Heaven Has A New Headliner

by Jim Goodwin

LAS VEGAS—Bowling lost one of its true treasures January 14. Dick Stoeffler passed away, with his wife Susie by his side, at their home in Las Vegas. His years of bravely fighting cancers and seemingly unending medical procedures are over, and the legends above have a new friend with which to share stories and laughter.

Steff was a great bowler, a great bowling center operator, a great husband, and a great friend to me and so many others who were lucky enough to know him. He was also a very good writer who had the rare ability to make his point with just the right dose of humor and humility.

I didn't simply like Steff – I loved him and admired him. His second best friend Jim Dressel (Susie is #1) introduced us several years ago during one of our trips to Vegas, and we have shared a wonderful friendship ever since. Actually, I was a big fan of his Mountain Time column in the California Bowling News long before we met.

Steff's prose had a unique style that was honest and straightforward, but never too offensive because of his incredible sense of humor. For example, here's an excerpt from a thank you note he sent me after I wrote a column about him a few years ago:

"Jim, I am deeply humbled by your words, I thank you so much. Anything I write at this point seems totally inadequate . . . BUT, Yes, there is always a but! I'll likely never write another column! You see, now folks will EXPECT it to be some sage, brilliant bit of wit, possibly akin in knowledge and facts to, maybe, the Ten Commandments. All these years, I have simply sat down in front of my typewriter, gone brain dead and blathered on for about 25 minutes. . . and called it a column. NOW, I'll have to think. . . or be speechless. I wonder what the going rate is for 15 inches of blank white space!?" Methinks retirement has finally arrived. . . but on the highest note anyone could hope for. In all sincerity, Jim, THANK YOU !! !"

That thank you note, which I will keep forever, was 'Classic Steff stuff'. Of course, he did write many more fantastic columns to go with the hundreds he penned for more than 30 years. He wasn't afraid to call bowling officials "dunderheads" and other steffisms when they deserved it, and he had the credentials to back up his opinions and musings.

Mountain Time Man - Dick Stoeffler

900 Series Rolled In Milwaukee Approved

Giesfeldt's perfect series is 3rd in Milwaukee area, 12th in nation.

GREENDALE, Wis. - He doesn't mind whether you call him P.J. or Perry J. but the bowler with the last name of Giesfeldt definitely can answer to something few people can claim - an official 900 series shooter.

The 900 rolled Dec. 21, 2006, by the 24-year-old West Milwaukee, Wis., right-hander has been approved by the United States Bowling Congress. It is the third approved 900 in the Milwaukee area and 12th in the nation.

Giesfeldt rolled his three consecutive 300 games in the Men's 950 Handicap League at Milwaukee's Burnham Bowl. He was averaging 220 at the time after finishing the 2005-06 season with a 217 average in the five-player team league which is not part of USBC's Sport Bowling program.

"I still don't believe I shot 900 compared with some of the other great scores," the 2005 ITT Technical Institute graduate in computer network systems said. "I felt comfortable after getting the first two 300s. I had 300s twice before in this league this season so nobody watched. When the third game came around, I started to think I have the first two but figured to get a tap or two, which never happened.

"In the eighth frame, I learned that everyone started to watch. I wasn't paying attention. I was walking around. I didn't want to sit down. When I got up on the 10th, I thought, 'Do what you've been doing.' I didn't want to make the mistake of watching everyone watching me."

Giesfeldt matched Vince Wood as the only 900 shooters to also have 800 series and 300, 299 and 298 games in the same season. Wood, Moreno Valley, Calif., turned the feat in the 1999-2000 season. Giesfeldt followed Tony Roventini (Nov. 9, 1998) and Mark Wukoman (April 22, 2006), who rolled their 900s at Classic Lanes in the Milwaukee suburb of Greenfield.

"I didn't play the line I normally play," said Giesfeldt, a member of Greater Milwaukee USBC Bowling Association Board of Directors. "I was playing a little bit deeper." Giesfeldt, who started bowling at age 7 and had his first 300 game at age 17, competes in six leagues at five Milwaukee-area centers. He has worked part-time at Burnham Bowl since age 14.

