10-Year-Old Who Bowled 300 Appeared on Jimmy Kimmel

FAIRLAWN, Ohio – Kai Strothers, a 10-year-old from Maplewood, N.J., hopes to one day follow in the footsteps of his favorite Professional Bowlers Association stars – Jason Belmonte and Gary Faulkner Jr. – and bowl on the sport's biggest stage.

Kai took a big step toward that goal on January 19 when he bowled his first 300 game in his youth league at Jersey Lanes in nearby Linden, a feat that landed him an appearance on Jimmy Kimmel LIVE via satellite.

Now, thanks to an invitation from Go Bowling! PBA Tour Commissioner Tom Clark, Kai and his parents will have a front row seat for one of professional bowling's most prestigious championship rounds when he attends Sunday's PBA Tournament of Champions finals at AMF Riviera Lanes in Fairlawn, Ohio. The stepladder finals air live on FOX at 1:30 pm.

"Kai's accomplishment on the lanes and his awesome performance on Jimmy Kimmel are inspiring," Clark said. "I cannot wait to introduce Kai to PBA legend Carmen Salvino at the finals and listen to that conversation. Whether you are 10 or 85, we are all chasing 300."

Salvino is bowling in his 29th PBA Tournament of Champions this year at record age 85.

If a PBA bowler rolls 300 in the TOC championship game on Sunday, he will win a $1 million bonus as part of the PBA's #Chasing300 campaign. In the case of any 300 game on the PBA on FOX Sports schedule this season, Tour sponsor Go Bowling's "Go Bowling America" promotion will also give a free game of bowling coupon to everyone registered at www.gobowling.com/BowlFreeAmerica.

When Kai was asked by Kimmel what else he'd like to accomplish after becoming the youngest bowler ever to bowl a 300 game in New Jersey, the 197-average youth bowler said his dream is to someday become a professional bowler.

The 10-year-old will see what it's like under the brightest lights in the game this Sunday.

Belmonte Wins PBA Tournament of Champions for 10th Major

Belmonte Beats EJ Tackett 225-196 – Wins Record-Tying 3rd T of C Title

by Jerry Schneider

FAIRLAWN, Ohio – Australian two-hander Jason Belmonte won his third PBA Tournament of Champions title Sunday to record his 10th PBA Tour major title, tying him with Hall of Famers Pete Weber and the late Earl Anthony for first on the all-time major titles list.

The 35-year-old Belmonte defeated 2017 Tournament of Champions winner EJ Tackett of Bluffton, Ind., 225-196, in the title match of PBA's signature tournament at AMF Riviera Lanes to also tie Hall of Famers Jason Couch and Mike Durbin for most Tournament of Champions titles. Belmonte, a four-time PBA Player of the Year, had previous Tournament of Champions wins back-to-back in 2014 and 2015.

2019 Tournament of Champions Winner Jason Belmonte

"It's madness," said

Belmonte, who was top qualifier for the stepladder finals. "To work so hard at your craft means the world to be here at this moment. It hasn't completely sunk in and to have my name next to Pete and Earl is an overwhelming feeling right now".

"Never in my wildest dreams did I think I would achieve this," he added. "It doesn't seem real to have my name on that list with two of the greatest bowlers of all time."

Gary Stines Rips a 300 and Even He's Amazed

by Fred Eisenhammer

WINNETKA – After drilling eight straight strikes to start his third game, Gary Stines approached Mike Paganelli, his cousin and teammate.

"Mike, I'm getting really nervous," Stines said.

"What are you getting nervous about?" Paganelli barked. "Just throw the [bleepin'] ball."

Stines listened well, smoking four more strikes to finish with a truly amazing perfect game.

Why amazing?

Stines' previous high was a mere 232 and he says his bowling goal was just to register seven strikes in a row, eclipsing his previous best of six. That's not six in a row to start a game; that's seven in a row anytime.

Stines had doubled in the 10th frame of his second game – then rolled a gutter ball on his final shot. That memory was on his continued on page 3

CP3 TELECAST CONTINUES TREND OF VIEWERSHIP GROWTH OF PBA ON FOX SPORTS CHANNELS

Through six events, 9,736,000 viewers have tuned-in to watch the PBA on FOX, FS1 or FS2, including repeats, which represents a 41% increase over the total audience through six events last year (6,895,000).

