MICHELLE FELDMAN "Go Fund Me Page"

by Frank Weiler

Michelle Feldman was a PWBA superstar from 1997 to 2003 when the Tour ended. She continued competing in Pro Tournaments until 2010. She won 14 Professional Titles and is considered the most powerful female bowler of all-time. She rolled a high powered, high revolution bowling ball, just like the guys. She was a "cranker" and was nicknamed "Twister Sister".

Feldman was honored as PWBA Bowler of The Year in 2002. She was the first woman to bowl a perfect 300 game on television in 1997 at the PWBA South Virginia Open. She won four USBC Women's Open Titles and has been inducted into the USBC Hall of Fame.

Michelle is currently a bowling proprietor of Falcon Lanes in Auburn, New York. She has always been a giving person. She has hosted many fundraisers at her bowling center for others in need, especially for bowlers with medical needs.

NOW MICHELLE NEEDS OUR HELP.

FIRST-EVER PBA LEAGUE ALL STAR CLASH TO AIR ON FOX

12 PBA League superstars to compete in sudden-death style special team event on November 29

New York, NY — Bill O'Neill made PBA history this weekend, walking away with the PBA's first-ever WWE championship title and $100K as the PBA Playoffs Champion, but the PBA isn't done with its new innovations for 2020 and is excited to introduce the PBA League All Star Clash.

For the first time ever, the PBA is bringing together 12 of the biggest names in bowling, from veteran Hall of Famers to rising stars from both the men and women's Pro Tours, to compete in the special team edition PBA League All Star Clash on Sunday, Nov. 29 at 11:30 a.m. or 1:30 p.m. (varying per local market) adjacent to the NFL, on FOX.

The stakes for the PBA League All Star Clash are high as the 12 players were selected to represent their PBA League franchise. The players will not only compete for themselves, but for the entire team. The winning team will walk away with $50K and the first-ever PBA League All Star Clash title.

Of the 12 competitors, PBA League Elias Cup MVP Wes Malott will look to take home another win for his back-to-back champion team, but will have stiff competition from not one, but four PBA Hall of Famers – Dallas Strikers' Norm Duke, Brooklyn

Styles' Walter Ray Williams Jr., Silver Lake Atom Splitters' Chris Barnes, and NYC KingPins' Pete Weber. This seasoned crew will be joined by Brew City Ballers' Sean Rash, who won the PBA Summer Clash in June, Miami Waves' top draft pick Danier's Norm Duke, Brooklyn

There's An Argument To Be Made For South Point Casino

by Dave Williams

LAS VEGAS – When I first started accumulating names of bowling centers from throughout the world with 80 or more lanes a few weeks ago, there may have been a huge exception that I missed in Las Vegas. It's not entirely my fault because the South Point Casino appeared to have two different bowling centers, one with 64 lanes (South Point Bowling Center) and another with 60 lanes (South Point Bowling Plaza).

Although I spent a fair amount of my early career with AMF in Las Vegas, I have not been back to visit since 1993. There have been a vast number of changes in Las Vegas in the past 27 years, including the construction of many mega bowling centers, mostly in

2021 California Pepsi USBC Youth Championships is Set

Due to the COVID-19 outbreak and closure of the centers, we are modifying the format of this tournament removing the league level qualifying. Bowlers can now enter directly into the District Finals (March) as long as they are entered in a California youth league for the 2020-21 season and have current 2020-21 USBC Youth Membership. If centers are still closed February 1, 2021, then we will unfortunately have to cancel. Click here for more details...

Two Hands On The Future Debuts

by Lucas Wiseman

FloBowling’s newest documentary titled Two Hands On the Future made its worldwide debut Friday at 4 p.m. on FloBowling.com.

Two Hands On The Future will chronicle the rise of competitive two-handed bowling in the Professional Bowlers Association. It will prominently feature the first two-handed PBA Tour champions Jason Belmonte and Osku Palermaa.

The documentary will feature in depth interviews with Belmonte and Palermaa and many others. It will take a closer look at the rise to prominence of the two-handed approach through the eyes of the first two champions using the style.

In addition, the documentary looks back into the past with a sit down interview with Chuck Lande, widely believed to be the first regular two-handed competitor to join the PBA. It also looks ahead to the future of two-handed bowling and includes interviews with young bowlers in the sport.

FloBowling subscribers will be able to watch the documentary. To subscribe to FloBowling, click here.

FloBowling’s first documentary, released last year, featured the story behind young PBA star Anthony Simonsen. Subscribers can watch Simonsen: Leave It Behind on demand anytime.

elle McEwan, and some of the Tour’s top-performing stars (see complete lineup below).

The PBA League All Star Clash features the PBA’s drama-filled one-ball elimination format that has twice garnered the highest bowling TV ratings in more than a decade on FOX. The players begin round one rolling one-ball, with the lowest score eliminated and ties determined by another one-ball roll-off. The high-intensity competition continues for the survivors in each round until one player is left standing as the champion. In this ever-unpredictable format, anything can happen!

