

Belmonte Becomes First to Win Three Consecutive USBC Masters Titles

GREEN BAY, WI — Australia's Jason Belmonte became the first bowler in the 64-year history of the United States Bowling Congress Masters to win the event three consecutive times on Sunday, defeating collegiate bowler AJ Johnson of Oswego, Illinois, 202-157.

Belmonte, the two-time reigning Professional Bowlers Association Player of the Year, pulled away down the stretch at The Ashwaubenon Bowling Alley to claim the Masters for the third straight year live on ESPN.

Utilizing his unique two-handed delivery, Belmonte has amassed 11 career PBA Tour titles, including four major victories. He earned $50,000 for winning the Masters.

"I just think the Masters is just a brutal tournament to not just win, but just to make it to the TV show," said Belmonte, who joined USBC Hall of Famer Mike Aulby (1989, 1995 and 1998) as the event's second three-time winner. "This means more to me than anyone can possibly imagine - that a kid from Australia who bowls different than everyone else is now in the history books." The title match was a low-scoring affair as Belmonte and the top-seeded Johnson both got off to shaky starts. After four frames, both players were working on opens with Belmonte leading by just four pins.

Strikes in the fifth and sixth frames helped Belmonte build more of a lead before he converted the 3-4-10 split in the seventh frame to stay ahead. Johnson had a chance to put pressure on Belmonte in the final two frames but closed with a pair of open frames.

"I feel a little disappointed because I wish I would have bowled a better game in the finals," said Johnson, a two-time Team USA member and senior at McKendree University. "The lanes got tough and it went by so fast that by the time I could settle down the game was almost over." In the semifinal, Belmonte won a tense match against Hall of Famer Pete Weber of St. Ann, Missouri, 232-210. Weber had an opportunity to strike out in the final frame to force a tie, but left the 3-10 split on his first shot in the final frame.

Weber entered the stepladder finals as the No. 4 seed, taking down Martin Larsen of Sweden in the opening match, 237-223, and then defeating No. 3 seed Mike DeVaney of Winchester, California, in the second match, 211-204.

Belmonte, who has made nine out of 11 television appearances in PBA Tour majors will attempt to make more history in next week's Barbasol PBA Tournament of Champions which will be conducted at Woodland Bowl in Indianapolis Feb. 11-15. He'll be trying to become the first player to win the Masters and Tournament of Champions in back-to-back seasons.

CHUCK PEZZANO - A TRIBUTE

by Frank Weiler

Chuck Pezzano will always be the "KING OF BOWLING WRITERS." He will always be "MR. BOWLING." He will always have a special place in every bowler's heart and mind. He is all of these because his whole life was lived for bowling. He was the most dedicated and most prolific bowling writer. He was bowling's biggest promoter and most gracious of all bowling personalities.

I joined the BWAA (Bowling Writers Association of America) about ten years ago when I started writing for the California Bowling News. I am a lifetime bowler but only started writing after retiring from the Air Force. I write because I love bowling and want to do something for my sport.

It is for this same reason that Chuck Pezzano is so beloved within the bowling community. He was special because he dedicated his career to bowling. He lived and breathed bowling. He did everything in his power to advance our sport. He bowled, he wrote about bowling and took every opportunity to promote bowling and grow the sport. He did so because he loved bowling.

Chuck Pezzano was a sports columnist for the Patterson (NJ) Morning Call newspaper for over sixty years. He became the paper's lead sports columnist writing five lead columns a week. He also took the time to write three bowling columns a week. He did so voluntarily without any ad-

Good job by Ladine Jones, chairman and her committee! Thank you's also go out to all the Orange County board members and non board members who volunteered their time. Without YOU this tournament would not have been successful. Kudos also to La Habra 300 Bowl and their friendly, courteous staff for hosting. Your loyalty and support of Orange County is much appreciated!!

A list of all participants, including the optional prize fund winners will be posted on our website: ocusbc.org.

THANK YOU FOR ALL YOU DO FOR OUR CALIFORNIA VETERANS!!!

Pete Weber Stars in New "This Is SportsCenter" Commercial

Iconic ESPN promotional spot features PBA Hall of Famer in starring role

CHICAGO – For the first time in the 21-year history of ESPN's iconic "This Is SportsCenter" commercial series, a bowler is playing a starring role and that bowler is the sport's most recognizable star, Professional Bowlers Association Hall of Famer Pete Weber.

