Mother Mildred & Dennis Wayne Roach (1947-2005)

Dennis Roach Suffers Fatal Heart Attack

NORWALK — The local bowlers were shocked to hear that Dennis Roach died suddenly Saturday evening of a heart attack.

Dennis was born June 19, 1947 in Maywood, California.

His bowling career started at age 7. His love of the game grew as his average grew. The only time spent away from bowling was four years in the Army during the Vietnam War.

Dennis was a P.B.A. member early on. Bowled P.C.B., A.B.T.A., and Donkee on a regular basis. Not only a good singles bowler, Dennis was a team player. Currently he was a member of the Paint Manufacturers League at Keystone and the Friday Vegas at Del Rio Lanes.

Dennis is survived by his mother Mildred (his number one fan), a daughter Denise Flores, son Jonathan Roach, five grandchildren, and two daughters-in-law.

Dennis had 32, 300 games on record, numerous 800s and champion titles.

The services will be Thursday, February 3, 2005 at 11:00 a.m., Allen Funeral Service, 6435 So. Eastern Ave. in Bell Gardens.

The High School Open Offers USA Junior Gold

VENTURA—Here's another chance for those of you, High Schoolers, who haven't qualified for the USA Junior Gold Tournament this July in Indiana. Two qualifiers will be run during "The High School Open". Participation is $ 30.00 per six game round and must be paid before the tournament starts. One in five participants will advance. Proof of membership is required. Applications will be available on site at the cost of $30.00

The High School Open Bowling Championships are just around the corner. Mark your calendar, February 26 & 27.

We have had inquiries from Hawaii, Las Vegas, Arizona, plus several locations in both Southern & Northern California. To date we have sent out in excess of 40 Entry Packets. Don't be left out what could be a very successful event. Based on 32 teams, the scholarship will be $6000.00 with $ 2000.00 going to the winning team.

All teams will be comprised of 4 bowlers with any combination of boys, girls or mixed teams. There will be 12 games of qualifying for each team. A total of three (3) four (4) game blocks will be bowled. All teams will bowl on both Saturday February 26" and Sunday February 27*. The top eight (8) qualifiers will advance to the "Baker Style" team finals. Entry fee for this event is $75.00 per person with $27.00 going to lineage and $47.00 going to the scholarship fund. This event is sanctioned by YABA. Log on to www.buena lanesbowling.com to download a tournament packet or contact Dan Mueller @ Buena Lanes 805-656-0666 Ext. 309 and we will be glad to mail you a tournament packet.

Surf Bowl

OCEANSIDE — The Elims are coming back to Surf Bowl, Saturday, February 5th at 1:00 p.m., with check-in at 12:30 p.m.

First place is $225 based on 25 entries. The entry fee is $40 which includes sidepots. One of 5 will cash in the stepladder format.

There will be one change and that's the lane condition. Come out and witness the change.

Surf Bowl is located at 1401 S. Coast Hwy. For more information or directions, call 858-449-8928.

Linda Ruiz & Karen Heins, "Bowling Moms" of The Amazing Race To Meet Fans

INDIO, Calif. — Linda Ruiz and Karen Heins, best known as "The Bowling Moms" from CBS-TV's "The Amazing Race 5" reality series that aired last summer, will meet fans from 4 to 5:30 p.m. on Saturday, Feb. 19 at Fantasy Lanes Family Bowling Center next to Fantasy Springs Resort Casino.

A question-and-answer and autograph session free to all ages will follow after the duo competes in the Hi-Desert Ladies "500" Bowling Club tournament starting at 1 p.m. on Feb. 19 at Fantasy Lanes, located north of Interstate10 at the Golf Center Parkway exit near Indio. The public is invited to cheer on "The Bowling Moms," then meet them and receive free autographed photos afterward. For more information: (800) 827-2946, ext. 85700.

Ruiz and Heins of Palmdale, Calif., outside of Los Angeles, who finished an impressive fourth out of 11 teams in the highly-rated series, are teammates on the bowling lanes and won the California State

(L-R) Linda Ruiz and Karen Heins, "The Bowling Moms" of CBS-TV's "The Amazing Race 5" reality series, will be meeting fans from 4 to 5:30 p.m. on Saturday, Feb. 19 at Fantasy Lanes Family Bowling Center next to Fantasy Springs Resort Casino near Indio.

Women's Doubles Championship in 1999. Describing themselves as "athletic moms who like to compete at everything," they met 12 years ago when they joined the local bowling team and have been doubles partners ever since.

In addition to bowling, they go on family vacations together to Bass Lake in California. Heins has been happily married for 21 years and has three children, while Ruiz is also a mother of three children and teaches tennis.

Upland Tournament Club At Arlington Lanes

RIVERSIDE, CA — The Upland Tournament Club will be trekking over to Arlington Lanes on February 6 for their Super Bowl Mixed Doubles.

Based on 50 entries, first place will pay a great $700. Each bowler pays $20 and that includes the individual sidepots.

There will be two squads. First is scheduled for 11:00 a.m. (check-in starts at 10:00 a.m.). For the next squad at 1:00 p.m., bowlers from the 11:00 a.m. squad can change partners and bowl again. It's a good excuse to be around for the Super Bowl Party immediately following.

Pay-offs will be made as soon as averages are verified.

This mixed doubles tournament is open to all ABC/WIBC members with book averages (or bowl scratch). A great way to spend a safe day. Super Bowl and Super Bowling.

Mini Elims

February 5-13. Believe it or not, over 50% of the people that bowl The Mini do not prepay and just walk-in. With 30 squads to choose from there is rarely a squad that is shut out.

The Super Bowl Mini-Eliminator is a 3-game scratch qualifying tournament by division. There are 6 divisions: 39 and under, 40 to 49, 50 to 59, 60 and over, women, and bowlers with an average of 205 and under. One in 8 bowlers advance to the finals every 2 squads and are guaranteed a minimum of $400. One in 5 bowlers will cash and win a free re-entry into a future squad.

