PBA Stars Malott, O'Neill Added to 2009 Team USA Roster

ARLINGTON, Texas—A pair of the most dominating players on the Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour - Wes Malott of Pflugerville, Texas, and Bill O'Neill of Levittown, Pa., - have been added to the 2009 Team USA roster.

Malott and O'Neill join an elite group of bowlers on Team USA who will represent the United States in international competition throughout the year. Both were selected because of their solid play so far this season on the PBA Tour.

"Certainly Wes and Bill have had very solid performances so far this season," Team USA head coach Jeri Edwards said. "When you combine that with the fact that they have bowled well the last couple years, it was really a joy to be able to add these two great players to the team for 2009."

Malott, 32, currently leads the PBA's Player of the Year points race with 58 points after 12 events. He has made seven championship round appearances this season, winning twice, finishing second once, third three times and fourth once.

"Now that I've been selected, I'm definitely looking forward to it," said Malott, who has five PBA titles and over $600,000 in career earnings. "I'm very excited to be able to represent my country. It's the chance of a lifetime, and that's the way I'm looking at it."

Although O'Neill, 27, is still seeking his first PBA title, he has appeared in the championship round five times this

The Day Belonged To Damian!

SAN DIEGO — Kearny Mesa Bowl was the host center last weekend for the NABI tournament, & long time member Tony Damian won title #3.

Tony became the #7 seed in the eliminator style finals, so he was going to face higher seeds on his path to the victory. He was up to the challenge, getting stronger as the afternoon's competition unfolded.

After a shaky start in the position round, the finals were a clinic on focus & consistency for him. He seems to thrive on finals performances, as the bowler he faced in the final match, Steve Slezak, lamented the fact that he was one of Tony's opponents the last time when Tony rolled a perfect 300 against him. This time Steve finished second, & had also performed well all afternoon, but faced a steam roller in Tony! Congratulations Tony & Steve, & thanks for a great display of bowling by both of you. The other finalists were Alan Grobmeier, Brian Watkins, Herb Stansberry, Nick Inganna, Johnny Graham & Simon Nophalath.

Several perpetual pots were collected...9 in a row by Herb Stansberry, striking out in the 10th frame all three games by Brian Watkins, & the 3-6-9 in game #2 by Phil Horn, Chad Hill & Johnny Graham.

Guaranteed $50 sidepots each qualifying game went to Cassandra Canon, Nick Inganna, Troy Thompson, Tony Nunez, Herb Stansberry, Brian Watkins, Jeff Greer, Chad Hill & Steve Slezak.

Duke Wins Denny's Dick Weber Open

by B.A. Campbell

FOUNTAIN VALLEY—The 2009 PBA Denny's Dick Weber Open concluded Sunday at Fountain Bowl, with 44-year-old right-hander Norm Duke winning $35,000 and his latest PBA title, defeating Michael Fagan in the final match, 278 to 168. Duke admitted that having "a week off made a difference." Which it certainly did. By the fifth frame, Duke was 67 pins ahead, firing off five in a row while Fagan found two opens in his game. Fagan marked throughout in the last half but was unable to catch up to the venerable Duke. "Norm found his line," Fagan admitted.

Earlier, the finals had some strong matchups, with the first match between fifth-seed right-hander Michael Fagan (who averaged 219.51 over 39 games) and fourth-seed righty Chris Barnes (who averaged 223.64 over 39 games) battling for advancement. Barnes, looking for his 11th PBA title, left an open frame in the fifth, and couldn't come back with a strike until the ninth frame. Fagan maintained his lead and won, 204 to 183.

In the second match, Fagan, from Patchogue, NY, then went up against the 42-year-old right-hander Ryan Shafer of Horseheads, NY, (who averaged 222.62 over 39 games). Shafer, seeking his 5th PBA title, started out with two spares, while Fagan struck. From the fourth frame, Fagan strung six in a row while Shafer book-ended four strikes with two spares, setting up the win for Fagan, 256 to 223.

In the third match, the 28-year-old Fagan, looking for his second PBA title, and right-hander Pete Weber of St. Ann, MO (who carried the high average of 228.95 over 39 games) were neck-and-neck through the fifth frame. The 46-year-old Weber, seeking his Norm Duke one step closer to 2009 points leader.

