Bill Harmatz Reaches the Finish Line

by Chris Holmes

VISTA—Bill Harmatz did not have time on his hands when he sat on a thoroughbred in the starting gate. He says jocks don't think about very much in the last few seconds. "The main thing is to make sure your horse is standing on all four feet." If he has one foot behind the other, he'll fall as he jumps forward from the gate.

"You have a sixth sense when you're riding. All this comes to you; you don't think about it; it's just natural: You can feel the horse next to you and you know who's behind you. And before you go out in a race you always analyze your race—what your speed is and the come-from-behind horse and who's the horse you want to beat, and who's the horse you have to beat—you have to keep an eye on him when you leave the gate. This is all going through your mind. These are the things that make a difference between a top rider and a rider that just goes out there and rides. Your mind is clicking all the time."

Harmatz owns and runs Vista Entertainment Center in Vista, CA, these days, about 50 miles north of San Diego and 20 minutes from the Del Mar racetrack. But he was a top rider in a racing career from 1953 to 1971. Most jockeys last three to five years, he says, and average about 4,500 races.

Harmatz rode 26,000 races in his career, often a half-dozen a day, and won 1,800 of them, more than $10 million in purses, rode in the Kentucky Derby four times, won the Preakness in 1959, and once rode six winners on a single day (at Bay Meadows Racetrack near San Francisco, April 23, 1954).

Thoroughbred racing is dangerous for jockeys. They sit astride high-strung animals who weigh a thousand pounds and run at 40 or 45 miles an hour on ankles small enough to snap in two. An ambulance follows the horses around the track. "You're going to get hurt," says Harmatz, who was not only long-lived as a jockey; he went into Guinness for the years he rode having broken no more than a collarbone.

In 1959, a contractor-neighbor wanted to build a bowling place in Vista. Harmatz was riding at Del Mar then and living near the Santa Anita racetrack in L.A. He advanced $11,000 for the land and the contractor put up a building and 16 lanes of bowling for $74,000. When the contractor got into financial trouble, Harmatz bought him out and leased it to a partnership who wanted to run a bowling business.

He was 28 that year and in his sixth year as a jockey. He'd been on horses since he was 13 or so, riding with junior high and high school buddies all over the hills in East L.A., where oceans of tract houses have been built since the 1940s. "Whittier was all riding stables. My dad was in the cattle business, so I was surrounded by livestock. Being small, I figured [it] would be the natural thing to ride horses," he says. His racing weight was 109.

"A friend of mine was an ex-jockey. He was an exercise rider at the time, and he was going with my ex-girlfriend. He would take me out to the racetrack every morning and then drop me off at school."

Harmatz was up in the morning at 5:30. By 6, he would be at Hollywood Park (which is in Inglewood) or Santa Anita, where he would walk horses until 8. By 9, he was in class.

"That's how you start, walking horses," Harmatz says. "Then [you] become a pony boy. He accompanies the horse out to the racetrack. You go on a saddle horse along with the thoroughbred to keep him settled down and in case he gets anxious. The exercise boy exercises him every morning. You take the horse out on the main track and gallop him for a mile, a mile and a half, probably 20, 25 minutes. That's how you learn. In those days there was no school to go to to become a rider." The groom, who spends a good half-hour rubbing the animal down, and the trainer complete the horse's team.

The year he graduated from high school, Harmatz's picture said his greatest ambition was to ride a thoroughbred down the stretch at Santa Anita. He served two years in the Air Force first. He began riding professionally at 22, "old for most jocks"; 16 or 17 was the usual starting age.

A horse race is "95%" the horse, according to Harmatz. As a jockey, the job is "just keep 'em out of trouble and read him and make sure the horse doesn't use himself up." Speed horses tend to give their all and spend themselves before the end; "come from behind" horses do what the name says. "Each horse has its own personality and it's up to the jockey to analyze him. If you've ridden the horse before, you kind of know the horse. If he's a speed horse, you want to try to save as much as you can. If a horse comes from behind, you want to make sure you move in time and don't wait until the race is over before you start making your move to catch the horses in front.

"The main thing is you don't want to break stride. When a horse breaks stride he loses a lot of ground. It takes him two or three strides before

San Gabriel Valley USBC Tourney Deadline Extended

WEST COVINA—It's not too late to enter the 2011 San Gabriel Valley USBC City tournament. The deadline for entry has been extended until February 18th.

The 2011 City Tournament opens February 26th with team event at BRC West Covina Lanes. Times are Noon and 3:00 PM. Followed by Doubles & Singles Sunday at Oak Tree Lanes. February 27th first squad is 9:00 A.M.

There will be a second weekend; March 5th and 6th with the same scheduled times.

Three different events; a Men's only, Women only and Youth, all bowling the same dates and times.

We know times are tough, however the local association could sure use your help. Talk it up with your fellow bowlers, put a team together, come out and join the fun. If you don't have anyone to bowl with and want to bowl, contact the association office.

One of the criteria for becoming the San Gabriel Valley USBC Bowler of the Year is to participate in the city tournament. Did you know the SGVUSBC has a Hall of Fame?