Visit www.minieliminator.com to download the brochure or for last minute entering instructions. If you can't make it to Vegas this time you can follow all of the daily action on our website. If you want to speak with a tournament official call us at 1-877-900-6464. We hope to see you at The Super Bowl Mini-Eliminator-the #1 Las Vegas event!

Alert — Alert Los Angeles B.A. City Tournament Entry Deadline

SHERMAN OAKS—The Los Angeles Bowling Association 67th Annual City Tournament is scheduled to start February 26. Their deadline for entries is February 7th. So, there's no time to hesitate.

If there isn't an entry form in your bowling center, call the L.A.B.A. office at 818-784-3352.

Pickwick Bowl in Burbank will host the Team Event and AMF Rocket Bowl will host Singles and Doubles.

NO PROMISES — BUT, if you call the office with a reservation, they MIGHT let you give them the team members names on the phone. BUT, they might NOT too. Take a chance, you don't want to miss YOUR CITY TOURNAMENT!

“The Biggest Loser” Looking For Bowlers

NORWALK — My fax machine spewed out two pages of copy that looked interesting for a change. It WAS interesting.

The N.B.C. network show “The Biggest Loser” is looking for OVER-WEIGHT BOWLERS. So I called up the production chief and it's a legit offer.

Here's their faxed message: “The Biggest Loser is looking for GROUPS who want to lose weight as a team and YOU DON'T EVEN NEED TO LEAVE THE COMFORTS OF YOUR OWN HOME OR JOB. We are coming to you! We are looking for teams from 3-5 people who are 50-200 lbs. over weight.

You and your “team” will be provided an acclaimed personal trainer, a meal plan and a new way for life. For 10 weeks, you will go about your job with a new exercise and eating regime. You will receive daily visits from a personal trainer who will teach you how to lose weight and eat right. You will be competing with other teams for a large grand prize.

Your “team” must be driven, committed and ready to change TOGETHER. We are looking for teams with personality who DESERVE this once in a lifetime opportunity to lose weight at our expense.

If you've got a good story, then we want to hear it!

So, bowlers, if you qualify and are interested, call me at 562-927-3351 during the week, or 562-807-3600 on Tuesdays and I'll give you the scoop.

Bowling News

NORWALK—The league returned to Keystone Lanes Monday for the final time this season and two new season high marks hit the tote board. Nancy Soto's 229 eclipsed Ann Fedderly's 224, in the 160 and under division, and Fountain Bowl fired 832 high team game.

Doris Lewis led the weekly honor roll with 217-604, followed by Karen Mauricio 547, Nancy Soto 229-536, Tracy Baldwin 533, Norma Payne 509, Elaine Todd 508, Cil Moons 505, Cyndie Martin 200-504 and Cathy Wyatt 504.

Cal Bowl A team still tops standings with 48 wins, followed by Westminster B, 47; Keystone A and Fountain Bowl tie at 45; Del Rio A, 43; Del Rio B, 42.2; Cal B, 37.2; Cal D, 36; Cal C, 34.2; Premiere B and Westminster A tie at 33; Rossmoor, 32.2; Premiere A, 32; Cerritos, 30; Linbrook and Keystone B tie at 29 wins.

Final payment for the April Vegas sweepstakes next week and there will be openings on the bus because of cancellations due to illness. Please call Alice at (562) 423-1567 for more information and reservation for the April 3-4-5 trip. Four Queens is again Hotel Headquarters and The Orleans will be the bowling site.

ALICE's AD-LIBS- Rae Miller called to report a super news item. Merel Noel, 90 years young, sports a 118 average and she scored 200-526 in the Rossmoor Gems league at Rossmoor Bowl. Also, a reminder to OCVBA Board members for the 7 p.m. February 7 meeting at the office. The OCVBA annual tournament report, which opens Saturday, February 19 at Forest Lanes, will top the agenda.

or Visit our website: www.minieliminator.com

LAS VEGAS, NV.— In 1944 at the ripe old age of 17, I discovered bowling, thanks to a senior class buddy. It was at the 8-lane Riverside Bowling Academy. We went in to play a pinball machine, and while there I became enthralled in some other friends efforts to hurl a large ball down a wooden hallway endeavoring to knock over some sticks.

I didn't try the game...but it intrigued me. On getting home, I announced to my folks that I "was gonna go bowling," at which point my mom came unglued in five different directions. "You are WHAT!?" I backed up a couple of steps, 'cause when my 4 ft., 9 1/2 in. mom went into attack mode, being in the same room was unwise.

"A bowling ALLEY? No chance, Charlie!"
It didn't help when I explained it was an "Academy" not an "Alley."

She said she would "check it out," but she doubted, as did I at the moment, that I'd ever set foot in such a den of sin. She did "case the joint," And,even talked to the owners, and I received her nod of approval. (I've often wondered if I'd ever gotten involved in the sport if she had turned me down.)

Soon, I "HAD to have" my own bowling ball. When I made that announcement, it was fine... I worked and had my own money. But when I advised my folks I had to borrow the car to go to Roy Bade's Pro Shop on Vermont Street in Los Angeles in order to get a proper "fit" for my Manhattan hard rubber sphere, more trouble. "Good grief, WHY? Get one here in town ... go to the sporting goods store or JCPenney. You'd save lots of money." "Mom... you NEVER go to a.department store for a bowling ball ... it HAS to be drilled by an expert!"

Well, I won a rare argument ... one which to this day still stands. When you are buying sporting equipment that has to be measured to your hand and made or drilled with precision with proper "weights" and "pitches" 'n all that stuff... you GO TO A PRO SHOP. You ain't looking for bargain basement stuff ... you are looking to truly improve your game ... bowling or golf or whatever. Hey! A doctor doesn't go to Toys R Us for medical equipment. Only go to the Pro Shop professionals ... even get advice about them from other bowlers.

Also, beware of shop by mail or offers to buy on the internet. You may find outlandishly low prices, but all that glitters can turn out to be fool's gold and leave you holding the empty (bowling) bag.

