“BROOKLYN STyLES” top “New York City WTT KingPins” to Win PBA League Debut on ESPN Last Sunday

Reigning PBA Player of the Year Sean Rash clinches victory with two strikes in 10th frame

ALLEN PARK, Mich. (Jan. 27, 2013) – Reigning Professional Bowlers Association Player of the Year Sean Rash threw two strikes in the 10th frame to clinch a 225-215 victory for his BROOKLYN STyLES team over the New York City WTT KingPins in the debut of PBA League team bowling on ESPN Sunday at Thunderbowl Lanes.

The STyLES, owned by Grey's Anatomy actor Jesse Williams, held a two-pin lead heading into the 10th frame. After KingPins' anchor bowler Pete Weber struck and spared in his half of the 10th frame, Rash answered with two strikes to lock up the win.

"It's a great feeling winning by yourself, but winning as a team never gets old," said

Rash, who served as franchise player for his team and drafted an all-star lineup that included PBA Hall of Famer Walter Ray Williams Jr., veteran Tour champion Ryan Shafer, and promising young players Ryan Ciminelli and Jason Sterner.

"Every single teammate gave me positive feedback, said they had all the confidence in the world," Rash said. "Ciminelli told me to throw a good shot; I told him I was going to throw the same shot I threw at him to win the Tournament of Champions last year.

"All five of our guys are great players. All of us can throw strikes when we need to," Rash added. "It shows my picks were pretty good. I picked up a team I knew would never give up, a team that would be competitively ready and guys who can get along. In team sports, everyone has to jell and that's what we had."

Sunday's win gave the STyLES 18 points in the race for the top five positions for the end-of-season PBA League Elias Cup finals. Owner Billie Jean King's KingPins earned 12 points as runners-up.

Sunday's PBA League round included the top five of eight five-player teams that had qualified over a span of four days and 32 team games on four different lane conditions as part of the PBA Detroit Winter Swing at Thunderbowl Lanes.

In the semifinal match, the KingPins and Jerome Bettis' Motown Muscle threw matching strikes and spares through five frames before the KingPins took the lead behind strikes by Tommy Jones and Jack Jurek. Open frames by Tom Smallwood and Mike Fagan in the eighth and ninth frames put Motown in a hole it couldn't escape. The KingPins advanced to the title contest, 226-191

In the second match, Motown anchor bowler Mike Scroggins threw three strikes in the 10th frame to extend his team's string to five in a row, erasing a 14-pin deficit and forcing Strikers' anchor Rhino Page to strike on his first shot in the 10th for a chance to win. Page, however, left the 4-6-7-9 split and the Muscle advanced with a 214-194 win.

In the opening match, the Strikers roared out of the gate with six consecutive strikes while the Silver Lake Atom Splitters, owned by comedian Chris Hardwick, didn't have a strike until Josh Blanchard threw one in the eighth frame. Terrell Owens' Dallas-based team easily moved on with a near-perfect 278-171 victory.

The Detroit Winter swing included five rounds of PBA League competition, with points awarded after each round. The top four teams after five rounds will advance to the Elias Cup finals, named in honor of PBA founder Eddie Elias, which will be conducted March 31 at Woodland Bowl in Indianapolis as part of PBA Tournament of Champions week.

PBA League preliminary rounds continue on ESPN Sun. Feb. 3rd with coverage of the Chris Paul PBA All-Stars at 1 p.m.

JUST BEFORE THE SUPER BOWL Chris Paul's PBA League All-Stars Tournament on ESPN 5th annual event benefitting CP3 Foundation airs at 1 p.m. on Super Bowl Sunday

SEATTLE — Los Angeles Clippers star guard Chris Paul, one of the founding owners of the new PBA League, hosts the Chris Paul PBA League All-Stars on ESPN this Sunday at 4 p.m. ET just prior to the Super Bowl.

The fifth annual fundraiser that benefits Paul's CP3 Foundation returns to Lucky Strike LA Live in Los Angeles for the second consecutive year with a celebrity lineup that includes several of his fellow PBA League owners and a host of PBA Tour stars.

