Matt O'Grady Wins Tournament of Champions

FAIRLAWN, OH – Advancing from a pre-tournament qualifier earlier in the week all the way to the title match, four-time Professional Bowlers Association regional tournament winner Matt O'Grady of Rahway, N.J., won the 53rd PBA Tournament of Champions Sunday for his first PBA Tour title.

O'Grady, whose best previous PBA Tour finish was fourth, won three stepladder finals matches at AMF Riviera Lanes before beating top qualifier and 2016 Tournament of Champions winner Jesper Svensson, 207-193, in the title match of the first major of the 2018 Go Bowling! PBA Tour season.

O'Grady held a three-pin lead over Svensson in the eighth frame but was able to pull away when he struck in the ninth frame and the first shot in the 10th frame. Except for strikes in the second and third frames, Svensson was not able to put another string of strikes together for the rest of the match.

"I feel like I'm sleepwalking—it's a dream come true," said the 31-year-old O'Grady, who won PBA's signature event which requires a player to be a PBA champion to be eligible to enter. "It just shows you what hard work can do. I've been working hard the past year to be able to compete at this level."

"I admit that in the past I haven't been as disciplined as I should be to be competitive out here on tour," O'Grady added. "I just had to commit to putting my head down, grit my teeth, and do the hard work you have to do."

For Svensson, it was his second consecutive runner-up finish in a major after finishing second in the PBA World Championship, the final major of the 2017 season.

O'Grady, who became the first player since Dave D'Entremont in the 1996 Tournament of Champions to win four stepladder matches for the title, started the championship round with a 219-174 victory over PBA regional winner BJ Moore of Greensburg, Pa., who finished fifth.

In the second match, O'Grady met four-time and reigning PBA Player of the Year Jason Belmonte of Australia, who was trying for a record-tying 10th major and third Tournament of Champions title. Needing a double in the 10th frame to pull out the win, Belmonte struck on the first ball but left a 10 pin on a pocket hit on the second shot giving O'Grady the 229-225 win.

Belmonte, who was the

No. 3 qualifier, made a dramatic run to the finals just barely advancing to match play in the 24th and final position. Had he won, he would have been only the fourth player to win a major from that position.

"That was like climbing the mountain to win that match," O'Grady said. "Obviously, I still had a lot of work to do but there was a lot of relief after beating Jason, especially with everything he was bowling for."

Belmonte, who finished fourth, will have another opportunity to win a 10th major when the Barbasol PBA Players Championship is held Feb. 19-25 at Wayne Webb's Columbus Bowl in Columbus, Ohio.

Local Prodigy Shines in Texas

FRISCO, TX – Sam Houston State senior Stephanie Zavala is the Southland Bowler of the Month for January, the league announced Wednesday. Southland monthly awards are presented by UniversalCoin.com.

Stephanie is the daughter of Armando Zavala bowling family of Downey.

Zavala posted a 218 average for the month of January, helping the Bearkats to a pair of top finishes, including a third-place finish at the 27-team Kutztown Invitational. At Kutztown she was named to the All-Tournament First Team with a 226.4 average, placing fifth individually out of 171 competitors. She registered a 200-plus total pinfall in 4 of her 5 games with a high game of 255.

"Stephanie has been our most consistent bowler this month," said head coach Brad Hagen. "We made some changes to the lineup and moved her to the No. 4 spot and she has really responded."

She also had a top-20 finish at Arkansas State's Mid-Winter Invitational, placing 18th overall out of 113. For January, she led the Southland Bowling League with a 22.01 overall average per frame.

Congratulations from the Bowling News and looking forward to more stories about Steph!

Wes Malott Extends PBA King of Bowling Reign

FAIRLAWN, OH – Ten-time PBA Tour winner and former PBA Player of the Year Wes Malott successfully defended his PBA King of Bowling crown for the eighth time by defeating challenger four-time PBA Player of the Year Jason Belmonte 2-0 in a best-of-three game match Tuesday at AMF Riviera Lanes.

The kick-off to the PBA Tournament of Champions, which began Wednesday with first round qualifying, was the first-ever PBA event streamed via Facebook Live.

After winning the first game, 250-213, Malott came through with a clutch 10th-frame performance in the second game throwing three consecutive strikes to beat Belmonte 227-225. Belmonte, who finished the game first, threw the first two strikes in the 10th but left the 2-8 on his final ball leaving the door open for Malott.

"Anytime you can throw three strikes in the 10th to win it really makes the win more satisfying," said Malott. "Bowling against a great player like Jason I felt I had to get it done right" then and there. I didn't feel good about it going another game."

After the second strike in the 10th, Malott made a concerted effort to get into a positive mindset for the final shot.

"I've been in those situations where when you need eight or nine (pins) to win you throw it away with a six or seven count," he said. "I cleared my mind of any negative thoughts and didn't take a lot of time on the approach. I just focused on making the best possible shot." Since winning the inaugural King of Bowling challenge in 2009, Malott has successfully defended his crown with wins bowling against Chris Barnes, Patrick Allen, Walter Ray Williams Jr., Rhino Page, Parker Bohn III, EJ Tackett and Belmonte in a trios challenge and most recently, Tommy Jones.

Belmonte was chosen as Malott's opponent by fan voting from a list of TOC champions on pba.com. The three other finalists in the voting were Barnes, Weber and Duke.

