BPAA TO CELEBRATE WOMEN'S PROFESSIONAL BOWLING IN 2014

Women's All Star Tournament and Bowling's U.S. Senior Women's Open Set For Rockford, Illinois

ARLINGTON, TX — The Bowling Proprietors' Association of America (BPAA) today announced plans for two exciting women's bowling tournaments in 2014. The Women's All Star Tournament and Bowling's U.S. Senior Women's Open are scheduled for Rockford, Illinois in mid-July 2014. The two contests include a dinner honoring women bowlers as well as other events celebrating the history of women's professional bowling.

"Women have made so many valuable contributions to the sport of bowling and provided some of the best excitement on the lanes," said BPAA President Cathy DeSocio. "It is only fitting we honor the stars of the past as well as showcase the stars of today and the future," adding, "Traditionally, women have not had the same type of high profile events as the men, and we think this is a perfect opportunity to turn the spotlight on them."

Women's pro bowling started in 1959 with the original Professional Women's Bowling Association (PWBA) holding their first event in 1960. The Ladies Pro Bowling Tour (LPBT), which began in 1981, became the new PWBA in 1998 and enjoyed a five year run.

BPAA's Tournament Committee says it will focus on the Women's All Star Tournament and Bowling's U.S. Senior Women's Open while they reboot the Men's and Women's Bowling's U.S. Open formats to resume in 2015.

"After running successful events in Dallas, Reno and most recently in Columbus, and soliciting in-depth feedback from participants and BPAA member centers, we want to look at ways to freshen and improve the Men's and Women's Bowling's U.S. Opens in 2015 and beyond," said John Losito, chair of the BPAA Tournament Committee. "In the meantime, we are excited to have the opportunity to celebrate women's bowling in 2014 with these two great events."

PBA WORLD SERIES TO FEATURE ADVANCED STATISTICAL ANALYSIS

The PBA will be working with two new "official statistics providers" during the PBA World Series of Bowling V at South Point Oct. 26-Nov. 3 to provide new levels of statistical analysis of the competition.

Rolltech Bowling (rolltech-bowling.com) will provide additional stats, displayed on the pba.com live scoring pages, that will allow fans to track players against the field in the following categories: average, strike percentage, spare percentage, split conversion percentage and open frame percentage.

Lanetalk (Lanetalk.com) will provide qualifying round reports during both Xtra Frame and ESPN telecasts, including detailed information on pair equity (average scores by pair) and player performance (average by pair, scoring by game that will reveal averages late in a round vs. early in the round, strike percentage on strike strings, 10th frame strike percentage and more).

"The age of technology is providing PBA fans with unprecedented data to better understand and appreciate the skills of players who compete at the highest levels of competition the sport," said PBA Commissioner Tom Clark. "We're very happy to introduce Rolltech and Lanetalk as Official Statistics Providers to the PBA."

THE GHOST of LAVERNE CARTER

by Frank Weiler

While it continued to pour, a damp fog began to roll across the highway. With visibility at zero I began to shake. I was SPOOKED. I calmed down a bit when Laverne signaled for me to relax. It helped to see her very calm. Then I noticed that she remained perfectly dry while in the midst of the storm! "BELIEVE IT OR NOT" nothing touched her. I still remember wondering what is going on?

The lady in white then walked to the side, entered the car and sat next to me. "Okay it's safe to go" she said.

As I drove we began to talk and I asked who she was? She said she was "THE GHOST OF LAVERNE CARTER!" I told her I WAS SCARED AS HELL and she responded "don't use that word, I have friends there and they hate it."

LaVerne continued, saying she came to protect me because I had prayed for her when she was ill. She wanted to make sure I slowed down enough to avoid some falling rocks further up the road. "Those in heaven never forget their friends" she said.

Sure enough several miles up the road we passed a rock slide, including a five foot boulder sitting in the middle of the roadway. After making sure no one was hurt we continued our climb. I thanked her for protecting me and reached over to hug her but

SHE VANISHED.