The CP3 PBA Celebrity Invitational delivered 819,000 viewers on FOX which was 9% better than last year's performance of 752,000 viewers for the comparable telecast last year. It ranks as the most-watched non-NFL adjacent PBA telecast in two years. Not only was viewership for the Chris Paul PBA telecast up, but the audience increased through the majority of the telecast, peaking at 1,025,000 viewers from 3:30-4 p.m.

HULSENBERG, MACPHERSON, CONNERS ELECTED TO PWBA HALL OF FAME

ARLINGTON, Texas – Leanne Hulsenberg, Wendy Macpherson and Donna Connors will comprise the first class of the Professional Women’s Bowling Association (PWBA) Hall of Fame in 16 years, following their election by the PWBA Hall of Fame committee.

Hulsenberg and Macpherson were elected in the Performance category, while Connors will go into the PWBA Hall of Fame in the Meritorious Service/Builder category.

The 2019 PWBA Hall of Fame induction ceremony will take place May 15 in Wichita, Kansas, in conjunction with the 2019 United States Bowling Congress (USBC) Queens, a major event on the PWBA Tour. Details on the ceremony will be announced later.

Leanne Hulsenberg

Hulsenberg, 51, captured 26 PWBA titles from 1987 through 2002, including the 1999 USBC Queens, and won her second major title at the 2011 U.S. Women’s Open. She is third on the PWBA all-time titles list behind Lisa Wagner (32) and Aleta Sill (31), is one of just four competitors to surpass the $1 million mark in career PWBA earnings and made more than 100 appearances on television.

“I am so honored to be included in the return of the PWBA Hall of Fame and look forward to the ceremony in May,” Hulsenberg said. “My entire life has been, and continues to be, dedicated to the great sport of bowling, and to be recognized for that is very sweet. My sincerest gratitude goes out to the people who nominated me, the PWBA and the hall of fame committee.”

The 1987 Bowling Digest Rookie of the Year, when she won three titles, Hulsenberg became the first bowler to capture back-to-back PWBA Player of the Year honors in 1990 and 1991. She was selected to the Bowlers Journal International All-American Team 18 times in her career, including 12 selections to the first team, and was named Women’s Pro Bowler of the Year three times (1990, 1991, 2002) by Bowling Digest.

She led the PWBA in season average four times and was the PWBA Robby Sportsmanship Award winner in 1990 and 1991. She was inducted into the USBC Hall of Fame in 2008.

Wendy Macpherson

Macpherson, 51, was an 18-year-old high school senior in 1986 when she became the youngest bowler to win the U.S. Women’s Open, the first of her 20 PWBA titles. She joined the pro tour that summer, claiming PWBA Rookie of the Year honors, and won five more major titles in her career – three USBC Queens (1998, 2000, 2003) and two Sam’s Town Invitational (1990, 1999) titles.

“Being selected to the PWBA Hall of Fame is an awesome feeling,” Macpherson said. “It is a feeling of being voted in, and added to, the greats of my sport. Bowling was, and still is, my life. I work every day running tournaments for High Roller Inc. and give many lessons and clinics for Storm. Every time I am involved with people in the bowling centers, they always tell me how they watched me on ESPN. I am often reminded of my career through these interactions, and I am honored to now say that I am in the PWBA Hall of Fame.”

She was named PWBA Player of the Year four times over a five-year stretch from 1996-2000 and is the PWBA all-time career earnings leader with more than $1.2 million. In 1997, she posted the highest single-season earnings mark with $165,425. She was selected to the Bowlers Journal All-American Team 12 times and selected as the publication’s Female Bowler of the Decade for the 1990s.

She is the youngest winner of the triple crown, completing the feat when she won the Sam’s Town Invitational in 1990 at age 22. She holds the record for most television appearances in a season (15) and was the first player to reach 100 television appearances.

Macpherson also has won 10 titles on the Japanese Professional Bowlers Association Tour. In 2006, she became the first woman to win a USBC Open Championships title with an 812 series in singles. She was inducted into the USBC Hall of Fame in 2009.

Donna Connors

Connors, 63, is the founder and executive director of the annual PBA/PWBA Striking Against Breast Cancer Mixed Doubles tournament, growing the event from 32 teams in 2000 to its current 160 teams. She always has said the focus is on the players and always ensured she would find a partner for any woman who wanted to bowl in the event.

