Sweden's Svensson Wins FireLake PBA Tournament of Champions

PBA's 2015 Rookie of the Year becomes youngest player to win TOC at age 20

SHAWNEE, Okla. (Feb. 7, 2016) – Eight days shy of his 21st birthday, Sweden's Jesper Svensson, the 2015 Professional Bowlers Association Rookie of the Year, became the youngest player to win the FireLake PBA Tournament of Champions Sunday at FireLake Arena.

Svensson, a 6-foot-3, 158-pound left-handed two-hander, defeated top qualifier Mitch Beasley of Clarksville, Tenn., 226-177, to win his third career PBA Tour title, his first major and a $50,000 first prize. The previous youngest winner of the TOC was PBA Hall of Famer Marshall Holman who won the event in 1976 at the age of 21 years, 207 days. Another PBA Hall of Famer, Mike Aulby, is the youngest player ever to win a PBA major title, winning the 1979 PBA National Championship at the age of 19 years, 83 days.

Svensson won the title convincingly, striking on five of his first six shots to build a 30-pin lead while Beasley, making his first television appearance, struggled to figure out the tricky lane condition on the left lane.

"I was pretty comfortable from the start, but then I opened in the second frame (against Daugherty)," Svensson said. "I was a bit nervous. It would be weird if you weren't when you're bowling on TV. But I made the right adjustments and I was fine."

Setting the record as the youngest TOC champion was never on his mind.

"That's a bonus," Svensson said. "I try not to think about how young I am. I just try to compete against the best in the world. Everything has gone pretty quick for me. I just came out here (on Tour in the United States) to get experience. I probably haven't even realized what I've done so far."

"Winning a major is one of the biggest achievements you can have in bowling, so I'm pretty much out of words."

Beasley said he knew he was in trouble early because the power players on the right side of the lane moved the oil to such an extent he couldn't figure out where to throw the ball.

"When you throw your best shot and miss the head pin, that's not good," the retired 20-year U.S. Air Force veteran said. "The guys in front of me really destroyed the left lane. You try to figure it out, but if I missed left, the ball went right and if I missed right, the ball hooked too much. And then you're out of time."

Svensson advanced to the title match by defeating Tom Daugherty of Riverview, Fla., 245-206, breaking open a tie match with a string of seven strikes after leaving and failing to convert a 4-6-7 split in the second frame.

In the second match, Daugherty ended three-time reigning PBA Player of the Year Jason Belmonte's bid for a third consecutive TOC title, 220-169. Belmonte contributed to his own defeat, missing a 10 pin in the first frame, a 2-8 spare attempt in the sixth and then failing to convert a 2-4-8-10 split in the ninth frame.

In the opening match, Daugherty finished with seven consecutive strikes to overcome a pair of missed

3-10 spare conversions earlier in the game and rally from a 35-pin deficit to eliminate EJ Tackett of Huntington, Ind., 231-221.

PBA's "Super February" schedule continues next week with the United States Bowling Congress Masters at Woodland Bowl in Indianapolis. Belmonte, the only player ever to win the USBC Masters three consecutive times, will be trying to extend his streak to four in a row. Qualifying begins Tuesday. The top 63 qualifiers plus Belmonte will compete in three-game double-elimination match play Friday and Saturday leading to the live ESPN stepladder finals on Sunday continued on page 10

James Doolan Wins as Canyon Lanes 8 Gamer is Big Success

by Frank Weiler

CABAZON — Canyon Lanes has just hosted one of the most successful local tournaments I have been a part of. The tournament got off to a great start by advertising in the BOWLING NEWS and finished big with sizable payouts to thirteen bowlers.

Great turnout, great competition and great results equals GREAT TOURNAMENT. Entries maxed out and were closed at 65. Sixty-five of the top scratch bowlers from So-CAL converged on Canyon Lanes last week to compete for a prize fund of $5,200 with the winner taking home $1,200.

Let's ANALYZE what happened. A close look at the tournament results show that the KEYS TO VICTORY were consistency, big games and strong finishes. NUMBERS DON'T LIE.

Couture, O’Neale and Schreiner Inducted Into PBA Hall of Fame

SHAWNEE, Okla. -- PBA50 Tour standout Pete Couture of Cocoa, Fla., former South Region Manager Harry O’Neale of Ravenel, S.C., and former PBA Tour announcer Denny Schreiner of Akron, Ohio, were inducted into the Professional Bowlers Association Hall of Fame Monday during ceremonies at the Grand Casino Hotel Resort.

Couture was elected in the PBA50 Performance category based on his exceptional record for a minimum of 10 years as a “senior” competitor. On the heels of a 24-year career as a PBA Tour competitor, when he won five standard PBA titles, Couture began his PBA50 career in 1995 when he earned PBA50 Rookie of the Year honors. He won the first of nine PBA50 Tour titles in Reno in 1996, and captured a pair of USBC Senior Masters titles in 1998 (when he was selected as PBA50 Player of the Year) and 2002.