In addition to Paul, celebrities competing in the doubles format competition include teammate L.A. Clippers forward Blake Griffin, former NBA star and ESPN analyst Jalen Rose plus PBA League team owners former NFL all-pro receiver Terrell Owens, actor/comedian Kevin Hart, comedian Chris Hardwick, Pittsburgh Steelers linebacker LaMarr Woodley, and Grey's Anatomy star Jesse Williams. PBA stars competing are Chris Barnes, Norm Duke, Jason Belmonte, Sean Rash, Osku Palermaa, Bill O'Neill, Mike Fagan and Missy Parkin.

In addition to the doubles portion of the tournament, a best-ball competition returns featuring the celebrity competitors plus actor Quinton Aaron. Williams is hoping to defend his title in the best-ball event.

In last year's trios contest championship match, Belmonte, Hart and Paul trailed PBA Hall of Famer Pete Weber, Griffin and actor Jerry Ferrara by only one pin after the seventh frame but consecutive strikes by Ferrara and Griffin set up a dramatic finish heading into the 10th frame. Belmonte's double in the 10th frame forced Weber to strike on his first shot to lock up the 187-180 victory ending Belmonte's bid for three consecutive titles.

Celebrity bowlers who have participated in previous Chris Paul events include NBA stars LeBron James, Dwyane Wade, Rudy Gay and Kevin Durant; National Football League stars Hines Ward and Reggie Bush, and hip-hop stars Chris "Ludacris" Bridges, Lil Wayne and Nelly.

Quitangon Wins $1000 in Ultimate Handicap Bowling Tour at Pinz

STUDIO CITY — The level of participation has continued to improve since the five bowlers who entered the very first UHBT tournament back in August 2012. The UHBT had another fantastic turnout of 29 entries on Sunday, January 27th.

Don Quitangon was crowned champion by firing +132, earning him the $1000 1st place victory. In 2nd place with a impressive +115 was another fine bowler Ferdie Alona, rewarded with $200. Alex Manalo finished in 3rd place with a + 82, earning $100. In 4th place was first time casher John Gonzales with a +37, winning $58. The final casher in 5th place was Matt Schermerhorn who shot +34 scratch score, which was good for $56.

The side pot winners were Matt Schermerhorn scoring 234 in the first game, Pat Manalo with 263 in the second game, and Ferdie Alona with another 263 in the third game. These side pot winners earned $21 each game. Thank you very much to all the bowlers who came and participated.

There will be no tournament during Super Bowl week so that everyone can watch the 49ers hopefully stomp the Ravens. The next UHBT event is Sunday Feb 10th at Pickwick Bowl in Burbank. This will also be a beat the board event. Hope to see you there.

Ralph Morton's Fun-Time Senior Tournament

The Orleans - January 14-16

Vegas Cold – Lanes Hot

by Brad Domes (Funtimebowling@cox.net)

LAS VEGAS — Despite dry cold weather in Las Vegas several hundred senior bowlers had fun at the 23rd Fun-Time Senior Bowling No-Tap Doubles Tournament held at the beautiful Orleans Hotel & Casino in January. A heavy flu season didn't help either but all went pretty well. Many arrived on Sunday and participated in a blind draw evening event, 184 to be exact. Lots of good scoring, special prize awards and a 3-6-9 format was introduced for the first time. Scoring leaders were: Ruby McNeely/Albert Abbott, Philip Galvez/Rose Parknaven, Ted Cozby/Dave Schneider, Dave Barr/Jane Felix and Merle Miller/Tom Rubio. 300 games were assisted by the 3-6-9 rule and were enjoyed by several bowlers.

Monday began the first of three daily no-tap doubles tournaments comprised of two squads combining their scores into three divisions to maintain a more competitive team average format. Division 1 was set for team averages up to 311, Division 2 for 312-346 with 347 and above set for Division 3. Opening ceremonies, for both squads, was highlighted by quadriplegic Jeff Lewis singing our National Anthem. A nice beginning. He proved that he can throw a mean strike ball as well since he and wife Carol took first place in Div 1 on Monday. They were followed by teams Ethel Bond/Helen Alexander, Mary Lou/Lee Peterson, Jerry/Joanne Ramaekers and Jerry/Bob Bruce. Div 2 leaders were: Jesse Santos/Sherry Penix, Thanh/James Morrow, Bridgette/Bob Greb, Lois/Bill Taylor and Jim/Linda Tilley. Wrapping up Monday in Div 3 the team of Terry Isbell/Lorrie Piuser led the way over Patrick Hirano/Reynold Doi, Lee/John Fitzgerald, Joyce Dakin/Russ Valentine and Regina Edge-Pugh/Maurice Hultz. All told 458 bowlers displayed their skills Monday.

