Tennessee's Mykel Holliman named top rookie; Chuck Gardner, Martin Larsen also honored

AUSTIN, TX – Australia's Jason Belmonte was the overwhelming choice as 2019 Chris Schenkel PBA Player of the Year for a fifth time, Professional Bowlers Association CEO Colie Edison and PBA Commissioner Tom Clark announced in a special FloBowling livestreaming event Wednesday from FloSports headquarters in Austin, Texas.

In addition, Mykel Holliman of Collierville, Tennessee, was recognized as 2019 Harry Golden PBA Rookie of the Year; Bowl 4 Life founder Chuck Gardner of Charlotte, North Carolina, was named recipient of the 2019 Tony Reyes PBA Community Service Award, and Sweden's Martin Larsen became the first international player selected by his peers as winner of the Steve Nagy Sportsmanship Award twice.

Belmonte, 36, not only had another dominant season to earn Player of the Year honors, but continued his assault on the PBA record book, winning the PBA Tournament of Champions for a record-tying third time and then winning the PBA World Championship to set the PBA record with 11 career major titles. He also became the first player to reach the championship finals in four majors in a single season for the second time, finishing second in the PBA Players Championship and fourth in the U.S. Open to equal a feat he first accomplished in 2013.

The Australian two-handed star was the only player to win four Go Bowling! PBA Tour titles in 2019, led the PBA Tour in earnings ($288,290) and competition points, and finished in the top five 12 times in the 18 tournaments he entered. In addition to his two majors, Belmonte also won the DHC PBA Japan Invitational and the PBA Chameleon Championship during PBA World Series of Bowling X to improve his PBA Tour career titles total to 22. Jakob Butturff of Tempe, Arizona, was a distant second in the voting.

In winning Player of the Year for a fifth time, Belmonte is along in third place among the career POY award winners. Walter Ray Williams Jr. won the honor seven times and Earl Anthony was a six-time winner.

Holliman, a 27-year-old lefthander, reached the championship round in two events, including the USBC Masters where he lost in the title match to Butturf. His other championship round appearance was a fifth-place finish in the Cheetah Championship during PBA World Series of Bowling X. Holliman also led Go Bowling! PBA Tour rook-

WINNETKA – “You say ‘Mike’ and all the heads turn.”

So said Mike Easley about the plethora of bowlers named “Mike” in the Guys and Dolls league at Winnetka Bowl.

The Tuesday night league, in fact, sports eight “Mikes” scattered among its 20 teams. That comes out to about one “Mike” per six male bowlers.

said Mike Hahn, smiling.

FONTANA – Wow, 87-year-old Juanita Arandia rolled a scratch 209 game a few weeks ago in the Mid-Week Madne$$ League at Brunswick Foothill Lanes. It wasn't her first 200 game but was an "AMAZING" accomplishment because Juanita was just back bowling after being diagnosed with Cardiac Heart Failure! I'm sure Juanita is

PBA REGIONAL UPDATE: GRAYWACZ, CURRY WIN FIRST PBA REGIONAL TITLES

Ryan Graywacz of Canastota, N.Y., defeated Rich Reynolds of Plantsville, Conn., 250-188, to win the PBA MJK Pro Shop/Knob Hill Eastern Challenge presented by Brunswick at Knob Hill Country Lanes in Manalapan, N.J., on Saturday.

PBA Challenge events are open to any member or non-member who has never won a PBA event.

Graywacz, a five-year member, had a runner-up finish earlier this season in Yonkers, N.Y. He started the qualifying round slowly, averaging 181 for the first three games before exploding with a 239 average for the final seven games of qualifying. He posted 6-1 record throughout the match play finals to claim the $1,500 first prize along with his first PBA title. Reynolds earned $1,000 for his runner-up finish.

In the semifinal matches, Graywacz topped Conrad Chapple of West Pittston, Pa., 196-181, and Reynolds defeated Scott Kinkaid of Elizabethtown, Pa., 163-152.

