JERRY DeYAGER Bows 807 and 825 at Cal Oaks

by Frank Weiler

MURRIETA — Jerry DeYager personifies power. His strike ball registers 25 MPH on a regular basis, and sometimes comes close to 30 MPH. Why not, when he stands six feet three and tips the scale at a solid 260. I mean solid muscle. Jerry operates his own business, and does some heavy lifting every day. A sixteen pound bowling ball is nothing compared to the hundred pound seed bags he handles.

Jerry consistently rolls 700s and averages about 225 in all his leagues. Nonetheless, he wanted a new look and bartered with JIM MURTISHAW for a new bowling ball -- the Hammer Grind.

The next thing you know Jerry is bowling 800s. First an 807, and then a week later 825 (289 - 277 - 259), in his “Here For Fun League” at Cal Oaks Bowl. The 825 is Jerry’s personal best.

If you are a power player, Jerry recommends you consider pulverizing some pins with a Hammer Grind.

Jerry wants to thank Jim Murtishaw for recommending his dream ball and drilling it to perfection. Jerry also wants everyone to know that he reads the BOWLING NEWS every week, and recommends every bowler do the same.

Thanks Bowling News for supporting all Citrus Belt bowlers.

Finnish Two-Handed Star Palermmaa Wins GEICO Shark Championship, Qualifies for Tournament of Champions

by Bill Vint

have won a PBA title.

“That was the main part of my being here,” Palermmaa said. “Being from Finland, I can’t bowl in the PBA regional tournaments, so (winning a title during the World Series of Bowling) was my only way in. It’s the biggest tournament I’ve ever had a chance to bowl in. I can’t wait.

“Will I be a favorite?” he grinned. “Oh, yah. When I am bowling my A game, I’m going to be on top.”

On his way to his title, Palermmaa also won a long-awaited showdown against his Pacific region counterpart, Australia’s Jason Belmonte. The Shark Championship was the first time the world’s best two-handed bowlers had ever met each other on television.

“It was our first match on TV so I wanted to be the one to get the first win,” Palermmaa said. “There will be plenty more to go, and we’ll see what happens. But I got the first one.”

Belmonte started the Shark finals with a 248-223 victory over Mike Fagan of Patchogue, N.Y., and he then eliminated reigning PBA World Champion Tom Smallwood of Saginaw, Mich., 208-192, to set up his showdown with Palermmaa in the semifinal match.

As the high-revolution power players burned away the oil in the front part of the lanes, both two-handers struggled. In the end, it was a 4-6 split in the 10th frame that doomed Belmonte. A spare/strike in the 10th frame gave Palermmaa a 182-176 victory and a chance to bowl MacLelland for the title.

“I’m happy with the way I bowled,” Palermmaa said. “I might have wrapped my hand around the ball a little too much a couple of times, but I made my spares. It was the Shark. It was expected the lanes were going to get ugly. There’s only so much oil and it got burned up.”

Palermmaa appeared to accept his milestone victory in a stoic Scandinavian manner, but he admitted later he was more excited than he appeared to be.

“I’m an emotional guy, but it’s inside,” he said. “Why waste the energy showing the emotions? It’s the Finnish way. That’s the way I learned to do it. Maybe I should be more emotional, but that’s the way I’m used to doing it.”

The sixth and final World Series of Bowling telecast will be a special U.S.A. vs. The World team competition which will air on ESPN on Sunday, Jan. 9, at 1 p.m. Eastern. United States team members will be Michael Haugen Jr. of Carefree, Ariz.; Ronnie Russell of Camby, Ind.; Wes Malott, Pflugerville, Texas; Sean Rash, Wichita, Kan.; Chris Barnes, Double Oak, Texas, and Bill O’Neill, Southampton, Pa. International players will be Finland’s Palermmaa, Kimmo Lehtonen and Mika

2011 PBA Mark Roth Plastic Ball Championship to Benefit Bowling’s Charities Sale of Six Different Ball Designs

SEATTLE — The Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour’s third annual Mark Roth Plastic Ball Championship March 2-6 at AMF Thruway Lanes in Cheektowaga, N.Y., will benefit a family of charities supported by the bowling industry through the sale of specially logoed bowling balls to the bowling public.

