JBT Champs Maranda Pattison, Solomon Salama, & Kristy Mace (holding crystals), with runners-up Crystal Elliott, Nick Postag, Kaitlynn Yukihiro.

2017 JBT Las Vegas Main Event

LAS VEGAS – A near sellout field shared in over $35,000 in scholarships awarded in singles, doubles, and team divisions at the 2017 Junior Bowlers Tour's Las Vegas Main Event, held at the incredible South Point Bowling Plaza.

Although bowlers from 23 states competed, Californians took a large share of the biggest spots. The coveted scratch singles crown was earned by 15 year-old Solomon Salama, Los Angeles CA, who beat fellow Californian Nick Postag 246-237 in a very well bowled match. Salama, who is now by far the youngest to win the scratch event, earned $3,200 for first, while Postag added $2,000 to his scholarship total.

Jason Belmonte, Diana Zavjalova Win World Bowling Tour Finals

Two Title Matches Come Down to Final Frames in WSOB IX Finale

RENO, Nev. – Top World Bowling Tour Finals qualifiers Jason Belmonte of Australia and Latvia's Diana Zavjalova capped a 2017 PBA/WBT season with wins in the World Bowling Tour Men's and Women's Finals televised Sunday on ESPN from the National Bowling Stadium.

The Finals, which were part of GEICO PBA World Series of Bowling IX presented by Eldorado Resort Reno Properties and the 2017-18 Go Bowling! PBA Tour season, used the experimental "Current Frame" WBT scoring system which awards 30 points for a strike, 10 plus pinfall on first ball of the frame for a spare, and the total pinfall for the frame for an open. There are no bonus or "fill" shots in the 10th frame and the maximum score is still 300.

The World Bowling

Tour Finals featured the top three players in WBT points in men's and women's divisions.

Glenn Allison Update

LA HABRA – Glenn has been moved to a rehab facility. The 87-year old is in good spirits and misses everyone at La Habra Bowl.

The accident caused fractures in his back and sternum. He's having trouble with his left leg which is likely due to the crushed vertebrae.

He's determined to heal and get back to bowling as soon as possible.

DANNY WISEMAN & TENNELLE MILLIGAN ELECTED TO USBC HALL OF FAME

Danny Wiseman
BALTIMORE – Danny Wiseman, a 12-time PBA Tour champion and 2013 PBA Hall of Fame inductee, has been elected to the United States Bowling Congress Hall of Fame along with former PWBA star Tennelle Milligan. Wiseman, 50, won his only major title in the 2004 USBC Masters which was contested on specially-constructed lanes in the infield of Miller Park in Milwaukee. It was the first championship bowling event ever held in a major league baseball stadium. He will be inducted during ceremonies as part of the USBC Annual Meeting at the Grand Sierra Resort in Reno, Nev., on April 25.

DARRON PETERS DID THE “IMPOSSIBLE”

by Frank Weiler

LAKE ELSINORE – Did Darron Peters do the impossible? I think so but you be the judge. When you do something no one else has done or can do, is that doing the impossible? If you say yes, then Darron Peters did the impossible. Darron did something no one else in the Pins n Pockets 640 Scratch League has done or has demonstrated the ability to do. SCOTT FILIPI, 640 Scratch League Secretary, wasn’t surprised. Scott knows bowling and knows how talented Darron is. Darron is a PBA Regional champion who has cashed in many PBA tournaments. Darron is a professional. Darron’s teammates and league rivals weren’t surprised. They know he is one of the most talented bowlers in the area. So what did Darron do? Did he bowl 900? Was he the first bowler in the world to roll four perfect games in a row? No, No, No. He simply bowled a perfect 300! What? What’s so special about that? Perfect games are rolled everywhere. Perfect games are rolled regularly. No big deal. But, IT IS A BIG DEAL. Perfect games are seldom bowled at Pins n Pockets Lanes. A perfect game is bowled there once every year or so and never on the house’s “modified house shot” or Challenge Shot! That is why rolling a perfect game on Pins n Pockets Challenge Shot is so special. So few can do it and until now no one has done it. Bowling a perfect game on the house’s Challenge Shot IS IMPOSSIBLE. Darron Peters did the impossible. He rolled a perfect game on Pins n Pockets Challenge Shot!

