Dan Mueller Receives 2014 BCSC Lifetime Achievement Award

by Scott Frager

VENTURA — While Dan was still in the service (Army), he was assigned to work at the bowling center at Fort McArthur in San Pedro, Ca. for a very short time (about 6 months) in 1970 just before he mustered out of the service. His responsibilities included oiling the lanes and cleaning the center each day. After he was done, he pretty much bowled until it was time to go home. The bowl didn't open until 6:00PM, so he had the whole center to himself all day!!

Dan spent the next four years in the banking business at Bank of California in downtown L.A and then Sherman Oaks as Operations Officer. He received a Certificate of Business at USC to complement his position at the bank.

In 1974, he started at Imperial Bowl in El Segundo as night manager and worked with Dick Goldstein and Dick Cole, the originators of the Kwickie Singles. This tournament had the highest number of singles entries in a tournament on the West coast. It was wildly successful and ran from June to August every summer for about 5 years. They had bowlers coming from as far away as New York City.

In November, 1979, Dan accepted a position at Buena Lanes in Ventura, Ca. as General Manager and became a Partner in 1986. For 35 years, Dan has created many innovative tournaments including the Ladies' and Men's clubs. He conducted many other types of promotions and benefits, including but not limited to PBA, state, county and junior tournaments, drawing juniors from all parts of the country.

Dan's bowling career includes PBA tournaments and regionals all over the West Coast and Hawaii from 1969 through 1979. He also participated in the West Coast Seniors and PCB tournaments as well. Dan's other achievements include many 300 games, 800 series and a lifetime high average of 226. Dan was elected to the Ventura County Bowling Hall of Fame in 2005 and has received numerous other awards.

This prestigious award was given by the Bowling Centers of Southern California Association.

Dan Mueller received the 2014 BCSC Lifetime Achievement Award at the annual open meeting at Parkers Lighthouse Restaurant in Long Beach on October 7th, 2014.

Record Breaking Night at Del Rio Lanes

DOWNEY — October 6th, 2014 will be remembered by bowlers at Del Rio Lanes as the day Seven 300 games (plus a 824 series) were rolled.

The 6 P.M. Baker League was scheduled on lanes 1-16 on the regular "house shot". Tianna Tipton tossed her first 300. (A family tradition!) Next came Aurelio Gil who manages at least one perfecto per season. Ken Seiple Jr. lets his ball speak for itself! Another 300 was announced. That made 3 in one league session, plus Mike Villarreal racked up the 824.

At 8:30 P.M. on lanes 11-32 the mighty Brunswick bowlers checked their equipment, made sure the lane machine layed down the "house shot", and practiced 15 minutes.

The pins started falling, strings of strikes lit up the monitors, and one by one, Four more 300's made the count of SEVEN registered in a 5 hour period. Up on the board went the names JOHN DISO, FRANK BAREFOOT, ZACK JELSEY and CHARLIE KINSTLER.

According to the U.S.B.C. stats department, one center in New York State had declared

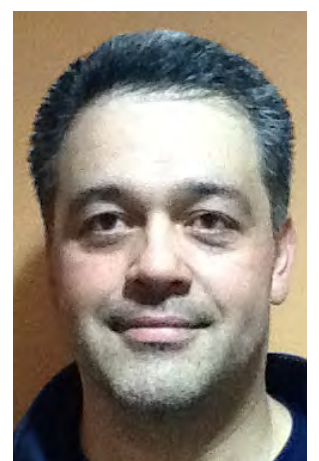

Del Rio Lanes Record Breaking 300's Shooters on 10/6/14 (L-R) Frank Barefoot, Charlie Kinstler, Aurelio Gil, Ken Seiple Jr., Tianna Tipton, Jon Diso & Zack Jellsey. Great Bowling!!!

SIX 300's in one day. Another New York center had a team of four ALL BOWL 300.

