Bohn Pulls Off Fairy Tale Victory in PBA World Championship

PBA Hall of Famer follows unlikely path to claim 33rd career title, second major

LAS VEGAS — Parker Bohn III of Jackson, N.J., completed one of the most impressive, if unlikely, victories in his hall of fame career, defeating four opponents including top qualifier Jason Belmonte of Australia, 254-227, to win the PBA World Championship at South Point Hotel and Casino.

The concluding event of the GEICO PBA World Series of Bowling IV, and the first major championship of the 2012-13 PBA Tour season, aired Sunday on ESPN.

Bohn, who had not won a title in more than four years, captured his 33rd PBA Tour title — and second major — with a stunning performance that began when he claimed the 24th and final position in match play by only three pins, followed by qualifying for the stepladder finals by only nine pins.

In the championship round, he defeated Canada's Dan MacLelland, 226-218; Rhino Page of Dade City, Fla., 200-170, and reigning PBA Player of the Year Sean Rash of Montgomery, Ill., 278-231, to advance to the title match where he defeated Belmonte.

In winning the World Championship, Bohn became only the third ever to win a major championship after qualifying 24th for match play (Mike Aulby won the 1989 U.S. Open and Pete Weber won the 1991 U.S. Open after qualifying 24th), and the 15th overall to accomplish that feat. At age 49 years, 122 days he also became the second-oldest player ever to win the PBA World Championship (Tom Baker was 49 years, 192 days when he won in 2004).

"Dreams do come true if you wait long enough, I guess," Bohn said. "It was a lot of destiny, a lot of things working in my favor."

Bohn, who almost cancelled his plans to attend the World Series after Super Storm Sandy devastated his home state, began his miraculous title quest with seven strikes in his first nine frames en route to his victory over MacLelland. In the second match, he got help in overcoming a 10-pin deficit when Page missed a 7 pin spare attempt in the eighth frame and opened again in the ninth.

The veteran left-hander started the semifinal match against Rash with seven strikes and never trailed. In the title match, he struck on eight of his first 10 shots against Belmonte, but didn't break away until Belmonte left 10 pins in the seventh and ninth frames.

"When I look at everything that's gone on this week," Bohn said, hesitating. "I looked at (my wife) Leslie the night before I left and said, you know, it's a tossup over whether I even go. The only thankful grace at that point was we had our power back a couple of hours before I left."

"When I got here, I missed the first practice session, but lo and behold, I kept going throughout the week. I never made the top 16 in any of the events, but still found myself fortunate enough to sneak in to match play in 24th. I just kept plugging along.

"The only pin I threw away all week was on one fill ball, when I threw a 7 pin away. That's the only pin I can remember throwing away the entire week. Every pin mattered. I only made the top 24 by three pins, and then I made the TV show by less than 10 pins as well."

When he got to the ESPN finals, Bohn believes divine intervention came into play.

"I do believe my old friend (the late Tony Reyes) was looking down on me and letting me stand tall. The biggest key was going through the nose in the seventh frame against (Rash). A pin rolls out of nowhere and takes out the 4-7, and I get a strike. Usually whoever wins has one or two breaks and I'm here to tell you, I had my share of breaks today."

Throughout the World Series, Bohn said he was bowling for more than himself.

"My wife and I have created a Striking Out Sandy fund. We're trying to raise funds for kids who unfortunately lost everything," Bohn said. "I know there are families that lost everything, but hopefully there will be other people who can take care of them. We had people who were donating money for every strike during qualifying. All of the money we're raising is going to buy kids backpacks and things they need for school so they can hopefully put the past behind them."

"My heart always goes out to kids," he added. "I've got five children myself and I want them to be able to live life as normally as they can. I had one guy compute all of the strikes I threw in qualifying and match play — 415 or 420 — and he put up $1 a pin himself. We had another guy who lives in upstate New York near my brother-in-law Doug Kent and his wife Chrissie who had a 25-foot trailer. He saw what we were doing on our website, and filled the trailer with clothes and supplies, and delivered it to our area."

