Michelle Silver Calls Winnetka Bowl Her Favorite Bowling Center. Here's Why.

by Fred Eisenhammer

WINNETKA – “This is my favorite bowling center in the whole wide world.”

Michelle Silver’s words proved prophetic less than two hours later when she rifled a perfect game at the 2015 California state singles championships Sunday at Winnetka Bowl.

It was the 20th perfect game for the right-handed Silver, who nearly rolled a 300 earlier in the day when she blistered a 289 with strikes on her first 10 shots.

“The 289 pulled me into the 300,” said Silver, who won the California state

Queens title in 2003 at Winnetka Bowl. “Suddenly I wasn’t so nervous for my 10th-frame shots. I’m feeling very blessed.”

It had been four years since Silver bowled her last 300, recording that feat at AMF Mar Vista Lanes. Silver had started calling a hoped-for 20th perfect game “elusive.”

But she was hot throughout the day on Sunday, bowling in both the morning and afternoon squads. Her scores on the first set were 194, 268, 238, 210, 289 and 224. Silver came

TEAM USA SQUAD FOR WORLD WOMEN'S CHAMPIONSHIPS ANNOUNCED

ARLINGTON, Texas – The Team USA squad for the 2015 World Tenpin Bowling Association World Women’s Championships has been selected and Danielle McEwan of Stony Point, New York, will make her debut in the event that will take place Dec. 5-14 in Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates.

Bowling fans will be able to watch the action live from the Khalifa International Bowling Centre on BOWL.com’s BowlTV.

While McEwan will make her first appearance in a World Women’s Championships, five of the six Team USA members selected by the Team USA coaching staff were on the squad for the 2013 event.

Returning to represent the United States will be Liz Johnson of Cheektowaga, New York; Stefanie Johnson of Grand Prairie, Texas; Kelly Kulick of Union, New Jersey; Shannon O’Keefe of O’Fallon, Illinois, and Shannon Pluhowsky of Kettering, Ohio.

McEwan is no stranger to competing on the world stage, having represented the U.S. in the 2012 and 2013 QubicaAMF World Cup. She also was a member of the Junior Team USA squad that won team gold at 2012 WTBA World Youth Championships.

“No matter what the event, it’s always an honor to represent my country and compete with USA on my back,” McEwan said. “This tournament, in particular, is going to be very special because it is the largest platform for a team event in the world, against the best in the world! I’m very excited to be part of this amazing team.”

McEwan won the Professional Women’s Bowling Association Tour Championship title in September and said the PWBA Tour “has made us all extremely sharp.”

The Perfect Game

by Steve Felege

Note: Last week's article was a plea to the USBC to answer some serious questions about their refusal to honor Glenn Allison appropriately. That article was sent to the Bowling News and to the USBC. Chad Murphy, Executive Director of the USBC, emailed a response the following day. He referred me to the USBC statement of Nov. 22, 2014 and proclaimed they have no further comment on this issue. The following is that statement in its entirety:*

USBC Concludes Re-Evaluation of Glenn Allison 900 Series

Terry Bigham (mailto:Terry.Bigham@bowl.com)
USBC Communications Published: November 22, 2014

ARLINGTON, Texas - The United States Bowling Congress (USBC) recently concluded a re-evaluation of Glenn Allison's 900 series award application from 1982. Allison received national attention for rolling a perfect series at La Habra Bowl in La Habra, California, on July 1, 1982.

USBC's predecessor organization, The American Bowling Congress (ABC), after inspection of the lanes, did not approve the 900 series because of non-complying lane condition rules at the time. Allison's score would have been the first perfect series in history had it been approved. The ABC's decision was litigated before the United States District Court, Central District of California which upheld the ABC's determination in all respects.

"The bowling community is very passionate about this issue and we heard calls from a diverse group of voices asking USBC to re-consider Glenn Allison's award," USBC President Andrew Cain said. The USBC Board of Directors has reviewed all historical documents on two separate occasions. While USBC has the highest respect and admiration for Mr. Allison, we can't turn back the hand of time and change the rules in 1982.

ABC rules for approving sanctioned award scores in 1982 were significantly different than current USBC rules. At the time, about eight percent of award scores were denied.

"Any official change to Glenn Allison's 900 would also impact thousands of scores in that era," Cain said. "As a National Governing Body with a legal responsibility to enforce rules uniformly, we simply can't re-write history for one score and apply a different standard more than 30 years later."

USBC's Board of Directors has agreed the issue is now settled given that all the evidence has been considered.

"Glenn Allison is a living legend and a Hall of Famer who will always be known not only for his bowling talents, but the incredible class he displays as an ambassador for our sport," Cain said. "While this decision may not be the outcome some people hoped for, I ask that we can all come together and respect the conclusion. It is time to close this chapter and move forward."

There you have it, a sterile, unfulfilling USBC statement, chock full of nothing substantive, but indicating they just don't want to be bothered with this issue any longer. This evasive response only serves to keep the controversy alive.

To many bowlers, Mr. Allison's 900 series was, and always will be, the greatest achievement in bowling history; the lack of official recognition, the greatest injustice. He did "the impossible" under the most difficult circumstances; the lanes were constructed entirely of wood, the ball was plastic, the league was second-shift and "mixed." Satisfying our curiosity about why the establishment continues to snub this man requires facts about that day, and the USBC statement provides none. Are we expected to just forget about it and go away? Something prevents us from doing that and maybe, just maybe, it's nagging little facts such as these:

- FACT: Oil application was the only issue which prevented Mr. Glenn Allison from receiving the very first 900 ring.
- FACT: Oil pattern judgments, made by ABC inspectors at ~1 AM must have been used as the evidence in the litigated case.
- FACT: Oil patterns change due to bowling activity and evaporation over time.
- FACT: As evidence, the oil pattern on the night of July 1, 1982 was "tainted" by two shifts of league bowling and "X" number of hours passing prior to inspection (open bowling may have skewed the "evidence" even farther).
- FACT: Tainted evidence should never have been admitted into the case of Glenn Allison VS The ABC.
- FACT: The ABC's assertion that the oil pattern assisted Mr. Allison is patently false because scores were generally lower that night.

