$800 1st Handicap Div.

$3500 Guaranteed 1st Los Angeles Clippers Scratch Invitational

NORWALK — The Los Angeles Clippers Foundation is expanding their Charity BasketBowl Challenge to include an Invitational Bowling Tournament, divided into 2 divisions, scratch and handicap.

There will be 3 qualifying tournaments leading up to the finals on February 23rd at Keystone Lanes.

The Scratch (OPEN) Division has a first place prize of $3,500.00 GUARANTEED, with an entry fee of only $150.00.

First place in the HANDICAP Division is $800.00 plus a free entry to bowl WITH the Clippers at their charity event on March 2nd, valued at $1,000.00.

In fact, the TOP FOUR in the Handicap Division will bowl with the Clippers — plus win cash! Entry fee is only $60.00.

The first qualifying tournament will be Saturday, February 15th at Cal Bowl in Lakewood, with 1 in 6, in both divisions, going to the finals. The second qualifying event will be held on Sunday, February 16th at Forest Lanes in Lake Forest.

The last chance to qualify will be Saturday, February 22nd at Keystone Lanes, with the finals being held on Sunday February 23rd at Keystone as well.

Watch the Bowling News for weekly updates or call Cal Bowl 562-421-8448 to sign up for the first qualifier.

The Los Angeles Clippers Foundation annual Charity BasketBowl Challenge event hosts an exciting interactive day of bowling where the entire Clippers team bowls with corporate partners, tournament winners and Clippers fans of all ages to benefit local charities.

Walter Ray Williams Jr. Tops Hall-of-Fame Field to Win PBA50 Tour Finals Laughlin Wins PBA Regional Players Invitational Finals Young Repeats as Teen Masters Champion

LAS VEGAS — Walter Ray Williams Jr. topped a three-man all-star field to win the inaugural PBA50 Tour Finals, Arizona's Ben Laughlin won the PBA Regional Players Invitational Finals, and Florida's Greg Young repeated as Teen Masters champion in a television tripleheader that concluded the Professional Bowlers Association's World Series of Bowling V at South Point Hotel, Casino and Bowling Center.

The unique telecast, showcasing the PBA's 50-and-older senior program, the stars of its year-long regional tournament program, and the future stars of bowling, aired Sunday on ESPN.

Walter Ray Williams Jr.

In the PBA50 Tour finals, which featured three PBA Hall of Famers who qualified based on competition points earned during the 2013 PBA50 Tour season, two-time PBA50 Player of the Year Williams defeated Venezuela's Amleto Monacelli, 224-204, after Monacelli eliminated 2013 PBA50 Rookie of the Year Pete Weber of St. Ann, Mo., 243-208, in the first match.

"The fans had a chance to see three players with a lot of history with the organization and who had great seasons on the PBA50 Tour," Williams, an Ocala, Fla., resident, said. "You can't get much better than that."

Williams, who won three PBA50 Tour titles in 2013, led throughout the match before Monacelli made a late charge with a three-bagger heading into the 10th frame. But Monacelli left the 4 pin on his first ball in the 10th and missed the spare to end his chances.

"The momentum was going back and forth," Williams said. "It was going my way with a four-bagger and then I left a 10 pin in the ninth which

Australia's Jason Belmonte Named 2012-13 Chris Schenkel PBA Player of the Year Two-hander Tops 2011-12 Player of the Year Sean Rash and Hall of Famer Pete Weber for First POY Honor

ALLEN PARK, Mich. (Jan. 17, 2014) — Australia's Jason Belmonte was named the 2012-13 Professional Bowlers Association Chris Schenkel Player of the Year today during a special live presentation from Thunderbowl Lanes on PBA's online bowling channel, Xtra Frame.

In earning his first Player of the Year honor, Belmonte won two titles, including the USBC Masters — his first major — and had runner-up finishes in three other major championships: the 2012 PBA World Championship, U.S. Open and 2013 PBA Tournament of Champions. He won the George Young High Average Award, scoring at a 228.81 pace over 422 games, and the Harry Smith Point Leader Award with 238,903 points. The only major statistical category he didn't win was earnings, where his $186,465 total ranked third behind 2011-12 Player of the Year Sean Rash's $248,317 and Mika Koivuniemi's $227,851.

