LEON DENT - Great Bowler, Better Person.... Passes

by Frank Weiler

LAS VEGAS - My friend Fred Kouri contacted me today to say that our friend Leon Dent passed away last Monday, a few days before his 79th birthday. Leon was a friend and mentor to many. He was a great guy to be around and will be remembered for a long time.

I first met Leon some twenty years ago at a Super Senior Tour (SST) event and always enjoyed our times together chatting about bowling, mutual friends and local events. Dent was a big PBA fan and we always had a lot to talk about during the pro season.

Leon was a great bowler. Over the years he won numerous SST and West Coast Senior Tour (WCST) titles. He was a Citrus Belt Senior Masters Champion and was a threat to win any tournament he entered. Until recently, when age and injuries hampered him, Leon's form was smooth and effortless. He was a stroker who reminded local fans of Earl Anthony. Quite a compliment for any bowler.

For the score of years I knew Leon he was a 200 plus bowler. Most of those years he booked in the 220s and 230s. He scored numerous perfect 300s and 800s. He had a talent for scoring and winning.

More important though is the fact that Leon was a great person. With me he was always cool, calm and collected. A quite, humble man who always respected others. He always gave me a big smile whenever we met and a wink and bigger smile to my wife. He was a consummate gentleman.

Leon was very intelligent. He observed the world around him with a keen eye for detail.

Many times he pointed out things about people and places that went unnoticed by myself. I learned to always take note of his observations.

Leon Dent was all class and will be missed by me and the bowling world.

Jon Van Hees Wins PBA Scorpion Championship For First PBA Tour Title

11-year veteran becomes first Rhode Island native to win a PBA Tour title

RENO — Jon Van Hees' patience finally paid its biggest dividend when the 11-year part-time Professional Bowlers Association Tour competitor from Charlestown, R.I., defeated Jason Sterner of Covington, Ga., 202-176, to win the PBA Scorpion Championship presented by Reno Tahoe USA at the National Bowling Stadium, becoming the first Rhode Island native to win a PBA Tour title.

The Scorpion Championship aired Sunday on ESPN. It was the fourth and final "animal pattern" championship contested during the GEICO PBA World Series of Bowling VII presented by Silver Legacy.

"Elated, thousands of emotions," the 34-year-old Van Hees said about winning a title in his first national television appearance at the end of a string of 106 career tournaments. "I'm trying to get a handle on them. It's been an unbelievable 48 hours.

"I started this quest 27 years ago. I've always been kind of a late bloomer, but if I put the time and effort into it, I can usually get to where I want to go."

Van Hees got his title after surviving a 209-191 battle with Lonnie Waliczek of Wichita, Kan., in the semifinal round, and a couple of bad frames in the title match after building a nearly insurmountable lead. Sterner won his semifinal match by striking on eight of his first nine shots to run away from PBA Hall of Famer Parker Bohn III of Jackson, N.J., 257-174.

He led Waliczek by 24 pins after seven frames before leaving the 4-6-7-9-10 "Greek church" and opening in the ninth frame. When Waliczek was unable to strike to close the gap, Van Hees threw three strikes in his 10th frame to seal a trip to the championship match where he started with three spares and a string of four strikes to build a 49-pin lead over Sterner. Van Hees left a 7-10 split in the eighth frame and failed to convert the 2-4-5-8 in the ninth, but Sterner wasn't able to close the gap.

"The guys told me it was going to go really fast, and I remember looking up and it was the eighth frame," Van Hees said. "Against Jason, I threw four really good shots in the middle when I needed them, and thankfully that was enough. Jason left three ringing 10 pins that made a big difference, but sometimes you get breaks and sometimes not. I've been on both sides.

"It's destiny," he added. "Sometimes you can't out-bowl destiny. I was hoping today would be my day, and fortunately it was."

PBA World Series coverage on ESPN continues with the stepladder finals of the Mark Roth/Marshall Holman PBA Doubles Championship presented by Storm next Sunday at 1 p.m. EST. Finalists include Bill O'Neill of Langhorne, Pa., and Australia's Jason Belmonte meeting PBA Tour rookie Matt McNeil of Prior Lake, Minn., and Anthony Pepe of Elmhurst, N.Y., in the first Baker format match. The winning team will bowl Josh Blanchard of Phoenix and Andres Gomez of Colombia in match two. That winner faces Finland's Osku Palermaa and England's Dom Barrett in the semifinal match. The winner will bowl for the title against top qualifiers Connor Pickford of Charlotte, N.C., and 18-year-old two-handed rookie Anthony Simonsen of Princeton, Texas.