To quote a famous national bowling organization, "Rules are rules," and the rules in 1982 forbid tainted data from being used as evidence in court. It's also a fact that court rulings are regularly overturned when evidence is re-examined and found to have been tainted. This makes the USBC's stance against Glenn Allison the greatest mystery in bowling history. Common sense says Glenn Allison overcame the odds that night and deserved to be recognized for having done so. Unfortunately for Mr. Allison, our sport is now overseen by a group of people who wish for us to put on blinders and go away while they hide behind platitudes issued on November 22, 2014. Shame on them!

We salute the Bowlers Journal International for ignoring the USBC by placing Glenn Allison squarely atop their 900 list. He tops ours as well (without the asterisk).

If you believe, as many do, that Mr. Glenn Allison, now 85, deserves the recognition he has earned, you have the right and responsibility to contact the USBC and say so. Their contact information is:

Phone: 800-514-2695 (Light up their lines!)
Email: bowlinfo@bowl.com (Make their server smoke!)
Correspondence can be sent to:USBC Headquarters, 621 Six Flags Drive, Arlington, TX 76011 (Flood their post office with copies of this article!)

Comments or questions? PICK UP THE PHONE!!! Call Carol Mancini @ 1-562-807-3600 (Mondays 2-7 PM PT). Or Email us at: news@californiabowlingnews.com. We'd love to hear from you!

 Prior to Mr. Murphy referring me to this document, I was already quite familiar with it. It was referenced in two separate Glenn Allison 900 articles (see CBN issues 09/24 & 10/15).*

Del Rosa Lanes - Presents $1,000 Grant to Thompson Elementary School

by Frank Weiler

SAN BERNARDINO — Del Rosa Lanes General Manager RON SANDUSKY and Entertainment Manager TONI FUTCH journeyed to San Bernardino’s Thompson Elementary School recently and presented Principal Dr. London with a $1,000 Grant from bowling’s “KIDS BOWL FREE” program.

This was Del Rosa Lanes second summer in the kids program and it has been a resounding success. In 2014 Del Rosa had 580 kids participate and that number grew to over 1,600 kids this past summer.

This past summer more than 15,000 schools and over 2,000,000 kids participated in the “KIDS BOWL FREE” program nationwide. The program’s “Bowling To Schools” Grant Program also awarded $50,000 in grants to 50 schools ($1,000 each school). Thompson Elementary received one of these grants.

The grant money may be used by each school as needed.

It was a thrill for Toni Futch to return to Thompson Elementary because she graduated from there just a few years ago. Toni’s three daughters, Shandi, Jamie and Jolie, are also grads of the school.

Next time I will tell you all about this great marketing program that grows our sport and makes kids want to bowl: “KIDS BOWL FREE”.

back to reel off games of 300, 193, 243, 213, 227 and 264. Silver started her second game in the first set with seven straight strikes.

That Silver proclaimed Winnetka Bowl as her favorite bowling house was no surprise to officials at that bowling center. “She says that a lot. She’s won a lot of tournaments here,” said Winnetka Bowl manager Mike Willis, smiling.

It’s been an eventful last couple of months for Silver, who got married Sept. 6 to Professional Bowlers Assn. bowler Jim Harvey, a two-time PBA regional champion who has rolled more than 50 perfect games. The two wed in Las Vegas in a ceremony officiated by “Elvis.”

Silver bowled with Harvey during the state singles tournament. She was asked if the marriage’s good karma propelled her to her 300. “We can say that,” answered Silver, a West L.A. resident. What was Harvey’s reaction to her 300?

“He was so happy for me,” Silver said. “He said, ‘You really killed it. Well, you are a Hall of Famer.’ ”

Silver has actually been inducted into three Halls of Fame – Los Angeles Women’s Bowling Assn., California State and Southern California Jewish. “It was a happy day today.”

Stakes are High for Competitors in PBA's South Point Fall Classic

New multi-event program at South Point Bowling Plaza may affect Player, Rookie of Year races

LAS VEGAS – The Professional Bowlers Association Fall Classic, an entirely new multi-event series for PBA competitors, gets underway Monday at the new South Point Bowling Plaza with ramifications on a variety of levels for its international field of players.

PBA fans in Las Vegas will be able to watch all of the action in the new South Point tournament facility at no cost and fans around the world will be able to catch every round of every event in the PBA Fall Classic live exclusively on Xtra Frame, the PBA's on-line live streaming channel.

A diverse field of doubles teams – men and women, seniors and rookies, amateurs and professionals – will try to de-throne two-time defending champions Wes Malott and PBA Hall of Fame partner Norm Duke as qualifying begins in the 2016 Mark Roth/Marshall Holman PBA Doubles Championship. The high-powered duo won the 2015 Roth/Holman Doubles title in Indianapolis when they defeated England's Dom Barrett and Finland's Osku Palermaa, 228-203, after winning their previous doubles title at South Point in 2011 when they defeated Ronnie Russell and Sean Rash in the title match.