Before leaving she had told me all about heaven. There is a heavenly version of bowling and all the greats participate. Anthony, Bomar, Day, Ladewig, Marino, McCutchen, Varipapa and Weber are better than ever. Of course former husband Don is still her favorite. The biggest surprise though was hearing that all competition up there is between us and the angels! She said that the archangels are the best bowlers but we hold our own. Can you imagine match play between saints and angels, between DON CARTER and GABRIEL!

Just as interesting was hearing her describe the golden age of American bowling. A time when bowlers developed their skills without the benefit of structured coaching programs, video replay or YOUTUBE. A world which gave birth to unique styles and unexpected results. A world where Don Carter locked his elbow, Salvino leaped, Weber whipped his arm across his chest and WRONG FOOT LOUIE planted his right foot. EVERYONE BOWLS ALIKE TODAY.

When I reached the summit I felt a slight sweet breeze and looked to my right. LaVerne was back for a moment. She winked and asked me to tell Cayce and Jim all was well.

RESULTS OF 17TH ANNUAL DEAF SENIOR BOWLERS OF AMERICA TOURNAMENT

LAS VEGAS — The 17th annual Deaf Senior Bowlers of America (DSBA) drew 52 men aged 55 and over and 24 women aged 50 and over for their respective Singles event last October 15-17 at The Orleans Hotel and Casino Bowling Center. The Mixed Doubles had 38 pairs entered and its popular respective Qualifying and Match Plays events drew 44 men and 16 women.

The newly elected DSBA Secretary-Treasurer Ed Abakumoff, Riverside said the three days events ran smoothly with a minor mishap in the match plays. Here are the new winners of each events, 2nd and 3rd place finishers and the highlights.

LAUER-SKEDSMO CAPS WOMEN'S SINGLES, DAYTON WINS MEN'S SINGLES

Francine Lauer-Skedsmo, AZ with her 143 average and 67 per game handicap rolled scratch games of 149-191-185 for the Women's Singles event's only 500 high series, 525. Her 525 plus 201 handicap for 726 total won the women's Singles with 48 pins ahead of Carol Moers, CO. Also Lauer-Skedsmo's 191 is the event's high single game.

Moers, DSBA's co-founder and retired after first 16 years as its Secretary-Treasurer, had games of 160-152+183 for 495 plus 183 handicap (61 per game for her 149 average) for 678 total for 2nd place. Third place went to the tiny 149 average Hawaiian Younisi Donegan with games of 149-158-181 for 488 plus 183 handicap for 671. The last place in this event prize money is 644 by Winifred Sain, Las Vegas.

On the men's side, former DSBA Vice President Renwick Dayton, OR had his day, bowling over his 171 average with 202-193-198 for 593 plus his 117 handicap for 710 to capture the men's Singles title. Californian with 150 average, William Booth tossed two over average games of 172-212 before slumping with a 134 placed 2nd with 518 plus his 180 handicap for 698.

Third place went to Dennis Kaufman, CA with over his 174 average games of 200-194-190 for 584 plus his 108 handicap for 692. The 13th and last place score in the money is 637 by William Golyer, CA.

There were four senior bowlers with over 200 average and the event's 100% handicap from 210 made it tough for them to cash in unless they bowled big games. Two of them managed to bowl over 600, Jose Sermeno, CA with 199-219-213 for high scratch series.631 in out of money 16th place and Barry Cossman, NV with 221-203-201 for 625 for 20th place. This event's high game 226 was made by 197 average Gorman Low, CA whose 616 total placed him in 24th.

LATE PAIRING OF WRIGHT AND GLORIA WIN MIXED DOUBLES BY ONE PIN

Wilbur Wright, CA could not find a doubles partner when he sent in his entry to DSBA Secretary-Treasurer Ed Abakumoff and there were no extra bowler . So Wright had to arrive at the bowling center to find a late entry Domingo Gloria, NV being paired with him. Surprisingly it turned out that the lucky pair finished at the top of the Mixed Doubles event by one pin.

