Rash Wins Petraglia Division

Joins Palermmaa, Shafer in PBA World Championships Finals on Jan. 15

by Bill Vint

LAS VEGAS – Sean Rash of Montgomery, Ill., the run-away qualifying leader in the Professional Bowlers Association World Championship preliminary rounds, advanced to the Jan. 15 final round with a victory in the Johnny Petraglia Division finals that aired Sunday on ESPN.

Rash, who won his only major title in the 2007 United States Bowling Congress Masters, defeated PBA Hall of Famer Pete Weber of St. Ann, Mo., 246-222, to capture the third of four berths in the World Championship finals at South Point Hotel Exhibition Hall.

The divisional finals consist of three one-game rounds, starting with four players. The lowest-scoring player after each game is eliminated.

Rash will join Finland's Osku Palermmaa, winner of the Don Carter Division; Ryan Shafer of Horseheads, N.Y., winner of the Billy Hardwick Division, and the winner of next Sunday's Mike Aulby Division finals in the World Championship finals on ESPN on Sunday, Jan. 15, at 1 p.m. ET. The PBA World Championship offers a $50,000 first prize and the first major title of the 2011-12 PBA Tour season.

Rash, a four-time PBA Tour winner who is trying to end a four-year title slump, survived a high-scoring opening game led by Weber's 279. Left-hander Ryan Ciminelli of Cheektowaga, N.Y., was second with a 267 and Rash posted a 257. Nathan Bohr of Wichita, Kan., rolled a respectable 236 in his PBA television debut, but was eliminated.

Rash took command in game two, starting with nine strikes before leaving the 6-10 on his first shot in the 10th frame and finishing with a 278 game. Weber was right behind, starting with eight strikes on his way to a 268. Ciminelli was ousted after rolling a 219 game.

In the final game, Weber lost the strike pocket for four frames, allowing Rash to jump into a 34-pin lead after five frames, and he never let the 35-time PBA Tour titlist back into the match.

"I think we broke down the lanes extremely well," Rash said. "Ciminelli was all by himself on the left side. Nathan played a little right of where Pete and I were playing. We were in the track area and just chased the transition to the left. Pete's got a phenomenal ball roll. He can do things the rest of us can't. But I got into a little groove and my confidence got higher and higher."

Rash said beating Weber was a "special thing" because of a bond the two have developed over the years. continued on page 12

LAKEWOOD — We returned to Cal Bowl where we saw 237 entries come out for the final event of 2011. We had a semi tough shot for the tournament making the consistent cut scores of +59 for the men and +40 for the women on Friday night, and +56 for the men and +24 for the Women on Saturday. The Super Seniors added to the board (3 men and 1 female) were Sierrre Herradura (-6), Roger Romero (+56), Tim Austin (+53), and Sun Sundara (+42). Super Seniors are men 63 and over, and for the women you just need to be a young 55. That would give us 56 bowlers making it to the semi-finals this week with a chance to cash checks from $55 to $2,900.

Top qualifier for the men was Nghiem Tran with a +173, and for the women it was Deborah Sanders with a +102. They will get a paid entry into a future regular ABTA event. Each week our top seed overall draws the Match Series, and this time it was worth $1,096. Nghiem drew a 639. We had no bowlers that bowled this score during the qualifying squads. We will estimate the Match Series at $1,500 at Foothill Lanes event. The last bowler for the 3-6-9 roll-off this week was John Licauco. He needed to get five 9 counts or strikes to take home the $1,300. John was not able to pull off this feat so he took home a consolation of $50. We will add $100 to the pot, and it will be at $1,400 next week at Foothill Lanes.

In our optional doubles, finishing in first were Nghiem Tran and Tomas Chavez with a 1544 for $130. Finishing second was Nghiem Tran and Rey Josafat Jr. with 1527 for $110. There were a total of $1,270 paid out in doubles and 21 paid spots with low to cash of 1341.

That would bring us to our semi-finals/finals as we had to be off the lanes early for New Year's Eve parties. A total of 59 bowlers went out to bowl the semis with one no-show in Ed Abarca. As an added special this week, you could still bet on "Horses" where you picked the bowler who you thought would finish in first place. There would be a total of $405 in bets made this week. During our semi-finals, in the first game we had one bowler who jumped out to the early lead throwing the first 9 strikes, coming up short on the tenth shot, but still finished with a 279 scratch and a +112. that was Reno Pignotti. The 2nd place belonged to Donovan Chung with a +74. In third was Jeff Taino at +65. Still close behind in 4th was Thomas Licauco at +57. Rounding out the top 5 for the first game was Korng Ngow at +44.

During the second game there would be a change for the top five. The 5th spot went to Korng Ngow at +88. 4th place was Roger Romero at +101, 3rd place now belonged to Reno Pignotti at +110. 2nd place was Donovan Chung at +121. Jeff Taino jumped to the lead with a nice 257 and +155.