HISTORY IS RECORDED BY THINKERS AND DOERS. THE BOWLING NEWS IS BLESSED BY HAVING SO MANY CONTRIBUTORS THAT LOVE OUR SPORT AND TAKE TIME TO REPORT THE NEWS OR SHARE A THOUGHT. We Thank You! AND LOOK FORWARD TO 2018

by Carol Mancini

Let's take a look backwards 40 years. Many changes — innovations — have taken place. We will spotlight what seemed important at the time. And away we go!

- EARL ANTHONY was THE man to watch, cheer for and immolate. He dominated all 52 issues in 1978, Need I say more?
- San Diego's LEE TAYLOR started the year with back to back 290's. His career is one to be proud of.
- When the Bowling Hall of Fame was scheduled to be moved from St. Louis, 19 cities put in their bid. A few prospects were Akron, Detroit, Memphis, San Diego and Toledo. When land was donated in Arlington, Texas, the deal was made.
- MICKEY COLLETTI was known as "Mr. Blue Chipper" because he was THE stamp seller. Between stamps and Junior Bowlers he joined "million miles club". What a guy!
- KTT had clubs in San Diego Area, San Francisco Area and Los Angeles Area. Ten Dollar fine for not wearing a KTT shirt.
- 8457 readers received Bowling News by mail. Every bowling center got 100 copies for their patrons.
- MARK ROTH took home $15,000 and a giant 4 foot trophy for his PBA win at GABLE HOUSE.
- Orange County had 28 centers and more to come. (And go) They had their own tournament club. Don't know who was in charge.
- Yikes, another tournament club appeared, THE GRADED BOWLING ASSOCIATION. There were so many rules and options, they didn't fit on a full page. Needed proof of average for NO-TAP!
- Christmas Club Leagues became popular; started in January and prize fund was paid out the first of December. I believe there are still a couple around.
- AL FREITAS and MITZI ANDERSON were hired for the top jobs at JAVA LANES. I think MITZI lasted in the bowling business the longest.
- BILL TAYLOR'S seminars and BILL himself were controversial. He was declared a genius by some and a lunatic by others. His theory of gyroscopic inertia was a mystery to most "experts."
- Bowlers of the Year were MARK ROTH and BETTY MORRIS. Both used Columbia Yellow Dots.
- FOREST LANES was listed as being in El Toro, when it was really in Lake Forest.
- CWBA welcomed OLA BRAHEME, BETTY MIVELAZ and DORIS RUDELL to the Hall of Fame.
- STAN SCHREIER was the Southeast District Bowling Assn. Secretary. He was tough on rules. Ask GLENN ALLISON.
- The weekly "HOT POT" No-Tap at GRAND CENTRAL was born. 5 games. All side-pots and series were guaranteed! 240 spots sold out weekly for 8 months at $20.00 per entry.
- Mayor TOM BRADLEY declared February 14, 1978 Los Angeles' bowling day.
- Question ? What the heck was a "synchopacer"? The big ad led you to believe it would perfect your bowling style. I never did figure out what it was! Wear it on your belt or put in your pocket?
- Wheelchair bowler WALLY GORDON, bowling in paraplegic league at ROCKET BOWL rolled a record breaking 615. He averaged 160 in league.
- DICK WEBER was competing on the tour when his sons joined the P.B.A. and started bowling against him.
- San Gabriel Valley 's MARY ALPINE shot a 211 triplicate.
- BILL BETTS seemed to be every where. He wrote stories, took pictures, reported scores and topped off the week with a 300 of his own at GABLE HOUSE. (their 3rd in 18 years) using a Yellow Dot drilled by TIM ALBIIN.