Wright with 161 average tossed over average games of 165-207-191 for 563 plus 147 handicap 710 while 148 average Gloria added 137-171-165 for 473 plus 186 handicap 659. Together their 1369 total won the DSBA Mixed Doubles event.

By a disappointed one pin, Renwick Dayton, OR after earlier winning the Singles event, almost won two events. With partner Ismael Briseno, UT rolling 165-227-174 for 566 plus 120 handicap 686, Dayton added his games of 200-160-205 for 565 plus 117 handicap 682 for their total of 1368 good for 2nd place.

Third place went to 1352 total of Carol Moers, CO and partner Lonnie Jones, Jr. CA. Moers hit 136-186-168 for 491 plus 183 handicap for 674 and Jones, Jr. helped with 142-247-208 for 597 plus 81 handicap 678. Jones. Jr. has 183 entering average.

The 9th and last place in the money score is 1316 by the duo of Linda Salcedo, CA and the petite Hawaiian Younisi Donegan. Donegan helped with 170-169-181 for 520 plus 186/703.

The event's high scratch doubles score was 1231 by the duo of Kirby King, CA (209-197-245 for 651) and Jose Sermeno, CA (191-190-199 for 580). King had 111 handicap event high 762 and Sermeno 3 handicap 583 and their total of 1345 placed them in 5th.

Dennis Kaufman, CA tied Jones, Jr.'s 247 with his 247-170-231 for 648 plus 108 for 756 but his partner Horace Smith scored 578 with handicap and their 2334 placed in 7th. The event's high individual game again went to Gorman Low, CA's 248. Low's 218-248-185 for 651 ties King's 651 for event's high individual series. Although Low and his partner Andy Lorenzo, CA total 1269 is out of money, their 2nd game total of Lorenzo's 205 and Low's 248 is the event's high scratch doubles game 453.

Next week will feature the senior women's and men's respective Qualifying Round and the Match Play events.

“The World” Wins High 5 Gear PBA League Challenge to Kick Off PBA World Series of Bowling V

LAS VEGAS (Oct. 25, 2013) – “The World,” a team of seven international stars, defeated an all-star team of American professionals Friday to win the High 5 Gear PBA League Challenge: USA vs. The World, a special event that kicked off PBA World Series of Bowling V at South Point Bowling Center.

The special event was webcast live on PBA’s online bowling channel, Xtra Frame.

The international team won the Challenge with a 211-183 Baker team victory to conclude the special event, earning three points for the team win and a 4-2 victory in the competition with featured a singles match, an alternate-ball doubles match and a Baker trio match.

In the team finale, Finland’s Osku Palermaa struck in the sixth frame, following a strike in the fifth frame by The World team captain, Jason Belmonte of Australia, to give his team the lead. Consecutive strikes by Venezuela’s Amleto Monacelli, England’s Dom Barrett and two more by Belmonte clinched the victory.

The USA had taken an early 2-1 lead when Chris Barnes defeated Finland’s Mika Koivuniemi, 265-233, in the singles match and Sean Rash, Bill O’Neill and Mike Fagan won the Baker trios contest, 234-219, over an international team composed to Belmonte, Palermaa and Monacelli. England’s Barrett and Stuart Williams defeated PBA Hall of Famers Pete Weber and Norm Duke, 257-166, in the doubles match.

The High 5 Gear PBA League Challenge: USA vs. The World was a preview for the 2014 PBA League season which gets underway on January 22 at Thunderbowl Lanes in Allen Park, Mich.

The PBA World Series officially begins when a capacity field of 240 players, representing 21 countries, bowl the Cheetah Championship qualifying and semifinal rounds Saturday. The Viper, Chameleon and Scorpion Championships – all named after distinct lane conditioning patterns used in the competition – will follow on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, respectively. Qualifying will begin at 8 a.m. and 2 p.m. PT each day, with the top 16 players advancing to the semifinal round at 7:30 p.m.

