MURTISHAW vs. MURTISHAW "DAD" HAS HIS DAY"

by Frank Weiler

MURRIETA — Matt Murtishaw has been on fire for the last two months. During this period he has been averaging close to 260! He has rolled two perfect games and a big 824 during this period. His low series during the last two months is a 710. 710 LOW? My high for this season is a 706!

Matt's dad, PBA champion JIM MURTISHAW, bowls in the same scratch league. They compete against each other and dad is averaging 231. The league features a match game format with points awarded for each match game won.

Last week the Murtishaws faced each other: "Hombre e Hombre". The night started with league groupies betting on Matt. He has been so dominant lately and is riding a wave of success seldom seen here. At the same time his dad has been up and down most of the season. Bowling 750 one week then 650 the next.

Ruffner & Forkel Team Up to Win 2014 WBA Motiv Laughlin Mixed Doubles Title

LAUGHLIN, NV - Eric Forkel, Las Vegas and Darris Ruffner, Exeter, CA held off the charging Wendy MacPherson and Brian Cooper by 17 pins to take the 1st Annual Laughlin Mixed Doubles sponsored by Motiv.

The Kegel Challenge Sunset Strip pattern was just that..." challenging" at Riverside Lanes. The winning team averaged 419 and were 8-4 in match play.

Darris went 11-1 and Eric 6-6 in individual head to head matches that awarded 10 bonus pins along with 30 for team. The winning team received $1,400 for their efforts.

David Haynes of Las Vegas rolled a 300 game while averaging 217 for the USBC certified tournament.

The Women's Bowling Alliance (WBA) would like to thank MotivBowling.com for their sponsorship, Brian Markowitz and staff at Riverside Lanes, and the bowlers that participated in this highly competitive field. Bowlers traveled from AZ, CA, CO, NV and UT. Congratulations to Chris Lowry, Michael Pelligrino, Tisha Haynes and Tom Lane on winning the four Motiv bowling balls. Thanks to all who purchased tickets.

The question is . . . ?

Yes, it's "bowling" and tutor and adjunct professor Fran Altomare got it right.

Altomare also was right on the $1,000 question in this category, ostensibly the most difficult in this group.

"In just two fights in 2010. this Filipino southpaw punched his way to $32 million."

That's "Manny Pacquiao," and that diminutive boxer in last Saturday's welterweight title fight against undefeated Chris Algieri in Macau.

The undercard reportedly did not include any bowling.

Booyah! Give Bowling Fan and Stock Analyst Jim Cramer Some Credit

by Fred Eisenhammer

Is this week's sizzling stock market rally for real? Jim Cramer thinks so.

Cramer, a stock analyst and the host of CNBC's "Mad Money" television program, used bowling terminology on Friday's show to explain why the market will remain in rally mode.

That's not a universal opinion.

On the CNBC show, "Options Action" - which precedes "Mad Money" – two highly regarded stock analysts were adamant in predicting that the stock market was due for another big fall. They said investors had become complacent in believing that the stock market's best week in nearly two years represented an all-

Still, Cramer, an unabashed bowling fan and participant, sees continued stock gains. He cited the limited fallout from Amazon's dismal third-quarter results as a positive indicator. The Dow Jones industrial average rose 127 points on Friday despite Amazon's decline of more than 8 percent.

"It's a testament to the actual underlying strength of this market since the bottom that a bellwether stock like Amazon had very little 'pin action' for all but a small handful of its Internet brethren," said Cramer, a former correspondent for the now-defunct Los Angeles Herald-Examiner.

In a show earlier this year, Cramer said bowling's "pin action" was one of his favorite metaphors.

"What is 'pin action'? It's when you hit the lead pin and it spins enough to knock over all the other pins, giving you a strike. And yes, I do love to bowl!" he said.

Cramer added that the market's rally the past few years had been a matter of "pin action."

Said Cramer: "Ever since Europe bottomed in November 2011 when American companies reported good news, we've had rapid 'pin action' - strike after strike, as a strong report in one company led to a strike across the entire sector.'

And despite what some skeptical analysts believe, Cramer said Friday that the current rally didn't appear to be over.

"I think next week will be more of the same, which is barring more bad Ebola news, this winning streak might continue," he said.

Booyah!

BOWLIUM LANES SALUTES OUR VETERANS

MONTCLAIR — Recently, Bowlium Lanes in Montclair held its annual Bowlers to Veterans Link Tournament. The event was open to United States Bowling Congress (USBC) Members of San Gabriel Valley.

Participants were placed into categories consisting of women, men and youth bowlers. According to Chris Pilios, president and Bowlers to Veterans Link (BVL) co-chairman for the San Gabriel Valley Bowling Association, the tournament has been going on for 72 years to help raise money for California Disabled Veterans. "Every dime we make goes directly to the California Disabled Veterans; we don't keep any money. Everything we do is volunteer work and everything we raffle off is donated to them."

The BVL event began in 1942 by women bowlers out of Detroit, Michigan. That year, they made enough money to purchase three C-47 airplanes, which they donated to the U.S. Armed Forces.

