Mike Fagan Wins PBA World Championship for Fifth Tour Title and Second Major

In battle of Texans, No. 2 qualifier Fagan defeated top qualifier Wes Malott 252-212 in championship match

LAS VEGAS - In a championship match battle between two players from Texas, Mike Fagan of Fort Worth, prevailed to win the Professional Bowlers Association World Championship Sunday at the South Point Bowling Plaza for his fifth PBA Tour title.

Fagan, who qualified second for the stepladder finals, defeated top qualifier Wes Malott from the Austin suburb of Pflugerville, 252-212, in the title match to also record his second major title after winning the United States Bowling Congress Masters in 2012.

"The majors are where you can separate yourself from everyone else," said Fagan, who is originally from Long Island, New York. "These opportunities don't come around too often so you always have to consider yourself fortunate to be in a position to win and the take advantage of the opportunity you worked so hard for."

"Making it into the (PBA) Hall of Fame is one of my goals," he continued. "I've thought about my place in the sport and while winning my second major is another step in getting there, it's a big step for sure."

In the title match, Fagan and Malott traded strikes in the first four frames but then a turning point came when Malott, trying for his 10th Tour title, left the 2-10 split in the fifth which he failed to convert. Fagan had a moment of his own when he left an 8-10 split in the eighth frame but was able to finish strong and hold off Malott for the win.

"As much as you try to relax it's still very stressful," Fagan said. "I was concentrating so hard I didn't know what frame I was in or what the score was. I just wanted to make good shots."

Malott, who was also trying for his second major after winning the U.S. Open in 2013, admitted to having problems figuring out the left lane in the second half of the game.

"The left lane transitioned a lot for me and I made a move that I was confident in making but I missed my break point," said Malott, who also finished second in the 2009 World Championship. "Of all the things that could go wrong, that's something I didn't think I would do."

In the semifinal match, Fagan defeated No. 5 qualifier

Stuart Williams of England, 219-206, to advance to the championship match.

Williams, who was trying to win his second Tour title and become the second consecutive player from England to win the World Championship (Dom Barrett was the first winning last year's World Championship), opened the stepladder by defeating No. 4 qualifier Todd Book of Russell's Point, Ohio, who was trying for his first Tour title, 236-211. Williams then went on to defeat Ronnie Russell of Marion, Indiana, who was trying for his third title, in the second match, 259-248, to advance to the semifinal.

As the third major and final tournament of the season, the World Championship (formerly called the PBA National Championship from 1960-2001), has distinguished itself as one of the premier showcases for the world's best bowling talent. In addition to the $50,000 first prize, Fagan took home the Earl Anthony Trophy named after the late PBA Hall of Famer who holds the record for most World Championship wins with six.

Malott earned $25,000 for second, Williams, $15,000 for third, Russell, $12,000 for fourth and Book $10,000 for fifth.

The five finalists advanced to the finals after preliminary qualifying and match play rounds conducted during the GEICO PBA World Series of Bowling last October at the South Point. The finalists competed in a total of 52 games on five different lane conditions to reach the finals.

NATIONAL DEAF BOWLING NEWS
by Connie Marchione

PAUL TAFFOLLA, JR'S 964 WINS SOUTH CALIFORNIA DEAF BOWLERS CLASSIC

NORWALK — Finally a low average bowler wins the 52nd annual Southern California Deaf Classic held at Keystone Lanes. This Classic had been dominated in the past by higher average bowlers and lower average bowlers only try to place in the money.

The rainy weather had dampened the entries down to only 22 entrants. One of the absentees Paul Taffolla a long time member of So. Calif. Deaf Traveling League should be there watching his son Paul Jr. bowl amazing 4 games in his first deaf Classic.

On the 4:00 PM last squad, carrying a 153 average from So. Calif. Deaf Traveling League, Paul Taffolla Jr. rolled far more than 30 pins over his average in each of his 4 games. They were at a steady clip 196-185-200-187 for 768 total plus his 196 handicap winning total of 964. Because of low entries the first place prize was $220.

Darrell Stogryn who last November rolled a 300 and 802 series in his Tucson league, came to bowl in this Classic with zero handicap. On the first squad at Noon Stogryn shot all 200s four games with a 256 high for 905 for the early lead.

Then on the 2:00 PM squad Ed Abakumoff started with a split in first frame and ran 8 strikes in row and ended with a split in 10th frame for a 247. Abakumoff finished 4 games with a 848. Stogryn reentered on 2:00 PM squad and rolled a 278 but ended with a 856 for 4 games.

Stogryn's leading 905 fell to 4th place at end of 4 PM squad when Taffolla Jr's winning 964 and two others, Jeff Stansell and Mark Fisser placed 2nd and 3rd respectively. Stansell scored 914 with handicap and Fisser beat Stogryn's 905 for the high scratch series with his 909 plus 4 handicap 913.

Defending champion Daniel Vasquez placed 5th with handicap total of 868 and his wife, Jennifer who placed second last year, got $25.00 as the lone woman entrant bowling on the 4 pm squad. Abakumoff's 848 placed him 6th and last place to cash.

Stogryn's 278 gave him the high scratch game with Fisser's 256 came in 2nd.

So. Calif. Deaf Bowlers thanks all entrants for their support and bowling and hopes to have better weather and support for it's 53rd Classic next year.

GO JOE GO
NORWALK — Joe Talasy a four league a week bowler at Keystone Lanes celebrates his 99th birthday on January 19th. A BOWLER! That's Joe. Over 50 years on the lanes. The only break was his "war years" in Germany. Joe actually witnessed General Patton being killed in a jeep accident!
Being an Akron, Ohio native, Joe called Buzz Fazio friend. Many a pro taught Joe the tricks of winning. Some tricks were on the shady side!
Keeping up with new balls on the market and eyeing the colored globes on the Pro Shop wall is like a candy store. Got to savor the new flavor. So Joe's arsenal grows.
Joe is averaging around 150, but not concerned. Seeing his teammates, the competition, and remembering the good times is a full time job. GO JOE GO. There's more good times ahead.

NORWALK — Dean Lopez, expert typesetter for the Bowling News is spending time in the hospital. One doctor said, “to remove his foot from his mouth”. Another more qualified doctor said, “infection had a firm grip on Dean's foot.” Combined with diabetes, not a good program. Anyway, Dean will return.

Lillian has had the flu, so our paper may look a little puny this week.

Char Terhanian, a talented graphic designer for Del Rio Lanes came to the rescue.

We thank you Char.

BURBANK — This past week my delightful, but hum-bling, addiction became glaringly visible...I am a bowling junkie. Knowing I would be putting 9 games under my belt through my regular leagues and a coaching league, I still agreed to add yet another 3 games by substituting for a friend. I tell myself I'm doing it to help out her team but the reality is...I am a bowling junkie.

I stay up late and still get up early the next day to get to league. My body aches, my joints stiff and yet there I am on the lanes...I am a bowling junkie.

My dishes in the sink, my floor needs sweeping and I'm off to the next tournament...I am a bowling junkie.

Please do not interfere. Do not plan an intervention. I am harmless unless you count my efforts to share my drug of choice with everyone who crosses my path. I really feel better than when I was addicted to smoking. And bowling can actually replace chocolate for me at times!

I know I am not alone. You too, are a bowling junkie. The question for you is “Are you ready to stand up and testify?” I say Hallelujah!