The top 24 players based upon combined qualifying totals from the four animal pattern championships will advance to the PBA World Championship match play finals Wednesday and Thursday. All of the preliminary rounds will be covered live on Xtra Frame, the PBA’s subscription-based online television channel. A special World Series of Bowling Day Pass is available for $5 per day. Monthly and full-year subscriptions also are available for $7.99 or $64.99, respectively. PBA fans also can follow the competition at no cost by watching “live scoring” on pba.com.

The World Series of Bowling V concludes with two full days of television finals on Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 2-3, on special lanes installed in South Point’s Exhibition Hall B.

SEAN GOES ALL THE WAY FOR HIS 2ND ABTA TITLE

Abarca, Barcelona and Ta split $860 for Match Series 601

Match Game $5,000 and 3-6-9 Carry Over to OAK TREE LANES

MATCH GAME IS $5,000 • MATCH SERIES est $1,200 • 3-6-9 AT $800

OAK TREE LANES Saturday is the last of the 3 HDCP BONUS SPECIAL EVENTS!

LAKE FOREST — Two down, one to go. Forest Lanes hosted the second of the three HANDICAP BONUS SPECIAL events. We had 195 entries of which 46 bowlers advanced to semi-finals. Cut scores for the day were +90 for the men and +48 for the women. Super Seniors added were Sun Sundara +88 and John Camisa +71 for the men, and Wendy Soo-Hoo +22 for the women.

High qualifiers for the weekend were Meng Chea with a whopping +208 for the men and Emily Yeung with a very nice +144 for the women. They each get a paid entry to a future ABTA regular event. Top qualifier gets the privilege of drawing for the Match Series and Meng drew 601. We had a three-way tie. Winners Anthony Ta, Jojo Barcelona and Ed Abarca split the $860 prize fund.

Big winner for this week's OPTIONAL DOUBLES and cashing in 15 out of 20 places paid is SAMSON KONG. He placed 1st with "Champ" Sean Nguon with combined scores of 1493 for $140, 2nd place with Holden Au with combined scores of 1490 for $120.

Doubles paid out 20 places for a total of $1370 with a low to cash score of 1402. The Semis took the floor and Billy Chao was TOP SEED with +159 with Holden Au taking the second spot with +132. Holden will sit out the first round while Billy conditions himself for the title round. Top seed gets the honor of drawing for Match Game and Billy drew 144. Like last week, the score was UNMATCHED and our Match Game fund MAXED at $5,000 carries over this weekend to Oak Tree Lanes where we will have the final leg of the three HANDICAP BONUS SPECIAL events. Our optional 3-6-9 pot also carries over with Noli Angeles taking home the $50 consolation prize. Prize fund for 3-6-9 next week will be $800.

Cut scores for the Match Play Finals were +76 for the men and +44 for the women. Bowlers placing 10th through 16th after the first round eliminations and getting $100 each were Ed Abarca, Art Windsor, Thomas Licauco, Louis Evans, David Godinez, Yen Lach and Bobbie McCollum. Placing 6th through 9th and $105 each after the second round eliminations were Holden Au, William Garrett, Kerry Lucka and Meng Chea. For our HORSE pick finalists, payouts were $34 for Randy Sanicolas, $37 for Sean Nguon, $58 for Anthony Ta, and Pablo Castro at $104.

In the third round, Anthony Ta downed Pablo Castro 240/192 and Sean Nguon secured his win with his double in the tenth while Randy couldn't connect. Sean finished 245 against Randy's 233. Finishing 4th and 5th respectively and taking home $110 each were Randy Sanicolas and Pablo Castro. Advancing to round four for a shot at the title match were Anthony Ta and Sean Nguon. It was a close match. Funny moments broke the tension whenever Sean picks up a spare by a hair. In the end, it was the amazing 3-7-10 conversion in the 9th frame that gave Sean the edge he needed to force his opponent to punch out in the last two frames. Anthony punched out on the 10th but opened his 9th. He finished 194 against Sean's 212 and placed 3rd for $200.