- A beautiful new center in Laguna Hills was LA HACIENDA DE LOS BOLEROS. The Mexican motiff was amazing. Location was a problem. Too many senior citizens in the area. Lousy access from the freeway and their owners didn't have a clue. The disappearing act was speedy.
- KEVIN HICKS and THOMAS BARTSCH won new 1978 Chevys in the Blue Chip Stamp roll-off.
- CHICK HEARN was guest star at the Grand Opening of WEST COVINA LANES on April 1st. Owners? The Brutocao Brothers. They also owned COVINA BOWL (recently closed) and ANAHEIM BOWL.
- The 975 Classic League at COLUMBIA BOWL in Duarte had a league sheet that looked like the who's who's of bowling in So. Calif. Here are a few to shake your memory; ART GODDARD, MIKE BONTA, KEN FOLEY, JIM MORRIS, CURT JONES, MIKE FISSLER, BOB ZEITZ, KEN MOSLEY, BOB PRESTON, BOB BURKE, DENNIS WEAVER, KENNY BAYER, ELMER BLAESING, ALEX CORTES, and my favorite DAVE PRECHTL. (He's still knocking 'em down.)
- PACIFIC LANES gimmick for the summer of '78 was the possibility of winning a new car.
- COLUMBIA BOWL was a favorite in the San Gabriel Valley. The name DENNIS WEAVER popped up. He had a record in the bowling world. I believe he had 67 3 game series of 600 and better in a row. Right or Wrong??
- ROMAN AGIERT won the 25th annual Grant Classic.
- Editors Note about the Editor - - - I won A DIVISION ALL EVENTS (San Gabriel Valley) at LA PUENTE LANES. My check amounted to $14.00. I probably spent it in the coffee shop. Everybody loved the food, cooks and waitresses. What was your favorite coffee shop? HOLIDAY BOWL was another favorite.
- Seven Californians bowled the Firestone; LARRY LAUB, BILL COLEMAN, JAY ROBINSON, TOM WRIGHT, TIM HARASHAN, DAVE FRAME, and DALE GLENN. You had to have a title to participate. $10,000 for a win was big money.
- A story was written about "scorekeepers"; the person with the yellow pencil. 70% of bowlers didn't know how to keep score so thousands of seniors and juniors were put to work. The average pay for 3 games was $1.00 per person. When automatic scoring came along, the personal touch was gone. BUT, also gone was gossip, complaining about the air conditioning, smoke, and jealousy.
- I wish everyone would write me a remembrance of FRANK DE MASCIO. What a character! All of his help was afraid of him. He acted like he was the Mafia head. He built an empire on bull ____!
- Congrats to BRUCE HARNER, BOWLING SQUARE'S wonder. He posted 249, 279, 279/807. I believe he holds the record for picking up 7-10 splits! Who keeps track?? San Gabriel Valley B.A. welcomed him to their Hall of Fame.
- Headlines tell the tale. "BUTCH SOPER WINS FIRST PBA TITLE." "BOWLERS NIGHT AT DODGER STADIUM". "WALT STUETZ NAMED EXECUTIVE OF THE YEAR", "DONNA ADAMEK WNS THIRD TITLE", "ROY ROGERS LEADS BVL FUND RAISERS", "WEATHER UNKIND TO BOWLNG CENTERS", "MARY ALPINE WEARS TLC CROWN". "ROBBY ROBINSON NAMED BOWLING SPONSOR OF YEAR", "ABTA WELCOMES KTT MEMBERS", "WHAT???"
- VIC BULAICH wrote a letter to the Editor in 1978 concerning the demise of the KTT. VIC wrote to this Editor in 2017. We welcome All letters!
- ARTE JOHNSON was guest speaker at the annual Bowling Writers banquet.
- LAKE VIEW BOWL in Big Bear Lake opened, and still in business.
- The ABC was hiring experts to search for answers to lane dressing problems, mainly unplayable conditions!

Carol Sez: The first half of the year proposed a lot of questions. Will we find the answers? Watch for part II. At least it will be interesting.