“When I received the call, I couldn’t believe what I was hearing,” Connors said. “I’m so deeply honored to be a part of the PWBA Hall of Fame in what it represents in our sport. For me to be speechless is unheard of, to say the least. It absolutely means the world to me.”

A USBC Silver coach, she is co-owner of Carol Norman’s Pro Shop and has done layouts and ball drillings for numerous PWBA players. She has supported the women’s bowling program at Stephen F. Austin with bowling balls and layout advice, and supports Pat Costello’s girls high school bowling team in Oviedo, Florida.

Connors is a member of the Houston and Texas Bowling Halls of Fame and has won seven PWBA Regional titles.

The 2019 PWBA Hall of Fame class was selected by the PWBA Hall of Fame committee based on applications received. The committee is comprised of three PWBA Hall of Fame members, three Bowling Proprietors’ Association of America (BPAA) board members, three USBC board members, and three media members.

The committee also voted to count major titles earned in the USBC Queens and at the U.S. Women’s Open during the PWBA’s hiatus from 2004-2014 as PWBA Tour titles.

Nominees in the Performance category had to be at least 50 years of age and needed a minimum of 10 PWBA Tour titles or a minimum of five PWBA Tour titles including two majors. Nominees in the Meritorious/Builder category had to show they advanced the PWBA as an organization, promoted the PWBA Tour through media and must show a minimum of five years of support.

The inaugural PWBA Hall of Fame class in 1995 included Donna Adamek, Patty Costello, Dorothy Fothergill, Mildred Ignizio, Marion Ladewig, and Betty Morris in the Performance category, LaVerne Carter, Helen Duvall and Shirley Garms in Pioneer, and Georgia Veatch in the Builder category. With the 2019 class, there are 38 members of the PWBA Hall of Fame – 21 in Performance, 10 in Pioneer and seven in Meritorious Service/Builder.

The 2019 PWBA Tour season will have 14 events, kicking off with the PWBA Greater Cleveland Open on April 25-27 at Yorktown Lanes.

mind as he prepared for his final shot of his 300.
“Christ, just don’t let me throw a gutter ball with everyone watching,” thought Stines as dozens of bowlers crowded behind his lane.
“I really had no confidence whatsoever,” said Stines, a Calabasas resident. “I was just doing what [coach] Rusty Bryant told me to do. Keep my balance and hit my mark and follow through with my arm straight. “Bowlers who bowl 300 games are nothing like me,” Stines deadpanned. “They’re better bowlers, but it was pretty cool.”
Stines, who carries a 177 average, finished with a 655 series (195-160-300) in the Funtimers senior league Jan.

30 at Winnetka Bowl. To show how shocking his perfect game was to some, Stines called wife Nora after the game and she absolutely refused to believe it, even throwing in an expletive for emphasis.
It wasn’t until she heard the noisy celebration in the background that she realized the magnitude of the moment. A week after his masterpiece, Stines couldn’t remember all the details. But he did recall his reaction when it was all over.
“I wasn’t excited, I was just relieved,” Stines said.
Unlike pitchers in the midst of a perfect game, Stines engaged in frequent conversation throughout his memorable game.

Teammate Craig Evans, who had bowled a perfect game in 2007 at Matador Bowl, told Stines “to just keep doing what you’re doing and keep it simple.”
Another stunning aspect of Stines’ 300: He had been 20 years away from the game before returning in the summer. So, he’s still in his first year of his comeback.
Stines believes he’s bowling better than ever at 68. “Bowling is like one of those cool sports where you’re not limited by your age,” Stines said.
Then he went out and proved it.
“I have no idea what happened,” he said. “It was like a lot of relief. It was just unbelievable.”

Lela James

Lela James & Kirby Warner Lead The Senior Laughlin Bowlers

by Frank Weiler

REDLANDS – I call these senior bowlers “RIVER RATS”. That’s because they enjoy bowling aside the Colorado River at Don Laughlin’s Riverside Lanes. They tell me there’s something special about the air along the River that brings these bowlers back year after year. I think it’s more than the air or even the muddy river water. I think it’s all about those one armed bandits on the floor below the bowling lanes. Whatever it is, be sure that these bowlers will make their annual spring pilgrimage to the River. I already have overheard conversations about expectations of the good times to come. In May these EMPIRE BOWL seniors will head east for their League sweeper. At this point most of the usual suspects are at the top of the league’s leader board.