Participation in the City Tournament is part of the criteria for a bowler to be inducted into the Hall of Fame.

We have several awesome bowlers in the valley and wish they could be convinced to join the tournament so they can be recognized for their talents.

Entries can be found at the bowling center or the website at sangabrielvalleyusbc.com.

We will be looking forward to seeing you on the lanes.

LARRY BOYD'S 823 Ties Senior Record

by Frank Weiler

REDLANDS - Larry Boyd rolled an 823 (289-235-299) last week and tied the senior (65 years or older) record for EMPIRE BOWL. A stubborn six pin stopped him from scoring 300 for his third game and an 824. Larry was bowling in the Nightlighter Senior Scratch League. Larry tied the record set by BOBBY LYONS on April 29, 2007. Bobby was 66 years, 7 months when he set the record and Larry is currently 67 years and 5 months old. Larry is a smooth stroker with a 206 book average. Lyons is a power player with a book average of 224.

The senior women's record is held by THERESE LLOYD at 673. Larry Boyd and all CITRUS BELT bowlers are grateful to the Bowling News for recognizing our accomplishments.

MATT RIDGWAY Shifts Gears

by Frank Weiler

MURRIETA—Matt Ridgway's bowling shifted from LOW GEAR to HIGH GEAR in one week. After bowling a league low series the previous week, he came back with a league high 767 (256-232-279) last week, while bowling in CAL OAKS BOWL premier scratch league for WEST COAST CHIROPRACTIC. WHY?

Matt hasn't been bowling for about a year now, and just joined the team a week ago. He wasn't ready for scratch competition, especially match play, without any practice. The tough oil condition confused him.

Matt, a former PBA regional player, was ready to throw in the towel. He wasn't used to bowling minus scores. I watched as he quietly slipped out the back door, with head he gets back into it. And by that time the other horses are gone. The thing is you don't want to get behind horses that block you, so when you want to make a run you've got no place to go and you sit there and hold your horse and the race is over. You want to keep your horse out in the clear.

"You're always fighting for position. And when you find your position, you have to analyze your horse and know how much horse you got under you, so if a hole opens up, you can make the hole and get there on time. If you don't have enough horse and the hole opens up, you're dead.

"As you're running, the horses move, they come in, they come out. You have to watch the horse in front of you. If the horse is trying to get [to the outside], you know you can get in on the inside. If the horse is running in--lugging in, as they call it--then you want to go on the outside of him. You don't want to run up on the inside of a horse that's trying to get in on you.

"When you make your move, you want him to move. You have your whip and that encourages the horse to give you a little more effort. You get instructions [from the trainer] before you get on your horse: 'My horse likes to run on the outside or doesn't want to be hit too much, likes a left-handed stick or a right-handed stick.' Some horses, you just shake it at him and you'll get more response [than from] hitting him."

It's all over in a minute and a half. There's nothing to compare with it. Harmatz will tell you. "You know, to be a successful jockey you have to like horses, especially thoroughbreds. There's no greater sensation. It's like driving a great racecar at a match. When you ask them to run they just give you that speed and power. It's just wonderful sitting on top of a thoroughbred."

Knowing you're going to get hurt is a downside for some. "It never bothered me. You just take that as part of the business." But the worst of it, for most jockeys, was their weight. Some had to sweat off three or four pounds every day they went to race. Laps of the track, wearing a sweat suit, were a common way of doing what diets didn't.

Fortunately, Harmatz did not have a weight problem, and luckily for his longevity, he was married, had a child and "kept my nose to the grindstone." Not for him the prosperity earned by 20% of all jockeys that "kills more riders than it helps--the wine, women and song, and they fall by the wayside." He kept in good condition and maintains that although he quit at 39, he could have ridden another 10 years.

Famed jockey Bill Shoemaker made the difference. Living about a mile apart near Santa Anita and seeing one another at the track, they struck up acquaintance. Shoemaker wasn't investment-minded, Harmatz says, where Harmatz had four brothers in the real estate business. "Shoe" and Harmatz were eventually borrowing--"never really put any cash in, borrowed on name and credit"--and buying. Among other deals, an office building in downtown L.A., a 720-acre ranch in outlying Thousand Oaks, and 10 acres next door to Disneyland (for $280,000 in 1957, two years after the theme park opened). Shoemaker wanted to keep racing so Harmatz quit the track to manage the portfolio.

While at it, he bought another building downtown and fitted it out as one of the first self-storage businesses. In 1973, the yellow pages did not even have a classification for storage, he remembers.

But he grew bored. "I had too much time on my hands. The guys' lease ran out at [the] bowling center and I thought, 'Well, I'll go down and play with this thing and see what it's all about.'"

After he saw, in 1975, he decided the area needed more of what Vista Bowl could offer, so in the '80s he went from 16 to 40 lanes and from 13,000 to 46,000 square feet. Mid-way through the decade, he had three nightclubs in the building as well (rhythm and blues, rock, and afterhours), and customers were driving 100 miles from the desert north of L.A.

