SCRATCH & HANDICAP MINI-ELIMINATORS READY

LAS VEGAS — The world famous Mini-Eliminators, which are now two separate events; scratch and handicap, are just a few days away with the action starting at the South Point Bowling Center in Las Vegas Wednesday, February 2 through Sunday, February 6th. Although hundreds of entries have been prepaid, it is not too late for you to enter as walk-in entries are welcomed.

Bowlers with averages from 140 to 230 have registered and you can join them for an exciting week of bowling. Over $250,000 will be paid out and over 60% of the bowlers will advance to the exciting Sunday finals. On Super Bowl Sunday, February 6th, the scratch champion will be going home with $20,000 and the handicap champion will take home $10,000!

Bowlers looking to enter at the last minute can do so several ways. You can enter on-line at www.minieliminator.com, call the tournament hotline at 1.877.900.MINI (6464) or just come down to South Point and sign up in the registration office inside the bowling center. No one will be shutout as we will be using all 64 lanes for the tournament.

For complete details on The Winter Mini-Eliminators please visit www.minieliminator.com or call the tournament hotline; 1.877.900.MINI (6464). The Mini-Eliminators are proud to have as it's sponsors; Lane #1, South Point Hotel and Casino, Kegel, Knockout ball cleaner, and Virtualtournaments.com. We hope to see you in Las Vegas February 2-6 as over $250,000 in prizes will be paid out.

"MAJOR MIKA" KOIVUNIEMI WINS PBA TOURNAMENT OF CHAMPIONS, RECORD $250,000 FIRST PRIZE

LAS VEGAS — Finnish native Mika Koivuniemi of Hartland, Mich., defeated top qualifier Tom Smallwood of Saginaw, Mich., 269-207, Saturday to win the $250,000 first prize in the $1 million Professional Bowlers Association Tournament of Champions at Red Rock Lanes.

After rolling a 299 game against Tom Daugherty of Wesley Chapel, Fla., in the semifinal match, Koivuniemi threw another 10 strikes on 12 tries against Smallwood to become the first international player ever to win the PBA's signature tournament.

"I can't even say what this title means right now," Koivuniemi said. "It was my third major and I have nine titles now. I hope I can win a few more and secure a spot in the Hall of Fame. And my oldest daughter is starting college next year, so the money will help."

"It helped to get past my first match," he added. "I haven't had a lot of breaks on TV lately. Even after I shot the 299, I held myself back and stayed focused. It would have been nice to shoot 300, but it's more important to win the title."

Koivuniemi earned the nickname "Major Mika" after winning the 2000 United States Bowling Congress Masters and the 2001 U.S. Open — both major championships — for his first two PBA titles after a highly successful international career where he won titles in 15 different countries.

"Mika bowled great. He won," said Smallwood, who earned $100,000 as runner-up. "He out-bowled all of us. He had a great look at the lane condition and he made the shots. And winning $100,000 can make you a good loser."

In the semifinal match, Koivuniemi came within a wobbling 10 pin of becoming the first player in PBA history to shoot two nationally-televised 300 games. The 42-year-old right-hander rolled a perfect game against Jason Couch of Clermont, Fla., in Windsor Locks, Conn., in 2003.

Koivuniemi easily defeated Daugherty, 299-100, because Daugherty's television debut was a disaster. The 35-year-old Floridian left seven difficult — if not unmakeable — splits in rolling the lowest nationally-televised game in PBA history. Daugherty converted two pins after leaving the 4-6-7-10 split in the 10th frame to shoot an even 100, erasing the 129 bowled by Steve Jaros in Lake Zurich, Ill., in 1992. Despite his record low score, Daugherty took home $50,000 for third place.

"I destroyed Jaros' record," Daugherty grinned. "I would have been more upset if I'd shot 260 and lost. I really wasn't nervous. I just threw the wrong ball and made some bad shots. Once I was down 50 pins and threw another split, I was just trying to get out of Mika's way."

"But I still had the most fun I've ever had in my life this week, including today. I'd rather shoot 100 today than earlier in the week. I made $500 a pin today. That's more than Mika made, pin for pin."