35th PBA title, had a washout in the sixth and was unable to convert the spare, giving him his only open of the match. Fagan continued striking through to the tenth, finishing with a nine-count open and winning the match, 243 to 201, setting up his chance to face Norm Duke (who averaged 227.21 over 39 games) in the title match.

The PBA 2009 Denny's Dick Weber Open had 158 entries, with 37 non-PBA members among the entrants. Of all entries, 55 bowlers hailed from California. Five women were entered in the tournament: after 15 games of qualifying, 2008 PBA Women's Series bowlers Shalin Zulkifli of Malaysia cashed in 41st place, averaging 208.93; local fan favorite Missy Bellinder of Fullerton ended in 65th, averaging 201.67; Adrienne Miller of Buffalo Grove, Illinois ended in 99th place, averaging 194.0; collegiate champion Elysia Current of Ephrata, PA came in 118th place, averaging 189.13; former pro and current Del Rosa Lanes owner Nicole Ellison of Chatsworth, CA ended in 137th place, averaging 180.0.

Next on the PBA tournament schedule is the USBC Masters from Las Vegas, where over 420 bowlers are competing for a prize fund of over $392,000 and a first place prize of $60,000. Live broadcast on ESPN will air Sunday February 15th at 10 am Pacific time. Results:

FOUNTAIN VALLEY —The pros left some great scoring conditions for the Vegas league when we traveled to Fountain Bowl on Monday. It was a hectic day, having to make up the lost game from November and then bowl our regularly scheduled 3-game visit, but it's done now and standings reported below are current, pending confirmation by Betty Phillips when she does the league sheets.

We won't try to recap scoring from that session but we will spotlight Doris Lewis, who ended her November 2-game session with 425 and then fired her third game of 267 this week for a gigantic 692 series. It's now season high series, for 156 and over bowlers.

We were sure pulling for her to get eight more pins for a 700 series because in fifty one years of action the Vegas league has never recorded one although we have had many close attempts. We have had a 300 game, scored years ago by Marion Empson at Missile Bowl, another of the long gone bowling centers. This season high game is now held by Roberta McNaught's 245. Other season highs did not change.

Before reporting more league news, our thanks to Fountain Bowl super employee, Fred, who proved he can be ten places at one time. Seriously, he helped in so many ways from opening the doors early, to running from lane to lane to provide needed assistance.

Monday's scoring honors went to Wanda Worrall, 201-579, Doris Lewis, 203-563, Dee Phipps 203-560, Myrt Owens 213-546, Margo McClain 536, Teri Hefner 528, Cil Moons 216-523, Kathy Parrish 202-523, Karen Mauricio 508, Hedy Schoner 507 and Joan Roper 502. Jarra Gallina continues her split conversions with 4-7-10 being best of four this week.

Keystone Lanes #2 took over league leadership Monday with 52.2 wins, former leaders Doris' Hair Designs moves to second spot with 51 followed by David McNaught CPA, 47.2; Cerritos #2 and Westminster #1 tie at 47; Westminster #2, 44; Cal Bowlers, 43.2; Keystone #1, 42 and the rest of the league trails from 38 down to cellar team with 21.2.

Two sidelined bowlers returned to the league this week, Jan Jones and Berneice King. Bernice is still not able to return to league sessions but Jan Jones tried her ability to resume and complete the season, however, it depends on how she fared after Monday. She was in some pain. Also, Pris Mauricio is sidelined with a painful right arm injury for a few more weeks.

NEXT WEEK: 10 a.m. Monday, February 16 at Keystone Lanes.

What Works? Ask the Camellia City 500 Club

by Mary Lynly

SACRAMENTO—We all remember the pride in being a part of our bowling organizations when membership was of primary importance and although this has ebbed, some groups have leadership that still makes membership important.

Like many bowling affiliated clubs, the Sacramento area Camellia City 500 Club, formed in 1969, has run the gamut of being a formidable organization, then foundering, and then existing. What happens? And, what happened to change that?