Belmonte, known for his unique two-handed delivery, joined Venezuela's Amleto Monacelli and Finland's Koivuniemi as the only foreign-born players to win the PBA's highest annual competition honor. He was also the first two-handed player to win the award.

"This award has a lot of meaning for me because it represents the fact that you can do it your way and be successful," Belmonte said. "I've taken a lot of criticism but I'm a firm believer in pinning your ears back and going for your dreams."

Belmonte, who owns seven career titles, captured Harry Golden Rookie of the Year honors after winning his first title during the 2008-09 season.

"This is an honor every player wants to win but something you can never plan for," Belmonte added. "There's no deadline to achieve it, only a massive bonus for your career if you do."

Belmonte was presented his award at Thunderbowl Lanes where the Barbasol PBA Tournament of Champions gets underway on Saturday.

Also finishing among the top three in Player of the Year voting was Rash, Montgomery, Ill., who was trying for his second consecutive honor, and Weber, a 51-year-old PBA Hall of Famer from St. Ann, Mo., who was hoping to win

Ryan Shafer Wins Second PBA Steve Nagy Sportsmanship Award

SEATTLE — Ryan Shafer of Horseheads, N.Y., has been selected by his fellow Professional Bowlers Association members as winner of the 2012-13 Steve Nagy Sportsmanship Award, PBA Commissioner Tom Clark announced today.

It was a bittersweet moment for Shafer, who also won the Nagy award in 2009, coming a day after the funeral services for his wife, Michelle, who died unexpectedly five days earlier.

Shafer, a 47-year-old who has won four titles in a 27-year PBA Tour career, has been a champion for underdogs on the PBA Tour for years, encouraging non-winners to continue their quests for a title, because he understands how difficult it is to win against the

Mika Koivuniemi Returns

Home to Win Finland's

Brunswick Ballmaster Open

Finnish star captures 13th PBA Tour title, record fourth Ballmaster Open title

HELSINKI, Finland – Finland native Mika Koivuniemi, now living in Hartland, Mich., returned to his home country and defeated England's Dom Barrett, 188-172, to win a record fourth Brunswick Ballmaster Open title Sunday at Tali Bowl.

Koivuniemi earned his 13th PBA Tour title and his ninth European Bowling Tour title in the first World Bowling/PBA International Tour tournament of the 2014 season. The No. 2 qualifier heading into the stepladder finals, Koivuniemi knocked off fellow Finn Joonas Jekinen, 236-201, in the semifinal match after Jekinen eliminated Ronnie Russell of Marion, Ind., 256-184, in the opening match.

The 44th Ballmaster Open is one of Europe's oldest and most prestigious tournaments. A major championship on the European Bowling Tour, it also is the traditional kick-off event for EBT's 21-tournament season.

PBA Tour competition returns to the United States later this week when Thunderbowl Lanes in Allen Park, Mich., hosted the Barbasol PBA Tournament of Champions. ESPN will televise the finals live on Sunday, Jan. 26, at 9AM.

Final Standings:
1, Mika Koivuniemi, Finland, $16,370.
2, Dominic Barrett, England, $10,900.
3, Joonas Jekinen, Finland, $5,450.
4, Ronnie Russell, Marion, Ind., $4,090.

Stepladder Results:
Match One: Jekinen def. Russell, 256-184.
Semifinal Match: Koivuniemi def. Jekinen, 236-201.
Championship: Koivuniemi def. Barrett, 188-172.

gave Amleto a chance. I was really surprised when he left the 4 pin. If he strikes, the match could have gone down to the last ball.”

Laughlin, who won the combined PBA West/Northwest RPI to qualify for the finals, defeated South Region representative Tom Daugherty of Wesley Chapel, Fla., 225-187, to win the special event for PBA regional champions. The RPI Finals included six PBA members who won RPI titles in their respective regions.

Laughlin won his opening round match by rolling a 222 game against East Region representative Brian LeClair of Albany, N.Y. (198) and Southwest Region representative Chris Barnes of Double Oak, Texas (163). Daugherty's 244 eliminated Midwest Region representative Dave Beres of Waukesha, Wis. (202) and Central Region representative Brian Kretzer of Dayton, Ohio (177).

“Bowling on ESPN was a dream come true,” the 42-year-old Laughlin said. “It's the best feeling I've ever had in bowling. “I bowled on Tour during the 2005-06 season, but I didn't fare so well,” he added. “I've been bowling regionals ever since and enjoying it. The RPI program with a TV show this year was great. You couldn't ask for much more than that. It absolutely provided incentives for regional players to get out and bowl.”

The Teen Masters Grand Championship featured a re-match of last season's finalists, which Young also won. He won his second straight $64,000 scholarship package – the richest scholarship prize in the sport – by beating Ashley Dunn of Palmdale, Calif., in a one-ball roll-off after the best-of-two-game match ended in a tie. Dunn, who was swept in the 2012 title match, got the upper hand when she won the first game, 179-160, but Young sent the match into sudden-death with a 184-153 decision in game two. In the roll-off, Young struck and Dunn left the 2-4-5 to hand Young the victory.

Young, who will graduate from Viera High School in 2014, will attend collegiate powerhouse Robert Morris University-Illinois next fall and plans to pursue a career in cyber security.

The PBA returns to live television on Sunday, Jan. 26, when the Barbasol PBA Tournament of Champions finals air at 9AM on ESPN.

the crown for the first time in his career. Rash won two PBA International Tour titles in Kuwait and Thailand, and made TV shows in the 2012 and '13 PBA World Championships and the 2013 TOC. In addition to leading the earnings list, Rash finished third in average and competition points.

Weber, a 37-time PBA Tour champion, won the 2013 Tournament of Champions for his record-tying 10th career major and finished third in the 2013 U.S. Open (an event he has won a record five times) and third in the 2013 PBA World Championship. He was also a member of the PBA League New York City WTT KingPins team that won the inaugural Elias Cup in 2013.

During the Xtra Frame presentation, PBA Commissioner Tom Clark also presented the PBA Rookie of the Year Award to E.J. Tackett of Huntington, Ind.; the 2013 Steve Nagy Sportsmanship Award to Ryan Shafer of Horseheads, N.Y. (Eugene McCune of Munster, Ind., accepted on behalf of Shafer), and the inaugural Tony Reyes Community Service Award to PBA Hall of Famer Parker Bohn III of Jackson, N.J.

The end-of-season awards announcements culminated an expanded 14-month campaign that began in November 2012 and ended Dec. 31, 2013, as the PBA returned to a traditional calendar year season that began on Jan. 1.

ARNOLD TRIAS WINS 1ST ABTA TITLE

ALL POTS CARRY OVER! MATCH SERIES est $4,000
MAXED MATCH GAME IS $5,000 • 3-6-9 is $2,000

WESTMINSTER LANES Saturday JAN. 25

DIAMOND BAR — We had a nice turnout 214 entries last Saturday at Oak Tree Lanes. Saw a bit higher scores, a lot of action and fun there.

45 bowlers advanced to semi finals with high cut scores of +101 for the men and +68 for the women. Super Seniors added were Manny Loria with +85 and Robert Ricketts with +78 for the men, and Karen Wade with +46 for the women.

High Qualifiers were Mighty Marvin Crowder with +208 (Wow!) for the men and Wendy Soo Hoo with +126 for the women. They each get a paid entry to any upcoming ABTA regular event.

Top qualifier Crowder draws for the Match Series and with all the nice scores, the 646 drawn still was unmatched. Our Match Series funds of $2500 will carry over this weekend to an estimated $4,200 at Westminster Lanes. Our optional 3-6-9 pot is another carry over with Robert Young taking home the $50 consolation prize. And we go for $2,000 Saturday.

Marvin Crowder with Rey Josafat Jr. and Kelly Wynn with Andrew Lung tied for the top two spots for our Optional Doubles with combined scores of 1582. Each pair took home $130. 3rd place was Marvin Crowder and Vuong Do with 1550 for $110. Doubles paid out 25 places for a total of $1410 with a low to cash score of 1422.

45 Bowlers took to the floor in the Semifinals, and after the three games, the cut scores to make the top 16 single game elimination finals were +83 for men and +48 for women.

Top Seed was Arnold Trias with a huge +184, followed by Stan Por with +174. Arnold gets to rest for the title match and Stan gets a 1st round bye. Top Seed Trias earns the privilege of drawing for the Match Game and the 249 drawn was also unmatched. Our MATCH GAME fund maxed at $5000 will also add to our Carry Over POT at Westminster Lanes this weekend. $$$! $5,000 at Westminster.

Bowlers took the floor for the single game elimination finals and placing 10th through 16th for $102.50. Eliminated after the 1st round were Robert Ricketts, John Licauco, Pedro Cintron, Richard Valdez, Karen Wade, Tess Dizon and Wendy Soo Hoo. Eliminated after the 2nd round and placing 6th through 9th for $112.50 were Stan Por, Dino Cantoria, Rey Josafat Jr., and Dennis Kelsey. Round 3 brings about our Horse pick finalists. Payouts were $36 for Chris Kelly, $38 for Jerry Chang, $40 for Michael Morgan, and $65 for Ben Bagaioisan. Jerry Chang dominated his match against Michael Morgan with scores of 245/182 and Chris Kelly downed Ben Bagaioisan with 243/218. Placing 4th and 5th respectively after the 3rd round were Ben Bagaioisan and Michael Morgan for $125 each. 4th round determines the Horse winner and that would be Jerry Chang as he eliminates opponent Chris Kelly with 234/208. Chris finished 3rd place for $215. Chris bowled well at Oak Tree.

Upstart and Horse winner, Jerry Chang advances to meet Top Seed Arnold Trias for the Title Match. Arnold elected to finish first so Jerry stepped up and started the match with a strike. Arnold started with a spare then a strike. Jerry followed with a 9-spare, a 6-spare, and then a strike before the failed conversion of the 4-6 split in his 5th frame. (Did you know? In line with the "Sour Apple", "The Big Four", and the "Greek Church", splits 7-9, 8-10, & 4-6 are called the "Cincinnati".) Arnold stayed clean throughout the game. A lucky break gave him a Brooklyn strike in the 9th which enabled him to punch out in the 10th which secured his win with his 269 game.

Arnold Trias Wins 1st Title at Oak Tree Lanes — One of Our Finest Gentlemen and Loyal Members, Arnold Trias Bowled the best, winning his first ABTA Title and a sweet $2,700 downing Jerry Chang in the Title Game (L-R) Leo Silva, Champion Arnold Trias $2,700, Jerry Chang 2nd $500, Jerry's #1 supporter wife & ABTA Champion Cecilia and Chris Kelly 3rd.

Jerry Chang finished 2nd place for $500 for his 218 game. Another FINE bowler joins our Winners Circle as Arnold Trias bags his 1st ABTA Title at Oak Tree Lanes! He took home the guaranteed top prize of $1000, plus an additional $1700 for investing in the optional Cash & Carry for a total of $2700! Arnold has bowled with us for years. It is heartwarming to see him finally get to the top.

1st time Champ Arnold Trias is from Long Beach and he used his Storm Synergy drilled by ABTA member Charles Weeks from The Professional Approach at Cal Bowl in Lakewood. For support, for having his back, and for always being with him, he gives credit to his family especially his wife, Ging, daughters Ginnie Mae and Gerrica, Liza, Leo and Alvin. He dedicates this win to Cousin the late Alvin Francisco. Former beloved ABTA Member.

2nd place Jerry Chang is from Monterey Park. He used His Storm Marvel-S drilled by Aarik Torres of Brunswick Covina Bowl. He thanks his wife, Cece, and BOWLMANIA friends and family.

3rd placer Chris Kelly is from Fontana and he used his 900 Global Raw Profit drilled by Memo Rosales of Apex Pro Shop inside AMF Friendly Hills Lanes. He is married to Valinda Kelly and they have 2 sons, Scott and Brandon. He gives thanks to his family, to our host, Oak Tree Lanes, to ABTA and staff.

The new 2ND GAME MYSTERY DOUBLES that started this year for $5 per bowler paid out 5 places for a total of $240. 1st place was Chris Kelly and Ben Bagoisan with 555 for $90, 2nd place were Andrew Lung and Kelly Wynn with 540 for $70, 3rd were Vuong Do and John Phan with 517 for $50, 4th were Jeff Taino and Ricardo Baca with 516 for $20, and in 5th place were Dom La Guardia and Louis Evans with 497 for $10. $240 collected $240 paid out!

This week's winner of a new ball from our sponsor, 900 Global, was Bedell Vasquez. For our RAFFLE tickets, Freddie Catamisan and Ben Bagaioisan each won a night's accommodation for our Vegas event; Korng Ngow won the Vegas free entry; Regular Entry winners were Michael Kristich and Faye Josafat; and recipients of our Bracket Certificates were Ed Abarca, Henry Hoang, and Dom La Guardia.

We had a nice Payoff for our Members at Oak Tree. We will return soon. Thank you for the loyalty and support.

Onwards and upwards for an even better 2014! See you all this weekend at WESTMINSTER LANES with BEAT THE BOARD FINALS which is Exciting and where you finish is where you will cash!

NATIONAL DEAF BOWLING NEWS

by Connie Marchione

ABAKUMOFF LEADS DEAF TRAVEL WITH 803 AT KEYSTONE LANES

NORWALK — Southern California Deaf Traveling League had only two men with scratch 4 games 800 series in its Sunday stop at Keystone Lanes. The long time league President Ed Abakunoff out bowled Bob Jones by one pin to lead the day’s 8 men honor roll.

Abakumoff’s 803 had two speed bumps along the way with games of 216-188-206-193 while lefty Jones’ 802 showed a good start of 202-237 (the day’s high game) but he struggled with too many 7 pin taps finishing with 180-183. Like Jones, Leroy MacMonagle jumped with a good start with 213-227 and finished with 169-181 for 790, ten pins short of the day’s third 800.

Like Abakumoff, Mark Fisser had two speed bumps with his 218-188-200-170 for 776. Dan Flores had roller coaster scores of 145-209-162-235for 751. League Secretary-treasurer Bob Taylor had his season best game 215 and series 747 with games of 190-162-215-180. Gorman Low made the list when he started with a 231 and Jeff Stansell got on the list with his 200. The top lady was Celia Salcedo with 192 high game and 643 series.

League leader, Eagle Rock with Taylor’s 747 and Jones’ 802 increased its position with 16.5-3.5 win over 3rd place Stansell’s Mid City. Second place Fisser’s Anaheim was upset 4.5 to 15.5 by MacMonagle’s 6th place Orange County. Abakumoff’s 216, Low’s 231 and Sharon Caldwell’s 166 gave their 4th place Riverside the day’s high team series 613 in their 12-8 win over Flores’ 5th place S F Valley. This 54 year old all deaf and hearing-impaired traveling league thanks its long time host Keystone lanes management and staff for letting our bowlers use its lanes this year as well as in the past years. The next travel trip is to Mission Hills Bowl in San Fernando Valley on Sunday February 9 with bowling time at 1:00 PM.

OLD TIME BOWLER RAUL MARTINEZ PASSES AWAY JAN. 19

LOS ANGELES — While I was writing the above, I got an email saying that a former member of our traveling league Raul Martinez, Los Angeles passed away today (January 19). Martinez was a good supporter of So-California Deaf Traveling League and bowled for several years.

Bowling News is proud to bring you....

Chuck Pezzano

Dean of Bowling Writers, PBA & USBC Hall of Fame

Halls of Fame in many sports have been making headlines in the past few weeks, most on the critical than praise side. The major complaints are that too many or too few worthies are elected and that is in all sports. Numbers range from none to more than a dozen.

Many fans question the practice of some voters not to vote for a first time eligible, or to associate some athletes with fellow stars in times of using substances or conflicting with rules, different for all halls.

With the state of the economy and its ups and downs, donations to sports hall needs dim in comparison to health and charity needs in other sectors. History is great, but you can’t eat it.

When the American Bowling Congress started its hall back in 1941 it was a pioneer in the field, following baseball and golf. Now, practically all sports have halls, ranging from simple plaques in simple settings to magnificent structures that need plenty of room for exhibits, displays that give basic historical facts, photos, films and whatever curtors and committees determine would be inviting to visitors and donors.

The International Bowling Hall after years of searching, found its first home in St. Louis, and remained there until the merge of the American Bowling Congress, Women’s International Bowling Congress and other bowling groups to form the United States Bowling Congress, and resettle at the International Bowling Campus in Arlington, Texas.

The move has been difficult because there is less display room and more and more to display. Once the national halls, in bowling and other sports were established, state, and local associations followed. And over the years, particularly in bowling, organizations of every description, manufacturers, sponsors, coaches and the media have come to honor persons with their own little piece of forever with a special bit of notice in a bowling hall.

The renown Bowling Hall, because of space limitations in Texas, has created a hall display of women inductees in a special area of the National Bowling Stadium in Reno, a site which in some years draws 100,000 tournament competitors from around the world.

The most feedback I ever received was a hall exhibit which simply showed unique bowling apparel with the fantastic colors and themes that brightened so many areas. Those shirts, women’s blouses and other types of dress reminded visitors of the days when almost every team at every level wore bowling shirts and in the late 1800s and early 1900s the old time stars often wore long sleeved shirts with stiff collars, and ties. No hats were worn on the lanes.

Over the years I have served on every major bowling organization’s Hall of Fame committee, but it didn’t stop there. I took the time to count bowling and other sports halls and they add up to 21, ranging from high school halls to the Polish-American Sports Hall.

All have different constitutions, different requirements, and different voters. Some are just for men, others just for women and most for both.

Many have different categories, for pioneers, Meritorious Service, and special accomplishments. The Polish Hall has one section for high visibilty sports, football, baseball, basketball and hockey and another for all other elite sports standouts in such areas as sabre, swimming, bobsledding and trainers and coaches.

Despite whatever criticisms there may be, every sports hall deserves your attention and support. And if you can’t give a brick, room or building, just donate a buck or two every now and then.

MIKE PUCHALSKI Rolls His First 300

by Frank Weiler and Therese Lloyd

REDLANDS — Its taken over 50 years and “ONE MILLION DOLLARS,” well maybe five thousand dollars, worth of bowling games for Mike Puchalski to get his first perfect game. There is no easy explanation why Mike’s journey to bowlings Mount Olympus has taken so long. All I can say is that Mike is a great bowler and deserved this 300.

Mike has been around bowling since the mid-twentieth century. His dad (John) managed EMPIRE BOWL in the 1950s and early sixties. As a manager’s son Mike was able to immerse himself in every aspect of the bowling business.

He loved it, especially his time as an ALLEY BOY.

Mike started bowling at such an early age that he had to use a DUCK PIN ball to bowl. The lightest regulation ball was just too heavy and to avoid rolling channel balls he had to go small ball. Mike loved bowling and became a pretty good junior bowler under the tutelage of SONNY REHWALD, at the old Orange Bowl. Over the years Mike continued to improve until he became a regular 200 bowler.

Mike’s previous high game was a 299. He has many 290s and a high series of 759. All of his current equipment was drilled by ZACH JELLSEY of Bowlers Junction Pro Shop within Empire Bowl. He told us that Zach has done a great job and is grateful for his support.

Mike asked us to thank the staff at Empire Bowl for their support. Owner WILL MOSSONTTE and manager SHERRY WILLIAMS do a great job providing a welcome atmosphere for all their bowlers. Our thanks to the BOWLING NEWS for supporting Citrus Belt bowlers.

Getting Stronger Every Year –

CSSBA Senior State Tournament Continues To Grow

by Bette Addington, California Bowling Writers

In this day and age for the sport of bowling anyone deeply associated with the sport knows many events and tournaments are struggling these days to stay alive. Thank goodness there are people out there who value this sport and believe in it and work to keep it fun for participants and understand what bowlers want when they go bowl a tournament.

An excellent example of a thriving event is the annual CSSBA (California State Senior Bowling Association) State Senior Tournament that just held its 44th annual event in Clovis and Fresno, CA. This tournament has grown to be held now for five consecutive weekends starting in mid-October. It is held each year in different cities, generally in the central CA vicinity.

The CSSBA organization held its first event in Bakersfield, CA in 1970 by Tournament Director, Glenn Barber. After Barber’s passing in 1996, Pete Melton took over as Tournament Director until retiring in 2009. At that time, Gina Moura became Tournament Director. Moura was Melton’s bracket operator from 2001-2008. Although Moura will not take the credit, it has been her dedication to keep this event going and growing as it has. “This job is so rewarding. I get to meet wonderful bowlers throughout California and striving to provide great service is my priority. We offer house lane conditions and a friendly atmosphere. Our senior bowlers are having a great time out on the lanes! In a declining bowling industry, I am pleased that our event is growing and will continue to grow with our new 3 age divisions—Ages 50-59, Ages 60-69, and Ages 70+,” stated Gina Moura.

And growing this event has! In 2007 the Team event drew 366 teams. In 2012, there were 483 teams and this year there were 452. So why the continued support and interest in this event? Quite possibly it could be because the board of CSSBA which is made up of 25 officers and directors from throughout the state, have a connection with their bowling community and even though they only meet twice a year—in the Spring and at the opening of each annual tournament—they figure out ways to, as past president, D.C. Williams stated, “mainly show them a good time.” This group works hard with the centers that host the event to put out a house condition that helps the participants bowl well. And, bowling well makes bowlers happy! Happy bowlers spread the word and attract more bowlers to come bowl this event.

Besides that, this board is constantly thinking of new ways to improve the event. In 2014, for example, CSSBA will unveil their new policy of oiling the lanes before each squad to provide equal shots for all entrants. Bowlers have asked for this and the board listened and is delivering. Gina Moura added, “We’re just going to keep doing what we are doing!”

Asked a couple Bakersfield happy tournament winners, Juke “Jenny” Tanaguchi and Mike Mayo, their feelings about participating in this event. This was Tanaguchi’s first year to bowl in it and she ended up placing second in Singles “C” Division (50-59), seventh in All Events “C” and helped her team place 11th in the Team event, she stated, “I like the people and the tournament was run really well.” Mayo, who has bowled this tournament now two years, and this year ended up tying for first in Singles “C” Division and won the All Events “C”, had more great comments to share, “For whatever reason, I tend to do well at Senior State and I will therefore continue to bowl it. Gina does a great job organizing the event and I’ve always felt she’s been very supportive of all the bowlers. She somehow is able to keep a smile on her face during the entire tournament and I know that isn’t always easy. As far as winning goes, I never expected to do so well and feel God has blessed me with at least one tournament win—ok, two events; even better!—in my life and the State event at that! I can’t believe it. It’s just awesome! I look forward to bowling in Modesto next year. By the way, Juke also works where I do at Frito Lay. Two of the top three in our age division who work at the same location? Must be something in the chips!”

Besides the duo from Bakersfield rising to the top, other highlights from this year’s event included Ty Dawson of Sunnyvale who rolled the high series of the event, an 803, while bowling Singles and Dennis Beets of Sugarloaf, who rolled the highest game, a 300, which he bowled during his Doubles competition.

So if you’ve reached the golden age of 50 and want to join the fun in 2014, the 45th annual event is planned to be held five consecutive weekends starting October 25-26 in Modesto (Team center will be Yosemite Lanes and Doubles and Singles at McHenry Bowl). Advance entries are now being accepted. Log on to www.cssba.net or you can contact Gina Moura direct at (925) 757-2695.

greatest players in the world. Shafer’s personal challenges have been complicated because he has bowled his entire career while combating diabetes. Recently he has served as a spokesman for Animas Corp., a company that makes the insulin pump that has made it easier for him to live a normal life.

“Winning the Steve Nagy Award has always been important to me because it shows the respect of your peers as a sportsman and someone who cares about them,” Shafer said via e-mail. “I have been through a lot this past week, so it’s hard for me to be happy today about winning.

“I know the other candidates were very deserving. In time, I hope I can reflect and enjoy the fact my fellow players think so highly of me. It’s just tough to do that at this moment.”

Eugene McCune of Munster, Ind., Shafer’s closest friend and a fellow PBA Tour competitor, accepted the award on Shafer’s behalf during ceremonies Friday at Thunderbowl Lanes in Allen Park, Mich., where the Barbasol PBA Tournament of Champions gets underway Saturday.

“I want to thank my roommate and one of my best friends in the world, Eugene McCune, for accepting on my behalf,” Shafer said. “My wife Michelle and Eugene were good friends. It’s only right he accept for me because she loved him as a friend as much as I do.”

Others who received votes in the Nagy balloting were: Patrick Allen, Dom Barrett, Kenneth Bland Jr., Parker Bohn III, Nathan Bohr, Ryan Ciminelli, Mike Edwards, Andres Gomez, Steve Jaros and Kelly Kulick.

Established in 1966, the Steve Nagy Sportsmanship Award is named after the late PBA Hall of Famer and founding members of the PBA. A colorful and talented performer, Nagy made such an impact on his fellow pros that the award was established shortly after his death. Hall of Famer Johnny Guenther won the first “Nagy.”

ROUND 3 - WEEK 6

by Meannie Mancini

DOWNEY — The THREADWORKS four got off to a shaky start Monday against LOS ALTOS TROPHY, losing the first game 782 to 797. What a difference a double makes. Game Two was also a squeaker, with THREADWORKS winning 807 to 800. Could the game have been closer??? The scores pulsed like a heart monitor! Game Three was never in the bag 'til the 10th frame. Paul Varela's 211/589 put a few pats on his back. Eric Snow was high for the team with his 593. Jessica Diso showed 'em how 225/567 and Mike Villarreal 219/583. What a great foursome! Another four games in the pot.

But, there's one more week to go and six teams are "mathematically" still in the hunt. Check those standings! Who would YOU bet on??

The highest scoring duel Monday was contested on lanes 13 and 14 between SYSCO and PRO-APPROACH BOWLIUM. SYSCO'S 2503 was not only high series for the night, it boosted them one place higher in the standings.

BOWLERS DEPOT dropped to seventh and is out of the running for this round. Next round? Watch out, they'll be on the hunt.

The league is still averaging 196, and has been this whole round. The stats show that every week 1/2 of the league raises their average and 1/2 lowers their average. I wonder if ALL leagues are like that??? (I will research this puzzle and give you the facts next week!)

Just a note: Leonard Ruiz shot 300 in the 6:00 p.m. league; the lane machine did its magic and he roared back at 9:00 p.m. with 603 for 3 games. Damn machine!

Side-pot scores were up. Eddie VanDaniker 279, Dave Kovach 267, and Justin Ziegler 280. Billy Myers Jr. tossed in a 266 to snatch a piece of the Advisors Pot.

Monday, January 27, is the end of round three. If you haven't trekked to Downey on league night, you are missing the best pin hunt around. Pull up a pizza and enjoy the show. PLEASE, no marching bands or mascots!
