Tiffany Morita Wins Second ABT Championship at Linbrook Bowl

ANAHEIM—After four qualifying squads at Linbrook Bowl on December 13 and 14, our finalists included Mike Gilbert, Rick Laub, Garrett Kakishita, Johnny Tran, Terry Hlebasko, Maria Bacos, Tiffany Morita, LaSandra Chaney, Michael Hanken and Troy Sucatre. The finals format was a beat-the-board format and at the end of the day, Tiffany Morita came out on top by over 40 pins to win her second ABT championship.

Our newest championship, Tiffany Morita works as a medical assistant for Drs. Greenwald, Altman and Manuel. Tiffany is married to fellow ABT member, Jeremy Paulsen. Tiffany has been bowling for about 12 years and sports a 300 game and 799 series to her credit. Tiffany was using a Brunswick Ultimate Inferno drilled by Fred at Brunswick Simi Valley. Tiffany wanted to thank Jeremy for his love and support and "Squishie" (Chris Williams) for helping her with her game. Tiffany also wanted to thank Fred for drilling her equipment. Tiffany wanted to thank Jeremy, her mom, Fred and Squishie for their support. Tiffany also wanted to thank Linbrook Bowl for hosting the tournament and the ABT directors for running an outstanding tournament.

BALTIMORE—Baltimore has been very good to both Rhino Page and Jodi Woessner and Sunday proved no different as each claimed titles in Lumber Liquidators Shark Championship at AMF Country Club Lanes, the eighth stop of the Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour. Page broke the PBA's seven-game scoring record in the Tournament Qualifying Round (TQR) and made his televised finals debut in this tournament last year and Woessner won her first regional (Professional Women's Bowling Association) title in Baltimore 15 years ago.

Top seed Page, of Topeka, Kan. defeated No. 2 seed Wes Malott of Argyle, Texas, 197-189, to claim his second career title. Malott opened in the second and third frames, and despite both competitors' struggles to strike, it left the door open for Page. Last season's PBA Rookie of the Year needed a mark and a count in the 10th to edge Malott which he did with a spare and a strike.

"I felt like I needed to take advantage of the situation," Page said. "Any time a guy has an open frame, I feel I can really try to pound on him ...

VEGAS
LEAGUE
By Alice
Meglemre

ANAHEIM—Monday was a miserable day for the Vegas league bowlers. The wet weather for travel was bad enough but the problems at Linbrook Bowl was worse.

The rain prevented bowling on assigned lanes, due to puddles of water on several lanes, so there were lots of lane changes. We even had to move teams to the north side of the center for our weekly session.

However, the league took it in stride and we even had some good scoring news. We sure appreciated and thank E. J. for all his support from the control desk and on the lanes.

Vi Wilson led the honor roll with 214-586, followed by Aresia McGee 565, Teri Hoffman 211-561, Cyn-die Martin 234-541, Melba Knight 200-539, Patti Givehchin 204-536, Margo McClain 525, Jamie Vallier 518, Nancy Soto 511, Sue McGill 509, Betty Phillips 507 and Renee Laurent 502.

Top five team standings features Doris' Hair Designs at 35 wins, Cer-ritos Lanes #2, 33; David McNaught CPA, 32.2; Keystone #2, 31.2 and Wesminster #1, 31. Team positions from 6th to last place are 27 wins down to cellar team at 12.2.

The Vegas league is like a family and when one of its members fails to arrive, we get worried. Such was the case Monday when Alberta Stoute did not show up for bowling (she's usually first on deck every week) so a call was made to her home. We were sorry to learn she was not feeling well but very relieved she was not in the freeway accident that Jamie saw enroute to Linbrook.

We are pleased to report Berne-ice King's leg surgery went well and she now begins therapy. How well that goes will determine when she can return to bowl which we hope will be soon. Bernice Bennett is conducting the scratch optional scratch sidepots during Bernice's absence. Also, Jay Haggerty returned to bowl, following a few weeks off.

Yummy candy canes were provided Monday by Betty Phillips and were distributed to every bowler on Monday and we thank her.