Manufacturers often use "distributors" to sell their products to Pro Shops. Beware of "distributors" taking a short cut and peddling direct to the public at unbelievable ball prices that'll make you think you are in paradise. You might get a ball at roughly the same price the Pro Shop pays... from an internet source. You get the ball-but guess what? No holes. Sure, your Pro Shop will drill it properly ... for a fee. Frankly, they should charge the total amount of profit they would have received if they sold the ball, which would have likely included the drilling. Pro shops have to make a buck ... but, remember, they'll "fine tune" the ball after you've purchased it from them.

One so called "distributor" even suggests you "buy" a cheap ball from a Pro Shop, and after they drill it, ship it to the "distributor" so they can copy it for their other ball purchases from them. Or, just go to your Pro Shop, get your exact measurements and send them with your order! (If they screw up-then you have to ship it back.) And they know nothing of your bowling style. They know nothing about your special needs, weights, etc. that the personal Pro Shop contact can provide. Hey! IT AIN'T WORTH IT! Honest.

A "distributor" selling retail at wholesale prices? It ain't kosher, even if they advertise on a bowling show. Manufacturers are nuts if they don't halt this demeaning of their products. I can show you the nearly half-price numbers for the undrilled balls. At a Kmart or Wal-Mart, sure, you might save a buck or two. This internet thing-it is lunacy. Maybe they are selling you "seconds," how do you know? You might save some bucks, but you simply will not get the professional finished product you'd get from a Pro Shop... in fact...in the long run it might cost more (plugging, re-drilling, etc.) and not give you the desired result, scoring-wise.

Good grief! I figured THAT out over a half-century ago as a teenager!

And keep your eye on Pro shops...they offer loads of legitimate specials and values ... but more important, personal service and they get you in the "right" ball ... the first time.

For Bowling Equipment ... go to a Bowling Pro Shop.
If you want a "deal," play cards. And make sure the cards are from the top of the deck.

SST Titles For Both Don Jackson and Bob Markiewicz Comes Down to 10th Frame

By Paula Vidad
The SST AMF Carter Lanes Open saw Super Senior Division champion Don Jackson win his 7th title in an exciting final match. The Bonita, CA resident overcame a 96 pin deficit over Tom Gerster of Yorba Linda by striking out in the 10th frame and posting a 258 game over Gerster's 184. Jackson broke his leading qualifier jinx to win the $650 top prize by only 8 pins. Jackson also shot two 300 games, one during qualifying and one in match play. Don would like to thank his wife Bonnie for her encouragement and Dennis Fitzsimmonds for drilling his bowling balls.

Bob Markiewicz also won his 7th Jr. title in fine fashion by defeating Ron Gales of Las Vegas. Markiewicz was leading by only 28 pins going into the final position round. Whoever won the match would win the title because of 30 bonus pins. Markiewicz prevailed with a 258-247 thrilling match. The San Diego resident was Saturday's high qualifier with 2483 and shot 298-300-235=833 his first 3 games. Markiewicz earned $600 for his efforts. Bob would like to thank AMF Carter Lanes for hosting the tournament, G.M. Joe Goodine and his staff's hospitality.

The traditional King of the Hill match saw Jr. Champ Bob Markiewicz defeat Sr. Champ Don Jackson 235-200. The winner of each division squares off in a one game match for bragging rights and an additional $50 prize.

Congratulations to Ralph Wingert, Long Beach and Vaughn Doody, Las Vegas for their perfect 300 qualifying games. The SST is ABC/WIBC sanctioned and they will receive their honor scores awards.

Joe Staton of Upland won a FREE pair of Dexter bowling shoes in the Storm/Dexter prepaid entry prize.

Thank you for your continued support: Jan and Sue Niblett of Luster Cote, Inc., Ricky Corona of Storm Products & Dexter Shoes, and Dean Danner of J & P Trophies.

Please join us when we travel to AMF Riverside Lanes March 5-6, 2005. Mail your entries in early and be eligible for the Storm/Dexter drawing.

Come bowl with the best Super Senior Men 60+, Ladies 50+ and the Jr. division Men 45-59, Ladies 40-49.

Pecoraro Wins ABTA Title at West Covina

Val De Leon is $3,500 Match Game Winner • Por hits Match Series

WEST COVINA—Rich Pecoraro came through in crunch time to win his first ABTA Title in a splendid performance at super West Covina Lanes, as he downed the top seed Jim Lozano in the final game to take home the championship trophy to San Bernardino and a nice $1,400 top prize.

Rich topped a decent turnout of 185 entrants (4-squads) which saw cut scores of Men +74 and the Ladies hitting a good +40 to make the semi finals. Super Seniors added to the board were Mary Nakunz, Ely Cruz and Aimee Ahorro.

The 41 bowlers in the Semis then took to the floor, hoping to advance to the finals in hopes of making the top 16 Single Elims.

Jim Lozano took it to them in the semis blasting a huge +130 to be the top seed, and giving him the benefit of sitting out to bowl in the title game. Right behind Jim was Rich Pecoraro with his fine +124 so Rich would get to sit out in round one of the top 16 Single Elim finals entering in round #2.

After the Semis it took a nice +25 to make the top 16 finalis which included four women, and losers in round one were Ian Benavides, David Polus, Josie Matsumoto, Ping Tubera, Inno Harman, Les tucker, and Jowell Tatlonghari, and they cashed in 10-16th place and $100 each.

In round two we had Pecoraro enter the field and down a pretty first time finalist Jinny Lei in a tight one 237-231. Deborah Sanders edged Kathy Solowitz by one little pin 174-173, Marty Nakunz edged John Licauco 233-228 and Jello Gray downed the Match Game winner Noli Val De Leon 194-189 and Losers of round 2 got checks of $105 in 6-9th places. A pitance to Mr. Val De Leon on this night:-) Nakunz edged Deborah in a good one 189-186 and Pecoraro downed a jaded Mr. Gray 213-160, so Deborah and Jello were 4th and 5th cashing for $115 with Marty and Rich to meet for the right to bowl Lozano for the title.

This was a game that no one deserved to lose and it went to the 10th frame as Pecoraor doubled to ice the win in a thriller to end Marty's run and he was third with a great showing and Rich off to the the title match vs top seed Lozano.