"REMINDER: U.S.B.C. STATS ARE FOR THE PAST TEN YEARS ONLY."

No one on the Bowlers Journal staff could re-call such numbers.

On Tuesday, Facebook was full of comments and speculations — but the most interesting was the theory: "The Red Moon" must have been an influence, just as the regular Moon regulates the tides. How about giving the BOWLERS a bow!!

ALAN MOJADO Is On A 245 Pace

by Frank Weiler

MURRIETA — September is over and Alan Mojado leads all scratch bowlers in average in Cal Oak's top league. With three game sets of 648 - 737 - 783 and 770 he is averaging 245! He is on a pace to equal KEVIN GAGNON'S league leading 245 pace of last season. Kevin's 245 was high in the CITRUS BELT last season.

COBB'S CRUISES & TRAVEL 5th ANNUAL BREAST CANCER AWARENESS BOWL 4 A CURE NO TAP TOURNAMENT

NORWALK — Malcolm & Marva Cobb, owners of COBB'S CRUISES & TRAVEL hosted their 5th Annual BOWL 4 A CURE No Tap Tournament, at KEYSTONE LANES, Saturday, October 4th at 1:00 p. m. The tournament consisted of 4 man teams and was open to men, women & kids. The tournament sold out all 48 lanes with a total of 192 bowlers.

Over 150 people came out to help show their support. As people bowled and others supported their teams, over 125 prizes were raffled off. There was a 50/50 cash raffle, a special raffle with 5 Bowling Balls. Also raffled off was a 24in Flat Screen, Crock Pot, Waffle Maker & a Sandwich Maker, & a Grille. The Grand Prize & Monetary Raffle tickets (presence not required to win) were awarded with Michael Jameson winning the Grand prize, 3-Day Baja Cruise for two. Everyone was given a ticket for a chance to win a Special Large or Medium Gift Basket (men & women).

The First Place Trophy was awarded to: Team # 14
Joe Holland, Freda Holland, Jennifer Hollan & Darren Morrow

There were (5) bowlers that rolled a Perfect Game 300

Looking good Award Team # 3 Dona Back, Daniel Nelson, James Nelson & Dave Snow.

We added something a little different. A special guest Ms. Gia Scott Herron (the daughter of the famous Gil Scott Herron) recited a poem she wrote on Cancer.

We would like to thank Keystone Lanes and their staff, Brent & the Jr. Bowlers. The Snack for great food, the Bar, our volunteers, and everyone who participated in this event for making it once again a huge success. There were a lot of first time bowlers this year and we welcomed them, hope they had a great time, and hope to see them next year. I like to thank our volunteers for supporting us since the beginning. They sell raffle tickets & come out and work all day.

Aunt Connie NY, sells tickets, makes and donates Jewelry, Faye Thompson NY, makes and donates the homemade Quilt, Sheila Terry sells tickets & works the day of the tournament. Jackie Kennison, Rose Carter & Eugene McCown for selling raffle tickets. Bowling is Re-Inventing Itself

by Jim Goodwin

Evolution is a slow process. Our beloved game of bowling seems to be in an accelerated state of change in recent years . . . some might say even moreso in recent months.

In the not so distant past, just a little more than a decade ago, the major groups that defined bowling were located in Arlington, Texas; Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Akron, Ohio; and Rockford, Illinois. Of course, I'm talking about the Bowling Proprietors Association of America, (BPAA) The American and Women's International Bowling Congresses, (ABC and WIBC) the Professional Bowlers Association, (PBA) and the Professional Women's Bowling Association (PWBA)

Today, the only group that has remained relatively intact is BPAA; and although major changes have been made, like new leaders and a new HQ building, they still call Arlington their home. All of the others have made major moves. The ABC and WIBC merged to form the United States Bowling Congress, (USBC) which now shares the new Arlington building with BPAA; the formerly member-owned PBA was purchased by private owners and moved to Seattle and then more recently to Chicago. Unable to find a buyer, the PWBA ceased operation a decade ago.