Sean Rash has won his first six matches on television in his short career

Three For Three

MEDFORD, OR—Sean Rash became just the second bowler in Denny's PBA Tour history to win a title in his first three TV appearances, defeating Brian Himmler, 262-190, to win the 2007 Earl Anthony Medford Classic Sunday at Lava Lanes.

The 24-year-old won his first career title last season, becoming the first bowler in history to go from the Denny's PBA Tour Qualifying Round to the title. He won his second title earlier this season in the Beltway Classic.

Rash nearly made more history, as he started with the title match with eight consecutive strikes and looked like he might become the 18th bowler in history to bowl a televised 300 game. He opened in the 9th frame to end the string, but cruised to improve to 6-0 on TV in his short career.

"This one means a lot. Earl Anthony and Dick Weber were two of the greatest bowlers of all time, and to win the tournament named after Earl means a lot," said Rash (Wichita, Kan.). "Hopefully us young guns can win as many times as they did. I'd like to win the Dick Weber event next week as well."

Last season's PBA Rookie of the Year runner-up joined Hugh Miller as the only other bowler to win his first three TV appearances. Miller won titles in his first four TV appearances.

Rash advanced to the title match with a 232-227 win over Patrick Healey Jr. Healey held the early lead after striking in five of the first six frames, while Rash had four consecutive spares in frames 4-7, including a crucial 4-9 split conversion in the 5th. Healey had back-to-back nine-spares to let Rash back in the match, and Rash took advantage with a double in the 8th and 9th. Healey still could have shut Rash out with a double in the 10th, but he had another nine-

SAN GABRIEL VALLEY — Sunday, January 7th, I attended a B.V.L. Awards Luncheon at Brunswick Covina Bowl. Afterwards, I decided to drive South on Hacienda Blvd. to check out old La Puente Lanes.

As I drove along, I recalled the great coffee shop. Best food in La Puente in the 70's. I could still see Billy Myers Sr. strolling the concourse, recruiting bowlers for a league, giving lessons, hosting his "Ragtime Doubles" Tournament, or just listening to the bowlers troubles. He was a true friend (and tibling contestant).

While I was Manager at Alhambra Valley Lanes in 1977, we got automatic scoring! When the mechanics disassembled our antique scorers, they salvaged the reflector mirrors and light bulbs. Knowing that La Puente continued on page 4

TENPIN SLANTS

by Joe Lyou

SANTA PAULA—A phone call I’ve been dreading for weeks arrived early Sunday morning, Jan. 14. The caller was Susie Stoeffler informing me that her beloved husband, Dick, had died the night before. He was 80.

Dick, or Ol’ Steff as his friends called him, lost his long battle with cancer, a battle that lasted for at least three years. He was a fighter—anyone else would have given up long before he did.

Ol’ Steff was a true bowling pioneer in Southern California. He was also one of the Southland’s top bowlers during the late 1950s and through the early ’70s.

For 21 years, Stoeffler was a bowling center owner-operator, the last 15 years at Kona Lanes in Costa Mesa, where he had the 40-lane center humming around the clock. It was the busiest place in Orange County, averaging more than 80 lines per alley bed. (Readers, that’s phenomenal.)

Not many people knew it, but Ol’ Steff was a PBA member for 12 years. He competed in only three tournaments annually because business priorities limited his PBA participation.

Not only was Stoeffler a fine bowler—he once bowled an 825 series that featured California’s first back-to-back perfect games (300-300-225)—but he was also a bowling columnist for 44 years.

A member of the Bowling Writers Assn. of America, Ol’ Steff penned a weekly “Mountain Time” opinion column that ran for almost 20 years in the California Bowling News—and also in Frenchy Letourneau’s Las Vegas TenPin Alley. Stoeffler’s column, however, first appeared in the Pacific Bowler in the ’60s and continued until he retired in 1977.