“If it wasn’t for the senior (PBA50) tour I wouldn’t be here,” said Couture. “The senior tour was a second chance and an opportunity to re-invent myself.

“Bowling on the senior tour was like being with family,” he added. “Some of my greatest memories came from bowling on the Senior Tour. I think everyone who bowls for a living dreams of getting in the hall of fame because there’s no higher honor.”

O’Neale built the PBA South Region tournament program into the organization’s most successful proving ground for aspiring young players over a span of 31 years before his retirement in 2011. A one-time PBA Tour competitor, O’Neale assumed a regional program with fewer than 200 members and built it into a membership of more than 900 members, frequently traveling thousands of miles while conducting more than 40 week-end tournaments a year.

“In all the years I was with PBA I had so many great people around me to make it work and I couldn’t have done it without them,” O’Neale said. “It’s been a long way but a lot of fun. Over the years I gave a way a lot of awards but didn’t get that many myself, so this is a great honor for me.

“I’m very proud of the growth we had in the (PBA’s) south region,” O’Neale added. “I wanted the bowlers in our part of the country to be proud of our region and I knew if they were they would keep coming back and bowl in our tournaments.”

Schreiner, who served as the ESPN television voice of the PBA between 1986 and 1995, also was a skilled bowler who joined the PBA media staff as the PBA Tour Broadcast Director shortly after his graduation from the University of Akron. As PBA’s play-by-play announcer on ESPN, he quickly became popular for his ability to apply his knowledge as a bowler to the telecasts, working in harmony with fellow PBA Hall of Famer Mike Durbin as his color analyst.

“I grabbed the brass ring when I got the PBA (announcing) job and never let go,” Schreiner said. “To be involved with all the great people who built and worked with PBA over the years, you can’t explain in your wildest dreams what it means to be standing up here.”

A 900 Controversy – and It Doesn’t Involve Glenn Allison

by Fred Eisenhammer

Getting tired of reading about all those 900 series?

I know. Yawn.

Two more bowlers joined the not-so-exclusive club in January, making it 29 times this has happened, according to the United States Bowling Congress. And the list doesn’t include Glenn Allison, who would have been the first but whose 300-300-300 was nixed because of so-called non-complying lane conditions. That Allison never got USBC sanctioning remains controversial to this day – and his feat happened back in 1982 in Orange County.

Speaking of controversy, there is one bowler on the 900 list who reportedly blasted two 300-300-300 series and he did it within four weeks of each other.

That player is Robert Mushtare of Carthage, N.Y., and he set his mark when he was a mere 17 years old – both times coming at Pine Plains Bowling Center in Fort Drum, N.Y.

Bowlers Journal International recognized Mushtare’s feat in its February issue with one innocuous paragraph under its “10 Years Ago” section.

The magazine put it this way: “A 17-year-old New York bowler, Robert Mushtare, reportedly rolls two 900 series within four weeks of each other – both in ‘pre-bowling’ situations.”

Bowlers Journal took the high road in leaving out the controversy about Mushtare’s two gems. But the skepticism hasn’t gone away.

The question remains: Should there still be any doubt he did it?

In a perfect world, it would be nice if Mushtare was honored – twice – for his strikingly unbelievable feat and then the bowling world could move on to other matters. But it’s not so simple. The book appears to be closing on the Mushtare controversy – but there are still questions about whether the final chapter has been written on this story.

And this is why:

First, Mushtare rolled both his supposed masterpieces not with his regular league but during a “pre-bowling” session. Under this format, there sometimes aren’t many witnesses to a player’s potential record-setting performance.

Second, several prominent bowlers have expressed skepticism that the two 900s really took place, which reportedly occurred on Dec. 3, 2005, and Feb. 19, 2006. Interestingly, Allison has been listed as among the skeptical.

There is an online poll that is still asking people if they feel Mushtare’s double 900 is legitimate or bogus.

I cast my ballot and was frankly surprised at the results of 3,220 votes.

Ninety-two percent of the voters said they were non-believers. I voted that Mushtare’s efforts were genuine.

Am I naive?

A Sarasota (Fla.) Herald-Tribune story in 2006 cast doubt about the legitimacy of Mushtare’s twin series.

Here are some excerpts from that story by Bill Herald:

“Mushtare claims to use Storm bowling balls exclusively, so why hasn’t there been a press release or an ad trumpeting the use of Storm products? . . .

“Dave Symes, vice president of Storm marketing, replied to this writer, saying: “Due to the circumstances surrounding this achievement, we felt it might be best to remain neutral on this story.

“Neutral? Or, perhaps, ashamed?”

Herald went on:

“When you certify something, it should mean that you have conclusive proof that somebody actually did it.