The Plastic Ball Championship was originated by the Professional Bowlers Association in 2009 as a unique competition which required all PBA Tour players to use identical “throwback” polyester bowling ball technology. It returns as a special fund-raising event that will support Bowlers to Veterans Link (BVL), Bowl for the Cure (benefitting Komen for the Cure’s battle against breast cancer), the International Bowling Museum and Hall of Fame, the new YES youth bowling initiative, and other charities supported by The Bowling Foundation.

The official charities of bowling will benefit from the sale of exclusive “plastic” bowling balls created by On The Ball Bowling. Each ball will use the same technology, but will feature a unique cover design with the logo of the participating charity. Bowling fans can pre-order their choice of balls featuring the BVL, Bowl for the Cure, IBM/HF, YES and Bowling Foundation logos, or a sixth ball which will feature the logos of all charities serviced by The Bowling Foundation. The multi-logo ball will be used as the official ball of the Plastic Ball Championship.

PBA Hall of Famer Johnny Petraglia, who will bowl in the Plastic Ball Championship on a PBA Commissioner’s Exemption, will be the spokesman for BVL; PBA Tournament of Champions winner Kelly Kulick will represent Bowl for the Cure; USBC and PBA Hall of Famer Parker Bohn III will represent the IBM/HF; Bill O’Neill will be spokesman for YES, and Australia’s Jason Belmonte will be spokesman for the overall group of Bowling Foundation charities.

“We are excited again to be part of this great charitable endeavor. The PBA rallied the industry last year for Mark Roth and this year we can expand that reach through The Bowling Foundation,” said Brad Handelman, president of ontheballbowling.com/Strike-force Bowling LLC.

To order the special bowling balls, visit ontheballbowling.com.

The tournament itself will get underway on March 2 with a seven-game Tour Qualifying Round where non-exempt players will compete for a minimum of 10 spots in the 64-player field. The 64-player field will bowl 14 qualifying games on March 3 with the top 32 advancing to round-robin match play on March 4. After a nine-game morning round, the top 16 will bowl another nine games in the evening to determine the top four for the live ESPN stepladder finals at 1 p.m. on Sunday, March 6.

The Mark Roth Plastic Ball Championship is named in honor of the PBA Hall of

NATIONAL DEAF BOWLING NEWS

RESPECTS FOR TWO NATIONAL DEAF BOWLING LEADERS WHO PASSED IN 2010

by Connie Marchione

NANCY BUCKMASTER, Brookings, South Dakota, one of the founders of National Deaf Women's Bowling Association passed away last June at 78. Nancy was one of three women who founded the NDWBA in 1974 while running the women's invitational tournament part of the men's National Deaf Bowling Association's World Deaf Bowling Championship at Colorado Springs. She made up all the rules and by-laws for the start of NDWBA in 1975 and got herself elected as its first secretary-treasurer and tournament director.

Nancy Buckmaster remained in that office for 11 years during which she helped establish the NDWBA Hall of Fame. After she and four other women were the first persons inducted in this Hall of Fame in 1979, Nancy took over as the Hall of Fame chairlady. She was highly respected for her services as an officer and tournament director so later Nancy Buckmaster got her highest honor being inducted into National Deaf Bowling Hall of Fame as a leader at Reno in 1999.

ROGER SELLERS, McGehee, Arkansas, the last secretary-treasurer of National Deaf Bowling Association passed away last September at 72. While living in Fort Worth, TX Roger made his name known as major dynamo of Southwest Deaf Bowling. He formed Fort Worth Deaf Mixed League in 1977, served as its secretary-treasurer till 1983 and as its president from 1984 to 2002.

Roger Sellers' interest in Southwest Deaf Bowling Association began in 1977 and in 1983 he got elected as Vice-President. Then in 1990 when SWDBA secretary-Treasurer misused the SWDBA funds, Roger took over as SWDBA secretary-treasurer position and served until 2002. In 1998 Sellers' interests moved to National Deaf Bowling Association and when NDBA's long time secretary-treasurer decided to retire in 2002, Sellers was elected as NDBA's 3rd secretary-treasurer. But due to small entries, NDBA's funds were shelved in 2008 until better times come.

Roger Sellers was inducted in Southwest Deaf Bowling Hall of Fame in 1992, also in same year in his alma mater Mississippi School for Deaf Hall of Fame for his bowling and finally in National Deaf Bowling Hall of Fame as leader in 2002.

