Parker Bohn III and Actor Quinton Aaron Win Main Event Terrell Owens PBA Super Clash

KATY, Texas – PBA Hall of Famer Parker Bohn III and actor Quinton Aaron teamed up to win three straight matches to take home the Main Event Terrell Owens PBA Super Clash title Sunday at Main Event in Katy, Texas.

NFL stars Terrell Owens, Chad “Ochocinco” Johnson and Devin Hester, along with Aaron, who portrayed NFL star Michael Oher in the hit movie “The Blind Side,” headlined the all-star lineup. PBA stars competing in addition to Bohn were three-time PBA Player of the Year Jason Belmonte, Hall of Famer Norm Duke and eight-time PBA Tour winner Bill O’Neil.

In the title match, which aired live on ESPN Sunday afternoon, Aaron and Bohn were never challenged beating the Belmonte/Ochocinco team 204-118.

The stepladder seedings for the alternate frame doubles finals were determined by a ‘kickoff round’ where the teams had to bowl as many strikes as possible in 90 seconds.

In the opening match, Bohn and Aaron defeated Duke and Owens, 247-211. In the semifinal, Bohn and Aaron beat Hester and O’Neill 230-180 to advance to the title match against top seed Belmonte and Ochocinco.

The show also featured a segment with Duke, Bohn, O’Neill and Belmonte performing some of their remarkable trick shots. Announcers Dave LaMont and Randy Pedersen also showed their trick shot prowess.

During the telecast PBA Commissioner Tom Clark announced E.J. Tackett as the 2016 GEICO Chris Schenkel PBA Player of the Year. Also announced were Francois Lavoie of Canada as Harry Golden Rookie of the Year, Tom Smallwood as Steve Nagy Sportsmanship Award winner and Rhino Page as the winner of the Tony Reyes Community Service Award.

Two rising stars in youth bowling, 2016 Teen Masters U14 Boys’ and Girls’ Division champions, Kirk Mowl of Ormond Beach, Fla., and Mabel Cummins of Elburn, Ill., participated in a special doubles exhibition where they were paired with a pro. Cummins and

by Fred Eisenhammer

WINNETKA – Mike and Sami Rice celebrated their 48th wedding anniversary at Winnetka Bowl last week, doing what they’ve been doing every Tuesday night – serving as league secretaries for the “Guys and Dolls” league.

The reports are untrue that the San Fernando Valley couple has worked as “Guys and Dolls” coordinators for nearly that long.

It just seems that way.

Mike and Sami have now served for 20 years as coordinators for the “Guys and Dolls” league, which has its roots in now-defunct AMF Rocket Bowl in Chatsworth. The league moved to AMF Woodlake Lanes after Rocket Bowl closed in 2009 and is now in its third season at Winnetka Bowl.

“We love being with Guys and Dolls,” Sami says.

What makes her job so special, Sami says, is “the people – being able to talk to them and make them happy, or at least trying to make them happy. That’s why I took the job in the first place.”

Longtime “Guys and Dolls” bowler Carol Tucker says she always feels at home in the league and credits the Rices. “Mike and Sami demonstrate every week that they care about the bowlers,” she said.

“They work very hard making sure the bowlers’ problems are solved and that the bowlers are happy participating in the ‘Guys and Dolls’ league. We are very lucky to have them as our leaders.”

Mike and Sami have been fixtures on the league bowling scene both as bowlers and administrators.

Sami, who formerly averaged in the 130s, has retired from bowling. But Mike remains a right-handed ace with a 177 average. He enjoyed the game of his life in 2012 at age 64 when he struck on his first 10 shots before finishing with a flashy 288.

But it’s as league secretaries where the two have made their bowling mark. They built up the “Guys and Dolls” league to a powerful 27 teams at Rocket Bowl and have kept the league strong through the transition to Winnetka Bowl.

As for being married 48 years, Sami says it hasn’t come easy. “You have to work at it every day,” says Sami, who married her husband less than three months after meeting him.

“You have to respect each other every day and you have to be considerate every day

“We don’t give up when we’re fighting. He puts up with my garbage and I put up with his garbage. Marriage is 50-50. It’s not one-sided. You always have to come up with a compromise that’s considerate to each other’s feelings.”