• Chris Curry of Beech Grove, Ind., defeated Dick Gran of Hartville, Ohio, 214-211, to win his first PBA Regional title in the Warren Harley-Davidson Central Challenge at Freeway Lanes of Warren, Ohio, on Sunday.

Curry, who earned $1,500, blanked Brent Boho of Colgate, Wis., 2-0, and Gran topped non-PBA member James Cheff of Austintown, Ohio, 2-1, in the best-of-three-game semifinal round matches to set up the championship match.

• The PBA Regional program concludes its 2019 season with PBA/PBA50 Houston Emerald Bowl Doubles Dec. 20-22 in Houston, Texas. The Southwest Region event is projected to pay $7,000 for first place.

• For complete PBA Regional schedules, rules and entry information, visit pba.com, open the “schedules” tab and click on PBA Regional Tours to find the event(s) in your area...and remember, you can follow “live scoring” for all PBA Regional events on pba.com (easily accessible for Apple and Android device users using the PBA app).

name back in the day.”

Two teams boast two “Mikes” on its four-player squad. That’s “Me and the Boys” with Mike Rice and Mike Johnson. And the “Trailblazers” have Mike Taniguchi and Mike Easley. Mike Cohen, Mike Robinson and Mike Antin round out the list. Incidentally, this group is no ordinary bunch of bowlers. It’s not an overstatement to say they’re quite the mighty “Mikes.”

The composite average of the eight is a heady 177.

Johnson, a lights-out bowler with two perfect games in his resume, leads the list with a powerful 211 average. Johnson flexed his muscles last week by smoking a 299.

Cohen (203 average) and Hahn (196) also have earned a 300 ring and Robinson (289 high game) and Rice (288) are knocking at the door.

Other bowlers certainly should aspire to be “like Mike.”

For good measure, Winnetka Bowl General Manager Mike Willis was coaxed into having his photo taken with the other “Mikes.” And Willis definitely is no slouch as a bowler. He averages 206 in Winnetka Bowl’s Mixed Handicap League and has cracked the 300 circle multiple times. Said Robinson: “[Willis] didn’t realize how many ‘Mikes’ we have here.”

Said Willis: “That’s a lot of ‘Mikes.’ ” ies in competition points and earnings ($36,580), easily out-distancing Greg Young of Viera, Florida, in the ROY voting.

As Rookie of the Year, Holliman receives a $2,500 cash award from Gardner’s Bowl4Life Foundation and a $2,500 scholarship will be awarded by Bowl4Life to a youth bowler in Holliman’s name.

Gardner, 60, is a 36-year PBA member who actively competed in PBA Tour and PBA Regional events prior to joining Columbia Industries as both a Tour Staff Player and Tour Rep in 2001. In 2007, he joined Brunswick as Southeastern Product Specialist and Pro Staff Representative, a role he continues to serve along with a number of other industry-related activities.

He was selected as Tony Reyes PBA Community Service Award recipient, however, because he founded the Chuck Gardner Bowl4Life Foundation in 2013 to assist youth bowlers with scholarship funding. He actively raises funds to support the scholarships while absorbing 100 percent of the expenses associated with his fundraising efforts. He conducts scholarship tournaments, provides free lessons and much more. His goal for 2019 was to award $50,000 in scholarships; to date that total has exceeded $63,000.

Larsen, a 40-year-old 10-year PBA Tour veteran, has been one of Europe’s premier bowlers for years, and established himself as a world-class player in PBA Tour circles after making his debut in 2009. While he has yet to win a PBA Tour title, he has seven championship round appearances including a pair of runner-up finishes. Larsen was first selected as the Nagy Award recipient during the 2011-12 season. His 2019 schedule was limited after he was struck by a car and seriously injured prior to the start of the PBA Harry O’Neale Chesapeake Open in Virginia Beach, Virginia, in mid-August.

