Top Women Bowlers at South Point

LAS VEGAS — The Women's Bowling Alliance makes it's National debut this weekend at South Point Lanes in Las Vegas.

The event is hosted by the Amateur Bowlers Tour (ABT) and is running in conjunction with their $25,000 1st Place Winter Nationals.

Some of the BEST women scratch bowlers will be on hand competing for the $10,000 1st Place Prize (with Mega Bonus).

Some notables include: Kelly Kulick, Liz Johnson, Shannon Pluhowsky, Leanne Hulsenberg, Tammy Turner, Tish Johnson, Missy Parkin, Elysia Current, Diandra Asbaty, Robin Romeo, Paula Vidad, Char Hammel, and many more.

Scratch women bowlers can still "walk-in" and enter with an on-site payment of $150. Entry forms can be found at www.WBABowling.com.

The multiple squad qualifying starts Tues, Jan.24th but the majority of the ladies will be bowling Saturday squads including 11am, 2pm, 6pm and 9pm with a re-entry squad on Sunday at 9am.

Semi-Finals start Sunday, Jan. 29th at 11:30am with the Top 4 round robin Finals to follow.

You can follow the daily qualifiers at www.WBABowling.com/Results.html and the Finals can be viewed via live streaming at www.ustream.tv/channel/womens-bowling-alliance on Sunday at 1pm.

The WBA was formed in 2010 to help revive women's professional bowling and feature tournaments that showcase their incredible athletic talents.

Eugene McCune Defends PBA Cheetah Open

by Jerry Schneider

FOUNTAIN VALLEY — Throwing his traditional rocket to the pocket, Eugene McCune of Munster, Ind., successfully defended his PBA Cheetah Open presented by Ebonite title Sunday at Fountain Bowl.

McCune, who was the top qualifier for the stepladder finals, defeated PBA Hall of Famer and 35-time Tour titlist Pete Weber of St. Ann, Mo., 245-229, in the championship match for his third career win.

"Anytime I can play outside on the lane and throw it hard it plays in my favor," said McCune who estimated he was throwing the ball at a little over 20 miles per hour. "It's old school and that's where I feel most comfortable."

McCune won his second career title last season when, as tournament leader, he defeated Norm Duke, 238-237, to win the Cheetah Championship. It was during the match play round of that event that McCune broke the PBA nine-game scoring record with a 2,468 pinfall (274.22 average). In this year's Cheetah Open, conducted on PBA's Cheetah lane conditioning pattern, he averaged 253 for the tournament.

"When I bowl on this condition there's a little pressure because I know I need to take advantage of it," he added. "I was a little worried after the first two frames of the tournament when I had open frames but I went to a different ball and made a couple of other adjustments and got back on track."

McCune was the first player to successfully defend a Tour title since Chris Barnes won back-to-back events in Columbus, Ohio, in the 2007-08 and 2008-09 seasons.

The landmark Cheetah Open was the first PBA Tour event streamed live exclusively on PBA's Xtra Frame online bowling channel. Three more Xtra Frame events are scheduled during the remainder of the season.

"It was going to be a good match because he's one of the best on this pattern and I match up real well in this house," said Weber, who was trying for his 36th Tour title. "It was a good match for a while until I had a couple bad shots."

Weber defeated fellow Hall of Famer Duke in the opening stepladder match, 237-226, to advance to the semifinal against Josh Blanchard of Gilbert, Ariz., who was rebounding after his fall on the approach during the PBA

England's Stuart Williams Wins PBA Bayer Viper Open

Third-year competitor becomes first English bowler to win a PBA Tour title

LAS VEGAS — England's Stuart Williams, a third-year Professional Bowlers Association competitor, defeated Venezuela's Ildemaro Ruiz, 246-194, to win the PBA Bayer Viper Open at South Point Casino and Hotel, becoming the first English bowler ever to win a PBA Tour title.

The finals of the Bayer Viper Open, the first of four PBA "animal pattern" championships contested during the PBA World Series of Bowling, aired Sunday on ESPN.

Williams, 30, started the title match with a spare and then reeled off five strikes in a row, building an insurmountable 44-pin lead when Ruiz failed to convert the 3-10 "baby split" in the fifth frame and missed a 10 pin in the sixth. Along with his first PBA Tour title, Williams earned $15,000 and an automatic berth in the Round of 36 for the end-of-season PBA Tournament of Champions, April 8-15 at Red Rock Lanes in Las Vegas.

"This is the best. It's great. I'm really excited," Williams said. "Once you've won, it makes it easier the second time. It certainly loosens up the arm swing."

"Bowling on the PBA Tour is all about learning the different moves you have to make. I had one full season, and half a season last year, and I feel like I learned a great deal," he continued. "I spoke to the right people and they helped me out a lot. I throw many less bad shots per game now. I try to throw at least nine good shots a game, rather than six or seven. When you're playing against the best players in the world, you can't get away with throwing those bad shots."

"Today you had to be more conscious about using your speed adjustments rather than opening up angles. That's one of the attributes of my game, so I felt comfortable that if I could just get through two games and the lanes didn't get too easy, I felt like I had a pretty good chance."

Williams established himself in the first game of the three-game eliminator finals, throwing nine strikes in 12 attempts for a 238. Ruiz was next with a 213, Sean Rash of Montgomery, Ill., posted a 203 and qualifying leader Mike Fagan of Dallas was eliminated with a 192 for the round's lowest score.

Ruiz led the closely-contested game two with a 201. Williams advanced to the title match with a mistake-free 197. Rash was eliminated with a 186 game. A 4-6-10 split in the third frame and an unconverted 1-2-6-10 spare attempt in the ninth ended Rash's hopes.