Girls scratch singles came down to the final frame, as a tenth frame open proved to not hurt champion Maranda Pattison, Redwood Hills CA, who beat Crystal Elliott, Melbourne FL, 187-179 for the title and $1,500 scholarship windfall, while Elliott settled for $1,000 for runner-up. 12 year-old Kaitlynn Yukihiro tried for the singles sweep for the golden state, but Kristy Mace, Vail AZ, won four matches in the finals including a 224-208 win over Kaitlynn in the finale, to win the handicap singles and whopping $2,500 top prize. Yukihiro, Yorba Linda CA, earned $1,500 for the second place performance.

For the second straight year a boy-girl team earned the scratch doubles title, as JR Mehlum’s tournament high 801 series carried him and Saralyne Nassberg to the win and $1,000 top prize. Washington bowlers Jacob Frazier and Lailani Wallin captured the handicap doubles crown with a 1433 total and $1,000 as well, the only team to crack 1400 in the division.

Salama also shot one of the event’s five 300 games, joined by two-time defending champ Wesley Low, and JBT stars TJ Rock, Jacob Mullen, and Deo Benard, each earning $100 bonuses from both JBT sponsor MSC Inc and South Point. JBT’s title sponsor Ebonite awarded balls during each singles block, and our other terrific sponsors and vendors were integral in helping award the very large scholarship total.

Huge thanks to everyone who took the time to participate in the biggest event on the JBT calendar. We hope to see you and many new faces that you tell about us at the 2018 JBT Main Event, December 26-30 2018 at the South Point Plaza!

Keith Nahan “Whacks ‘em” at Action Lanes Wins First Xframe Title & $1,500

Romeo Borillo Runner-up $750, Floyd Toro 3rd $750
Match Game 151 Carries over to West Covina Lanes Saturday est $2,900

EL MONTE - Keith Nahan (definitely not to be denied) bowled lights out at Action Lanes Saturday blasting a 305-283-272/860 Set (scores include handicap) winning his first XFRAME TITLE in fine style, in the Beat the Board Event, to take home a nice $1,500. He had a great night at Action Lanes.

It was a One Day Beat the Board Event which began at 4:00 PM with a $500 BONUS. The Final Squad 6:00 PM.

Cut Scores were Men +110, Ladies +97. Senior Cut Scorers Men +97 Women +84.

The 8:30 PM Beat the Board Finals began with a field of 26 Bowlers/Cashers taking to the lanes for 3 games. Beat the Board is where you finish is where you will cash!!

Game 1 Keith Nahan took the lead with a huge 269/305 and was followed by Romeo Borillo 234/278, Sol Cericos 233/268, Floyd Toro 227/267, and Ricardo Baca 196/250. Mr. Nahan had the lead and won the first sidepot!

Game 2 saw Nahan striking again to a 247/283 with Cericos 234/268, Baca 206/260, Romeo Borillo 213/257. Nahan again winning the sidepot and held a nice lead to the final game.

Game 3 saw Floyd Toro score big 249/289, Nahan

236/272, Borillo 221/265 Cericos 207/241 and Baca fell 137/191. It was amazing that the top 5 bowlers remained that way for the 3 games. I can’t remember this ever happening??

Keith wins $1,500, Romeo Borillo 2nd $750, Floyd Toro 3rd 375, Sol Cericos 4th $150 and Ricardo 5th reduced entry $63.

Mr. Nahan hails from Sherman Oaks and used a Hammer Rebel drilled by Rusty Bryant. Keith is single ladies!! and YES! he is One of the Good Guys! His brother Kevin is also a fine bowler and Xframe member.

Romeo Borillo is from

Eagle Rock, and used a I.Q. Storm drilled by Memo at Chaparral Lanes. He’s married to Andrea with 3 kids Isaiah, Kayden, and Jenisis. Andrea is also an Xframe member. Great people here! Our champ Keith drew the Match Game. He drew an un-matched 151, so we estimate the Match Game at $2,900 Saturday at West Covina!

Thank you to those who participated or helped! Thanks to Action Lanes for hosting us, we will return there in near future.

Join us Saturday January 13th at West Covina Lanes in West Covina. It is also a One Day Beat the Board Event! Qualifying Squads 4:00 & 6:00 PM, finals at 8:00PM. NOTE: Qualify at 4:00 PM and win and you’ll get a $500 Bonus.

West Covina is located at 675 So. Glendora Ave. Phone there is (626) 960-3636. Take 10 Freeway to Vincent go 1 1/2 miles south to the Center on the right. Access from either the 605 or 10 or 210 Free-ways.

The following week January 20th we will bowl at popular Oak Tree Lanes in Diamond Bar.

ANAHEIM – Sargent sets the pace in the 590 Classic Friday morning as he marches to the top on games of 268-228-268 for 759 and added another 228 to lead with a 987 set.

Willy Bordenave followed Sargent's pace and claimed his first 900 of the season on games of 232-176-227 and 268 to post 903. Welcome to the 900 Club Willy!

Ever-so-consistent Terry Brent stroked 202-203-255 and 207 for 867. Nice bowling 'Lefty'...

Don Gardner hasn't lost his touch as he rolled 254-193-189 and 227 for a fine 863 set.

Birthday boy Juan Sandoval is holding up his team on games of 212-212-198 and 237 to claim 859.

Right on Juan's heels is Dick McKenzie. Dick stroked games of 237-257-172 and 189 to lay claim to 855.

Juan's teammate and another "Lefty", Larry Green is holding his own, tossing 221-200-227 and 203 to post 851.

Hot Games: Cheryl Munson 259, David Yeoman 255, Ron Douglass 237, Hong Kha 235, Norm Walker 228, Mark Guillaume 228, Carl Adinolfi 224, Janet Anderson 224, Rita Sparks 223, Sandy Magana 220, Jim Moore 218, Rob Roberts 215, Rich Heid 214, Dan Milstead 213, Nick Lam 213, new grandpa Frank Bellinder 211, Adrian Bradley 206, Andrea Fredericks 202, Blake Douglass 202, Gary Coultas 201. Teri Hefner 201 and Joy McGregor (FINALLY) 200.

2018 PBA LEAGUE DRAFT MOVES TO SATURDAY, FEB. 17, IN INDIANAPOLIS

The 2018 PBA League draft, originally scheduled for Monday, Feb. 12, is moving to Saturday, Feb. 17 at 10:30 a.m. at Woodland Bowl. The draft, which will fill vacancies on all eight PBA League teams, will be live streamed on PBA’s Xtra Frame online bowling channel.

Here’s a revised summary of how the 2018 PBA League draft will work:

- i. • Each team manager will protect up-to three players from their 2017 roster according to the following deadlines. Protected players for each team will be announced on the following Monday: the Dallas Strikers (manager Norm Duke) and Portland Lumberjacks (Tim Mack) will select their protected players by Sunday; Silver Lake Atom Splitters (Mark Baker) and Philadelphia Hitmen (Jason Couch) by Jan. 14; LA X (Andrew Cain) and NYC Kingpins (Carolyn Dorin-Ballard) by Jan. 21 and the Motown Muscle (Del Ballard Jr.) and Brooklyn Styles (Johnny Petraglia) by Jan. 28.
- ii.
- iii. • The final roster spots will be filled during the 2018 PBA League draft on Saturday, Feb. 17, at Woodland Bowl in Indianapolis, site of the Go Bowling! PBA 60th Anniversary Classic. Xtra Frame will cover the draft live.
- iv.
- v. • The draft order will be in reverse order of finishing positions in 2017 for both rounds (No. 8 Brooklyn will select first followed by Motown, NYC, L.A., Philadelphia, Silver Lake, Portland and Dallas. There will not be a “serpentine” reverse order this year.
- vi. • Players eligible to be drafted will consist of the top 75 PBA players on the PBA Tour/WBT earnings list for 2017 plus 2018 events through the PBA Tournament of Champions, which ends Feb. 11. Note that players from 2017 teams left off the protected list will not be automatically eligible; they must be on the top 75 earnings list to be eligible. The eligibility list will be published on Monday, Feb. 12, and those players must then declare for the draft by Thursday, Feb. 15.

LAKEWOOD — Hi! It’s good to be back with our names and last scores of 2017. Hope everyone has a great 2018. Laughlin Bowler Bears: (Week 17) Looks like Jaime Grabinski got a box of strikes for Christmas and used them wisely racking up 249-224-223/696. Other big scores were turned in by Michael Savoskis 247/632, Brandon Mims 230/605, Jonathan Gale 234/591, Donna Smith 524, Doreen Savolskis 509. Vegas Crackpots: Mike Haynes didn’t have to shoot at too many spares. Lots of strikes on his way to 278-278/767. en’s divisions during the 2017 season with each division competing in a separate stepladder final.

Heading into the ninth frame of the drama-filled men’s championship match with a 10-pin lead, No. 3 qualifier and last year’s third-place finisher Marshall Kent of Yakima, Wash., failed to convert a 10 pin spare leaving the door open for a Belmonte win in the 10th.

In the 10th, Belmonte closed with a 267 game forcing Kent to strike to tie the match. Kent came through with a pressure-filled solid pocket hit to also close with 267 forcing a sudden-death roll-off. Belmonte won the roll-off with a strike in the first frame to Kent’s eight-count after he left the 2-8.

“Yeah, I was worried,” said Belmonte referring to Kent’s fast start with the first five strikes in a row. “Fortunately, after the spare in the first frame I was able to put five strikes together to get back in the match and then it was like anything could happen at that point.”

For Belmonte, it was his second consecutive WSOB IX win after his recent milestone PBA World Championship win on ESPN for a record third major win of the season and ninth of his career.

“It’s a unique feeling the pressure you feel to get a strike when it comes down to one shot after you’ve travelled the world to get to this point,” Belmonte added. “The pressure you feel to get a strike was like the inside of your body wanting to be on the outside.”

In the semi-final match, Kent advanced to the championship match with a 231-224 win over No. 2 qualifier Jesper Svensson of Sweden, who finished second to Belmonte in the World Championship.

In another tightly contested title match, Zavjalova beat two-time defending champion Danielle McEwan of Stony Point, N.Y., 235-232, to win the women’s final.

With the match even in the fifth frame, McEwan opened in the sixth after missing a 1-2-4-10 washout giving Zavjalova a 25-pin lead. However, McEwan was able to come back and overtake Zavjalova with an eight-pin lead after striking in the seventh, eighth and ninth frames while Zavjalova could only manage spares in those frames.

With the match coming down to the 10th, Zavjalova finished with a strike to post her 235. Needing a strike to win, McEwan left a solid 10 pin handing the win to Zavjalova.

“I didn’t feel comfortable in the middle of the game, but that’s going to happen now and then,” said Zavjalova, who was competing in her first WBT final. “I just had to deal with what was in front of me and hope it was good enough to win.” “When Danielle put those three strikes together at the end of the game I thought I had lost the match,” she added. “After I struck in the 10th it was out of my hands at that point—whatever happens, happens. It was just my day today.”

In the semifinal, McEwan defeated international stand-out Shalin Zulkifli of Malaysia 244-231 to advance to the title match.

It's a Trifecta for Forest Lanes in the Fab 5

by Fred Eisenhammer

LAKE FOREST – Call it the home-lanes advantage.

A team from Forest Lanes claimed the 2017 Fab 5 state bowling tournament championship, winning the title decisively at its home bowling center in the Orange County city of Lake Forest.

The fivesome of Jon Diso, Jessica Diso (Jon’s wife), Mele Cardoso, Kevin Valmonte and Tarika Onishi earned the top seed for the three-team stepladder finals and then defeated the representative from Jewel City in Glendale, 457-404, in the championship match.

It marked the third Fab 5 championship in as many years for a Forest Lanes team. The two Disos, along with Virgil Dunziellas, Robert Leahy and Brent Illagan, earned the title in 2015 at Keystone Lanes in Norwalk.

