert McNaught, President and anchor bowler on my team, she posted 200-576 to top the weekly honor roll, followed by Dee Phipps 228-575, Betty Phillips 220-575, Doris Lewis 211-563, Hedy Schoner 554, Linda Kinney 203-550, Donna Johnson 534, Nancy Soto 531, Kathy Parrish 524, Vicky Wilson 515, Wanda Worrall 512, Joan Roper 511 and Ellie Maxwell 220. Fountain Bowl #2 and Keystone #2 top league standings at 9 wins each, followed by Valley View #2 and Cal Bowl #1 at 8 wins each, Keystone #1 at 7, Bowling News and Cerritos tie at 6, Cal #2 has 5, Valley View #1 and Del Rio tie at 4, Fountain Bowl #1 and Linbrook tie at 3. Nan McGill had to call 6 games for the over $100 strike pot and the lucky final name was Kathy Parrish. Condolences to the first five bowlers.

The women pros are going to be in Vegas the March weekend on our league schedules Doubles and Singles sweeps at The Orleans, but there will be lanes for us, however we must choose morning or afternoon hours. We'll take a vote next week. As usual, Fountain Bowl was hospitable and opened early for our 10 a.m. bowling time. They also provided super service plus free coffee. A pair of reading glasses was left by a member and the owner may claim them from me next week. NEXT WEEK: 10:30 a.m. Monday, October 11 at Del Rio, and don't forget the coffee shop opens early for us and please don't bring food.

Michael Leung Stars in 1st ABTA Win at Bowling Square Lanes

Byron Allan hits Match Game of $1000 • Andy Quach hits Match Series of $498

Westminster Lanes is our Host for this Weekend

Match Game estimated $1,100 / Match Series estimated $250 and 3-6-9 is $1,500

ARCADIA—In our return to Bowling Square Lanes we had a decent turnout of 164 bowlers. Cut scores were average or less +35 for the men and +21 for the women. The two Super Seniors added to the board this week were Ping Tubera (+33), Javier Avila (+23) for the men and no female super senior this week. That would give us a total of 48 bowlers making it to the semi-finals this week.

During our Qualifying squads, the top qualifier for the Men was Vuong Do with a +198, and for the women it was Margie Coronado with a +73. Each will get paid entries into a future regular ABTA event. Vuong, being the top seed drew the Match Series worth $498 this week and he drew a 492. This week only 1 person bowled a 492 and that was Du “Andy” Quach. So we will estimate $250 next week at Westminster. For the 3-6-9 qualifying this week, Byron Allan was the final person during the roll-off worth $1,400 but he missed on the first shot and received $50 consolation. This week at Westminster Lanes, it will be worth $1,500.

In the doubles this week we had 96 groups get into the doubles, with 15 spots being paid out. The top prize this week went to Byron Allan and Vuong Do with a 1514 for $130. In 2nd place were Ely Cruz and Vuong Do with a 1483 for $110. The low to cash was 1373.

In the semis we saw Christina Cheung get hot and lead the field with a +168 to sit out and bowl for the title. Behind Christina was a William Garrett at +146 who would sit out the first round. It took a +36 for the men and women combined, as we would take 3 women to make the semi-finals this week, but the men tied at a +36 and Carlos Vejar and Wilson Cheung would have a 9th and 10th frame roll-off to decide who would be seeded into the top 16 and who would finish in 17th. Wilson won the roll-off and advanced to the match play finals.

This week, our top seed Christina Cheung had the honor of drawing the match game worth $1000. She would draw a score of 234 (this happens to be double the score that was drawn last week at Oak Tree for those of you keeping track). Byron Allan was unlucky getting the 3/6/9, but made up for it by having the correct score of 234 for $1000. Next week we will estimate our pot at $1,200. This week we had 5 new bowlers join us, and no returning member. Let’s welcome these new bowlers to the club, Tom Anderson, Traci Loudermilk, Henry Brown, Wing Tsui and Justin Ziegler.