Koivuniemi began his march to the title with a 224-220 win over Gomez in the opening match when Gomez failed to double in the 10th frame. Both players showed early jitters — Koivuniemi leaving a pocket 7-10 split on his first shot and Gomez missing

LAS VEGAS—The Amateur Bowlers Tour, the oldest and largest private amateur bowling tournament club, kicks off their first of TEN MAJOR tournaments, this weekend with the Western States Regional event at the South Point Hotel Casino and Spa. This ABT Regional event is co-sponsored by the leaders of high performance bowling equipment STORM & ROTO GRIP Bowling Products. This event starts on Thursday, January 27th and runs through Sunday, January 30th and features a guaranteed first place prize of $10,000.00 with all bonuses, regardless of entries. On site entries are welcome. Entry fee for this event is only $85.00. Gold members will receive a $10.00 discount on each entry. This weekend's tournament is "King of the Hill" format. It also offers qualifying in squad blocks. This format allows bowlers to qualify for the semi-finals after scores from consecutive squads have been bowled. Each time the lanes are re-dressed, there is a new block of qualifying. We have found this format to work best for all members, regardless of when they bowl. Most of the MAJOR events are scheduled in Las Vegas. Just a short 4 hour drive up the I-15 for most southern California bowlers. More information on the Major events can be found on the ABT national website www.abtbowling.com or by contacting your local branch director. You can't win if you don't bowl. The next MAJOR ABT event in the western United States will be the ABT Spring National Event, which will be held at Sam's Town Hotel, Casino, and Bowling Center March 29th through April 3rd. This tournament is also co-sponsored by STORM & ROTO GRIP products and features qualifying by squad blocks, as well as many side events. This national event features two separate prize funds with First Place in our Classic Division (189 average bowlers and under) of $41,000.00 and $25,000.00 for our Masters Division (190 and over). More information can be found by contacting your local branch director or on the ABT web site. www.abtbowling.com

The MAJOR event schedule continues with the Spring Regional scheduled for Texas Station Hotel Casino and Bowling Center in Las Vegas on Thursday May 19th thru Sunday May 22nd. First place in this Regional event is $10,000.00.

The next MAJOR event of 2011 will be the ABT Summer Nationals, scheduled for July 12th thru 17th at Sam's Town Hotel Casino, and Bowling Center. This event will feature a first place prize of $25,000.00.

The year will end with our largest GUARANTEED first place prize at our $100,000.00 2011 Fall Nationals. This mega tournament will be held at South Point Hotel, Casino, & Spa in Las Vegas October 11th thru October 16th. This tournament will have a estimated prize fund of over $500,000.00. Entry fee in this event will be as low as $125.00 per squad.

The ABT offers amateur bowlers from around the world over 100,000 reasons to bowl in your local branch's weekly event. ABT's standard yearly membership starts at only $30.00. ABT's newly revised GOLD members program is only $200.00 and offers discount entry fees, FREE STORM or ROTO GRIP bowling ball, plus you can earn ABT Bucks, which can be used for tournament entries, and/or bowling equipment. For more information on the Amateur Bowlers Tour in your area, contact one of the local Southern California branch directors; in Orange County 714 600-8059, in the Inland Empire or San Diego 909 989-0649, or in the Las Vegas at 702 327-1343.

Erin Lenaham, and Paula Vidar of EFX Bowling.com were on hand to present their fine products as Paula explains a benefit of EFX to ABTA Member Joshua Navarro.

Getting Ready, as they practice for a Saturday Night Squad event, a January Record of 600 bowlers entered the event.

Andy Toro has a definite advantage as his pretty wife supports him at the South Point as well of every other event.

The Imperial Valley was represented as Mike Trull, Al Minor and Jerry Vaught of the Brunswick Zone Fame in El Centro were on hand as well as Ceasar Moore (not Pictured) Members from 10 states participated.

Bob having a good time with the famous Mou Liu Crew. Party Time Wed Nite!!

Some of the Fun Loving Nevada Members getting ready to watch the finals.