The Pete Weber promotional spot made its debut Sunday in conjunction with the live ESPN telecast of the United States Bowling Congress Masters. Weber qualified for the Masters telecast as the No. 4 player in the five-man stepladder finals in his bid for a record 11th PBA major title and a win that would allow him to join Mike Aulby and Norm Duke as the third player to complete the PBA Grand Slam (PBA World Championship, PBA Tournament of Champions, U.S. Open and Masters).

In keeping with the tradition of This Is SportsCenter's light-hearted humor, the spot portrays Weber as a stereotypical league bowler. He emerges from a side door and follows ESPN broadcast star Kenny Mayne toward the exit of ESPN's Los Angeles offices carrying a vintage one-ball bowling bag and stopping at the reception desk to exchange a pair of rental shoes for his street shoes. And it concludes with the receptionist spraying the rental shoes with disinfectant.

The "TSIC" promotional series made its debut in 1994, and has featured a Who's Who roster of legendary stars from almost every sport, except bowling, until Weber's appearance. The spot can be seen on YouTube (<http://youtu.be/xT7GHFf1FSM>).

While Weber had appeared on television nearly 150 times during his career, it was the first time the 37-time PBA Tour champion has done a nationally-televised commercial. It was, in his words, "Wonderful. Everyone in Los Angeles looked at me and said, 'Hey, that's Pete Weber.'"

"I admit, I get a thrill when other celebrities recognize me," Weber added. "Everyone in Bristol (ESPN's Connecticut base) knows me because I've been around there a lot, but I had never been to the Los Angeles offices before."

The project had been in planning stages for months, and when Weber's schedule finally matched up with ESPN's shooting schedule, he made the trek to Los Angeles with little idea what to expect.

"I went in on Wednesday evening, met Chantre (Camack, the talent director for the project) and basically had all day Thursday free. When we were walking over to ESPN, Chantre asked me if I'd like to do the Sports Nation show. I said, sure, but I didn't know it was live. Otherwise I might not have displayed my middle finger." He laughed.

"Then we watched (Golden State Warriors star) Steph Curry shoot his commercial, where he was in the buffet line. I also met (Houston Rockets star) James Harden. We started shooting about 4:30 and were done by 6."

During his bantering with Mayne – noted for his offbeat sense of humor – Weber said, "Kenny asked me if I'd ever bowled a game over 300. I told him as a matter of fact, I bowl in a mixed handicap league with my wife Tracy and I shot a 300 with three pins of handicap, so I had a 303 game.

"I talked with Kenny for about a half hour," he said. "What a nice guy, very intelligent. Everyone was first class, A-one, as nice as can be. It was an honor to be part of it."

GONG HEY FAT CHOY HAPPY CHINESE NEW YEAR YEAR OF THE GOAT (LAMB / RAM) Feb 19, 2015 ---- Feb 7, 2016

by Treesa Spencer

The Chinese Lunar calendar began in 2697 BC, when the Yellow King became King.

Chinese New Year's days are also called the Spring Festival. They will last 10 days and the year of the Goat (lamb / Ram) will last until February 7, 2016.

Animals in the Chinese Zodiac were created for counting years long before the Christian calendar existed. The selection and order of the animals that influenced people's lives were organized in the Han Dynasty (202 BC -220 AD) and related to the number 12.

One Ji equals 12 years, one year has 12 months, one day has 12 time periods called Shi Chen and there are also 12 full moons within one year.

And; it just so happens that 12 straight strikes equals a perfect 300 game! (just thought I'd throw that in.)

If you were born in 1907, 1919, 1931, 1943, 1955, 1967, 1979, 1991, 2003 or 2015, you are a Goat person.

You can enhance your chances of "good luck" during the year of the Goat (even if you are not a goat) by wearing a little goat charm or a jade charm. Might as well get a little edge while you can.

GONG XI FA CAI - MAY YOU BE HAPPY, HEALTHY AND WEALTHY IN THIS YEAR OF THE GOAT!