When BPAA and USBC got together to purchase the new building at 621 Six Flags Drive in Arlington in 2010 which was labeled The International Bowling Campus, (IBC) the primary purpose was a culmination of years of planning toward industry unity. More giant steps were taken when the International Bowling Museum and Hall of Fame (IBMHF) was added to the project, and the International Training and Research Center (ITRC) soon followed in a beautiful facility connected to the IBC on its south side.

More unity was accomplished when the IBC became home to some of bowling's smaller groups, including Strike Ten Entertainment, (STE) the International Bowling Pro Shops and Instructors Association (IBPSIA), the Bowling Foundation (BF), the Billiard and Bowling Institute of America, (BBIA) the International Bowling Media Association, (IBMA) and the Bowling News Network, (BNN).

The one glaring omission so far has been the Professional Bowlers Association. Recently, when the PBA decided to close its Seattle office, there was talk of finally bringing that last big piece of the bowling alphabet puzzle under the IBC roof, but no agreement could be reached, and PBA decided to hang its shingle inside the Luby Publishing office (publishers of Bowlers Journal and Bowling Proprietor magazines) in Chicago.

In our view, industry unity will never be fully achieved and bowling's potential will never be realized until the PBA, with both men's and women's tours, is a vital part of the IBC. From what we have been able to learn, the hang up in the recent negotiations was that they could not figure out how to make STE the sales entity for the PBA. It seems to us that if STE is charged with selling bowling, that the PBA would be a very attractive item for their sales menu. We hope that those involved can sit down face-to-face sometime in the near future to figure out how to make the PBA a part of the IBC.

When the IBC opened with much fanfare on January 25, 2010, many thought that bowling would skyrocket to growth and prosperity; others were more cautious and predicted growing pains that would take years to resolve. It seems the latter has proven to be the new reality, but even with the challenges, optimism is still abundant within the walls of the magnificent IBC, and throughout the industry.

One of the experiments that did not produce satisfactory results was the hiring of new Executive Directors for both BPAA and USBC from outside the industry. In 2009 just before the IBC officially opened, two very qualified and very well paid executives, coincidentally both from the Auto Racing industry, were brought in to 'teach' bowling how to thrive in the new high rev world of instant communication, unlimited entertainment, and worldwide social connection.

After four years, the BPAA and USBC Boards of Directors decided to pull the plug and change direction again, replacing them with two industry insiders. Now, we are off to the races again, but this time the leaders, due to their extensive knowledge of the sport and industry, were able to jump over the learning curve and hit the ground running.

Part of getting off to a fast start has been the unpleasant task of further trimming the USBC and BPAA staff even more than in recent years. In September, more than a dozen jobs were eliminated. We are guessing, and I say guessing because no official details were shared, that leadership found ways to get the job done and be more efficient with fewer people; and we all know that the biggest expense for any business is payroll.

What's next? We imagine that there is a new emphasis on working together, and the already stated priority of growing youth bowling will get even more attention. One example of shared services can be found in tournaments. BPAA has given their Tournament Committee a rest, and the Men's and Women's U. S. Open events and the revamped Family Tournament, now called the All American Family Tournament, will be operated by USBC.

Given the USBC adult tournament track record of recent years, some are a little concerned by this decision, but new people could and probably will produce better results. We are expecting the Hall of Fame Extravaganza, operated by the IBMHF, to be the next event added to the new tournament model.

With all of bowling's challenges, we have confidence that BPAA's Frank DeSocio (see interview in this issue) and USBC's Chad Murphy are very capable of facing whatever comes along for bowling in the short and long term. They are both energetic and smart and their hearts have a genuine love for the game and the business.

Their success will depend on their unique leadership skills, their ability to communicate to staff, media, and directly to members; and to their respective board of directors.

God speed to them and to everyone else who will set bowling's new course.