The Stoefflers—Dick and Susie—then moved to Big Bear City, where Ol’ Steff started a successful construction firm. He retired (again) and in March 1997 Dick and Susie made their home in Las Vegas. “I was getting too dang old to be shoveling snow in the wintertime,” he would quip.

During his long bowling career, Stoeffler garnered many awards. Here are some of them, along with his other accomplishments...

- Originated the West Coast Eliminations in 1959 as a weekly men’s summer scratch event. The tournament format was highly imitated through the years.

- Averaged 212 in 1961, highest for the entire West Coast. His career high average was 221—and that was in the days when 200-average bowlers were scarce.

- In a 1964 nationally televised PBA stepladder finals, Stoeffler placed third, his best-ever PBA finish.

- Named to the Orange County Hall of Fame in 1966.

- On Jan. 4, 1968, when he rolled his 825 series, he became the sixth bowler in ABC history to record as many as 25 strikes in a row.

- The famed Helms Athletic Foundation named Stoeffler the Athlete of the Month for January, 1968. He was rightly proud of the silver cup presented to him by Helms before a host of big-name athletes.

- Elected Executive of the Year in 1975 by the SoCal Bowling Writers Assn.

- Named to the SoCal Hall of Fame in 1981.

- In a surprise presentation in 2003 at Bowl Expo in Las Vegas, Ol’ Steff was selected as the recipient of the prestigious National Flowers for the Living Award by the Bowling Writers Assn. of America. In addition to all these accolades, Stoeffler was a member of the Bowling Proprietors’ Assn. of SoCal board of directors for 20 years. He was also vice president of H&S Productions, which produced “TV Bowling Tournament” for 6-1/2 years, or 344 live telecasts, shown on Channel 5 in Los Angeles.

These live telecasts, with Stoeffler doing the announcing and featuring the finest local star bowlers, were shown on Saturday afternoons. The show dominated TV ratings for its time slot.

I knew Dick Stoeffler for almost 40 years. We became close friends when I was the owner and publisher of the Pacific Bowler.

Ol’ Steff took the entire back page each week so he could run his tournament and special events ads, along with his highly controversial column. He loved to rock the boat and, in those days, was constantly badgering the ABC and Bill Taylor (Stoeffler would call him “Bull Traylor” in his columns).

After many of Taylor’s theories on “Super Soft Bowling Conditions” proved to be correct, he and Ol’ Steff became longtime friends.

Stoeffler’s columns were so popular that bowlers could hardly wait until Friday of each week to read his fearless, often incendiary, statements. I would insert a disclaimer at the end of his column, but Ol’ Steff just laughed it off.

In recent years, whenever I was in Las Vegas—and that was often—I’d always have dinner out with Dick and Susie. We had a lot of good times together as he had a great sense of humor.

At Stoeffler’s request, there was no funeral service. In addition to his wife Susie, he is survived by three sons, a daughter, six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

I miss him already.

* * *

I’d like to devote the rest of this column to one of my favorite tournaments. That would be Jeanette Robinson’s National Golden Ladies Classic, to be held March 5-8 at the Orleans Bowling Center in Las Vegas.

I contacted Jeanette recently to get an update about the 17th annual event, which is exclusively for ladies 50 and up.

How many past champions have sent in their entries? I asked her. “So far, there are four,” Jeanette replied. “They are Char Hammel, our defending champion; Marilyn Kreg, the 1992 winner; Dee Price, who won three times, in 1993 and again in 1999 and 2003; and Sandy Postma, our 2002 winner.

“It will be five (past champions) as soon as I get Shirley Levens’ entry. She has assured me that she is going to bowl.

“Shirley also is a three-time winner of the Golden Ladies Classic,” added Jeanette. “She first won in 1998, when she was Shirley Hintz, and again in 2004 and 2005. Shirley did not bowl last year because she was recuperating from surgery.”

Levens, who hails from Florida, also won the USBC Senior Queens title two years ago.

Jeanette also announced that she has received entries from three ladies in England and one from Scotland. “Everything looks good,” she said.