Bowlmania bowler Sean Nguon faces Mou Liu bowler

Sean Nguon is Two Time ABTA Champ $2,800 at Forest Lanes — One of our most popular members and funlover -- Sean Nguon won his second title at Forest Lanes, winning five straight matches in the single elim finals. (L—R) Anthony Ta 3rd, John Diso Forest GM Extrordinaire, Sean Nguon, Champ $2,800 and Billy Chao runnerup $500.

Billy Chao for the title match. After a day's worth of play, the lanes are tough and very challenging. Billy failed to convert a 6-7 split in his 1st, a 4-6 split in his second, and missed a 10 pin in his 3rd frame. On the other side of the board, Sean spared on the 1st, converted a 3-10 baby split on the 2nd, then completed a 3-6-8 split conversion in the 3rd. Billy was able to double up in his 7th and 8th frame. He needs a punch out in the 10th to follow his spare in the 9th to force Sean to mark. No such luck as the lane gave another big split. Billy finished with a 177 game and took home $500 for 2nd place. Sean threw three more balls to finish with a 206 game and his 2nd ABTA Title. He took home the guaranteed prize fund of $1000, PLUS $1700 for the OPTIONAL Cash & Carry, PLUS $100 for wearing his ABTA Shirt, for a total of $2800!

2X Champ Sean Nguon is from Los Angeles and he used a 15lb WHITE DOT PLASTIC BALL drilled by Ed Williamson at Bowling Square. He thanks his BOWL-MANIA family for their support and friendship in and out of the lanes. He also extends his thanks to ABTA (both the tournament and staff) for providing a great tournament for bowlers to go to PLUS his Karaoke buddies Romel, Edmond and Cezar.

Runnerup Billy Chao is from Monterey Park and he used an IQ Pearl which he drilled himself. He thanks his family, fellow MOU LIU bowlers, all the ABTA staff and our host, Forest Lanes for a great event.

Third Place Anthony Ta is from Temple City and he used his Lane#1 Stealth Bomber drilled by Billy Chao. His #1 support and inspiration is wife, Annie. He also extends his thanks to fellow Mou Liu bowlers and the hard working ABTA staff.

ABTA Bowlers took home $$$$ in cash and prizes this weekend! Lord Ferguson won the new bowling ball from our sponsor, Global 900 this weekend. RAFFLE winners: Leo Silva won a night's accommodation at the Sunset Station for our February 5-6-7-8 Vegas event. Rey Josafat Sr. won an entry for our Cal Bowl Thanksgiving event. Steve Brode, Sun Sundara, and Danny Guevarra each get an entry to any of our regular events.

We thank all ABTA bowlers for your continued support and congratulations to all the winners!

Next week's event at OAK TREE LANES is the FINAL out of three HANDICAP BONUS Special Series! Two down, one to go! Bowl with a regular entry for all three events and get 2 BONUS Pins! Bowl 2 out of the 3 events and get 1 BONUS Pin! Oak Tree Lanes is located at 990 Diamond Bar Blvd., Diamond Bar. Phone 909-860-3558. Take 57 Freeway and get off at Temple and go east ¼ miles then Right on Diamond Bar Blvd or take 60 freeway to Diamond Bar Blvd and go ½ mile north on right.

Please see our ad in the California Bowling News or check out our website (www.abta1.com) for our schedule and directions.

Thanks to Super GM Jon Diso and Staff at Forest. We will return there for sure and thanks to anyone who helped in any way.

BURBANK — It's been a very busy week and because of that, I always look forward to my bowling days. Bowling seems to take me out of the rat race for a time and allows me to decompress. Not only does my love of the sport enhance this but also the pure enjoyment my fellow bowlers bring. I can only hope that you bowlers feel the same and enjoy your days/nights of bowling as much as I do. Now let us get on to the scores for last week.

McBride's Take Scratch Division Doubles Zweig's Take Handicap Division

by David Yamauchi

MONTCLAIR — The JAT hit the lanes for their first Adult/Junior of the season last Sunday at Bowlium. 42 bowlers took the lanes in the two divisions of doubles action.