“USBC claims to have found no evidence of cheating or wrongdoing, but on the other hand, there doesn’t appear to be sufficient proof that the 900s actually occurred. Just because USBC found no violations doesn’t constitute proof.

“If USBC found no evidence of misconduct, it’s much more likely that they didn’t look extensively or hard enough.”

In the same story, a top USBC official was reported to have said that “over 99 percent of the people (at bowling headquarters) don’t believe it. But our hands are tied. We determined that he followed the rules.”

Herald added: “I beg to differ. USBC hasn’t produced proof that Robert followed the rules – only that USBC could find no evidence that any rules were broken. And there’s a big difference.

“There is no other sport that accepts all-time record scores (or times or distances) into its record book absent total and conclusive proof that the accomplishment took place.

“The worst aspect may be a cover-up of sorts. Nearly everything regarding the USBC’s investigation is confidential.”

Mushtare, for his part, is insistent that everything was legitimate about his pair of 900s and is indignant that there are disbelievers out there.

“I’m just another kid that works hard to try and achieve certain goals,” said Mushtare after bowling his 900s.

What is definitely clear is that Mushtare is an elite bowler. He racked up a sanctioned 850 in May 2014 with scores of 288, 295 and 267. Four years earlier, he smoked an 857. With those kind of lofty numbers, one can easily believe the 900s are legit.

But not everyone does.

SCOTT LaRIVIERE and SCOTT HATMAKER Citrus Belt Senior Doubles Champions

by Frank Weiler

CABAZON — Scott LaRiviere and Scott Hatmaker have been doubles partners in many tournaments for years. They are long time league partners and periodically compete in PBA Regional Tournaments together. They have won several doubles tournaments together including a WCST (West Coast Senior Tour) doubles title.

Now they are CITRUS BELT Senior Doubles Champions. They recently won this season’s senior doubles title at Canyon Lanes. Their winning scores were:

Hatmaker	235 - 232 - 214 = 681
LaRiviere	287 - 258 - 203 = 748

	1429

LaRivière used a Roto Grip Hyper Cell while Hatmaker used a Storm Crux to win. Both balls were drilled by DAR-RON PETERS of Rollin’ Rock Pro Shop. Our Champions are grateful to Peters for his drilling expertise and inviting them to bowl on his team at the tournament.

Hatmaker was happy to have his 86 year old father and wife CARITA present for the tournament. It was especially gratifying to have his loved ones present as he performed like a champion. Hatmaker’s dad was instrumental in getting Scott started as a bowler and has always been there for him. They are very close and this tournament gave them an opportunity to share a championship.

It was a great tournament and everyone had praise for our host NORRIS RUNNELS, Canyon Lanes General Manager, for his outstanding job. My thanks go to the BOWLING NEWS for supporting California bowlers.

was the most consistent bowler. He was one of only six of our competitors (just 10% of the field) to have no games below 200. Everyone of those six bowlers finished in the Top 10. Our winner was also the bowler with the most games over 240. Seven of his eight games were 243 or higher. His high was a 260 and low a 213. Doolan also showed he could finish with his last five games being 258, 256, 243, 247 and 260. He averaged 246 for the tournament but even higher for the last five games (253). That’s finishing strong. Second place finisher Bobby Campagnale registered four games over 240 and only one below par (200) at 195. He finished with games of 195, 217 and 227. Bobby’s so so finish cost him the title. After five games he had a 54 pin lead over Doolan (1,278 to 1,224) but our Champion outscored Bobby 750 to 639 down the stretch to take the title by 57 pins.

The Tourney TOP FIVE were:

	+	Average	Cash
1. James Doolan	374	(246)	$ 1,200
2. Bobby Campagnale	317	(239)	$ 900
3. Steve Smith	304	(238)	$ 675
4. Vernon Adams	293	(236)	$ 500
5. Dean Townsend	292	(236)	$ 400

The field was loaded with SoCAL’s best. In addition to the TOP FIVE finishers the field of sixty-five included such “NAMES” as Deeron Booker (“Mr. Smoothie”), Sean Cochran, Kevin Gagnon, Bobby Hornacek, Jeff Lewen, Alan Mojado, Mason Sherman, Johnny Valentine, Eddie VanDaniker and Justin Ziegler.

There were six women in the field and all bowled well. The top female performer was LILY ROBLES with a seventh place finish, good for $250. She beat 58 guys!

Lily ended the day at a plus 278 (234 average). She had four games over 240 and only two below par (195 and 194). She started strong with a 286 and finished with 268, 218 and 245. DAMN IMPRESSIVE. I was told (unverified) she has bowled for the Mexican National Team.