Mike and Sami’s daughter, Stephanie, came to Winnetka Bowl to join the anniversary celebration. Asked about the longevity of Mike and Sami’s marriage, Stephanie joked, “It really makes me feel old.”

Mike was contacted first for this story, but he passed the phone to his wife after expressing disbelief that he and his wife deserved to be the focus of a story. “We’re just quiet people – at least I am,” he said, laughing.

One final question for Sami: Would she and Mike stick around as “Guys and Dolls” league secretaries for another 20 years?

“I hope so,” she said.

Look What Beat Out the Bowling Center at Janss Mall

by Fred Eisenhammer

THOUSAND OAKS – There was so much optimism when it was announced in August 2013 that a bowling center was planned for Janss Marketplace in the east Ventura County city of Thousand Oaks.

And even when it appeared something was dragging out the process, local bowlers clinged to the hope that Thousand Oaks could somehow land its first bowling center since the Conejo Bowl closed in 1995. But all hope for the proposed bowling center (and indoor skateboarding area and arcade) got squashed in 2015 when news about the project suddenly became scarce and the story just faded from the radar screen.

Representatives of the planned bowling center had targeted the spacious area in the Janss mall occupied by Padavo Home Furnishings, which had taken over the Linens ‘n Things store about seven years ago.

Although things didn’t work out for the bowling center, another recreational business has now jumped into the void at Janss.

Newmark Merrill, the owner of Janss Marketplace, disclosed that it has signed a 10-year lease with Provo, Utah-based CircusTrix to open a 37,000-square-foot trampoline center at the Padavo site, according to the weekly Acorn newspaper.

Yes, a trampoline center has bounced the bowling center off the Janss landscape.

CircusTrix develops and operates indoor trampoline and extreme recreation parks. It has more than 30 parks in the U.S., Europe and Asia and is the largest such operator in the world. SkyWalk Extreme Air Sports in Fresno is the closest.

A CircusTrix representative said the company hopes to open DojoBoom at Janss in May, according to the Acorn.

So it appears it’s all systems go for the huge trampoline center at Janss. But one still has to wonder how a bowling center would have fared there.

Belmonte, representing the New England Patriots, defeated Mowl and Tackett, representing the Atlanta Falcons, 19-18, in a four-frame match that used a special ‘football’ scoring system.

Earlier in the telecast Cummins substituted for the late-arriving Ochocinco in the kickoff round to help that team earn the top seed for the Super Clash.

PBA’s Big February on ESPN continues with live telecasts of three majors on consecutive Sundays at 10 a.m. The Barbasol PBA Players Championship will air Sunday, Feb. 12; the FireLake PBA Tournament of Champions on Feb. 19, and back-to-back telecasts of the USBC Masters finals and World Bowling Tour Men’s and Women’s Finals presented by the PBA on Feb. 26. In addition to the lineup of live telecasts, the State Farm CP3 PBA Celebrity Invitational which was taped on Jan. 17 at Lucky Strike L.A. Live in Los Angeles will air on Friday, Feb. 17, at 6 p.m. as part of the NBA All-Star weekend.

US Bowling Purchases Murrey International in Deal of Manufacturers

by Fred Eisenhammer

CHINO — It may not seem significant for the everyday bowler, but it’s definitely a big deal for bowling centers across the country.

US Bowling Corporation has acquired Murrey International, Inc., in a deal involving leading bowling manufacturers. Los Angeles-based Murrey will move to US Bowling’s Chino location.

The deal was struck Jan. 5, according to David Frewing, the president of US Bowling. “It went down in a matter of just a few weeks,” he said.

Murrey, founded in 1938 by the late Gordon Murrey, is known worldwide for manufacturing bowling-lane equipment.

On its website, Murrey cites the company’s bowling-lane installation at Google (now Alphabet Inc.) headquarters in Mt. View, Calif. It also lists customers such as PINZ Bowling Center in Studio City, the U.S. Air Force and Navy, Walt Disney, ABC, Fox and the San Francisco Giants.

Frewing said US Bowling now will be able to manufacture “everything” bowling-wise with the addition of Murrey. “The lanes were the last missing piece,” he said. He added that “essentially there was no overlap” in customer base. US Bowling, founded in 1994, is the largest independent builder of new bowling centers in the country. Among its clients, US Bowling has built 23 locations for upscale bowling chain Lucky Strike, Frewing said.