187 is worth $3,500 to Noli: Noli Val De Leon is congratulated by ABTA Semifinalist Belinda Crowder for his super 187 game which was the score drawn in the Match Game 3 pot at West Covina Lanes. Hey Noli, that comes out to $18.72 per pin! Great Bowling!

The Title game was set and Jim elected to lead off and after five frames Pecoraro with a double and being clean was way in front as Jim had three opens and lost the shot, Pecoraro doubled again to put the title in the bag and won out over a trying Lozano 224-185. Great bowling Rich and this is title #2 as he had won many years ago in the ABTA also and is now back to bowling again! Mark and a title well-deserved and title #2 could be next for this likable guy.

Great bowling by Jim Lozano and Marty Nakunz who has been on a roll also.

ABTA Notes Tourney Hi Qualifiers were Jim Lozano who led the men at +193, and pretty Jenny Lei led the ladies at +95, and they get paid entries.

The optional doubles were taken by Romy Bautista and Simon Rojas and their 1386 got them $110, and we paid 8 places this week in the doubles.

Brian Reyes, Greg, and Gina Velarde couldn't eliminate one another in the 3-6-9 so they split the $50 after 6 shots and we will go for a tidy $1,500 this week in the 3-6-9 at Premiere Lanes.

The Match Game 3 was Matched by one of our fine regulars Noli Val Deleon whose 187 game drawn by Lozano and we had a $50 Carryover so will estimate the Match Game at $1,250 this Saturday. Noli was buying the beer at West Covina

The Match Series also was Matched as a 538 was drawn by tourney Lozano and it was $268 to Stan Por so we will estimate a $250 Match Series Saturday.

The Columbia 300" ball of the week went to ABTA regular "Iron Mike" Benavides his lucky ticket was drawn by pretty ABTA member Irene Kang. Mike opt for the new Back Yard Bully! He thanks our sponsor Columbia 300 for the fine ball. Champion Rich Pecoraro is from San Bernardino and used a Hot Shot drilled by Dave Edis at Covina Bowl. Rich is single and he thanks Dave for the great ball drilling.

Jim Lozano is from El Monte and used a Columbia Ricochet drilled by Spanky Rosales at Action Lanes. Jim is married to Kathy with five kids. Yvonne, Richard, Jimbo Jr. and Reuben.

He thanks his family for support.

This Weekend we will visit popular Premiere Lanes in Santa Fe Springs and in a Special Super Bowl flavor we have our annual contest with each entrant guessing the score of the Super Bowl between the Eagles and Patriots and the winner will get his room paid for our big Annual Las Vegas July 1-2-3-4 at the Gold Coast. Runnerup gets $50 in cash. Premiere is easily accessed from the 605 take r Telegraph Rd. east 3 miles or from the 5 freeway take Carmenita north 2 miles to telegraph then west 3 blocks. The phone there is 562-941-0271

On a sad note we are informed of the passing of Dennis Roach, who was a fine bowler and also a fine man. Bowling was Dennis' passion and he bowled several of the clubs and was pretty darn good at it too. I have had the pleasure of bowling with, and against Dennis for 30 years. He was too young to go! He will be missed by all who knew him. God Bless!

The following week we will again visit West Covina Lanes in another one day event and new schedules will be mailed soon. If You have a new address please get it to us as this mailer covers February til the middle of August.

We had several new members join this week, first time cashers were Jim Lozano, Jinni Lei, and Josh Koch.

It's history Folks, as Rich Pecoraro enters the archives as our latest champion.

For further info see our ad in this paper or call the ABTA 562-868-7164

Last but not least, thanks to West Covina for the superb service and hospitality. We will return there next week for another good one!

ABTA League At Valley View

Greg Velarde led all scores this week with his 247/679, followed by Paul Chavez 255/663, Anthony Smith 235/660, (sub) Ronnie Thompson 228/655, Doug Salzman 243/652, Rey Josafat 233/642, Nick Rod-riguez 216/630 and Jerry Cant 245/625. Bill Hambly had a 252.

ABT Orange County Branch at Westminster Lanes this Saturday

WESTMINSTER—The Amateur Bowlers Tour (ABT) Orange County Branch will be finishing our special two week-end tournament at Westminster Lanes this Saturday February, 5, 2005. We will have two qualifying squads on Saturday afternoon at Noon and 2pm. One in every five entries will be added to the Semifinals from each squad this Saturday, with the Semifinals scheduled at 4pm. Finals will follow. First place is estimated at $2000 with the Win, Place, and Show Pot. Entry fee for this tournament is a low $50 (for both Classic and Masters) and the Win, Place, and Show Pot is an additional $20 fee.

We will offer BIG $100 sidepots at both the Noon and 2pm squads with 20 entries.

Also, we will be extending our special offer for new/rejoin members through the month of February. If you join or rejoin the Amateur Bowlers Tour (ABT) Orange County Branch now thru February 28th, 2005 you will receive a free shirt with your embroidered name and an ABT logo.

Remember, you still have 5 more tournaments left to get in the required 10 entries for the ABT/Storm Spring National Tournament at Sam's Town in Las Vegas. The Classic Division is paying $40,000 for first place (plus a Progressive Pot) and the Masters Division will offer a $10,000 first place with full Progressive Pot based on 300 entries. The deadline for entries is March 15, 2005. Please call us at (714) 898-7874 for more information or entry applications. Now is also the time to order additional shirts with your name and ABT logo embroidered on them. You must have your name and ABT logo on your shirt to participate in the ABT/Storm Spring National Tournament.

ABT-2 Embroidery has many shirts specially priced for you to take to the ABT/Storm Spring National Tournament in Las Vegas. Prices start as low as $20 for a shirt with your name embroidered on the back and an ABT logo. Just call (714) 898-7874 for more information.

SED Youth Leaders Travel

by Will Jackson
SED Youth Leaders took to the lanes Saturday at Cerritos Lanes. There were not too many high scores but enough to brag about in this article. Leading our session after a bad first game and letting his team down by losing the first point and that's the only point they lost, Matt Harris 246-234-222/857.