The 900Global (free) Demonstration of their products was enjoyed by all at the South Point as Dave Smart/900 Global VIP explains and fits the balls for demonstration and practice. The Raw Profit was purchased by many. We had a wonderful response and will again have this Ball Bonus in our Big One in July at the South Point. Reserve early Folks!

Bob Smith ABTA Head proudly points out the ABTA Sponsor "900 Global" was on hand displaying their fine Line of Products and Ball Demos. Bowlers were allowed to purchase the New Raw Profit with their entry for only $80. The Champion of the Event, Alvin Francisco, used the Raw Profit for the win and gained a nice $100 Ball Bonus and another $250 Product Bonus for using the Raw Profit. The win ball was drilled by Len De Camp in the South Point Pro Shop.

Another nice squad to roll as practice begins at South Point.

Having a Great time, and Ready to Roll the 8:30 PM Squad (L-R) Bryan Moore, Bella Ordone, Angel Hilvano, Danny Guevarra and Miriam Galluzzo in front is George Parker.

Billy Myers Jr. Leads with 726

by Aimee Gomez

DOWNEY—Zavala’s Taquerias continued their winning ways by taking four from Linder Insurance. Greg Neuer led Zavala’s with his 223-202-211/636 while Jeff Garrison pitched in a 229-202/619 set. Gary Duran of Linder shot 222-226/640, but without help, they only won the last game.

Raul Rosales 257-226/652 and Steve Gurrieri 201-214-210/625 led Bowlers Depot to four wins over the struggling Storm Products team.

Jon Brandon 269-235/684, Kevin Valmonte 214-258/619 and Kevin Yamauchi 205-241/602 led Katie Jakes Bar and Grill to four wins over Junior Amateur Tour’s lone six shooter, David Yamauchi 233-211/628.

Billy Myers Jr. 279-267/726 led the league and his Brylaw Accounting team to four wins over the Herzog Insurance that had a tough night.

Sysco used Vernon Adams 202-235-252/689, Paul Barraco 238-230/649 and Harry Wong 237-224/610 to take four from Key Container. Ezzard Jones 212-224/623 and Joe Torre 212-223/621 bowled well for Key Container, but they only got the first game win.

Clyde’s Video Games took four from Bowlm thanks to Greg Jackson’s 245-222/634. Tifco had a nice four win over ABTA evening thanks to Tom Jackson 201-255/627.

Threadworks got four wins from Pro Approach. Eric Snow 240-213/631 and Jon Reyes 211-253/621 led Threadworks, as Pro Approach finally got on the board.

Zavala’s is in first with 17; Bowlers Depot 14; Linder Insurance and Katie Jakes have 13; Brylaw 12; Storm, JAT, Sysco are at 11.

Take care and see you all soon.

ing a 7 pin in his second frame – but both recovered with strings of strikes. Gomez used his string of five in a row to take the lead heading into the ninth frame, but made his biggest mistake, leaving and missing the 3-4-6-7 split to hand the lead back to the Finnish native.

Koivuniemi had a chance to lock up the match with a strike on his first shot in the 10th frame, but left a 10 pin to give Gomez a chance. Gomez earned $40,000 for his fourth place finish.

The first prize and total prize fund were the richest in bowling history. The finals, which aired in high-definition for the first time in PBA history, returned to ABC for the first time in 14 years.

The Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour’s next event is the One A Day Earl Anthony Memorial which begins Wednesday at Earl Anthony’s Dublin Bowl in Dublin, Calif.

CERRITOS — Position Round was Monday and there were only a few team standings that changed. However, the scoring was good again this week, led by Doris Lewis with 222-611 and Myrt Owens took over season high game for (156 and over division) with 234. She also had a 545 series.

Others on the weekly honor roll were Karen Mauricio and Cil Moons tied with 530 series, followed by Mary Dixon 524, Roberta McNaught 212-520, Hedy Schoner 518, Dee Phipps 200-517, Betty Phillips 517, Vi Wilson 210-504, Kathy Parrish 501, Madeline Majick 500 and Shirley Zerbe 201.