Congratulations MICHAEL DURAN (Tournament Director) and NORRIS RUNNELS (General Manager) for a great tournament and great venue. By guaranteeing big checks, fair lane conditions and an impartial lane rotation schedule they succeeded in conducting a great tournament. I can’t wait for their next tournament, in a few months.

When It Comes to ‘Toughness,’ This Couple Is Hard to Beat

by Fred Eisenhammer

Jamie Beeler has developed a reputation as the “toughest bowler around” and there’s a reason he has earned that distinction.

Two years ago, Jamie survived three games of league bowling at AMF Woodlake Lanes in Woodland Hills amid excruciating pain from his pulsating kidney stones.

Jamie kept popping Advil to help him continue bowling before his wife Karen whisked him to VA West Los Angeles Medical Center for treatment on the stones.

“It was no fun watching him throw up and being white as a ghost,” said Karen, who’s been married to Jamie for 35 years.

And she added: “Nothing keeps him from his bowling. Nothing.”

The fact is there are other Jamie Beeler-like bowlers who refuse to allow injuries to keep them from stepping out on the lanes.

Here’s another player with over-the-top dedication to the game: Karen Beeler.

Yes, that’s Jamie’s wife, who possesses the same can’t-be-deterred-from-the-game principles as her husband. They currently bowl on the same team in the “Guys and Dolls” fall league Tuesday nights at Winnetka Bowl.

“We’re like a disabled couple,” says Jamie with a laugh. “Last week in our first game, I tried to pull her out because she could barely get out of her chair.”

No luck. Karen wasn’t going anywhere – other than to the foul line.

Jamie Beeler survived 3 games of league play despite bowling with a severe case of kidney stones.

Despite being beset by numerous injuries, Karen Beeler cranked up a 191 game this season.

“Nothing is going to keep me from bowling,” Karen says. “I love it.”

It should be mentioned that Karen suffers from a variety of injuries that cause considerable pain. The most pronounced injuries are a torn meniscus in her left knee and a sciatica condition that forces her into an unorthodox delivery.

Karen positions herself at the line, takes aim and then heaves the ball down the lane. She is uncannily accurate with that approach.

“I think sliding is overrated,” Karen says. “This way, it keeps me focused.”

Also helpful is Tramadol, a pain medication that Karen takes during her bowling and keeps her going for the 2½ hours of her league.

Said Jamie: “Let’s put it this way. That woman is more stubborn than I am.”

There’s no doubt that the team of Jamie and Karen has plenty of chemistry and magic. The Rollin’ Thunder foursome of Jamie, Karen, Robert Uzan and Jean Uzan won the first portion of its three-stanza league in a runaway. The team also is the loudest and most enthusiastic of all the “Guys and Dolls” teams.

Karen, averaging 136, popped a 191 in one of her games. Jamie, the anchor on the team who averages 174, has smoked a 245.

Karen says bowling with Jamie motivates her and makes her aim for higher scores.

“When I bowl a 191, I want to do better. I want to keep up with him,” says Karen, gesturing toward her husband. “He’s my inspiration.”

No doubt, the feeling is mutual.

NATIONAL DEAF BOWLING NEWS PACIFIC COAST DEAF BOWLING GROUP SETS ITS 75TH YEAR IN LAS VEGAS THIS JUNE 27-30

LAS VEGAS — In long past years Pacific Coast Deaf Bowling Association (PCDBA) held its annual bowling tournament jointly with Pacific Coast Deaf Women Bowling Association (PCDWBA) during the Memorial Day week-end. For this change the host sponsor plans to present added guaranteed money for both groups to split in added bowling prizes.

With that done both PCDBA and PCDWBA secretary-treasurers Ed Bazan and Wendy Spanton respectively mailed out entry forms, newsletters and hotel information to all PCDBA and PCDWBA members. Qualify 1:00-2:30-4:00 & 6:00 PM Finals 8:00 PM

SAN DIMAS — The ABTA enjoyed its return to Chaparral, 6 new members and two returnees joined us, enjoying the ABTA event which featured a Beat the Board finals format, Superb Bowling Fun.

On an easier medium scoring condition the scores to make the finals were: Men +88 and Ladies +76.

In the qualifying Anthony Jilek fired a +166 to lead the men and pretty Claire Avila led the ladies at +142. They will receive paid entries to their next regular event.

The Super Seniors added to the board were unbelievably at +87. 3 men Vic Paolucci, Romeo Bautista and Newcomer Eldous Chan. This is a first ever, all 3 man plus Sue Leland ladies +32 were added to the Beat Board Finals which is where you finish in this one is where you cash.

Anthony drew the Match Series $1,770 and a 666 saw no Matches/Winners so we estimate the Match Series at $2,850 Saturday at Oak Tree Lanes.

The Mystery Match Doubles were drawn by Claire Avila and the 359 doubles score worth $2,700 was matched by John Samson and Giang Huynh who happily accepted their half of the pot and $1,350 each.