NATIONAL DEAF BOWLING NEWS

by Connie Marchione

DEAF TRAVEL BOWLERS FINDS COVINA BOWL TOUGH EXCEPT NATHAN CALDWELL

COVINA — Southern California Deaf Traveling League had a bad start of the new year at Covina Lanes as the league averaged a poor 152 per bowler there. Only one bowler, Nathan Caldwell with 142 average exceeded well there, rolling 164 pins for four games way over his average in each game with 190-184-190-168 for a 732 series.

Nathan’s heroics along with teammates Jim Mohr’s 571 and Ed Abakumoff’s 728 helped their Riverside team to the only 2031 team series of the day. Only the league’s top bowler with 211 average Darrell Stogryn did better that day with a 772 series than Nathan to lead the league’s honor roll of four bowlers. Darrell struggled that day with games of 191-181-192- 208. The list with Nathan’s 732 in second and followed with Abakumoff’s 728 (144-185-208-191) and Bob Jones’ 724 (181-201-139-203).

At Covina each team matches happened to be close with bottom three teams winning over the top 3 teams that put all 6 teams closer in the standings. The only change in the positions was third place Mid City losing to 4th place Anaheim 12-8 resulting in their exchange of places. League leader Eagle Rock retained first place although losing 12-8 to 6th place Chino Hills. Likewise for 2nd place Jones’ S F Valley losing 13-7 to 5th place Abakumoff’s Riverside, each retaining their places..

As of now Eagle Rock is 4.5 points ahead of S F Valley, Anaheim is 1.5 points behind S F Valley, Mid City is just one point behind Anaheim, Riverside is 2 points back of Mid City and 4 ahead of 6th place Chino Hills.

The league thanks Covina Lanes for the tough experience and will move on to Keystone Lanes on Sunday January24th with bowling at 1:00 PM.

JAT Sport Juniors Recap

by David Schiada

NORWALK — The JAT Sport Juniors wasted no time jumping back into the competitive spirit last Saturday at Keystone Lanes. First round winner Julian Zavala was his usual steady self, leading the way with a 692 series for four games. However, the battle for the first place really heated up among the top three bowlers in the second round. Leader Solomon Salama rolled the high game of the week, a 203, on his way to a 673 series. Solomon will have to wait and see if that is enough to top Nick Caner who needs to make up his games. Austin Sugarman, 3 points behind Solomon, and David Schneider, 4.5 points behind, took all 5 points in their respective matches, making their case to take over the top spot. Kylie Shishima led the girls with a 663 including a 198 game and Alex Miller shot his high game for the season with 202 on his way to a 668 series.

In Sunday’s JAT Adult/Member tournament at Keystone Lanes Solomon teamed up with Kevin Valmonte to capture the scratch division. The tournament had an outstanding turnout with a 104 bowlers and awarded $1,750 in scholarships and gift cards.

The only other player to accomplish that feat was Jason Couch of Clermont, Fla., who won it in 1999, 2000 and 2002. (The Tournament of Champions was not conducted in calendar year 2001.). The tournament’s only other three-time winner Hall of Famer Mike Durbin, won the event in 1972, 1982 and 1984.

Belmonte will be challenged by a field of 96 PBA champions including past TOC champions and PBA Hall of Famers Pete Weber (1989, 2013) and Norm Duke (1994), former Players of the Year Sean Rash (2012), Chris Barnes (2006), Patrick Allen (2009) and Tommy Jones (2007), the Tour’s only woman champion Kelly Kulick (2010), Michael Haugen Jr., (2008) and Bryan Goebel (1998).