Barrett and Palermaa will return to challenge for the title again, along with teams including leading PBA Player of the Year contender Jason Belmonte and partner Bill O'Neill; the left-handed tandems of PBA Hall of Famer Parker Bohn and partner Ryan Ciminelli as well as Anthony Pepe and rookie Matt McNiel; 2014 PBA Rookie of the Year Marshall Kent with 2015 ROY hopeful A.J. Johnson of Oswego, Ill.; mixed-doubles partners Ryan Shafer and newly-crowned Professional Women's Bowling Association titlist Liz Kuhlkin along with Scott Norton and Missy Parkin, who grew up bowling together in California youth programs; and the team of Rash and PBA Hall of Famer Pete Weber of St. Ann., Mo., who were rivals as recently as last Sunday when Rash defeated Weber to win the Xtra Frame PBA Iowa Midwest Open title in Omaha.

The Roth/Holman Doubles event in Las Vegas included eight qualifying games on Monday, Oct. 19, followed by two six-game match play rounds on Tuesday. Based upon a combined total of 20 doubles (40 individual) games, the top five teams will advance to the ESPN-televised finals which will be conducted on Saturday, Dec. 19, at the National Bowling Stadium in Reno for delayed airing on Sunday, Jan. 17, and will be counted as a 2016 title on the official PBA stats.

The Fall Classic continues on Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 21-22, with the PBA Xtra Frame South Point Las Vegas Open, a PBA Tour title event. More than 110 players will bowl two qualifying rounds Wednesday with the top 16 advancing to round-robin match play Thursday. After 32 games, the top five will meet in the stepladder finals Thursday at 5:30 p.m. PT. All rounds of the Las Vegas Open will be covered live, exclusively on Xtra Frame (for subscription information, visit pba.com and click on the Xtra Frame link).

The South Point Las Vegas Open could play a role in the 2015 PBA Player and Rookie of the Year races. Heading into the Fall Classic, Australia's Belmonte, his doubles partner O'Neill and Josh Blanchard of Mesa, Ariz., have each won two PBA Tour titles during the 2015 season. Belmonte's are both majors (USBC Masters and Barbasol PBA Tournament of Champions), so he's the heavy favorite heading into the final two months of the season which will include the Bowlmor AMF U.S. Open (Nov. 3-8 in Garland, Texas) and the GEICO PBA World Series of Bowling VII at the National Bowling Stadium in Reno Dec. 7-19, which will include four standard PBA Tour titles plus the year's final major, the PBA World Championship. As of Oct. 15, Belmonte also holds the PBA earnings and averages leads. He has earned $168,861 so far in 2015 with a 228.54 average over 237 games bowled. Chris Barnes, who will miss the Fall Classic while recovering from recent back surgery, is second on the money list with $113,920 while O'Neill is second on the average list at 227.04 for 187 games.

The Las Vegas Open field also includes a slew of PBA Hall of Famers, including 47-time champion Walter Ray Williams Jr., 38-time champion Norm Duke, 37-time champion Pete Weber and 34-time titlist Parker Bohn III along with many of the sport's rising stars, several of whom are trying for their first PBA Tour title. The singles event – the first PBA Tour event ever held from start-to-finish in the South Point Bowling Plaza – also is the first qualifying leg for players hoping to earn automatic invitations to compete in the DHC PBA Japan Open in January. Qualifying pins from the Las Vegas Open and the Bowlmor AMF U.S. Open will determine the 10 players who will earn invitations to Japan. One PWBA member also will be invited based on qualifying pins from the U.S. Women's Open and the South Point Las Vegas Open. For a current singles roster, visit pba.com and look for PBA Xtra Frame South Point Las Vegas Open under "schedules/PBA Tour".

Friday, Oct. 23, is set aside for the PBA South Point West Challenge, a PBA West Region event open to players who have never won a PBA title. Xtra Frame also will cover this event.

PBA's newest venture, the PBA Team Challenge, takes center stage Saturday and Sunday. Seventeen five-player teams have already entered the one-of-a-kind PBA team battle. The Team Challenge will begin with a six-game qualifying round on Saturday, Oct. 24, with all five players bowling full games, followed by a 12-game Baker format round. Based on the combined 18-game team totals, the top eight teams will advance to eight games of Baker format round-robin match play Sunday morning followed by a Baker format stepladder finale at 3 p.m. local time. All rounds of the Team Challenge also will be covered live on Xtra Frame. To check out the current PBA Team Challenge roster, visit pba.com and look for PBA Team Challenge under "schedules/PBA Tour".

The Fall Classic will conclude on Monday, Oct. 26, with the PBA50 Western Open, a PBA West Region event for players ages 50 and older and another event covered by Xtra Frame.

WE HAVE BYE OCT 31 NO BOWLING!

WEST COVINA — Good times again in our event at West Covina Lanes as James Borillo won his 3rd Title downing a HOT bowling Kelly Manuel in the title game to take a nice $2,700 home to Lakewood.

Others bowling well making the top 16 finals were 10-16th Brijesh Patel, Marvin Crowder, Ben Bogaoisan, Kerry Lucka, Henry Hoang, Michael Kong, and John Gonzales.

In 6-9th places were Jeff Panililo, Nick Lee, Willie Parawan, and Emily Yeung, $105 each. Eliminated in round 3 are Patrick Rodriguez, and Lee Liu at $110 each in 4th and 5th places.

Now it was Kelly Manuel and Memo to meet for the right to advance to the title game. Kelly won out in a great match with Memo in 3rd $200, Kelly off to the title game vs Borillo!!

The title game was on. Both bowlers opened in the first frame. In frames 2 both marked. Kelly split, open in the 4th and then they are clean til frame 6. Kelly struck and then split and James started his title run with a clutch 4 bragger. Kelly had lost her touch. Jame won going away 253-209 with handicap and 3rd title. He has been with us 10+ years. One of the Good Guys strikes again and two of his titles are in West Covina Lanes.

Kelly, the crowd favorite bowled very well, and got a $500 second place check. She is one of our most faithful members and a very, very well-liked! Her father from Cincinnati bowled with us as did her brother. Great Bowling Kelly !!