ORANGE COUNTY USBC ANNUAL DOUBLES TOURNAMENT

by Joy McGregor

ANAHEIM — Our annual Richard Naylor Mixed Doubles Tournament is fast approaching....NOVEMBER 1 and 2 to be exact. This year's action is being contested at LINBROOK BOWL, 201 S. Brookhurst St. in Anaheim. Squad times: 12 and 3 on Saturday and 10 and 1 on Sunday. This is a three game handicap (90% of the difference of entering averages from 420) for each doubles team.

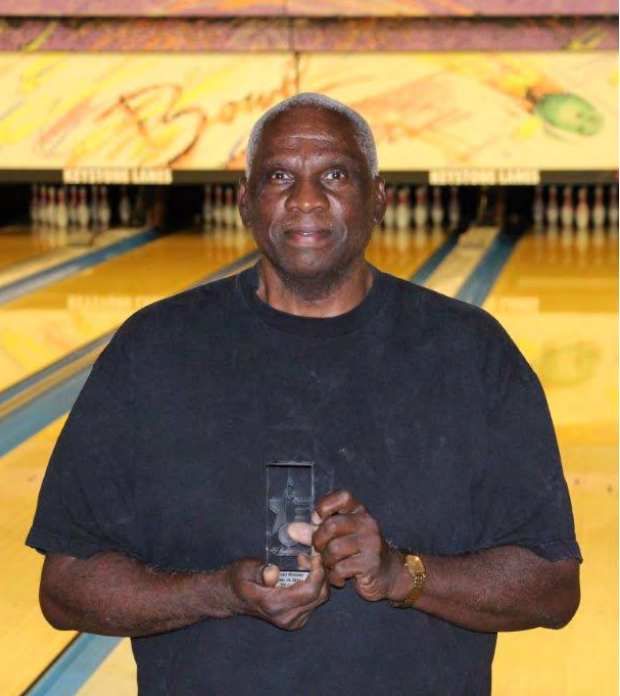

Reserved entries close October 27 and on-site entries will be accepted based on lane availability. This is always a VERY popular tournament so please get your entries in early; if preferred time is filled, nearest open time will be assigned. Any teams wishing to bowl together must request so in writing and send entry forms together in the same envelope.

Please check all rules, located on the reverse of the entry flyer. These will be strictly adhered to. All entrants must be members in good standing of the Orange County USBC Association as of the start date of tournament. Each doubles team must consist of one man, one woman!!

This is certified tournament and we ask that all bowlers please check in 45 minutes before scheduled time and will be asked to show their USBC membership cards.

This is a FUN tournament with multiple entries allowed; may cash only once with the same partner.

Looking forward to seeing all of you on the lanes....

Tommy Brantley 11 N Row 299 Game on 5-10-14 in St Johns at Keystone Lanes.

Bowling News is proud to bring you....

Chuck Pezzano

Dean of Bowling Writers, PBA & USBC Hall of Fame

It's a rare day in June or July or in forever past when all in bowling agree on any one thing.

Membership organizations and bowling proprietor groups have long been at odds on how to accomplish what is best for both sides. There was talk and back talk about an ABC and WIBC merger since there was an ABC and WIBC. Every junior bowling organization has taken its criticism. The pros have never fully agreed with amateur groups and rules, pros battle pros, and amateur groups don't know to perfectly define what's an amateur and what's a pro.

Minds seldom meet when it comes to discussions of lane conditions, bowling balls, and other equipment. If you want to have a torrid hot stove discussion, bring up the righty-lefty controversies, who rolled the most powerful ball, who have been the best clutch bowlers, and simply, who were the best bowlers of all-time.

In only one area have I found universal agreement, and that is the premise that bowling should be on national TV every week.

From the time of the first bowling TV show, a local New York City effort beamed back in 1947, the TV exposure has been one of the brightest lights in bowling.