The planes were used to help bring back our wounded soldiers from the "Front Lines." The ladies continued these national fund-raising bowling tournaments throughout the Second World War

Because of its success, the ladies, subsequently, decided to continue holding these events after the War to further assist disabled veterans on a national level. The annual bowling events originated through the Women's International Bowling Congress (WIBC) and the American Bowling Congress (ABC). In the early 1960s, California separated from the national organization in order to keep all its funds locally.

The success of the recent bowling event was made possible through the efforts of many volunteers, including San Gabriel USBC Board Members: Linda Johnson Pilios, Lynda Lapp, Annette Riccelli, Phil Lapp, Helen McKnight, Dave Prechtl, Nathan Domingo, Krystal Alvarado and Scott Poddig. Chris Pilios, himself a veteran of the U.S. Army from 1956 to 1959, honored those veterans who participated in the tournament with a display of the American Flag and a rendition of the National Anthem sung by Robin Sanford.

"We were pleased with the outcome and participation. A special 'Thanks' goes out to Bowlium owners Scott and Teresa Poddig, whom without their cooperation, this event wouldn't be possible."

Those who would like more information about the recent and future events, please contact Chris Pilios at the USBC association office at (626) 337-6270 or you can contact Scott or Teresa Poddig of Bowlium Lanes at (909) 626-0378.

A few weeks back, we requested stories about leagues that were 40 years old. Well, we have one even older!..

FRIDAY TRIO

EL MONTE — The Friday Trio League currently bowling at the beautiful Action Lanes in El Monte has been in existence for about 50 years. They began as Grandma's Friday Trio, but dropped the "Grandma's" due to the fact that not all of the members of the league were seniors. They started out at Santa Anita Lanes in Arcadia, then moved on to Village Lanes in El Monte. Village closed in 2002, so they moved to Bowling Square. After Action Lanes was established in the former spot of Village in 2004, the Trio moved back to the cozy center on Lower Azusa Rd. and have been rolling there ever since.

One of the leagues long time members recalls the league bowling for wigs instead of prize money for one season back in the day.

Norma Michel was the secretary of the Friday Trio for 42 years before deciding to hang up her shoes a few years back.

There is something special about watching these ladies get together every Friday and toss those cannon balls at the pins. To hear the laughter, cheering and occasional "all in good fun" taunting is soothing, and for a moment it seems that everything in the world is alright. This bowler would like to send a special hello to Eleanor, Shirley, Vivian, Evelyn and Lina. Keep rollin' ladies!

Bowling News is proud to bring you.... Dean of Bowling Writers, PBA & USBC Hall of Fame

I've said it before and I'll say it again.

One of bowling's greatest assets, particularly in the youth area is that everyone gets to play in a fully meaningful way. Talk shows devote hours to the subject of how to come up with ways to guarantee that every youngster gets to play. There are all kinds of special rules in most sports aimed at making the kids a bigger part of the scene.

Lineups are extended, minutes are assured, mandates often alter general routines and talent, will to win and excel and such silly things as no scoring, no winning and no statistics are kept.

In sports and in life there are winners and losers and win or lose there always is learning.

Many sports have wisely invested time and money to develop interest in their sports, not to create future stars but to create players, coaches, officials and fans.

Bowling must keep its accent on the many junior programs and school activities that range from pre-school through post college. Bowling can be expensive for youngsters and their families and they should not be viewed as merely a possible source of current income, but the life blood of the sport pumping new life forever and ever.

Every organization in bowling must fully recognize the fact of bowling life that bowling's plus with youth is that everyone gets to play, not in a forced way, but in a full participant and competitive status.

Junior bowlers can be classed according to average. Leagues can have two, three or more on a team, and there is always room for one more on some team, and they all get to play and get to know how they do as team members and indiviudals.

Boys learn early that girls can bowl well and aren't just mere girls but valuable teammates and opponents. Boys and girls get to know each other better in various competitive as well as social situations.

Parents almost dread going to a sporting contest when their children are border line players, good enough to play, but not good enough to always play. Parents of organized young league bowlers know their youngsters will be in action, no matter how well they shoot, and that the kids will be in a classified situation that is either competitive or will be by a handicap procedure that makes for some semblance of equality based on current ability.

Bowling is fortunatea that it is a sport that can handle differences in age, size or ability in one of the fairest ways of any sport. But bowling should be shouting from the rooftops to youngsters and parents and adults and educators that this is the rarest of sports, the sport everyone gets to

Those kids who can start bowling at two or three years of age with bumper bowling can still be bowling decades, and even a century later, and the same fact is evident-

BURBANK — With winter leagues starting, we all recently renewed our sanction with USBC. Since that time, a lot of muttering and mumbling is being heard from bowlers. I must admit I am among them. We question the viability of the USBC in our league life. What am I getting for my membership? Why do we no longer get awards from the USBC? We've suddenly gone from unwanted keychains and magnets to nothing at all, not even for the sought after 300 game and 800 series. What we do get are emails giving us a deal on insurance or hotel stays. Hmmm, why do I personally find that unsatisfying and not at all related to bowling?