Here’s how the teams finished after our third Position Round: Fountain Bowl #2, 43; Cal Bowl #1, 39; Bowling News, 37; Keystone #2, 36.2; Keystone #1, 34; Cal #2, 31; Cerritos, 30; Linbrook, 24; Valley View #2, and Fountain Bowl #1 tie at 23; Del Rio, 22.2; Valley View #1, 17. The 4th and final Position Round is slated March 7 which is also the final week for this season. The Team Sweeps and Banquet is slated on Monday, March 14 at Cerritos Lanes and Hometown Buffet. More about that next month.

Joan Roper reported Dean Snow, former Las Vegas league bowler, has passed away and we join Dean’s many bowling friends in sending sympathy to her family.

SAN BERNARDINO – Here is the latest scoop from the JAT Farm Club, whereby our last event found us at Del Rosa Lanes. We had a decent turnout (considering the distance) of twenty-two bowlers and a match play cut line of twelve. A modified PBA pattern had the bowlers scrambling for high scores, but no one bowler had an advantage over anyone else. That made for a very close and competitive tournament. We thank the staff and management of Del Rosa Lanes for the splendid accommodations and look forward to booking this center again in the future.

In the qualifying round we had Kirk Chui leading the way behind his tournament high game of 266. Nice game Kirk. Other reportable scores from the first five games was put up by Lawrence Merriweather 233, Adam Dubia 227, Ashley Dunn 227, Tristan Beaner 224, and Terrence Robinson 221. Kirk finished this round at minus 28, while the last spot to advance came in at minus 161.

In the match play round, the lanes held and gave up little, just like they did in qualifying. Scores to report was from Chui 257, Alyssa Hunter 236, Gabriella Mayfield 231, and John Struckman 224. Major moves during match play was from Hunter of three positions to get into the finals and Struckman, a jump of four positions.

In the finals, we then had the 5th seed Hunter (-61) taking on 4th seeded Dubia (-34). Here we had a nail-biter down to the last throw, with Dubia taking the match 193-191. Dubia then met the 3rd seed Chui (-33) and was on the down side of another tight match. Chui captured this one 187-184. Chui then faced off with the 2nd seed Mayfield (-12) with both bowlers struggling to find the line. In the end, Chui advanced once again with a 173-147 win. Now Chui had to face the tournament leader Struckman (-8) in the best of three games. Struckman (looking for his 1st title) took the first game 219-184. Chui fought back to take the second game 192-168. And in the third and deciding game, Struckman left no room for doubt, taking this game and the tournament title 208-162. Congratulations John.

Our upcoming tournament is this Sunday (1/30) at AMF Woodlake Lanes. We will be using the Open division format of 6 qualifying games and bracket best of three elimination. Let's have a nice big turnout for this one – tell a friend. Check-in begins at 8:15 and the tournament starts around 9:00. I hope to see everyone out there.

Next Tournament This Sunday, January 30 AMF Woodlake Bowl – Woodland Hills Mark Myers Strikes PBA Shark At Del Rosa

SAN BERNARDINO – The JAT made their way to the Inland Empire for a visit to Del Rosa Lanes. The house put out the PBA Shark pattern for the bowlers and the lanes played tough but scoreable. After 6 games of qualifying, Jerome Jordan Jr. was lapping the field at +188 followed by DeeRonn Booker at +70. Steven Manier +59 and Brandon Kraye +52 rounded out the top-4 and took byes in the first round. Low to qualify was Mark Curtis Jr. at -89. In the first round, Jeremy Glover took out Kevin Jones 2-0 while Devin Bidwell dispatched Mark Curtis Jr. 2-0. Mark Myers needed 3 games to advance against Daniel Updegraff and Andrew Svoren used 3 games to advance past Wesley Low Jr.. In the quarterfinals, Mark Myers swept past DeeRonn Booker, Andrew Svoren swept Steven Manier, and Jerome Jordan Jr. swept Jeremy Glover. Brandon Kraye was the only person who needed three games and a whole lot of pins to take out Devin Bidwell with a 269-176, 264-296, 278-245 win and an 811 series. In the semifinals, Brandon Kraye needed three to advance over Jerome Jordan Jr. and Mark Myers lost the first game but stormed back over Andrew Svoren in three. In the final match, two friends met for the title with Mark Myers taking game 1 – 248-232 and Brandon Kraye coming back in game 2 – 205-167. The last games was close but in the end Mark Myers took the title 202-196. Congratulations Mark on a nice win on the Shark! Watch the title match on YouTube- search for Junior Amateur Tour or visit our website at www.bowljat.org and click on the "Tournament Highlights" page.