Harmatz "had all the action going," but fiercer drunk-driving laws, rising band prices, and security considerations put an end to the nightclubs. Today, there are a banquet room seating 250 and an arcade of 3,000 square feet.

"Now it's basically a bowling center, and it's doing great." Indeed. His ownership of the bowling center has been canny enough to make it one of the last three standing in northern San Diego County, a booming area where a lot of people around Vista make the time to bowl at Harmatz's place.

Editors Note: The BCSC (Bowling Centers of Southern California) welcomed Chris Holmes as their new office manager in January. Bowling News thanks Chris for this fine article.

Ralph Morton's Fun-Time Bowling Senior No Tap Doubles Tournament

Sunset Station, Henderson, NV January 17-19, 2011

by Brad Domes FuntimeBowling@cox.net

HENDERSON—Bonanza! A great western! Another bonanza was the FunTime tournament concluded the week of January 16th at Sunset Station Hotel & Casino in Henderson, Nevada. Moving ,after many years, from Riverside Lanes Laughlin, Nevada a FunTime tournament record winter attendance turned out to join us at the new location. Many new faces and many old faces not seen in several years helped set the stage for some great bowling.

Sticking with the western theme a Sunday early arrival crowd dressed up western style with many winning prizes for their efforts. However, with all fluff aside, over 60 teams were ready to show their bowling style in the growing evermore popular Sunday evening blind draw. Gary Anderson teamed with Mary Lou Morrison to take top prize with a 1713 no-tap doubles score handicapped at 100% of 220. Rose Mc Donald and Larry Almo at 1684 were second and with a score of 1678 the team of Ellen Palmer & Helen Preston finished third. The top 15 teams all received a share of a very generous prize fund. Ken Mc Teer, Bill Moore & Doug White got out of the gate quickly with 300 scores.

Monday the 17th was the first of three daily tournaments consisting of Squads A & B merged together and split into two divisions. Division 1 saw 111 teams vie for top honors. This division consisted of bowlers with team averages of 320 and below. Division 2 with team averages 321 and above had 103 teams. These team averages were used consistently throughout the daily tournaments to configure divisional play.

Div 1: Monday: Erma Herrmann (937) & Sharon Gianocarò (819) took top honors with 1756 followed by the teams Luther (807) & Helen (859) Goad (1666) and Lena (796) & Jack (863) Grace (1659). Two pins separated Fran Turney (770) & Terry Kipper (887) (1657) from fifth place finishers Harry (901) & Joann (754) Burke (1655).

Div 2: Monday: Highlighted by an actual perfect game by John Palmer believed to be the second in tournament history. Congrats. Not to be out done Jim Coulsby (943) recorded two (2) no tap 300's leading him and teammate Linda Taylor (756) (1699) to a first place finish. Close behind with a team score of 1679 Dave Pugh (300,829) & Matt Fuller, Jr. (850) for second a scant 4 pins over Gene Hedge (275,795) & Charles Coe (285,880). 300's recorded, other than those listed above, were: John Fitzgerald, Eduardo Sanchez, Daryl McK-inney, Brad Domes, Mark Kight & Andy Gagliano.

Monday evening there was a special singles no tap event. Sticking to the same handicapping format 45 hardy souls participated. Distaffers led by Kathy Beard (297,953), Lonnie Hodgson (300,951) & Connie Byrne (294,938) took top honors over Dennis Mann (287,907) & Mike Heassler (280,900).

Tuesday brought some change as Squad B had to have a second squad due to some miscommunication regarding available early squad lanes. In any case, it didn't cause any bowlers to waver as they all seem to want to bowl at any time. Division 1 had 112 teams and Division 2 had 105.

Div 1: Tuesday: Women dominated the top two spots with a familiar couple taking third place. Kat Van Der Vegt (264,882) & Lindy Walker (811) (1693) by 4 pins over Thelma Barry (847) & B J Davalos (285,842) (1689) and the Graces (1687) by 6 pins. Mary Donnelly's 300 (914) catapulted she & hubby Mike (761) (1675) to 4th place. Some notable scores: B J Davalos 285, Monty McNally 284, Nancy Kenna 278, Alfredo Ferrer 298, Ruth Walsh 276, Willie Pugh 279, Don Vesey 278.

Div 2: Tuesday: Kathy (873), along with John (884), Beard (1757) added to her singles victory with a win in division 2 barely over the team of Leo Samuelson (265,823) & Larry Almo (285,931) (1754). Jerry Wood (288,835) & Gagliano (300,873) (1708) slipped into third place just 2 pins over Dan Comerford (743) & Bob Greb (300,300,963) (1706). Hi scoring: 300's by Ruby Mc Neely, Raymond Diaz (2), Lew Castleberry, Doug White, Maurice Hultz, Robert Holt, Ken Smelker & Frank Mazeikas

Wednesday finds many bowlers finishing early and heading home probably in time to bowl in their respective leagues. Slightly less participation overall with 107 teams in Division 1 and 101 in Division 2. Team totals for all days and divisions were 639 or 1278 bowlers.