This would bring us to our Match Play finals now with 14 bowlers taking the floor in our top 16 finals this week. In the first round we had an interesting event, as one of our bowlers who made the top 16 Javier Avila for some reason thought he did not make it and left before the cut scores were announced. That would give 1 lucky bowler a free pass in the match play. This goes as a reminder, always wait till the cut scores are announced. In the 1st round the 7 losers were Wilson Cheung, Dillion Ito, Vuong Do, Brian Main, Javier Avila (no show), Kerry Lucka, & Cezar Marcella. They would receive checks of $100 each. In the second round, the losers were David Dittlinger, Cecilia Lung, Bennet Lai and William Garrett and each would get checks of $107.50. This would get down to the final 5 bowlers. At this point, our horses would be paying anywhere from a low of $34 (Michael Leung) to a high of $107 (Mike Moore) depending on who would win. In this round we saw Jimmy Wong (9th seed) bowling Mike Moore (11th seed) on lanes 9 and 10. In this match, Mike would get the better of Jimmy in this match with a 246 to 194 finish. In the other match we saw Michael Leung (5th seed) bowling Dericio Atkins (13th seed) on lanes 13 and 14. In this close match, Michael would get the better of Dericio with a 208 to 204 final score. Dericio and Jimmy would finish in 4th and 5th getting checks for $115 each. Our semi-final match was set to be bowled on 11 and 12. We had our 5th and 11th seeds into the top 16 bowling each other. In our horses this week we would see Mike paying $107 and Michael paying $34 if they win their match.

In this match it started out close, and continued that way for a while until Mike would miss a couple of 10 pins and getting a split late in the match to open the door for Michael. Michael would take advantage of that and go on to win 249 to 223. Mike would finish in 3rd place for $200. This week the horse paid out $34 for all of you that bet on Michael making all the way to the title match.

The title game is set and would be bowled on lanes 15 and 16 this week. Christina being the top seed elected to have Michael begin the match. In this match, it would stay close through the first 6 frames. The scratch score would be tied after 7 frames with Christina holding a slim 7 pin advantage via the handicap. But Michael would get strikes in Leung is the Champion at Bowling Square - The ABTA had a great time at Bowling Square. Celebrating Michael Leung's first ABTA Title were so many we put then all in the paper and rightly so. Back: Steven Au, Catherine Chung, Michael Kong, Tao Yang, Christina Chung (2nd), Bob Smith, ABTA Tournament Dir. Michael Leung (1st for $2,800), Wilson Cheung (16th), David Quon, Mike Moore (3rd), Cecilia Lung (9th) FRONT: In Kin Chang, Chak Yeung, King Wu, Kenny Kwan, Billy Chao, Patricia Lin (23rd), Bennet Lai (8th), Norbert Lung, Adrienne Mak, Samson Kong & Andrew Lung.

the 8th and 9th frames while Christina would open in the 8th. Michael would go on to win his first ABTA match with a 178/221 to 157/207 final score. Michael would get $1,000 for first place, an additional $1700 in the cash and carry and $100 bonus for wearing an ABTA Shirt, making his total $2,800. Christina would take home $500 for her 2nd place finish.

Champion Michael Leung is from Rowland Heights and used a Awesome Finish drilled by good friend Billy Chao. He is married to Michelle and they are expecting their first child in December. He thanks his wife and family, Mao-Liu league, David Quon, Billy Chao, Patricia Lin, David Quon and Jason Yeh for all their support.

Christina Cheung (2nd Place) is from San Gabriel and used a Storm Reign drilled by Jimmy Wong. Christina is single (but taken by Ryan Nam). She would like to thank her #1 supporter, Ryan, all the Mao-Liu bowlers, her family and friends plus her two “babies” Bubu and Bebe.

Mike Moore (3rd Place) is from Norwalk and used a Storm Shift drilled by Mike Wahl. He is married to Louise and they have 1 daughter Heather and a grand-daughter Michelle. He would like to thank his wife for her support and his brother Bryan. Special thanks to Debbie and the ABTA staff.