Tuesday, with 446 bowlers participating, had its share of highs and lows with newcomer's Ed/Janis Tefteller winning Div 1 by one (1) pin over Lillie/Charles Slaughter who were followed by Ed/Doris Douglas, Ronald/Madeline Smith & Joellyn/Dan Weiss. Div 2 leading team Bill Taylor/Larry Combs dominated over second place teams (tie) Subby Stella/Everett Taylor & Ruth/Bill Walsh. Kathy/John Beard & Lois Taylor/Arlene Combs made up the top five. Div 3 hotshot division was won by Marion McNeal/George Atkinson by a slight margin over repeat top five placers Hirano/Doi. Only a few pins behind were the teams of Jess Easley/Donald Oakes, Julie Rhoades/Tim Teller & Candee/Terry Mar.

An evening singles tournament was held for the "never can get enough bowling crowd" with two (2) divisions split at 171 average. 70 hardy souls took to the lanes. Division 1 was won by La Dona Autry with Kathy Beard, Frances Huls, Gary Thompson & Raymond Diaz following. George Atkinson prevailed over Artie Jones, Terry Treft, Bob Ickes & Jim Robosson in Division 2.

Back to the daily tournament format on Wednesday or "getta way day" meant the first squad was on the lanes at 8:30am. Coffee??. Early times didn't bother Rose Parknaven/Pam Foster as they stormed to Div 1 first place over repeat team top five teams Weiss's & Tefteller's. Newcomer's Dan/Darlene Schneider placed fourth followed by the Kists, Charlee & Brenda. Jane/Ramon Felix, Jr found their way to the top in Div 2 over Ray/Karen Struchen, Kevin/Rene Howe, Joyce Dakin/Frank Kuhlman & Jo/Harry Burke. Save the best for last category. Taking the top spot and achieving the tournaments highest team total for all divisions was the team of Jeff Hill/Kenny Davis. Completing a trifecta of sorts Hirano/Doi again finished in the top five in second followed by Jean Shaw/Tom Dant, Matt Fuller, Jr/Gordon Benson & Kathie Fisher/Dusty Duffield. 442 bowlers bowled in both morning squads.

A final dash for cash. All events. 237 took part in hoping they would have three great days to take away some bonus money (split in two divisions to maintain some handicap sanity). Bowlers best daily series added for three days. Division 1 (165 & below) went to Dave Schneider, a first timer, with Patrick Hirano (trifecta), Bill Taylor, Pam Foster & Doris Douglas to follow. Division 2 led by George Atkinson closely followed by John Fitzgerald, Raymond Diaz, Terry Isbell & Reynold Doi (other trifecta).

A very successful tournament starts with a great support group of which this was no exception. Ralph & Nancy Morton's directors were at their usual best. High fives to Frieda Pyles, Fran & Les Williams, John & Kathy McCabe, Jerry & Judee Wood, Judy Altig, Brad & Lucy Domes, Dick & Donna Hounsley, Tom & Valerie Muir and Gordon Benson.

Needless to say the Orleans staff under the leadership of Director of Bowling Mike Kaufman was exemplary . Bob McVey & Fawn Worthen finalizing lineups, lanes & reports. Thanks to the Sunday thru Wednesday desk crew of Mark Watkins, Darren Strock, Breann Larkin, Joel Corral & Sonny Phui.

ABTA at Action Lanes SUPER BOWL EVENT Free Pools & Contests

LAS VEGAS — We returned to South Point Hotel & Casino for our annual 4 day January Open, and saw 409 entries come out. The cut scores for the men were + 64 on Thursday, + 83 on Friday, + 50 on Saturday, + 38 on Sunday and + 73 for the Re-Entry on Sunday. For the Women they were + 61 on Thursday, + 43 on Friday, + 17 on Saturday, + 54 on Sunday and + 50 for the Re-Entry on Sunday. The Super Seniors added to the board (two men and one Woman) Bobbie McCollum +24, Sherly Agustin -20, Mike Bousquet + 47, Jack Trongale +47, Tony LeoGrande +40. Super seniors are men 63 and over, and for the women you just need to be a young 55. That would give us 93 bowlers making it to the semi-finals.