Div 1: Wednesday: Connie Byrne's (838) partner Virginia Schuetzle (1029) apparently learned lane conditions in setting the individual high and team high (1867) for the entire tournament obviously taking first place by a wide margin over Margie (880) & Gilbert (893) Barnett (1773). Trying to keep pace were partners Jerry Lawless (837) & Lorraine Redman (854) 1691 coming in third. Other scoring: Georgette Palmer & Randi Portwood 298, Terry Wiley 296, Bob McAnelly 290, Jim Ziebarth 286, Bob Grier 285, Dianne Fowler 280, Russ valentine 279, Dianne Pritchard & Teddi Vesey 278, Colleen Vess 276 & Barbara Turner 275.

Div 2: Wednesday: Wrapping up the three day contests are Bill (278,881) & Ruth (870) Walsh (1751), Willie Moon (300,882) & Dianne Pritchard (278,842) (1724) and Mike Heassler (804) & Ernie Rymer (902) tying with the team of Julie Rhoads (819) & Tim Teller (893) (1712). 300's : Jack Grace, John Fitzgerald, Richard Berna, Gary Anderson, Bill Moore, Wayne Conaway, Terry Mar & Gordon Benson

Moving to a new venue is always difficult and full of challenges. On that note special thanks to Fran Williams, Lucy Domes & Shirley Steinmetz for their Sunday handling of a very stressful check-in. Ralph & Nancy Morton's remaining staff of Judee & Jerry Wood, Billy & Ruth Lang, John & Kathy McCabe, Les Williams, Brad Domes, Dennis Morton, Dick Hounsley, Freida Pyles & Gordon Benson should be thanked for their continual attention to all the details, issues & bowler's needs.

Thanks, as well, to the Sunset Hotel & Casino staff and Jim Welch's bowling staff. Special thanks to Richard Peters for his patience and cooperation..

It's off we go again! Moving to The Orleans Hotel & Casino July 25-27, 2011. This will be the 10th year and 20th FunTime tournament. Please join us to celebrate! Many surprises are expected! It may be a bit warmer but cool inside the 70 lane bowling center. Early birds can bowl on Sunday in the popular blind draw no tap doubles venue. Dress like a hobo/ bag lady and win some prizes. Daily drawings for a Brunswick bowling ball, bag, brackets, side pots. generous prize funds. Go to our website www.funtimebowling.yolasite.com for details, entry forms and see all results from our January tournament. Call Ralph Morton @ 619 647-0541. If you are over 50 come on down or up!!!

ABTA Returns to West Covina this weekend

LAKEWOOD — In our return to Cal Bowl, we had a very nice turnout of 241 entries this week. Only four Squads!! Cut scores were a +88 for the men and +45 for the women. The Super Seniors added to the board (2 men and 1 woman) were Joe Nolan (+58), Jack Mongillo (+65) and Sherly Agustin (+23) for the women. That would give us 58 bowlers making it to the semi-finals this week.

For all qualifying squads our top qualifiers for the Men were Eldie Abutan and Albert Fernandez with a +164. For the women it was Faye Josafat with a +88. Each will get a paid entry into a future regular ABTA event. Each week our top seed overall draws the Match Series. This week it was worth $2,280. The top seed drew a 667. We had no one that bowled that score.

Next week at West Covina we will estimate the Match Series at $2,800.

For the 3-6-9 qualifying this week, we had Talia St. Angelo outlasting the men. She would only need (4) 9 counts or strikes to win. She missed on her first shot and received a $50 consolation. We will have a $1,300 Pot at West Covina.

In the doubles this week, we had 138 groups get into the doubles, with 19 spots paid out. The top prize this week went to Vuong Do and Brian Jones with 1452 for $160. In second place was Ely Cruz and Vic Garcia with a 1439 for $140. The low to cash was 1354. We paid out $1380 in doubles.

In the semis this week we saw Ely Cruz lead the semis from start to finish with a +174 to sit out and bowl for the title. Margie Coronado came in second at +151 and would sit out the first round. It took a +83 for the men and a +10 for the women to make the top 16.

This week, our top seed in semi-finals had the honor of drawing the match game worth $1,380. Ely drew a 291. Yes! It carried over as we had no score to match that one! We will estimate the pot to be $2,800 at West Covina. This week we had seven new bowlers join us. Let us welcome these new bowlers to the club, Hartsell Duhart, Robert Garcia, Lisa Donnelly, Chauncey Roscoe, Mitchell Grissett, Christina Chung, John Schlichting, Brian Jones, Kenji Chong, Michael Yeung, Tay Chan.