Bowling and TV have a natural togetherness. The playing field is small, and can be covered fully. Up until recently, with the advent of some outdoor shows, there was no fear of being rained out. The bowling audience is huge and loyal because many of them can relate, all can understand, and thus ratings have always been good, even with the proliferation of channels.

Bowlers, membership organizations, manufacturers, proprietors, pro groups, amateur groups, tournament promoters and those even remotely involved with the sport admit that TV has boosted bowling.

At one time there were more than 30 local TV bowling shows, and bowling on the national networks has been around more than 50 years. For decades, every one of the PBA's championship matches was on network TV.

And yet, though there is almost 10 percent agreement that TV is vital to the sport and the future of the sport, and to the various groups in bowling, profit and non-profit, bowling has never been able to sustain a weekly telecast.

The late Darold Dobs, visionary executive director of the ABC, helped put a magazine type show on the air and one of his goals until the time he died was to have a permanent show. He never got the support he needed.

In being involved with more than 1,000 network bowling shows in various capacities over the years, I never met a producer, director, announcer or TV executive who didn't feel that TV bowling had a great potential, and that once started, could become a staple and more than pay its own way.

A general bowling show could and should have a wide range of content. It could feature pro competition, amateur contests, juniors, seniors, collegiate, men, women, mixed and whatever might be in the spotlight that week.

Add to that the countless feature stories in the game, the competitive stars, the movers and shakers, the rule-makers and rule breakers, the celebrities, and you have enough material for not just 1,000 shows, but maybe 1,000 years.

There are a number of talented people who could head up a bowling TV office and to set up a network show the same time each week every week. Bowling, in many ways for many years, has blown away more money than needed for such a show to get started.

No time is better than now than to make network TV a fact of bowling life.

Phil Yoakum is the Pro to Beat

INGLEWOOD — Phil's Pro Shop, like so many others, lost his "drilling dwelling" inside a bowling center and is now at a new location; 367 East Beach Avenue in Inglewood, near Centinela and Florence Avenue.

Yoakum has drilled equipment since 1974 for regular league bowlers and tournament troopers, building a reputation of excellence.

Currently Phil Yoakum is the PRO in the "BEAT THE PRO" AT A.M.F. El Dorado Lanes. All you have to do is pay the entry fee, bowl 3 games, add in your handicap and beat Phil's SCRATCH score! This is every Sunday 'til December 14. If this kind of action is for you — call Phil at 310-390-7111 for the details.

MIRA MESA YOUTH BOWLER BRITTANY KOLATZNY BOWLS FOR ROBERT MORRIS UNIVERSITY

NORWALK — Brittany Kolatzny just moved to Chicago as she has been accepted to Robert Morris University (2014 Women's national intercollegiate bowling champs) with a bowling scholarship. That's right . . . A BOWLING SCHOLARSHIP!!! Although bowling scholarships are rare, there are several colleges that do offer some financial support. Combined with her other bowling scholarship accounts (SMART/JBT), she will receive over half of her tuition through bowling. For parents wondering why should their kids take-up or continue to bowl, here is one good reason ...College. While we here in the West do not realize how big collegiate bowling is let me tell you, it's really big. There are hundreds of colleges and universities competing throughout the country all season long and Robert Morris University (RMU) is one of the best. Collegiate bowling is where the good get better and where the best go pro. While most former collegiate bowlers will say it is primarily about getting a good education, it is also about the team spirit, fun and new friends. In the sport of bowling there is nothing like collegiate bowling. Nothing.