The only other 800 shooter was Mikey Helferstay following closely with a 247-221/837. On top of the 700's Sadia Ward 232-214/798, Justin Mc Cullin 266-205/793, Dayton Crossley 225/780, Remy Mattison 244/739 (nice 114 game), Justin Eubanks 217-205/723, Jeff del Mar 220/712, and Rashad Sandrige 213/710.

Team standings look like this: taking over the lead with a solid week is Ms. Ward's Crew with 31 1/2 points and in second 1/2 game behind is Southwest Bowl #2. Our next session is confirmed at Keystone Lanes at 2:00 not 2:05 not 2:15, but 2:00 pm. Don't forget to turn in your Pepsi money this week. See everybody Saturday, and please be on time.

BVL Finals Comes To An End

by Pam Costanzo
The 2005 Annual BVL Finals has come to an end. Forest Lanes proved to be a great host for our Tournament. The staff was very helpful starting with the mechanic to the desk personal all the way up to the manager. Thanks for making our Tournament a successful one.

The lanes, which are new by the way, must have been in real good shape. As reported last week, there was a 300 game and the classic division ended with a duo of 700 series. Several bowlers rolled way above their averages and Orange County will be represented very highly.

The unofficial division winners are as follows: Classic — Jason Nelson (708) and Michelle VanWyhe (668); Division A — Ronald Zettelmier (650) and Sue Appell (584); Division B — Ernie Arriola (597) and Michelle Lindenmuth (554); Division C — John Koutis (557) and Irene Loder (517); Division D — Ben Rizzo (439) and Sandy Dashiell (522), and Division E — Cindy Fedden (335). The Division winners will receive their awards at the opening ceremonies of the Orange County Championship Tournament on February 19. They will also be eligible to bowl in the California Bowlers BVL Singles Classic Tournament on May 6 at Brunswick Covina Bowl.

Thanks again to all the Orange County bowlers for supporting BVL. My sincere thanks to Forest Lanes for hosting this year's Tournament. And the most important people I need to thank are the workers and those bowlers that came out to show their support for our hospitalized and disabled Veterans.

Four Fans to Bowl for Big Bucks

Seattle, WA—Miller High Life has selected four lucky contestants to participate in the "Jason Couch Challenge" Saturday, Feb. 5 at Brunswick Zone Norcross in Norcross, Ga. during the 2005 PBA Atlanta Classic.

Participants, who were chosen at random from a sweepstakes held by the Miller High Life brand, will square off against each other in an elimination tournament beginning at 11 a.m. EST for the right to bowl a game with 11-time PBA Tour titlist Jason Couch immediately following.

If the contestant that bowls with Couch converts a 7-10 split, they will receive $100,000. All contestants receive a Miller High Life bowling ball, bowling bag and other items from Miller and the PBA.

The four contestants are Paul Conterato (Geneva, Ill.), Gary Loos (Tampa, Fla.), Jody Rivera (Butler, Pa.) and Carolyn Finney (Saginaw, Mich.).

Jason Couch, the 1992 PBA Rookie of the Year, is one of 30 bowlers to amass over $1 million in career earnings. The left-hander made history by winning three consecutive PBA Tournament of Champions major titles from 1999-2002.

Couch, along with Patrick Healey Jr. and Bryon Smith, is sponsored by Miller High Life in the 2004-05 PBA Sponsor Championship Competition.

The PBA Atlanta Classic takes place Feb. 2-6 at Brunswick Zone Norcross, with the final four bowlers competing for the $40,000 top prize and an exemption for the 2005-06 PBA Tour season live on ESPN Sunday, Feb. 6 at 2 p.m. EST.

R U Ranked Invitational Winner Chip Pettiford receives $500 from BCS representative Arleen Smith at Cal Bowl.

Pickwick Jr's

By Tish Plotkin
I'm proud to say we have a great number of qualifiers for the Pepsi Tournament coming in March. Our youth bowlers performed well and I'm excited to see so many going to the district finals. Don't forget to encourage your bowling youngsters to participate in as many tournaments as possible to attain scholarship monies. It'll help pay for the books, parents!

Tuesday Preps reported awesome handicap scores from Lucas Yopez 180/501, Spencer Malden 178, James Cuentas 480, Melanie Novotny 169/444 and Renee Lawson 165/454.

Tuesday Juniors are small but mighty with scratch scores from Tommy Neuzil 212/585, Bobby Filson 203 and Steve Money 533. Handicap honors go to Matthew Avanian 239/677.

Saturday Bumpers show great promise with scores from new bowlers Patrick Woodsome 100/149 and Jeremy Elliot 77/145. Other great scores were Daisy Escobar 92/181 and Brittney Eklund 88/164.

Saturday Preps are vying for top honors with outstanding scratch scores from Terry Ryan 158/445, Brandon Spengeman 155/434, Canette Peppler 110/308, Raylin Rivera 102/292 and Andrea Young 102. Handicap honors go to Jesse Salazar 175, Patrick Trillo 170, Jessica Jerebic 157 and Nastassia Sexton 154/439.

Saturday Juniors are growing stronger with scratch scores from Sean Blanch 255/661, Bobby Filson 246/629, Anthony Allen 211/576, Everly Sahagun 214/578, Sarah Lugo 200/529 and Tara Cross 180/494. Handicap honors go to Ryan Simon 240, Chris Shaffer 688, Danny Garcia 683, Heather Isaacs 245/684 and Xeres Villanueva 649. Keep it going.

Vernon Adams Takes Over High Series With 823!

by Carol Mancini

DOWNEY—The Brunswick/Cal Bowling Supply League is deep into the third round of the season. Four teams have secured spots in the end-of-season rolloff, and four more spots are up for grabs (plus two wild card spots). Ironically at four seeded teams (by the luck of the draw) ended up in “B” Division this round.

The T. D. Rowe team finally made a dent in the Transcon Logistics armour, taking three games from the over-all leader. The Transcon coasters all had sixes—Steve brode 671, Dan Cerio 642, Steve Schroeder 625 and Larry Gray 630. They just never let up. But T.D. Rowe has battled up stream to with-in one game of Transcon 16/15. For the “ROWE’RS Carlos Castillo 578, Julio Vasquez 685, Jeff Hickenbottom 642 and Derek Lee 706.

