TONI FUTCH Selected Citrus Belt “Secretary of the Year”

by Frank Weiler

SAN BERNARDINO — Toni Futch has been selected Citrus Belt Secretary of the Year for 2014-2015. Last Friday night Toni was presented with a beautiful leather briefcase embossed with her name and the designation “SECRETARY OF THE YEAR”.

The presentation was made by Citrus Belt Vice President MARY MARGARET HAMNER, PHOSIE LOTZE Awards Committee Chairperson and Del Rosa Lanes Service Manager JOHN VALENTINE. The presentation was made in the presence of the Good Times League bowlers, league President ROLANN KARPEN, Vice President SPIDER CALLOWAY and DEL KARPEN the man who spearheaded Toni’s nomination.

Toni Futch

Toni has been a league secretary for three decades beginning when still a student at San Geronio High School. She earned 10 cents for each bowler in her Physical Education League.

Everyone I spoke to said Toni was the best league secretary they have had. She is known for the concern she has for her bowlers

The Best Bowlers Come From California

by Fred Eisenhammer

OXNARD — At the top of the California United States Bowling Congress website is a prominent slogan. It reads:

“The best bowlers come from California.”

If you live in the “City of Angels,” you’d like to think so.

One thing is sure.

When the Professional Bowlers Assn. held a tournament a while back at now-defunct Tournament Bowl in Oxnard, that statement was certainly true.

The tournament was held Oct. 7-10, 1965.

That was 50 years ago and California bowlers ruled the roost in that competition, which was called the Oxnard Open.

Even though out-of-stater and eventual Hall-of-Famer Johnny Guenther of Seattle won the event — his first PBA tournament triumph — Californians dominated the competition. Twelve of the top 27 finishers hailed from California.

The best known of the Californians was seventh-place finisher Glenn Allison of Brea. He was the second-highest California finisher behind Jim Godman of Hayward, who took third place.

Allison later turned in one of bowling’s most spectacular performances. On July 1, 1982, Allison blistered a 900 series at La Habra “300” Bowl, which included three perfect games, in sanctioned competition.

The American Bowling Congress (forerunner of the United States Bowling Congress), however, did not approve Allison’s award application, citing non-complying lane conditions. That decision has created considerable controversy to this day.

MONTCLAIR — We were hosted by one of the finest, the Bowlm and we had lots of fun and excitement there. One of our faithful members Joven Bolanos got hot and won his first ABTA Title in fine style downing top seed Norma Gaddison in the title game taking home a nice $2,400 in the process.

Others bowling well making the top 16 Finals were 10-16th Emily Yeung, Isaac Arseneault, Christina Cheung, Kmel Cunanan, Darrow Tiongco , Ramon Alliman, and Jo Jo Barcelona, $100 each.

In 6-9th places were Jeff Panlilio, Jun Contreras, Lord Ferguson, and Fel Garcia $110 each. Now, a step higher in 4th and 5th were Christina Cheung and Michael Kristich, $110 each.

Now it was Joven Bolanos vs John Armenia for the right to bowl Mrs Gaddison for the title. Joven did well in a big 233-207 count. Mr. Armenia ever a gentleman was 3rd with fine bowling got a check for $200.

Now title game was on Norma Gaddisonvs Bolanos, with Norma electing to have Joven lead off. He did with a “3 bagger”, Norma was Strike, Spare, Strike but she opened in frame 4 then chopped the 1-2. With a spare Bolanos now led by 30 pins. Both bowlers were clean the rest of the way. Norma could not catch a break. The margin stayed the same s after the first three frames, and Bolanos claimed his 5th Title. He has been with ABTA over 20+ Years. We were both younger then Joven :-> Joven bowled well, and deserved the win. Norma Gaddison nearly took her first title, as she bowled lights out at Bowlm. Only that open in frame two plagued her title run. Very Good Bowling By a Nice Lady! She took home a nice $500 Check!

Joven Bolanos hails from Tustin, and used his Roto Grip drilled by Barry Asher. He is single ladies!! Joven is one of the Good Guys! Congrats Champ!! Joven was the Horse bet winner and paid $35 to his faithful who bet on him at Bowlm.

Norma Gaddison is from San Dimas, married to Eddie with a very pretty daughter Jillian! All are ABTA Members and great people. Great bowling Norma! She used a Vibe drilled by ABTA member Aarik Torres at Covina Bowl.

Johnny Armenia is from Orange and used a Hammer also drilled by Barry Asher!. He’s happily married to Connie with four Kids!! Nice Bowling John. He surely loves the Bowlm.

Howard Smith and Bob Selner hit the Mystery Doubles with a nice 351 drawn by Lady HQ. Sylvia Serrano Howard getting $304 and Bob $75/ 25% as this is his first entry in ABTA as left hander! The Match Series of $2,045 carries over as Ramon Alliman drew an unmatched 392.