Now about Brittany . . . she started bowling at the age of four and has practiced and competed for over fifteen years. Well, all the practice and competition has finally paid off. ..BIG TIME. She has grown up to be one of the best female youth bowlers to come out of Southern California in a very long time. She would like to give thanks for all of the advice, help & support she has been given along the way from all of people she has met, her family & friends but most importantly her parents Arno and Tiffany. Brittany has competed and earned scholarship in a variety of events over the years including; JAT, Junior World Team Challenge, Pepsi Championships, USBC City/State tournaments, and especially Junior Bowlers Tour (JBT). Along with her scholarship earnings here is a sample of some of her other notable accomplishments:

- 2010-11 San Diego USBC Youth All-Star
- 2010-11 JBT All-Conference Female Bowler of the Year
- 2010-11 JBT Mojave All-Star team
- 2012-13 JBT So. Cal Female Bowler of the Year
- 11-17-2012 Shot her first 300

Last year she booked a 208 average and bowled in Mira Mesa Lanes Junior Gold league (on tough sport shot conditions) and averaged 188. She has a high game of 300 (1) and high series of 762. Brittany has made everyone at Mira Mesa and Kearny Mesa lanes so proud and we wish her all the best in the coming years. GO EAGLES!

Frank Fiore and Friend

Roy Rogers (1950)

PBA, Bowlmor AMF Sign Entitlement Partnership Agreement

NORWALK — In the 1950's-60's-70's almost every bowling center ran tournaments, but the bowlers favorites were Nick Mancini's POT SHOT'S and 10 GAME MARATHON'S at 60 lane Grand Central Bowl in Glendale.

300-plus bowlers lined up every Saturday night for 5 years to roll five games of "NO-TAP SIDE-POTS". A NO-TAP 300 game paid $100.00!!!

Among the 300 weekly regulars were: Frank Babore, Bar Talanian, Mike Bonta, Chris Olmos, Phil Kapsimallis, Al Tripp, Hobo Boothe, Duke McGrew, Bill Betts, Robby Robinson (Robby's Wrist Positioner), E.G. Mock, and Frank Fiore — pictured with Roy Rogers. (If these names sound familiar, you definitely are a Senior Citizen.)

Frank Fiore loved bowling and bowlers. A rascal, who was always looking for "the edge".

I received a packet from Frank filled with pictures of Roy Rogers and Dale Evans, Earl Anthony, Frank and accordian, and Frank with his "Entertainment Troupe." He visits senior centers and puts on a show. At age 85, he is still sharp and ready to render up a tune or two.

Thanks Frank for the memories and thanks for your service in Korea. God Bless right back to you!!

I last heard from Frank 2 years ago and he was living in Victorville.

Bowlmor AMF to become Official Partner of PBA, host of Chris Paul PBA Celebrity Invitational

CHICAGO (Oct. 8, 2014) – The Professional Bowlers Association and Bowlmor AMF, the world's largest operator of bowling centers, have entered into an entitlement partnership agreement that will make Bowlmor AMF an official partner of the PBA and official host of the 2015 Chris Paul PBA Celebrity Invitational presented by AMF on Jan. 8 at AMF Bowl-O-Drome Lanes in Torrance, California.

The agreement was announced today by PBA Commissioner Tom Clark and Bowlmor AMF CEO Tom Shannon.

In addition to the entitlements, Bowlmor AMF will be highly visible on PBA telecasts, including a package of billboards, commercial spots and on-site signage, and recognition throughout the 2014 and 2015 seasons across the PBA Network including Xtra Frame online webcasts, PBA's official website, pba.com, and the full range of PBA social media outlets, including Facebook, Twitter and YouTube. Bowlmor AMF will provide the PBA promotional support through its network of 340 domestic bowling centers.

"Bowlmor AMF has established itself as the single most prominent operator of bowling centers in the United States and has announced its intentions to play a major role in future growth of our sport," Clark said. "The PBA is pleased to announce the formation of a relationship that will be mutually beneficial in the years ahead."

"We're proud to partner with the PBA for this tremendous event and support the players who lead the industry," said Tom Shannon, Bowlmor AMF Chief Executive Officer, Chairman and President. "This is an exciting time for the bowling industry and Bowlmor AMF is committed to growing the sport at every level – from recreational bowling to league play and professional bowling."