At the conclusion of 48 games of qualifying and match play Tuesday through Friday at FireLake Bowling Center (all rounds including the qualifier rounds on Jan. 30 and 31 will be covered live, exclusively on PBA’s Xtra Frame online video-streaming channel). In the Semi-Final match it was now a hot Ramon Alliman vs Joevin Bolanos for the right to meet Catamisan for the title. Another close match. A split in the first frame and a missed 10 pin plagued Ramon and Joevin with only one open wins this match 216-203 with Handicap. Ramon is 3rd, bowled very well and cashed in at $200 with Mr. Bolanos on to bowl Freddie for the title.

The title game took place on lanes 15-16, Freddie elected to have Joevin lead off and he did, with a strike.

Freddie then spared and chopped a spare, as did Joevin. Split on 2 and open on 3. He then he spared but Freddie found his composure with a strong three bagger and after five frames led by 34 pins. Joevin struggling with 7 and spare and the strikes in frames 7-8-9-10. Freddie with added pressure, spare, then another 3 bagger 7-8-9 frames and wins in a 224/251 to Joevin 198 /238. The title went to Freddie, the pride of Lawndale. He took home $2,500 with the bonuses. He bowled well and deserved the win. Nice bowling by one of the nicest men in the ABTA.

Salvino is one of seven PBA Hall of Famers already entered. Others include Parker Bohn III, Jackson, N.J.; Jason Couch, Clermont, Fla.; Norm Duke, Clermont, Fla.; Amleto Monacelli, Venezuela; Pete Weber, St. Ann, Mo., and Walter Ray Williams Jr., Oxford, Fla.

Bowling Tip to Carry Into The New Year Courtesy of Chris Barnes

by Fred Eisenhammer

It was little more than two years ago that Professional Bowlers Assn. stalwart Chris Barnes conducted a grueling six-hour clinic at Corbin Bowl in Tarzana.

Barnes was joined by Mark Baker, who thrived on the PBA Tour in the 1980s and is now thriving as a much-respected bowling coach.

The two provided a potent combination of teachings for the eager students at the San Fernando Valley clinic.

As for Barnes, he has won the U.S. Open, PBA Tournament of Champions and PBA World Championship to become the sixth bowler to win the Triple Crown.

He was selected as the PBA player of the year for the 2007-2008 season and has bowled as the franchise player for the local Silver Lake (Calif.) Atom Splitters in the PBA League. Barnes, a Double Oak, Tex., resident, led the Atom Splitters to the league title for the second straight season last year in the Elias Cup finals.

He has earned more than two million dollars on the PBA Tour.

One lesson that Barnes imparted at Corbin Bowl left an indelible impression on Siena Cawelti, who was attending the clinic with 15 others. It's worth reciting as possibly one of the most important bowling tips ever.

Recalled Siena shortly after the conclusion of the clinic: "One of the things that stuck in my mind is what Chris Barnes said – 'You can throw a bad shot but don't throw the same bad shot from the same place. Throw the same bad shot from a different spot on the lane.' "

Simple advice. Try it and see if it works.

Chris Barnes has a bowling tip that could prove valuable for 2016.

Here's the First Official L.A. Bowling Quiz

by Fred Eisenhammer

Los Angeles may not be the capital of the bowling world, but for many, it's the center of their bowling universe. So in keeping with that L.A.- doesn't-get-the-respect-it-deserves theme, we're dedicating a bowling quiz to Los Angeles and its many talented players. To get in the mood of taking the first official Los Angeles Bowling Quiz, here's some bowling humor:

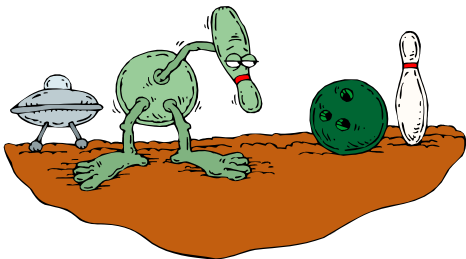

Question: Why are football players not allowed in bowling centers? Answer: After getting a strike, they spike the ball.

Question: What is the difference between Barry Zito and Walter Ray Williams Jr.? Answer: Walter Ray knows how to throw a strike.

Now that you're ready (hopefully), here goes the first official Los Angeles Bowling Quiz:

1 – The Silver Lake (Calif.) Atom Splitters claimed the Professional Bowlers Assn. League title for the second year in a row by defeating the L.A. X once again in the Elias Cup finals. Who was Silver Lake's top player?