The High qualifiers for the tournament were George Parker for the men with a +164 and for the women it was Annaliza Agoncillo with a + 118. They will get a paid entry into a future regular ABTA event. Each week our top seed draws the Match Series, and this time it was worth $648. George would draw the score and he drew a 388. We had one bowler that bowled the score and it was Lin Lai. The sweet lady took home $1,092. We will estimate the Match Series at $400 at Action Lanes event. This week it was Vuong Do that would shoot for the 3-6-9 pot, he would miss on his second shot. He got a $100 consultation. We will go for $2,300 next week at Action Lanes.

In our optional doubles, finishing first were Deborah Sanders and George Parker with a 1421 for $140. Finishing in second was Ed Del Mundo and Je Je Gabriel with a 1412 for $120. There was a total of $1,410 paid out in doubles and 23 paid spots with low to cash of 1331.

After bowling the semi-finals; finishing in first was Chris Buck who parlayed a 289 scratch game to lead with a +205. Finishing in second was Don Johnson at a +150. Don sat out the first round. Mr. Buck had the honor of drawing the Match Game worth $3,500. He drew a 251. We had no bowlers who shot that score. We still have one full pot, so it will be $3,500 at Action Lanes with a second pot started that is at $414.

This would bring us to our top 32 Match Play finals. In the first round, the fifteen losers were Mary Huynh, Pattie Brode, Deborah Sanders, Marife Catalasan, Kelly Wynn, George Alford Jr, Fred Galvan, William Gannon, Marina Suos, Justin Ziegler, Steven Alford, Jun Reyes, Robert Ricketts, Rick Masangay, and Bernie Navarro, they got $200. In the second round, the eight losers were Tessie Sanicolas, Edgardo Talavera, Giang Huynh, Tony Knuth, Lordan Ferguson, Kristine Soliman, David Emrich, and Don Johnson with each getting checks of $220. In the third round, we would see Shaun Suase down Peechit Butranon 216/259 to 153/182. George Parker bowling John Samson, 237/269 to 149/176. Peter Arsenault fell to Roland Suase by a 234/285 to 190/220. In the final match of the round it was Jon Barraca edging Tony LeoGrande 223/263 to 154/201 to advance. Losers in round four got $330.

This would get us down to the final five bowlers. The weekly horses are paying a low of $87, George Parker, to a high of $164, Shaun Suase. In one match, the eighth seed Roland Suase vs Jon Barraca the ninth seed. This was another close match that went down to the end with Jon pulling out this match to deny a possible father/son semi-final match with a 201/246 to Rolands 175/226. In the other match, it was the son Shaun Suase the fifteenth seed bowling George Parker the fifth seed. This match was not close as Shaun was on a mission to make it to the top. He finished with a 226/279 to 179/211 to advance. George and Roland finished in fourth and fifth getting checks for $725 each.

Our semi-final match was all set. We would see Shaun paying $164 and Jonathan paying $98 (horses) if they would win their match. Both bowlers opened up with strikes and spares, close throughout but, Shaun would maintain his lead of 13 pins due to handicap at that point. In the fourth, Shuan got another strike while Jon was only able to get a spare. Shaun jumped out to a 23 pin lead and continued to spare for the next 4 frames while Jon was not able to get a double, Shaun would maintain his lead of Buck Wins ABTA Open $6,300 at the South Point (L—R) Dave Smart, George Parker 4th $725, Jonathan Barraca 3rd $1,500, Cynthia Buck Semi Finalist, Chris Buck (Champion $6,300), Shaun Suase Runnerup $3,000, Roland Suase 5th, $725 Cherry Suase (Roland's daughter), Tony Leogrande 8th $350.

20 pins going to the tenth. Jonathan was not able to get strikes in the tenth and thus it was Shaun who would advance to the title match and a chance to bowl for the $6,000 first plac. They finished with a 190/243 for Shaun to 194/234 for Jonathan. Jonathan would take home $1500 for his third place finish. For those lucky "investors" that had Shaun as a horse, he paid $164.