We estimate that pot at $4,500. The Match Game worth $4,355 was a 228 drawn by Norma Gaddison. With the carry over $4,355 it will go for the Max this weekend of $5,000 with remainder as a back up pot reserve!

The 3-6-9 which will be $900 as Kmel Cunanan, and Vuong Do shared a $100 consolation, missing on shot #4.

Thanks to all who bowled and Special Thank YOU to the super owner and staff at the Bowlm as they are as good as it gets. We will return there.

This week at West Covina is our SPECIAL THANKSGIVINGEVENT. $10,000 1st With Bonuses and $3,500 Min 1st Guaranteed.

This is a four day event. Qualify Wednesday eve, one big squad 8:00 PM taking 1 in 6 to Semis. YOU get a $400 Bonus winning Bolanos is the Champion at Bowlm! Joven Bolanos was the best at Bowlm as he won five straight matches to win the title edging Norma Gaddison to take home $2,400. (L-R) Ben Baghoisan ABTA member, John Armenia 3rd $200, Norma Gaddison Runner-up $500, Champion Joven Bolanos $2,400 and ABTA Director Annaliza Agoncillo.

Bob again eyes closed:-> with Old Friend Jordan Nassberg, the Bowling Coach at Arizona State University was great to see. Jordan’s ASU team participated in a tournament at the Bowlm earlier that day. Jordan is one of the most likable men you can hope to know and was a faithful ABTA member years back and won a few titles too.

CHICAGO — For the first time, bowling fans of legal gambling age will be able to wager on the outcome of the 2015 Rolltech PBA World Championship through sports book venues in Las Vegas and Reno.

The crown jewel of the GEICO PBA World Series of Bowling VII presented by Silver Legacy will be the season's final major championship and it will include the first live prime-time telecast of a PBA Tour event in 14 years when the stepladder finals get underway on ESPN at 7 p.m. ET (4 p.m. local time) Thursday, Dec. 17 at Reno's National Bowling Stadium.

Reno properties offering World Championship wagering include the Silver Legacy and Circus Circus. Las Vegas properties offering World Championship wagering are the Aria, Bellagio, Circus Circus, Excalibur, Luxor, Mandalay Bay, MGM Grand, Mirage, Monte Carlo and New York New York. Wagers may be placed in person at any of the properties' sports book locations. PBA staff, contractors and World Series participants (members and non-members) are prohibited from making wagers on the event.

The focal point of the World Championship will be the PBA Tour's ultimate test of versatility and endurance, both physical and mental. The five players who qualify for the ESPN stepladder finals will survive a total of 66 games of qualifying and round-robin match play bowled on the PBA's Cheetah, Viper, Chameleon, Scorpion and World Championship lane conditions Dec 8-13.

The opening line odds for wagering on the World Championship are as follows, as of Nov. 17. The odds were established by Jay Rood, Vice President of Race and Sports for MGM Resorts International based on performances in past PBA World Championships and PBA Tour competition in recent years. Based on that information, Rood has established Australia's Jason Belmonte, the winner of four major titles over the past two years, as a 7/2 favorite in the opening line followed by Bill O'Neill at 9/2, Wes Malott at 5/1 and Sean Rash at 7/1. Rood also has established Boston Red Sox outfielder Mookie Betts, who will be bowling PBA competition for the first time, as a 200/1 longshot.

The opening line includes:

- Jason Belmonte 7/2
- Bill O'Neill 9/2
- Wes Malott 5/1
- Sean Rash 7/1
- Osku Palermaa 10/1
- Ryan Ciminelli 10/1
- Rhino Page 15/1
- Dom Barrett 15/1
- Parker Bohn III 15/1
- Choi Bok-Eum 20/1
- Pete Weber 20/1
- EJ Tackett 20/1
- Ronnie Russell 20/1
- Tommy Jones 25/1
- Norm Duke 30/1
- Tom Daugherty 35/1
- Shawn Maldonado 35/1
- Stuart Williams 40/1
- Anthony Pepe 40/1
- Walter Ray Williams Jr. 50/1
- Tom Smallwood 50/1
- Josh Blanchard 50/1
- Scott Norton 50/1
- Mookie Betts 200/1
- Field 3/1

Between the time match play concludes on Dec. 13 and before the stepladder finals begin at 4 p.m. PT on Dec. 17, MGM Resorts International will post a new line so that wagers can be placed for the five players who qualify for the stepladder finals.

Bowling fans can keep tabs on all the action leading up to the stepladder finals by watching live comprehensive coverage of all preliminary rounds via PBA's online bowling channel, Xtra Frame. For subscription information, visit pba.com and click on the Xtra Frame link.

ESPN telecast tickets for the World Championship are $10 and $20. All tickets, which can be purchased in advance through the "tickets" link on pba.com or at the door, are general admission.

While a first for the World Championship, it is not the first time wagering has been offered on PBA events. The Red Rock Bowling Center and former Showboat Lanes in Las Vegas have offered wagering on PBA events in the past.

Mario Jordan Finding His Mark Again

by Fred Eisenhammer

WINNETKA – Mario Jordan doesn’t hurl his bowling ball as fast as he once did and his average isn’t hovering in the 180s and 190s anymore.

No matter.

Jordan celebrates every day he’s out at Winnetka Bowl taking part in his nightly leagues on Mondays and Tuesdays.

Jordan suffered a stroke in November 2012 when he was in the midst of teaching art at Manual Arts High School in south-central Los Angeles.

“I went in that morning and the last thing I remember was that students were coming to class. Then I woke up in the afternoon,” Jordan said.

Jordan was found to have a blood clot on the right side of his brain. With treatment and rehab, the 63-year-old Jordan says he “feels good now.”

He’s back on the lanes this year – a joyful re-engagement with a sport in which he’s participated since his days in Kansas City in the 1980s.

“That’s all I talked about when I was away from the bowling alley,” Jordan said. “During my doctor visits, I’d say, ‘I can’t wait ‘til I get back out there.’ It was one of my incentives to get healthy again. Bowling is my incentive.”

In recent years, the right-handed marksman has typically averaged at least in the 180s. But in 2006 – the year when he moved to L.A. from Missouri – Jordan carved out an even 200 average in the Friday Vegas League at Winnetka Bowl.

That’s been his high-water mark.

Jordan is averaging in the 140s this season as he makes adjustments in his effort to return to his previous form. “He had to buy a new ball so he could hold it,” recalled Jordan’s wife, Delores. “He’s working his way back now. And that’s a good thing. Maybe by next year, he’ll be back to the 200 mark.”

Responded Jordan: “I’m working on it.”

And he added: “Ultimately I want to be back where I was before the stroke.”

Already, he’s blasted a season-high 190 game a few weeks ago. His all-time high is 289 – “I blew it in the tenth,” he remembers. And he has a 700 series on his resume – that coming during a team tournament in Missouri in the ’90s that earned him a $1,200 bonanza.

Jordan says he’s fortunate that he bowls with “a good group of folks in both leagues.” He admits that he still experiences some stroke-related moments – “I get a little tired by the third game and I don’t bowl as well.”

But all in all, things are going well in his comeback.

And how much does he enjoy the game?

“Heck, I can’t get out there fast enough,” he said.

and is always there to assist, answer questions and clarify rules. She is always positive and does everything in her power to promote her leagues. According to representatives of the Citrus Belt, Toni maintains an excellent working relationship with Association personnel.

When bowlers speak of Toni you hear adjectives such as efficient, effective, impartial, informed and responsive. The Good Times League bowlers will tell you that Toni is personally responsible for keeping the league together over the years. It should be noted that Toni was selected for this award from a field of thirty-eight nominees. Impressive. I was impressed when told that she was selected from such a large field worthy candidates. I have been a bowler for over fifty years and have known Toni for over a decade. I have observed hundreds of league secretaries and can honestly say that I have met only a few other secretaries in her "league" and none better. Congratulations Toni and thank you BOWLING NEWS for recognizing her outstanding performance as a league secretary.

Congratulations again to Michael Bondy, who recorded his third big series - 742 (239-257-246) in this league season. We hope this "third time" is a charm towards that "800" he's dearly working on, from Phyl in your league.

BURBANK — I have so much for which to be thankful! My outrageously wonderful family. Bowling. My funny, delightful and loyal friends. Bowling. My co workers who frustrate and elate me all at once. Bowling. My husband who has walked through the fire with me. Bowling. Having the privilege to guide the NLAC. Bowling. Tournaments where I meet so many lovely people and make new friends. Bowling. My health, my eyesight, my hearing. Bowling.

I wish all of my family of readers a very Happy Thanksgiving and a coming year of which there is much to be thankful. Oh, and did I mention, I’m thankful for Bowling?

BEST BOWLERS

In that 1965 Oxnard Open, Bud Horn of Los Angeles (eighth) and Norm Meyers of Los Angeles (10th) gave California four finishers among the top 10.

There were plenty more California money winners in the event. Right behind Meyers were three Californians. Bob Phillips of Richmond took 11th, Jim St. John of San Jose was 12th and Ev Collins of San Mateo placed 13th.

Also winning money from California were Vig Lange of Ventura (17th), Ed Bourdase of Fresno (18th), Ron Winger of Van Nuys (19th), Wally Wagner of Brea (23rd) and Jerry Hale of Richmond (27th).

Incidentally, the state with the next highest number of money winners behind California was Texas with five.

Guenther earned $3,000 for his first-place finish. Not only did he take home the top prize but Guenther set two world records in the Oxnard Open. He rolled 2,022 for one eight-game block (252.8 average) and came back with a 1,808 for a 16-game total of 3,830 (239.4).

Still, Guenther had to share tournament laurels with the state of California, which showed in this competition that it indeed possessed the nation’s “best bowlers.”