Information about the Striking Out Sandy program can be found of parkerbohn.com. "It'll be there for a long time to come, because I can't tell you how much the people back east have gone through," Bohn said. "It's not going to get corrected by tomorrow."

While the hardships friends and family faced were fresh on his mind, Bohn might have been the happiest he has ever been after winning a PBA title.

"I'm as happy as I can be," he grinned. "Now I can say that I'm the world champion."

ESPN's coverage of the 2012-13 PBA Tour season continues next Sunday with the finals of the Round1 Japan Cup from Tokyo, Japan, at 3 p.m. ET. The all-new PBA League then makes its debut with a live two-hour ESPN telecast from Thunderbowl Lanes in Allen Park, Mich., at noon ET on Sunday, Jan. 27.

MARK FISSER 967 WINS SCDB CLASSIC AT AMF CARTER LANES

FULLERTON — Southern California Deaf Bowlers held its 50th Deaf Bowlers Handicap Singles Classic last Saturday at AM Carter Lanes and the winner is Mark Fisser for his 4th title. The event drew 36 entries and left-hander Fisser who is the first and only deaf bowler honored for the USBC 1987 Chuck Hall Star of Tomorrow, made good on the last (4 PM) squad with score of 967. Previously Fisser, Aviso Viejo had won in 1995, 2000 and 2005.

Fisser's four games were 227-278-233-181 for 919 plus 48 handicap 967 for the first place prize of $320. He was just 13 pins ahead of Francisco Navarro's 954 which was rolled on the first (12 Noon) squad with games of 279-172-215-204 for 870 plus 84 handicap. Navarro got the 2nd place prize of $160 plus $25 special prize of high handicap score on the first squad. Although Navarro's 279 was the high game of the tournament, he did not enter the optional high game prize. So Fisser's 278 got the $30 prize.

Third place $75 prize went to Simi Valley's left-hander Bob Jones with his all twos games of 237-225-211-211 for 884 plus 64 handicap for 948 rolled on the last squad. Fourth place $65 prize claimed by left-hander Jeff Stansell, South Gate for his 931 from 264-201-185-161 for 811 plus 120 handicap made on the first squad.

Former champion (2011) Ken DeGroff, Sunland bowling with zero handicap, made a gallant attempt to win again. But he was stymied by his 2nd game 195 after games of 244-255-236 for 930 in his try in the last squad. However DeGroff cashed in 5th place for $55 and also the high scratch series on the last squad special prize of $25.

One of 3 women who cashed in this Classic, Anita Lorenzo, Thousand Oaks scored 699 for her 4 games plus 224 handicap for 923 placed 6th for $40. She also got the women's special prize of $25 for the high handicap series.

The last year's champion Robert Audette, Chino had one bad game of 166 in his 755 plus 164 handicap for 919 to place 7th for $35. Dennis Hoffman, Hemet who last October won the Deaf Senior Bowlers of America Match Play Title, rolled 750 plus 160 handicap for 910 to get 8th place $30 prize. Patricia Morford started with the women's high game 218 in her 664 plus 236 handicap for 900 to place 9th $25. Pablo Yoma, Lake Elsinore rolled his high game 256 in 3rd game of 803 plus 88 handicap 891 for 10th place $25. The last place $25 went to Linda Salcedo, South Gate bowling in this Classic for her first time with 541 plus 340 handicap for 881. Club President Ed Abakumoff got $20 for his 268 optional high game.

Southern California Deaf Bowlers, a non-profit organization which runs the So. Calif. Deaf Traveling League and this 50th Classic with Pres. Abakumoff, Vice President Sharon Caldwell and Secretary-Treasurer Bob Taylor thank the AMF Carter Lanes management for the use of its lanes.