The victory gave Williams a feeling of redemption after a disappointing 2010-11 season that began when he was denied entry into the United States over a visa problem, causing him to miss the entire PBA World Series of Bowling.

"It comes down to what

does it take to make you stronger," Williams said. "We all have to go through adversity and it was my turn. Everything has gone well since then."

A title winner in bowling competitions in nine different countries, Williams was thrilled to add the United States as his 10th.

"Being the first English title winner has become my specialty," he smiled. "I was the first Englishman to win on the European Bowling Tour, too, so hopefully this will lead to a flood of English wins on the American tour."

On Sunday, Jan. 29, ESPN will air the finals of the Alka Seltzer Plus Liquid Gels USBC Masters live at 12:30 p.m. ET (9:30 a.m. PT) from Sunset Station's Strike Zone in Henderson, Nev. The second major championship of the 2011-12 PBA Tour season offers a $50,000 first prize along with a berth in the Round of 36 for the PBA Tournament of Champions. Tom Hess of Urbandale, Iowa, is defending champion.

Keystone Lanes League Bowler Turns 96!!

NORWALK — Senior bowler, Joe Talasay turned 96 on January 18 and his two leagues celebrated big time.

Joe was born in Bridgeport, Conn. in 1916. When World War II came along he joined the Army and was assigned to Patton's Army. There's a story! Joe started bowling over 70 years ago and is maintaining a 153 in one league and 155 in another. Booking a 149 last year, he gives new equipment the credit for his average increase.

Joe Talasay

His 2 hobbies keep him tan and active; Tuna fishing and casinos. How many cans can be filled by a 219 pound tuna? Ask Joe. Check with him the location of the loose slots! Boy, does he get around!

Joe's wife passed away a few years back but his daughter Laura (Arizona) and son Edward are retired, so they try to catch up with dad once in a while. Congratulations Joe. We'll be looking for more cake next January.

Ralph Morton Fun-Time No-Tap Doubles

January Senior Tournament 2012

Lucky Number 21

by Brad Domes (Funtimebowling@cox.net)

LAS VEGAS: Twenty-one! The number that has changed the lives of so many Las Vegas faithful. The Fun-Time Senior no-tap doubles tournament celebrating its 21st tournament may not have changed many lives but it sure was entertaining. Held again at the marvelous 70 lane Orleans Hotel & Casino a record 1330 bowlers took part January 9-11 with many starting early in a special Sunday night blind draw. A new wrinkle was added with an individual all events tournament compiling scores over three days for each respective squad. Mixed in was a singles no-tap tournament held on Tuesday. Needless to say lots of opportunities for these seniors to show their stuff and many did.

The tournament is a senior 50+ no-tap doubles and has two daily squads (A & B) that make up a single day tournament. There are two divisions with this tournament divided at a team average 329. Division 1 is 329 and below with Division 2 being 330 and above. This breakout was used for all three days. No divisional play in the blind draw.

Blind Draw Honors: 64 teams participated in the blind draw with Gordon Benson (874) & Judy Robosson (876) leading the pack with only a three pin advantage over the team of Russ Valentine (300-916) & Joyce Reynolds (831). Robert Melanson (876) & Luann Russell (862), Peter Cracchiolo (822) & Kat Van Der Vegt (901) and John Potts (864) & Dolores Dudek (838) rounded out the top five. Top guns: Carol Burke (936), Bobby Lewis, Andy Gagliano, Ed Seidlinger with 300's. Jim Robosson 287, Floyd Clay 286, 296, Randy Mc Hodgkins 286.

DIVISION 1

Monday: The Tugade's, Antonio (854) & Avelina (926) led the way over 112 teams but only 1 pin over Robert (300-992) & Carla (787) Barnes who finished ahead of Tom Claudy (285-802) & Anita Lewis (968). Fourth place went to Betty Dennis (277-858) & Kat van Der Vegt (881). No other 300 was bowled but coming close were: Larry Minnich 298, John Potts 297,290, Tom Kutz 290. Notables: Sandra McGee 256 & Lenora Bee 253.

Tuesday: Scoring improves for 111 teams with an 1870 total from Connie Byrne (240-878) & Virginia Schuetzle (278-992) as they "stormed" their way into first over the teams of Igmidio Generillo (830) & Avito Adan (300-954), Jerry Lawless (888) & Lorraine Redman (865), Gene Villano (809) & Charlotte Ontiveros (255-943) and Tom (300-869) & Amelia (243-868) Kutz. Honor roll: Walter Stephens 290, Oscar Chavez & Stanley DeWaal 278, Jim & Montry Mc Nally 274, Jean Marshall & Dee Shack 255.

Wednesday: Wow! Ethel Bond (146 avg) shot (300-955) and teamed with Ron Beasley (836) to a victory over Elaine Waters (902) & Billy Lang (840), James Davis (300,300-967) & Shelia Gray (764), James Harris (809) & Cozette Cowens (901) and the still hot Byrne/Schuetzle team. Other scores from the 111 team event: Paul Taniguichi & John Potts 278, Andy Anderson 266, Doris Hansen 262, Midge Gentry 256, Louise Waterman 255, Rita Carlton 246, Lillie Slaughter & Lonara Bee 242.

DIVISION 2

Monday: An awesome total of 1835 by George Atkinson (300,285-977) & Marion McNeal (266-858) led all 114 teams by a large margin. Second place went to George (278-916) & Ginger (246-848) Chavez followed by Osacar Favela (297-850) & Van Der Vegt (278-888). Fourth & fifth positions were taken by Carmen 242 & Floyd 290 Clay and the Palmers, Chuck 280 & Nita respectfully. Kudos to the following: Bill Barnett, Trent Moyer, Joseph Greenfield, Gary Anderson, Gene Autry & Stanley DeWaal 300's. Gagliano 298, Billy Lang 288, Rene Howe & Mc Elroy Lockhart 286, Jim Ziebarth & Dianne Fowler 280, B J Davalos 278, Candee Mar 264 & Linda Dennis 261.