In 2006 Shirley Baker became President of the club. She had been a member 20 years and 13 as a Vice President prior to taking over at the helm. Shirley had started working for the State of California as a clerk-typist and ended up with a demanding job of auditing the state prisons and eventually in upper management. She feels she was in the right place at the right time and was fortunate in being able to take advantage of women’s rights in advancing her career. After 38 ½ years she retired.

Baker says she is a business oriented and analytical person and likes people to be prepared in their assignments and if they have issues – bring solutions. With her organizational skills and encouraging people to be a part of the club they now number 160 members and she says her biggest concern is growth! They have eleven events each year: two Invitational’s – one in Reno that draws over 500 bowlers, and one that invites other 500 Clubs. There are three Doubles tournaments that allow guests and six that are member tournaments. Some of these tournaments are sanctioned events and some are just fun events like a No-Tap format. Bowlers must have bowled in five events per year to qualify for their Queen’s tournament and two events to maintain membership.

There are two board meetings each year and one annual meeting in November prior to their Turkey Shoot which she says draws a good group to their meeting. Baker says because of a 30% increase in membership in the last three years they have added two additional directors to their board of eight directors and five officers.

As a guest at one of their tournaments and it was awesome to look down the lanes and see all of their members in their required club black shirts and white pants! Shirley tells me this is the summer uniform and black on black is winter. She also said in the past the club had not been consistent in enforcing certain rules one of which involved uniforms. A new ruling now states, “If you come to bowl and are not in the required uniform you do not bowl.”

I also attended their annual awards and recognition banquet attended by nearly 200 people. Preparation is everything and everything ran like clockwork. At this event every club member is given a ticket upon arrival and each wins a nice prize. Prizes are donated by numerous sponsors.

Their committees consist of Audit, Charity, Communication, Invitational Tournaments, Banquet and Refreshments. Their purpose: “To provide for social and charitable activities, competitive events and other activities related to bowling.” The women of the Camellia City 500 Club have raised and distributed $2700 for charitable endeavors in 2008 including food baskets for families in need, Youth Bowlers programs, The WIBC Hall of Fame and the California BVL Fund.

Shirley is assisted by her able Secretary Marilyn Aki who handles the secretarial and treasurer’s duties with great skill. Marilyn is still computer shy but she is working on it says Shirley! Shirley says they have a website in the works and they are always looking for ways to cut down on postage. She envisions coping with growth by trying multiple squads as they do not want to go beyond four on a lane. Negotiating with the bowling centers is sometimes iffy but they must have a contractual commitment to ensure their spot. Besides their communication team and emailing to the 90% who have email, they accommodate their members with an annual calendar. She proudly announced they will have their 18th Annual tournament in April and the 11th Annual Reno tournament in September.

For all of us who have “been there” making an organization “work” is work. Leadership is what makes an organization tick - participation as bowlers and as leaders. A leader who is able to guide her flock while allowing them to make the decisions that affect the entire group. Shirley is a premier mover and shaker and has used her expertise to inject enthusiasm and appeal for aspiring members. Shirley Baker doesn’t stop at Camellia City 500 Club activities and while she pilots her organization seamlessly from one event to another she still finds time to be active in the Grange and as a square dancer. Her vision for the Camellia City 500 Club: Growth and enticing younger women to become members.

ARLINGTON, Texas—The Board of Directors of the United States Bowling Congress has decided to commence with a search for a permanent Executive Director for the organization.

“The Board greatly appreciates the leadership shown by Chief Operating Officer Kevin Dornberger,” said USBC President Jeff Boje.

“In accordance with the process prescribed when Kevin first took the position as interim COO, we have decided to commence with a search for a permanent Executive Director for USBC at this time. Kevin will receive full consideration for this position should he choose to be a candidate.”

The Bowling Proprietors’ Association of America Board of Directors has also announced that it will begin a search for an Executive Director to replace John Berglund, who has previously announced his pending retirement.

Additionally, the Board of Directors of USBC and BPAA have jointly decided to commence a search for a Director season, taking second place twice. He also has seven top 10 finishes this season.