Now we look forward to our annual (51st) Christmas party which spotlights a sumptuous pot luck buffet that requires five tables. Nan McGill is baking a special cake this year for the centerpiece and bowlers are reminded NOT TO visit the food line until AFTER the practice session.

A reminder the league optional gift ($10 minimum) exchange requires you to give them to Charlie 'Santa' Williams for a card. Then you will return it to him to him, following your first strike of the day, to select a gift of your choice. Don't forget to thank the gift giver!

Roberta and Alberta will be directing the placement of pot luck foods and their will be paper plates, utensils and napkins for bowlers. Take all you want but please eat all you take and don't forget to take home your pots and dishes.

NEXT WEEK: 9:30 a.m. Mon-day, December 22. Due to the Christ-mas Deadline, there will be no story next week.

Mak Wins 1st ABTA Title at West Covina

Vuong Do Wins Match Series $416 • Match Game Carry Over Now $3500

Bowling Square Lanes is our Host Saturday (One Day)

Christmas Special Gifts / Prizes / Raffles

Saturday 12:00-1:00-2:30 - 4:00 & 6PM Semis 7:45 PM

Las Vegas Rooms Due Soon - Going Fast Reserve ASAP

WEST COVINA—Andy Mak is a quiet and unassuming Gentelman, but he had his Roto Grip speaking loudly at West Covina Lanes as he became our latest champion. He did it up good as he won his first ABTA Title at Super West Covina Lanes, the hard way winning five straight matches He finally downed top-seed Darrow Tiongco in the title game to win his first ABTA Title and taking home a tidy $2,200 in the process.

The scoring was good at West Covina, as it took Men +76, and the Ladies +40. Due to the nice turn out we had 60 Semi Finalsts take to the lanes including the added Super Seniors Ely Cruz, Rico Cayton, and Janice Meloon.

The Semis took the floor in hopes of making the top 16. Darrow Tiongco vaulted to the top with a fine +133 to be able to sit out and bowl for the title. In 2nd was Romy Cajucum who received a first round bye and would enter in round two of the top 16 including 3 women who made the cut.

In round one of the finals Single elim losing were Laura Vasquez, Alan Basto, Aarik Torres, Chris Marquez, Marvin Crowder, and and Resty Sanchez. They got checks of $110.

Round two saw Rico Cayton, Joenito Soon, Romy Cajucum, and Janice Meloon lose out. They got checks for $120 in 6th thru 9th places.

Round three saw Bong De La Cruz edge Jessica Ting 203-198. Andy Mak took care of Kim Tieu 210-180. So Jessica and Kim were 4th and 5th with great bowling, and $130. Andy and Bong to meet for the right to bowl Tiongco. Andy struck often, aTiongand won over a tapped De La Cruz 252-280. The likable Bong was 3rd and $215 and Mak off to the title game.

The title game now underway. Andy took a nice lead with a three bagger and Darrow opened in the 2nd frame but doubled in the 3-4 frames. Another open in the 5th didn't help as Mak was clean. After another double in the 10th won his first title handily 217-183 and deservedly so. It is nice to see Andy win as he has been a regular bowler with us since joining and hadn't had much luck until this night. Andy was a bit nervous but calmed down and bowled the best hence he is the Champion! Congrats Andy and you really bowled well!! Title #2 is in your future. Andy is a great guy. We are glad to have him in the ABTA.

Another great Guy is Darrow Tiongco and he almost got the win. Darrow is at most every ABTA Event and well liked by all. He really bowled well at West Covina.

Great Bowling By Bong, Jessica and Kim. They could have won this one also.

Tourney Hi Qualifiers were Richard Chou +214 and Gina Velarde led the females +119. They will get a paid entry to any regular event. The Doubles were topped by Richard Chou and Lee Iiu with a huge 1566, $170 in 2nd Romy Cajucum and Jun Contreras 1509 $150. We paid 18places and $1,502 in the doubles.

The Match Game was UN-Matched at 246. So with the carryover of $3,480 we will pay $3,500 this week. The balance to be in a Carryover pot. Match Series was Matched at a 627 by Vuong Do for $416. We estimate the Match Series to be $450 this week and only $2.00 to enter.

Anthony Dancel was last up in the 3-6-9 roll and missed on shot #4 so we go for $1,200 this Saturday at Bowling Square in our Xmas special event. He got a $50 Consolation for beer money.

Champ Andy Mak is from Rowland Heights. He used a Roto Grip drilled by "Fast Eddie" Williamson at Bowling Square (One of the best). He is single ladies! Andy was excited to finally make the finals and quite happy to be the champion. He is a good guy. He bowls in the Famous Mou Liu League at Bowling Square as do many of our fine members there! Great er people you will not find! Congrats again Andy on your win. You did it up good!!

Darrow Tiongco is from Santa Clarita. He used an NV drilled by Rusty at Mission Hills Bowl. He is married to Cherie and has a daughter Dominique. He thanks pal Conrad Amado for reminding him to bowl at West Covina, and thanks all the ABTA fans who stayed and cheered the matches.

Bong De La Cruz is from West Covina and used a Track Solution drilled by W. Covina Pro Dave Edis who always does a great job. He is married to a pretty lady Millet (ABTA Casher). They have a son Jonathan. He thanks Millet who talked him into bowling the event.

We had 10 new members at West Covina. First time cashers were Bong and Millet De La Cruz, Kim Tiu, June Jones, Raman Dang, Cristine Cheung, Kunthea Hi, and Steven Carrera. A big Welcome back to Jorge Bardales, who cashed in his return to ABTA Action.

Drawn for a chance at the Hot Shot Pot was Fred Go who missed on shpt #2 so the Hot Shot Pot is $200 this week. Free to our members. Fred got a $25 consolation.

Thanks to the Great West Covina Staff: Sandy, Karen and all. Congrats to the GM Scott who was married over the weekend. Good Luck Folks!!

It's History folks as Andy Mak enters the archives as our latest champion. This Saturday, we are hosted (One Day) Christmas Event at Bowling Square Lanes in Arcadia 12:00-1:00-2:30-4:00 & 6:00 PM. Lots Of Gifts and Prizes. Check- in Early. Gifts on every squad. CHECK IN EARLY!!!!!!

LAS VEGAS ROOMS DUE ASAP! Dec 29 is the final Deadline! We have great rates and the Rooms at the South Point are First Class!

For those unable to make it this week have a Merry Xmas and Happy New Year from the ABTA and Staff.

Inland Empire NABI Champion Marty Coyazo

LAKE ELSINORE—We want to thank Trevi Lanes for a wonderful Christmas tournament. Our first week's high qualifier for the day was Brett Brown, who won the Global 900 Maniac bowling ball & Dana Lecount, high woman qualifier, won the Anne Klein watch. Our 2nd week's high qualifier for the day was Marty Coyazo for the 900 Global Maniac & Kerry Lucka, high woman qualifier, won the Anne Klein watch.

Marty Coyazo, our champion, won with his Brunswick Side-winder, drilled by Corky De Maio at his residence in San Bernadino. Marty bowls in 2 leagues at Del Rosa: the PBA Experience & the 630 Scratch. He also bowls in the 750 Scratch league at Empire Bowl. Marty has been bowling for about 15 years, works at Albertsons & attends Crafton Hills College. He would like to dedicate this win to his bowling coach, Paula Vidad, and to his family. With this first win, Marty is qualified into the Tournament of Champions at the exciting NABI 2009 Nationals. Congratulations, Marty!

Our stepladder began with: James Doolen bowling Kerry Lucka. Kerry bowled a 209 to James's 227. James then bowled Eric Perez. Eric bowled a 203 to James's 238. James went on to bowl Marty Coyazo. James bowled a 211 to Marty's 267. Marty, then met Tom Jones (high qualifier in the semis). Tom bowled a 251 to Marty's 254 (a very exciting match) for Marty to win the tournament. Thanks to all who came out! We had a lot of fun!

Our $100 sidepot winners were: Jerry Runnals, Michael Walker, Tom Jones (2), Richard Becker, James VanSant, Eric Lam, Antonio Vega, Marty Coyazo, Jennifer Blake & Randy Powelson. Our $70 sidepot winners were: Tom Jones (2) & Marty Coyazo. Our $50 sidepot winners were: Brad Lecount, Tom Jones & Joseph Mathis.

Our next tournament will be Sat., Dec. 20 at Riverside Lanes. Our half price entry for the 11:30 squad & all re-entries went over so well, we are continuing that discount at Riverside Lanes.

*Inland Empire NABI at Trevi Lanes

Citrus Belt's RYAN COLE Ties Record With 856 Series

by Frank Weiler

MURRIETA - RYAN COLE recently rolled games of 300 - 268 - 288 for a 856 series in the 640 Scratch Trio League at Cal Oaks Bowl. The 856 series ties a Cal Oaks record for a three game series by a right handed bowler.

Ryan used his Brunswick Purple Fury ball, drilled by JIM MURTISHAW, to bowl his record tying score. Ryan's dad DAN COLE was on hand to witness the historic score. Dan is on hand every week to support Ryan and has been his son's biggest fan since introducing Ryan to the sport of bowling in 1992.

In addition to thanking his dad and Jim Murtishaw, Ryan wants to thank DAVE COOK for selecting him as a teammate and coaching him.

Ryan's 856 tied the record set by FRED RIANO several years ago. Riano is a local bowling hero because he is currently on active duty in the Marine Corps serving in IRAQ. He will return from a years tour of duty in a combat zone next February. Riano's step son DEVON KOBASHIGAWA works at Cal Oaks Bowl and recently bowled his first certified 300 game.

The 640 Scratch Trio League is Cal Oak's best league, with 36 of it's 39 bowlers averaging 200 or better. The league is currently paced by DEWAINE WEST with a 244 average and DAVE COOK at 241. The league has had six 300 games, the latest bowled by KELLY JONES.

Thank You Bowling News for supporting Citrus Belt bowlers and Merry Christmas to everyone.

PBA Tour

unfortunately I didn't. But luckily he was down early and I was able to hang in there."

Page, who had struggled early in the season, was making his first televised finals appearance of the season.

"I can't tell you how much confidence this brings," the 25-year-old said. "Three weeks ago I was pounding my head into the wall. But I went back to what made me, me. I didn't realize I had gotten away from it. But just because I won, doesn't mean I can let up now."

In the second match, Malott, who was making his fourth TV finals appearance in eight events, had a near-perfect game, defeating last week's champion and Sunday's No. 3 seed Parker Bohn III, 290-204. In the first match, Bohn III of Jackson, N.J. advanced by defeating defending champion Patrick Allen of Wesley Chapel, Fla., 244-233.

In the PBA Women's Series, sponsored by the United States Bowling Congress (USBC), No. 2 seed Jodi Woessner of Oregon, Ohio defeated last week's champion and top seed Carolyn Dorin-Ballard of Keller, Texas, 247-189 in the championship match. Woessner struck in the first six frames and jumped out to a quick lead en route to her first career PBA Women's Series title. It was Woessner's second televised finals appearance of the season, previously losing to Michelle Feldman in the championship match of the Chameleon Championship in Taylor, Mich. on Nov. 16.

"I just tried to make good shots and kept my arm swing loose," Woessner said. "Last month when I was on the show, I think I pressed too hard. I've bowled Carolyn several times and I've had success against her. I don't know if I bring my game up a notch when I play her, because she's an amazing player." The Lumber Liquidators Shark Championship is the fourth event in the PBA's six event "Versatility Swing," in which players can earn separate points based on their performance in each of the six events. These events include the five events on the named "animal" patterns (Viper, Chameleon, Scorpion, Cheetah and Shark) as well as the Earl Anthony pattern that will be used in Medford, Ore. Much like tennis has a "Clay Court Championship" or a "Hard Court Championship," the PBA features these events on different oil patterns. Today's event marks the only time all season the Shark pattern will be used as the sole pattern for an event.

The Shark pattern is the longest of the five patterns, measuring 44 feet of oil. Typical to the length and design, professionals will migrate more towards the center of the lane as the ball normally will not hook back to the pocket if it strays too far outside near the gutter. This pattern usually requires extreme inside angles to get to the pocket after five or six games. The scoring pace is normally low for this pattern. With her appearance in Sunday's finals, Woessner also qualified for the Women's Series Showdown, in which the winners (and runner-ups if there is a multiple winner) will participate in a season-ending dedicated broadcast on ESPN, sponsored by the United States Bowling Congress (USBC).

The PBA will travel next to Reno, Nev. for the National Bowling Stadium Championship with the finals airing live on ESPN on Sun, Jan. 11.

25TH ANNIVERSARY SN-CDBA TOURNEY SET FEB.14-15 AT SUNSET STATION

LAS VEGAS—Southern Nevada-California Deaf Bowling Association secretary-treasurer Stan Booth mailed out to deaf bowlers the flyers, entry forms and general information of the 25th anniversary SN-CDBA tournament held at Sunset Station in nearby Henderson on Presidents day week-end Feb. 14-15, 2009. Booth will accept entry fee before Jan.1st to hold your team's spot and the average verification forms by Jan. 15.

Also he added, this time if you bowl in two or more leagues, make copies of the average verification form and have the secretary of each league sign the forms. That will make sure you have the highest average as of January 1 to avoid disqualification.

Time certainly went fast as it seems like yesterday, 25 years ago the 3 founding members Larry Murray of San Gabriel Valley Deaf Bowling Club, James Barton of So. Calif. Deaf Bowlers and Sammy Sain of Las Vegas Deaf Bowling Ass'n met one day with Murray and Sain lamented to Barton about their smaller club's financial inability to bid for host-ship of Pacific Coast Deaf Bowling and National Deaf Bowling tournaments. That lead to a discussion about forming a smaller deaf bowling organization to run an annual regular tournament along with a Masters-like competition in southern Nevada and California region. So they decided to ask this writer to join in and to make up the rules for the organization and 4 men team, doubles and singles tournament.

As for the Masters-like tournament this writer suggested a smaller version of the NDBA's World Deaf Championship and to call it the Deaf Eliminations.

With Murray as pro-tem president and host chairman for his club for the first tournament, Barton and Sain as vice-presidents and this writer as pro-tem Secretary Treasurer, it was decided to ask the deaf bowling clubs of southern California and Nevada to put in one-time refundable $100.00 fee as charter club members to have the bidding rights. Then Murray with San Gabriel Valley Deaf Bowling Club as host arranged with then Manager Carol Mancini of Village Bowl in El Monte to hold the first SN-CDBA tournament on Thanksgiving week-end 1984.

Nine deaf clubs chipped in $100 each as charter members and they were Angel West Bowlers, Downey Deaf Bowlers, Golden State Deaf Bowlers, Intercity Deaf Bowlers. Las Vegas Deaf Bowling Ass'n. , Riverside Silent Bowlers, San Gabriel Valley Deaf Bowling Club, South Bay Silents and So. Calif. Deaf Bowlers. From this SN-CDBA had a solid start with $900 in its bank account. In later years the numbers grew to 14 with addition of San Diego Deaf Bowlers Ass'n, Long Beach Beachcombers, Hi-DAD Bowlers, Moreno Valley Silents and Southwest Bowlers.

The inaugural tournament hosted by San Gabriel Valley Deaf Ass'n was a success as it drew 16 teams and 53 bowlers in its Deaf Eliminations. South Bay Silents #3 foursomes won the team event with 2093 handicap score, Las Vegas' Gary Landry and Sammy Sain took the doubles with 1253 and a surprise last day substitute Lance Blessing won both singles and all-events with 651 and 1949 handicap scores. The first prestigious Deaf Eliminations was taken by Billy Spears defeating Jerry Mullenix in the finals.

Through the years the team entries went as high as 27 in it's 10th year, then it went on a downward trend to as low as 7 teams in 1998 that necessitated a change from Thanksgiving week-end to President's day week-end in February. The change boosted the entries to its all time best 42 teams in 2004. Also there were other changes like from a men's tournament to a mixed one permitting deaf women bowlers and interpreters for the deaf to compete.

From the first year President Larry Murray there were many others presiding in the years between to Howard Sultan at present. Stan Booth is only the 4th secretary-treasurer with Ira Krauss, Howard Sultan and this writer before him.

Highlighting the 25th anniversary as Las Vegas is a gambling town, there will be Texas Hold-em Poker tournaments on both evenings for deaf bowlers and fans who want to play.

ABAKUMOFF TOPS DEAF TRAVEL WITH 894 AT AMF BOWLING SQUARE

ARCADIA—Top bowlers of So. Calif. Deaf Travel made success at its stop at AMF Bowling Square as the rest of league had none. Ed Abakumoff led the league's five 800's with his 235-205-265-189 for 894, 6 pins short of the league consecutive 900 series. Pablo Yoma followed with his 205-232-213-221 for 871, Bon Jones 181-267-201-213 for 868, Darrell Stogryn 160-214-223-242 for 839 and Robert Audette with his season best 807 from 236-192-222-157.

In his 2nd game Bob Jones again had a run of 9 strikes in row only to be thwarted by the 7pin in 10th which he missed for that 267.

Abakumoff 's 3rd game 265 also provided excitement with 8 front strikes.

Riverside with Abakumoff's help regained first place by defeating Glendale 12 to 8. Andy Lorenzo had 731 and Bob Taylor 707 for Glendale which is now 2 behind. Yoma with Jim Mohr's 232 helped S. F. Valley move up to 3rd place by wining 16-4 from Jones' Los Angeles. Only three teams hit 2000 with Valley's 2205 as the day's high and Riverside hit the day's high team game, 602.

This 49 years old all deaf traveling league thanks GM Sheryl Martin and her AMF Bowling Square staff for hosting and will take a long holiday sojourn till next year.

Most of the bowlers will participate in their So. Calif. Deaf Bowlers Singles Classic at Linbrook Bowling Center on January 10, 2009 and resume they're traveling league bowling the following day Jan.11 at Del Rio Lanes.

MARK FISSEER WON DECEMBER SST TOURNAMENT

CABAZON—A couple weeks ago I wrote about Mark Fisser and true to his words that he will report to me if he wins a tournament. I got an email from Mark informing me that he won a scratch tournament on Dec.6-7 at Canyon Lanes at Morongo Casino in Cabazon, CA. (You have seen his picture on page 2 of last week's Bowling News.)

Mark said, the tournament is called Super Senior Tour (SST) which has 3 different divisions, Super Senior Division (age 65 and up), Senior Division (age 45-64) and Junior Division (age 18-44). All three use 10 games qualifying and head to head match play finals.

He participated in the Junior Division and won its tournament. There were only 20 entries in this division and Mark lead with +394 (239.4 ave.) after 10 games of qualifying. In the match play, he won 4 matches with 30 bonus points each game and there were only 6 games of match play due to the small entries He was leading after 5 games and won the first place check of $660.00. Mark's overall average for this tournament was 236.8.

Congratulations, Mark for good bowling.

Mark mentioned that Ken DeGroff also bowled in this tournament and did not do well due to dizziness from food poisoning.

Mark said he already signed up to bowl in the 2009 USBC Masters at Cashman Center in Las Vegas on Feb. 9-15. I asked him about Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour Denny's Dick Weber Open at Fountain Bowl on Feb. 2-8 as a non-member. Mark said he wish he could enter that one but the non-member of PBA entry fee of $600.00 is too steep as he could not afford both the USBC Masters and Dick Weber Open.

Hopefully Santa gets a sponsor to come and help.

WISH YOU ALL HAPPY HOLIDAYS

In the Junior Adult Scratch Doubles, we had two teams tied for first place going into position round. The two teams tied 2-2 for the day and ended up in a one game rolloff. The team of Andrew Stewart and Mark McLeod finished the league champions over Darrell Wilson and Aaron Wilson. She does a fantastic job!

In the Saturday Linbrook Juniors, the first place team was decided before a bowling ball was rolled down the lane. The team of What's Handicap, Jeff Hunt, Bobby Hornacek, Andrew Stewart and Aaron Wilson took the first place honors. It was very close for the second and third place awards. We had six teams all within two games of each other. In the end, second place went to Chris Conway, Thomas Iriye, Marco Vasquez and Josh Cruz. There was another rolloff for third place with Edrick Tayag, Jackie Tayag, Jay Tayag and Jeremiah Tan taking the game. GARDENA—After several weeks, we have returned to our home base, Gardena Bowl. We had some good scoring and quite a few 200's.

Brent Shern leads scoring with a 930 topped off with a 275 game, as well as games of 236, 215 and 204. An errant 9-pin stopped Jeremy Glover's bid for perfection and left him with this week's 279 high game.

A 200 game helped Jeremy finish the set with an 841. His teammate, Keyon Lemus, followed him with the week's 3rd high 802 series. Keyon struggled with the set but managed to post decent games of 211 and 236. Justin Gadaire barely missed 800 with a 795.

He needed a couple of better games to go with his 247 and 226. He did well at JAT Farm Club, though, so I guess his efforts here paid off. Finishing out the top 5 bowling 214, 208 and 204 was Steven Alford with a 770 series. Also bowling 200 games were John Mc Cullin 204, and Lawrence Merriweather 201. Team 7, also known as Team JerKey was the only team plus... plus 43, that is. They had this week's highest team games at 457 and 432. Keep up the good work.

This coming Saturday will be our last league session of 2008. We'll be at AMF Bowl-O-Drome, and I'll try to have a little something for the holiday. Hopefully, I won't be too busy packing for Vegas to miss writing an article for next week. See you on Saturday!

Wreaths Across America 2008

by Mary Lynly

Once again I attended the wreath laying ceremony at the Sacramento Valley National Cemetery. Last year I was pleased to place one of 250 wreaths on my husband Paul's grave. This year, accompanied by Barbara Metzinger and Seeko Faris, we witnessed the very moving ceremonies prior to the wreath laying.

The cold did not deter the 1500 present soaking up the accolades of all branches of the service, POW/MIA's and Patriot Ancestors for their love of country and service. A wreath was laid around a massive flagpole for each branch. Loved ones who had family buried here received wreaths first and then the mass moved forward covering the 3700 graves and place a wreath on each one.

The greetings paid homage to our wonderful country and the freedom we have saying things like, "Freedom is not free . . . there is a price" and "We don't inherit patriotism and we don't get it through the bloodstream. . . it must be taught." The ceremonies were complete with color guards from scouts, the military and the National Society Sons of the American Revolution in early military dress. Following closing remarks the entire crowd was stilled and in salute as the bugler played taps and after the retiring of the flags the air of the Bagpiper was heard.

Considering the miles of cars trying to find a place to park and those standing and seated, with the help of the local police and military the order was amazing. All of this was due to the careful planning and execution of all details by Kathleen and Marston Watson who were in charge and the Anne Loucks Chapter, of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution who sponsored the event. This ceremony was one of 286 that took place at this very same time across the nation.

Wreaths Across America foundation was started by Morrill Worcestor 16 years ago when he noticed there were numerous graves in Arlington that appeared to have no "family." As the owner of a Wreath making company in Maine, he donated 5,000 wreaths to be laid at these graves and shortly after started the foundation.

To see every grave adorned with a wreath with red ribbon was inspirational beyond description. If you are privileged to attend one of these it will be memorable.

California has been instrumental in spearheading one of the most prolific charities in bowling's history with the California Bowler's BVL Fund. Started during WWII the fundraising was eventually followed across the nation as millions of dollars were raised to benefit VA and Military hospitals and Outreach Centers under the heading National BVL Fund. California alone has donated over 11 million to the cause, more than any other state.

Joining in fundraising efforts for our military, the California Bowling Writers Phone Card Charity continues into its fifth year raising money to send 300 minute phone cards to the troops in Iraq and Afghanistan. Please check out the thermometer charting progress on our CBW website www.calbowlingwriters.org - Donations may be sent to: CBW - Tina Martin, CBW Treasurer, 57 Shields Lane, Novato, CA 94947-3877

California Bowling Writers, formed in 1998, is open to all California bowling journalists, promoters and supporters of the sport of bowling. The purpose of the organization is to encourage and educate both members and non-members in communication through print, promotion and use of electronic media. CBW will recognize and reward those who create media awareness by providing outstanding bowling photography and journalistic excellence.