Tuesday: Spectacular bowling: B J Davalos (300,300-970) became the first woman in tournament history to bowl back to back 300's leading her and her son Ron Thorson (280-896) to a smashing first place finish in a final group of 109 teams. Adding to history she bowled a 300 in the afternoon squad. The Mars, Candee (244-888) & Terry (264-852) placed second by three pins over the Fitzgeralds, Lee (242-834) & John (300,280-903). One pin behind them were Bill Barnett (300,290-1006) & James Rostello (730). Sy Galvin (280-857 & Derrick White (266-853) finished fifth. Scores of note: 300's by George Tucker (2), Doug Vander Heide, Joy Vicente, Bobby Lewis, Artie Jones, Nick Camba, Floyd Clay, Gary Anderson, John Potts, Bill Moore, Randy Mc Hodgkins, Quince Hansen, & Bill Ferry. George Chavez 290, Candy Abbott 276,

Wednesday: Saving the best for last the Fitzgerald's set individual and team highs for the tournament. Lee's (300,285,278-1016) tourney high series with John's (286-865) captured the team high 1881. Doug (277-880) & Jo Ann (898) Vander Heide finished ahead of the Mc Neely's, Roy (277-918) & Ruby (833) followed by Nita & Chuck Palmer (1736). Gary Anderson rolling his 3rd & 4th 300's of the tournament led the way over this group: Peter Cracchiolo, Atkinson, Robert Urban, Chuck Coe, Trent Moyer, Charity Musial, Thorson & Alfredo Ferrer. Outstanding scores: Benny Den Decker 298, Russ Valentine & Dick Hounsley 290, Terry Mar 287,286, Julie Rhoades 277, Bobbie Le Doux 266.

Tuesday Singles

George Atkinson (300-912), Bridgette Greb (905), Gene Villano & Regina Edge-Pugh (877), & Laurin Peterson (856) rounded out the top five of 67 bowlers.

All Events - Three day totals

Squad A: Connie Byrne 2798, Cozette Cowens 2545, Walter Stephens 2529 & Virginia Schuetzle 2506 led the way over 137 entrants.

Squad B: George Atkinson 2816, Charlotte Ontiveros 2668, Louise Waterman 2641 & Ron Thorson 2594 topped the field of 100 entrants.

High fives: Appreciation is an understatement for the Orleans staff of Mike Kaufman, Bob McVey, Fawn Worthen and the front desk personnel. Always on the spot to help keep things going as well as possible. Thanks to the directors under the leadership of Ralph Morton: Nancy Morton, Bob & Kay Scales, Dick & Donna Hounsley, Brad & Lucy Domes, Freida Pyles, Bill & Ruth Lang, John & Arlene Potts, John & Kathy McCabe & Gordon Benson.

July 23-25, 2012 tourney: Just around the corner is our tourney number 22 at the Orleans Hotel & Casino. Besides all the chances to win big at bowling there are daily brackets, side pots, share the wealth drawings and door prizes. See full results of our January tournament and get your entry for July online at funtimebowling.yolasite.com or call Ralph Morton 619 647 0541. See you there.

HAPPY CHINESE NEW YEAR

THE YEAR OF THE DRAGON

NORWALK—Chinese New Year is the longest and most important celebration in the Chinese calendar. People may take weeks of holiday from work to prepare for and celebrate the New Year. Legend has it that in ancient times Buddha called all the animals to a meeting on Chinese New Year and twelve different animals came. Buddha named a year after each animal and proclaimed that the people born in each animal's year would have some of the animal's personality.

If a person was born in 1904, 1916, 1928, 1940, 1952, 1964, 1976, 1988, 2000 or 2012 they are Dragons. Those born in Dragon years are innovative, brave and passionate and since the Dragon is a "bigger than life creature," you can expect the uttermost this year. Oh dear, next year will be the Year of the Snake and will be on February 10th.

Kegel Back on Top - Torres Leads League

by Aimee Gomez

DOWNEY—Top seed Gold Coast Hotel faced the Kegel threat this week. Kegel’s Rick Easley, who fell a pin shy of leading the league with his 260-256-231/747, led his team to four wins, with some assistance from Kurt Arakaki 265-224/675 and Kevin Yamauchi 246-213/645. Andrea Snyder 269-239/675 and Mike Cammarata 214-225-211/650 needed some help from their teammates to pad their overall win lead.

Charlie Kinstler 229-274/697, Paul Barraco 257-227/668 and Deeronn Booker 237-236/664 led Sysco to four wins over Heineken USA’s league leading Ramon Torres 268-245-235/748 and Larry Gray 26-245-212/663. Sysco came within six pins of a sweep, but Heineken managed to squeak it out.

Powerhouse Video took four from Linder Insurance thanks to Vernon Adams 226-218-285/729 and Bruce Williams 211-268/675, while Brandon Grant 217-224/621 and his Linders team managed to pull off the first game win.

ABTA got the best of Tifco Industries in the last game with a little bit of teamwork and a bit of luck. Mikey Villareal bowled well and led the pair with his 237/620, and Ron Peter got lined up that last game and shot 246/609.

Herzog Insurance won four from the struggling Bowlm team. Gabriel Martinez 205-244-207/656, Steve Gurrieri 212-231/628 and Will Jackson 223-200/614 led Herzog, while only Arnold Cheesman 256/626 found anything.