This week, the weekly ball sponsor winner of a 900 Global Ball was Wallace Ho and he won the Profit. Each time you bowl you get a free ticket for this prize given away by our Sponsor, 900 Global. This week we were again selling the raffle tickets for a chance at a raffle prizes. Winning a Regular Entry were Tao Yang and Jaime Sulit, winning a 3 ball storm bag was Michael Kong. Winning a Clutch this week was Ryan Nam, winning Dexter Shoes was Ngheim Tran. The rest of the results can be seen in the payoff sheet in this paper.

This week, Westminster Lanes is our host for a 1 day event. Saturday squads are 12 pm, 1 pm, 2:30 pm, 4 pm and final squad at 6 pm. Please plan on showing up early for squad times. With the semi-finals starting at 7:45 pm. Remember to check in early as it will be busy. Jon Brandon Leads League with 801 While Team 2 Jumps into First
by Aimee Gomez

DOWNEY—The first place battle came down to 16 pins, but after the pins had settled, Team 2 walked away with four wins over Team 3. Billy Myers Jr. 256-246-247/749, Larry Stephens 279-246-222/747, Charles Zelaya 213-256/671, and Garcell Bullocks 236-238/642 led Team 2, keeping them in second place. Team 3’s Ramon Torres 259-254-248/761, Leonard Ruiz 253-241-215/709, Paul Varela 244-213-213/670 and Chris Porter 224-245/653 put up a fight and got really close, but only pulled out a third game win, dropping them to third.

Team 13’s Paul Danforth 234-254-277/765, Greg Neuer 289-216-226/731 and sub Sherman Joseph 215-256/652 dominated Team 15, and although Keith Klagge 248-203-259/710 and Shane Soper 212-236-235/683 bowled well, it was not enough to compete. Team 13 vaulted into first place with the sweep.

Team 7 took four from Team 16 thanks to Jeff Carr 256-257/716, Steve Gurrieri 237-247-231/715, Raul Rosales 235-226/671 and Albert Chen 221/600. Jon Stone 230-227-219/676, Charles Week 231-266/638, Alex Garcia 234/633 and Joe Miles 226/612 bowled well for Team 16.

Clyde’s Video Game and Team 9 split 3-2 in an extremely high scoring match. Dave Bartlett 299-248-235/782, Ramiro Garcia 249-238-238/725, Mike Villareal 249-246/692 and Clyde Lumpford 257-216/648 of Clyde’s Video Game took three wins as Herbert Jones 234-278-279/791, Arnold Cheesman 254-290/728, Mark Fisser 248-226/668 and Juan Camarena 227-224/600 also bowled well but only came away with two wins.

Jon Brandon led the league with his 289-300-212/801. Teammates Kevin Yamauchi 265-232-243/740 and Kevin Valmonte 246-267/710 also contributed to their four wins over Team 11’s Phil Lebaquin 221-246-246/713, Danielle Schilling 245-247/687, and Lee Liu 248-231/670.

Sysco and Team 10 also split 3-2. Vernon Adams 259-283/739, Paul Barraco 224-263/685 and Harry Wong 213-242/655 led Sysco as David Cogswell 267-269/707, Dean Lopez 206-299/683 and Carl Labayan 241-215-212/668 led Team 10.

In the corner, Key Container took four from Team 6. Brandon Grant 207-244-221/672, Joe Torre 208-245/629 and Darrion Tipton 207-234/600 led Key Container as Anthony Smith 236-224/654, Ryan Okamoto 225-206-211/642 and Eric Snow 223-207/610 bowled above par for Team 6.

In the last place match, Junior Amateur Tour faced Team 14. Team 14’s Tom Jackson 279-257/729, Devron Lindsey 215-258/683, Phillip Sujo 229-248/679 and Frank Koehler 203-223/620 all raised their averages en route to trouncing the ever fortunate JAT team. Larry Campbell 219-222-237/678, David Yamauchi 223-216/623 and Aimee Gomez 200-224/619 stayed above par, but fell significantly short of getting more than one win. The rematch goes down next week.