DEGROFF TO RUN 1ST ANNUAL $1000 DEAF SINGLES CLASSIC ON MARCH 2 AT CHAPARRAL BOWL

SAN DIMAS — At the end of So. Calif. Deaf Bowlers Classic's prize distributions, Ken DeGroff made a surprise announcement of a new classic for deaf bowlers with guaranteed first place prizes of $1000 for men and $500 for women. Both classics will be on Saturday March 2nd at Chaparral Lanes in Sab Dimas. The entry fees are $50 for men and $45 for women. DeGroff passed out flyers about his tournaments. This writer will get more information from Ken for the next paper.

Pat Manalo Wins $1000 in Ultimate Handicap Bowling Tour at Canoga Park Bowl in Canoga Park

WINNETKA — On Sunday Jan 13th, the UHBT had 30 entries and yet another new champion by the name of Pat Manalo. The turnouts in the last several UHBT events have been very consistent.

Pat Manalo is a well-respected bowler. He fired a +150 to seize the 1st place prize of $1000. The 2nd place finisher was Gerry Manalo with a +140, who took $220. William Ele earned $105 for 3rd place with a +108. Mark Andrews won $85 for 4th place with a +107. "Semper Fi" Luis Boone earned $65 for 5th place with +104. Finally, there was a tie for 6th place. Mike Cohen and Ferdie Alona split $55.

The sidepot winners were Mike Cohen with 262, Chonthida Athiprayoon with 252, and Chonthida again with 221 for the 1:30 pm squad. The 3:00 pm squad sidepot winners were Pat Manalo with 270, William Ele with 260, and Veronica Boone with 263.

Thanks a million to everyone who came out and participated. The UHBT is taking a bye on Jan 20th. Their next event will be Jan 25th at Pinz Bowling Center in Studio City. Have a great week.

DAVE SNYDER Bowls Rare Triplicate

by Frank Weiler
REDLANDS — Dave Snyder bowled a rare 600 (200 - 200 - 200) triplicate series recently in Empire Bowl's Senior Laughlin league, using his favorite bowling ball. No one I know at Empire Bowl could remember a triplicate with three 200 games. Other than a 900 triplicate, Dave's 600 triplicate seems to me to be the coolest. By the way, Dave followed up his triplicate with a 607 (201 - 203 - 203).

Dave used the only bowling ball he owns to roll his unique set. For about twenty years now he has been using his Brunswick Rhino, serial number DBL0774. Dave keeps his green Rhino so shinny that it nearly looks new. Dear friends, Dave uses this one ball for strikes and spares and still averages close to 200!!!

How many scratch bowlers do you know who use just one ball? How many use a twenty year old ball? I know one, his name is Dave Snyder. Simply put, Dave is amazing. It is amazing that anyone could do what he does with one "weathered" ball. AMAZING. By the way, it is amazing what the BOWLING NEWS does every week for SoCal bowlers. We should all tip our hats.

IDLE BOWLING THOUGHTS

... Larry Doby, the all-time baseball great, the first African-American to play in the American League, shortly after Jackie Robinson broke the color barrier in the National League, has been accorded one of the world's unique honors, recognition on a postage stamp.

As a kid growing up in Paterson, N.J. I admired Doby's skill as an all around athlete who starred in basketball and football as well as baseball.

Though Doby never was an avid bowler, he was present at many bowling charity events, and mixed with all the participants. Also honored in July on a Forever stamp release were fellow Hall of Famers Joe Di Maggio, Willie Stargel and Ted Williams.

... Jack Mordini, a top executive for many decades at the American Bowling Congress and United States Bowling Congress pointed out, "There is no other sport that invites the entire grassroots membership to have an opportunity to compete for world championships."

... In many areas of the country, Labor Day week usually signals the start of fall and winter leagues. Nobody seems to know exactly why but maybe it's because for many, bowling is a lot of work.

... Carolyn Dorin Ballard has long been rated one of the best female bowlers in history. "A youngster Carolyn was always very competitive and competent, whether it came to winning a role in a school play or a spot on the bowling team", recalled her mother, Maryann Dorin. "She was proud when she graduated college, but I had second thoughts when she told us she was going out on the women's tour because she wanted to be the best," added Mom. It took her some years, but she made it.