The Doubles will be estimated at $800 at Oak Tree Saturday.

The 3-6-9 Pot worth $1,100 had Cyndi Kelley and Patrick Rodriguez miss on shot 3 so they shared the $100 consolation.

The Beat the Board Finals took the floor with 36 bowlers. It was a real good one with higher scoring again. After the first game Sandy Rosenblum had the lead +71 also winning the side pot, closely followed by Michael Zhang +66, Sun Sundara +51, Danny Egiilos +52 and Danny Reece Jr +29.

Game Two had Michael Zhang +115 take the lead with his nice 249 game and Steven Wong is surging with a big 268 to win the 2nd side pot and after two games Zhang +115 led!! Sandy Rosenblum 2nd +104 and Wong jumped to +93 3rd, Egiilos still 4th +89 and Alfred Satorre 5th. Several others were in reach going into game 3 for the title.

Game 3 saw Steven Wong stay tough and finish with a nice +150 firing a 257 game and by the way, all scores include handicap. Mr. Wong we will call him on this eve, wins his first ever ABTA Title and a tidy $2,400 payday and the 3rd sidepot and he is not done yet folks!! Alfred Satorre jumped to 2nd place his highest ever for the likeable Super Senior with great bowling taking the runner up position +113 and Michael Zhang in 3rd +111 $200.

4th-5th were Romeo Borillo and Danny Egiilos $110, 6-9th $105 were Happy Birthday Gal Analiza Agoncillo, William Garrett, Danny Reece Jr, and Sandy Rosenblum. 10-16th $100 were Claire Avila Sun Sundara, JeJe Gabriel, Freddy Zamora, Jo Jo Barcelona, Vic Paolucci, and Reny Alkonga at $100.

We paid out 36 Places and a $4,100 prize fund plus pots and optionals at Chaparral, it is nice to return there!

Our Champion Mr. Wong had the honor of drawing the Match Game worth $2,555 and he drew a 225 and UNBELIEVABLY he was the winner. That is a first in the ABTA! – Keeping the Memory of Tony Reyes Alive –

The 3rd Tony Reyes Memorial Adult-Youth Tournament is a Mega Watt Smiling Success!

by Bette Addington, California Bowling Writers

SAN JOSE — In a 32-lane bowling center, located in San Jose, just three years ago, the Tony Reyes Memorial event was born. Ed Godbout, the center’s youth director, wanted to pay tribute to the man who encouraged him to start a youth program at 4th Street Bowl—Tony Reyes. Each year this tournament has grown and improved thanks to the commitment of Godbout to make this a event bowlers will come and bowl with a youth bowler and share in the memory of a person whose memory still lives on in so many bowlers’ lives to this day. Some enter with a youth friend or relative; others enter and are placed with a youth partner. Some enter to bowl in the scratch division while others come to bowl the handicap division. Some bowl just one squad; others bowl several. It’s all for fun and it’s all to help raise funds to support the Tony Reyes Memorial Scholarship.

The 2016 tournament took place the weekend of January 9-10. This year’s event was expanded by adding more squads to accommodate the large amount of entries. “After having to turn away bowlers last year, I wanted to make sure I had enough spots for everyone to bowl, so I added more squads, and, again this year, it got so big I had re-entries and I had to stop taking people in. I guess this is a good problem to have!” said Godbout. Godbout said he also talked with as many entrants this year to get feedback as he could and already is planning on adding another squad for 2017!

This year’s event grew by about 100 more entrants. Over the weekend there were 101 handicapped teams and 35 scratch teams competing which brought his total number of entrants to 272! The tournament drew PBA members PJ Haggerty, Marty Deh, Max Epps, Chris Preble, Joe Goldstein Sr., and Joe Goldstein, Jr. Sean Mamlock even dropped by to check it out! Godbout even enlisted some of his PAB buddies to come out and help with the event.

And, as always, Tony Reyes’ family were there the entire weekend to take in the festivities—Jessica (Tony’s Mom), Norma (Tony’s sister), Albert (Tony’s brother), Mike (Tony’s nephew) and Gianna (Tony’s daughter). Godbout added, “I can always depend on all of them to show up anytime I do anything with Tony’s name. They even show up in Reno for the NorCal All Stars event where I give out scholarships!”

Something new this year, Godbout went out and ordered one-of-a-kind trophies for the champions for this year and from here on out. Although money is used to purchase the champion trophies and plaques, most of the money raised goes back in to the Tony Reyes Memorial Scholarship fund as everyone who helps put this tournament on are all volunteers. This year, Godbout said, “I will be giving away over $4,000.00 in scholarships and adding more next year.”