There is still time to enter the 2007 Golden Ladies Classic. For complete details, call Jeanette Robinson at 1-888-365-7111, Ext. 6442. Last year’s event featured $3,070 in added prize money from tournament cosponsor Storm Products and the Orleans Hotel, Casino & Bowling Center. First place was worth $2,225 last year, but it could me more this year, depending upon the number of entries.

FINAL ITEM: The 2007 Golden Ladies Classic is guaranteed top news coverage. On hand for the tournament will be Hall of Fame writers Dick Evans and John Jowdy, who covered the tournament last year. And Chuck Pezzano, another Hall of Fame scribe, says he’s going to be there for the first time because he wants “to watch the ladies bowl, see my two old friends (Evans and Jowdy) and visit with my Vegas gambling mentor.”

Modesty forbids me to disclose who that person is.

Inland Empire NABI Champion Fred Manansala

by Quinn

SAN BERNARDINO — We want to thank AMF Arrowhead Lanes for hosting the Inland Empire NABI for our January 13 tournament. We had a great time and drank lots of hot coffee. Cold, cold weather did not hinder Fred Manansala (a newcomer to NABI) from warming up the lanes at Arrowhead. When Fred throws a strike, he has no mercy on those pins. They have to fall!

Fred works in construction, which contributes to his strong delivery. He is currently bowling in a league at Brunswick West Covina Lanes.

Fred has been bowling for about 10 years, and this is the first tournament he has won. He wants to dedicate this win to his lovely wife Arlene of 13 years.

We want to thank all who participated in the Arrowhead Lanes tournament. You are all great!

Our stepladder started out with Noli Valdeleon bowling Al Bradley. Al bowled a 163 to Noli’s 223. Noli then bowled our (soon to be) champ, Fred Manansala. Noli bowled a 165 to Fred’s 211. Fred went on to bowl Thedas Griffin (another newcomer to NABI). Thedas bowled a 205. However, Fred bowled an awesome 252. Fred then bowled our high qualifier, Phil Holland. Phil bowled a 179, and Fred came through to win with a 220.

Our next NABI tournament will be held at ABC Moreno Valley Bowl on Saturday, January 20. See our ad in the Bowling News this week.

Dick Stoeffler's Column Head One Last Time

STOEFFLER

In 1956, he averaged 212 as the highest from California. By comparison, Don Carter and Dick Weber averaged 210 and 208 that year in St. Louis. In 1968, he became only the fourth bowler in history to roll back-to-back 300 games in an ABC sanctioned league. He added a 225 for a huge (in those days) 825 series.

Steff was a PBA member for many years, but was always too busy running centers or tournaments to become a touring player. He made the TV finals in the 1964 PBA Southern Cal Open, finishing third behind Billy Hardwick and Bud Horn. One of his proudest achievements was his “TV Bowling Tournament” that aired on Los Angeles station KTLA for 344 live shows for more than six years in the 1960’s.

His 40-lane Kona Lanes bowling center in Costa Mesa, California was one of the busiest 24-hour facilities anywhere for many years, and it was Steff’s innovative management style that made him one of the most successful proprietors in the nation. It was there he met Susie, the love of his life.

Before retiring to Las Vegas, he and his beloved Susie bought a place in the mountains in Big Bear, California, where he ran a lucrative paint contracting business. Vegas was the perfect place for Steff, and he was very happy to be able to keep up with some of the biggest events that visited the bowling hotspot. For CJ and I, dinners with Steff and Susie have been a mainstay of our many trips to Vegas these past years.

In the summer of 2003, Steff was the winner of one of bowling’s most prestigious awards – The Sam Levine Flowers for the Living Award. The tradition of the award, which started in 1961, is to keep it a secret until the moment of presentation, and with the help of Susie and the Stoeffler’s good friend Sandra Wong, we successfully surprised Steff with the award in front of 1000 people at Bowl Expo. The other conspirators in the award party were CJ and I, Jim Dressel, and Bob Johnson. It was a wonderful day for all of us. Steff thought he was coming to see Dressel get an award, and he was totally surprised when we turned the tables on him.

