LOS ANGELES CLIPPERS

HOSTS CHARITY TOURNAMENT

NORWALK — For many years the entire Clippers team has bowled a yearly event at Keystone Lanes to raise money for their charity. THIS YEAR ALL BOWLERS ARE INVITED!

The scratch division is guaranteed $3,500.00 First, for a $150.00 entry fee. Plus, a re-entry opportunity for only $125.00.

For those preferring the handicap division, the $60.00 entry fee guarantees $800.00 plus a $1,000 entry to bowl WITH the Clippers on March 2.

On page 3 of this paper is the complete schedule of qualifying times, dates and locations. There are three qualifying dates leading to the finals at Keystone Lanes on February 23. NOT JUST ONE WINNER per division-

--- NOT JUST ONE PRIZE per division. This is a great opportunity to bowl with the "BIG GUYS" and win some BIG PRIZES.

Australia's Belmonte Wins Barbasol PBA Tournament of Champions

Strike on final ball clinches one-pin victory over Texan Wes Malott

ALLEN PARK, Mich. — Australia's Jason Belmonte, with a strike on his final ball, defeated Wes Malott of Pflugerville, Texas, to win the Barbasol Professional Bowlers Association Tournament of Champions by a single pin Sunday at Thunderbowl Lanes.

Belmonte, a 30-year-old two-handed player, defeated Malott, 219-218, after earning the top berth in the stepladder finals by 363 pins over England's Dom Barrett, but he escaped with his one-pin victory when Malott left an 8 pin on his first shot in the 10th frame.

Belmonte collected his eighth career victory and second PBA major title just a week after being named 2012-13 PBA Player of the Year. He also earned $40,000 and a celebratory Barbasol shaving cream pie-in-the-face from close friend and fellow competitor Bill O'Neill.

Belmo gets a facefull of Babasol Shaving Cream courtesy of Bill O'Neill after T.O.C. Victory.

"I got extremely lucky," Belmonte said. "When it really counted, I didn't throw a good shot and gave Wes a chance. I was pretty sure he was going to win. I couldn't believe it when I looked up and saw the 8 pin standing."

The victory avenged Belmonte's 214-156 loss to Malott in the 2013 U.S. Open title match, another tournament Belmonte had dominated until the final game.

"Other than the U.S. Open, this was one of my best start-to-finish performances ever," Belmonte said. "I'm extremely proud to put my name on this trophy."

RALPH MORTON’S FUN-TIME NO-TAP SENIOR DOUBLES TOURNAMENT RECORD-SMASHING JANUARY

by Gwen Manguso

LASVEGAS — We did it again! The 25th Fun-Time Senior No-tap Doubles Tournament held January 13-15 at The Orleans Hotel & Casino bowling center breaks another record! The best no-tap tournament around with the best senior bowlers keeps getting better! Generous prize funds are awarded for the Sunday blind draw, Monday thru Wednesday tournament play, Tuesday Singles and All Events. Hope you didn’t miss it.

The early bird blind draw Sunday, January 12th, drew a record 275 bowlers. Perhaps it is the mystery of not knowing who your partner is until the results are posted or the 3-6-9 format or the appeal of winning a free entry or just having fun trying to win a share of the record prize fund. Terry Isbell (300,300,298) & Gloria King (231) bowled their way to 1st. Finishing out the top five were: Roger Graham/Ruth Ramsey, Doug White/Manuel Herrera, BJ Chovanec/Lisa Isbell & Fred Bello/Erma Ransom. No divisional play was necessary because the pairings were computer generated to maintain team averages within 10-12 pins. A record number (21) 300’s were bowled.