... Bowlers praise the good old days, not because the times were better, but because they were better.

... Want to make scoring more difficult? Just allow one four pound pin along with the other nine.

... Through the dedicated work of Peggy Elias over the past decade, the Eddie Elias Bowling Center at the University of Akron stands as a tribute to the founder of the Professional Bowlers Association and the remainder that Akron was the home of the PBA at it's beginnings in 1958. Peggy, widow of Eddie, has spearheaded the Elias Bowling Scholarship tourney at Akron U. It is unique in that no entry fee is charged.

Funds are always needed for the scholarships and to present interesting PBA exhibits. This event could serve as a model for other colleges. Mail a donation, large or small, to Department of Development. The University of Akron, Edward G. Elias Bowling Scholarship, P.O. Box 2203, Akron, Ohio 44398-9649.

... Many golf tournaments pay more for a top 20 finish than a pro bowler earns in a season. Golf has the advantage of huge crowds that generate huge amounts of money, but they also have some impressive help from sponsors. It's long past the time when some of these sponsors support bowling events. Bowlers long have been spenders for the products of sponsors.

... Everyone likes a good loser. You can't help but like a good loser, unless it's your doubles partner.

KEITH FORBUSH

Bowls A

"CLEAN SWEEP"

by Frank Weiler

REDLANDS — Keith Forbush rolled a clean series recently in Empire Bowl's Senior Laughlin League. In Citrus Belt circles a clean three game series is called a "CLEAN SWEEP." Folks, a clean sweep means you bowl three league games with no open frames! Repeat after me, "NO OPEN FRAMES." Quite an accomplishment.

Many scratch bowlers bowl clean sweeps because they roll 25 or more strikes and make few spares. That's not the manly way to do it. That's not the skilled way. Keith Forbush bowled a clean sweep the manly way, the skilled way. Instead of twenty plus strikes, he had twenty plus spares. Now that's real bowling, a demonstration of real skill.

Keith told me he could not carry two consecutive strikes while bowling thirty clean frames. That means Keith did not have a double in his 595 (201-201-193) clean series. It is amazing.

Great bowling Keith, the BOWLING NEWS salutes you and your fello senior bowlers, who bowl like real men.

My congratulations go out to Citrus Belt President MIKE RADDEMAN and his awards committee (RICK HILL and THERESE LLOYD) for developing such a great local award. The Citrus Belt also awards a patch for a 750 series, a Dutch 200 game, step ladder series, a triplicate series and for leaving the Rotten Orange.

By the way, the Citrus Belt clean sweep award is a wonderful red, white and blue cloth patch, three inches in diameter. The patch contains two crossed brooms on a white field with blue border.

ABTA at South Point Hotel & Casino for Las Vegas Open

ANAHEIM — We returned to Linbrook where we saw a huge last squad that gave us 220 entries on Saturday for a great day of bowling. The cut scores were High +108 for the men and +66 for the women, on a medium shot this week. The Super Seniors added to the board (two men and one Woman) Bob Selner +100, Robert Ricketts + 75, and Patti Brode +33. Super seniors are men 63 and over, and for the women you just need to be a young 55. That would give us 52 bowlers making it to the semi-finals. During the 4 pm squad, we had ABTA Veteran Le Star Walker bowl a perfect game, 300, at Linbrook, Congrats to Le Star. He is One of the Good Guys!!

High qualifiers for the tournament were Kurt Valmonte for the men with a +221 and for the women it was Tess Dizon with a +121. They will get a paid entry into a future regular ABTA event. Each week our top seed draws the Match Series, and this time it was worth $1,092. Kurt drew a 536. We had one bowler that bowled the score and it was Faye Josafat, she took home $1,092. Faye was buying the beer:))) We will estimate the Match Series at $1,400 at South Point Hotel & Casino event. David Emrich outlasted the field in the 3-6-9 pot. He would miss on his first shot. He will get a $50 consolation. We will go for $2,200 next week at South Point Hotel & Casino.