James Borillo of Lakewood used a Track Paradox drilled by “Iron Mike” Villarreal ABTA Member. He’s married to Carolyn who was on hand for the win and 3 kids Carl, Chris and Christian!

Kelly Manuel is from Pasadena and single! She used a Hy Road Drilled by ABTA member Chris Es-cueta at Oak Tree Lanes. She thanks her father William for being there that night. He also bowled with us. He is from Cincinnati Ohio, interesting and nice to talk to!

Memo Rosales is from El Monte and used a DV8 Ruckus drilled by himself. Married to Sylvia ABTA Member and 3 kids Lee Anne, Levi and Leilan. Great people here!

Lucky Cyndi Kelley and Art Windsor hit the Mystery Match Doubles / game 2 for $4,270 with a combined score of 284. We estimate the Mystery at $900 Saturday. The Match Series at $1,500 and 3-6-9 is $1,500. MATCH GAME IS FIVE GRAND! Lee Liu was last standing in the 3-6-9 roll-off and he missed on shot 1 so that pot goes for $1,500 at Chaparral.

Thanks to all who bowled and Special Thank YOU to the Great Staff at West Covina. We will return again, and often.

This Saturday, Oct. 24

Borillo Wins 3rd Title at West Covina $2,700 (L-R) William Manuel from Cincinnati Ohio, who joined and bowled with us (proud father of runner-up Kelly Manuel), Memo Rosales 3rd, Carolyn, proud wife of Champion James Borillo $2,700, Kelly Manuel, runner-up $500, Judith Ting long time member who is returning soon, Annaliza Agoncillo ABTA Director and our little helpers holding the banner are Leilan and Le Anne Rosales who are proud of father Memo.

we are hosted by Chaparral Lanes in San Dimas. Check our ad for info and check in early. We have lots of fun there!! BYE OCT. 31 NO BOWLING. We visit CAL Bowl NOV. 7. Big Thank-giving event at West Covina Nov. 26-27-28-29. We had 6 new members again at West Covin. It’s great to have the new members join us.

See us at Facebook Abtabowling or www.abta1.com. Until Chaparral Saturday! See you there. CHECK IN EARLY!!

Windsor and Kelley nail a $4270 Mystery Doubles Pot with a 284 scratch game 152/132. Art Windsor pictured here with ABTA Director Debbie Sanders, accepts his 50%. Other winner was Cyndi Kelley (not pictured). They are MOST DESERVING, ABTA regular supporters and hardly if ever miss an event. Many ways to cash in the ABTA and Cyndi and Art exhibited that at West Covina!! Congrats to both of YOU!

League Bowlers Can Monitor Their Career on USBC Website

by Fred Eisenhammer

WOODLAND HILLS – For most league bowlers, rolling a 300 may be too ambitious of a goal.

But not so for Reseda’s Mike Hahn. The right-handed marksman blistered a career-best 290 in February of 2011 during a league game at AMF Woodlake Lanes in Woodland Hills. Only a first-frame spare marred the game.

Hahn then racked up strikes on his first three frames of his next game en route to a 190 score. Those 14 consecutive strikes gave Hahn an “Andy Varipapa 300,” a feat in which a bowler blasts 12 strikes in a row over two games. The late Varipapa was an accomplished pro bowler who was known for his trick shots.

Hahn’s 11-strikes-in-a-row game is honored on the United States Bowling Congress’ website under Hahn’s name.

A little-known tidbit is that the USBC website lists league bowlers’ averages and achievements over the past 12 years. (The website can be found at bowl.com. Then click on “Find a Member.”)

The USBC, the national governing body for ten-pin bowling, considers honor scores (300 games, 800 series) as achievements. But the USBC also recognizes games in which bowlers roll 11 straight strikes, such as Hahn’s 290 effort.

League bowlers might delight in looking up their name and checking out how their averages have fluctuated over the years. Bowlers typically demonstrate improved averages – and that provides incentive for continuing that ascent.

Most bowlers will find an empty screen under achievements, but a select group will have some joyful notations.

Rick Auerbach of Woodland Hills, for instance, has many perfect games memorialized under his achievements. Additionally, Auerbach’s 800 series (in which he scored an 818) on July 11, 2012 also is recognized – among his other achievements.

As for Hahn, he clearly remembers his 290 game. “Any ball I threw headed right into the pocket,” he said. “It was like there was a sanded groove and it just hooked right in.”

As for his first-frame spare, he said, “I buried it. I thought it was a strike, but I believe I left a 10 pin. Then I proceeded to get 14 in a row. I say that I got a 300, just not in the right order.”

So far this year, Hahn has blasted a 250 game and is averaging 180. He said that he is continuing his pursuit of that elusive perfect game.

“My 300 is still to come,” he said.

PBA Spare Shots

PBA’S 2014-15 ESPN RATINGS UP 23%, INCLUDE KEY DEMOGRAPHIC GAINS

PBA television ratings on ESPN for 2014-15 not only showed a 23 percent increase in viewership, but made important gains in valuable demographics, PBA CEO and Commissioner Tom Clark said.

Newly-released ratings data comparing the overall 2014-15 PBA telecasts on ESPN to the 2013-14 season showed ratings gains in desirable areas such as males age 18-49, which was up 55 percent. The combined male-female audience in both the 18-34 and 18-49 age groups were up 50 percent year-over-year.

“It’s an exciting time for the PBA,” Clark said. “These numbers are rarely achieved in sports TV and are very encouraging. They are both valuable and attractive to sponsors and partners. The PBA’s mix of exciting players including Hall of Famers, international stars and former collegiate players making their mark in increasingly diverse and prestigious events, plus the continued support of ESPN have the PBA positioned for further growth.”