After the 3rd and final game, finishing in 5th place for $115 was Donovan Chung with a +117, 4th place for $115 was John Licauco at +118. 3rd place for $205 was Reno Pignotti with a +131, 2nd place for $500 was Korng Ngow with a +144. Finishing in 1st place this week was Jeff Taino with a +183 for his 5th ABTA Championship. Jeff would take home $1,500 for 1st place and $1,700 for max. Cash and Carry, $100 for using a Global 900 ball for a total of $2,800. It was Beat the Board finals but we still had our "horses". One very lucky young man, Josh Koch who works the desk at Cal Bowl, took home $405 on a $5 hunch. (On Jeff of course;)

After bowling the semis/finals, our champion Jeff Taino had the honor of drawing the Match Game worth $3,500. He drew a 179. After a review of all the scores bowled, we had four bowlers who shot that score. WOW! Jeff Taino (himself was lucky), Annaliza Agoncillo, Miriam Galluzzo, and Leo Silva. They got $875 each. We will have $3,500 at Foothill Lanes, and start a new back-up pot.

Champion Jeff Taino is from Chino Hills and used a Global 900 Eagle drilled

Gold Coast Hotel Back on Top

Greg Neuer Leads with 746

by Aimee Gomez

DOWNEY—Some teams made the start of the third round look easy, while others made it downright miserable. One of the teams that nailed the shot was first round winners Gold Coast Hotel. Greg Neuer led the league with his 242-268-236/746 set, while teammate Andrea Snyder was second with 237-266-214/717. Gold Coast took all the points from ABTA although Mike Villareal 238-207-256/701 and Matt Garcia 211-213/605 bowled well.

Heineken USA and Herzog Insurance faced off. This high scoring match was close, but Heineken was able to hold on for totals and walked away with four wins on the evening. Leonard Ruiz 252-207-257/716, Bruce Colbert 234-204-226/684 and Ramon Torres 223-229-215/667 led Heineken as Raul Rosales 244-234-232/710, Steve Gurrieri 233-251/681 and Gabriel Martinez 212-217-240/669 pulled out the third game win.

Kegel did not want to start with a sweep, so they made things interesting against Powerhouse Video, and tied the third game. Brandon Kraye 290-204/685 and Rick Easley 277/614 led Kegel to their 4.5 wins, as Vernon Adams 236-205-229/670 did well for Powerhouse.

Bowlmum and Tifco Industries battled it out again, but this time Bowlmum exacted revenge and swept Tifco thanks singlehandedly to Arnold Cheesman 233-211-217/661. Everyone else on the pair made this shot look hard.

Sysco's consistency and ability to stay out of too much trouble got the sweep over Brylaw Accounting, who lost their anchor moments before the first shot of the match. We wish Larry Stephens a speedy recovery.

Clyde's Video Games got a huge sweep because of Ramiro Garcia 227-225-255/707. Garcia was the only one who posted anything, and led his team to a sweep of Tri-Star Vending.

Threadworks worked as a team to take four from Pro Approach. Eric Snow 204-217-259/680, Jeff Seesholtz 234-257/650 and Paul Varela 233-224/623 took all but the first game from Adam McKenzie 203-267/637, Sherman Joseph 228-204/626 and Kevin Peterson 256/612.

The final match of the evening was between Linder Insurance and Erickson Foods. Clyde Lumpford 232-247/616 and Brandon Grant 226-215/600 led Linders to four wins over Erickson Foods, who won the last game by five to avoid the sweep.

Spend the week figuring out what to do on this round, and let's get the league average up from 198. Have a great one.

The BRY-LAW Super Sweeper Sidepot

$10 weekly entry fee per bowler, with half of the money being paid out each week, and the other half going towards the huge payouts on sweeper night at the end of the season. With over 40 entries on Monday, the BRY-LAW sidepot is looking at over $200 in the weekly sidepot and over $8000 est for sweeper night. The top three series will get paid, as well as the top 16 games bowled that night. Bowlers are eligible to cash in each game. Larry Stephens, the sponsor of the BRY-LAW Super Sweeper Sidepot, will once again be adding $1,000 to the total collected. Win 2 Super Pots all season & be even... the rest is profit, and that is before you even get to sweeps. 100% of all money collected will be paid out for the season.

SCRATCH CHALLENGE HONOR ROLL (Round 3-week 3) 44' flat pattern
It is indeed an honor and a lot of hard work to make the honor roll when bowling on the 44' flat pattern. Just ask any of the ten bowlers who did it. Leading the scores this week was Shelby Shirlock 224/620, Sam Hitchcock 210 / 605, Alan Meyerson 224 / 580, David Lindsay 202 / 571, (our own ) Dave Snow 210 / 568, Jeff Carr 208 / 565, Mike Belair 201 / 563, George Abrahamsen 199 / 541, Danny Wilson 189 / 537, Michael Johnston 227 / 520.