In the handicap division, bowlers shot 5 games of individual qualifying and took their total scores plus handicap. After 5, Brandon Pekins and Katelyn Corwin led the field at +120 followed by Milton and Leah Zweig at +70, Robert and Dylan Cowling at -31 and Paul Salverda and Baujee Harlan at -36. Top-4 teams went on to 5 games of Baker Match Play. In Baker, Robert and Dylan Cowling game out hot with a 204 start and finished up with a pair of 221 games to lead the field at +515 and earn a spot in the Championship Match against Milton and Leah Zweig who put together a big 185 in the last game to barely edge out Paul Salverda and Baujee Harlan +216 and +161. In the Championship Match, the two teams battled but in the end it was Milton and Leah Zweig marking their way to a 166+30.5=196.5 to 176 win and Leah Zweig's first JAT title. Congratulations Milton and Leah!

In the Scratch Division, scores were high as the bowlers found their shots right out of the gate. Mark Dyer and Terrence Robinson led qualifying at +257 including Dyer winning back to back pots with 287-268 and Terrance finishing out with 258. Mikey Villarreal and Wesley Low Jr. were hot on their tail at +224 including Mikey's 243-288 start and Wesley's 264. Jerome Jordan Jr. and Joe Grondin were third at +205 and Keyon Lemus and Eric Torrance 4th at +127. Rounding out the qualifiers were Harry Wong/Bert Dominick at +117, Kevin and Ryan McBride at +52, Will Scharnow/Matthew Zweig +22 and Stevn Roderick/Brian Hernandez at +20.

Sidepot winners were Will Scharnow, Mikey Villarreal, Mark Dyer (2), and Stevn Roderick. In Baker Match-Play, the bowlers were shooting for the top-4 rolloff spots. Kevin and Ryan McBride jumped to the tournament lead with consistent shooting including a 258 start and a 269 finish to end at +464. Jerome Jordan Jr. and Joe Grondin took second seed at +439 while qualifying leaders Mark Dyer and Terrence Robinson held on to third at +341 and Harry Wong and Bert Dominick took the 4th spot with their 5th game 225 and the bonus at +323 just snapping Mikey Villarreal and Wesley Low Jr. at +278. In the Stepladder Rolloffs, Mark Dyer and Terrence Robinson took out Harry Wong and Bert Dominick 186-155 to advance to meet Jerome Jordan Jr. and Joe Grondin.

In the semi-final match it was a battle as both teams were scoring but the youngsters Jordan Jr./Grondin prevailed 238-236. In the final match, it was two JAT vets vs. a JAT Alum and an up-and-comer battling at Jerome Jordan Jr./Joe Grondin met Kevin and Ryan McBride. Both teams started strong but it was the McBride team stringing late strikes for a 214-187 win and the title. It was Ryan McBride's 4th consecutive title including three Farm Club titles and the Doubles win. Congratulations to the McBrides!

The JAT will hold its annual Awards Banquet on Saturday, November 2, 2013 at SpeedZone in City of Industry. Each award winner (All-Star Team and Rookies of the Year) will receive one free ticket to the banquet. Additional tickets for parents, siblings and other JAT bowlers who would like to come out and have a great time may be available- we have already passed the deadline but please contact me and I will see what we can do. Looking forward to hitting the track at SpeedZone!

The JAT travels east to Brunswick West Covina for a rare Saturday event in preparation for the Awards Banquet Saturday night. Both divisions will be bowling a special shortened Classic Format so we can be done in time for pizza and racing! See you all on the lanes SATURDAY!

It is always tournament time in bowling, and many bowlers take part of their vacation time to participate in events near and far. The vast majority of events are classified as handicap competitions.

Classified tournaments are those that have separate divisions, based on sanctioned average, for instance, 130 and under, 131 to 140, and so on. The greatest number are handicap, and that takes a little homework.