This would bring us to our Match Play finals. In the first round the seven losers were Talia St. Angelo, Rico Cayton, Victoria Toro, J. J. Soon, Jeff Juckett, Danny Alcayde, Mike Villareal. They would receive checks of $100 each. In the second round, the losers were Pengsean Chea, Pilbert Colian, Vuong Do, and Margie Coronado. Each would get checks of $110. This would get us to down to the final four bowlers. At this point, our horses would be paying anywhere from a low of $26 (Chauncey Roscoe) to a high of $110 (Greg Kokanour) depending on who would win. In this round we saw Jason Jones (6th seed) bowling Greg Kokanour (12th seed). In this match, Jason would get the better of Greg as Greg could not find the shot on the pair with a 259 to 200 finish. In the other match we saw Chauncey Roscoe (3rd seed) downing Carlos Vejar (4th seed), with a 250 to 214 finish. Carlos and Greg finished in 4th and 5th getting checks for $120 each. Our semi-final match was all set to be bowled on 3 and 4. We had our 3rd and 6th seeds into the top 16 bowling each other. In our horses this week we would see Chauncey paying $26 and Jason paying $39 if they win their match. In this match, Chauncey would start by picking up a split and then stay clean all the way til to the 10th frame and finish with a 204/251. While Jason would bowl good, he missed the 10 pin in the 3rd frame and then the 4 pin in the 5th frame to put him behind by 33 pins and never recovered to finish with a 172/219. That would give Chauncey the victory and for those lucky "investors" that had Chauncey as a horse, he paid $26. Jason finished 3rd and received $205.

The title game is set and bowled on lanes 5 and 6 this week. Ely being the top seed elected to have Chauncey start the match first. Chauncey would start out with a spare and then Ely would open with a double. Chauncey came back with another spare, and then left the 6-10 and only get the 10 pin on the spare shot. Ely came up in the 3rd and 4th frame and got 2 more strikes to give him the ham-bone to start the match. Chauncey came up in the 4th and 5th frames with spares, while Ely would get his 5th strike, to take a big lead.

In the 6th frame Ely would leave the 3-6 and only picked up one. He however had a 58 pin lead at this point. That would prove to be enough and Ely would finish with a 224/266 to 193/235 giving him his 3rd ABTA title. Ely would take home $1000 for the win and an additional $85 in Cash and Carry and $100 for wearing his ABTA Shirt. Chauncey would get $500 for 2nd place.

Champion Ely Cruz is from Baldwin Park and used a Lane 1 drilled by Mike Wahl (his son-in-law). He is married to Nympha with 1 daughter Rita also an ABTA bowler and their one Granddaughter Tori. He would like to thank all those that supported him. There were many!

Chauncey Roscoe (2nd Place) is from Irvine and used an Anarchy Storm drilled at Carter Lanes. He is married to Maria and they have one daughter Zaria. He would like to thank the ABTA and his family for their support.

Jason Jones (3rd Place) is from Lakewood and used a Anarchy Storm drilled by Charles Weeks. He is single but engaged to Meg. He would like to thank Dave Jones for cheering him on and Meg for her support, along with Rose Jones.

This week the weekly ball sponsor winner of a 900 Global Ball was J. J. Soon, he received the Hype. Each time you bowl, you get a free ticket for this prize given away by our Sponsor, 900 Global. This week we were again selling the raffle tickets for a chance at a raffle prizes. Winning a Regular Entry were Andy Yu and Adam Drozd. Winning an Entry for our Memorial Event was Adrian Pelayo. Winning a Global 900 3 Ball Tote Bag was Samson Kong. Winning a Global 900 ball, "Bank", was Jason Jones. The rest of the results are in the payoff sheet in this paper.

This was our Annual Super Bowl contest as each bowler would get a shot at picking the Score of the Super bowl Game.

And Closest picking the winning team (Packers) was a tie as Vicki Holiwell 30-25, and Sierrre Herradura and Tony Morgan 31-24. All three missed by one point so they will get a paid Room (One night) at the South Point for our Annual Las Vegas Event in July. Next are Alisha Abdur Raheem 31-27, and Lisa Donnelly 30-24 who only missed by two points and they will get each a Paid Regular ABTA Entry worth $54 due to the tie. This is free to our members. There was no cost to enter and total value paid out if over $375.

This week we will be at West Covina with squads being 12 pm, 1 pm, 2:30 pm, 4 pm and final squad at 6 pm. Remember to be early to avoid the long lines that happen at West Covina. See our ad for address and directions, or check our website (www.abta1.com) to link to address for directions.

Feb 19, we look forward to returning to Midtown Lanes in Los Angeles in a one day event. It is always fun here. There is the best food in that Coffee Shop! Try it! You will love it! Lonzell "Mr. Super Senior" even liked the neck bones there.

It's fortunate folks as Ely Cruz enter the archives as our latest champion. Hope to see you at West Covina! If you have any comments or suggestions, use the contact page on our Website to send comments to us. Thank you for being an ABTA member, until then!

CAL BOWL BOWLING REPORT

2500 E. Carson St., Lakewood, CA 90712 • (562) 421-8448

LAKEWOOD — I was sitting here thinking of what we should mention in the opening paragraph of the Cal Bowl Bowling Report, when I noticed how creative some of the team names are. Was a lot of thought put into the name? Was it something that you used many years ago and still liked it? Or did you put the team members names in a hat, shook it and that's what it spelled?

Mega Vegas: Chris Potter 244/572, Marie Collier 508, Kelly Wynn 223, John Rey 221/544, Mario Neri 207, Otho Oates 200/533, Nancy Barton 505.