Some of the winners of the Flowers Award include Joe Norris, Marion Ladewig, Chuck Pezzano, Dick Weber, Don Carter, Earl Anthony, Chris Schenkel, Joe Lyou, and Glenn Allison to mention a few, so Steff is in very good company. He sent his typical incredible thank you note to the committee:

He said “I had a modicum of ability on the lanes, and being inducted into two Halls of Fame was great. . .but to be honored by one’s peers with the Flowers Award. . .

He who simply mangles a typewriter, he who pretty much flunked English in high school and didn’t do much better in college. . .THIS was the greatest of all, and a tremendous surprise. . . I can never possibly thank you all enough. My gratitude is unending. . . the ultimate award in a long career. Thank you, thank you, thank you.”

Now is the time for us to say thank you. Thank you Steff, for being a wonderful friend, a mentor, for loving our sport and industry, and for making all of us a little better for having known you. Thank you for making us laugh, even when we didn’t feel like laughing.

Fritz Howell, who inspired the creation of the Flowers Award with a poem, wrote another poem called Musings At 83 . Steff didn’t quite make it to 83, but I think he would enjoy Howell’s words from the first and last two stanzas –

Today I am 83, and of the lessons learned in all those years my faith in twogreat truths still clings,

Those truths are, Nothing matters except the ones we love, Nothing is Worthwhile except simple things.

I’ve no desire to be remembered for some astounding deed,

Or as the hero of some momentous day.

My simple wish, is that sometime, somewhere, someone smiles

As he recalls that once I passed this way.

Somewhere, many people are smiling as they recall that Dick Stoeffler passed our way.

EMPTY LOT

had the same old scorers, I packed up the mirrors and bulbs and drove East. Would you believe the owner refused my offer? “I can’t believe you are giving me these without a catch to it!” That’s a quote!

Anyway, I left, went to a pay phone and called the mechanic. He was thrilled to get the parts, and I was happy they didn’t go to the junk yard.

To my knowledge, La Puente never installed automatic scorers.

The same year, La Puente hosted the Ladies City Tournament. Three weekends. Over 400 teams. The association had over 23,000 women members. Last year they numbered less than 3,000. The San Gabriel Valley had 23 bowling centers. Now they have nine. Twenty teams bowled the last City Tournament. I was lucky enough to win Scratch All-Events, and a big check for $14 which was more than the entry fee. The 70’s were great for bowling.

As I approached the location of La Puente Lanes, I realized how the neighborhood had changed.

Hacienda Blvd. was jumping. New businesses on every lot. Accept one. Could it be? Yes. A giant, empty, fenced, over-grown weed-patch. The building was gone. Friends were parted. Employees moved to other centers (more than 20 years ago). But, Billy Myers is still giving lessons and we remember “the gold old days”. How about you?

Jim Burke Recovering

NORWALK — Jim Burke was victim of a heart attack last week, hospitalizing him a few days.

According to friends, Jim is home resting but missing his leagues and his golf. “Jim is a friendly competitor that you don’t mind losing to”, said one of his bowling buds.

“Mind the doctor and get well soon”.

WESTMINSTER — Westminster Lanes welcomed the Vegas league Monday and Karen Mauricio topped the honor roll with 235-571, followed by Kathy Phylow 550, Bert Martinez 216-544, Alta Duke 244-541, Berneice King 537, Doris Lewis 533, Teri Hefner and Dutch Sullivan had 525 series, Tracy Koolmees 523, Lucinda Clayburn 221-517, Margo McClain 517, Dottie Lawn 512, Darlene Waken and Betty Klemm tied on 506 series and Vi Wilson, 504.

Cerritos Lanes #2 maintains league leadership with 37 wins, followed by Westminster #2 36, Keystone #2, 34; Westminster #1, Cal #4, Del Rio #1, and Keystone #3 are tied at 32 wins; Keystone #1, 31 and Cal #5, 30.2.