Other finalists in the Nagy voting were newly-elected PBA Hall of Famer Tommy Jones of Simpsonville, South Carolina; Canada’s Francoise Lavoie; Brad Miller of Lee’s Summit, Missouri, and Kyle Sherman of O’Fallon, Missouri.

The PBA Player and Rookie of the Year awards are elected by veteran members of the bowling news media along with the PBA membership. The Reyes Award recipient is selected by a panel of PBA executives. The Nagy Award is voted upon by PBA Tour players who have bowled in at least 50 percent of the current year’s tournaments.

The four award winners will be recognized during the PBA Hall of Fame induction ceremonies in Arlington, Texas, on Saturday, Jan. 18, as part of the PBA Hall of Fame Classic tournament weekend.

the reason her team is named “SHE’S STILL GOT IT”. BOWLING is a wonderful sport. It allows the very young, the very old, the disabled and everyone in between to participate and compete as bowlers. “EVERYONE CAN BOWL”. There are bowlers in wheel-chairs, on crutches and using walkers. Just yesterday I saw a man bowl with his right arm as he supported himself with a crutch under his left shoulder! BOWLING makes life brighter and better for millions of people. “BOWLING MAKES THE WORLD A BETTER PLACE”.

Older people bowl. Like Juanita, older people compete in leagues everywhere. Older bowlers are the best teammates in the world because they are committed, reliable, punctual and always available. No more job commitments.

I don’t know how many CALIFORNIA bowlers are 87 years old or older and I don’t know how many 87 year old women have rolled a 200 scratch game this season. But I do know that Juanita Arandia is 87 years old and she bowled a 209 game. ”AMAZING” stuff. Wow, Juanita Arandia rolled a 209 game! Congratulations Juanita and congratulations to the sport of BOWLING for meaning so much to so many people.”BOWLING MAKES THE WORLD A BETTER PLACE”.

ORANGE COUNTY USBC BVL TOURNAMENT

by Joy McGregor

ANAHEIM – We hope everyone has a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year and when all the turkey and stuffing has been eaten and the Rose Parade has been watched, it will be time to prepare for our very first tournament of the new year. The BVL tournament will be hosted this year by LINBROOK BOWL, 201 S. Brookhurst St., in Anaheim.

This very popular event is JANUARY 25 and 26, 2020 with squad times at 10 AM and 1:30 PM both days. The deadline for mailed entries is January 23, 2020, or when squads are filled. On-site entries accepted through January 26. Any group wishing to bowl together, please send entry forms together in the same envelope. The entry cost is $25 with re-entry at $20 with an optional prize fund of $5.

This is a three (3) game singles scratch by division tournament. The optional prize fund will be returned 100% at least one place for every 10 entries with a handicap of 90% of 220. In lieu of Prize Fund, youth bowlers will receive scholarship deposited into the S.M.A.R.T. account with USBC. You may bowl as many times as you wish but a bowler may only CASH ONCE in his or her division for the scratch championship and only CASH ONCE in the optional prize fund. All entrants must be members of Orange County USBC with a verifiable Orange County USBC average to be eligible for optional prize fund and to be a representative at the Helen Duval Veterans finals.

Please read all the rules as they will be strictly adhered to. PARTICIPANTS ARE REQUIRED TO SHOW THEIR CURRENT USBC MEMBERSHIP CARD OR RECEIPT FROM LEAGUE OF CARD PURCHASE AT TIME OF CHECK-IN.

This is such a popular tournament as the hospitalized veterans realize all the monies collected and provides recreational and therapeutic programs and services to veterans BVL picks up where government funding leaves off, providing the “extras” that brighten spirits and boost morale. Look for the lilac-colored entry forms in ALL Orange County centers and get your entries in. You may also download the entry on our website: ocusbc.org. INVITATIONAL

Sixteen More Feet and Five Times The Volume

by David Yamauchi

DOWNEY – The Brunswick Invitational started the third round and shifted from the low-volume short pattern to a 45’ pattern adding 16’ and 5x the volume of oil. Bowlers worked hard as they matched up their equipment and approach to the new shot. Teams were put back in order by overall season wins to start the new round.