Katie Jakes Bar & Grill is New Leader

by Aimee Gomez

DOWNEY—Katie Jakes Bar and Grill took down Zavala’s Taqueria in spite of Greg Neuer’s 200-217-221/638 and Mike Cammarata’s 212/604. Kevin Valmonte stepped up in the absence of Katie Jakes’ anchor, and shot 208-264-245/717. Also contributing were Matt Cormack 201-243/636, Kevin Yamauchi 233-211/625 and Kevin Gallagher 241-206/606. By sweeping, Katie Jakes now has 23 wins and sits comfortably in first while Zavala’s dropped to a three way tie for second with 20 wins.

Raul Rosales 245-244-228/717 and Steve Gurrieri 211-256/629 led Bowlers Depot to four wins over the Brylaw Accounting team that only posted one six, a 221-204/600 by Charles Zelaya. The Depot has 20 while Brylaw has 17.

Storm Products had a good 4-1 night over Clyde’s Video Games. Paul Varela led the way 212-213-227/652 and Leonard Ruiz added a 259/627. Ramiro Garcia 228-222/649, Clyde Lumpford 203-212/610 and Greg Jackson 224/600 of Clyde’s pulled out the second game win to avoid the sweep. Storm has 20, Cldye’s has 15.

Linder Insurance swept Tifco thanks to Shane Soper’s 234/625. Tom Jackson’s 200-220/612 kept the matches close, but they could not pull out any wins.

Sysco swept Threadworks. Paul Barraco 230-215/637 and Harry Wong 228-235/625 led the way, while Threadworks struggled.

Jared Lawrence 242-254/694 and Larry Campbell 268/623 led Junior Amateur Tour to four wins over Herzog Insurance. The 293 pin second game victory by JAT and the bucket with the 7-10 were the most notable events in the corner.

ABTA swept Key Container using David Cogswell 221-229-228/678 and Dean Lopez 206-215/610.

Bowlum took four from Pro Approach. Arnold Cheesman 235-222/642 and Herbert Jones 201-235/602 led Bowlum to the wins while Sherman Joseph 224-209/606 shot six for Pro Approach.

Take care and see you all soon.

Next Tournament This Sunday, February 13 Dual-Club/Adult Trios

Brunswick Deer Creek Lanes – Rancho Cucamonga

Dual-Club/Adult Trios This Sunday

This Sunday will be the one Farm, one Open, one Adult Trios at Deer Creek in Rancho Cucamonga. Entry fee will be $40 per bowler. All bowlers will bowl 5 games of individual qualifying followed by a cut. The qualifying teams will bowl 5 games of Baker Match-Play where scores will be doubled with 60 bonus for each win. There will be a rolloff for the top teams and a shot at the title. Any questions? E-mail me at director@bowljat.org.

Brandon Kraye Takes AMF Woodlake

The JAT headed to the north valley and our annual trip to AMF Woodlake Bowl. After 6 games of qualifying, Jeremy Glover was leading the pack at +276 followed closely by Brandon Kraye at +217. Low to qualify was Wesley Low Jr. who shot a huge 267 in the last game to set the cut at +76. In the round of 8, Wesley Low Jr. remained red-hot putting up 534 for his two games while taking out the top-seeded Jeremy Glover. Jerome Jordan Jr. needed 3 to get past Robert Page and Mark Myers dropped the first game before getting the next two to bounce Mark Curtis Jr. Brandon Kraye struck up a nice 515 2-game set in sweeping past Joey Chuo. In the Semifinals, Jerome Jordan Jr. cooled of Wesley in 2 games while Brandon Kraye avenged his loss in last tournament’s final by sweeping past Mark Myers in 2. In the final match, Jerome Jordan Jr. was overmatched by Brandon Kraye who never lost the pocket or the match 217-192 and 212-166 for the title. Congratulations Brandon on a nice day of bowling! Our next tournament is this Sunday at Brunswick Deer Creek Lanes in Rancho Cucamonga- it’s our first ever Dual-Club/Adult Trios and I hope to see some new faces on the lanes! Remember- it’s one Farm Club, one Open Division and one Adult bowler. If you have any questions, e-mail me at director@bowljat.org. See you all this Sunday at Deer Creek!

JAT Champion Brandon Kraye and 2nd Jerome Jordan

by David Gordon

WOODLAND HILLS – AMF Woodlake Lanes played host to the JAT Farm Club a couple of weeks ago and with a surprising schedule conffliction, we gladly welcomed the twenty bowlers that made their way out. This tournament found us using the JAT Open division format of six qualifying games followed by best of three bracket eliminations, for the top ten bowlers advancing. This was planned in order to better prepare the Farm Club bowlers to future years of bowling with the JAT. It also gave a chance for bowlers to make up some ground on the season’s JAT points, as this format almost doubles the points of a normal tournament. We thank the staff and management of AMF Woodlake Lanes for their hospitality.