Tri-Star Vending continued their unfortunate plummet, this time at the hands of Erickson Foods. Ricky Kilgore ended his streak of not being mentioned in the article after shooting 218-258/624, and teammate Andy Clark added 238/615.

Brylaw Accounting made a small jump up the standings after winning four from Clyde’s Video Games. Larry Stephens shot 209-200-246/655 to lead his team while Billy Myers Jr. contributed a 235-224/630.

Threadworks pulled off a sweep of Pro Approach using some luck and Eric Snow’s 254/628. They jumped up to tenth place.

Take care and have a great week.

Mother & Son Win $11,111.00 at January Madness

LAS VEGAS, NV: What are the odds a mother and son could finish first and second in a tournament? Well the impossible happened at the January Madness event in Las Vegas as Ludee and Jderick Masangcay, from Vallejo, CA, finished in the top two spots at Santa Fe Station. Ludee, who is an accountant for a bank, won $7,777 for her victory while Jderick, who is a 21 year old student, earned $3,333 for second.

The January Madness tournament drew a record crowd of 357 entries and paid out over $20,000 in prizes. A total of 46 bowlers advanced to the finals which came from all over the country to compete. Storm/Roto Grip donated balls that were raffled off in every squad.

The January Madness event, which is owned and operated by Station Casinos and sponsored by Storm Bowling, was the fourth in a series of Madness Tournaments. The next Madness Tournament will be held at Sunset Station May 10-13. Details for the next event will be released shortly.

Since Station Casinos created the Madness Tournaments over 1,400 entries have been recorded and more than $70,000 has been paid out. All amateur bowlers are welcomed to compete in this fun handicap tournament with serious prize money. The Madness events even include a squad that is bowled with the lights out.

For complete results of January Madness please visit www.pinaclevents.com and click on the Madness Tournament icon. If you would more information you can call the tournament office at 1.877.900.6464.

NORWALK — With heavy rain, clouds and traffic congestion; we headed to Keystone Lanes for week 23 of this season. Thanks to Randy, Josh and Mary Lou for having everything ready for us to bowl.

High roller of the day was Kim Cato with 214 and 216 games to complete a nice 621 series. Cyndie Martin continues to find her groove with 203/225 games and 599 series. Additional ladies finding their groove are Dee Phipps 222/572, Ora McCormick 221/569, Maxx Paul 202/569, Darlene Hom 209/562, Dixie Scott 543, Terry Jackson 541, Mary Dixon 226/532, Doris Lewis 524, Mary Smyth 524, Virginia Gray 524, Audrey Thibodeaux 511, and Kathy Parrish 505.

High team handicap series today was Cal Bowl 1 with 2079. High team handicap game was Westminster Lanes 2 with 726. For the under 155 average, Audrey Thibodeaux had the high scratch series with 511 and Marilyn had the high scratch game at 184. Kim Cato scored the high scratch series in the over 156 average category with her 621 and Mary Dixon had the high scratch game with 226.

With only 7 weeks remaining in the season, the race for second and third place are heating up with Keystone 1, Cal Bowl 1, Westminster 1, Cal Bowl 2, Cerritos 1 and Valley View 2 within four games of each other. Westminster 2 continues to reinforce their lead in first place. Reminder: Balance of amount due for the Vegas bus and hotel is Monday, January 30. LAS VEGAS — We returned to South Point Hotel & Casino Lanes for our January Open across 4 days where we saw 469 entrants come out, join the fun and support the ABTA. We had a modest shot making the cut scores for the men of +74 on Thursday, +72 on Friday, +73 on Saturday, +72 on Sunday, and +81 for the Re-Entry. For the Women they were +54 on Thursday, +41 on Friday, +46 on Saturday, +33 on Sunday, and +49 for the Re-Entry. The Super Seniors added to the board (4 men and 2 females) were Esther Tambio (+37), Anita Smith(+18), Sam Sanicolas (+56), Phil Magno (+53), Ely Cruz (+53), and Art Windsor (+49). Super Seniors are men 63 plus, and ladies only 55. That would give us 53 bowlers making it to the semi-finals.

Week. Top Quaifiers for the Men was a 3 way tie with a +154, Virgil Hilvano, Tomas Chavez, and Andrew Navarro. For the women it was Rose Sicam with a +114. They all get a paid entry into a future regular ABTA event. We had Rose Sicam draw for the Match Series. She drew a 637. We had one bowler that bowled this score during qualifying, and it was none other than lucky Tomas Chavez. (We will estimate the Match Series at $300 at Covina event.) The last bowler for the 3-6-9 roll-off this week was Theresa Fiore. She needed to get four nine counts or strikes to take home $300. She did not have the full number of tournaments in the past 12 months to qualify. Theresa was not able to pull this feat so she took home a consolation of $100. We will add $100 to the pot, and it will be at $1,600 Saturday at Covina Bowl.

In our optional doubles, tops were Andrew Navarro and Bernie Navarro with a 1425 for $170. Finishing second was Emilio Flores and Tomas Chavez with 1422 for $150. There were a total of $1,880 paid out in doubles and 27 paid spots with low to cash of 1321.

After bowling all three games for the semi-finals, finishing in first was Mark Andrews with a blistering + 175. Finishing in second place to sit out the first round was the Pride of (Hong Kong) Vickie Wang with a +147. Andrews had the honor of drawing the Match Game worth $3,500. He drew a 168. After a review of all the scores bowled, we had a whopping (NINE) bowlers who shot that score were, Greg Velarde, Allan Calabio, Elvin Godoy, Shaun Suase, Ray Reynaldo Jr, Gina Velarde Jim Childers, Chris Buck and Brandon Bushrod. We will estimate the pot for Covina at $1,600.