Have a great week and see you all Monday!

7-10’s are over rated!! Two were picked up on the same pair last night.

Our guys will help you pick out the right ball and to give you results you'd like to see.

JAT News & Notes

JUNIOR AMATEUR TOUR

by David Yamauchi

Booker Takes First PBA Challenge Event

The JAT has their first PBA Challenge Event on the “shark” a couple weeks ago at Canoga Park Bowl. The pattern did feel “shark-like” at least at the start, but the older friction eventually showed up and when it did the scoring did too. DeeRonn Booker led qualifying at +75 for five while Mark Myers was a close second at +60. Low to qualify was Ryan Melton at -16 rounding out the top-10. In a day of “classic” format, 5 games of match play followed and DeeRonn Booker came out hot with a 278 to start and never looked back, locking up the top-seed spot followed by Jeremy Glover, Mark Myers and Brandon Kraye. In the rolloffs, Mark Myers d. Brandon Kraye 231-201 and advanced to meet Jeremy Glover who quickly dispatched him 244-160. The title match featured red-hot Jeremy Glover and tournament leader DeeRonn Booker. DeeRonn stayed around the pocket and put up a 213-190 win for the title. Congratulations DeeRonn!

Kraye Wins Mission Hills Title

A small field took the lanes for our second consecutive trip to the San Fernando Valley and Mission Hills Bowl. Scoring was brisk with Kevin Jones coming out of the gate with back to back 279 games and qualifying led for the second straight event by DeeRonn Booker at +258. Kevin Jones qualified 2nd at +242 and Jeremy Glover remained hot qualifying 3rd at +221. Low to qualify was Keyon Lemus at +126. In the bracket, the play-in round featured the 7-10 seeds trying to get into the quarterfinals. Ryan Melton d. Bobby Hornacek 2-1 though Bobby put up quite a fight falling 254-235 in the deciding game 3. Keyon Lemus took out Brian Hernandez 2-1 in a see-saw battle. In the quarterfinals, top-seed DeeRonn Booker needed 3 to dismiss Ryan Melton and Brandon Kraye also needed all three to send Gabriel Martinez home. Mark Myers took down Jeremy Glover in 2 straight and Kevin Jones put up a 278 game before Keyon Lemus had to withdraw due to injury. In the semis, Mark Myers lost game 1 to Kevin Jones but came back with 2 straight to advance to the finals to meet Brandon Kraye who finally cooled down DeeRonn Booker in two straight. The finals was a back and forth match with Myers taking game 1, Kraye taking game 2 and the carry finally caught up with Mark as he fell to Brandon in game 3, 246-193. Congratulations to Brandon on the win!

JAT Farm Club

by David Gordon

MISSION HILLS – The JAT Farm Club is back in the house, coming at you from Mission Hills Bowl this past Sunday. A little bit better on the turn-out with 22 bowlers and very high scoring all around. Our thanks to the staff and management for hosting this past tournament. We’ll surely be back.

In the qualifying round we have Gabriella Mayfield claiming a share of the tournament high game honors with near perfect 279. Newcomer James Knapp is next up with 225-269, followed by Parker Brooks with 267-229. Very good bowling you three. Now for the other high and reportable scores.

Just sit back and enjoy as we have Danny Martinez 228-243-247, Connor Matheus 246-244, Ashley Dunn 245-236, Spencer Van Rijsbergen 245, Oscar Chan 236-232-244, Christian Borao 244, Lawrence Merriweather 243-221, Kevin Acosta 235-221, Jason Tilden 234, Baujee Harlan 228, and Keith Tilden 226. It’s about time we had a list like that. Chan led all bowlers after five at plus 126, while the 10th spot and cut line for match play came in at plus 13.