Murrey is an industry leader of synthetic lanes and has installed thousands of their bowling lanes around the world. “The best benefit of the deal was acquiring the rights to [Murrey’s] synthetic lane, the website, international distributor network and their military base business,” Frewing said.

In a press release, US Bowling said it “will also incorporate Murrey’s new MGM5000 Pinspotter to their line of bowling products. When added to the line, it will give US Bowling the ability to offer customers a complete new bowling center package to compete with any competitor around the world.”

US Bowling has about 20 employees and will add about eight of Murrey’s workers to the company.

“Our intention is to keep [Murrey] intact as much as possible,” Frewing said.

One of Murrey’s employees who will be retained is Bill Snoberger, Murrey’s national sales manager.

“We have a long-running relationship with Murrey International, as they have been providing world-class bowling lanes to us for nearly 15 years,” Frewing said. “We are extremely excited about the addition of Bill and what he brings to our organization. “Over the next six weeks, everything we’ve acquired in this transaction will be moved to US Bowling’s facility, 45 miles to the east.”

Said Snoberger: “I have known Daroll Frewing almost 30 years, long before he started US Bowling. US Bowling was the fiercest competitor on a professional level. I am thrilled to come to work for such a great organization and most importantly, a class family.”

Daroll Frewing, David’s father, will remain as US Bowling’s chief executive.

“We’re happy to have a company such as US Bowling take over Murrey’s line of bowling products and maintain the continuity with the Murrey brand name,” said Patrick Murrey, president of Murrey International.

“I think, too, that Daroll and David Frewing have a lot of the same family values that we do.”

World Championship for his fourth title of the year and he was one of three players to qualify for the match play finals in all four PBA animal pattern championships (Cheetah, Chameleon, Scorpion and Shark) that are part of the WSOB. He ended the year as the PBA’s earnings leader ($154,900) and finished third in scoring average (224.49 for 490 games).

In addition to the PBA World Championship, Tackett won titles in the 2016 Xtra Frame Storm Open, Xtra Frame PBA Team Challenge and the Bear Open during the PBA Fall Swing.

At age 24, he became the second-youngest player to win PBA’s top annual individual honor. Only the late Billy Hardwick was younger when he was selected as PBA’s first Player of the Year in 1963 at age 22.

“It’s absolutely amazing,” Tackett said. “I switched to 16 pounds at the end of the 2015 season, had some success and just kept doing what I do. I got the ball rolling the right way and kept it going all year. Winning on television gave me a boost in confidence. I always knew I could do that, but to actually win on TV was something else.

“One thing I’ve always noted about the (Player of the Year) award is it’s named for Chris Schenkel (the PBA Hall of Fame announced for years on ABC-TV). Most people don’t know he was from my home town.”

Tackett also is off to a great start in 2017, winning the PBA Tour’s first event, the DHC PBA Japan Invitational in Osaka, Japan.

“I’m going to stay in the same mindset and try to make TV shows and win,” he said. “That’s why I do what I do – try to win.”

Lavoie, who joined the PBA following a successful collegiate bowling career at Wichita State University, made four television finals during his first year, but none was more impressive than the U.S. Open where he not only won his first title – and a major at that – but also bowled the first nationally-televised 300 game in the prestigious tournament’s colorful history. The sport’s oldest major championship began as the BPAA All Star in 1942.

Lavoie was involved in a Canadian-dominated Rookie of the Year race with Ontario’s Graham Fach, his Team Canada teammate, who drew first blood when he won the Barbasol PBA Players Championship early in the year to become the first Canadian to win a PBA Tour title (also a major). After winning the U.S. Open, Lavoie broke open the race in the World Series, winning his second title in the PBA Shark Championship and finishing the season fifth among the PBA’s average leaders (222.79 for 330 games) and seventh in earnings ($79,920).

“Usually there aren’t multiple rookies who win titles, but I was fortunate to have a strong finish and that’s kind of what sealed the deal,” Lavoie said. “I’m sure Graham had the same goal, but only one of us can win. To finally have it official is great.

“(Winning Rookie of the Year) was a goal,” Lavoie said. “Every year on Team Canada our coach tries to help us set goals and that’s one of the goals I set for myself. You try to aim high, but also set a goal that’s feasible. It justifies all of the hard work I’ve put in.