This would bring us to our top 32 Match Play finals. In the first round, the fifteen losers were Danny Alcayde, Allan Calabio, Don Eide, Tomas Chavez, Michael Benavides, Kelsey Wins ABTA Las Vegas Open $14,350 at the South Point (L—R) Kris Kelsey (Champ's son), Evalinda Kelsey (wife), Champion Dennis Kelsey $14,350, 2nd Mark Andrews $4,000, 900 Global Super Rep. Dave Smart, 3rd Michael Davis $2,000 & wife Mandy, 4th Pete Van Asch $750, 5th Virgil Hilvano $750 & brother Victor Jr.

Phil Magno, John Feitz, Heidi Jaena, Ray Saucedo, Jeff Wu, Bob Godden, Sarah Magno, Milton Oaks, Miriam Galluzzo, and Rick Maousoleas with each getting $205 for their loss. In the second round the eight losers were Arnold Trias, Bedell Vasquez, Faye Josafat, Roland Sanchez, Greg Kankanour, David Owens, Sonia Coronado, and Vickie Wang. They each received checks of $220. In the third round, the losers were Kmel Cunanan, Adrian Pelayo, Kelly Wynn, and Jennifer Esquerria, they each received checks of $300 each. This would get us down to the final four bowlers. At this point, our horses would be paying anywhere from a low of $63 (Virgil Hilvano) to a high of $378 (Michael Davis and Pete Van Asch) depending on who would win. In this round we saw Dennis Kelsey (11th seed) bowling Pete Van Asch (9th seed) who is battling multiple health issues that include Alzheimer's. In this match it was Dennis who would continue his hot bowling and advance with a 253 to 225 victory. In the other match we saw Virgil Hilvano (14th seed) bowling Michael Davis (31st seed). This is another close match that saw Michael Davis advance to the next round with a 228 to 215. Virgil Hilvano and Pete Van Asch finished in 4th and 5th getting checks for $750 each.

Our semi-final match was all set on this Sunday Evening. It would be bowled on Lanes 49 and 50 as we were on the high side at Southpoint Hotel & Casino. In the weekly "horses" we would see Dennis paying $161 and Michael paying $378 if they would win their match. In this match we saw Dennis was on a mission as he would jump out to a lead and stay there til the end. He would finish with a 211/241 to 162/194 and advance to the title match. Finishing in 3rd place was Michael Davis, who bowled so well this week for $2,000. For those lucky "investors" that had Dennis as a horse, he paid $161.

The title game was set and bowled on Lanes 47 and 48. Mark Andrews, as the top qualifier elected to have Dennis start the match. That he did by starting with a spare. Mark came up and matched Dennis with his own spare. In the 2nd frame he left the 8-10 and only picked up one. Dennis would come up and double on his two shots to jump out to a lead. Mark was able to come back with his own strike and spare to give him 47 in the third. Dennis came up in his 4th and 5th frames with a spare and strike to give him a 89 after the 4th frame and a 21 pin lead. Mark would get another split in the 5th frame to put him down by 30+ pins. It would stay this way for the next few frames. Mark was able to get a double in the 8th and 9th frame, but could not get one in the 10th and paved the way for Dennis Kelsey to win his 2nd ABTA Championship in Las Vegas, finishing with a 196/226 to 179/210. He would take home $8,500 for 1st place and $4,600 for max. Cash and Carry, $150 for wearing an ABTA shirt, $600 for bowling in 29+ squads, $600 for Qualifying on Thursday Night for a total of $14,450. $4,000 went to Mark who bowled very well in this one.

Champion Dennis Kelsey is from Antioch and used a C System drilled by Raymond Ledesma. He is married to Evalinda with one son Kris. He would like to thank his wife and son, his coach Bill Hall for the fine tuning of his game and all of his ABTA friends.

Mark Andrews (2nd Place) is from Ontario and used a Hammer Taboo, and he is single. He would like to thank Monica, her daughter Nina, Debbie, Bobbie, Chris, and most of all Bob.

Michael Davis (3rd Place) is from Corona and used a Elite Sabotage drilled by Jack at Riverside Lanes. He is married to Mandy and they have two children Tyson and Brody. He would like to thank his wife and two boys for all their support and putting up with him being gone on Saturdays to bowl ABTA tournaments.

Pete Van Asch (4th Place) is from Las Vegas and used a Don Carter Columbia. He is married to Ria and would like to thank his wife for all her support, Bob Smith for all of his patience, ABTA and Staff.

Virgil Hilvano (5th Place) is from Glendale and used a Break Point drilled by Brandon. He is single and would like to thank his parents for all their support, his brother Victor, cousin Andrew, and this best friends Marvyn G, Godfrey, Kristine, Lawrence T., and Amy G.

The weekly ball sponsor winner of a 900 Global Ball was Vickie Wang (Wallace Ho & Vickie moved to Hong Kong, but she's back in the States to visit and decided to bowl ABTA). She won the OMG. Vickie bowled so well in Vegas too! Each time you bowl, you get a free ticket for this prize given away by our Sponsor, 900 Global. In our other raffle the winners were; David Emrich won an EFX Bracelet, Fred Galvan and Bedell Vasquez won a 900 Global 2 Ball Tote, Nghiem Tran a 900 Global 2 ball roller bag. Yen Lach, Todd Edwards, and Joenito Soon each won an entry to our Las Vegas July event. The rest of the results are in the payoff column in this paper.