In the qualifying round Luke Holley jumped out quick and led from the opening game of 242. He added a 247 and 226 to finish up qualifying at plus 83. However, right behind him we had Adam Dubia putting up the tournament high game with a near perfect 298. Adam added a 233, closing the gap even further and finished at plus 67. And just a touch back of that we had Kevin Acosta with 225-234, Jason Tilden 224-266, and Christian Borao 255-239-226, to round out those finishing on the plus side. Other reportable scores came in from Kirk Chui 239-222, Ryan Hutchison 237, Shane Pierson 232, Baujee Harlan 221-224, Tristan Beaner 224, and Keith Tilden 223. The cut to advance came in at minus 61. In the first round of brackets, we found Holley and Dubia taking a bye, while Gabriella Mayfield had a 248 game to force a three game set against Chui. Hutchison, Harlan, and Tilden advanced with two straight games and Tilden did it with games of 223 and 274.

In the quarter-final pairings Chui took out Tilden in three games and Dubia advanced over Harlan in three. In that battle, Harlan took game one with a 228 game and Dubia posted a 235 game, to push it to three. Holley removed Hutchison in two and a tie-breaker. Holley took game one with a 221 and then both had a 226 in game two. In the 9th & 10th frame tie-breaker roll-off, Holley did it quick 59-38.

Now with three bowlers left, the top seed (Holley) waited once again while Dubia and Chui squared off. Game one Dubia with a 257. Game two Chui going 277. Game three to advance, Dubia 268-213 and now faced Holley. In the final pairing, Dubia started out 189-170, while Holley brought it even 210-173. One game for all the marbles – the veteran poured it on – Dubia 222-175 for his third JAT Farm Club title. Congratulations Adam.

Our next event is this Sunday at Brunswick Deer Creek Lanes in Rancho Cucamonga. This will be a special tournament of Dual-Club and Adult Trios teams. One Farm Club member, one Open Division member, and one adult will make up the teams for this fun and exciting tournament format. Qualifying games from each bowler, followed by Baker matches/finals. This will be all one division (scratch) and check-in begins around 8:15am. The low cost of this special event will be around $90 per team (see the JAT News & Notes article for exact details).

So wake up the old folks and get ready to prove your worth. Contact the JAT directors (www.bowljat.org) if you need to fill your team. I hope to see everyone out there.

MIKE MALINICK WINS SEVENTH ABT CHAMPIONSHIP AT LINBROOK BOWL

ANAHEIM—Mike Malinick won his seventh Amateur Bowlers Tour (ABT) championship at Linbrook Bowl on Sunday, February 6, 2011 during our 3-game Beat-the-Board tournament. Mike bowled in the 10:30AM squad and shot games of 267, 242 and 257 with handicap for a series total of 766 and the $300 1st place prize plus $220 from the Progressive Pot. Jeffrey Sargent came in second shooting a 741 with handicap. Low to cash was +114.

Our newest championship, Mike Malinick lives in Garden Grove and has two daughters, Jenny and Diane. Mike was using a Storm Furious drilled by Dick Braasch for the win this weekend. Mike sports a high game of 300 and a high series of 754. Mike wanted to thank Jenny and Diane for their love and support. Mike also wanted to thank his girlfriend, Barb, John Daleiden, and bowling team mates, Rick Stadnick, Sandra Norby and Troy Sucatre for their support and encouragement. Mike also wanted to thank Dick Braasch for taking care of his equipment and Jan Fishburn for helping him with his game. Mike also wanted to thank Linbrook Bowl for hosting the tournament and the ABT directors for running an outstanding tournament. The winner of the Senior Sweeper and the 2-Game Sweeper was Art Lindsey.

The ABT staff and membership would like to thank the management and staff at Linbrook Bowl for hosting our tournament. Our next scheduled event is February 13, 2011 at AMF Carter Lanes. The address is 1501 S. Lemon Street in the city of Fullerton. The phone number is 714-526-7725. Squad times are 10AM, 11:30 & 1PM. First place will be $1000 with 60 tournament and progressive pot entries. The entry fee for the tournament is $45. Gold members and all re-entries are $40. Multiple cashing in this tournament. Cash as many times as you bowl but only once in the top three.

The applications for the Spring Nationals are now available at all tournaments. The tournament is scheduled for March 29-April 3 at Sam's Town in Las Vegas. First place in the Classic Division will be $41,000; first place in the Masters Division will be $25,000. Applications are also available for our Western State Regional scheduled in May and Summer Nationals scheduled in July and our Fall Nationals schedule for October when first place will be $100,000 guaranteed.

We hope to see you at Carter on Sunday!

BOY OH BOISONEAU, IT'S A PERFECTO

by Roberta McNaught

ANAHEIM—Quiet and unassuming, Josh Boisoneau started his first game in the 590 Classic just that way with a 179. But come his second game and he exploded with his first ever 300 game. Adding a 236 and 230, he rolled a 945 series. Way to go Josh.

Also joining the 900 Club last week were: Al Lara with 254/927 and Shig Shoji 244/909.