And, for the first time this year’s event had not one but two 300 games shot! The first one was on Saturday’s Handicap squad and was rolled by adult Scott Cramer; the second was bowled by another adult, Mark Archuleta, on Sunday’s Handicap squad. For this event, the Handicap squads are bowled on a house shot and the Scratch squads were bowled on the Tony Reyes pattern that Cathie Judy, the manager at 4th Street Bowl, and Godbout came up with.

Teaming up again
Jackie Wykoff-Campbell & Abbi Hickman-Tracy

Asked a couple participants for their take on bowling this tournament—first-time youth entrant, Zack Long of Taft, CA, said, “It was a very fun tournament, the directors did a great job on the tournament, and a great way to honor Tony Reyes!” Zack’s partner, Chris Preble/Coach for Fresno State Men’s & Women’s Bulldog Bowling Teams, added, “I really enjoyed participating in the Tony Reyes Memorial. Tony was a good friend and his loss has left a great void in the bowling community. The turnout of talented youth bowlers was impressive and honored his memory. The mood during the tournament was light and fun but very competitive—the way Tony would have wanted it. I look forward to supporting the event in the future.” And, PBA regular to bowl in this event, PJ Haggerty of Roseville, CA, added, “Bowling a Jr/Adult tournament in Tony’s name is a no-brainer for me. Tony was a mentor of mine through junior bowling and college. He inspired and encouraged so many kids to practice, go to college, and give the tour a shot. It only makes sense that his buddies bowl his tournament. It’s what he would expect from us.”

Congratulations to the 2016 Tony Reyes Memorial Adult-Youth Tournament winners:

Life in the fast lane—Tony is smiling down on Ed Godbout this month as he just found out he was chosen as the 2015 PBA Tony Reyes Memorial Service Award recipient! And rightfully so, as he is already working on the 2017 event saying it will be held again in January, “right after the holidays” as that time seems to work out because there are no other tournaments going on at this time. In addition, he currently has a youth program of 40 bowlers. If you missed this year’s event and would still like to contribute to the Tony Reyes Memorial Scholarship fund, donations are accepted all year long. You can follow on Facebook by liking the “Tony Reyes Memorial Scholarship” page, or you can reach Godbout at (408) 314-0248.

IT’S A GIRL FOR JASON BELMONTE

Jason Belmonte missed his historic moment on Jan. 20 when he was named GEICO Chris Schenkel PBA Player of the Year for the third consecutive year, tying a record held by bowling legends Walter Ray Williams Jr., Earl Anthony (twice) and Mark Roth. As the announcement was being made live on PBA’s Xtra Frame online video-streaming service by PBA Commissioner Tom Clark, Belmonte was in a hospital in Orange, New South Wales, Australia, with wife Kimberly, awaiting the birth of his third child.

“I wasn’t watching; I was with Kimberly when I heard my phone blow up with a lot of messages,” Belmonte said. “I knew it was either really good news, or really bad. I saw it was great news, and immediately thought it would be the second-best news of the day.”

Daughter Sylvie Joan Belmonte arrived minutes later (weighing in at just over 7 pounds and measured 18.8 inches).

“I’m in no way close to the realm of talent of those three gentlemen (Williams, Anthony and Roth),” Belmonte added, “but they are the benchmark I strive for. The ones who walk before show us what greatness looks like. I want to be great, and those guys inspire me to maybe one day get there.”

Randy Gulley
Cameraman Extraordinaire

by Mary Lynly

Randy Gulley sold Christmas trees to make money to buy his first camera – a Brownie. He says he always liked taking pictures and he happens to have the rare gift of knowing how to use a camera to its fullest, a gift that he has honed to a highly skilled talent. He believes that anyone can take pictures but not everyone can take good pictures and that is apparent in his many pictures.

If you have ever had pictures taken at a special event or been the photographer yourself and found you didn't have the camera set properly. I'm sure that was a painful experience many people can share with you. The same is true in the case of today's cameras that pretty much do it all, but if you really don't have a feel for proper compilation or lighting you were probably disappointed in the results.

Photography has always been a love of Randy's. You rarely find him these days without his camera. What is better, Randy loves bowling and he combines these loves into taking pictures of bowlers and bowling events. Many of his fine accomplishments have graced the covers of local and national bowling publications. But, there is more that makes up Randy Gulley.

He was born in St. Louis, Missouri and eventually came to Azusa, California where he graduated from the local high school. At age 19 he went directly into the Army and served three years on active duty. Soon after his discharge, he went to work for the U.S. Department of Defense as Administrator for Military bases where he served for 29 years. His work took him to bases in Colorado Springs, South Korea, Okinawa, and California and he spent his last two years with the Army in Germany.

Randy never stopped bowling and in Colorado Springs he immersed himself in the Pikes Peak Bowling Association. He was active in promoting the State Association merger among many other accomplishments. Randy was the first President of the Colorado High School Bowling Federation and served as the Colorado State BA President for two years. He credits bowling for his extensive travel in the U.S. including attendance at 15 National Conventions. All this travel left him with five states he has not yet visited.