The title game was all set. It would be top qualifier Chris Buck from Las Vegas going against Shaun Suase. Chris started the match with a strike, that brought up Shaun who started with a strike and spare to take a 18 pin lead. Chris would miss an 8 pin in the second for an open, and get a spare in the third. Shaun opened in the third but still maintained an 18 pin lead after three. Shaun would get a strike in the fourth to bring up Chris who opened again in the fourth and picked up a spare in the fifth. Shaun came up in the fifth and left a split and open to put the lead back to 18 pins. He would miss a 10 pin in the sixth as it appeared the nerves were starting to set in. Chris came up in the sixth and got a strike, then followed that up with another in the seventh. Shaun came up in the seventh with a spare but another open in the eighth would open the door wide for Chris. Chris would get strikes in the eighth and ninth frames to take a commanding lead and hold on to his first ABTA title with a 199/235 to 128/181. He would take home $6,000 for the victory and an additional $300 for qualifying on Friday night to give him $6,300. Shaun would take home $3,000 for his second place finish.

The Perfect Game

by Steve Felege

Call placed by Carol Mancini
Today’s Story: A Charlie Brown Bowling Dream

Phone: Ring-ring.....ring-ring...

Steve: Hullo?

Carol: Steve?

Steve: Yeah it’s be, Carol. What’s up?

Carol: I’m bored. The Sudoku puzzle was way too easy, Dean’s busy and Lillian’s been on the phone all night. I don’t have anyone else to play with so I decided to call you.

Steve: Very nice. I’b overwhelmed by your sincerity.

Carol: What’s wrong with your voice? You sound terrible!

Steve: I have a code.

Carol: A code? What’s a code?

Steve: It’s not a code....it’s a code! I caught a code....AAAH.....AAAH....CHOOO!

Carol: GESUNDHEIT!! Oh, a cold.....why didn’t you just say so. Are you taking anything for it?

Steve: Yeah, it’s an old fabily recipe.

Carol: How’s that working out for ya?

Steve: Uh, not too bad.....but it causes really weird dreads.

Carol: Like what? Am I in them?

Steve: No, but Lucy is.

Carol: Lucy Seiple?

Steve: No, Lucy from “Peanuts”. We’re at Del Rio Lanes, alley nubber eight....

Carol:where Bertha threw you down to the arrows?

Steve: Thanks for rebinding be, but yeah, right there! Anyway, Lucy is kneeling at the foul line holding a football upright with her index finger. She says, “Hey, Charlie Brown! How about if I hold the ball and you cub running up and kick it! Okay?

Carol: Sounds familiar.

Steve: So I start running down the approach cuz I’b gonna kick that ball all the way to the boon!

Carol: And as you kick she pulls the ball away and you crash onto your back. Right?

Steve: I have no idea! As I kick, I see that her football has changed into a sixteen pound bowling ball!!!

Carol: Sounds like you come out on the short end of the stick whether she pulls it away or not!

Steve: You got that right, but that’s when I wake up!

Carol: You know, I’ve been told that dreams have messages hidden in them.

Steve: The bessage is that I bixed up a really potent batch of Dad’s elixir!

Carol: Or how about this? There are two types of Lucy’s (bowlers) in this world: Peanuts and Seiples. You don’t like to bowl with a bunch of peanuts because you can’t trust them. Bowlers like Lucy Seiple, on the other hand, are teammates you can count on!

Steve: I couldn’t have said it better byself.

Carol: So you really don’t know what Lucy did at the end of that dream?

Steve: Nope. Baybe your readers have an idea.

Carol: I’ll ask them. Take care of yourself coach and we’ll talk again later.

Steve: Ah.....AAH..... AAAAAAH.....nothing.....whew! AAH.....CHOO

Carol: GESUNDHEIT!! !!!!!

Steve: I think I just whorked up a lung.....

Carol: Well folks, what do you think? Did Lucy pull the ball away and send Steve sliding down lane eight again, or did she let him smash his poor little tootsies into a sixteen pound LT-48? Email your comments to us at news@californiabowlingnews.com.

Bowling News is proud to bring you....

Dean of Bowling Writers, PBA & USBC Hall of Fame

THEY SAID IT WELL.

“We all live under the same sky, but we don’t all have the horizon.” — KONRAD ADENAUER (That’s why, though they essentially compete in the same sport, some bowlers are happy in their so called fun league, while others strive for nothing less than a national pro championship.)

“We cannot advance without experiment in living, no wise man tries every day what he has proved wrong the day before.” — JAMES ADAMS (Don’t make the same mis-take over and over again, make new ones.)

“Make the most of yourself, for that is all there is of you.” — RALPH WALDO EMERSON (Don’t try to copy others too closely, work with what you have.)