TOM SMITH Is The Top Citrus Belt Bowler At Military Championships

by Frank Weiler
LAS VEGAS — Tom Smith retired from the Air Force and settled in San Bernardino to enjoy the good life and get serious about bowling. He was always a good bowler but retirement meant it was time to make an effort to become a great bowler. His mantra is: practice, practice, practice. His pursuit of excellence has not been in vain.

After years of averaging from 200 to 210, Tom broke through the 220 barrier in 2010 with a 225 average, followed by 223 in 2011. As April 2012 approaches, Tom is scoring at a 221 clip. Not bad for a guy over 65 years.

While performing at an elite level at home, Smith headed to Vegas last week to make his mark against the best senior retired military bowlers in the world. After twelve grueling games Tom found himself five hundred dollars richer. He placed fifth in Singles and in the top ten for All Events.

Smith averaged 221 for the tournament.

The Military Championships are held annually in Las Vegas to determine who are the best military bowlers: active duty, retired, and senior retired.

All participants must be on active duty or retired from the Department of Defense. The tourney is a scratch event managed by HIGH ROLLER that attracts nearly one thousand bowlers.

Tom Smith would like to thank MARV SARGENT for drilling his bowling balls and the BOWLING NEWS for supporting Citrus Belt and military bowlers.

BOB HILOVSKY Has Surfaced At Moreno Valley Bowl

by Frank Weiler
MORENO VALLEY - Citrus Belt Hall of Famer Bob Hilovsky is bowling at Moreno Valley Bowl and scoring like he did twenty years ago. Bob is averaging 228 in the Scratch Challenge League. He is second only to MARK DYER, who is cruising at a 236 clip.

For those who don't remember, Hilovsky was one of the first Citrus Belt bowlers to average 230 or better. Back in the early 1990s he and MIKE RICK of Redlands battled each other for Citrus Belt dominance. In 1992 they tied for high average at 230.

Hilovsky is one of best ever to lace up a pair of bowling shoes in the Citrus Belt. Thanks to the BOWLING NEWS we are able to let all of our old-timers know that Bob is well and scoring high. My thanks go out to WILL JUNE for tipping me off to Hilovsky's whereabouts.

CERRITOS/NORWALK – Hello there from the JAT Farm Club headquarters. Now that the holidays are over and my job has slowed down a touch, it’s time to catch everyone up on our most recent tournaments. With a three week break between tournaments and three tournaments to write about, I’ll be doing one writing about one tournament each week for the next three straight weeks. Therefore, this week we’re covering our special Christmas tournament, held at two centers over two weeks, in mid-December. I know it sounds stupid to write about something so long ago, but not everyone knows the details and these juniors deserve to see their accomplishments in print. For some this may be the only time they’re in an article and I stress that all of these juniors should be keeping a scrapbook of articles for college recruiting and for when they’re too old to remember.

The Christmas tournament consisted of qualifying rounds at two bowling centers. The first round of eight qualifying games took place on December 11th, at AMF Cerritos Lanes. From this round, the top six bowlers earned a spot into the bracket elimination round. There was some very good scoring throughout the day. We also took a break after four games and did a Last Man Standing event, which everyone seemed to enjoy. Some of the highlights from this first day of qualifying was Terrence Robinson 220-225-224-279, Bianca Taylor 245-268-223-226, Daniel Martinez 267, Baujee Harlan 256, Stephanie Zavala 255-237, Spencer Van Rijsbergen 248-253-235, Treven Goldsmith 233-225, Eric Torrence 225, Tyler Salverda 223, Thomas Iriye 222, and James Knapp 222. The six to automatically advance were Robinson (+116), Van Rijsbergen (+76), Taylor (+71), Martinez (+15), Salverda (-6), and Goldsmith (-16).

The following Sunday, we moved up the 605 freeway to Keystone Lanes to continue/complete this unique tournament format. Here we had a “second chance” qualifying round of five games. The first round scores were dropped, we welcomed in some bowlers that didn’t make it on day one, and we took the top eight bowlers from this round. The six bowlers above did bowl this additional round, only for match play seeding, based on the pin total of the two rounds. Besides, they paid – might as well play.

As you’ll see, the scoring at Keystone was outstanding and here the highlights start with Robinson 221-297, Goldsmith 224-222-269, Sarah Schneider 269, Van Rijsbergen 246-237-268-236, Kyle Duster 268, Taylor 247-259, Frank Aldrete 232-246, John Struckman 244, Harlan 236, Salverda 232, Karlie Loop 232, Jason Meister 227, Michael Ma 222, Iriye 221, Knapp 221, and Eric Mandzuch 220. Here the top seed was Aldrete at plus 33 and the eighth to move on came in at minus 61.

After getting the fourteen bowlers seeded, we continued with the open division’s format of bracket elimination, best two out of three games. The top two seeds (Van Rijsbergen – 2877 pins and Robinson 2777 pins) got to relax a bit with first round byes. The bowlers to advance into the round of eight, all did so in two straight games. Harlan advanced over Loop with a 252 game and then 237 to Loop’s 226. It was Salverda over newcomer David Schneider, Martinez over the other newcomer S. Schneider, Taylor (248 game) over Struckman, Duster (223) over Aldrete, and Goldsmith (288) over Meister.

In the round of eight it was Van Rijsbergen over Harlan in two straight, Goldsmith (254) over Salverda in two games, Taylor (222-259) over Martinez (234), and Robinson (236-249-278) over Duster (245-245-200) in three games. In the semi-finals (round of four), it took three games for Van Rijsbergen to dispose of Goldsmith (247) and Robinson (240) quickly put away Taylor (223) in two. And so it came down to the top two seeds and both of them seeking their first Farm Club title. This too was quickly resolved in two games as Robinson took game one 279 to Van Rijsbergen’s 227 and captured the title 227-191. Congratulations Terrence on your first (of many) JAT title. Next week, opening tournament of 2012.