Randy was selected as the torchbearer for the 32nd Rocky Mountain Senior Games, held in Greeley, CO – the only bowler to have ever been selected for this distinct honor. Always interested in charitable events, for nine years he chaired the Annual Fulfill a Youth Wish – Team USA, Colorado Springs All Stars Pro-Am tournament to benefit Make a Wish. During that time they raised $117,158 and sponsored 21 kids. He said it takes from $5,000 to $7,000 to fulfil each wish.

His pictures are also a memorable record of his family: Children – Jennifer, Randy Jr. and stepchildren Marlene, Summer and Scott plus 14 grandchildren! Randy pictures are testament to the many birthday parties and other family events he endeavors to attend across the country. Those events just wouldn't be the same without dad/grandpa and his camera.

Randy now resides in Las Vegas and says for a single guy it is reasonable and convenient and there are so many of superior bowling events these days to keep him busy. He once bowled five leagues a week but having fallen off of a roof in years back he is limited to one league and a No-Tap. When he can he joins with his brothers, Dave of Canyon Lake, CA and Kenny from Menifee, CA for tournaments. Both brothers are 200+ average bowlers and Dave is a member of the Citrus Belt Hall of Fame. Randy is a member of the Colorado State USBC Hall of Fame and the Pikes Peak USBC Hall of Fame. A 200 average bowler for many years himself, he is proud of having been selected to the Colorado Springs All-Star Team for 13 years. At one time he bowled in five leagues at five different centers and averaged 231 at one center and 220 combined in the other four for the season!

Randy Gulley is still deeply involved with all aspects of bowling in one way or another. He recently spent almost a whole day looking for a “sub” for the Military Bowling Championships being held in Las Vegas so the team wouldn't have to take a zero. Look for him at a tournament or bowling event of some sort with his Canon camera – he believes Canon is the most user friendly and does the best job! One of the greatest assets to any organization is a good cameraperson and Randy Gulley is one of the best.

Young Randy – age 17.

WINNING ON TV: IT'S A LOT HARDER THAN IT LOOKS

PBA history proves over and over how difficult it is to advance to a national television final, but what's even more difficult is maintaining a winning record once you get there. Compared against all PBA players throughout the Tour's more than 50 years of television shows, only four active players rank among the top 20 in winning percentage for a minimum of 10 matches bowled on television. Fifteen years after the fact, Ohio native Jim Pencak – who ran off a PBA-record streak of 16 consecutive match wins on television – remains the all-time leader in winning percentage with a record of 22 wins and 8 losses, a 73.33 percent success rate, in his 12 career TV finals.

A fairly distant second place is PBA Hall of Famer Dick Ritger who won 40 matches and lost 18 times in 33 appearances, a 68.96 success rate. Among active players, Australia's Jason Belmonte ranks sixth (37 wins, 19 losses, 66.07%) in 32 appearances and South Carolina's Tommy Jones ranks seventh (43 wins, 23 losses, 65.15%) in 37 appearances. Semi-retired Mika Koivuniemi has won 61.03% of his matches to rank 16th and Patrick Allen has won 60.31% of his matches for rank 19th.

The 20 most successful PBA players on television, based on at least 10 TV finals, are:

- 1, Jim Pencak, 22-8, 73.33% in 12 appearances.
- 2, Dick Ritger, 40-18, 68.96% in 33 appearances.
- 3, Gary Skidmore, 23-12, 67.64% in 17 appearances.
- 4 (tie), Paul Colwell, 16-8, 66.66% in 12 appearances, and Steve Neff, 14-7, 66.66% in 10 appearances.
- 6, Jason Belmonte, 37-19, 66.07% in 32 appearances.
- 7, Tommy Jones, 43-23, 65.15% in 37 appearances.
- 8, Steve Martin, 26-14, 65% in 20 appearances.
- 9, Tom Crites, 12-7, 63.15% in 12 appearances.
- 10, Randy Pedersen, 32-19, 62.74% in 31 appearances.
- 11, Steve Hoskins, 37-22, 61.71% in 30 appearances.
- 12, Johnny Guenther, 23-14, 61.16% in 20 appearances.
- 13, Roger Bowker, 18-11, 62.06% in 16 appearances.
- 14 (tie), Mike McGrath and George Branham III, 19-12, 61.29%, McGrath in 18 appearances; Branham in 17 appearances.
- 16, Mika Koivuniemi, 47-30, 61.03% in 41 appearances.
- 17 (tie), Pete Couture and Don McCune, 20-13, 60.60%, both in 17 appearances.
- 19, Patrick Allen, 38-25, 60.31% in 38 appearances.
- 20 (tie), Doug Kent, 39-26, 60% in 35 appearances, and Bryan Goebel, 30-20, 60% in 29 appearances.