- a) Jason Belmonte
- b) Chris Barnes
- c) Walter Ray Williams
- d) Pete Weber

2 – A father and son distinguished themselves on the same night in October 2014 by each bowling a perfect game and 800 series in league play at Winnetka Bowl – perhaps the first time this feat has ever happened. Who were the two players?

- a) Dick Weber and Pete Weber
- b) Johnnie Englehart and Scott Englehart
- c) Joe “Jellybean” Bryant and Kobe Bryant
- d) Archie Manning and Peyton Manning

3 – What extraordinary performance did left-hander Bill Plummer record a year and a half ago during league play at Corbin Bowl in Tarzana?

- a) He bowled the first-ever 100-pin stepladder series with scores of 100, 200 and 300.
- b) He converted the nearly unmakeable 7-10 split in each of his three-game series.
- c) He bowled back-to-back perfect games in a 193-300-300 series.
- d) He rolled a Dutch 200, finishing with a 200 score by alternating strikes and spares throughout the game.

4 – In early 2014, Charles Kenny put on a whirlwind show by rolling four perfect games during league play within one month. What made his “Grand Slam” so unusual?

- a) He bowled each of his 300 games in the first game of his series.
- b) He bowled each of his 300 games in the last game of his series.
- c) He rang up his four perfect games at four venues: Winnetka Bowl, Santa Clarita Lanes, Mission Hills Bowl and Jewel City Bowl in Glendale.
- d) He rolled his first three perfect games right-handed and his fourth game left-handed.

5 – The 1998 cult movie, “The Big Lebowski” featured Jeffrey “The Dude” Lebowski, an unemployed L.A. slacker and enthusiastic bowler. The “Lebowski Fest” comes to the L.A. area annually to honor the movie and its zany characters. Who starred in the movie as Jeffrey Lebowski?

- a) Jeff Bridges
- b) Lloyd Bridges
- c) Beau Bridges
- d) London Bridges

6 – On May 31, 2009, the venerable AMF Rocket Bowl in Chatsworth closed its doors. How long had this popular bowling center been open?

- a) 12 years
- b) 25 years
- c) 48 years
- d) 87 years

7 –Why has Jamie Beeler of Chatsworth been described as “the toughest bowler around?”

- a) He bowled 101 games in one day and didn't eat throughout his seven-hour recreational session at AMF Woodlake Lanes in Woodland Hills.
- b) He finished three games of his league series despite a severe attack of kidney stones, barely finishing after “taking Advil after Advil after Advil.”
- c) He worked a 24-hour shift before bowling three games on his league team, not sleeping over a 48-hour period.
- d) He hurt his right wrist during his league series and finished his final game by bowling his final game with his left hand – the first time he had bowled with his “off” hand.

8 – Which former Los Angeles Laker center will forever be linked to bowling because he sustained a serious knee injury bowling while he was rehabilitating an injury to his other knee?

- a) Elden Campbell
- b) Elmore Smith
- c) Vlade Divac
- d) Andrew Bynum

9 – For what price is AMF Woodlake Lanes in Woodland Hills selling its “behemoth burger,” a five-pound, 14-inch-round burger “that was served with the works and made for sharing?” The hamburger became the talk of the town because of its hefty price and tremendous size.

- a) $25
- b) $35
- c) $54.99
- d) $100

10 – One current bowler enjoyed an 11-year career in the majors, including three seasons with the Los Angeles Dodgers from 1974 to 1976. He's recreated himself as one of the top amateur bowlers more than 35 years later with five perfect games and an 800 series. Who is he?

- a) Rick Sutcliffe
- b) Rick Monday
- c) Rick Dempsey
- d) Rick Auerbach

0-4:
Needs to spend more time around L.A.'s bowling centers.

Where is he now??

Riley Sullivan bowled in the Forest Lanes juniors program from 2010 -2014, from 7th grade thru his junior year in high school.

He worked his way up to a 177 average and had a career high game of 286. He competed in the Pepsi Challenge and the State Championships three times and won scholarship money on two occasions.

Riley graduated from El Toro High School in 2015 with a Grade Point Average of 4.2. He was accepted into the Barrett Honors College at Arizona State University where he is currently finishing his first semester as a Business major.