The sixth Chris Paul PBA Celebrity Invitational presented by AMF will return on January 8 to AMF's 40-lane facility in suburban Los Angeles. The fundraiser for Paul's CP3 Foundation will feature a number of well-known celebrities along with several PBA stars. The event will be televised by ESPN on Super Bowl Sunday, Feb. 1, at 4:30 p.m. ET, leading into the most-watched television event on the sports calendar.

Halloween is just around the corner. Have you decided what costume you’re going to wear? You’ll have to make your own costume but you can dress up as a bowling pin or a bowling ball...that might be fun. That’s all for now.

CAL BOWL
by Carol Mancini

LAKEWOOD — Cal Bowl is nothing short of a 21st century Pin Palace; built in the late ‘50’s and located in the epicenter of Boeings Aerospace boom. Cal had leagues bowling 24 hours a day on all 54 lanes, plus a large restaurant, an arcade, a Pro Shop, snack bar and lounge.

The PBA loved coming to Southern California and running their Saturday afternoon televised finals featuring Chris Schenkel. A tradition lost!

Eventually the large cafe was converted to “The Private Side”, 14 lanes to themselves, perfect for special events.

Bowlers are the heartbeat of any center and Cal has a big heart, always open to special needs groups and Senior bowlers.

The day desk lady (Jenny) came to Cal the day after Red Fox Lanes closed and never missed a days work. Today she still spoils the “Captain and Crew League” and the wonderful “Senior Men’s Trio” who also migrated to Cal from Red Fox. FORTY YEARS THESE LEAGUES HAVE FLOURISHED. Wednesday afternoon is a beautiful sight; 46 teams of Senior men who’s league average is 186 and the Senior ladies, averaging 144.

How many leagues have been running for 40 years?? Call the Bowling News any Monday afternoon and give us the info on YOUR long running league!

BURBANK — Hallowe’en is creeping up on us and we have yet to get out the sweaters and coats. I will admit the weather has been slightly cooler and better than the weath-erman predicted. This has given me great hope that this year we will truly have a winter. I look forward to warming the house with baking and cooking rather than cranking the air conditioning up ever higher to lower the temp inside.

I also look forward to the upcoming City Championship Tournament. After a long time away, I will once again, be taking youth teams to the event. I love to see how excited the kids can be and how the first-timers react to the struc-ture of the tournament. Good times ahead!

I hope all Pickwick league bowlers will support the local association (NLAC) in the tournament. It is the core of our bowling community and you might be surprised at who you run into!

WINNETKA — The bowlers have their bowling balls clean and ready to go for the week. Those results will be reported next week. During the meantime let’s check out the league sheets for this weeks Bowling Report.

HALLOWEEN PARTY SET FOR WINNETKA BOWL

A gala Halloween Party will brighten up Winnetka Bowl Friday, Oct. 31 as Lane 33, the entertainment side of the 32-lane center, stages a costume contest from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m., according to Rickey Gelb, managing partner of the complex located at Winnetka and Vanowen.

Becky, who is charge of Lane 33, says there will be prizes for first, second and third place, with originality a deciding factor. A karaoke dance party will take place at the same time with entertainment by “Touch of Class.” In addition there will be giveaways and beverage specials.

As always, there is no cover charge in Lane 33. Further information may be obtained by calling (818) 282-4540.

For a combination evening, Gelb suggests bowling be-fore the night of entertainment at Lane 33. Five billiard tables will also be available on the arcade side of the re-cently remodeled center.