Tom Smallwood

Smallwood, 39, has been a popular competitor since joining the PBA Tour in 2009. After losing his job with General Motors during the economic downturn, Smallwood decided to pursue his childhood dream of competing on the PBA Tour. He entered the former PBA “exempt tour” qualifier in Allen Park, Mich., and won an exemption to bowl full-time the following season. But he then pulled off a dream victory, winning the PBA World Championship for $50,000 and his first Tour title, resulting in enormous national media attention that included a feature in Sports Illustrated, network television exposure and major national newspaper features.

Smallwood won a second title in the 2013 PBA Scorpion Championship and he has made 11 additional championship round appearances, including runner-up finishes in the 2011 PBA Tournament of Champions and the 2016 PBA World Championship.

“It’s a really a good deal,” Smallwood said, adding with a grin, “When you don’t say much, people think you’re nice, but it’s nice to be thought of as a good guy. I spend a lot of time with (three-time Nagy award winner) Parker Bohn, and I know what kind of guy he is. To be in the group with him, and the other winners, is pretty cool.”

Other nominees for the Nagy award included 2015 winner Josh Blanchard of Mesa, Ariz.; Lavoie; Brad Miller of Raytown, Mo., and Jon Van Hees of Charlestown, R.I.

Page is the fourth recipient of the Tony Reyes Community Service Award, honoring the popular PBA Tour champion who lost his life following a traffic accident in 2012.

Joining previous recipients Parker Bohn III, Missy Parkin and Ed Godbout, Page was nominated for his involvement over the past eight years with the Thomas Cacioppo family in New York in raising money to combat Crohns and Colitis. The Rhino Page Strike Out Crohns and Colitis fund-raisers have generated more than $225,000 to help combat the debilitating digestive tract disorders.

In March, Page will expand his involvement by hosting the PBA Strike Out Crohns and Colitis South Open at Boardwalk Bowl in his adopted hometown, Orlando, Fla.

The 2016 PBA award winners will receive their awards during the PBA Hall of Fame and Awards ceremonies at the Grand Casino in Shawnee, Okla., on Monday, Feb. 13. The hall of fame ceremonies will be live streamed on PBA’s Xtra Frame online bowling channel, beginning at 5 p.m.

“NEW” BAYSIDE BOWL GETTING READY FOR PBA LEAGUE AND ROTH/HOLMAN DOUBLES

PORTLAND, MI — While the PBA is moving into the “Big February” portion of its 2017 season, construction is progressing on the “new” Bayside Bowl in Portland, Maine, in anticipation of the arrival of the PBA League and Mark Roth/Marshall Holman PBA Doubles Championship in April.

Construction of “West Bayside Bowl,” the new eight-lane addition to the facility, will complement “East Bayside Bowl,” the existing 12-lane side. The new addition is expected to be completed by the end of February. Proprietor Charlie Mitchell said a special “grand opening” will take place in mid-March. East Bayside will remain as-is with its original bar-restaurant retaining the historic feel of the facility.

The Roth/Holman Doubles will use all 20 lanes in East Bayside and West Bayside for preliminary rounds, with the live ESPN finals (on Sunday, April 16 at 10 a.m.) and all four televised rounds of PBA League competition (airing on consecutive Sundays April 23-May 14, all at 10 a.m.) originating from the new West Bayside lanes.

“BIG FEBRUARY” MEANS A SUPER MONTH OF XTRA FRAME COVERAGE

PBA’s “Big February” schedule of major championships means a big month of exclusive live streaming coverage on Xtra Frame, beginning with the qualifying rounds of the Barbasol PBA Players Championship Feb. 7-10 from Wayne Webb’s Columbus Bowl in Columbus, Ohio.

Following the live ESPN finals of the Players Championship on Sunday, Feb. 12, at 10 a.m., the PBA and Xtra Frame head to Shawnee, Okla., for live coverage of the PBA Hall of Fame induction ceremonies and 2016 PBA Awards presentations on Monday, Feb. 13, at 5 p.m. from the Grand Casino Hotel & Resort.

Xtra Frame coverage then moves to FireLake Bowling Center in Shawnee for the preliminary rounds of the FireLake PBA Tournament of Champions, Feb. 14-17. That week is concluded by the live ESPN finals of the TOC from FireLake Arena on Sunday, Feb. 19, at 10 a.m.

