Finland's Palermmaa Wins Don Carter Division, Advances to PBA World Championship Finals

by Bill Vint

LAS VEGAS — Finland's Osku Palermmaa took a big step forward in his quest to win his second Professional Bowlers Association title, advancing to the finals of the PBA World Championship by eliminating PBA Tour veteran Jack Jurek of Lackawanna, N.Y., and England's Stuart Williams and Dom Barrett in the Don Carter Division finals that aired Sunday on ESPN.

Palermmaa, Europe's premier two-handed bowling star, won the first of four PBA World Championship elimination rounds at South Point Hotel Exhibition Hall with a 223-188 victory over Barrett in the final game of the Carter finals. The divisional finals consist of three one-game rounds, starting with four players, and eliminating the lowest-scoring player after each game with the surviving player advancing to the PBA World Championship finals on Jan. 15.

In the opening game, Barrett led the group with a 257 game, Williams followed with a 215, Palermmaa posted a 187 and Jurek was the first man eliminated with a 169. Back-to-back unconverted splits in the second and third frames contributed to Jurek's early exit.

Barrett again led the group in the second game with a 201, Palermmaa was second with a 188 and Williams was eliminated with a 170 game. In game three, three splits which he was unable to convert doomed Barrett's bid to advance to the final round.

The Carter finals were conducted on the PBA's Viper lane condition, selected by Williams as the highest qualifier in the field of four.

Palermmaa, who won his first PBA Tour title in the GEICO Shark Championship during the 2010 PBA World Series of Bowling, will join the winners of the Billy Hardwick, Johnny Petraglia and Mike Aulby Division finals in the PBA World Championship finals on Jan. 15 on ESPN. The PBA World Championship offers a $50,000 first prize and the first major title of the 2011-12 PBA Tour season.

"It was difficult today," Palermmaa said. "We didn't make the lane condition easy. The key was to try to bowl a clean game, because no one was going to strike a lot."

Palermmaa, one of 52 international players who represented 16 countries in the World Series of Bowling, said his international experience was a big help in Las Vegas.

"We bowl on everything in all different kinds of environments," Palermmaa said of his world-wide experience. "We have to be good on all kinds of conditions or we don't get a paycheck.

"I've been battling a flu-like virus for almost two months," he added. "I'm feeling better, but if I can bowl like this in the finals, maybe I'll want to be sick again."

ABT SoCal New Format a Big Hit

SAN DIEGO—Just ask Richard Maloles and Dino Dennis if they like the new ABT SoCal format! Formerly a "Beat the Board" type format, the ABT has shifted gears to a 1 in 6 qualifying ratio from EACH squad. The semi-final bowlers then blind-draw for opponents and engage in single-game match play eliminations until the champion is crowned.

The members are elated they are competing ONLY against the same bowlers currently on the floor instead of previous squads or bowlers that have yet to roll a score, especially with changing lane conditions favoring different squads. "We feel this is the best and fairest format for everyone!," quotes ABT SoCal Director Bill Cauble. The second week of this new format saw Richard Maloles of Long Beach overtake both Brian Drown, Sun Valley, and Rick Festa, Palm Springs, Saturday at Mission Hills Bowl for a $2,000 payday. Richard wanted to thank his Mother and Father, Chuck from Cal Bowl Pro Shop for drilling his Storm Marvel and the ABT staff for a well run tournament.

Dino Dennis of Beaumont downed Raul "Spanky" Rosales, El Monte, and Stan Takeuchi, Upland, Sunday at Brunswick Upland Bowl for $1,000 (no Mega Bonus). Dino wanted to thank everyone who donated to his fundraising efforts to the HDMS Foundation (his son, Zaire, suffers from Muscular Sclerosis).

This coming weekend features a $3,000 1st Place Guaranteed with Mega Pot, Saturday at Oak Tree Lanes, squads are 11am, 12:30pm & 2pm and 1 Bonus Pin awarded for participating. Sunday will be at Kearny Mesa Bowl with $2,000 1st Place Guaranteed with Mega Pot and same squad times. Go to <http://cit.abtbowl-ing.com> or (909) 989-0649.

Sunny Fong Stars in his 1st ABTA Championship Kent Maruyama Hits Match Game for $3,500 Kevin Valmonte hits 3-6-9 for $2,300 • Match Game still at $3,500 3-6-9 will be $1,300 at West Covina, and Match Series estimated at $650 ABTA Christmas Event at West Covina for 1 Day Event

ARCADIA—We returned to Bowling Square Lanes where we saw 155 entries come out and support the ABTA. We had a semi tough shot for the tournament making the cut scores of +81 for the men and +35 for the women. The Super Seniors added to the board (2 men and 1 female) were Art Windsor (+44), Sun Sundara (+43), and Sierrie Herradura (+29). Super Seniors are men 63 and over, and for the women you just need to be a young 55. That would give us 42 bowlers making it to the semi-finals this week.