Valmonte was part of the winning Forest Lanes team in 2016 at Bowlm Lanes in the San Bernardino County city of Montclair.

The 2017 tournament, sponsored by the Bowling Proprietors’ Assn. of America, took place Dec. 10. Qualifying for the tournament finals was held at various bowling houses around Southern California in the preceding two months.

Eight teams earned a spot in the tournament finals at Forest Lanes. After bowling 10 games, three teams qualified for the stepladder finals. Jewel City in Glendale advanced to the championship match with top-seeded Forest Lanes by defeating Fountain Bowl, 431-372, in the first match. The score represented the total pins from a two-game showdown.

Jewel City carved out a huge cushion against Fountain Bowl by winning the first game, 243-163, and Fountain Bowl couldn’t make up the deficit despite a 209-188 victory in the second game.

Jewel City got the upper hand on top-seeded Forest Lanes in the stepladder championship match by squeaking out a 193-188 victory in the first game. But Forest Lanes bowlers turned in a virtuoso effort in the second game, winning, 269-211, and the $1,000 top prize.

Jewel City earned $500 for its second-place performance.

Asked how he celebrated another Fab 5 title for a Forest Lanes team, Jon Diso laughed and said, “I celebrated by working the rest of the evening.”

Diso, the general manager of Forest Lanes, served as a fill-in the day of the finals because the original member of the qualifying team, Dave Yamauchi, was unable to bowl because of a previous commitment.

PWBA International Star Diana Zavjalova Joins H5G Staff

WAUKESHA, Wis. – Professional Women’s Bowling Association star Diana Zavjalova of Latvia, winner of Sunday’s ESPN-televised World Bowling Tour Women’s Finals presented by the PBA, has joined the H5G player staff, H5G President Todd Molbeck announced Monday.

The 26-year-old Zavjalova, winner of the 2013 and 2017 United States Bowling Congress Queens in addition to a third PWBA title in Welch, Minnesota plus a Professional Bowlers Association Regional title in Kokomo, Indiana in 2015, will join a growing team of bowling superstars in representing H5G in competition and promotional events around the world.

“I could not be more excited to be a part of High 5 gear team,” said Zavjalova, who now makes her home in Austin, Texas. “H5G has hands down the best product in sports and I can’t wait to proudly represent High 5 all over the world. It’s going to be an awesome year!”

Zavjalova, who has been a member of Latvia’s national women’s team since age 9, has earned gold medals for her native country in European Youth and Women’s Bowling Championships, and was a star with Webber International during her collegiate years, winning the 2015 Intercollegiate Singles Championship and helping Webber win the women’s Intercollegiate Team Championship, also in 2012.

With H5G, she joins a team that includes PWBA stars Liz Johnson, Shannon O’Keefe, Danielle McEwan, Stefanie Johnson, Katie Zwiefelhofer, Lindsay Boomershine, Elysia Current, Jennifer Petrick Higgins and three-time USBC Senior Queens titlist Lucy Sandelin. H5G’s male staff includes Professional Bowlers Association champions Sean Rash, Tommy Jones, E.J. Tackett, Kyle Troup, Wes Malott, Parker Bohn III, Jesper Svensson and Francois Lavoie, and rising stars Ryan Zagar, AJ Johnson and Brent Boho.

Molbeck said when H5G was founded that a key goal was to change the image of bowling by giving the sport a cool, contemporary and professional look.

“Adding dynamic young players like Diana Zavjalova reaffirms our goal and is part of our continuing investment in the sport,” Molbeck said.

H5G, originally known as High 5 Gear, is an enthusiastic and committed partner of the PBA, PWBA, PBA/PWBA Xtra Frame Striking Against Breast Cancer Mixed Doubles Championship, Petersen Classic and a number of youth and charity events.

H5G also has initiated special incentive programs to provide custom-designed, high-quality apparel to collegiate and high school teams, as well as America’s millions of league bowlers. For more information about H5G and its complete product line, visit www.high5gear.com, High 5 Gear on Facebook or @high5gear on Twitter.