And where other centers have failed, the oil patterned at Mission Hills held up throughout match play. As a result we have Knapp 240-279-243, to claim the other share of the tournament high game. He is then followed by Adam Dubia 227-245-268, Martinez 266-225-225-224, Chan 258-221-225, Mayfield 232-226-257, Brooks 257-254, Matheus 243-233, Dunn 242, and Acosta 234. Dubia and Knapp both four positions to get into the finals and Chan used five straight wins (150 bonus pins) to pad his lead.

The TV-style roll-off finals then started with the 5th seed Brooks (+230) taking on the 4th seeded bowler Dubia (+253). Here and throughout the finals, the upper seed had the advantage, as Dubia took the first finals match 218-168. Next up was the 3rd seed Martinez (+271) against Dubia, and Martinez followed suit with a 199-170 win and on to meet the second seeded Knapp (+317).

Knapp now followed the pattern and put away Martinez 223-184, for a chance to win a title in his first Farm Club tournament. The only thing that stood in his way was the top seed and veteran Chan (+387). Chan let the rookie know something right off, taking the first game in the best of three final pairing match.

Chan won 233-199. In the second game, both bowlers started to experience the oil (finally) beginning to break down and both had a couple of unconverted splits that left the game up for grabs. With Chan’s game completed, Knapp only needed to strike out in the 10th to win. And I was already prepping for a tie-breaker, Knapp did the unthinkable, and went double-8 count, giving Chan his second Farm Club title 195-194. Congratulations Oscar! James, I’m sure experience will bring you your first title real soon.

Our next event is this Sunday at Fountain Bowl in Fountain Valley, CA. This will be the season’s first Adult/Jr. tournament and will feature two divisions. A handicap division (combined average of 409 or less) and an scratch division (410 or more). Check-in begins at 8:15, with the action to start shortly after 9:00. Have a good week and I’ll see you there.

Join us for Our Eva Munson Memorial Events Saturday October 9th at Linbrook Bowl

ANAHEIM—I would like to invite all the family and friends who knew Eva Munson out to Linbrook Bowling Center this Saturday, Oct 9th. Eva, who was a member of the Orange County Hall of Fame, was a terrific bowler and an even better friend and co worker.
Eva worked with us here at Linbrook Bowling Center for over 20 years. She did all the league record service, the Senior League Coordinator, a member of the Southern California 590 Classic and the secretary for many years for the 7-11 Vegas League. Eva bowled on the winning team for the prestigious Robby's All Star Trios and in the WWPB tournaments.
In her remembrance we are hosting two special events that we know Eva would enjoy. We will kick off the day at 12:30pm with Eva Munson's Memorial Senior No Tap Tournament. The cost is only $12.
We will pay out sidepots and a main division payout. This event is open to all seniors 55 and older. It is prepaid entries only and you must be prepaid by Thursday October 7th. At 3:30pm we will host the Eva Munson's Memorial Scratch Doubles. One man and one woman per team with a team maximum entering average of 380. This event is $30 per team and is also prepaid entries only, which must be prepaid by Thursday, October 7th. For more information or to sign up, please call Stacy Rider or Shannon Bloom at 714-774-2253. Please come join us for a fantastic day of bowling and remembering our friend, Eva.

BY NICE AND SWEETLY CENSORED

Studio City—Bowling: Any of various games in which a heavy ball is rolled down a special alley, usually made of wood, at a group of wooden pins, esp the games of tenpin bowling (Tenpins) and skittles (ninepins). Descriptive? Yes, but until you stand on the approach, throw a ball and experience the thrill called bowling, the above definition is meaningless! So what can you do? Grab the kids, friends or some loved ones and come to Pinz and experience the thrill of the sport of kings.

Pinz Adults: Winter Leagues are revving up, high fives and congratulations can be seen and heard on the lanes as the teams compete with each other as each individual bowler tries to reach or pass his or her own average! What are you waiting for? Join our fun! It's not too late to be a part of our leagues. Call Brandon at (818)769-7600 for more information.

Sweetness quote of the week: "Art is why I get up in the morning but my definition ends there. You know I don't think it's fair that I'm living for something I can't even define." -Ani DiFranco.