In the “A” match, Forest Lanes was leading the league with 51 season wins taking on 2nd round winners Cal Bowl sitting at 45 wins but already holding a spot in the roll offs. Forest Lanes took the first game by triple-digits, but Cal Bowl came back to have a chance game two but fell 8 sticks shy, then bowled another nail biter as Cal Bowl took game three by 16. Forest Lanes banks four wins and increases their overall lead in the league. Stephanie Zavala killed them for Forest with a 649 set while Ramon Torres dropped to the anchor spot and put up a 597 for Cal Bowl.

The “B” match featured Tito’s Vodka, who has banked 44 wins with two roster spots and a variety of subs, taking on Junior Amateur Tour who was holding 42 wins after two solid rounds. The match was all J.A.T. as Anthony Santos lit them up with a solid 676 to pace J.A.T. to the sweep. Edward Estrada led Tito’s with a 556 set.

Team Hu$tle took on US Foods who was looking to come back after their close loss in the big match the previous week. US Foods came back with a sweep taking 5 from Team Hu$tle. Gabriel Martinez was again big for US Foods with a 620 set while Jello Gray paced Team Hu$tle one stick shy of 600.

First-round winners DV8 were sitting in 7th overall taking on Kingpin Pro Shop. DV8 looked like round winners as they swept through Kingpin for a 5-0 win. Jonathan Huff was huge for DV8 with a 715 set while Greg Neuer paced Kingpin with a 623 set.

Don Julio Tequila and 3 Olives Vodka were both sitting at 37 season wins. 3 Olives came out strong with an 806 set to start but Don Julio came back for the game two win. 3 Olives got back on track as they snuck by Don Julio by 5 sticks for the game three win but dropped totals as Don Julio takes the 3-2 win. Eric Snow led 3 Olives with a 604 set while Raul Rosales’ 613 helped Don Julio to totals.

Threadworks took on Captain Morgan in the 11 vs. 12 matchup. Captain Morgan came out strong taking games one and two but Threadworks showed heart taking game three to salvage one point. Arnold Cheesman led Threadworks with a 568 set while Donell Carter was huge for Captain Morgan with a 647 series.

Buddy’s Bowling Supply and Bowling Guys were looking to get on track this round sitting at 34 and 33 wins. Bowling Guys took game one, but it was all Buddy’s Bowling Supply from there with a 4-1 win. Bobby Campagnale led Buddy’s with a 629 set while Antonio Palangio paced Bowling Guys with a 548 series.

Bowlum took on Saddleback Lanes in the 15-16 match. Bowlum took games one, three and totals for the 4-1 win. Butch Jackson led Bowlum with a 603 set while Alex Abieras was high for Saddleback with a 602 series.

Rednil Insurance Brokers, Professional Approach, Century 21-PEAL and Keystone Lanes rounded out the action on Monday. Rednil took a 4-1 win over Professional Approach and Century 21-PEAK swept through Keystone lanes to start the round clean.

Financial Advisor’s pot went to Jonathan Huff (266) for $190 with 2nd to Gabriel Martinez (235) for $90. Upper sidepots went to Jonathan Huff (237) and Jonathan Huff (266) for $50 each with 2nd to Anthony Santos (227) and Gabriel Martinez (235) for $22. Lower sidepots went to Butch Jackson (223) and Jello Gray (228) for $40 each with 2nd to Alex Abieras (209) and Susan Heffern (218) for $20 each. Upper SuperPot went to Bobby Campagnale (235) for $121 with 2nd to Stephanie Zavala (232) for $50. Lower SuperPot went to Jello Gray (213) for $95 with 2nd to Alex Abieras (198) for $40.