Monday officially kicked-off regular tournament play which expanded to 3 daily squads and 4 balanced divisions (100% of 220 handicap) combining scores to form a single day event with a record number of 520 bowlers. Mike & Donna Gude won 1st place in Div 1. Sarah Moon & Terrie Emerick captured 2nd with a 3-pin lead over Pauline Janak and Gloria Billo. Petra & Ray Rosales and Ethel Bond/Helen Alexander rounded out the top 5. Div 2: Sherry Cunningham & Janice Blume took first place over 2nd place team Bob/Gerry McAnelly. They were followed by Roger Sears/Joyce Reynolds, Margie/Gilbert Barnett & Brenda/Charlee Kist. Div 3: Joe Migliaccio & Karen Lyons took first place by a wide margin. Earline Edwards/Paul Gomez snagged 2nd just 4 pins ahead of Charlie Baldwin/Patricia Butler. Dave/Darlene Schneider captured 4th pursued closely by the DeWaal brothers, Archie & Stanley. Div 4: Jim Barden/Tom Larsh burned up the lanes for a 1st place win. Tied for second were Ken Smelker/Mitzi Taniguchi and Dennis Suntum/Dave Schneider. Trent and Stephen Moyer squeaked into 4th place with a one pin lead over Donald/Teddi Vesey. Fourteen bowlers scored a 300.

Tuesday’s bowlers took their skills to the lanes. Div 1: Mike & Donna Gude kept their 1st place position above Robin Minor/Diane Tobin. Pauline Janak/Gloria Billo protected their spot in the Top 5 pursued by Deloris Tanabe/Dick Elgar and Paul/Jean Marshall. Div 2: Bob/Gerry McAnelly secured 1st place with a 15 pin lead over Sherry Cunningham/Janice Blume. Rounding out the Top 5 were Irene Villalobos/Mary Jane Brust, Annette Gudson/Linda Mitchell and Ron Miller/Robert Barnes. Div 3: Tom/Amelia Kutz bowled up a storm locking in 1st place. The teams of Hamp Bank/Erma Ransom, Amy/Steve Gottlieb, Patrick Hirano/Reynold Doi and Stanley/Archie DeWaal wrapped up the top five. Div 4: Joe Migliaccio paired with Jane Emmons bowled their way to 1st place ahead of Steve Van Winkle/Marvin Pettiford. A tight battle rounded out the Top 5 as Russ Valentine/Steve Gottlieb squeaked their way past Daryl Moorhead/Larry Turman and Ed/Carol Burke. There were (22) 300’s!

Wednesday bowlers attempted one more time for the big win. Div 1: Tom Claudy/Anita Lewis rolled their way to first followed by Doris/Ed Douglas, Connie Byrne/Virginia Schuetzle, Mary Cranston/Shirley Ryckman and Sarah Moon/Terrie Emerick. Div 2: Barbara Miller/Pam Sottile struck their way to gold! Coming in 2nd were Claude/Betty Dennis followed by John/Linda Bubnick, Merlin Plude-man/Vern Ecker and Jerry/Bob Bruce. Div 3: Hamp Bank/Erma Ransom returned to seize first position with a large lead over Patrick Hirano/Reynold Doi. A narrow 3-pin lead put Sam/Sam M Cracchiolo in 3rd place over Bruce Hilton/George Morrison followed by Robert Grier/Sy Galvin. Div 4: Jack Miller/Tony Truss rolled their way to 1st. Steve Gottlieb/Russ Valentine came in 2nd. The teams of Charity/Tim Musial, BJ Davalos/Ron Thorson and Hector Zacarias/Paul Taniguchi rounded out the Top 5. Seventeen 300’s were shot.

Congratulations to Mitzi Taniguchi who was awarded the honor of “Joe Bowler” and to Tom Dant the winner of the bowling bag and ball raffle!

Kudos go to The Orleans staff headed by Director of Operations Mike Kaufman, Bowling Center Manager Bob McVey, Dave Kaus Bowling Events Coordinator, Area Mechanic Joe Stewart and the Desk Staff: Darren Strock, Jessica Kellogg, Sonny Phui, Frank De Simone, Joel Corral & Randy Willett.

BURBANK — Here we are, nearly at the end of January! How does that happen anyway? Next thing you know, Valentine’s Day will be here. Love will be in the air and chocolate in the box. One of life’s cruel jokes is when we resolve to lose that excess weight and six weeks into our battle with sweets (when we are truly vulnerable) along comes that belovedly dreaded, heart shaped box. Chocolate is my vice, yes, but also my BFF. I come with directions: ‘When crabby and unmanageable, insert chocolate. Undesirable condition should clear immeadiately.’

“To win a major championship and player of the year in the same week? That’s pretty tough to beat,” he grinned.