Comments? If we missed mentioning the passing of other national deaf bowling leaders in 2010, we regret not knowing about them. So please let me know by dotcon@mfire.com and I will appreciate it.

NEWS: LAURA LEE DANIEL KEPT HITTING BIG NUMBERS

RANCHO CUCAMONGA—This writer can not help reading former hearing-impaired Professional Women Bowling Association member Laura Lee Daniel's name in this paper's front page section of weekly high scores. Daniel's name kept popping up on the past lists with high 700s. Last week showed 774 and she had 780 before and also 758 before that, all of them at Brunswick Deer Creek Bowl.

Daniel on the west coast, is one of the big 3 high average hearing-impaired woman bowlers. Others are Lindsay Coules in Ohio and Lindy Decker in Pennsylvania. This writer hopes to see all of them bowl in deaf tournaments someday.

THE OFFICIAL SOFT DRINK OF BOWLING

Congratulations Sysco Round 2 Winners

Danielle Schilling Leads Ebonite

by Aimee Gomez

DOWNEY—Congratulations to Sysco “Cheetah Masters” on sweeping Brylaw Accounting and winning the second round. Vernon Adams 225-235-212/672, Charlie Kinstler 215-247/634 and Paul Barraco 256/617 led Sysco to the sweep while Larry Stephens 266-244/700 and Billy Myers Jr. 206-232-235/673 tried to keep Brylaw in the match, but could not.

Bowlers Depot swept Storm Products with Jeff Carr 245-207-265/717, Steve Gurrieri 226-226/644 and Raul Rosales 225-228/603 carrying the team to victory over Leonard Ruiz 204-207-211/622 and Paul Varela 230/605.

In the battle of the brothers, Kevin Yamauchi of Katie Jakes Bar and Grill 202-279-213/694 had a big night, winning the second game Brylaw, as well taking down the strike out pot for $1380. Kevin led Katie Jakes to a second game and totals three wins, with help from Jon Brandon 268/658 and Kevin Valmonte 200-232-201/633. Larry Campbell led JAT with his 214-226-206/646 set, while David Yamauchi 234-228/637 contributed.

Zavalas Taquerias swept Threadworks thanks to Paul Danforth 234-214-278/726, Mike Cammarata 268-215/670 and Jeff Garrison 215-227/633. Eric Snow led Threadworks with his 210-221/605 set.

Pro Approach and Clyde’s Video Games bowled one another in the corner and failed to write their scores on the recap.

Bowlum swept Linder Insurance, led by Mark Fisser 232-223-234/689 and Juan Camarena 211-245/620. Gary Duran 210-210-247/667, Steve Key 215-242/614 and Keith Klagge 237-201/613 could not overcome the deficit of having to take the 150 blind.

Herzog Insurance was able to use the 150 blind and still get four wins, thanks to the top bowler of the evening, Danielle Schilling 277-225-249/751. Tom Jackson of Tifco almost kept up with Danielle, 279-243-226/748, but did not get much help from his teammates.

Key Container won three over ABTA thanks to Brandon Grant 255-204/627, who had the only sixer on the pair. Be prepared for oil next week. Happy New Year!

USBC Nationals Pattern not finalized by next week... Round 3 will bowl on SHARK pattern instead. Nationals pattern bumped to round 4.

All a bowler has to do to earn a free entry is recruit two new bowlers to bowl in the February tournament. But if you can recruit 4 new bowlers you will earn a free Mini Marathon entry which comes with 3 entries plus a Lane #1 high performance ball. All entries, including the recruiter must be registered no later than January 24, 2011. You can recruit both scratch and handicap bowlers to earn the free entries.

If you would like a bunch of brochures to pass around to your friends or fellow league bowlers please call the tournament office at 1.877.900.MINI. The more you pass around the better chance you have of getting enough bowlers to earn your free entries.

For complete details on The Winter Mini-Eliminators please visit www.minieliminator.com or call the tournament hotline; 1.877.900.MINI (6464). In addition to Lane #1, the Mini is proud to have as its sponsors South Point Hotel and Casino, Kegel and Virtual-tournaments.com. We hope to see you in Las Vegas February 2-6 as over $250,000 in prizes will be paid out.