The TOP THREE female league scorers are:
1. Lela James	181	(Average)
2. BridJette Whaley	178
3. Becky Elevazo	177

The TOP THREE male league scorers are:
1. Kirby Warner	225	(Average)
2. Joseph DeLaTorre	223
3. Ron Bonneau	221

The high scores by the guys are a perfect 300 and 789 by Ron Bonneau. Gail Stormes tops the ladies with a 279 game and BridJette Whaley has a 623 high series.

Great bowling “River Rats”. My advise when you head east to the River is to take in more of the river air and lay off the one armed bandits.

1988 – PART 1

by Carol Mancini

The Bowling News was owned and edited by Ken Lawman. Bob Johnson was the Managing Editor. Lillian Oak was the ad gal. And...the Great Frank Keitz was grinding out weekly stories and traveling the world. He was a bird-dog when it came to sniffing out a story.

- 85 year old Lou Kasnick was in his 52nd year of sponsoring “Ladies Bowlers.” He worked as a deskman, pro shop operator, and instructor before showering the ladies with jewelry, balls, tournament entries, etc. He was a Santa in disguise!
- Mary Lou Retton was on “Celebrity Bowling” demonstrating some body exercises. 2018 she was on “Dancing with the Stars!”
- Marshall Holman was PBA Player of the Year; voted by his fellow competitors.
- The A.B.C. new lane dressing rule required updated “take-up devices” to read the oiling patterns, which went from edge to edge.
- Bill Harmatz - Pro Jockey - owned VISTA LANES in Vista. His pictures, trophies, mini saddles and riding gear was all part of the decor.
- Connie Marchione - what a guy! Every deaf bowler in the world has something to thank him for. Connie was a very modest man who could write wonderful words about everyone! But he didn’t like the spotlight. He WAS a SPOTLIGHT! Love you Connie.
- Pete McCordic won $100,000 for a TV Perfecto. True Value paid off in 1988. Will the 2019 sponsor be forced to make their offer good?
- Helen Duval at 71 was the B.V.L. Honorary Chairman. She and whoever was the U.S. President laid flowers at the tomb of unknown soldiers many times.
- Larry Gray was elected '87 PCB Bowler of the year.
- Joe Berardi captured the AC Delco Classic title at GABLE HOUSE. $27,000 came with the title.
- The award winning writer Chuck Pezzana was recorded saying, “There are probably a dozen great bowling instructors in the U.S. Isn’t it strange that your league has 5 or 6 of them?” Another quote, “The difference between talent and dumb luck is whether YOU or the OTHER bowler gets the off-pocket strike.”
- If you want to hear some great “stories” ask one of these guys about the 1988 P.J. Carroll Masters. Check with James Tipton, Charles Willison, Walter Jackson, Steve Brode, Derek Lee, or Rick Hunter. Where have all the great bowlers gone???
- The latest product from ROBBYS was the “No-Wet-Foot” shoes protector. It came in four colors. (I used the hotel shower caps that were free!)
- The ABTA ran one of their tournaments at MACY LANES. The balls rolling down the lanes looked like a roller coaster contest. That center was built with “junk”, “scraps” “left overs” and “dreams”. Just couldn’t compete.
- “Kranker King” was a device designed to protect the wrist, ease injuries, help with constant deliveries---AND make you look like part robot!!
- The 1987 Junior Bowler of the Year Mark Fisser rolled a 300 at DEL RIO LANES.
- Names? Faces? Bowls? Put them all together. Roy Hoernke, Don Cecil, Joe Kirkwood, Al Tripp, Joe Johnson, Terry Fowler, Billy Myers, Ray Varela, Speedy Gonzales, Dick Steinway, Steve Nagy, Andy Marzich, Art Goddard, Bob Ellender, Dan Roche. (I can hear your marbles rattling around!)
- What pro shop did Bobby Knipple operate?
- Mike McGrath and Barry Asher (stars in the 1960’s and 1970’s) on their way to the PBA Hall of Fame in 1988.
- Guess who was manager at RAMONA LANES? Wes Sorenson was his name, bowling was his game. With help from wife Bobbie.
- Big Lenny Scala had a big smile when he was managing SANTA ANITA LANES...even if he had to work the desk! Loved handing out 300 rings!
- P.J. Carroll spent more sponsorship money than Firestone Tires. He couldn’t say no. Many a bowler made headlines because of P.J.’s financial (and personal) help.
- Mary Alpine (San Gabriel Valley Star) joined the Bowling News Staff.
- Eva Mason was Secretary of the L.A.W.B.A.
- Bill Tolliver rolled a no-tap 300 at GARDENA BOWL on February 14. His reward? A box of chocolates!
- Juanita Blocker put pen to paper every week writing the L.A.W.B.A. column.
- Who wasn’t a friend of Fred Eastwood? Or had a ball drilled by him?
- GOLD COAST LANES in Las Vegas was under construction.
- SEQUOIA ATHLETIC CLUB in Buena Park was managed by Dick Goldstein. It had a complete fitness gym, racquetball court, handball, basketball, volleyball, indoor track, swimming pools, jacuzzi, banquet rooms, meeting rooms and 40 lane bowling center. People bought shares in the corporation.
- WAGON WHEEL BOWL in Oxnard installed Pathfinder Lanes for the state tournament. A First! CONEJO VILLAGE BOWL also had the Pathfinders.
- Corey Groth - WOW - named PBA Rookie of the Year. Yes, he’s still bowling.
- Rick Eason scored a 300 on the Pathfinders at PALOS VERDES BOWL.
- Jack Frost was the main man at LANDMARK BOWL in Pomona.
- Four female bowling veterans were named to the 1988 So. California Hall of Fame; Shirley Schmardel (San Diego), Marge Fox (Seal Beach), Virginia Norton (Cypress), and Cheryl Kominsky (Louisiana).
- The ABC Hall of Fame welcomed John Guenther and Chris Schenkel.
- The San Gabriel Valley W.B.A. bid on the State Tournament for 1989, and won. Their theme was “Find the Line in ‘89.” (Carol Mancini, that’s me, was President at that time.) More later.
- The High Roller expected to pay $200,000 to the winner! Entry fee only $1,000! That was for the High Roller Scratch Tourny.
- Rusty Bryant was the Pro Shop operator at ROCKY MOUNTAIN BOWL. Where does he hang out 30 years later? WINNETKA BOWL!!!! Must be doing something right. Way to go!
- Helen Baker resigned as WIBC President. Gladys Banker stepped up to take the reigns.
- AZUSA BOWL came up with a tournament called, “Bring Home the Bacon.” Bowl during league. The concept was to beat your own current league average!!!
- Mary Alpine was crowned San Gabriel Valley Queen.
- Sixty-eight million people bowled at least 12 games each in 1988. That was one out of every 3 americans. More women than men bowled. 8 million were sanctioned bowlers.