INVITATIONAL

Brunswick Invitational Is Back On The Lanes

by David Yamauchi

DOWNEY – The Brunswick Invitational returned to action after a two week hiatus for the holiday break. Teams were ready to take on the second week on the longer 46’ oil pattern with a better idea after having bowled one week on the condition.

In the “A” match, two undefeated 5-0 teams tried to continue their hot start to the season. Sysco came out strong taking game one by 66 and never looked back en route to a sweep of DV8 and extending their record to a perfect 10-0. Sysco will meet Professional Approach next week in the “A” match.

In the “B” match, the top-two 4-1 teams battled as second-round winners J.A.T. matched up with Cal Bowl once again. Cal Bowl came out striking to take game one by nearly triple digits, but J.A.T. cut the lead in half with a second game win and took totals with a big third game for the 4-1 win. Kevin Valmonte struck to 601 to lead J.A.T. while Leonard Ruiz Jr. was solid for Cal Bowl with a 611 series.

Bowlum and Buddy’s Bowling Supply both got off to good 4-1 starts and looked to keep the momentum rolling in their favor. Bowlum started the night with a big 823 to take game one by a whopping 182 sticks, but dropped games two and three after Val Wise recovered from his 123 start to get to 514. Bowlum held on for a 68 pin totals win and a 3-2 result. Ramiro Garcia (629) and Billy Myers Jr. (624) were big for Bowlum while Buddy Lucas’ 625 was high for Buddy’s Bowling Supply.

Professional Approach and Don Julio Tequila were the low 4-1 teams going into tonight’s action. Professional Approach came out striking for a big 180 stick first game win and never looked back as they swept through Don Julio. Jeremy Glover went huge for Pro Approach with a 679 set while J.T. Diso managed 505 subbing for Don Julio. 9-1 Professional Approach will move up to the “A” match next week to meet 10-0 Sysco.

Tito’s Handmade Vodka and Forest Lanes were in the middle of the pack rematching after a 3-2 split last week. Once again it was big wins and big losses as Forest took game one by 151, then dropped games two and three while holding on for totals and another 3-2 split. DeeRonn Booker once again paced Forest with a 618 set while Jason Buenviaje was high for the Vodka team with a 551 set.

Keystone Lanes battled Century 21 – My Real Estate in the high of the 1-4 teams after week one. Keystone started strong with a 779 game to start and continued their striking for a sweep of the Real Estate gang. Eddie VanDaniker was big for Keystone with a clean-30 658 set. Joe Jimenez was high for Century 21 with a 537 set.

Threadworks and Three Olives Vodka were the middle two 1-4 teams after week one. Threadworks started the night off with a big 816 game to set the stage for a 5-0 sweep of Three Olives. Ryan Cunningham (605), Paul Varela (611) and Eric Snow (631) all cracked six for Threadworks while Bobby Campagnale led the league with a strong 674 set.

Linders Insurance, Los Altos Trophy, Herzog Insurance and Bowling Guys rounded out the first week action. Herzog scored 4 points over Bowling Guys with Gary Duran leading the way with a 585 set and super-sub Mark Curtis Jr. making a guest appearance from Kentucky with his 578 set to lead Bowling Guys. Linder’s Insurance was too much for Los Altos Trophy as they swept through their match. Vernon Adams paced Linder’s with a 559 while James Borillo was high for Los Altos with a 525 set.

Sidepots went to Jeremy Glover (267) and Eric Snow (265) for $66 each with the SuperPot going to Bobby Campagnale with a nice 268 game for $198. Financial Advisor’s Pot went to Eric Snow (265) for $190 and 2nd to Raul Rosales (253) for $100. Eddie VanDaniker went clean-30 to guarantee himself at least half of the pot at the end of the round.

Come down Monday night and see the best scratch league in So. Cal. take the lanes at Del Rio as we move to the third round and a long oil pattern.