Handicaps in bowling are designed to equalize the playing field by awarding pins to bowlers based on official entering average. In recent decades, scoring has boomed, so what used to be scratch or the base upon which handicaps are determined, has also zoomed, from 190 to 200 to as high as 230 or more.

So if the base is 230 and you average 160, you are awarded 70 pins per game if the 100 percent ratio is used.

Some tournaments use as low as 70 percent. Some tournaments have a minimum entering average so if you are lower than the minimum set, you must take the higher score as a starter as per the tournament rules.

Those are keys to any tournament and the keys as to what tournaments are best for any bowler. If you are a high average bowler you look for the events that give the least free pins and if you're a lower average bowler you look for all the free pins you can get. Some tournaments allow so many free pins that if a low average bowler has a real hot streak, they can post scores that are impossible for a scratch bowler to attain. For instance, some bowlers can receive 240 pins in a three game set. If they roll 660 or more on their own ball, they have 900 or more, impossible for a bowler with no pin help to beat.

There are participants in all sports who look for that extra edge. In bowling they are called sandbaggers. These bowlers keep their averages down on purpose so they can receive undeserved handicap pins.

All tournaments have this tricky area as to what is the best and fairest way to handicap bowlers, and the best way to control those who look for ways to beat the rules.

Tournament managers have the authority to assign an average higher than the minimum average on the entry blank and to adjust any average based on the bowler's performance in the past. Tournament officials may request the complete tournament record of bowlers and prize money they have won the previous year.

Failure to comply or supplying false information can result in a forfeit of entry fee and prize winnings.

If the tournament officials check out the entrants the way they should and the bowlers read the entrants rules carefully, there are few problems.

But if the rules are not enforced, too many pins are awarded to too many bowlers without checking performances, scratch bowlers are mainly overlooked and the intent is to register as many entries as possible, no matter what, there is bound to be problems. There are many tournaments, national, state and local, that have been around for 50 to more than 100 years, only because they have adapted to changes needed, and fairness to all.

But the bottom line is that tournaments can't survive, unless they meet the needs of you, the bowler.

Super Sweeper Sidepot

Sponsored by Dean Sanderson of Transamerica Financial Advisors Inc.
2nd Game Sweeper Pot $380 Each Week Plus Over $14,000 On Sweeps

ROUND 2 - WEEK 1

DOWNEY — Seven teams went 5 and 0 on the first week of round two. "Short Oil" played TRICK OR TREAT on 12 teams. Heads were shaking all the way to the parking lot.

The side-pots accurately reflect the scoring — good or bad.

Game One, Steve Gaucin stole with a 223. Bobby Campagnale stepped up the pace and downed a few more pins, collecting for his 259.

Jason Buenviaje, subbing for TIFCO INDUSTRIES, picked off the big paying Game Three Pot with a 246.

The two that banked some of the Financial Advisors money were Bobby Campagnale (Double dipped that 259!) and Gabriel Martinez, 3 pins short at 256.

The dream match last week would have been SYSCO against AMATEUR BOWLERS TOUR. SYSCO racked up 2384 total pins while A.B.T. would have clobbered 'em with their 2386! Game Three 799/793. Can you just imagine the 10th frame??!!

I scoured the re-caps and only came up with one lonely 702. Sub---Paul Bober almost had a nice triplicate, 235-232-235/702.

For the first week of the "Short Oil" round — 34 (close to 1/3) of the bowlers shot under 500 and one shocker 342. Guarantee he picks a few brains and picks up a new ball.

Vernon Adams is sitting on top of the average list at 238 for 24 games. Nicole VanDaniker coming into the league at 185 is leading the ladies at 208. Was nice to have Cynthia Cheesman chasing the spares.

I find this stat interesting.....SYSCO has downed a high of 21,330 pins so far this season and is sitting in eleventh place for total wins.

The teams are looking great in their 2013/2014 Ebonite League shirts. Every team a different color and sponsors name embroidered on the backs. This has GOT TO BE the best dressed, most competitive league..... on the back page of the Bowling News. Got Cha. Sack up the candy.