I am grateful for the dedication and determination of our local association, NLAC. They, at least, have continued to give us patches and pins. They too, wonder what the purpose of the USBC might be. I ask that you keep this in mind while muttering and think about how we, as a bowling whole, can bombard the USBC with a peaceful and purposeful show of our unhappiness.

I am a firm believer in sanctioned bowling. I want to see this tradition and institution continue. However, I would like to be a member of a sanctioning board with the betterment and recognition of bowlers as it's goal and not controlled by a company whose purpose is to gain marketing information only.

This rant is strictly my opinion. I could easily be over simplifying what I think the USBC is up to. I could be totally wrong about who benefits. What do you think?

MURTISHAW

had a gameplan and brought his new IQ TOUR FUSION to the battle. Jim's years of lane moxie and experience make him the most knowledgeable bowler in the house. He knew what adjustments he had to make and did so.

WHAM, BAM, WAZOO. DADDY came to bowl. Jim lit up the lanes with a big 837 (300 - 290 - 247). Matt rolled a solid 710 (247 - 238 - 225) but lost all four match points to dad. I can't wait for the next Murtishaw vs. Murtishaw match up.

Jim's 837 is the league high for the season. Darn big score, but Mom ANITA MUR-TISHAW still holds the family's high series with a 848.

Keystone Lanes Returns To The Top

by Randy Myers

DOWNEY-First Round Winner Keystone Lanes has risen to the top once again. During the first Round, Professional Approach rode the top spot all the way to the final week, but it was Keystone that prevailed that night to secure the first roll-off spot. Now they find themselves leading the way once again after defeating DV8 4-1. Arnold "Clean Pot" Cheesman led the way this night with 667, followed by Charles Zelaya's 616. Sam Hitchcock was high for DV8 with 598. These two will square off again next week. Paul Varela made sure his Threadworks team stayed in contention as he shot a very nice 683 to lead his squad to a 4-1 win over Forest Lanes. Mike Nakunz celebrated his anniversary with his lovely wife Jennifer watching, as he FIRED his way to a nice 642 set to lead the Forest Lanes foursome. American Harvest Vodka swept past BOWLIUM as Kevin "Too Tall" Jones 247/694 & Mike Mellick 263/643 dominated the scoring. CASAMIGOS Tequila went 4-1, despite the hot bowling of J.A.T.'s DeeRonn Booker who led the league with 259/723. Vernon Adams 247/640 and Harry Wong 608 paired up to lead the Linder Insurance managed a 3-2 win over Power House Video Games as Michelle Tran 607 & Anthony Santos 601 led the way. Eddie VanDaniker 253/623 was the top scorer on the pair for Power House. David Cogswell had a hell of a time, shooting 254/666 to demonize Pino's Pizza's chances of winning as he led his Blizz Yogurt team to a 4-1 win. Josh Tajiri 652 and Leonard Ruiz Jr. 626 were not able to do more than win 1 game.

SYSCO cruised to a 5-0 sweep over Alhambra Coin Center as Charlie Kinstler and Paul Barraco, 616 & 606 teamed to overcome the 613 shot by Alhambra's T.J. Abahazy. The Pro Approach got back to its winning ways as it slid past a struggling Cook's Bowling Supply team 4-1. Billy Myers Jr. once again led his team with 683, while second round super sub Ryan Cunningham was more BAD ASS than Frank, with his 247/669 set. Erickson Foods got highlighter performances from Bobby Campagnale 242/702 & Spanky Rosales 260/696 to take down Tifco Industries, despite the strong bowling of Mike Jennings who finished with 672. David Gullett's 624 was nearly 100 pins better than the other 7 bowlers as he led his GJC Services team to a 4-1 win over Los Altos Trophies. Herzog Insurance went 0-5 vs the blind as they helped hold down the league average on this night, as no one managed to break 484.

Sidepot winners were Eddie VanDaniker Game 1 - 253, Game 2 was a tie between teammates as Spanky Rosales & Bobby Campagnale both shot 234, while Mike Mellick 263 ($240) won the Financial Advisor's and DeeRonn Booker 246 ($100) finished 2nd. Game 3 Super Pot was taken down by Spanky Rosales who snapped off DeeRonn, 260 to 259. Arnold Cheesman completed the round's first Clean 30 to qualify for some serious cash, as did Leonard Ruiz Jr. who stuffed his stocking early with $1000 by taking down the league's first Strike Out pot.

In other news, Dillon Ito returned to his True Anchor ways, as he struggled his way to a low set of 390. Mike Haines may have challenged him, but he tapped out before game 3 after turning 284.

Next week will be a sequel at the top, as Keystone Lanes and DV8 will once again square off. Five teams remain within 4 points, with another four teams just 6 points back. We have two more weeks in this round before moving onto the modified Shark pattern.

I want to wish everyone a Happy Thanksgiving, and pray God blesses all those who are braving the highways, traveling mercies. Also, good luck to all of our league bowlers who are going to Dublin this weekend for the SWISS.

Take time this week to count your blessings, focus on what matters most, family. Have a blessed weekend everyone; see you next week! (I mean it this time...)