JAT Sport Juniors Recap Kylie Shishima Rolls Her First 300

by David Schiada

CABAZON — With several of the JAT Sport Juniors competing at the JBT tournament and Morongo Casino Lanes, it was a lighter than usual turn out last Saturday at Keystone Lanes. However, for one of those JAT Sport Juniors, the trip to the desert was well worth it. Kylie Shishima bowled her first 300 game on Saturday during the JBT tournament. Given the left-hander's smooth style, this will likely be the first of many. Great job Kylie!

Saturday marked the end of the second round for the JAT Sport Juniors, with Julian Zavala shooting the high series of the week, a 784 for four games on the Sydney pattern. David Schneider rolled a 223 on his way to a 715 series. Congratulations to Solomon Salama, Nick Caner, and Jackie Azvedo who earned Junior Gold Championship spots for this round. They join first round advancers Julian, David, and Austin Sugarman.

Fourth Round Starts On 2015 USBC Nationals Pattern

by David Yamauchi

DOWNEY — The Brunswick Invitational started the fourth round this Monday adopting the 2015 USBC Nationals pattern from El Paso for this last normal round. Scored were all over the board as bowlers tried to match up their styles and equipment to the over-under of the new condition.

In the “A” match, league total-wins leaders and first-round winners Professional Approach met up runners-up from the third round Linder’s Insurance. Linder’s took game one by a couple dozen and the second game by 65 to build a near triple-digit lead for totals. Professional Approach roared back and took it to the 10th frame just missing catching them for totals falling 18 pins short for the 1-4 loss. Anthony Santos’ 585 was high for Linder’s while Ramiro Garcia’s 598 helped Pro Approach to their 1 point.

In the “B” match, third-round winners DV8 met Ketel One Vodka with 63 points putting them in fourth overall. DV8 came out striking taking the first game by nearly 100 but Ketel One stormed back to take games 2, 3 and totals. Sol Cericos lit them up for 638 to lead Ketel One while Ashkan Tahvildaran led DV8 with a nice 623 set.

Second-round winners Don Julio Tequila met up with 6th overall Keystone Lanes in the 5-6 match. Don Julio took the bookends and totals for 4 points. Bobby Campagnale wrung his way to 627 to lead Don Julio while Herbert Jones was back with a 606 set to help Keystone to their 1 win.

Los Altos Trophy and Forest Lanes put their 59.5 and 59 win records on the line in the 7-8 match. Scoring was low but Los Altos took 4 in a tight match- squeaked out game 1 by 5 sticks, took game 2 by 42, but dropped the last game by 6. Joe Jimenez was high for Los Altos with a 650 set while Robert Renko could only put up 554 to lead Forest.

Alhambra Coin Center jumped up to 9th overall after a strong 3rd round matching up with Pino’s Pizza at 54 points. The Pizza guys were all over it taking all 5 points with a consistent effort. Leonard Ruiz Jr. led Pino’s with a 665 effort while Alhambra Coin Center was paced by Doug Kempt with a 592 set.

The 11-12 match featured J.A.T. who is second-overall in average but 11th overall in points with Cook’s Bowling Supply both at 52 wins. Cook’s came out striking and took game 1 but J.A.T roared back to take game 2 but couldn’t hold on for totals. DeeRonn Booker got no help with his 650 set to lead J.A.T. while Matt Schermerhorn’s 584 led Cook’s to their 4 points.

13th place Threadworks matched up with 14th place Erickson Foods. The Threadworks bunch came out strong to take game one but it was all Erickson from that point for the 4-1 win. Michelle King led Erickson Foods with a 607 set while Paul Varela was once again steady for Threadworks with a 597 set.

The 15-16 place match put Wowo’s Smokin’ Hot BBQ against the Triple-R Relax-Release-Repeat team, both teams looking to rebound after last round. Team Triple-R swept right through the BBQ boys with Vern Adams leading the pair with a 659 set while Greg Neuer put up 572 to lead Wowo’s.

Sysco, GJC Janitorial, Herzog Insurance and Cremation Centers of CA rounded out the 20 teams matching up in the last two matches of the night. GJC Janitorial swept past Sysco led by Mike Jennings 573 set and Herzog Insurance took 4 from CCCA led by Kevin Gagnon’s 597 set. Paul Barraco was strong as usual to lead Sysco with a 573 set while Andre Pitchford’s 512 set was high for Cremation Center and their one point.

Sidepots went to Sam Hitchcock-258 and Vernon Adams-244 for $66 each. Third game super-pot went to Doug Kempt-225 for $198. Financial Advisor’s super-pot went to Vernon Adams-244 for $220 with 2nd to Sol Cericos-238 for $100. Come on down on Monday nights at 8:30 to see the best scratch league in Southern California in action!