League members were reminded about OCUSBC-BVL and Annual tournaments again Monday and the entry deadlines are coming up soon. Hopefully, the league will again boast some winners and/or be “in the money” to cash from the prize fund. Several members of the league will participate in the 10 a.m. Saturday, January 28, squad of the BVL, but that date and squad time can be changed by calling Cheryl Huntington at the OCUSBC office, (714) 554-0111. Squad times are 10 a.m. and 1 p.m on weekends of January 20-21 and 27-28.

Another big No Tap is slated at Cal Bowl on Sunday 1 p.m. February 17. Barbara Bishop reports entry may exceed 100 entries, in the popular 3-game handicap event, that features separate men’s and women’s divisions. Dubbed Valentine No Tap, even if it’s three days past the holiday, the entry fee is $22 and walk-ins will be accepted. The Vegas league has been well represented every year and bowlers wanting to participate may pick up an entry form from Barb on Mondays in the Vegas league, or from the Cal Bowl control desk.

Happy Birthday to Jeani Ruff on Sunday. She’s a new-comer to the league this year and a real asset on and off the lanes. Lucinda Clayburn was the first winner this year to collect two of the three 50/50 sidepots. Karen Mauricio and Roberta McNaught are doing a great job selling tickets every week which has often resulted in many four-place payoffs.

NEXT WEEK: Keystone Lanes 10 a.m. Monday, Jan. 22.

CBW Takes on CWBA Memorabilia Display

by Mary Lynly

RENO—At the suggestion of Agnes Duffy, the California Bowling Writers have come to agreement with the National Bowling Stadium to display the rich memorabilia of the California Women’s Bowling Association.

The National Bowling Stadium has agreed to provide a special display case, located in a prime spot, to display the items. Thanks to Leslie Spears, former CWBA Secretary-Treasurer, in helping to funnel historical information and some of the many awards that define CWBA.

We are in the process of designing the display and hope to have it done sometime in March. Watch the InfoLink and our website www.calbowlingwriters.org for progress.

For those who might be interested in the Celebration 2006 – A tribute to Women’s Bowling in California CD, it is available for $10.00. Send check made out to Mary Lynly, 403 Larkstone Court, Roseville, CA 95661. They will also be available at the CBW booth at the CAUSBC Product Fair.

Team 9 Continues To Head Forest Lanes 615 Trios

by Frank Kietz

LAKE FOREST — Teams 2 and 8 can coast having won seed spots in Forest Lanes 615 Scratch Trios League’s $5,000 title rolloff. But Team 9, composed of Tim Timmerman, Donald Malapas and Brent Ilagan must fight for the third finale spot.

Last Thursday was a position round. Leader No. 9 and contender 10, battled it out, 9 got 7 points. Team 10, Ashkan Tahvildar, Allan MacDuffee and Jeff Carr gained three edging 9, moved up to fourth with 46 points.

Team 5 almost swept (15 points) all 17 points from Team 6 moving the Fivers (James Maloney, Alan Weiss and Tim O’Neil) to second place.

Team 7, the double Chrises. De Boer and Solar and John Sowell, are in third position just ahead of Team 10.

Sowell and Carr posted evening high 728 series to help their trio’s near sweep. Tim Hall made the list with a 709.

The high game honors with games of 277s went to Hall, Frank Street and Jason Kubanis.

Although the high gamers were one strike from perfectos, all three honorees put on an exciting display of skill trying to overcome the third segment sport shot.

Center Manager Allan MacDuffee said, “The overall race for the wild card and rolloff positions are tight. Team 2 leads with 192 1/2 points, Team 7 a wild card leader has 185 points while seed Team 8 Hall’s trios including Ronny Thompson and Paul Danforth have 175 points. The fourth contender, Team 11, Randy Erickson, Pat Danforth and Mike Tucker sport 173 1/2 points”.

With other sidebar action, the 615 Scratch Trios is the league to watch. The 14-team Thursday loop starts at 9:00 p.m. The public is invited to visit the 40-lane full service center. Call 949-770-0055 for more scratch league and tournament information.