In our optional doubles, finishing in first were Kent Maruyama and Matt Garcia with a 1565 for $140. Finishing in second was Le Star Walker and Vuong Do with a 1558 for $120. There was a total of $1,880 paid out in doubles and 34 paid spots with low to cash of 1426.

The semi-finals took the floor and, finishing in first was Mark Fisser with a +193 to sit out and bowl for the title. A close second was Jon Baraca at +156 so he would sit out the first round of the Single elim finals. Fisser, our top seed had the honor of drawing the Match Game worth $3,500. Mark drew a 169. After a review of all the scores bowled, we had three bowlers who shot that score. The winners were Matt Garcia, Shelly Maxey, and Chonthida Athiprayoon. They each took home $1,166. We still have two full pots, so it will be $3,500 at South Point Hotel & Casino with a third pot started that is at $140.

This would bring us to our top 16 Match Play finals. In the first round, the seven losers were Beth Borci, Le Star Walker, Wai Li, Stan Por, Kent Maruyama, Anthony Ta, and Thomas Licauco, each will get $100. In the second round, the four losers were Deborah Sanders, Rachel Macias, Rithy Ath, and Angel Hilvano with each getting checks of $105.

This would get us down to the final five bowlers. The weekly horses are paying a low of $35, Vuong Do, to a high of $94, Joey Nepomuceno. In one match, the tenth seed Kurt Valmonte versus Joey Nepomuceno (the eleventh seed) was another of Kurt's run at trying to get to the title match. He would take down Joey and advance to the semi-final match. In the other match, it was Vuong Do the sixth seed versus Jonathan Barraca the second seed. This match saw Vuong who was on his game and took down Jonathan to advance. Joey and Jonathan finished in fourth and fifth getting checks for $110 each.

Our semi-final match was all set now, and would pit the tenth and sixth seeds from the semis against each other. In the weekly "horses", we would see Kurt paying $47 and Vuong paying $35 if they would win their match. This was again another good match that would go down to the tenth frame before it was decided. Kurt started out with a spare and that brought up Vuong who opened up with a double. Kurt would miss the four pin in the second frame and then get a spare in the third. Vuong came up in his half of the third with another strike to pull within seven pins. But an open in the fourth put Kurt back in control. Kurt would come up with a couple of strikes in his two frames, but Vuong would come up and match that. Kurt in the sixth got a third strike and then an open in the seventh, he led by 26 pins at that point. Vuong would come up with a strike in the seventh and a spare in the eighth would pull him within 3 pins. Kurt came up with a spare and strike his eighth and ninth frames. That would bring Vuong up in the ninth and tenth frames. Vuong started out with strike in the ninth to match Kurt to stay within 3 pins. But he left the 4 pin on his first ball and got the spare .That would bring Kurt up just needing a mark to advance. He would get a strike and then a spare to finish out with a 200/238 to Vuong's 223/244 and advance to the title match. Vuong would take home $200 for his third place finish. For those lucky "investors" that had Kurt as a horse, he paid $47.

Kurt Valmonte Was Tops at Linbrook Bowl - Kurt won his first ABTA Title and $2,700 top prize. From the Left are Jon Baracca, Kurt's pretty wife, Kurt Valmonte, Mark Fisser (runnerup) Gerrit Fisser a ABTA Supporter and old time ABTA Member Bill Cozand who visited us at Linbrook.

The title game was set. It would be our top qualifier Mark Fisser going against Kurt Valmonte. Mark would start out with an open. Kurt came up and got two strikes. Mark came up and got a double. Kurt came up in his 3rd & 4th frames with spares, while Mark would come up in his 4th & 5th to spare. But still trail by 45 pins. Kurt would open in the 5th & 6th frames, while Mark came up with strike in the 6th & 7th frames to pull within 15 pins. Kurt would match and double to pull back out to a 22 pin lead and not look back. He would finish out with a 185/243 to Marks 191/215 and take home his first ABTA title. He would take home $1,000 for the victory and an additional $1,700 for Cash and Carry, to give him a total of $2,700. Mark (One of the Good Guys) would take home $500 for his second place finish.