“Don’t part with your illusions. When they are gone you may still exist but you have ceased to live.” — MARK TWAIN (You can roll a 300 game or 900 series or be another Earl Anthony, at least in your fondest dreams.)

“Although men are accused of not knowing their own weakness, yet perhaps few know their own strength. It is in men as in soils where sometimes there is a vein of gold which the owner knows not of.” — SWIFT (And that’s why unknowns and underdogs can upset the form and why some who always seemed to fold, turn around and come up with an unexpected, but inspired performance.)

“It is not by the gray of the hair that one knows the age of the heart.” — SIR HENRY BULWER (Don’t ever count those seniors, veterans, elders or whatever you call them, out.)

“The winds and waves are always on the side of the ablest navigators.” — EDWARD GIBBON (And so it is that the first thing a bowler must learn is how to adjust and adapt to varying lane conditions.)

”What is defeat? Nothing but education, nothing but the first step to something better.” — WENDELL PHILLIPS (When you lose, there is nowhere to go but up, and that fits most bowlers because there will always be so many more losers than winners.)

“Nobody’s perfect, and I’m the perfect example.” — SUZY SUTTON (Could have swore Marshall Holman said that.)

“A vacation is what you take when you can no longer take what you’re been taking.” — EARL WILSON (And it’s what you do when you’re in such a bad slump that you count splits and misses in your sleep when you’re supposed to be adding up strikes and spares.)

“Practice courtesy. You never know when it might become popular again.” — BILL COPELAND (Do it in bowling all the time and your opponent will become flustered and confused.)

“If all the year were playing holidays, to sport would be as tedious as to work.” — SHAKESPEARE (A good argument to cut down on some of those long league schedules.)

“There’s a funny thing about trouble. It starts out as being fun.” — NONNEE COAN (And so do bowling troubles.)

“As there are misanthropists or haters of men, so also are there misologists or haters of ideas.” — PLATO (You’ve met them, there are a few at every type of bowling meeting.)

“If you can meet with triumph and disaster, and treat those two imposters just the same...then you are a man, my son.” — RUDYARD KIPLING (And, man or woman, it you can do just that, you’re a bowler’s bowler.)

THERESE LLOYD’S Big Monday

by Frank Weiler

REDLANDS and MURRIETA - Therese Lloyd celebrated the new year in a big way while competing in two scratch leagues on the same day. Every Monday she bowls in Empire Bowl’s Noon-lighter Senior Scratch League at noon and then drives fifty miles to Cal Oaks Bowl for the 600 Scratch Trio League at 6 PM.

That’s competing in two scratch leagues in a matter of hours!

Though she is a super senior, Therese cranks out at least one 600 series every week and maintains an average near 190. Recently Therese had a really “BIG MONDAY” bowling two 600 series in one day.

On her big day, Therese started in the afternoon with a 644 (163 - 225 - 256) series, which outpaced all the leagues ladies and all but two of the guys. Her 256 game is high for women for the season.

In the evening her 607 (181 - 225 - 201) topped her team and led to a 15 to 10 match point victory. The Citrus Belt has many great senior lady bowlers and Therese Lloyd is one of the best. Therese asked me to thank the BOWLING NEWS for supporting Citrus Belt lady bowlers.

KEGEL’S JOHN DAVIS PASSES

ARLINGTON, TX — The Bowling Proprietors’ Association of America (BPAA) received word today that Kegel founder and CEO John M. Davis passed away early this morning at his home in Winter Garden, Florida. He was 64.

In the announcement from Kegel, the company said John was a very generous and compassionate man and absolutely loved the sport of bowling. He built Kegel around the principles of taking care of others, no matter the cost.

In 2012, Davis was recognized by BPAA with its V.A. Wapensky award which is presented to an individual who has made a major contribution to the advancement of the bowling industry.

John leaves behind a legacy that will impact the sport of bowling and those who knew him forever. He will be sadly missed by his mother, wife, four brothers, three children, and six grandchildren, along with his extended family at Kegel and throughout the bowling industry.

Arrangements are pending.

LEE FITZGERALD IS The “New” Del Rosa Lanes Youth Director

by Frank Weiler

SAN BERNARDINO - Manager RON SANDUSKY has appointed Lee Fitzgerald as the “New” Youth Director for the “New” Del Rosa Lanes.

Lee has over twenty years experience managing youth programs.