Rick Laub Wins His Fourth ABT Championship at Cal Bowl

LAKEWOOD—Rick Laub won his fourth Amateur Bowlers Tour (ABT) championship at Cal Bowl on Saturday, January 13, 2007 during our one-day 4-game Beat-the-Board tournament. Rick bowled in our 4PM squad and shot games of 240, 252, 255 and 276 with handicap good for a series total of 1023 and the $800 1st place prize plus $500 from the Progressive Pot. Paul Passarino of Lakeside had a fine day shooting a 1008 four game handicap series to finish in second place for $400 dollars. In third place was Terry Hlebasko of Torrance. Terry shot a 1002 handicap series and got $250 dollars.

Our newest champion, Rick Laub is 51 years old. Rick has been bowling for over 30 years. He has a 300 game and a 786 series to his credit. Rick currently bowls at AMF Carter Lanes and was using a Storm Vertigo drilled by Vic Fabris. Rick plans on putting his winnings in savings. Rick wanted to thank Cal Bowl for hosting the tournament, and also thanks the Amateur Bowlers Tour-Orange County Branch staff and Directors for running an outstanding tournament.

Damone Hale was the winner of the optional 4-game Scratch Sweeper and $120 with a 901 scratch series. Eric Morris came in second for $80 with a scratch series of 873. We have had many positive comments about the optional 4-game Scratch Sweeper, and will continue to run this optional Scratch Sweeper at each tournament.

The Mystery Game Pot of Gold game and score were drawn after our final squad by Rick Laub. Game #2 was the game drawn, and 101 (possibly good for $200) was drawn for the first chance. Our second chance score (possibly good for $100) was 268 in game #2. There was no winner. The 3rd chance score (possibly good for $50) was 299 in game #2. There was no winner. Remember, the Mystery Pot of Gold is available to all members (Classic and Masters) and only costs $5.

The ABT staff and membership would like to thank the management and staff at Cal Bowl for hosting our tournament. Our next scheduled event will be on Saturday, January 20th, 2007 at Del Rio Lanes. This will be a special 4 game Beat-the-Board Classic and Masters Combined Singles tournament format. All members (Classic and Masters) are eligible. 2006-07 Book Average (compiled from 2005-06 winter leagues) will be used. If none, use current league average of 21 games or more (BRING CURRENT LEAGUE SHEET TO VERIFY). If none, you must bowl scratch (210 average). In the event of ties, money will be combined and divided equally. BOWLERS WISHING TO BOWL TOGETHER ON ONE PAIR OF LANES SHOULD TURN IN THEIR ENTRIES TOGETHER. Entries will be accepted up to 15 minutes before squad time. Prize checks will be mailed within one week after tournament is completed.

TAT Amateur Nationals Update: February 4th-11th 2007 - Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS—Walk-ins are welcome during the Tournament. Bowlers who miss the early entries will still have plenty of value and reasons to bowl, everyone will still receive the Ebonite ball and multiple Squads with hundreds of ways to cash.

The bowling ball we will be giving away with your entry is Ebonite's new ANGULAR ONE and the ball for the Ebonite Challenge is the SMASH TIME PEARL. Entries are coming in ahead of schedule, Bowlers are encouraged to get their entries in for the extra free squads and guaranteed squad times. Last year 40% of the squads filled , especially the Chance squads. Bowlers on schedules need to pick their squad times.

With all the extra bonuses and the increased prize funds, we expect many squads to fill. Pro Shops that need brochures for their $10,000 Special Prize Fund should call and request them at 1 888 828 2695. The free Ebonite Challenge entry that all bowlers receive is a free chance to get to the Ebonite Challenge finals by getting strikes in the 3rd 6th and 9th frames in 2 games of any squad that they are in the $10 Ebonite side pot. Where else can you bowl for a $5,000 top prize for $10 and get a ball?? and still pay $1,000 to the top 5 and pay down 1 in 6.

The Ebonite Challenge finals entry ( this entry comes with a second ball and guarantees you into the Ebonite finals ) looks like it will sell out again, anyone wanting this entry should send an additional $160 with their tournament entry. All 205 division bowlers need to write down their ABC # on the entry form, everyone must be verified to bowl in the 205 & under division. (no exceptions) 1 205 Division bowler is Guaranteed to the top 5.