Our next tournament is this Sunday at AMF Woodlake Bowl in Woodland Hills- it's our first trip to the North Valley in a while so I hope to see some new faces on the lanes! If you have any questions, e-mail me at director@bowljat.org. See you all this Sunday at Woodlake!

JAT Tournament Champion Mark Myers and 2nd Brandon Kraye

De La Torre's - The Latest Father and Son To Bowl 300

by Frank Weiler

SAN BERNARDINO - TONY and JAY DE LA TORRE are the latest Citrus Belt father and son bowlers to bowl perfect games. Earlier this season Jay bowled a 300 at the CALIFORNIA State youth tournament. A few weeks later, dad Tony bowled a 300 in his scratch league, at Arrowhead Lanes.

Father and sons (two sons) with perfect games in the Citrus Belt are fairly rare, but I am aware of a couple. Those I am aware of include: the DeMAIOs (father Ron/Corky and sons Ken and Daren), and the BURTONs (father Robert and sons Ken and Dennis).

In addition to the De La Torres, other Citrus Belt father and son bowlers rolling perfect games include Jim (father) and Bryan BARNES, Larry and Marc BYERS, Bill and Steve HOLLINGER, Marty and Mike NAKUNZ, Tim and Shelby SHIRLOCK, and Dave and Michael WILK. I apologize to any other father and son combos I am not aware of.

Even better than the above combos are the families where the father, mother and a son have rolled a perfect game. I am aware of two families accomplishing this. The WOOD family of Moreno Valley and the MURTISHAWS of Murrieta.

The Wood family was the first, with father RALPH, mom LORETTA, and son VINCE rolling perfectos. VINCE WOOD is the only California bowler to bowl a certified 900 series!

When son MATT MUR-TISHAW bowled his first 300 in 2009, his family (father JIM and mom ANITA) joined the Wood family as father, mother, and son perfecto bowlers. A few years ago, JIM and ANITA each bowled perfect games on the same night as teammates.

All families bowling in the Citrus Belt would like to thank the BOWLING NEWS for supporting their efforts on the lanes.

Mighty Miguel is Tough to Beat

by Roberta McNaught

ANAHEIM—Not only is Miguel Rosales a super nice guy, he is a pretty good bowler too. Last week in the 590 Classic he topped all other scores with 247, 224, 211, and 243 for a fine 925 series. The only other 900 Clubber was Tony Hale with 257/908.

Other highs were: John Conway 239/876, Janet Anderson 248/870, Ron Marcus 236/866, Martin Angulo 236/859, John Phillips 244/853, Melissa Fan 230/851, Rose Williams 224/845, Fred Voysey 223/842, David Wright 216/830, Juan Sandoval 257/822, Bo Vrabel 235/817, Kyle Osterman 224/812, Larry Green 247/807, Willy Bordenave 259, James Blythe 246, Shawn StAndre 245, Nancy M. Smith 237, Karen Bagnall 233, Janine Ditch 227, Jack Wilson 227, Norm Walker 226, Frank Di-Crisi 224, Anderson Alcaraz 223, Rey Ortiz 223, Tony Chaco 215, Bob Gosnell 215, Rich Heid 214, Tom Stearn 212, Adrian Bradley 208, Josh Boisenau 207, Roberta McNaught 207, Gino Vassallo 207, John Velasquez 205, Dahana M. Klerer 204, Dora Miller 200, and Jim Moore 200.

Our own Helen Petrowski and daughter Wanda, stopped by to say hi last week. Sure looken' good Helen. Terry Brent came by to say he would be back on the lanes in a couple of weeks and Carl Adinolfi stopped in and is looking much better.