NATIONAL DEAF BOWLING NEWS

by Connie Marchione

CONGRATS TO STAN BOOTH FOR HIS 300 GAMES ON 1-8

RIVERSIDE...Thanks to Ed Abakumoff for his superb write ups last week about S tan Booth’s perfect game and the deaf youth league being formed in Riverside.

Last year on a couple deaf tournaments Booth had strung lots of strikes and came close. So this writer is happy that Booth finally put 12 together in one game in his league.

Booth’s 300 maybe the first 300 by a deaf bowler this year as this writer had not from any other yet. Read below about Jim Theyken’s 298 on Jan.10.

Why didn’t Riverside Lanes report Booth’s gem to Bowling News to include in its Honor Scores on the front page?

KUDOS TO EDWIN MILLER FOR STARTING A DEAF YOUTH LEAGUE

RIVERSIDE—This is a great one and this writer hopes Miller is contacting USBC Youth department for help in start up one. USBC office in Arlington, TX has all to rescores he may need to make the work easier.

BOB JONES GOT 11-IN-ROW PLAGUE FROM USBC FOR HIS 296

WINNETKA—For his 296 rolled on Dec. 28th at Canoga Park Lanes Bob Jones received a congratulatory letter and 11-in-row Award from USBC. That’s Bob’s third 11-in-Row Award.

On Jan. 18 at Canoga Park Lanes Jones went on a strike fest starting off with games of 269 and 259 and lost his line. He finished with a clean game of 197 and instead of a big series he got a 728.

JIM THEYKEN HAD 299 LAST OCT. AND 298 ON JAN. 16

SAN DIEGO—After reading about Bob Jones’ 296, Jim Theyken reported that he missed 300 twice this season. On last October 3rd he left a 9-pin on his 12th ball for a 299 and 703 series in Jakes Singles Match Play League at Parkway Bowl.

Theyken said last week he left 4-7 pins on this 12th ball for a 298 game and finished with a 738 series in the same league at Parkway.

The lefthander, who just renewed his PBA membership for this year, said he would not be at Fountain Bowl for the PBA tournament there. He hopes to get a sponsor so he could enter in two PBA Senior tournaments in Las Vegas and Brentwood, CA this summer.

ABAKUMOFF TOPS DEAF TRAVEL AT KEYSTONE WITH 835

NORWALK—The bowlers of So. Calif. Deaf Traveling league found the lanes at Keystone Bowl tough and all eight teams bowled below their average. Only Ed Abakumoff and couple others hit over their average, Abakumoff led the honor rill of just 6 bowlers with the lobe 800, an 835 from 193-188- 220-234. His 835 was mire than 120 pins ahead of next three clustered with 700 plus as Francisco Navarro’s 709, Gorman Low’s 708 and Jeff Stansell’s 706. League’s leading average Bob Jones barely made the roll list by finishing with a 207 and the only other 200 besides Abakumoff’s two William Golyer’s 201. Ironically all six are the top 6 in this league.

The league leader, Navarro’s powerhouse Covina again swept 16-4 from Golyer’s 3rd place O County for its 5th straight sweep, bolstering its lead to runaway 27 points. Jones’ 2nd place S F Valley lost a hard fought battle 9-11 to Abakumoff’s 7th place Riverside as Riverside swept the 4th game for 4 points.

The league thanks Keystone management for having them bowl on their lanes. The league’s next trip dare is Feb. 5th at Jewel City Bowl but that is Super Bowl date and 5 bowlers are football fanatics and would not bowl on that date, So Secretary Treasurer Bob Taylor will see if Jewel City Bowl would accept the league on Feb. 12 instead of 5th. Taylor will inform the bowlers of the change.

Bowling Writers
Focus on Youth

NORWALK—The California Bowling Writers are putting plans in place for another spectacular luncheon at the Sacramento DoubleTree Hotel in June. Chairman Mary Lynly and Barbara Metzinger had a “taste test” of the menu being offered. Deciding we had all had enough chicken the fare will include Rosemary Garlic Roasted Pork Loin with apple-apricot sauce and vegetables and potato and Tri-Color Cheese Tortellini with Grilled Italian Sausage (can also be served without sausage) with Peas, Pancetta, Fresh Basil and Roma Tomatoes. Dessert is Chocolate Caramel Almond Crunch Cake with Caramel Sauce and Fresh Strawberries. Yum! Are you hungry yet?

Chef Charlie Conner visited with us following the taste and he was most cooperative in preparing everything just the way we wanted it. A testimonial from staff said he is the best chef they have ever had.

This year’s CBW luncheon will focus on Youth offering half-price luncheon for all youth who attend. To further enhance the Youth experience, International Bowling Campus Director of Youth Development Chad Murphy will be our featured speaker. Spearheading the formation of Youth Education Services (YES) which attracted noted industry members to contribute financially to the effort, Murphy says, “I am extremely grateful to see these leaders in the bowling industry step forward in support of our future and the YES Fund continues to be a way to unite all of bowling for the common goal of promoting youth involvement in the sport.”

CBW takes great pleasure in welcoming our members and guests to the beautifully remodeled Sacramento DoubleTree Hotel and thank our long time sponsors Eldorado Hotel Casino and the National Bowling Stadium. Keep an eye out for our flyer in the CUSBC delegate packets and info will be on our website soon. Save the date – June 9th 2012.

CHRIS ALLEN TATTOOED THE PINS

by Roberta McNaught

ANAHEIM—Chris Allen, who is known for his colorful artistic tats, left a few colorful tats on the pins last week in the 590 Classic. His needle point shots earned him a 967 series on games of 214, 257, 265, and 231.