Our top qualifier for the Men was Kurt Valmonte with a +170, and for the women it was Deborah Martin with a +88. They will get a paid entry into a future regular ABTA event. Our top seed overall draws the Match Series, and this time it was worth $276. Kurt drew a 469. We had no bowlers that bowled this score during the qualifying squads. We will estimate the Match Series at $650 at West Covina event. The last bowler for the 3-6-9 roll-off this week was Kevin Valmonte and he needed to get five 9 counts or strikes to take home the $2,300. Kevin was able to pull off this feat and took home $2,300. We will start the pot at $1,300 this week at West Covina.

In our optional doubles, finishing in first were Kevin Valmonte (Again) YES! and Kurt Valmonte (Brothers) with a 1466 for $130. Finishing second was Kin Sang Chung and Mark Andrews with 1447 for $110. There was a total of $1,190 paid out in doubles, 19 paid spots with low to cash of 1359.

After bowling 3 more games for the semi-finals, finishing in first was Nemesio Tagalag with a + 175. Finishing in second place to sit out the first round was Danny Gartin, Jr with a +125. Our top seed in semi-finals had the honor of drawing the Match Game worth $3,500, which is maxed out. Nemesio Tagalag drew a 237. After a review of all the scores bowled, we had one bowler who shot that score and it was Kent Maruyama who was contacted and gladly will accept the cash: : ). We will still have $3,500 at West Covina, and continue to build on the back-up pot.

This would bring us to our top 16 Match Play finals. In the first round, the seven losers were Art Windsor, Deborah Martin, Julie Nguyen, Kurt Valmonte, Holden Au, Annaliza Agoncillo, and Scott Vasquez. They received checks of $100 each. In the second round, the losers were Angela Lung, Chao Lin, Arnell Bautista, and William Garrett. They received checks of $105 each. This would get us down to the final four bowlers. At this point, our horses would be paying anywhere from a low of $26 (Sunny Fong) to a high of $137 (Sun Sundara) depending on who would win. In this round we saw Sunny Fong (16th seed) bowling Sun Sundara (11th seed) that would be over early as Sun was not able to find his shot. Sunny found his, kept striking and went on to finish with a 259 to 208 and advanced to the semi-final match. In the other match we saw Greg Kokanour (14th seed) bowling Danny Gartin Jr (2nd seed). This would be a close match that would provide excitement all the way to the final frame. It would be Greg who pulled it out in this game with a 223/266 to 226/248 and advanced. Both Danny Gartin Jr and Sun Sundara finished in 4th and 5th getting checks for $110 each. They bowled very well at Bowling Square!

Our semi-final match was all set now. It would be bowled on Lanes 31 and 32 this week as we were on the high side at Bowling Square. In the weekly "horses" we would see Greg paying $63 and Sunny paying $26 if they would win their match. This would be a match where we would see both bowlers continue their good bowling. In this match it was Greg who would jump out to the lead, but in the 7th frame he would leave the 6-7-10 split, and Sunny found his shot at this time with a couple of strikes. Greg was able to come back and throw a couple of strikes to finish out, forcing Sunny to double in the 10th frame to advance. And that he did to finish with a 205/242 to 187/230 and advance to the title match. Finishing in 3rd place was Greg Kokanour this week for $200. For those lucky "investors" that had Sunny as a horse, he paid $26.

The title game was set and bowled on Lanes 27 and 28. At the start of the match, you could tell that Sunny was on a mission to win his 1st championship as he would start out with 3 strikes and a spare followed by 5 more strikes. Nemesio was able to start with a couple of spares and then get a double. But a split in the 7th frame sealed the fate and sent Sunny on to his first title. He would finish with a big 255/292 to 169/197, his 1st ABTA Championship. He would take home $1,000 for 1st place and $1,700 for max. Cash and Carry, for a total of $2,700. Finishing in 2nd place for $500 was Nemesio Tagalag who was hot on this night also!

NORWALK — Winter weather greeted us with heavy rains as we went to Keystone Lanes for our second visit of the season. We would like to give a special thanks to Randy for having the team rosters entered and lanes ready for our 10:30 AM start.

Even the rain did not dampen the scoring power of this week’s hot shot bowler, Mary Smyth, who rolled 200/221 games and a very nice 614 series. Also finding their scoring grooves were Pearlie Watts with 203/518, Maxx Paul with 215/538, Vi Wilson 526, Nancy Soto 524, Kim Cato 518, Tracy Koolmees 516, Margo McClain 508 and Joy Bennett 508. No season records were broken this week.

Team members Maxx Paul, Daisy McGhee, Pearlie Watts and Kim Cato of Westminister Lanes 2 continue to stretch out their lead in the number one position with 35 season wins.

Another Elk Hits 300

by Karen Capone

TUSTIN — Tim Hawes, a young buck, hit his first 300 Wednesday night December 7, 2011 during his second game on the Elks Guys & Dolls league. In fact he carried another 8 more into the third game, leaving a 10 pin in the 9th, and finishing that game with a 277.

What a way to top off his year. After 27 games this season and averaging 187, looks like good things are in store for this buck. And Dave Paul, not wanting to be left out, picked up the big four. Nice job Elk bowlers! Up next a lady Elk maybe??