That’s all for Part One of 1988. 21 centers had “want ads” for employees. 12 tournament clubs ran weekly events. Frank Kietz and his camera were everywhere a ball was rolling. 300 games were nightly events. More men had moustaches. Women wore more slacks. I’ll have more in Part 2.

A 3D rendering of a bowling ball hitting pins on a bowling lane. The bowling ball is dark blue with a textured surface and three finger holes. It is positioned in the center of the frame, moving towards the pins. The pins are white with red stripes and are scattered around the ball, indicating a recent impact. The bowling lane is light gray with a dark gray gutter on the right side. The background is a plain white surface.

The Don Johnson 40 pattern is currently in use in the PBA Tournament of Champions. In addition to using specific patterns for certain events, the PBA Tour also is using “mixed patterns” for select events in 2019, where two different patterns will be used for qualifying rounds along with applying one of the two patterns to the left lane and the other to the right lane for other rounds in the tournament. The recently-completed Lubbock Sports Open, for example, used the Wolf 32 and Scorpion 32 patterns; the upcoming Go Bowling! PBA Indianapolis Open will use the Aulby 38 and Weber 45 patterns.

CAL BOWL CLINCHES PLAYOFF SPOT

BEATS 3 OLIVES VODKA TO WIN 3RD ROUND OF BRUNSWICK INVITATIONAL

DOWNEY – The Cal Bowl team made easy work of their competition throughout the third round of the Brunswick Invitational and only needed one win on Monday night to clinch a spot in the playoffs. The entered the night with a record of 25-5, and held a four game lead over 3 Olives Vodka. It did not take long for them to get that win, getting it in the first game. In winning the round, they join Sysco and Century 21—PEAK in the growing playoff field.