Those joining the 900 Club were: Hong Kha 266/952, John Conway 268/912, Larry Nordstrom 235/905, and Ron Douglass 259/902. Other scorers to highlight were: Terry Brent 256/892, Norm Walker 233/889, Alan Bloom 247/880, Shig Shoji 248/856, Kantral Williams 229/829, Martin Angulo 246/824, Don Gardner 244/823, Bo Vrabel 236/821, Steve Sparks 232/818, Janine Ditch 224/812, Dan Baker 256/811, David McNaught 237/811, Janet Anderson 230/806, Eric Kim 245/802, Nicole Abbott 266, John Phillips 245, Nancy M. Smith 245, John Velasquez 240, Anderson Alcaraz 235, Jim Moore 234, Karen Bagnall 234, Dick McKenzie 234, Jessica Diso 230, Ed Hermance 229, Bob Gosnell 224, Frank Bellinder 216, Cora Bussey 216, Tony Chaco 216, Orlando Vanegas 216, Genka Cabatu 215, Joy McGregor 215, Rose Williams 213, Juan Sandoval 212, Miguel Rosales 209, Steve Basdakis 207, Rita Sparks 207, Adrian Bradley 208, Drew Parkin 203, and Jerry Roddam 202.

Our deepest sympathy goes out to Stacy Rider who lost her beloved Mother to cancer last week. More bad luck hits our league as we found out that Al Lara broke two fingers on his bowling hand and will be sidelined for the rest of the season. We hope he will be back and ready to bowl in the summer league.

BY NICE AND SWEET

STUDIO CITY— Why do I always have to start out by saying how great our tourneys are? Because they are, and most of you aren’t there to experience it. So we have a Mardi Gras tourney coming up and I know you want beads, so sign up now.

ADULTS:

It’s that time of year when we are in the thick of the league winning hunt. It’s about time you take a lesson or have a friend sign up for the Adult Learn To Bowl. Some people may need more help than others but it’s ok we have all forms of coaching available. Until then here’s the scores:

Paramount: Dan Fishcer 224/610, Greg Bowles 220/540, Steve Weinstein 576, Stephen Koppekin 211, Kathy Slechta 205/499, Charlotte Johnson 442, Amy Reinhard 365.

Tavern Guild: Tony Annibale 738, Mikey Witt 698, Darrell Tucci 696, Carol Clair 490, Tom Whitaker 278, Steve Sinn 278, David Quam 267.

Twilighters: Robert Woods 622, Ben Broman 568, Bob Riffle 565, Gayle Lee 465, Melissa Ryan 419, Dave Bevacqua 225, Steven Knox 221.

Kings and Queens: Jon Schell 611, Richard Fischer 579, Arlan Kahn 529, Amy Wasserman 337, Mark Tavares 244, Will Pisnieski 225, John Harnois 185, Lori Lapkin 122.

Funseekers: Pete Forster 694, Bill Devoe 672, T Annibale 650, David Dittlinger 636, Isabelle Vincent 602, Naida Angarita 524, Keren Shiu 509, Keane Murakami 258, Zoran Jacimovic 258, Jimmy Zelinger 242, Rani Jerushalmi 241.

SCBL: Rocco Fasone 738, Michael Gurrieri 729, Tom Wigmore 728, Nancy Garcia 492, Bonita Afford 455, Jennifer Felix-Shanno 454.

JUNIORS:

Can you believe that Barbara said she would retire once one of her juniors shoots a 300. Well, we are 5 deep and she is going strong. Maybe she is waiting until someone shoots a 900, and we just misinterpreted it. Here’s the great scores:

Senior Scratch: Max Korn 871, James Knapp 735, Daniel Cohen 257, Treven Goldsmith 246.

Senior Galaxies: Nick Reid 336, Jeremy Cutler 116.

Junior Stars: George Savalas 269, Jonathan Coleman 260, Lorraine Savalas 206, Alex Fried 101, Donovan Sylla 91, Roe Palmon 64.

SENIORS/DAYTIME:

We are trying to create a fun league for you that would involve something other than a trophy or prize money. Maybe we have a gift card league or a time out to a fancy place, it’s your choice so make sure to give Alma and Junior your feedback as pewr what kinda league you would be interested in. Here are the scores again:

Pin Pals: Judy Kautz 158/405, Kristie Burgess 399, Ellen Rngel 368, Shelly Djergian 179, Judy Kautz 158, Jane Samson 154.

Happy Timers: Gary Olsen 205/481, Russ Romo 190/442.

Coffee & Donuts: Charene Gaffney 187/502, Alba Donohue 473, Pam Vaughn 173/473, Hildegard Miller 441, Donna Klein 440, Pauline Lipin 170, Arlamae Shapiro 170, Roz Levitt 168.

Senior Social: Arthur Harris 209/513, Sam Marion 487, Christine Stark 186/464, Pat Olsen 149/414.

Joslyn Seniors: Gary Olsen 214/596, Jerry Rabinowitz 218/564, Don Thorne 533, Betty Dushkin 185/507, Lillian Kleinman 412, Teri Bonato 411, Allan Lotta 209, Ina Green 169, Kathy George 151.

Bowler of the Week: James Knapp has already bowled a “300” this year but his 2nd one was even sweeter. As all of our younger ball league bowlers sat back and feasted on pizza. James bowled the first 9. As the kids were excited James kept his composure and buried the next 3 strikes. Shouts were heard in San Diego because of James “300”. Great job and keep bowling your best.

Sweetness Quote of the Week: “Who is a skunks favorite jazz singer?” “Smella Fitzgerald”