Already seeded Strike Connection is blocking Pro Approach-Lakewood and J.C. Spas from advancing to a “position’ opportunity at the Transcon group. Both advancing teams won four this week.

For the “Spa” getters: James Cox 611, Randy Myers 582, Norm Black Sr. 628 and David Van Gaston 657. They dunked “The Immel Team” for all four big points and sit four off the leaders 16. “The Immel Team” could only muster one 600 by Frank Bellinder. I heard Dave Scott wanted to take the new elevator (for wheel-chairs) straight to the basement and out the back. Get that thumbhole fixed! Or was that “dumb hole” fixed??

The “A” Division top spot is being coveted by Threadworks (15 wins) for at least one more week, but Reback’s Plumbing at (14 wins) and Pro Approach-Downey (14 wins) will be chomping at the bit this coming Monday hoping for a sweep. Actually Threadworks clobbered Pro Approach-Downey this week to take the lead. Lanes 9-10 weren’t giving up strikes easily. For the Pro’s: Mark Zirges 548, Gary Gladstone 524 (you should check MY ball-driller), Anthony Drapeau 633 and Carey Matkin 626.

The Threadworkers stitched up some great scores. Tony Rodriguez (down 100 from last week) 605, Mike Mellick 534, Anthony Carlton Jr. 643 and James Maker 695.

Reback’s Plumbing (14 wins) plunged right into the strike pool and salvaged four wins from Etonic. Check out these scores: Gabriel Garza 533, Scott Slocum 644, Jason Carrillo 723 and Levi Slocum 736 for 2636.

Pro Approach-Lakewood (B Division) popped the biggest games of the night against the already seeded Bowlers Depot-West Covina. How about? David Fairow Jr. 601, Billy Myers Jr. 607, Paul Smith 217-234-267/718 and the Whooper by Vernon Adams 290-266-267/823. Add four to the Pro Approach total. Now only four away from Transcon.

Check the top 10 list on this page. Last week there were all sevens, this week a mix with new faces.

Visitors are always welcome on Monday nites at nine. Bring your equipment. Some sub spots might be available.

Reminder: No subs on the last night of the round. Make changes NOW.

Kearny Mesa Bowl

7585 Clairemont Mesa Blvd., San Diego CA • 858-279-1501

SAN DIEGO—It’s been a while since you have heard from Kearny Mesa Bowl. I will try to get everyone up to date. There were plenty of high scores at the end of 2004 and the beginning of 2005.

On December 6, during the Ebonite/Chovan league, the Smith brothers, Scott, Shed and Steve shot 300, 300 and 279, respectively, during their third games.

Carlos “No Thumb” Garcia finally reached the 300 club after numerous scores in the 290’s. Yes, he finally carried the 10 pin!

There were a lot of high scores for some of our new bowlers. Congratulations to Tom Gregg and Bob Champagne on their personal high scores!

The annual “No-Tap” Tournament was held Dec 26-29 and had a record turnout. There were over 120 teams and over 170 singles. Jimmy “Goldschlager” Huber and Woody “Jagermeister” Parcells won the doubles with an outstanding 4 game total of 2,410. Needless to say they also took first and second in the singles category.

Congratulations to all of the winning teams of the first half of the season.

Last, but not least, a very special Happy Birthday goes out to Oscar Jones who, on his birthday, shot a 300. Way to go Oscar!!!!

Now for the High scores:

300 GAMES: Scott Smith, Shed Smith, John “Jo Po” Powanda, Carlos “no thumb” Garcia, John Collins, Khalfani Williams, Oscar “birthday boy” Jones, Keith Parker, Lloyd Burleson, Gary Burke, Dan Jastorff, Nathan Bishop, Chad Swiman

Paul Prefers “Pole Position”

SAN DIEGO—At the NABI Tournament held at Mira Mesa Lanes last weekend, LONG time NABI member Paul Passarino once again qualified #1 & captured another championship. Paul’s wardrobe contains so many shirts, he’s having a tough time deciding on a color! Paul’s been on a roller coaster ride the past three years, alternating between the DL & feeling good, so for the time being he’s healthy & on a roll! Congratulations, Paul! His “supporting cast” included Stan Martin (who pooped out after three matches could be because he donated blood that morning, then bowled 12 games?).

In perpetual pot action, $200 in the 3-6-9 was shared by Tim Knight, Jared Evans, James Smith John Radosevich, Bob Selner & Passarino. Guaranteed $50 sidepots went to Jim Nunnally, Jay Shackelford, John Diaz (2), Michelle Gegan, Gil Gissendaner, Jeff Greer, Martin, & Knight. The Pizza Hut tickets went to Luisa Lim, Kevin Gegan & A. Phandanouvong.

The next NABI event is February 12 at Parkway Bowl. Check the next edition of this publication for squad times & details, then plan to join us on the 12th ... we’ll save a cookie for you!

PINZ Srs.

STUDIO CITY — Hi. Hope you all had a great week. Have you noticed all the pretty blossoms on the fruit trees and other plants that already have flowers? All that rain and then warm sunshine gave the plants an early start for all of us to enjoy.

In this report we have new leaders in our senior leagues here at PINZ Bowling Center so let's see who they are and what they did.

In week 20 of the Joslyn Seniors, Lee Waldorf took the lead with 228/520, followed by Sol Stein 178/493, Fredi Leibsen 161/460, Audrey Bales 160/456, Gary Olsen 169/455, Dick Bay 157/450, Patty Romley 162/430, Teri Bonato 162/427, Joyce Rabinowitz 156/421, Mary Sorensen 137/394, Yolanda Dragotta 144/393 and Mary Bobnes 148/387.

Jack Burkenheim led the Happy Timers with 181/464 in week 19, Dave Fenton was next with 167/458, Freda Leibson 161/444, Sol Karnovitz 157/438, Bill Fleishman 151/434, Ruth Swick 144/391, Dori Tobey 135/371 and Lily Ching 122/356.