CERRITOS—With Christmas decorations down and the old year ended, the Las Vegas Travel League began 2012 at Cerritos Lanes. The staff was on hand to open early for us and had team rosters entered.

Opening the year with high scoring games and series were Dixie Scott rolled a 246 game / 605 series and not to be outdone was Kathy Parish rolling a 227 game / 605 series. Very nice bowling ladies. Additional high series were Vi Wilson 560, Ashlee McKinney 553, Terry Jackson 539, Virginia Gray 222/524, Bernice Williams 524, Kelly Trujillo 208/522, Mary Dixon 521, Linda Kinney 519, Kim Cato 514, Ora McCormick 511 and Darlene Waken 504.

As we enter the final third of the season, Westminster 2 continues to stretch their lead to 43 season wins. Keystone 1 moved into the second spot with 34 wins and posted the high team series of the week with a nice 2108. There is a four way tie for the third position at 32 wins between Cal Bowl 2, Westminster 1, Cerritos 1 and Cal Bowl 1.

Today we celebrated Martha Underwood's 91st birthday. She has been the league mascot and Barb's helper this season. It is always nice to have her with us.

We missed Barbara Bishop today as she is in the hospital while tests are being run to determine the cause of her illness. Barb is in Long Beach Memorial. Our prayers are with her for a speedy recovery and return to the league.

Reminder to those taking the bus to Vegas; the balance of your fee is due by Monday, January 30.

SANDOVAL IS #JUAN IN 590 CLASSIC

by Joy McGregor

ANAHEIM — Juan Sandoval aka Don Juan, had his party hat on and started his celebration early on Friday in the 590 Classic on games of 233-269 & 244 for 746 and added a 247 to mix a tasty 993 cocktail. Juan will start out his New Year as holder of season high series; nice going Juan!!

Elite sub Larry Nordstom doesn't disappoint as evidenced by his performance on games of 201-279-247 for 727 and a quality 260 finale to pop a fine 987 set.

Missy Parkin was Queen for the day as she stroked an opening 279 game. She added a 248 - 159 (minor detour) and recovered nicely with 244 to uncork 929.

Dick McKenzie was ready to party too as he fired games of 235-223-201 and a nice 268 to pry off 927.

Mark Allen rounds out the 900 Clubbers with his winning efforts on upping each game by 20+ pins. Mark started slowly with 190, increased to 218 - 244 and a 267 finale to toast 917.

oped ever since Rash arrived on the scene.

"Pete and I have been friends since I came out on tour," he said. "A lot of people figure I'm the new bad-(boy), the role Pete played for 25-or-so years. He has given me a lot of great advice, to be who I am, not worry about what people think and not try to change. When I'm on the lanes I'm by myself. The only people I care about are my wife and family. But to beat Pete is a special thing."

Rash also will head into the PBA World Championship finals with a dark cloud hanging over his head. He has not won a title in his last eight television appearances.

"I've had some mental issues over the years. Everyone knows that," he said. "I've had some things come up bowling-wise, family-wise that get in the way of the sport sometimes. And some personal things. Physically, I bowled well for several years, but I remember Chris Barnes made 12 shows in a row and never won. Look at Amleto (Monacelli) and Walter (Ray Williams Jr.) and they had years between titles. Chris Barnes told me a long time ago – and Parker Bohn the same thing – that you have to put yourself in position to win. No one remembers who bowled Friday night in the Round of 32. You remember the guys who got to TV on Sunday and had a chance to win. And now I'm in position to win again."

Rash also noted he was inspired during the Petraglia round by the presence of new-found friend Dan McCarty, an 8-year-old who was born with a medical condition commonly called "brittle bone disease." Rash met the youngster during a "Best Buddies" gathering in Las Vegas prior to the PBA World Series of Bowling, struck up a friendship and invited McCarty to attend the television show.

"It was a thrill to have Danny at the show," Rash said. "When you realize what that kid's been through, what he lives with his entire life, he's such an inspiration."

The Petraglia finals were conducted on the PBA's Scorpion lane condition, selected by Rash as the high qualifier.

The Mike Aulby Division finalists will be the final group to bowl, on Sunday, Jan. 8, at 1 p.m. ET on ESPN. Australia's Jason Belmonte is top qualifier for that group which also includes Brian Kretzer of Dayton, Ohio; PBA Tour rookie Josh Blanchard of Gilbert, Ariz., and Mike Fagan of Dallas.

Special pre-game shows for each World Series of Bowling telecast will be webcast beginning on the Wednesday preceding the ESPN finals on pba.com's Xtra Frame and a post-game Xtra Frame interview with the winners will immediately follow the Sunday telecasts.