STANSELL 847, ABAKUMOFF 276 TOPS IN DEAF TRAVEL AT JEWEL CITY

GLENDALE — In Southern California Deaf Traveling League’s second round stop at Jewel City Bowl the scorings were better than the first round at same place with 10 bowlers making the day’s honor roll. Although most of the bowlers started low and finished high., hence no big series as only a handful had good start. League President Ed Abakumoff had poor start but finished with league’s new season high game 276.

Topping the honor roll was Jeff Stansell for the 2nd consecutive time with 847 from game of 210, 176, 247 and 214. Also a surprise with a 800 was Gardy Rodgers who returned from last season’s surgery with 170-236-246-176 for 828. Missing 800 with poor start of 163, Robert Audette finished with 193-204-227 for 787. After poor two games start, Abakumoff finished with 213 and his big 276 for 770. Paul Taffolla, Jr who won our deaf singles classic last month, continued to improve with 203-185-180-180 for 728. Dan Flores closed with a 200 for 719 and lefty Bob Jones was hit with a lot of 7 pin taps finished with a 715. Taffolla, Jr’s father Paul Taffolla, Sr hit 701 and Bob Taylor had a 200. Sharon Caldwell had the day’s ladies high game, 188 and series 688.

The scorings was high that day as of the six teams only one came 9 pins short of a 2000 team series with 3 teams in 2100 range with day’s Stansell’s Mid City 2147 top. Overall for the day the league averaged 173.25 per bowler.

Audette’s Eagle Rock broke its first place tie from Flores’ Orange County with a 13-7 points win over Jones’ S F Valley and took over first place. Orange County could only win 12-8 over 3rd place Low’s Hollywood and fell to 2nd, one point behind Eagle Rock. Hollywood remains in 3rd. Fourth place Stansell’s Mid City near swept Abakumoff’s Riverside 16-4 to stay in 4th place and the loss puts Riverside in 6th place. S F Valley moved up to 5th 1.5 points ahead of Riverside.

The 54 years old all deaf scratch traveling league thanks the Jewel City Bowl management and staff for excellent lane conditioning. Next travel stop place and date will be Del Rio Lanes on February 22 at Noon.

WHAT IS THE GREATEST PBA TOURNAMENT OF CHAMPIONS TV MOMENT?

In celebration of the 50th anniversary Barbasol PBA Tournament of Champions which gets underway on Wednesday, Feb. 11, at Woodland Bowl in Indianapolis, you are invited to vote on your favorite moment by clicking on the special “TOC Poll” link at the top of the pba.com home page (<http://www.pba.com/Vote/>).

The top three moments, based on fan voting, will be aired as part of the live ESPN telecast of the TOC finals on Sunday, Feb. 15, at 1 p.m. ET.

Below is a list of 12 of the Tournament of Champions’ most historic moments in order of when they happened. If you think the PBA’s panel of experts missed a key TOC television moment, visit PBA on Facebook or Twitter to submit your favorite.

- 1967 - Jack Biondolillo shoots the first TV 300 game in PBA history.
- 1970 - Don Johnson shoots 299 in the title match.
- 1971 - Johnny Petraglia makes four straight TV shows and wins three straight titles, culminating with the T of C.
- 1984 - Mike Durbin becomes the first player to win three T of C titles (1972, 1982 & 1984).
- 1986 - Marshall Holman wins 2nd T of C and surpasses $1 million in career earnings (3rd player to do so).
- 1991 - A bomb scare temporarily halts the telecast; David Ozio eventually wins the title.
- 1993 - George Branham wins the last Firestone T of C and becomes first African-American to win the event.
- 1995 - Mike Aulby wins to complete Bowling’s Triple Crown and Grand Slam.
- 2002 - Jason Couch wins his third straight T of C title to become the only “three-peat” winner in the event.
- 2010 - Kelly Kulick becomes the first female to win a PBA Tour title.
- 2011 - Mika Koivuniemi shoots 299 vs. Tom Daugherty’s 100 in the semifinal match, then wins the event and a PBA record $250,000 first prize.
- 2013 - Pete Weber becomes the oldest player to win the event at age 50 (his second T of C win).