Big February continues with qualifying and double-elimination match play coverage of the USBC Masters from The Orleans Bowling Center in Las Vegas, Feb. 21-25. The USBC Masters finals, followed by the World Bowling Tour Men’s and Women’s Finals presented by the PBA will air live, back-to-back, on ESPN on Sunday, Feb. 26, beginning at 10 a.m. The finals for all PBA ESPN telecasts are simulcast on ESPN3 and the WatchESPN mobile app for those who would like to watch online or on mobile devices.

PBA’s all-star month is a perfect time for PBA fans to sign up for Xtra Frame’s full month subscription for only $7.99. Three-day ($3.99) and full year Xtra Frame Season Ticket (less than $1.25 a week) options also are available. Visit xtraframe.tv to enroll.

QUBICA AMF PBA REGIONAL UPDATE: David Haynes, Michael Haugen Jr. & Jason Tehee Win in Reno

RENO — David Haynes of Las Vegas posted a 6-2 match play record and a 16-game total of 3,769 pins Sunday to win his 11th career PBA Regional title in the PBA Sands Regency West/Northwest Winter Classic triple-header presented by Storm at Reno’s National Bowling Stadium while Michael Haugen Jr. won his first event as a PBA50 player and Jason Tehee earned his first PBA title.

Haynes, who earned $2,000, defeated Jakob Butturff of Chandler, Ariz., by 19 pins. Butturff, coming off a record nine PBA Regional titles performance in 2016, had a 6-2 match play record and 3,750 pins for his 16 games.

In the companion PBA50 Open, Haugen went 6-2 in match play and knocked down 3,901 total pins in his PBA50 debut to defeat Ron Mohr of Las Vegas by 116 pins. In addition to his first PBA50 title, the Phoenix resident earned $1,500. Leading off the weekend, Tehee, from Modesto, Calif., defeated Toby Sambueno of Henderson, Nev., 299-202, to win Friday’s Sands Regency Winter Challenge presented by Storm. The Challenge was open to players who had never won a PBA title.

Tehee, who also earned $1,500, defeated Will Smith of Spokane, Wash., 267-164, and Sambueno defeated Matthew Anderson of Mineral Point, Wis., 186-182, to set up the championship match. With his win, Tehee became eligible to compete for a berth in February’s FireLake PBA Tournament of Champions in Shawnee, Okla.

DeWaine and Mari West Score in Laughlin and Show that “CALIFORNIA BOWLERS ARE THE BEST IN THE WORLD”

by Frank Weiler

LAUGHLIN, NV — When bowling at the LAUGHLIN BLAST Tournament, DeWaine and Mari West rolled big scores every day and placed in the TOP FIVE of each daily tournament. They showed that “CALIFORNIA BOWLERS ARE THE BEST BOWLERS IN THE WORLD”.

For decades DeWaine and Mari West were one of the top bowling couples in California. They competed in dozen’s of our leagues and tournaments and they always were at or near the top of the standings. Both are great bowlers.

DeWaine is a Citrus Belt Hall of Famer who has averaged above 220 for over two decades. He led the Citrus Belt in average a few season’s ago with a 241 book and Mari has averaged over 190 for years. Both have rolled numerous honor scores with DeWaine having seventy-five perfect games and forty-eight 800s, with a high of 848. Their twenty-seven years of marriage seems to have made them better bowlers.

Unfortunately for us and California, DeWaine retired from the U.S. Postal Service about two years ago and he and Mari moved to Buckeye, Arizona. Still, once a California bowler always a California bowler.

The West’s came to Laughlin in a few weeks ago to compete in their third Laughlin Blast. It was great seeing them again. BOWLING BRINGS OLD FRIENDS TOGETHER.

As mentioned above, THE WEST’S SCORED IN LAUGHLIN. They rolled several big scores in there. DeWaine rolled three No Tap perfect 300 games, one of which was a the only real perfect game (12 real strikes) of the tournament. That real 300 included 12 real strikes which were part of a string of 22 consecutive real strikes. Both DeWaine and Mari rolled No Tap 800s.

The GREAT SPORT OF BOWLING always means great camaraderie, great competition, great fun and if you’re California bowlers usually means big scores. DeWaine and Mari West scored in Laughlin!