Enjoy the week and beautiful weather. Bowl good and we'll see your name in the weekly senior column from Pinz Bowling Center.

Griley, Page, Aguilar, and Sherman All Winners at JST at Keystone

By Brian Carmichael
JST visited the Norwalk area this past Sunday with its second stop of the season at Keystone Lanes. This was JST’s eighth tournament of the season signifying we are now half way through the JST season, meaning bowling will sure to be up to top-notch in the coming tournaments. The point’s race for the spots in the High Points Tournament at the end of the season is really tight, and every upcoming tournament and point will matter. Along with all the great scholarships that the JST has to offer, the bowling was huge this past Sunday. Thanks to our wonderful sponsors: B&W Bowling Equipment, and Storm Bowling Products we were able to pay out $905 at this last tournament alone. We could never thank them enough.

Now let’s get into the bowling.

The Novice Div. would once again be a four game tournament with the top score being the winner. James Griley would take advantage of the format and would blow away the field, winning both high game and high series points with a 220 game, and 744 series, nearly winning by 140 pins. Honorable mentions to Allie Ijams for getting second with a 607 set. Congratulations to James on his great bowling and his first title of the season, good for the $40 1st place scholarship and JST Champions shirt.

The Intermediate Div. saw one bowler just explode on the lanes, and make a huge gap from herself to 2nd place all day long. From the first game of the day on, Brittany Page was in first and never looked back shooting the high game and high series of qualifying with a huge 256 game, and would be the only bowler plus, with a 872 set. Page would continue the dominance in match play, keeping herself in 1st for the roll off, as Robert Gonzales stayed in 2nd, and David Philips jumping from the cut line to the roll off, in 3rd. Gonzales would defeat Philips in the first, semi-final match 209-156, and was then in the final against Page, with both bowlers looking for their first JST titles. Page was still hot, and would fire a 211 game to get by Gonzales 188 game for the win. Tremendous bowling out to Brittany, and congrats on the win for the $90 scholarship prize and JST Champions shirt.

The Advance Div. once again had the best turnout of bowlers of the tournament, and scores were definitely on the higher side. Ryan Aguilar bowled himself to a good size lead for match play, shooting the high series of qualifying with an 893 set. He also shot the high game of qualifying with a nice 268 game. Aguilar would defend his top spot in match play, but only by two pins, as J R Monteith would roll himself a perfect 300 game in match play to move himself into 2nd. Chris Hawes would move into 3rd, Samantha Jimenez in 4th, and Jarryd Bivins in 5th. Congrats to J R on the 300 game, he will get to choose any Storm bowling ball of his choice thanks to our sponsor Storm Bowling Products. The finals roll off would be quite high scoring, as Jimenez would snap off Bivins in the opening match 244-223, but then lose in the next match to Hawes 216-211. Monteith was still bowling well, and defeated Hawes in the semi-final match 234-184. The title match was then set, and both bowlers would be looking for their first JST titles, and would go down to the final frame. At the end, Aguilar would prevail over Monteith 185-174, winning his first title. Congratulations to Ryan on the win, and winning the $125 1st place scholarship, and JST Champions shirt.

The Open Div had the top 4 going into match play all within 4 pins of each other, but Mason Sherman was leading with an 891 set. That did not stop Ashkan Tahvildaran from shooting the high game in qualifying with a great 269 game. The bowling improved in match play, as Josh Blanchard rolled himself into 1st, as Sherman down to 2nd, Brian Carmichael keeping himself in 3rd, and Jared Lawrence moving up one spot into 4th. The first match of the roll off saw huge scoring with Lawrence defeating Carmichael with a great 289 game to Carmichael’s 235. The second match was just as high; with one shot not carrying for Lawrence determined his outcome, as he lost to Sherman 267-258. The finals match was two bowlers looking for their second title of the season. Sherman had to get the first strike in the tenth to win the match, and he would do that, and also go off the sheet, winning the title with a 214 to Blanchard’s 197. Congratulations to Mason on being the first bowler of the season to win two titles in the Open Div. He received a $150 scholarship for the win, and Keystone champ will be added to his JST Champions shirt.

Congratulations to everyone who bowled well, and who won or placed. Congrats once again to J R on his 300 game. We would like to thank Keystone Lanes for being a great host as always, and also to our wonderful JST staff. Thank you to everyone. Our next tournament will now be February 27th at AMF Hemet Lanes in Hemet. Remember the tournament for February 6th at AMF Riverside was cancelled due to two annual tournaments going on that same weekend. Remember the Hemet tournament will have a mandatory pre-entry and you can do so by calling Butch or Lenni Hesketh at (951) 684-7941 by Saturday night, February 26th. With all that in mind, I hope you have a great few weeks. Keep up the practice, and hope to see you all in Hemet, take care.

JST events: The second session of the JST Gold league just started this past Saturday morning at New Yorba Linda Bowl in Yorba Linda. The JST Gold league is designed to send two boys and two girls to the Junior Olympic Gold Championships in Indianapolis this year in July. The JOG is the premier tournament of junior bowling, and determines Jr. Team USA’s team every year. The league also offers scholarships for individual and team standings, and two different Gold, sport-like shots are put out on the lanes through the weeks, for the bowlers to practice their skills, and is really great experience. If anyone is interested to join or may have any questions you may call Butch or Lenni Hesketh at (951) 684-7941 this week, or simply show up this Saturday morning a little before the bowlers start rolling at 9:30. Thank you, and we hope to see you this Saturday.

Cerritos Lanes

by John Elston
CERRITOS–Bowlers were off and bowling this past Saturday as the second week of the long winter season got started. As expected, there were many high scores in all divisions. The winter season is typically one where bowlers work hard to set new records as school is settled and bowling seems to peak for many.

The high scoring was led by none other than Mr. Adam Ferry. The recent high average leader from last season truly knows the meaning of consistency. After 1 246-670 set week one, Adam followed that with a well shot 239-674 set. Whatever this junior bowler is eating for breakfast on Sat. mornings, needs to be shared with others. Seriously, simply said great bowling Adam!!!