CHRIS PAUL INVITATIONAL PULLS LARGEST ESPN AUDIENCE SINCE 2012

The ESPN broadcast of Chris Paul’s CP3 PBA Celebrity Invitational presented by Bowlmor AMF averaged 1.1 million viewers on Super Bowl Sunday, the largest audience for any PBA telecast since 2012. The two-hour show, a fund-raiser benefiting the CP3 Foundation and featuring 10 PBA stars, also had a strong rating amongst the highly sought-after 18-49-year-old male and female audience, garnering the highest rating in that demographic for a PBA telecast since 2010.

For those who may have missed it, the sixth CP3 PBA Celebrity Invitational was won by the team of Ronnie Russell and rapper French Montana, 150-139, over perennial favorites Jason Belmonte and host Chris Paul. Bowlmor AMF hosted the event at AMF Bowl-O-Drome in Torrance, Calif. Montana, an admitted bowling novice, used a straight-down-the-middle approach and became an instant media darling across the hip hop landscape. Montana, on his own, has more than three million Twitter followers.

The CP3 ratings came on the heels of an announcement that audiences for the GEICO PBA World Series of Bowling VI telecasts were up by just over 18 percent over the previous year.

SPECIAL PBA LEAGUE BOWLING BALLS TO DEBUT ON “PBA BOWLING CHALLENGE” GAME

Concrete Software will begin to debut PBA League team balls into the PBA Bowling Challenge game over the next eight weeks, leading up to the PBA League Elias Cup competition March 28-29 at Bayside Bowl in Portland, Maine.

PBA League logoed bowling balls will be available for use by the legion of PBA Bowling Challenge Mobile Game users beginning today (Feb. 4) with the introduction of the Dallas Strikers ball. The other PBA League balls and their debut dates are: New York WTT KingPins (Feb. 12), Silver Lake Atom Splitters (Feb. 19), Pittsburgh Jack Rabbits (Feb. 26), Motown Muscle (March 5), L.A. X (March 12), BROOKLYN STyLES (March 19) and Philadelphia Hitmen (March 26).

The PBA Bowling Challenge by Concrete Software app is available on Google Play, Apple iOS, Amazon App Store and Nook. The mobile device game, a segment of the multi-media PBA Network, has more than 11 million regular users.

KUWAIT, THAILAND EVENTS NO LONGER ON WORLD BOWLING TOUR SCHEDULE

The PBA has learned the previously-announced PBA International-World Bowling Tour Kuwait Open, scheduled for March 10-14, and the WBT Thailand, a to-be-announced event, are no longer on the 2015 WBT schedule. The announcement was made on Feb. 3 by World Bowling President Kevin Dornberger.

PBA REGIONAL UPDATE: “CHALLENGE,” PBA50 EVENTS ON THE WEEKEND SCHEDULE

The PBA Regional schedule for the Feb. 6-8 weekend includes the Break Point Alley South Challenge presented by DV8, a tournament for non-title winners, in Tavares, Fla., and the PBA50 Tony Grigat Allstate Midwest/Central Open at River Rand Lanes in Des Plaines, Ill.

- The Feb. 20-22 weekend includes the PBA50 Dave Edwards Toyota South Open presented by Ebonite in Spartanburg, S.C.; the Lakewood Colorado Southwest Open at Holiday Bowling and Billiards; the Jackson Rancheria Casino Resort West Championship at Gold Country Lanes in Sutter Creek, Calif., and the Lynwood Midwest Challenge presented by Roto Grip, a non-titlists event, at Lynwood Bowl in Lynwood, Ill.

Narciso Wins Second ABTA Title at Westminster $1,900

Five Bowlers Share Match Game of $2,200 with 158 Score • Cyndi Kelley and Ed Palma Share the Mystery Match Game $2,555 with a 329

All Other Pots Carry Over to Keystone Saturday

WESTMINSTER — On our return to popular Westminster Lanes we surely had some fun and Excitement there. Henry Narciso fired a big 258 game #3 to win his second ABTA Title in fine style and take home a nice $1,900 top prize as his reward.

The turnout was lighter than normal as there were big events going on in Las Vegas and some big parties too but 144 entrants gave it their all with lower Cut Scores of +56 Men, and the ladies chipped in at +40. Added Super Seniors were Ed Palma +53 Sun Sundara +52 and Patti Brode led the ladies +36 for the seniors.