Champion Kurt Valmonte is from Westminster and used a Storm Vivid drilled by David Yamaguchi. He is married to a very pretty lady, Leslie. He would like to say thank you to his wife for all her support and countless hours watching him bowl. Thanks to his brother Kevin for getting him back into bowling, the ABTA, his bowling team mates Sue Okamoto, Ryan Mangahas, the rest of his family, specially mom Elma, dad Lito, the ABTA and its Staff.

Mark Fisser, Second Place, used Global Hook drilled by Missy Bellinder. Mark is married to Natalie and they have five children, Brandon, Ryan, Dylan, Kayla, and Bryanna. He would like to say thank you to his parents and his family for all their support, specially his wife Natalie for all her patience, the ABTA and its Staff. Father Gerrit is an ABTA Regular and a great guy married to Millie. Great People here.

Vuong Do, third Place, is from Anaheim and used the Storm drilled by Ben Mach. He is single but seeing Julie another one of our fine lady bowlers. He would like to thank the ABTA, its staff and Julie for all her support.

by Janie

Can you believe this weather we're having? It's awesome! Yeah, I know it's cold and windy a bit, but wow...it's refreshing for a change. The best thing to do with weather like this is to go to Pickwick and work up a sweat rolling a few games. We have specials during the week you really should check out. They're enough to warm the soul.

Starting January 22nd, Tuesday, at 3:30 in the afternoon is an after school youth league for ages 6 to 17 years old. The kids will get basic instruction by our Certified Junior Coach, Tish Plotkin, learn scoring and lane components and more if they request it. A price you can't pass up at 2 games per week for 10 weeks and only $6.00 per week per bowler. Come on down and take a peek or call Janie @ ext 349 and let her know you want in.

Standing sheets are slim this time, I guess due to the holidays and all but here are the scores:

SUNDAY VEGAS: (scr) Setu Molia 244, Cynthia Estrada 181, John DiPietro Sr. 639, Christine Mochinaga 515. (hdcp) Val Hoag 277, Aileen CamCam 261, Dayn Esquivel 765, Loma Afifi 756.

Southern Los Angeles County USBC Hosts B.V.L. Tourney Sun. Feb.10

BELLFLOWER — Palos Verdes Bowl in Torrance will host the local qualifying B.V.L. Tournament in February. On the 10th, the one squad tourney will floor at 10:00 a.m.

The divisions (Classic 181 and Over) down to (E. 120 and Under) are the same used at the state level.

Associations all over California will be holding their qualifying tournaments, and sending their division winners to the STATE finals later this year.

Entry forms are available in YOUR centers or call YOUR association.

The state B.V.L. Committee each year purchases recreational items for our hospitalized veterans, plus contributes to the national B.V.L. Fund. The State has purchased everything from Vans to T.V.'s, bowling equipment, and card games. The hospitals actually can request wanted items.

These bowler powered tournaments (and fund raisers) have resulted in MILLIONS OF DOLLARS being available for much needed items the V.A. does not provide. Check for "YOUR" ASSOCIATION'S B.V.L. TOURNAMENT!!!

The Southern Los Angeles County U.S.B.C. B.V.L. will roll Sunday, February 10.

LOCAL USBC ASSOCIATIONS

WEST COVINA – Here we are once again, ready to update you on all the action of the JAT Farm Club. Eighteen bowlers took part of our last tournament at Brunswick West Covina Lanes. The wind was blowing and pins were flying as we advanced the top 10 bowlers into the second round. The oil held up for the entire tournament and scores got better as the day went on. We thank the staff and management for the grand accommodations on the day.

The qualifying round of five games found Daniel Martinez on top at plus 33, helped by his 248 game. Matthew Green put up a 236 game, followed by Patrick Rodriguez 234, Javier Zavala 232-224, Ryan Weitzel 232, Blake McBride 224-231, and Julian Zavala 228. The low to advance came in at minus 123.