In the Striking Force several of the male bowlers are working hard to improve their game as last season saw the talented female bowlers lead from start to finish. Leading the way these past two weeks were John Elston jr. with a nice 198 game followed by Bobby Hornacek who rolled 163. Hats off to these two talented young men as the season is early but this writer knows that both of them will undoubtedly have a great season. In the Rookie Division, Karen Dimaya and Tasha Jansen squared off early this season. If the first match is indicative of what lies ahead, beware. Karen led all bowlers with a 115-316 set, while Tasha was close behind rolling 108-293. While the 4th of July is a few months away, these bowlers seem destined to provide some fireworks. In the Lil Raider division, Lucas Villa sprinted to the century mark first with a 102 game while close behind was Ty Moeller with a well shot 101 game. Keep up the great bowling.

Other high scratch scores this week included:

Lil Raiders – Naomi McIlroy 88, Isaiah Agundez 90,Martin Aguilar 92, and Angel Lueuanos 96.

Rookies – Taylor Banks 92 and Sean Dantas 91, Ronald Shigg 99, and Kevin Robeniol 93.

Striking Force – Andrew Arellano 177 &165, JJ Robeniol 154, Lisa Hom 156, Zeina Elsayed 177, and Terrence Lowe 160.

Seniors – Kyle Vandenberg 258, Kathy Liberatore 211, Candice Galvan 202, Anthony Dancel 259, Jared Lawrence 225, Jeff Spiesman 233, buddy Lucas 216, Michael Sargent 200, Ashley brown 225, Kevin Peterson 247, Casey Burroughs 213.

Congratulations to all of these talented bowlers for some great scoring. On Saturday Feb 5th at 12:20 p.m. , there will be an adult/jr. tournament at Cerritos lanes. Don’t get left out of the fun. Until next week, good luck and high scoring.

Until next week, good luck and high scoring.

SED Jr. Travel

by David Gordon
ANAHEIM - The talent known as SED Jr. Travel, took over the lanes at Linbrook Bowling Center this past Saturday. Some outstanding scores were put up by the group and almost everyone got into the act.

The leader of the day was Kevin Peterson going 248-220-214-220/902. Excellent bowling Kevin. In the 800 club for this week substitute pool had to settle for Kevin Valmonte racking up scores of 207-200-213-236/856. We also had Aarik Torres with a 253-265/823 set and Anthony Williams liking his 233-203-211/ 811. Very good gentlemen, better than I could have done. You didn’t hear that Aarik.

Additional reportable scores for the day comes in from Kevin Jones 215/780, Jasper White 204/780, Joe Torre 214/771, Jonathan Gale 245/760, J.R. Monteith 214-209/752, Jeff Spiesman 209/724, Angela Sarreal 219/715, Felicia Mara 707, James Koepper 202-200/706, James Hawkins 705, Darrin Choi 701 and Eddie Sayles 204. Nice list.

In the team standings, we have “It’s Newspaper Time!” still out in front with 244 points and “They Didn’t Care” with 236. The rest of the league is group tightly together between 200 points down to 140 points. With seven sessions to go, anything can still happen.

And this coming Saturday, the bowers will be moving over to Gage Bowl for their 2:00 squad. Get there early and we might be able to do something afterwards.

Have a good week and enjoy. Practice and rest. Later!

Girls Jr. All-Star & Adult/Jr. Tourny This Sunday

FULLERTON/ANAHEIM - AMF Carter Lanes started off the day for the Girls Jr. All-Stars as they completed a double session, ending at Linbrook Bowling Center. Some very good scoring in the two sessions and everyone made progress. We thank the staff and management of both centers for their accommodations.

In the first session at Carter, bright and early was the wake-up call. The session began at 10:00 in the morning and after driving all the way down from Camarillo the leader of this session was wide awake. Katie McClelland put up scores of 224-236-247 for a 901 series. Great bowling Katie. We also had an 800 series put in by Sadia Ward with 214-200/805. Other high scores on the morning comes from Jillian Gaddison 226-214/759, Vanessa Pena 214/738, Annabel Osberg 728, Daryllynn Davis 708 and Tabetha Reynolds 215. Nice bowling ladies.

This first session was also position round and in the tight race for the top position, Threadworks Embroidery took 1 additional point from leader Just Chill Entertainment, putting them both into a tie for first. Bowling News made up some ground on 3rd place Bruns West Covina taking 14.5 points on the session and BowlCheap.Com captured 23.5 points of the possible 25 points over Keystone Lanes.

After a quick update and even quicker lunch, it was over to Linbrook Bowling Center for our second session. Here the girls cranked it up another notch. Again McClelland led the group but not so dominating this time. Katie shot 225-234-213/863. Still very nice bowling. Pushing Katie a little we have two new members of the high 800 club. Melissa Pena went 205-217-211-228/861, while Katryna Garcia posted up233-217-201-206/857. Welcome ladies and good shooting. More high scores came in from Daryllynn Davis 202-2234/759, Deanna Carrillo 201/725, Annabel Osberg 200/721 and Sadia Ward 215/704.

In the team standings area, BowlCheap.Com made a big jump once again taking 22 points to move into the fourth spot. Just Chill Entertainment picked up 19 points to surge back into sole position of first place.

This coming Sunday the girls will be having an Adult/Jr. Doubles Tournament along with their normal session. Each girl will be paired with an adult either by choice or assigned. There is also 36 additional spots for adults to get their bowl on for four games in a WipeOut format. This will be a handicap tournament and awards will be given to the top teams, top adults scratch scores and top adults with handicap. The cost to throw 4 games is only $15 and all proceeds go towards the Girls Jr. All-Stars scholarship fund.

The ladies will also be having another fund-raiser of their Valentine’s basket raffle. Come take a chance to win a beautiful basket for the special person in your life. Brunswick Covina Lanes will be the site this Sunday’s action as check-in for the tournament is 1:30 and bowling begins at 2:00. The basket raffle will take place around 3:30.

Alright girls, you know what you need to do this week. A lot of eyes will be on you Sunday. You all did very well and let’s keep it up. See you at Covina.