More great scores were: Terry Brent 226/873, Jim Moore 238/868, Aaron Wilson 259/857, Norm Walker 229/857, Bob Gosnell 253/841, Juan Sandoval 268/838, Anderson Alcaraz 233/836, Stacy Rider 225/831, John Loker 215/829, Marie Barbush 279/824, Dick McKenzie 258/824, Shawn StAndre 225/821, Lenny Huber 226/818, Don Lorentzen 244/811, Alan Bloom 237/811, Kantral Williams 213/805, Rey Ortiz 248, Bo Vrabel 248, Janine Ditch 245, Jerry Roddam 234, Willy Bordenave 229, Don Gardner 226, E.J. Rogers 226, John Velasquez 226, Tony Chaco 225, Ron Douglass 225, Rose Williams 225, Roberta McNaught 221, Dora Miller 217, Tom Stearn 216, James Blythe 215, Fred Voysey 212, Larry Green 211, Ginny Adams 209, Ed Hermance 205, Judy DiCrisi 204 and Nancy M. Smith 202.

Terry Brent returned to the league after a prolonged absence as he was taking care of wife Debbie. Roy Sager, former long time league member, stopped by to say hi.

BY NICE AND SWEET

STUDIO CITY — Nice and Sweet would like to pay tribute to an industry legend who has passed away, John Archibald. He was inducted into the PBA and USBC Hall of Fame. He was the most award winning Bowling Writer ever. We want to follow his lead and continually better the wordmanship about bowling. Thank you John Archibald.

ADULTS: Though we rarely win awards; weekly you are collecting prizes. I see all of those 200 game magnets getting thrown your way. I'm sure they are on your fridge holding up copies of all your high scores. If you haven't gotten one yet you should practice a bit more. Here are the award winning scores:

Tavern Guild: Sue Purdie 279/710, David Quam 650, Tony Annibale 256/648, James Beightler 259/633, Keane Murakami 607, Eric Michaels 258, Eric Ott 236, Alfred Mendoza 236.

Twilighters: Steven Knox 232/658, Ron Koblin 237/607, Dane Price 228/654, Michael Holt 227/652, Barry Cohan 233/607, Sandy Cohan 233.

Kings and Queens: Wayne Roberts 278/729, Kevin Collins 258/703, Will Pisnieski 238/663, Mark Tavares 629, Tony Ferrari 253, Jeff Coggins 225.

SCBL: Neil Inman 268/688, Tom Sardo 244/672, Danny Gonzales 659, Derek Brown 248/659, Michael Gehrke 255/659, Dwayne Miller 243.

Funseekers: David Dittlinger 245/700, Tom Wigmore 279/660, Zoran Jacimovic 258/692, Robert Ferragamo 675, Greg Weinberg 245/648, Jimmy Zellinger 256, Terry Wainscott 245.

Mid Week Breakers: Mark Knapp 225/596, Gary Bailer 202/542.

JUNIORS: You guys and gals take the cake as our award winners. Time and time again all of you enter tournaments and come home champions. You are the champions (repeat 5 more times, like the song, work with me). Great bowling this and every week. Here's the proof:

Senior Scratch: James Knapp 876, Treven Goldsmith 790, Ethan Bensinger 712, Daniel Cohen 234, Max Korn 214, Mario Vargas 136.

Junior Stars: Gianni Gaskins 155/402, Nicole Martinez 145/389, Ian Hamrick 135/385, Angelo Oliver 122/325, Nick Reid 141/325.

Adult/Junior: Max Korn 254/662, Treven Goldsmith 197/554, Tyler Bensinger 173/464, Ethan Bensinger 173/461, Dave Wiltz 187/450, Sharon Goldsmith 188.

DAY TIME ADULTS: You may remember John Archibald's writings or all the awards he presented to "young" bowlers like Dick Weber and Walter Ray Williams. We hope one day to be the ones awarding you with trophies and prizes. So sign-up for the Mardi Gras Tournament today. Here are your scores:

Pin Pals: Karen Collier 190/519, Shelly Djergian 152/423, Judy Kautz 158/389, J C Moore 137/379, Dianna Bassi 155/379.

Happy Timers: Gary Olsen 199/528, Yolanda Dragotta 146/399, Russ Romo 187/447, Ruth Swick 129/374.

Coffee & Donuts: Elayne Klein 200/531, Pauline Lipin 176/482, Alba Donohue 166/464, Karen Wolkoff 170/455, Bernie Filosa 188/444, Sharon Lawrence 186.

Breakfast Club: Christine Stark 179/489, Pam Vaughan 157/408, Jackie Davis 134/337.

Joslyn Seniors: Gary Olsen 218/596, Betty Dushkin 466, Art Abell 221, Kathy George 190/434, Russ Romo 556, Vicky Minceff 175.

Bowler of the Week: "Mean and Green" Keane Murakami bowled like a fiend. He went in between the pins and had a clean "300", again. He must have a healthy spleen because his game was pristine. He didn't pull a Charlie Sheen but knocked out the pins with a 15 TEEN pound ball. (Yes, I'm sick of the rhyme too.) Good bowling Keane.

Sweetness Quote of the Week: "Even when they'd throw me a little no-brainer, I'd try to find a fresh way to say it", he recalls. "Readers are busy people. You've got to 'hook' them. Even if a reader has no interest in the subject, he'll read the story if it's done well". John Archibald