Malott advanced to the title match with a 205-202 victory over Barrett, the 2013 PBA World Champion, in a contest where strikes were hard to come by late in the game. Barrett failed to convert the 2-8-10 split in the seventh frame, giving Malott the edge. But Malott was unable to take advantage, leaving four consecutive 10 pins to keep Barrett in the match. Needing a strike on his first shot in the 10th frame to win, Barrett also left a 10 pin.

In the second match, Dan MacLelland made a fatal mistake when he left the 4-6-7-10 split in the fourth frame and failed to convert. Malott struck on eight of his final nine shots to race away with a 248-199 win to end MacLelland’s hopes of becoming the first Canadian to win a PBA Tour title.

In the opening match, MacLelland, a fifth-year PBA player making his seventh career television appearance, eliminated defending Tournament of Champions winner Pete Weber of St. Ann, Mo., 259-211. Weber, a 37-time PBA champion who was making his 133rd television appearance, made two uncharacteristic mistakes – failing to convert the 3-10 split in the first frame and missing the 3-6-10 in the fifth – and MacLelland answered with a string of eight strikes to end the 51-year-old Weber’s bid for a record 11th PBA major title.

PBA coverage continues on ESPN next Sunday at 4 p.m. ET with the PBA Super Clash featuring a showdown match between 2011-12 PBA Player of the Year Sean Rash of Montgomery, Ill., vs. newly-named 2012-13 PBA Player of the Year Jason Belmonte of Australia followed by a CP3 PBA Remix at 5:30 p.m. Coverage of the 2014 PBA League season begins on ESPN on Sunday, Feb. 9, at 3 p.m. ET.

The Perfect Game

by Steve Felege

Adjusting Carol Mancini

Editor’s note: As the new year dawned, many of our readers resolved to improve. During the past few weeks we have begun a crusade to help them learn how to do exactly that.

Carol: It seems to me that one of the biggest reasons many bowlers never learn to adjust is that it’s so complicated. How and when do you adjust; what do you adjust? Can you simplify it?

Steve: Sure. It’s as easy as one-two-three.

Carol: Really?

Steve: It’s a process anyone can learn. Step one is simply to warm up until you can roll consistent shots.

Carol: You do that anyway.

Steve: Exactly. Number two is to see where the ball goes.

Carol: Nothing new there either.

Steve: Nope. It’s what you do next that’s important.

Carol: And that is.....?

Steve: Step number three is to “listen” (metaphorically speaking) to the ball.

Carol: Where do we go to learn to speak “Bowling Ball?”

Steve: Right here. Every shot you roll sends a message back to you. You need to pay attention.

Carol: You’ve lost me.....

Steve: There are only three basic messages a ball can tell you; “I went too far right.”, “I hit the target.” or, “I went too far left.”

Carol: That’s simple enough.

Steve: Remember, the more consistent a bowler is, the clearer that message becomes. How a bowler reacts to those messages is what separates elite from average bowlers.

Carol: How so?

Steve: When a ball doesn’t do what’s expected, average bowlers panic; elite bowlers become curious. Average bowlers compensate; elite bowlers adjust.

Carol: What’s the difference?

Steve: Compensating is a random change to a delivery which tries to force the ball to do what you want. It leads to inconsistency and low scoring potential. Adjusting, on the other hand, is deliberate and repeatable. The delivery is modified one skill at a time so that results are predictable. This is why elite bowlers are so successful.

Carol: Can you be a little more specific?

Steve: Sure. Let’s do some adjusting from a right-hander’s perspective. You deliver your first shot and the ball says, “I went too far right.” First, ask yourself these two questions. “Did I make a good delivery?” and, “Did the ball roll over its target?”

Carol: Got it! You can’t adjust anything unless you answer both questions, “Yes.”

Steve: Correct. Now, you just made a good delivery but the ball did not go where you expected. What do you do? After shooting your spare, say to yourself, “I need the next shot to go farther to the left.”

Carol: I never thought of it that way before.

Steve: Since I promised to keep things simple, I’m only going to discuss the most common adjustment. It solves most problems the average league bowler encounters.

Carol: And that is.....?