The new PBA on ESPN schedule begins Dec. 17, with a special Thursday, 7 p.m. ET (4 p.m. PT) live telecast of the PBA World Championship from the GEICO PBA World Series of Bowling VII at the National Bowling Stadium in Reno, Nevada.

2016 PBA LEAGUE DECLARATION DEADLINES LOOMING

Two key deadlines for PBA League competition in 2016 are looming – the Oct. 26 deadline for team managers to declare up to three players they wish to protect from their 2015 rosters, and the Nov. 13 deadline for PBA members to declare themselves eligible for the 2016 draft.

Team managers must advise PBA Commissioner Tom Clark of the maximum of three players from their 2015 rosters that they want to return to their respective teams in 2016. Players not protected must then declare their intent to participate in the 2016 draft by contacting PBA Director of Events Janay Haggerty (janay.haggerty@pba.com) by no later than Nov. 13.

The 2016 PBA League draft will be held on Dec. 17 during the GEICO PBA World Series of Bowling VII in Las Vegas. The draft will be covered live on Xtra Frame at 2 p.m. ET (11 a.m. PT).

NEXT UP ON XTRA FRAME: SANDS REGENCY CASINO WEST/NORTHWEST CLASSIC

The Sands Regency Casino West/Northwest Classic, presented by Radical, will reward its winner with a $10,000 first prize at the National Bowling Stadium in Reno, Nev., and the entire tournament will be covered live on Xtra Frame Saturday and Sunday.

The Sands Regency regional event will be a reduced-entry fee tournament ($175 for PBA members, $225 for non-members) leading into the multi-event PBA South Point Bowling Plaza Fall Classic which gets underway on Monday, Oct. 19, in Las Vegas.

Xtra Frame coverage of the PBA Fall Classic begins Oct. 19 at South Point. During the Fall Classic, Xtra Frame will provide live coverage of the Mark Roth/Marshall Holman PBA Doubles Championship qualifying and match play rounds Oct. 19-20, start-to-finish coverage of the PBA Xtra Frame South Point Las Vegas Open – a PBA Tour title event – Oct. 21-22; the South Point West Challenge (for non-title winners) on Oct. 23; the new five-player PBA Team Challenge, Oct. 24-25, and the PBA50 Western Open on Oct. 26.

Bowling fans who want to sample Xtra Frame can subscribe on a three-day (72-hour) basis for only $3.99. Fans can lock in the entire October package with a full month Xtra Frame subscription for only $7.99. But PBA’s best package is the 12-month XF Season Ticket for $64.99, or $5.41 per month. To sign up, visit pba.com and click on the Xtra Frame link.

QUICK NOTES

● Conner Kolessides (scratch) and Tommy Sanfilippo (handicap) earned $1,700 and $2,000 scholarship awards, respectively, in the fourth annual Danny Wiseman Youth Scholarship Tournament at AMF Country Club Lanes in Baltimore on Saturday. The sold-out event rewarded participants with more than $22,000 in scholarships.

Tickets Now on Sale for ESPN Rolltech PBA World Championship

RENO, NV — Tickets are now on sale for the live ESPN telecast of the Rolltech PBA World Championship Thursday, Dec. 17, the pinnacle event of the GEICO PBA World Series of Bowling VII presented by Silver Legacy and the Reno-Sparks Convention and Visitors Authority at the National Bowling Stadium.

The season’s final major will mark the first live prime-time telecast of a PBA Tour event in 14 years when the stepladder finals get underway at 7 p.m. ET (4 p.m. local time). For the World Championship, ESPN telecast tickets are $10 and $20. All tickets, which can be purchased in advance through the “tickets” link on pba.com or at the door, are general admission.

From Dec. 7-19, Reno’s National Bowling Stadium will be the center of the bowling universe as ESPN, pba’s online bowling channel Xtra Frame and the best players in the world converge for a series of the most unique and lucrative events in the sport.

WSOB VII will again showcase the world’s greatest players including the top stars from the PBA Tour who will compete for PBA titles across five diverse PBA lane oil patterns, highlighted by the main event, which is the World Championship.

The focal point of the World Championship will be the player’s ultimate test of versatility and endurance. The five players who qualify for the live stepladder finals on ESPN on Dec. 17 will survive a total of 66 games of qualifying and round-robin match play bowled on the PBA’s Cheetah, Viper, Chameleon, Scorpion and World Championship lane conditions.

The international representation for the World Series has already tied a record for entries from 21 countries, including Argentina, Australia, Bermuda, British Virgin Islands, Canada, Colombia, Denmark, Ecuador, England, Finland, Germany, Japan, Mexico, South Korea, Spain, Thailand, Sweden, United Arab Emirates and Venezuela in addition to the United States. Anticipated entries from China will break the record.

In addition to the World Championship, tickets are also on sale for the other World Series events, the Cheetah, Viper, Chameleon and Scorpion Championship finals on Friday, Dec. 18, as well as the Mark Roth/Marshall Holman PBA Doubles Championship and PBA Challenge shows (Saturday, Dec. 19). An all-weekend KingPin Club ticket for the animal pattern events, PBA Doubles Championship and PBA Challenge telecasts is available for $20. While tickets may be purchased at the door, it is suggested that fans order early to get the best seating.

Admission for the World Series preliminary rounds including World Championship qualifying and match play rounds Dec. 7-16 is free.

The National Bowling Stadium will also host a pro-am for Reno area grassroots youth, adult and senior bowlers on Sunday, Dec. 6 with squads at 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. The pro-am entry fee is $99. Additional details are available by calling the stadium at (800) 304-2695.

BOWLING WAS GREAT IN 1948...

by Carol Mancini

NORWALK — The Bowling News was 16 pages stuffed with results of weekly leagues scores, sweepers, pot games, and tournaments. Every league in every center had space. Now-a-days, sweepers are the grand finales of leagues.

If you had a 600 plus series or won a pot, you got a paragraph. The phone must have been jammed daily with incoming "AT-A-BOYS" (and GIRLS). They only had one phone!

The very long running "WASHINGTON SINGLES" was in its third year and continued until the 1990's. Everybody took a shot at the SINGLES. It became a tradition in Southern California. $500.00 was guaranteed 1st place.

Bamboo Bowl on the corner of Hollywood and Western opened with 8 ALL Maple A.B.C. Plastic Cote Surfaced Lanes.

Yuk — Yuk — Yuk. The first place team in the Ladies 745 League was "Peoples Sausage". Just think about it!

Etiquette tip of the week was always good for a reminder to act like a lady or gentleman on the lanes. Curse words were forbidden (could be fined). Bowler on the right had the right-a-way. When up to bowl, don't be distracted, bowl! Always wear clean, pressed uniforms. Be on time. Bowling shoes required. Pay league fees every night. Use your own ball.

A column called Split-Acular Splits recounted split conversions. At least 20 per week were reported. (Where did all this info come from?)

Vocalist Patsy Garrett was selected "Miss King Pin 1948". Her latest record release was "The Bowling Alley Polka", with Vaughn Horton orchestra. Anybody got a copy?? Let's all hum along.

12 year old "Buddy" Horn was the young star at Santa Monica Bowl taking on any other 12 year old. As long as no money was exchanged, kids could bowl "match games". Bud went on to manage Park Bowl in Baldwin Park before moving to Las Vegas. Hey Bud!! Are you still in the biz?? Let's hear from you.

The Bowling News offered $45.00 every week for the first person to roll a 300 game in a sanctioned league.

The California Bowling Proprietors State Singles was promoted weekly and was a big success the first few years. Each member center sent teams. What killed it?? Greedy proprietors. Everyone wanted to host, no one wanted to work. The idea is still sound today and could be a great tournament. Do we HAVE a state proprietors association???

Tommy Dorsey Casino Gardens Dancers were league champs at Llo-Do-Mar Lanes.

Rudy Vallee's team beat Tim Holt's team at Pan Pacific. Frank Sinatra's team rolled a 1005.

The Doodlebugs and Debuggers were tied at So. Pasadena Bowl.

Bob Anderson was the world champion blind bowler. Bill Franklin was Editor of the Bowling News.

John Steinle and his two sons (ages totaling 170) challenged any father and 2 sons of comparable age to a match.

Frank Del Conte purchased Alhambra Recreation at 6th and Main in Alhambra.

Bowling Proprietors paid 25 cents to have their Bowling News special delivered. Today a Bowling News costs $1.00 to make and deliver. Bowlers get them free. A years subscription was $2.50 for 52 issues. Today's price is $40.00.

Tex Beneke, popular singer with the Glenn Miller Band and, was the spokesman for Acme Beer. Remember, "I Got A Girl In Kalamazoo? Acme was the "bowlers beer."

The A.J.B.C. National Tournament was a "bowl In your home house, verify the scores, send to Nationals and wait for the results. Junior leagues all over the U.S. were sending In scores??

The L.A.B.A. staged a bowlers variety show to raise money to send delegates to the A.B.C. Convention. There were top acts and tons of door prizes. Admission? $1.25 per person.

Eli Whitney was the "unofficial reporter for the A.B.C." "don't rightly cotton to that."

For scorekeepers an "Absent Bowlers Mark Table" could be cut out and used in their trade. 174 to 183 9 marks, 164 to 173 8 marks, 154 to 163 7 marks, etc. "Does anyone under the age of 30 know how to keep score???"

A mixed league in Riverside had a "costume party" one league night. Third prize was a peanut (in a large box). Second prize was a penny (in a large box). The grand prize was a dill pickle (in a large box).

That takes the cake! It's been fun in '48.

telPlanner.com and the International Bowling Museum and Hall of Fame.

GEICO, one of America’s largest automobile insurers, will celebrate its 13th anniversary as a primary partner of the PBA by serving as the entitlement partner of WSOB VII. GEICO serves more than 13 million private passenger customers and insures more than 22 million vehicles (auto & cycle).

PBA CEO and Commissioner Tom Clark also announced that Rolltech, which has provided PBA with enhanced live scoring and statistical data for PBA Tour events over the past two years, will be title sponsor for the PBA World Championship which will culminate with the finals telecast Thursday Dec. 17 at 4 p.m. PT. Rolltech also provides mobile and web applications related to tracking individual, league and event bowling scores and statistics as well as connecting bowlers for real-life borderless competition.

The Silver Legacy and Reno-Sparks Convention and Visitors Authority join the WSOB in the first year of a two-year sponsorship agreement.

Located in downtown Reno, the Silver Legacy Resort Casino offers amenities and attractions for the perfect vacation getaway. Towering above downtown as the newest and tallest casino hotel, spacious guest rooms and suites offer grand views of the city skyline and mountains. The Silver Legacy features big-name entertainment, six award-winning restaurants, eight shops and boutiques, outdoor pool, health spa and state-of-the art fitness center.

Reno, known as the “Biggest Little City In the World” and has hosted major bowling events for nearly four decades, is a beautiful four season resort destination - in a spectacular natural setting - that offers world class gaming, attractions, activities and events to excite the passion of almost anyone.

After the Rolltech PBA World Championship, the ESPN telecast schedule continues with four animal pattern finals telecasts on consecutive Sundays at 10 a.m. PT, beginning with the PBA Cheetah Championship presented by PBA Bowling Challenge Mobile Game by Concrete Software on Dec. 20. The official mobile game of the PBA features actual tournaments, oil patterns, bowling balls and legendary PBA bowlers.

PBA Bowling Challenge Mobile game has surpassed 8.3 million downloads on Android mobile devices, and has added almost 2 million downloads on iOS and Apple devices which translates into 4,700 downloads per day by Android users and 2,700 daily downloads by iOS users.

The PBA Viper Championship presented by Xtra Frame, PBA’s online bowling channel, will air Dec. 27. The PBA’s live streaming digital service has grown 200 percent since 2013, added hundreds of hours of live content including PBA50, PWBA and all PBA national events.

The PBA Chameleon Championship presented by HotelPlanner.com will air on Jan. 3. HotelPlanner.com is a leading provider of online services to the global group hotel sales market. Its technology ensures the lowest rates by allowing bowlers and bowling fans to receive quotes online directly from hotel group sales managers.

Utah-based Storm Products, the maker of high-performance bowling balls and accessories, is presenting sponsor of the Mark Roth/Marshall Holman PBA Doubles Championship which will air on Jan. 17.

WSOB telecasts will conclude on Jan. 24 at Noon PT with the PBA Challenge presented by the International Bowling Museum and Hall of Fame, the keeper of the sport’s history, located on the International Bowling Campus in Arlington, Texas. The unique PBA Challenge finals will feature PBA50, PBA Regional and PWBA-PBA Women’s Regional title matches.

Other PBA participating WSOB VII partners include PBA product registered companies 900 Global, Brunswick, Roto Grip, Storm, Track, Ebonite, Columbia 300, Hammer, Radical, DV8, MOTIV, Dexter, High 5 Gear, Vise, Turbo, KR Strikeforce, Mongoose, Power House, Master, AMF300, Lane Masters, Legends, 3G, Genesis and Rolltech.

bowl every weekend and having the head-to-head competition, especially on the various patterns, will only make us stronger going into this tournament,” she said.

The last World Women’s Championships was held in 2013 in Henderson, Nevada. Team USA will look to reclaim the coveted five-player team title after falling to Korea in the title match.

Bowling fans around the world will be able to watch all qualifying rounds, semifinals and finals live on BowlTV. Go to BOWL.com/LiveStream for the complete schedule (all times Eastern) and check BOWL.com for complete coverage from the event.

JAT Sport JuniorRecap Great Start for Lamaki Welch

by David Schiada

NORWALK — New bowlers are always welcomed in JAT Sport Junior’s and this week newcomer Lamaki Welch wasted no time landing the top spot. Lamaki led Saturday’s action at Keystone Lanes with a four game series of 680 including this week’s high game of 200 on the final week of the Eiffel Tower pattern. We would also like to welcome Montey Christia to JAT Sport Junior’s. Roger Chavez had the second highest series, rolling his new season high of 653. Kylie Shishima picked up where she left off after winning the JAT Farm title last week, leading the girl’s scores with a 644 series. Jackie Azvedo, with a 134 average, rolled a nice 612 series including her high game of the season with a 187. Next week’s pattern will be the Sphinx.

Upcoming Tournaments: October 31-November 1 – JBT at Cal Bowl (Lakewood); November 1 - JAT Brunswick Challenge La Habra 300 Bowl.

JAT Sport is a league for advanced juniors who are serious about competitive bowling. The league runs every Saturday starting at noon at bowlers have an opportunity to earn scholarship awards and compete in tournaments, including the 2016 Junior Gold Championships to be held July 16-22 in Indianapolis, Indiana If you are interested in joining, please contact Armando Zavala at (562) 896-4467 or join us Keystone Lanes on Saturday at noon.

OCTOBER IS BVL MONTH

by Joy McGregor

ORANGE COUNTY — Yes, it’s that time again... Orange County is celebrating and keeping a promise made in 1942. The Orange County USBC is gearing up for our annual fund-raising drive for the Bowlers to Veterans Link (BVL), a non-profit organization of league bowlers, providing programs and services for military veterans in need!

Orange County USBC volunteers will be canvassing all Orange County centers to ask all league bowlers to contribute $1.00. Some leagues have incorporated their donation into their league funds and that is wonderful, Thank You. Our goal is to collect $9,000 and considering we have 9,000 members plus, that should not pose a problem. Remember, all proceeds and donations stay in California. BVL picks up where government funding leaves off, providing many, many items (extras) that brighten spirits and boost morale.

Please be ready with your contribution and know that your donation will guarantee you a spot in our up-coming BVL Tournament scheduled for January 23 and 24, 2016 and hosted by Linbrook Bowl.

To those of you who have served, WE THANK YOU FOR YOUR SERVICE AND SACRIFICE.....

NO BLOOD, NO GUTS, NO GORE JUST “PURE FUN” AT ANAHEIM FALL FESTIVAL

by Joy McGregor

ANAHEIM — Family Fun will be running rampant on SATURDAY, OCTOBER 24TH, 2015 at this year’s Anaheim Fall Festival/Halloween Parade and Haunted House. New location this year: PACKING HOUSE/FARMERS PARK. This treat-filled day is all free and starts off with the Harvest Festival beginning at 11AM at the Packing House/Farmers Park. Gabriel Ramirez Rolls His First Perfect Game at California State Singles Championships

by Fred Eisenhammer

WINNETKA – Gabriel Ramirez of Monterey Park provided one of the biggest highlights of the 2015 California state singles championships last weekend at Winnetka Bowl by blasting his first perfect game.

The left-handed Ramirez, a 185-average bowler, nailed his 300 in the second game of his six-game set Saturday. Ramirez had rolled 11 strikes in a row in a 290 game three years ago.

Nearly 200 bowlers took part in the state singles tournament, which exceeded the tournament’s participation in 2014 in Visalia (135 bowlers) and in 2013 in Torrance (178). The tournament had four squads, divided over two days.

Official results are set to be released later in the week. The 46-year-old Ramirez put on a show with a scratch total of 1,432. That comes out to a scorching 238.8 average. He also blasted a 278 in his first game.

It was the first time that Ramirez had bowled at Winnetka Bowl. He competed in a league last season at West Covina Lanes, averaging 185. Ramirez said he was “ecstatic” about his first 300. “It’s the best I’ve ever bowled,” he said.

He added that a 300 was one of his biggest goals in bowling. “Before I died, I wanted to get a 300,” he said, laughing.

Another powerful performance was turned in by Carl Comrie, who smoked a 290 in his final game of his six-game set on Sunday.

Comrie spared in his first frame and then knocked out 11 strikes in a row.

Comrie has bowled one perfect game – that gem coming in 2011 at now-defunct Wagon Wheel Bowl in Oxnard.

Comrie also had bowled during Saturday’s action. He said he didn’t bowl well the first day so he was “glad to redeem myself.”

Comrie had scores on Sunday of 220, 212, 238, 228, 191 and 290. “It was my best six games ever,” said Comrie, who averaged over 200 last year in league play at Winnetka Bowl and Buena Lanes in Ventura.

BURBANK — Recently, the bowling world lost a very dear friend. Bill Mossontte was a man of great kindness. He kept bowling alive in his many centers welcoming and supporting a jillion youth bowlers. More often than not, he was handing money over to Diddy Watts to provide something for the kids. Diddy has been gone awhile now and those of us that worked with her miss her dearly as well.

It was a bit like watching Laurel & Hardy when the two of them would go at it. They would parlay, stab and jab, all the while thoroughly enjoying the play of power and ending with Bill giving Diddy what she needed. Bill & Diddy were, and still are, powerhouse names in the local bowling community. Always let it be said though, both were devoted to keeping the youth going.

Bill was generous to a fault, giving when asked, helping when needed.

A self made man, he worked hard making a life for himself and his family. He gave business advice freely if asked and influenced our own Janie in her times of query.

I am proud to have known Bill. And I am happy to carry on his philosophies regarding the youth bowlers. The bowling world is a better place for having Bill Mossontte in it and I for one, will miss him greatly.

Pro Approach Locks Up 1st Round • Vernon Adams Perfect

by David Yamauchi

DOWNEY — The Brunswick Invitational hit the lanes for week 6 of 7 on the “house” round and as suspected scores continue to be high as the bowlers have tweaked their arsenals and attack angles to match up with the new lanes. Vernon Adams put up a couple honor scores with a perfect 300 and 800 series to lead the league. Only one week of scoring left before the league transitions to the infamous 2nd round “short” shot which should bring scores back in check.

In the “A” match, Professional Approach who had only lost two games all round took on Forest Lanes whose 2616 last week was enough to bump them to the “A” match, though they are 6 back at 17-8.

Last bunch to join the party Lee Liu’s 15.5-9.5 Team 20 met up with the J.A.T. alums who were top of the 15-10 teams. Lee’s team lost the first game but came back for 4 wins led by Lee Liu with a nice 669 set. J.A.T. took the first game but lost their look led by David Yamauchi with a nice 738 series.

Keystone Lanes and Linder’s Insurance matched up their 15-10 records on back-to-back weeks after bowling to a 3-2 result last week. Kevin Valmonte finally found a look leading Linder to three wins with a nice 715 set while Arnold Cheeseman paced Keystone with a 712.

Threadworks at 15-10 dropped down to meet Bowlum at 14-11 who jumped a couple spots after winning three last week. Threadworks used super-sub Kevin Jones’ 702 set to sweep past Bowlum. AshkanTahvildaran paced Bowlum with a 684 set.

Alhambra Coin Center jumped up with 4 wins last week to meet Bobby Campagnale’s Team 3 who was coming off a sweep. Alhambra struck their way to 4 wins led by T.J. Abahazy’s 711 and George Gaucin 700. Bobby Campagnale’s went 736 to help secure their one win.

Sysco dropped to the middle of the pack as their subs were only able to manage 1 win last week. They met up with Wowo’s Smokin’ Hot BBQ who jumped back to near .500 with their sweep last week. Sysco got back on line with 4 wins led by Jamie Rovner’s 686 and Gabriel Martinez’ 685. Greg Neuer led Wowo’s with a nice 721 set to help get one win.

Eddie VanDaniker’s Team 15 got the Pino’s Pizza crew in a 13-14 matchup. The match went to a 3-2 split with Team 15 getting the extra point for totals. Brian Main led Team 15 with a big 750 set while Leonard Ruiz Jr. worked the anchor spot with a 696 set.

David Wilk’s Team 10 swept last week to jump up to meet the Relax-Release-Repeat crew. The triple R crew got 4 wins with Vernon Adams lighting up the lanes with a perfect 300 and 800 series to lead the league. Ryan Hinchliffe posted a nice 764 set in the one-win effort.

Cook’s Bowling Supply and Kevin Gagnon’s Team 16 both got swept last week to drop them to a 17th-18th matchup this week. Team 16 got hot and swept the match led by Kevin Gagnon 681. Nobody on the Cook’s crew was able to break 6 though Matt Schermerhorn came close with a 594 set.

Charles Zelaya’s Team 5 and Matt Mosley’s Team 2 rounded out the matchups for this Monday. Zelaya’s group put up some numbers led by Matt Garcia’s huge 777 set. Matt Mosley shot 703 in the losing effort.

Sidepots went to Sol Cericos 280 and Vernon Adams 300 for $63 each. Third game super pot went to Vernon Adams-278 for $189. Financial Advisor’s Pot went to Vernon Adams-300 for $220 and 2nd place Matt Garcia-290 for $100. Come on down next Monday night and see some great bowling in the best scratch league in town!