The 12 All Star players were selected to represent their teams by having the highest number of PBA or PWBA titles on each team, with an impressive combined total of 248 Tour titles. The players competing in the PBA League All Star Clash, in the order they will bowl each round are as follows:

Norm Duke, Dallas Strikers, 40 PBA titles
Dom Barrett, Philadelphia Hitmen, 8 PBA titles
Walter Ray Williams Jr., Brooklyn Styles, 47 PBA titles
Chris Barnes, Silver Lake Atom Splitters, 19 PBA titles
Francois Lavoie, Las Vegas High Rollers, 4 PBA titles
Liz Johnson, Phoenix Fury, 24 PWBA titles
Pete Weber, NYC KingPins, 37 PBA titles
EJ Tackett, Motown Muscle, 13 PBA titles
Wes Malott, Portland Lumberjacks, 10 PBA titles
Jason Belmonte, L.A.X, 25 PBA titles
Sean Rash, Brew City Ballers, 16 PBA titles
Danielle McEwan, Miami Waves, 5 PWBA titles

Viewers can live stream the PBA on the FOX Sports and FOX NOW apps or at FOXSports.com. Select highlights will also be available on @FOXSports social handles across Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, and YouTube. International fans can watch live on FloBowling.com.

EJ Tackett Signs 10-Year Deal With Motiv

by Lucas Wiseman

EJ Tackett, one of the most high-profile players on the PBA Tour, has signed a 10-year contract extension to stay with Motiv, the company announced Tuesday.

Tackett, who has been with Motiv for seven years, is a 13-time PBA Tour champion and was the PBA Player of the Year in 2016.

“The people at Motiv are like family to me,” Tackett said in a release. “Ten years means I don’t have to worry about anything but going out there and winning for another decade. I love throwing the best balls in the world and representing such amazing people.”

Tackett, 28, has had tremendous success on the PBA Tour dating back to his first title at the 2015 Lubbock Sports Open. His 13 titles include two majors, the 2016 PBA World Championship and the 2017 PBA Tournament of Champions.

The powerful right-hander has been in a bit of a title slump recently, however, as he hasn’t won since the summer of 2019. Tackett’s last title came at the PBA Tour Finals in July 2019.

Despite that drought, he has still proven to be one of the best on the tour. He finished in the Top 16 of all four majors in 2020, including making the show at the PBA Players Championship (second) and the PBA World Championship (third).

Tackett will also donate $10,000 to the Epilepsy Foundation this week in support of his brother Zac, who also competes on the PBA Tour and lives with epilepsy.

Tackett recently released his first signature bowling ball, the limited edition Motiv VIP, and $1 from each ball sold will be donated to the foundation. BowlerX also donated all proceeds from the pre-sales of the ball.

USBC AFFIRMS STRING PINSETTERS ARE NON-APPROVED EQUIPMENT

ARLINGTON, TX - The United States Bowling Congress affirms string pinsetters currently are considered non-approved equipment. String pinsetters may not be used in USBC-certified competition, including USBC-certified leagues and tournaments.

USBC is clarifying its position related to string pinsetters following the recent announcement from the International Bowling Federation, stating it will allow the use of the machines in IBF competition.

"Currently, there is no empirical data for USBC to determine exactly what additional variables string pinsetters may present related to equipment specifications and standards," USBC Executive Director Chad Murphy said. "USBC cannot take a position related to string pinsetter certification until objective research on the subject is conducted, published and properly analyzed."

USBC is in the process of conducting research related to string pinsetters. USBC plans to complete an initial phase of the study and publish the results in 2022. However, the results may or may not provide conclusive data to support a position on string pinsetter certification.

The California Bowling Writers has adopted Operation Freedom Paws! Operation Freedom Paws nonprofit organization was founded by "California Bowler and Veteran" Mary Cortani in 2010 that has provided service dogs and training support to veterans and others who suffer from post-traumatic stress syndrome, complex PTSD, traumatic brain injury and other physical, neurological, psychological and mobility needs. According to experts, service dogs help empower people with disabilities to live quality lives. Operation Freedom Paws carefully matches clients with their specially chosen four-legged companions, most of which come from rescue shelters. The partners then begin a 48-week program which trains the clients to train their own dogs. At the end of the program, they're certified together as service dog teams.

Jakob Butturff Strikes Gold at the PBA Jackson Rancheria Casino Resort Championship

SUTTER CREEK, CA – Jakob Butturff of Tempe, Ariz. led wire to wire to win the PBA West Region’s Jackson Rancheria Casino Resort Championship at Gold Country Lanes on Sunday.

Butturff came into the event with a heavy heart after just losing his mother to cancer the previous Monday, but fought to win his 26th career PBA Regional title. The title is Butturff’s latest in just five years, but one of his most memorable, which he dedicated to his late mother. Butturff earned $2,500 for the win.

Butturff held a demanding lead to secure first place, but there was no shortage of competition for second-place. There were five other bowlers jockeying for the spot through match play until the last game, when David Haynes of Las Vegas secured it with a big 289 in the position round to earn $1,300.

This weekend was the 16th time the PBA Western Region has visited Gold Country Lanes and was especially exciting for bowlers as they were able to compete in the state of California for the first-time in over 10 months.