The match play round kept the scoring high as Bert Dominick posted up the tournament high game with his 285. Some big moves were also made as Ju Zavala mixed in 254-247-232, Stephanie Zavala 224-229-249, Martinez another 248, Green 243, Ja Zavala 241 and Mc Bride 236. S Zavala jump six positions to join her two brothers in the finals.

In those finals we started off with the 5th seed Green (+28) making his final round debut against the 4th seed Ju Zavala (+39). Unfortunately for Matthew, his debut was short lived as Julian put up a 252-174 win. Now Julian faced off with the 3rd seed (his older brother Javier) (+49) and promptly showed him how the lanes worked with a 229-213 win. The 2nd seed now to meet Julian is big sister Stephanie (+79) and she was out to make a point for the family. She disbursed of younger brother 232-194 to move back into the final pairing for the third straight tournament. Here though she now faced the top seed Martinez (+179) in the best of three games. Martinez jumped out quickly as Zavala struggled to fine her line, taking the first game 190-142. Zavala came back to let him know “game on” and took the second game 194-177. The third and deceiding game was very tight all the way to the last couple of frames. And when it was done, Martinez had captured his second title 216-190. Congratulations Danny.

Bowlers, our next event is this Sunday at AMF Valley View Lanes. Normal tournament and normal check-in time. The only exception – GET ALL OF THOSE OTHER BOWLERS OUT HERE!!! Ten tournaments down and ten to go. So far a very exciting season. Hope to see you all on Sunday.

JAT Farm Club at Brunswick West Covina Lanes – January 06, 2013 (l-r): Stephanie Zavala – 2nd; Daniel Martinez – 1st; Julian Zavala – 3rd.

Grey's Anatomy Star Jesse Williams Becomes Eighth PBA League Owner “BROOKLYN STyLES” team features franchise player Sean Rash, PBA Hall of Famer Walter Ray Williams Jr.

SEATTLE – Jesse Williams, who stars as Dr. Jackson Avery on the hit ABC series Grey’s Anatomy, will be the eighth and final owner of a Professional Bowlers Association League team in its inaugural 2013 season.

PBA Commissioner Tom Clark announced that Williams, who is also a model and has appeared in a number of movies and television shows, will be the owner of the BROOKLYN STyLES in the PBA League. His team includes franchise player and reigning PBA Player of the Year Sean Rash, PBA Hall of Famer Walter Ray Williams Jr., four-time Tour winner Ryan Shafer, Tour titlist Ryan Ciminelli, Jason Sterner and supplemental pick Tom Hess, the 2011 USBC Masters champion.

“I couldn’t be more excited to be welcomed into the PBA family with such a great, collaborative opportunity,” Williams said. “Here, inside the BROOKLYN STyLES organization, we’re eager to further promote the sport, and with the help of our tremendous athletes, bring a championship title to the great Borough of Brooklyn.”

ESPN will televise five weeks of PBA League competition beginning with the first round of the PBA League live on ESPN Sunday, Jan. 27 at noon ET. Additional PBA League rounds will be telecast Feb. 10, 17, March 3 and March 24 culminating with the PBA League Elias Cup finals on April 7.

An avid bowler, Williams has competed in NBA star Chris Paul’s PBA League Celebrity All-Stars tournament the last two years and in 2012 won the event’s ‘Celebrity Shootout’ competition.

“We’ve really enjoyed getting to know Jesse at the last two Chris Paul PBA events,” said Clark. “He has a lot of fun bowling and has a winning entrepreneurial spirit that makes him perfect as an owner in the PBA League. Jesse is a TV heartthrob. He brings a touch of Hollywood to the PBA and a fan base we look forward to introducing to the best in bowling.”