“I didn’t realize they were actually going to add players to the team, so to get that call was very surprising and a huge honor,” said O’Neill, a three-time collegiate bowler of the year at Saginaw Valley State. “The group of guys that they have selected to be on Team USA is just incredible and for them to select me to be a part of that group feels pretty special.”

The additions of Malott and O’Neill were made by a committee comprised of representatives from the United States Bowling Congress and the Professional Bowlers Association. The same committee was responsible for selecting five male and five female players to join Team USA in October.

“When the selection committee made those picks, they did so with the understanding that if other players excelled during the first half of the PBA Tour or PBA Women’s Series season, they would be able to make additional selections,” said David Garber, High Performance Director for USBC. “Wes and Bill have without a doubt proven they belong on Team USA.”

Malott and O’Neill’s selections bring the total number of men on the Team USA 2009 roster to 12. They join fellow exempt players Walter Ray Williams Jr., Tommy Jones, Chris Barnes, Rhino Page, Patrick Allen and Nathan Bohr along with amateurs Cassidy Schaub, David Haynes, John Szczerbinski and Tim Pfeifer.

Six of the 12 players on the men’s team will travel to San Juan, Puerto Rico, this September to compete in the 2009 Pan American Bowling Confederation Championships. Six Team USA women will also compete in the event.

For more information on the Team USA program, visit bowl.com.

USBC Board to Start Executive Search of Shared Services for the International Bowling Campus. This newly created position would report to a joint committee comprised of USBC and BPAA representatives. This decision came after a task force from BPAA and the USBC studied the structure of each organization and made recommendations to both boards.

The USBC and BPAA boards then met independently and voted to support the concept in principle.

“Many teams within USBC and BPAA are in the process of working together at the International Bowling Campus currently, and this move will simply represent a more formal unification of those teams,” Boje said. “The Board believes that this operating model gives USBC and the sport of bowling the best chance to succeed in the long run.”

Although no formal timetable has been set, a professional search firm will soon be engaged to assist USBC and BPAA with their respective searches.

NATIONAL DEAF BOWLING NEWS
DEAF PRO FRANK GALLO NOT DOING WELL IN DENNY’S DICK WEBER OPEN

FOUNTAIN VALLEY...The deaf PBA member Frank Gallo, Jr. flew down from his home in North Carolina to participate in Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour Denny’s Dick Weber Open. A group of deaf fans including former PBA member and 1986 ABC Star of Tomorrow Mark Fisser and newest PBA member Jim Theyken followed Gallo, Jr. on his Wednesday two rounds which he did not do very well.

On Thursday Ed Abakumoff and Robert Ellison were there to watch Gallo Jr. finish in 93rd place out of nearly 160 entrants. At lunchtime Abakumoff and Gallo, Jr. sat with and conversed with the legendary bowling coach John Jowdy who knew the other deaf pro Pete Kaczmarczyk of Detroit.

On Friday evening Abakumoff and Ellison were there watching Norm Duke taking over top seed from Pete Weber. Abakumoff said Ellison was wearing a jacket with Australia logo on it, which caught the eye of the international two handed star bowler from Australia Jason Belmonte who participated and cashed in this tournament. Belmonte thought Ellison was from his country but Ellison told him that he bought it while he was bowling for Deaf Team USA in the Deaflympics at Melbourne in 2005.

Belmonte asked Ellison if he knew the deaf Australian bowler David Howard. Ellison replied yes and that Howard bowled the first ever 300 game in the 2001 Deaflympics in Italy. To which Belmonte said Howard bowls in his league at Melbourne. That is interesting.

Gallo, Jr. stayed at my home on Thursday and Friday and left for Las Vegas Saturday morning for the USBC Masters which is being held on brand new lanes installed at Cashman Convention Center in Las Vegas from Tuesday to Sunday. After Sunday the 60 lanes will be for the USBC Team, Doubles and Singles Championship tournament that runs from February to July with more than 17,200 teams. Mark Fisser who had participated in many ABC/USBC Masters will also bowl in the Masters.