Beginning in 1990 at San Hi Lanes she only needed a few years to grow the youth program to one occupying thirty-two lanes. When San Hi closed, Lee took her talents to the old Del Rosa Lanes in 2002. She grew that program to equal the number of participants at San Hi. I think she will do it again.

Lee is starting by offering a LEARN TO BOWL Program every Saturday morning at 9:30 A.M. Every young person seventeen years and under is invited to participate. For just $7.00 a week every youngster will receive a free shirt and free lessons, while bowling games. Coaches include former PBA member TOM ANDRES, and certified instructors MARTY COYAZO, LEE FITZGERALD, and WILLIE CHANG WO.

For details please ask for Ron Sandusky or Lee Fitzgerald at 909-886-4675. Ron wishes to thank the BOWLING NEWS for helping to get Del Rosa Lanes flying high again. Our industry needs every success it can achieve. When a center succeeds we all succeed. More centers mean more jobs, more leagues, and more bowlers. GOOD LUCK Lee, we wish you the best.

BURBANK — Once again, it's hard to tell whether it is winter or spring, or even summer outside. One day we freeze and the next we're back in shorts and tank tops. One thing you can count on though, is the climate is al-ways the same in the bowling center! It may not be the climate you prefer... senior bowlers tend to freeze while the younger group is crying for air conditioning. Whatever it is, it's always friendly!

I hope none of you were hit hard by the flu bug. It has taken a real bite out of so many people this year. As bow-lers, you may want to reconsider the high fives until things settle down. Of course you could always carry the old hand sanitizer! Whatever you do, take care of yourselves so that you don't miss any of your bowling leagues.

New Sponsor ‘FINANCIAL ADVISORS’ is Adding Money to Super Pots and Sweepers

The Financial Advisors Super Sweeper Sidepot

$10 weekly entry fee per bowler, with half of the money being paid out each week, and the other half going towards the huge payouts on sweeper night at the end of the season. With 47 entries on Monday, the Financial Advisors sidepot is looking at $235 in the weekly sidepot and $9000 estimated for sweeper night. The top three series will get paid, as well as the top 16 games bowled that night. Bowlers are eligible to cash in each game. Financial Advisors Super Sweeper Sidepot, will be adding $1,000 to the total collected. If you win 2 Super Pots all season you'll be ahead before we even get to sweepers with the $9000 payout. 100% of all money collected will be paid out for the season.

BOWLIUM BAGS FOUR
CLYDE’S VIDEO CLAIMS ONE

DOWNEY — The Monday night fights are always fun to watch but frustrating for the contenders. And this week was no exception. BOWLIUM didn’t play games with CLYDES team, it was war! Ramon Torres rolled the high game on the pair—277. The one game CLYDES won was #2 (805/779). The other two games were untouchable and the final count was 2420/2250. BOWLIUM has a five game lead over next weeks opponent, SYSCO. If I know the SYSCO “servicemen”, (who have already won a round) they won’t be giving away any pins to BOWLIUM! Every pin will be earned. SYSCO clobbered KEGEL, 2447 to 2214. Ramiro Garcia’s 690 needed some help. Another good match was between GJC SERVICES and JUNIOR AMATEUR TOUR. GJC won 4 big points. Over-all pin fall 2337/2298 made the games seem close. Only game one 770/761 was a mark either way. Another “looked close” set was PRO APPROACH and HERZOG INSURANCE. The over-all pin fall for PRO APPROACH 2591, 2525 for HERZOG. HERZOG had a 902 first game, PRO APPROACH had a 902 third game! Final score? PROS 4, HERZOGS 1. Just checked THREADWORKS. They have definitely sewed up last place. (Sorry, I really tried not to say that.) Maybe this team needs some time in the “sweat shop” or PRACTICING. Eric, set up some time at Cal. I’m rootin’ for you next round. Side-pots? We got ‘em. Keith Laing 244, Ramiro Garcia 256, Mike Villarreal 257 and The Financial Advisor Pot winner was ——— Raul Rosales! Or was that Spanky Rosales? I got a couple of calls about last weeks story listing past touring pros, local favorites and WOMEN. Let’s add Sherman Joseph, Barry Asher, Paula Vidad, Robin Romeo, Tori Romeo, Michelle Silver, Stacy Rider, Jim Burke, P.J. Carroll, Carey Hoffman and Mike McGrath. Mike now writes for the Bowlers Journal!!