Top Qualifiers were Men, John Armenia +125 and Deborah Sanders led the ladies +114. They will receive paid entries for their fine nowling to any regular ABTA event.

Armenia drew for the Match Series and we had no-one match the 591 score so the pot carries over to Keystone Saturday. He also drew for the Mystery Match Doubles. Two Lucky Bowlers won a tidy $2,555. They being Cyndi Kelley and Eddie Palma. They got $1,277.50 each and we estimate the new pot at $900 at Keystone Saturday.

The Beat the Board finals were on and where you finish is where you will cash. Game #1 had Minh Dang lead the way at +36 winning the first side pot in the process.

In game Two Danny Guevarra got hot and led with a +77 with Minh Dang right behind at +75. Scores for men and women to the top 16 were in at +24. So it is tight going to game #3.

Game #3 saw ABTA regular Henry Narciso get hot and with his 258 scratch went barely by Danny Guevarra with his final hcp score of +118 to win the title. Guevarra four pins behind +114 and Mr. Ramon Alliman in 3rd with a nice steady +105. It took +31 for the men and +18 ladies to make the top 16 which includes 3 guaranteed Ladies. By the way Henry came from 58 pins behind to win this one he got hot in game 3 for the win, and he didn't realize he had won. Never Say Die Folks :-)

This is his second ABTA title. Congrats to a fine young man!!

The top 16 got $100 min. guaranteed and we saw 35 bowlers cash in at Westminster. It was great to see several new members and others we have not seen in some time at Westminster. Even four new members from Visalia. The Barnhill family, father and three sons. Super nice people and Tim Barnhill cashed. It was also great to see Jeff Liscano cash in his return to ABTA action.

The event was over and Mr. Narciso drew for the Match Game. 158 was the score and five winners sharing the $2,200 Pot were Benjamin Chung, Patti Brode, Ely Cruz, Manny Lagao and Matt Goodlowe. Benjamin, Patti, Ely, and Manny got $440 each. Goodloe $330 for 75% of the pot. There is a $110 carryover at Keystone Saturday and we estimate the Match Game at Narciso Stars at Westminster 4th Title $1900 — Ramon Alliamn 3rd $200, Henry Narciso Champion $1,900, Dantt Guevarra- Runnerup $500, Arnild Angoncillo 5th $110 and Annaliza Agoncillo ABTA Director.

The 3-6-9 roll off saw only Dan Raidy and Danny Guevarra able to get two 9's or better so they each got a $50 consolation. Again the pot is worth $3,000 Saturday at Keystone.

Thanks a bunch to Westminster and the staff for hosting us we will return soon as it is a great place for the ABTA to bowl. Get well wishes to Proprietor Mike Jacoby. We missed him being on hand this week.

Keystone Lanes is our host Saturday Feb. 14. Qualify at 1:00 - 2:30 - 4:00 & 6:00.

Semis at 8:00 and Top 16 single elim finals to follow.

The address is 11459 E. Imperial Hwy in Norwalk. Located near 5 Freeway and Pioneer, easy access off 605 east from either Imperial or Firestone. There may be Construction on the 5 and Pioneer so if coming north on the 5 exit Norwalk go north 1/4 mile to Imperial and go left to the center about 1 mile on the right. The phone there is 562-868-3261.

Thanks ABTA Members for your support you are #1. Also Feb 21 we are hosted by West Covina Lanes and Feb

28 to a long awaited return to Popular La Habra "300" Bowl and March 7 we go to Oak Tree Lanes. March 14 is a Bye Weekend CHECK IN early at Keystone see you there.

On a sad note we are saddened to hear of the passing of Dwight Kraye Proprietor of the La Habra "300" Pro Shop. He was one of the Good Guys and it was always a joy to talk to him. He always put a smile on my face as well as others!! God Bless you Dwight, and the Kraye Family, you will be missed dearly by all who knew you!!

Forever Staying in the Moment – 2nd Tony Reyes Memorial Scholarship Jr./Adult Doubles Event is a sellout!