While Gallo, Jr. was my guest, we visited and watched Ken DeGroff bowl in the Mission Majors at Mission Hills Bowl. Gallo, Jr. was surprised to see several bowlers who bowled in the Weber Open also bowl in this league. DeGroff’s first place team was against the USBC Hall of Famer Robin Romeo’s team. DeGroff shot 750 (255-229-266) and Robin was best on her team with 705 in this tough league, which has a $12,000 300 pool and $6,000 800 pool. Any bowler in this league who bowls a 300 or a 800 shares in these pools with his or her team. So far there are 10 300s and six 800 bowled already.

No wonder, Gallo, Jr. was itching to try the Mission Hills lanes and asked DeGroff for a friendly match game challenge on Friday morning. DeGroff accepted and they bowled 6 games with DeGroff winning 4 games to Gallo, Jr’s two, averaging in all duce’s 230 plus to Gallo, Jr’s 217. Gallo, Jr. had the high game 268 and DeGroff’s was 244.

FLASH NEWS, BARRETT LEE SHOT 822 IN RED
ROCK LEAGUE

LAS VEGAS—I got this from Carl Malucci saying that Barrett Lee was taking over the center stage in the Wednesday night Mountain Siders League at Red Rock Lanes for this time as Malucci himself rolled just a 719. Lee was at his best time, rolled games of 288-244-290 for his career first 800, a 822.

Lee who last year rolled his first career 300, had a previous high of 790. In his 288, Lee had 10 straight strikes and lost a 300 and he had one open in his 244. He spared in first frame of his 290 and punched out 11 in row. Too bad his wife, Melchora had her worst night with a 492, Joey Harris a 625 and Malucci himself a 719, their Team Nation hit games of 906-859-893 for 2658 for the night. Congratulations goes to Barrett Lee for his honor score of 822 and 11 in row 290.

SN-CDBA DREWS 26 TEAMS AND 71 FOR DEAF

Deaf Bowling Association drew 26 teams, 51 doubles, 102 singles and 71 for the prestigious Deaf Eliminations for its 25th anniversary tournament at Sunset Station Lanes in Henderson near Las Vegas this weekend. All eyes will be on Carl Malucci’s Team Nation who is racking up high scores but this is a handicap tournament and some teams are carrying hefty handicaps.

Stan Booth the secretary treasurer says there will be the bowlers meeting on Friday night and the tournament starts with doubles and singles on Saturday morning and the Deaf Eliminations qualifying round in the afternoon. The team event commences on Sunday morning with the Eliminations mach plays in the afternoon. SLAC Youth Travel

by Otha Stubblefield

DOWNEY—I love coming to Del Rio. The pizza is great, and so are the scores. Well, the pizza is certainly great, but we did have a few good scores.

Jeremy Glover jumped back on the 900 train with a 960 from games of 240, 245, 266 and 209. Keyon couldn't make it this week, but sent alumni bowler Will Jackson to fill in for him. After some grunting and wheezing, Will managed a respectable 781 with a 214 high game! They'll be talking about that at the barbershop for years to come!

Those scores combine for this week's team high series of 1741 and 454 high game.

Team 1 (Justin/Teddie), however, takes the weekly team high game honor with a 422. Back to the individual scores, the powerhouse John Mc Cullin took second at 857, breaking pins with 225, 223 and 244 games.

Brent Shern overcame a headachy 160 to shoot 217, 231 and 210 for 818. Justin Gadaire just misses 800 with 212, 197, 203 and 187 for 799. Coming in fifth is Brandon Pekins who couldn't get over 200 (twice) for 772.

The other members of the 200 club were Teddie Carter at 219 and Austin Gadaire at 205. This week's shoutout goes to everyone who made the cut at JAT Farm Club and JAT – Jeremy, Brent, John, Josh (Chick-Fil-A gave you a day off?), Brandon, Lawrence (1st-time), Justin, Steven and I won't forget James.

To those that didn't make the cut, just remember that there are other tournaments. Everyone who comes to bowl wants to win, but only one of you can.

If you don't make it this time, try again the next time; but make sure you don't do anything that will prevent you from HAVING a next time. Speaking of next time, we'll be at El Dorado where the crashing of pins will drown out the takeoffs and landings of nearby airplanes. See you on Saturday.