Ramon Torres got Cal Bowl off and running with a 218 in the first game, leading them to a 38 pin victory. The win in game one clinched the round, and took some excitement out of the remaining games. Overall, Cal went 4-1 for the night to finish the round 29-6. Aarik Torres of Cal Bowl led the pair with 234-256/667. Eric Snow led the 3 Olives Vodka team with 223-217/635.

Captain Morgan got four wins from Bowlum on the second pair of lanes. Bowlum won the middle game in tight fashion, edging Captain Morgan by seven pins. The other games all went to “The Captain”, and they won totals by 120 pins. Ramiro Garcia topped this pair, leading Captain Morgan with 235/614.

Lee Liu shot a 215/626 set on the next pair to lead DV8 to a 3-2 win over Buddy’s Bowling Supply. Lee had help from Brian Main, 232/601 to get the wins. For Buddy’s Bowling Supply, Bobby Campagnale was the high man, shooting 216/619.

The Professional Approach easily swept past Forest Lanes, taking totals by over 200 pins. The second game was relatively close, but games one and three were blowouts. Arnold Cheesman of the Professional Approach led the way with 216/621. Harry Wong helped get the sweep with a 216/607 of his own.

Bowling Guys and Threadworks had a hard fought match on the next pair. The Bowling Guys were only able to win the Del Rio Lanes 7502 Florence Ave., Downey CA 90240 • (562) 927-3351 middle game, but the 61 pin margin in the game was enough to carry them to a total pins victory as well, giving them a 3-2 win for the match. Bowling Guy Kevin Jones was the top scorer on the pair with 221/586.

Keystone Lanes finished the round on a high note, taking four out of five from J.A.T. Stephanie Zavala shined in this match, shooting a 231-216-208/655 to lead Keystone. Mike Calvillo added a 213/620 to help Stephanie out. Kevin Valmonte started great for J.A.T. with a 259 game, but only managed a 610 series afterwards.

Herzog Insurance got 4 ½ win on the next pair. Don Julio Tequila managed to get half a point by tying the second game at 741. The rest of the action all fell in favor of Herzog. David March was subbing for the Herzog Insurance team, and led the pair with 194/564. Joel Alcinega of Herzog, and Sophia Kim of Don Julio Tequila were right behind, shooting 562 sets.

Tito’s Handmade Vodka took four out of five games from Linder’s Insurance. This pattern did not go well for Linder’s for any of the seven weeks, and they’ll be excited to see the standings start over and a new pattern on the lanes next week. Joey Hanna did finish well for Linder’s, topping the pair with 212/592. Will Hinkley led the Tito’s Vodka team with 197/567

The final pair of lanes featured the two round winners, in a battle for the total wins that are the determining factor for playoff seeding. On this night, Century 21—PEAK was the dominant team, as they swept all five games from Sysco. Eddie Van Daniker topped the pair with 221/611 for Century 21. His teammate, Jon Huff, was only a pin behind with 221-215/610.

Stephanie Zavala shot a 231 in the first game to win that sidepot. Jon Huff got second place in the opener with 221. In the second game, 215 was enough to win Lee Liu the sidepot, beating out Eddie VanDaniker by two pins. The final game super pot paid Joel Arciniega $167 for his 223 game. Once again, Eddie VanDaniker came up two pins short, as he shot a 221 for second place.

Aarik Torres rode a 234 in the middle game to the Financial Advisors Pot, barely edging out the runner up Brian Main who shot a 232. Aarik won the first place prize of $185. Brian had to settle for the $100 consolation prize.

The “Clean 30” pot had $490 carry over to the final night of the round. Lee Liu managed to stay clean the longest, lasting 23 frames, to win the money.

As mentioned earlier, three playoff spots have been clinched. Three spots remain open as well. There are still two rounds to bowl and a wildcard spot up for grabs. The fourth round starts next Monday night and once again the standings will be reset. Every team is still in it. For the fourth round, the league will be using the team event pattern from the USBC Nationals.

Come on down to Del Rio Lanes in Downey to catch the action and root for your favorite teams.