By Bette Addington, California Bowling Writers

SAN JOSE — Driven by a desire to keep the memory of his friend Tony Reyes alive, Ed Godbout set out last year to commemorate his late buddy by holding a Jr./Adult Doubles tournament to raise funds to create a scholarship in Reyes’ honor. Godbout thought up the idea and with the help of Lindsey Wong and the graces of the Reyes’ family (wife Nichole, daughter Gianna and Tony’s Mom, Jessica), he set out to do this bowling event. Godbout had known Tony six years and with the help of Tony worked together to build a junior league at 4th Street Bowl. Tragically, only two months into their venture to get this junior league going, we lost Tony. Godbout was stunned as was everyone else upon hearing the news. As he was a first-time youth director, he had no idea what he would do? Thankfully due to the support of his wife, Annie and a couple of his junior’s parents, their youth bowling program kept going. What started with a mere 15 juniors in their league has grown to almost 50 today and it is still growing! Also coming on board was Coach Anthony Vasquez and his wife, Gina, who now serve as Co-Directors for the event and they all gave Godbout a reason to keep going with his venture. The Tony Reyes Memorial Scholarship Jr./Adult Doubles event was born. The event, both years, has taken place at 4th Street Bowl in San Jose which is where Tony Reyes’ pro shop is located. Last year the tournament was a hit but little did Godbout know, it gained much attention from around the state and when he announced this year’s event’s date, January 10th, some six to eight months ago, the enthusiasm and interest just kept growing. Godbout was soon faced with a filled squad and quickly decided to add a second squad and much to his surprise, a week before the event that too was filled! All the promotion and goodwill from the inaugural event was paying off!

92 Jr./Adult teams turned out for this year’s event with bowlers from as far away as Sacramento, Modesto, Stockton and Manteca. According to Godbout, this year’s turnout “is three times bigger than last year!” This year’s event raised $1,840 for the Reyes Scholarship fund. That is due to his year-long promotion of the event which entailed “contacting all of Tony’s friends in the PBA, as well as all the bowling houses and pro shops. I got donations from people like Jason Sterner, Chris Warner, Joe Goldstein, Sr. and Jr., Erin Lenahan from EFX, Leanne Hulsenburg from Storm, the San Jose Sharks, Tony Martin from Lord Field/Lane Master (which was the tournament sponsor with Bowling Average) and, my biggest helper on getting donations every year Gary Hafelfinger.” His newest sponsor that came on board just two weeks before the event was Cutesy Cupcakes in Scotts Valley. And, thanks to event photographer, Bruce Shoji, participants were able to purchase a commemorative photo with their partner that had a water mark of Tony Reyes incorporated into their photo. This year’s tournament also saw the debut of the Tony Reyes pattern – 37 feet.

And hearing and seeing the compliments right after this year’s event concluded, it sounded like everyone who participated had a great time and all for a good cause. From Facebook here’s a few comments: Anthony Crosby stated, “U R a Godsend for youth bowling. You are a treasure to 4th Street Bowl.” Tony McGuire, who has three youth boy bowlers who “love what Ed does!” And Jerry Humphries chimed in “100% agree.” Irene Wilson a youth bowler who came to bowl the event with her Dad, Stan, for the first time this year said, “The tournament went very well. It didn’t start until thirty minutes after the scheduled time because the photographer took pictures of each team, but that was understandable because the alley was packed with up to six teams (twelve people) on a pair of lanes. The raffle was very interesting and successful because they raffled off at least twenty different items/services. I thought it was creative that they put a bag in front of each raffle item so that you could buy a pack of raffle tickets and place as many tickets as you wanted in each bag. Bowlers moved a pair to the right after every game and the handicap division took up most of the lanes while the scratch division took up about eight lanes. I bowled the 2pm squad, but no matter what time it was, the bowling alley was crowded. There were bowlers from all over California that I saw there and it seemed like they were able to raise a lot of money. I definitely want to attend the tournament again next year! I was fortunate enough to win a 3-ball Vise bowling bag in the raffle and my friend, Tim Cagle II, won the Tony Reyes plastic ball signed by many, many pros and was the grand prize! They even had San Jose State gear in the raffle and baked goods for sale. Also there was a table where people were selling tiles with different sports teams on them and jewelry. This tournament had everything you could imagine!”

Ed Godbout is already looking to the 2016 event. “Next year the tournament will be on January 9th and 10th so I won’t have to turn away anyone! Sadly this year, due to space, I had to turn five teams away and they will be the first ones in next year to hopefully make up for this year’s overbooking.”