Thanks to Forest Lanes and the coaching of Treesa Spencer, Chris Shiroma, and Dave Jacques, Riley was able to use his scholarship winnings from his bowling tournaments to pay for his textbooks for the first semester. He still enjoys the challenge of bowling whenever he gets the chance and he dragged four of his favorite bowling balls out to ASU.

He plans to start bowling during second semester now that he has settled in with the possibility of competing for a spot on their intercollegiate bowling team. Riley would like to thank everyone involved with the junior program at Forest Lanes over the years for helping him discover and develop this unique talent!

Editors Note: Hundreds of Junior Bowlers have benefited from scholarship dollars earned while competing at the junior level. Check your Junior Bowlers' bank account and how to activate it! Lots of $$$ available and colleges with bowling programs.

Teams Juggle For Position Half Way Through Round Three

by David Yamauchi

DOWNEY — The Brunswick Invitational hit the lanes for Week 4 of the third round and as always though the pattern played tough scoring crept up as bowlers adjusted their angles and equipment to match up better to the 46’ of oil.

In the “A” match, Linder’s Insurance made a run to try and continue their winning putting up their 13-2 record against DV8 who took 4 to stay within a game going into today. DV8 kept it simple and around the pocket and with Linder’s struggling took all 5 points to jump into the league league. Scott Poddig whacked them for 640 to lead DV8 while Kurt Arakaki paced Linder’s with a 591 set.

In the “B” match, Forest Lanes pocketed 4 wins last week to jump to third to match up against J.A.T. who was only able to take one point the last week. Forest snuck out game 1 by 4 pins but came back big in the second game. J.A.T. came back strong the third game for the win but it wasn’t enough for totals. Gip Lentine paced Forest with 577 while DeeRonn Booker came back home to pace J.A.T. once again with a 561 set.

Relax-Release-Repeat swept five points last week to jump up to 5th and met Alhambra Coin Center whose 4 wins last week bumped them to 9-6. Alhambra booked another 4 wins taking games one and two and cruising to win totals and four points. Doug Kempt led Alhambra Coin Center with a 606 set while Vernon Adams was solid with a 658 set for the one win.

Cook’s Bowling Supply only got one from DV8 last week but stayed within 4 points of the lead meeting up with first-round winners Professional Approach. Professional Approach was back in form as they cruised to a sweep led by Billy Myers Jr. with a huge 670 set. Mikey Villarreal was high for Cook’s with a 598 set.

Sysco dropped to 9th after a 1-4 loss to Forest Lanes meeting up with Keystone Lanes; both teams at 8-7. Keystone started out strong but had to hold on for the 4-1 win and totals as Sysco took game three by 57. Gabriel Martinez led Sysco with a 601 set while Jared Lawrence helped Keystone to their wins with his 556.

Erickson Foods took 3 to move up to 11th at 8-7 matching up with Wowo’s Smokin’ Hot BBQ at 7-8. Wowo’s swept through Erickson led by Ryan Cunningham’s 585 set while Matt Garcia put up 581 in the sweep.

GJC Janitorial swept 5 points last week to move up to 13th and faced second-round winners Don Julio Tequila who dropped after last week’s one-win effort. The tequila boys started off strong taking games one and two but barely dropped game three by 2 sticks for the 4-1 win. Buddy Lucas led Don Julio with a 567 set while Mike Jennings’ 566 helped GJC with their one win.

Pino’s Pizza and Los Altos Trophies matched up their 6-9 records in the 15 vs. 16th place matchup. Los Altos came up big games one and three but Pino’s came back with a big game 2 to make totals interesting, but fell 4-1 in the end. Ramon Torres led Pino’s to their one point with a 613 set while Lee Liu’s 627 was tops for Los Altos.

Ketel One Vodka was swept to 17th last week while Herzog Insurance’s one win put them a 5-10. Ketel One swept right through Herzog who couldn’t manage to keep up with Eddie VanDaniker’s 636 and Bobby Hornacek’s 614 sets. Kevin Gagnon was high for Herzog with a 570 set.

Threadworks added two points last week but remained in the final match bowling against Cremation Centers of CA who were trying to chalk up their first point of the round.