Lucky 7's KEY to Victory!

by Randy Myers

DOWNEY — One week left and we have 4 teams with a shot to win, should be an exciting last week of the 1st round. Keystone Lanes were not just lucky, they were good, each member shooting at least 700 to finally beat The Pro Approach. It wasn't easy as Frank "Bad Ass" Barefoot Jr. punched out in the 10th to take Game 1 by 11, only to see Keystone bounce back to take the last 4 points. Frank had another strong effort as he Hammered his way to 267/733, but couldn't match the teamwork of Keystone who had Herbert Jones 705, Charles Zelaya 711, Andre Rounds 722, and Arnold Cheesman 266/757. Team DV8 shot the Team High Series (2908) and second high Team Game (1006) of the night, only to lose Game 3 to SYSCO, who put it all together at the end and won with 1011. All but two bowlers hit the 7 mark, with Brent Ilagan 278/768, Jeff Carr 300/759, and Sam "Scary as Alfred" Hitchcock 267/728 led the DV8 squad, while Gabriel Martinez 279/770, Charlie Kinstler 267/741, and Anthony Drapeau 726 were best for SYSCO. Cook's Bowling Supply got solid efforts from Matt Mosley 279/693 & Ray Minter 700, as they overcame a Game 1 loss to take 4, and stay in mathematical contention for the Round. Powerhouse Video Games were led by Eddie VanDaniker 266/704.

In the night's closest match, Forest Lanes got a key double in the 10th from anchorman Mason Sherman to pull out a 3-2 win, taking totals by 8 sticks. It was the lone highlight for Mason, who struggled all night, while his teammate Zack "Not Retired" Jellsey basked in the spotlight all evening with 277/761 to overcome Threadworks, who were led by their anchor, Paul Varela 268/723. Josh Tajiri stormed his way to a 739, good enough for 4.5 wins for Pino's Pizza over CASAMIGO'S Tequila led by Vernon Adams 267/696. Erickson Foods were blown out Game 1 by 106, only to regroup and take the last 4 points over Linder Insurance. Erickson was led by Bobby RATNMF Campagnale once again as he shot one of 3 perfect games for the night to finish at 754. Linder was led by Kevin Valmonte 266/690. American Harvest Vodka also lost Game 1, but finished strong to garner 3.5 points. Kevin Too Tall Jones led American Harvest, while DeeRonn

Booker was on TRACK all night, shooting 268/755 for J.A.T. Dave Kovach 276/733 & James Tipton 701 helped BOWLIUM take down Tifco Industries 4-1 as only Mike Jennings 692 was able to score consistently for Tifco. Greg Neuer finished the night going sheet as he shot 300/732 to lead Blizz Yogurt to our night's only sweep, 5-0 over Herzog Insurance. Greg got help from David Cogswell 703, while Justin JZ Ziegler topped Herzog with 692. David Gullett shot 279/742 for GJC Services and spoiled Ladies' Night for Debbie Abahazy. Debbie struck gold often, going 266/709 to pace her team, Alhambra Gold Company, but it only resulted in one win. Finally, last but not least, actually the MOST, Buddy Lucas shot his second 800 of his career, going 279, 259, 266 for 804, and with a little help from Jonathan Huezo & his 694 managed another win for Los Altos Trophies.

Sidepot winners were Game 1 Zack Cover Boy Jellsey 277 Game 2 Bobby Campagnale 300 and 3rd Game Super Pot to Gabriel Martinez with 279 (Thanks Greg!). The Financial Advisor's 2nd game pot went to Bobby "Thumb Boy" Campagnale with his perfect 300 ($240) & David Gullett / Matt Mosley shared 2nd place money ($100) with a 279.

Next week the top match will again feature Professional Approach & Keystone Lanes, in a rematch that could determine our 1st Round Champ. Keystone Lanes trails The Professional Approach by only 1 game, so winning Total Pins will be key. Team DV8 & Cook's are hoping for a split from the top two, which could open the door for one of them to sweep in and take the Round. After 4 weeks without a perfect game, we have had 7 in the past two weeks, and two more 800 series! The USBC will be busy making key chains until this Round is over!! So if you want to see some of the best bowling So Cal has to offer, come on down to Del Rio Lanes in Downey and check it out. Next week we move onto the dreaded (for some!) short oil pattern, and for many, back to reality! Have a blessed week everyone; see you next Monday at Del Rio Lanes in Downey!