Bowlers in the RNF Division must also be verified. 12 Separate prize funds and free high performance bowling balls from the worlds best manufacturer, Ebonite Intl. for 1 entry fee. TAT has strict eligibility rules no PBA or past $10,000 winners. (see rules)

HELPFUL HINTS: Fresh oil in the mornings and again on Tuesday at 3:00pm. All 3 sweeper shots will be different each day. The Qualifying shot will change a little every day except the first 2 and last 2 qualifying days. ( Sunday & Monday and Friday & Saturday ) Bowlers will be able to use the Ebonite Demo days (Tournament condition on demo lanes daily) to figure out the best layouts for ball control-reaction during the Tournament.

It appears it will be much easier to get paychecks out of the first 2 Chance Tournaments (Sunday thru Tuesday the 2 early $5,000 prize funds) as entries in those events will be half as many bowlers as the 3 later ones. Statistic wise it's easier to get checks earlier in the Tournament, but the cut scores are always the lowest on Friday and Saurday.

Squads will be held for assigned bowlers up to 15 minutes before it's scheduled time then given away. Squad changes are allowed, the TAT staff will make every effort to move bowlers into different Squads that miss their assigned ones. Maximum 6 on a pair.

BY NICE AND SWEET

STUDIO CITY—Brrr! I wish I had a beard like Grizzly Adams to maintain this beautiful face of mine in the cooling climate. Well at least this Greater United National Thermostat will help. If you’re freezing your buns off, warm them up at PINZ. We are rolling out the heat as our games heat up, just ask our bowlers.

Speaking of warming buns the adults have been so hot that you could cook eggs on them (If it doesn’t make sense, we apologize). Check out these scores to numb your paws:

Bowler of the Week: Socrates Sangalang – No one can fill a pair of 10 ½’s like he can! Just starting out in league play, he is one of those players that hangs in the wings waiting for the call for a sub itching to knock down some pinz! Socrates attributes his great scores to lessons and finds he is laying the foundation for his own bowling philosophy. We look forward to when he joins one of our summer leagues full time! Sweetness quote of the week: GO USA!!!!

Saddleback Lanes 820 Goes Into Sport Condition

by Frank Kietz
MISSION VIEJO — Bowlers Advantage and Saddleback Lanes claim the first two $5,000 title rolloff spots in the 32-lane center’s 9:00 p.m. Tuesday 820 Scratch Classic.

The Saddleback quartet, Tony Conti, Michael Harrigan, Rick Maldonado and John Chapman are the overall leaders with 205 1/2 points edging the Advantage Pro Shoppers, Rick Jocham, Tim Hall, Bill Brossart, Andy Neeman and Scott Brown by 18 1/2 points.

Missy Bellinder’s Precision Pro Shop, Sweetwater Pools, Danforth’s Creations and Windsor Mortgage are among the current segment leaders.

The third round has a sport shot. The Classic’s format includes a nightly 9 o’clock foul-line to pin deck lane dressing.

After the lanes are dressed, a long practice session — or a find the line period.

“Find The Lane” on a new pattern is not easy. It’s a challenge. The scores show it, an average-equalizer.

David Del Conte and son Eric do a great job pleasing their bowlers. Especially the Classic shooters because they are among the best in Orange County. Both feel proud of their full-service pin spa — we have the best, even the highest average bartender, Ron McKeon, 226. Ron promises to be back in action to get in shape for the USBC Nationals.

Southwest Bowl

by Wilfred Lewis

What’s up everybody?
It’s your dog, Wil, reporting on another week of fun and games here at Southwest Bowl, and we’re still putting up the numbers, but before I get started, I have to correct an omission. Last week in the Fantastic Five league on Thursday night, I overlooked (I dont know how) Chris Ridgeway shooting 238-213-269 for 720. My bad, Chris, and I’ll try and see that it does not happen again. Anyway, here we go with the scores for this week:
