Is Hilltop Bowl Haunted?!

by Jim Goodwin, for the Bowling News Network

WAXAHACHIE, TX—It is that time of year when kids return to school, football is back, morning breezes become very pleasant, and thoughts turn toward the holidays ahead.

For this writer, the new season always coincides with fall league bowlers returning to the lanes, and it leads to one of our favorite holidays – Halloween; a time for ghosts and goblins, and fun for all the kids, grandkids, and the young-at-heart.

For this “spirited” story, we travel to the beautiful little city of Waxahachie, Texas, about a half-hour drive down Interstate 35 from the new International Bowling Campus in Arlington, the heart of the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex.

You may remember Waxahachie from the national news in the late 80’s and early 90’s – it was the site selected by the United States Energy Department for the construction of the largest scientific project of the 20th century (aside from NASA) – the Superconducting Super Collider.

The “SSC” was an international effort first introduced by President Ronald Reagan to build the world’s largest atom smasher – a 54-mile oval shaped underground tunnel where atomic particles traveling at light speed in opposite directions would crash into one another.

The scientific community was extremely excited that it would lead to new discoveries about the origins of the universe, and other finds too difficult for mere mortals to understand. City fathers were even more excited about the potential for the local economy.

The project would have employed more than 2500 scientists and created thousands more permanent ancillary jobs, but alas, it was cancelled by Congress in 1993 after about 25% of construction on the 10,000 acre site was completed; and Waxahachie returned to its origins as a small farming community known for its ornate courthouse, and many historic homes. Its Gingerbread Trails Home Tour draws thousands of visitors each summer.

But this story is about a different kind of energy – the paranormal kind.

Hilltop Super Bowl, one of the eight centers in Jamie Brooks’ Texas stable, is a very busy and friendly 16-lane facility managed by Sharion Harwell. It sits on a hill next to a golf course, only a few hundred yards south of America’s busiest North-South interstate highway.

Hilltop is a happy place for its employees and customers, but there is one ‘person’ that, according to many, seems to come and go randomly at all hours. “We just call him “Brad” because we believe he may be the spirit of a young man who died as a teenager back in the 1970’s,” said Harwell.

There have been several sightings over the years, and always of the same image; a young man wearing blue jeans and a white shirt, believed to be Brad Mooney, who was found the victim of a drug overdose

Kulick Wins PBA Women’s World Championship

ALLEN PARK, MI—Kelly Kulick of Union, N.J., earned the right to become the first woman to bowl in the Professional Bowlers Association Tournament of Champions thanks to her victory in the inaugural PBA Women’s World Championship at Thunderbowl Lanes in suburban Detroit.

Kulick’s historic victory aired Sunday on ESPN. The first of eight PBA World Series of Bowling telecasts also included a long-awaited win for Detroit area favorite Harry Sullins, who ended a 15-year winless dry spell in the resurrected PBA Senior World Championship.

Kulick, the only woman ever to earn an exemption to bowl full-time on the Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour, defeated Shannon Pluhowsky of Phoenix, 219-204, to win the newly-created major championship for women bowlers. In addition to her berth in the PBA Tournament of Champions Jan. 19-24 at Red Rock Casino in Las Vegas, Kulick earned $15,000 and a spot in the end-of-season PBA Women’s Showdown presented by BOWL.COM.

Kulick bowled a clean game including a late string of three strikes to build a 35-pin lead in the eighth frame. Pluhowsky finished with four strikes in a row, but it wasn’t enough to overcome an unconverted 8-10 split in her third frame.

SST will be at Del Rosa Lanes November 7 & 8

SAN BERNARDINO—Don’t miss out on this one. Guaranteed for this tournament $1,000.00 first place with 33 entries in each division.

“It’s a long overdue win,” Kulick said. “I’ve been knocking on the door for awhile. I came close in the (United States Bowling Congress) Queens earlier in the year.” Kulick finished second to Liz Johnson of Cheektowaga, N.Y., in the Queens in Reno, Nev.

“Last year I wasn’t exempt for the PBA Women’s Series and that really gave me things to think about. I was kinda depressed at first and then I really refocused,” Kulick added. “I asked myself if I belonged out here, but I went back to my routines – worked out, exercised, practiced a lot – and ever since the Queens, things have gotten better and better.

“Getting a chance to bowl in the Tournament of Champions is the icing on the cake. You blow out the candle and your wish comes true. My focus was on winning the title,” she continued, “but now I not only get to go to Las Vegas, but I get to bowl with the guys, which I’ve enjoyed doing in the past.

“My only failure on the men’s tour (during the 2006-07 season) was that I hit the pocket as often as they did, but I didn’t knock down as many pins because I don’t have as high of a rev rate. That said, if you want to be the best, you have to bowl against the best players, so the only way I’m going to get better is to bowl against them. I’ll enjoy the experience in the Tournament of Champions and we’ll see what happens.”

The finals of the Motor City Open, the inaugural event of the 2009-10 Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour season, will air next Sunday on ESPN at 1 p.m. Eastern.

Orange County Ladies Win Big at 2009 Women’s State USBC Tournament

by B.A. Campbell

WESTMINSTER—The Niko Niko Trios ladies bowling league at Westminster Lanes got an early October treat on the 20th when one of their Traveler teams received awards for winning the 2009 Women’s California USBC “D” Division Team event with a score of 1797.

Orange County USBC Association Manager Cheryl Huntington and OC USBC Youth Director Linda Stewart presented crystal engraved trophies to Kazie Yates of Los Alamitos, Rachel Sanders of Westminster, Joyce Crocker of Costa Mesa and Louise Viloria of Anaheim. Sanders, who had to switch to using her left-hand in 2007 due to shoulder surgery, said that the switch from right to left gave her a challenge, but, “I have way more fun left-handed. I took right-handed bowling too seriously.” Apparently so: Sanders also received a trophy for a first place tie in the State tournament’s “E” Division All-events, with a score of 1,292.

Every year the Niko Niko ladies enter teams in the state and local tournaments, and occasionally organize to go to the National tournaments. Team arranger Marge Miyoda, who has drawn from over three decades of organizing groups to go to National, State and local tournaments, said that “this is the first time in thirty years that one of the teams I arranged ever won a first place.” The ladies are now planning for tournament bowling next year, probably with a bit more inspiration from their fellow bowlers’ success.

Congratulations also go to all Orange County USBC ladies who won prizes in the 2009 California Women’s Championships. Of the 640 total prizes distributed, 127 went to OC ladies-- nearly 20 percent of the total. Special shout out to Rachel Hickenbottom, who won 1st in “Classic” All-events with a total score of 2116; Michelle Van Wyhe and Kim Dibenedetto, who won 1st in “Classic” Doubles with a score of 1450; and Barbara Peimbert, who tied for 1st in “E” Division All-events with a score of 1292.

Suburban Lanes Strikes Out At Breast Cancer

Pink Lemonade Sales Lead To Green Donation To Susan G. Komen for the Cure

DECATUR, GA – Susan G. Komen for the Cure, Greater Atlanta, received a major contribution this week from Suburban Lanes bowling center of Decatur. The $2,350 donation was accepted by Jessica Murdock, community development director of the Greater Atlanta affiliate during a ceremony October 21.

“The contribution is in keeping with our motto, ‘In the Community, for the Community,’” said Tom Walker, Suburban Lanes owner. “It also solidifies our commitment to assist community organizations in their efforts to address critical issues which impact our employees, families and customers.

For the past year, Suburban Lanes has dedicated the proceeds from the sale of pink lemonade to a charity fund. “This practice will continue,” Walker added, “with pink lemonade proceeds dedicated to Bowl for the Cure and the center’s recently established Bowling DeKalb County Schools Scholarship Program. The first scholarships will be presented to graduating seniors in the spring of 2010.”

Walker explained the idea to dedicate monies to Bowl for the Cure grew out of a conversation with Ann Barr, president of the Decatur Women’s Sports League. After learning the purpose of the Women’s league is to raise money for breast cancer research, he recommended the center support their efforts by dedicating pink lemonade sales to the affiliate.

In addition, to the $2,000 received from pink lemonade sales, two center-hosted bowling tournaments netted $350.

Organizations interested in obtaining more information about fundraising opportunities can contact Tom Walker at (404) 373-2514.

MARIE KNOUSE Celebrates Fifty Years Of Bowling At Empire Bowl

by Frank Weiler

REDLANDS—EMPIRE BOWL celebrated it’s 50th “birthday” last month and Marie Knouse has bowled there since the beginning.

In 1959, while Marie was waitressing at Redlands Country Club, golfers invited her to join their bowling team at the newly opened Empire Bowl. At age thirty-nine, she had never bowled before, but accepted their challenge. She started out with a 101 average and ended the season at 130, the leagues most improved bowler.

Last week, Knouse celebrated her 89th birthday (October 21) and bowled a 578 scratch series in Empire Bowl’s senior scratch league. Her all time highs are 170 (average), 256 (game), and 623 (series). Her 170 average was bowled at the age of 70!

Knouse exhibits a classic, smooth style, similar to current day pro bowler Missy Bellinder. Watching her bowl, I am convinced that this wonderful lady could have been a pro bowler had she had the opportunity to start bowling as a youngster and had proper coaching.

Make That “Queen” Of The Hill at Tustin

by B.A. Campbell

TUSTIN — Carol Witherspoon became the first champion of the “King of the Hill” Scratch Elimination tournament at Tustin Lanes this past Sunday, taking home $250.

With a entry field of 28 bowlers, the competition started with a three game qualifying, cutting to 16; then one game cut to the top 8 cashers; then the top 4; then the final match for 1st and 2nd, which was a tense game between Kelly Manier and Witherspoon.

With the score tied by the third frame, Witherspoon fired off two strikes and opened in the sixth, while Manier got ahead with three spares. He couldn’t get his first shots to carry, having to spare through the ninth, while Witherspoon stayed ahead by six pins.

In the tenth, it was two strikes and eight for her 208, one strike and seven-spares for his 193. Witherspoon, who works for the Postal Service, hails from Tustin and used an Ebonite The One drilled by Tom Long of Whittier Bowling Supply.

Derek Lee Tops Field in 1st ABTA Win at Linbrook

He also hits Match Series $300 • Sanders Hits $1,055 Match Game
SPECIAL EVENT HANDICAP BONUS AT FOREST LANES
Bring in a new bowler and bowl for only $20 (a $33 savings) at Forest
Qualify 12:00-1:00-2:30-4:00 & 6:00PM Semis 7:45PM
Two Free nights for Las Vegas and a 900 Global Ball

ANAHEIM—Derek Lee finally was the Champion as the young gentleman from Cypress won at Linbrook in a stupendous performance finally downing Luciano Bruzzoni in the title game to take home a nice $1,400 for the win.

The scoring was good at Linbrook with 176 entrants enjoying the Linbrook hospitality. The cut scores were Men +85, and Ladies +38 to make the semifinals. Also added were Super Seniors Lonzell Burnett, Ely Cruz, and Bobble Mc Collum. The fine field of 45 was now set.

Derek Lee found the shot and led the semis with a nice +162. So he would sit out and bowl for the title with Jim Moore so close as runner-up at +156. He would sit out the first round of the single elim finals and enter in round two. It took a nice +84 (men) and +58 for the 3 guaranteed women to make the top 16 single elims.

In round One of the finals Single elim losing out were Irene Kang, Ping Romero, E.J. Rogers, Greg Kokanour, Danny Nguyen, Roger Vasquez and Ariel Ocampo, received checks of $100 each. Round two saw Hazel Castillo, Daniel Cha, Bedell Vasquez, and Jim Moore lose out. They got checks for $110 in 6th thru 9th places.

Round three really go hot as we had Henry Kim take out Dave Godinez 242-218. Luciano Bruzzoni edged Monica Path 221-21. Monica and J. T. were 4th and 5th with great bowling and $120 with Luciano and Henry to meet for the right to bowl Derek for the title.

Henry seemed to lose his shot in this game and Luciano bowled well in a 214-172 margin. Henry was 3rd with a great shot Henry saved me some horse as I was not there! :))) He finished 3rd and Luciano was off to the title game and was the horse winner of $95 for his faithful.

The title game now underway. We would have a new champion at Linbrook. Luciano opened, then Derek spared and then tossed a four bagger. As Luciano was struggling to find his shot Derek took a nice lead. Luciano couldn't carry to catch up although he tried in vain, but the title went to the young man from Cypress in a resounding 229/269-154-210 margin. He finally wins his first title. Great bowling by one of the nicer young men in the club who bowls most every event he can. He is a great supporter as Luciano who will win one soon. He is an up and coming bowler. Derek has improved immensely and is now a champion. Great Bowling Derek!!! Title #2 perhaps in his future!

Nice bowling by long time member and friend Henry Kim in 3rd. Also Monica Path and Dave Godinez really bowled well, and could have won this one.

Tourney Hi Qualifiers were Chris Kelly +178 (men) and pretty Hazel Castillo led the ladies +175 good for a paid entry to any regular tournament.

The doubles were topped by Chris Kelly and Greg Kokanour 1525 and $140. We paid 17 places and $1,000 in the doubles.

The Match Game was Matched at 252 by Deborah Sanders. She took home a tidy $1,055. We will estimate a Match Gme of $1,750 in our Special Event at Forest Lanes this Saturday.

The Match Series was Matched at 568 by the Champion Derek Lee and he happily accepted the $300. We estimate the Match Series to be $400 at Forest and only $2,00 to enter. ## National Deaf Bowling News

by Connie Marchione

DeGroff Still Hot With 258/934 In Deaf Travel At AMF Cerritos Lanes

CERRITOS — Kenneth DeGroff has bowled in many different bowling centers across the nation and bowling in AMF Cerritos Lanes for the first time did not faze him. So in the 50th Anniversary So. Calif. Deaf Traveling League's stop at AMF Cerritos Lanes, the newcomer just let his ball do the work there last Sunday. The result was his 4th consecutive 700 and 900 series; both are league records. His games were 226-247-258 (731)-203 for a 934 series.

This writer founded this first ever all deaf traveling league back in 1960. As it's secretary-treasurer, I've kept all its records since that showed more than 300 deaf bowlers bowled once or for years in this unique scratch match game league. Among the 300 includes the deaf and hearing-impaired all star great bowlers such as Carl Malucci, Mark Fisser and Darrell Stogryn. All three had bowled 3 consecutive 900s in this league. Only long time member Stogryn is still bowling in this league. Newcomer DeGroff's four 700s and 900s with a record 1009 are quite a feat in this league.

At AMF Cerritos Lanes, DeGroff led the league's honor roll of 14 bowlers including an 814 by durable Stogryn which included games of 241-243. Three bowlers came close to 800 with Deaf Seniors Singles Champion Robert Taylor closing with a 224 after games of 189-191-183 for 787. Taylor was matched against DeGroff and finally won a point from him on the fourth game. Two others were long time member and league President Ed Abakumoff with 203-244/785 and long time member Andy Lorenzo with 256-203/780. Teammates Pablo Yoma and Robert Audette were next with (202-203) 769 and (228) 754, respectively. Followed by Bob Jones 211/760, Frank Soletto 716, sub Lonnie Jones Jr. 705 and Emad Aranki 702. Don Millwee had a 231, Bob Bergan 212 and Alfonso Ruelas 212.

Taylor's Mid City with Millwee's 231, Denis Vigil's 198, LeRoy MacMonagle's 198 and Taylor's 183 scored the day's high team game 810 after a battle against DeGroff's Sunland which had 794 including DeGroff's 258. Mid City's 810 tied the season high team game of 810 made in last session by Riverside. Sunland had team games of 721-706-794 but finished with 694 with the day's high team series of 2915, 9 pins short of Beach Cities season high 2924.

League leader Beach Cities with 5 points each from Yoma and Audette continued its domination with a 19 to 6 win over Stogryn's El Camino Village and now led with 10 points ahead of Riverside. While former 2nd place Taylor's Mid City battled with 3rd place DeGroff's Sunland for 2nd place, Riverside in 6th place won a near sweep 22-3 battle over Orange County and jumped 4 places up to second with Sunland a 15.5 to 9.5 winner over Mid City in 3rd place.

The league thanks AMF Cerritos Lanes General Manager Ron Peter and his staff for their excellent hosting. We will move onto Oak Tree Lanes in Diamond Bar on Sunday, November 8. This will be a challenge for Ken DeGroff to extend his 700 and 900 series record in this league.

NOTE TO READERS... This writer regrets the delay in getting the all-events, men's and women's qualifying and match play elimination results of the 13th annual Deaf Seniors of America tournament held two weeks ago at The Orleans Hotel, Bowling Center in Las Vegas.

Be sure to turn your clocks back on Saturday night after all the Halloween activities.

Mini-Eliminator Expands It’s Recruiting Program

LAS VEGAS, NV — Now that the Mini-Eliminators are two, with the introduction of the 210 & under Classified Mini, it has expanded its recruiting program to include both events. Scratch bowlers may now recruit handicap bowlers and handicap bowlers can recruit scratch bowlers to earn free entries into either Mini-Eliminator.

Currently, bowlers looking to earn a free entry into the scratch Mini-Eliminator had to recruit two other scratch bowlers to earn a free entry or 4 scratch bowlers to earn a free Marathon entry. With the new recruiting program scratch bowlers can now recruit handicap bowlers and receive partial credit. For every two handicap bowlers recruited by a scratch bowler they will receive one full credit towards a free scratch entry.

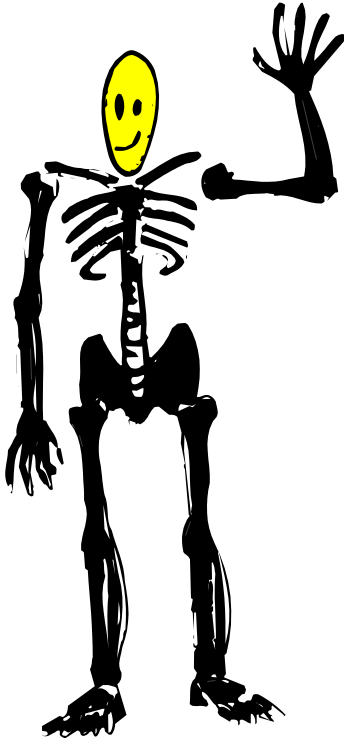

To earn a free scratch entry into the Mini-Eliminator a bowler can recruit 4 handicap bowlers, or 2 scratch bowlers, or 1 scratch bowler and 2 handicap bowlers. To earn the free Marathon entry ($895 value) a scratch bowler can recruit 8 handicap bowlers or 4 handicap bowlers and two scratch bowlers.

Bowlers looking to earn free entries into the Classified Mini-Eliminator can now receive credit for recruiting scratch bowlers. Before the new recruiting program was announced a handicap bowler had to recruit 4 Classified Mini-Eliminator entries to earn one free entry. Now they can recruit two scratch bowlers and earn the free entry or 1 scratch bowler and 2 handicap bowlers to get the free entry.

With the expansion of the recruiting program a scratch bowler could “sponsor” 8 Classified Mini-Eliminator bowlers at a cost of $800 and get a free scratch Marathon Entry worth $895! Classified Mini bowlers looking to earn a free Marathon entry into the handicap event can do so by recruiting 6 handicap bowlers or 3 scratch bowlers.

The Mini-Eliminators, which are sponsored by Columbia 300, Kegel, Etonic, and virtualtournaments.com, will take place February 3-7 at the South Point Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas. The scratch Mini-Eliminator will guarantee the top 10 prizes, including $20,000-1st and 1 in 6 bowlers earning $1,000. The Classified Mini-Eliminator will have guaranteed top prizes of $5,000 and $2,500 and feature entry fees as low as $75. For more Mini-Eliminator information please visit www.minieliminator.com or call 1.877.900.MINI.

HILLTOP BOWL

near the center’s parking lot on the day of his demise.

Former Hilltop proprietors Richard and Donna Lonon are believers. “I’m not one who normally believes such things,” said Donna, “but there were so many incidents that we can’t explain.”

Her most vivid personal memory is being in the center late at night after closing, and seeing shadows moving across the lane surface, as if someone were walking in the back behind the pinsetters and masking units. But she knew no one was there, and when she checked – no one was there. . . “But the moving shadows were real,” she said.

During the years they owned the business, Richard had several ‘close encounters.’ Like Donna, he can’t explain how objects changed locations from one night to the next morning when no one was in the building, or how lights and machines went on and off by themselves.

One night, while closing the books for the day, he heard a loud noise from behind the pinsetters. When he went to investigate, he found the mechanic’s tools strewn on the concrete floor – but the mechanic had left an hour before. And all the doors were locked from the inside.

The center mechanics also reported sightings. Ken Danford, who worked with Richard and Donna, was working on a pinsetter one day, and he saw a man wearing jeans and a white shirt standing by the door. Knowing customers were not supposed to be in the machine area, he yelled at the guy, who quickly darted out the door toward the front of the center. When he went to the front desk to ask who the guy was, Richard told him he had been at the front desk the whole time, and no one had entered or exited the pinsetter area.

In recent years, Sharion Harwell cannot claim to have seen the spirit, but does acknowledge some strange happenings. “One day, we kept having pinsetter problems, one after another during a big league. Finally, when we couldn’t find any reason for the breakdowns, we got on the PA to the back and yelled ‘Brad, whatever you are doing, cut it out!’ – we didn’t have another problem all day.”

All of the encounters seem to suggest that “Brad” is not an evil spirit – just a little mischievous, like a typical teenager. And he hasn’t been seen or heard from recently. Maybe he is hanging out in one of Waxahachie’s 100 year-old-homes; or maybe he has taken up residence with Elizabeth Anderson, a young lady who was strangled to death on her wedding day in her father’s house, which is now the Catfish Plantation Restaurant – another famous Waxahachie haunt.

But that is a story for another day.

In ThursdayLinbrook Juniors

ANAHEIM — All eyes were set on J.D. Greenhalgh in the THURSDAY LINBROOK JUNIORS. J.D. started the day with a nice 247 game and followed it with his first perfecto, a 300 game, in game 2. J.D. is no stranger to great scores as he is averaging a super 216 in the league. With 547 after 2 games, he still needed to score a 253 game for his first 800 series. In frame 8, J.D. left a solid 9 pin but finished with 4 strikes to secure a 258 game and an awesome 805 series. J.D.'s picture will go up on our junior 300 club display that honors all our 300 youth bowlers. J.D. was using a Storm Paradigm. Congratulations J.D. on some super bowling! Andrew Stewart, who is averaging 228, had a fine day of bowling with a terrific 704 series on games of 221-246-237. Matt Nickeson scored a couple of sizzling games with 204-234 for a fabulous 616 series. Thomas Muriye continues to improve with a dazzling 203 game. Whatever achievement is made it is rewarding to see them love to bowl! Congratulations again, J.D.!