Steve: The #1 adjustment every bowler should know: moving the stance to the right or left. Using the targets imbedded in the lanes....

Carol: You mean the arrows, right?

Steve: Not necessarily. A target can be an arrow, one of the dots preceding the arrows, a particular board between the arrows, or even a three-board area the bowler is comfortable aiming for. For a bowler who uses a target, moving the stance left brings the ball’s trajectory to the right; moving the stance to the right moves the ball to the left. In our example, the bowler wants the ball to end up farther left, so he/she should move the position of their stance to the right while aiming for the same target. Adjusting doesn’t get any simpler than that.

Carol: Can I add something to that?

Steve: It’s your paper.

Carol: I’ve been told that for every two boards you move to the right or left, a bowler should move their target one board in the same direction.

Steve: You are absolutely right! If the ball is hooking more because the lane has dried a bit, that advice gets the ball back onto some oil. Good call, Carol. Now, there are other things a bowler.....

Dean: Time!

Carol: Well, that’s all we have room for today, folks. Join us again next week when we will cover some of those “other things.”

Barbasol and PBA Announce “Strike a Pose” Contest

ALLEN PARK, Mich. - Barbasol and the Professional Bowlers Association (PBA) have teamed up to create the 2014 Barbasol and PBA “Strike a Pose” contest. Contestants will submit their best “strike celebration pose” on the Barbasol Strike a Pose Facebook page. Submissions can also be posted to Instagram and Twitter using #PBAStrikeapose. The contest will run through March 26 when the winners will be decided by a panel of judges made up of Barbasol and PBA members.

Five winners will receive a year’s supply of Barbasol. A grand-prize winner will receive a Barbasol PBA Prize pack, which includes a year’s supply of Barbasol, a Barbasol Motown Muscle bowling jersey and custom Barbasol bowling ball.

“Barbasol is very excited to be able to partner with the PBA on the Strike a Pose promotion,” said Dustin Abels, Vice President-Business Development. “This is a fantastic way to encourage bowlers to hit the lanes, have some fun, and be able to win great prizes!” This season Barbasol has expanded its partnership with the PBA with the addition of becoming the jersey sponsor of the PBA League’s Motown Muscle. This contest is just another asset of that expanded partnership.

“Everyone knows the finishing position in any bowler’s form isn’t at the foul line but it’s their reaction to a big strike,” PBA Commissioner Tom Clark said. “The PBA is proud to partner with Barbasol on this fan promotion allowing everyone to get into the exciting action.” For more information on the “Strike a Pose” contest please visit pba.com and Barbasol.com.

DOWNEY — The LOS ALTOS TROPHY team with 4 solid 600's engraved their name —THIRD ROUND WINNER!

Game One ended up in a tie 760/760. Game Two was a game of carry, no carry, in favor of LOS ALTOS. Game Three became a game of now or never for THREADWORKS. The deadly taps left 10 pins that just sucked up their bellies and let the balls roll right on by. LOS ALTOS won big, 4 1/2 to 1/2. They couldn't have been more consistent. Anthony Burrell 607, Matt Jones 619, Zack Jellsey 619 and Derek Lee 622. GUYS—YOUR ON THE BOARD!

SYSCO stirred the pins, added some hot-sass and ground up the KEYSTONE foursome 5/0, which was almost good enough to make the board. Only one game off. Close ain't a win!

This coming Monday the league gets a clean start, a new pattern, and a shot at winning round four. With three of the best teams already seated, it's an open opportunity. Last week, there were more splits converted than 7 pins! By actual count I saw 12 splits (of all sizes and shapes) swooshed off the deck in the first game alone.

Round three is over! Lets pat a few backs! Big games for Kurt Arakaki (279) and Greg Neuer (278) in the Advisors Pot. Side-pots looked familiar! Eddie VanDaniker 236, Eric Snow 237, and Bobby Campagnale 270.

Ending round three, the league was averaging 196. Last week I promised to do research on how leagues average. I printed a stat sheet for 40 leagues. The result? 51% of the bowlers bowled above their average and 49% bowled below their average!!!! (What a waste of time!)

Football has the SUPER BOWL. The Ebonite League has the SUPER BOWLERS!