Williams completes the list of owners that includes Los Angeles Clippers star guard Chris Paul, former Pittsburgh Steelers star running back Jerome Bettis, former NFL all-pro receiver Terrell Owens, sports icon Billie Jean King, actor/comedian Kevin Hart, comedian and Internet innovator Chris Hardwick, and Pittsburgh Steelers all-pro linebacker LaMarr Woodley. The ESPN-televised PBA League will debut as part of the PBA Detroit Winter Swing Jan. 19-27 at Thunderbowl Lanes in the Detroit suburb of Allen Park, Mich.

“We have a beautifully diverse group of owners for the eight teams in the PBA League,” said Clark. “While all eight owners are obviously extremely talented, above all, they are incredibly admirable people. They have an amazing work ethic, are involved in charitable causes, are among the most fan-friendly celebrities and to top it off have some of the best smiles on the planet. The PBA is proud to be affiliated with this group and inspired by their passionate interest in the PBA.”

A native of Chicago and graduate of Temple University, Williams began his professional career teaching American, African and African-American History in low income Philadelphia public charter schools. From there Williams moved to New York City and, after working at a law firm, began his professional acting career, performing off-Broadway at The Cherry Lane Theatre, under the direction of award-winning playwright Edward Albee in “The Sandbox.” In addition to his starring role on Grey’s Anatomy, Williams has also appeared in other series such as Law & Order and Greek. His feature film roles include The Cabin in the Woods, Brooklyn’s Finest, Sisterhood of the Traveling Pants 2, and the highly anticipated The Butler. Williams splits his time between Brooklyn and Los Angeles.

During the first four days of the Detroit Winter Swing, the PBA will conduct a series of open-field tournaments (the Carmen Salvino Classic, Mark Roth Classic, Don Carter Classic and Earl Anthony PBA Players Championship). Those four events will award individual PBA Tour titles and the qualifying scores posted by each PBAL team member will be combined to produce the team qualifying scores for the ESPN telecasts. All PBAL matches on ESPN will be Baker Format matches, where each team member will bowl two frames in each game.

$10 weekly entry fee per bowler, with half of the money being paid out each week, and the other half going towards the huge payouts on sweeper night at the end of the season.
With 47 entries on Monday, the Financial Advisors sidepot is looking at $235 in the weekly sidepot and $9000 estimated for sweeper night. The top three series will get paid, as well as the top 16 games bowled that night. Bowlers are eligible to cash in each game.
Financial Advisors Super Sweeper Sidepot, will be adding $1,000 to the total collected. If you win 2 Super Pots all season you'll be ahead before we even get to sweepers with the $9000 payout. 100% of all money collected will be paid out for the season.

BOWLIUM OUT KEGELED KEGEL FOUR TO ONE MONDAY

DOWNEY — The BOWLIUM boys didn't break any records Monday, but they scored enough to ace the first round winner KEGEL and remain top dog for another week.

Next weeks match will be against GJC SERVICES. Check this. BOWLIUM'S total pins for the year 41541, GJC 41538. They couldn't be closer in stats, its just going to be pin fall.

PRO APPROACH sitting in third with 10 wins (tied with CLYDE'S VIDEO, KEGEL and HERZOG), should be catching a break SOON. They have knocked down more pins than any team and have the highest team average. Just bad timing!

The SYSCO stokers piled up 2475 sticks snatching all 5 points from ULTIMATE HANDICAP BOWLING TOUR. Paul Barraco set the pace with his 264/729.

Matt Schermerhorn posted the only other 7 —, 256/702.

On the "LONG OIL" pattern this round, the league as a whole is averaging 189. 14 guys raised their average last week and 46 lowered their current averages (only by a pin).

Checking the side-pot winners: Game One Keith Laing 236; Game Two Gabriel Martinez 245; Game Three Ramiro Garcia 243, Financial Advisors Pot Raul Rosales 254. The Ebonite League Sheet can be seen on-line, go to DELRIOLANES.COM.

Week four of this round will have the same oil pattern, the same pins, and the same bowlers. Strategy, talent, knowledge?? Weather, humidity, full moon?? What does it take to WIN, WIN, WIN??? Good seats are available Monday nites, the show is live and no commercials.