BURBANK — There are a number things that are great about bowling. To name a few, it takes place indoors. Constant climate control! You can drink beer and eat pizza while you do it! You can wear crazy shirts and name your team something outrageous! Okay, that was a stretch but the best thing of all is that it is a sport you can participate in for life!
I was bowling a tournament this weekend, when I noticed a bowler that was using a cane, on the approach. He was older and had been suffering with quickening arthritis for some time. This made me think of all the people who bowl in spite of their physical difficulties. There are single and double amputees on the lanes as well as the blind. Really!
Years ago, I bowled State Tournament with a woman whose fingers were so badly damaged by arthritis, she used a special ball. It had a handle to hold rather than finger holes and the handle would collapse back into the ball when she released it. The ball was sanctioned and considered legal by the WIBC! Awesome!
I had the pleasure of meeting a couple of bowlers over 100 years old. One woman and one man. He didn’t even start bowling until he was fifty! Both had averages over 120 and competed against the youngsters (70 to 90 year olds) with gusto.
All of these bowlers give me great hope that I, too, can continue to participate in my beloved sport no matter what physical challenges life may bring me.

Three Teams Remain On Top At 9-1 Heading To Week 3

by Randy Myers

DOWNEY — Week 2 began the separation of the contenders and pretenders as three teams managed 4-1 wins to remain on top with 5 weeks to go. DV8 used a huge 880 Game 3 to take down Erickson Foods 4-1 as all four bowlers shot 205 or better. Sam Hitchcock dominated the pair as he shot 670, Bobby Campagnale used a huge 236 Game 2 to shoot 623. Threadworks will face DV8 next week since Eric Snow managed 617, to overcome the great 268 shot by Bowlum's James Tipton in their lone win. CASAMIGO'S Tequila managed to sweep past TIFCO Industries to climb to 9-1 as well. Vernon Adams 590 was high for the Tequila crew while Gary Duran topped TIFCO with 579. Keystone Lanes extended their overall lead with a 4-1 win over Alhambra Coin Center as Herbert Jones 238/600 paved the way, while Doug Kempt 234/608 countered for Alhambra. J.A.T. moved into 5th place by taking down Herzog Insurance 4-1. Obviously, a very tough pair as only David Yamauchi with 582 managed to beat the league average 540.

SYSCO took down Blizz Yogurt 4-1 in another low scoring battle, as Charlie Kinstler led the pair and winners with 570, Greg Neuer was the best for Blizz with 548. The next match featured the night's top individual and team series bowler as Eddie Vandaniker shot 248/688 and got help from the wise choice of sub, Bobby Hornacek 244/632 to white wash Linder Insurance who was led by Kurt Arakaki 589. Los Altos Trophies continued the sweep parade as they pushed aside GJC Serices 5-0. Buddy Lucas with 610 was high for the winners, David Gullett with 579 paced GJC. Zack Jellsey shot 631 to lead Forest Lanes to yet another sweep, as The Professional Approach, the defending champs remained winless for the round. They were led by the not so "Bad Ass" Frank Barefoot with 580. American Harvest Vodka took advantage of super sub Ramiro Garcia's 575, and took down Pino's Pizza 4-1. Leonard Ruiz with 566 topped the Pizza crew. On the final pair, Cook's Bowling Supply pulled out 1 win thanks to Matt Mosley's 221 Game 2.

Sidepot winners were Game 1- Eddie VanDaniker 248, Game 2 Bobby Campagnale 246, which also took down the coveted Financial Advisor's pot, while Paul Varela got 2nd and $100 with 236. Game 3 Super Pot went to Ashkan "Not Trash Can" Tahvildaran 230. And in our other "honor" the True Anchor goes Mike Jennings 455.

We had two big winners from VEGAS this past weekend, Kevin Gagnon took the TAT Crown and the $20,000 that goes with it, and Bobby Campagnale finished second to Steve Smith from San Diego, winning $5000 in the ABT Scratch Tournament at South Point this weekend. Next week will again narrow down the contenders, with each week, chances are slimmed by those who lose as we bowl position round each and every week. Yes, I made my unspectacular return to action, hoping to put together a back to back streak next week. Have a blessed week everyone, see you next Monday at Del Rio in Downey.