Michael Curtis 2 300's

by Mickey Dale – Imperial Valley USBC

A goal for many bowlers is to put together the perfect game, 12 strikes for a 300. One would expect some excitement when that goal is achieved for the first time. For Michael Curtis, he hit the milestone 6 years ago at the age of 17. Up until the first of the year, he added 9 more perfect games.

On January 16th, Michael started out in the Mixed League at Strikezone in El Centro with his 10th perfect game and followed it with a bunch of strikes and a bad-break pocket 7-10 split to post a 234. The night turned extra special as he rolled a second 300 game in the series. How emotional was it?

“I didn’t know how to react,” the El Centro resident confessed. “The first 300 was cool. The second one never crossed my mind. I was focusing on an 800 series. When I got 9 (strikes) in a row again, I told my dad. He was excited and said to just keep throwing. One frame at a time.”

His dad Fred is his mentor and co-owner of Leo’s Pro Shop at Strikezone along with his mother. When together at the center, father and son talk between every shot.

“First, we talk about it,” Fred explained the conversations they’ve had since Michael was 8 years old. “This is what’s working on the lane. When you see the motion of the ball, you make adjustments.”

“The lanes weren’t easy that day,” said Michael. “I was doing some different things, a little loft. I usually change balls in the third game. This time, I used the same ball in all 3 games.”

For the record, the ball used on this night was a Motiv Forza bought and drilled at Leo’s Pro Shop. “It’s my comfort ball,” Michael said with a smile.

Michael started bowling at age 7. It was because of family.

“I used to bowl before,” Fred reminisced. “It was Father’s Day and I asked my family if they’d like to bowl. The next week, I started in a league. It’s a sport we could all play.”

Proving once again, that a family surrounded by bowling, is a happy family.

NITA PALMER Wins the EZZ Blast Tournament

by Frank Weiler

LAUGHLIN, NV – CALIFORNIA bowlers invaded Nevada a couple of weeks ago and came home with money Governor JERRY BROWN would like to get his hands on. According to Brown, he needs more money to fix our roads. My advise to our Governor is to leave our bowlers alone and just raise the gasoline tax again!!!

JESSE JAMES, the nineteenth century Missouri bank robber, would be proud of the way CALIFORNIA bowlers raided the Nevada bowling coffers a few weeks ago, at the LAUGHLIN BLAST Senior tournament. We came home with hundreds of dollars.

NITA PALMER (Lake Elsinore) was one of our bowlers who won big bucks at the Blast. She got things going on Sunday night by winning the EZZ BLAST early bird Tournament. MOOLA, MOOLA and more MOOLA.

Using her Tropical Storm, Nita rolled a huge 891 (194-278-206+213 handicap) series to take first place. Her set was high enough to win by fifty-one pins. That margin of victory was much larger than most. Most second place finishers trail BLAST winners by ten pins or less.

JOYCE DALTON-JENSEN, tournament founder and Director, wasn't surprised by Nita's performance. She has watched Nita bowl for years and knows that Mrs. Palmer is a poised and skilled bowler. "Once Nita finds her groove she is unstoppable".

Nita has been bowling for 63 years, starting when husband Chuck took her on a bowling date in 1955. Dwight Eisenhower was President and Howdy Doody, Mickey Mouse and John Cameron Swayze ruled the air waves. Rubber bowling balls were in vogue. In 1956, Nita and Chuck were married and have been bowling ever since.

When in CALIFORNIA Mrs. Palmer averages 151 with certified highs of 240 and 631. She competes in one league with her husband. Both love to bowl.

The Palmers were attracted to the LAUGHLIN BLAST Tournament because many of their friends bowl in it and the competition is friendly. Also, the staff at Riverside Lanes is very accommodating.

Nita's favorite professional bowler will always be DICK WEBER because he reminds her of husband Chuck. Both men have always been nice guys, real gentlemen. When GOD portioned out "CLASS" he was generous to Chuck Palmer and Dick Weber.

Great bowling Nita and thanks to the BOWLING NEWS for supporting our CALIFORNIA female bowlers.

Thats her goal ! Thats whats she is dreaming of from her youngest years.... to become a Pro Bowler once in a life time...Following a study at a College in the USA, combining with her passion bowling and finally becoming a Pro Bowler.

In 2017 multiple US scholarships were offered to her but first of all she wants tot finish her Study for Management Assistant in Holland. A study in terms of educational level between between High School and College Level.

To join the European and World Championships 2018 at DETROIT in July , she must contribute an amount of EURO 6000,==.by herself , because the Dutch Bowling Federation is too small and not able to pay all its costs. Save this amount in a short time is impossible for a 17 years old schoolgirl.

If you wants to help Denise donate a small amount at the crowd funding page ...she will be gratefull...

Tournament of Champions

In the semi-final match, O’Grady beat Andrew Anderson of Holly, Mich., a second-year tour player who owns one regional title as a PBA member, 194-185.

Anderson, making his first tour television appearance and Moore making his third, also had to qualify through the tournament’s pre-tournament qualifier which was for non-tour winners who owned a title in one of PBA’s other divisions.

The 2018 Tournament of Champions marked the return of PBA’s signature tournament to historic AMF Riviera Lanes where it had been conducted from 1966 to 1994.

The PBA Tour moves to Indianapolis for the Go Bowling! 60th Anniversary Classic at Woodland Bowl which begins Tuesday and will conclude with the stepladder finals next Sunday (Feb. 18) at 10 a.m. on ESPN.

Saturday Sport League Report by Ken Clay

LAKE ELSINORE – The league members showed up on Saturday morning at 9:30 am for week five of the league and week two on the very challenging 2012 PBA US Open lane condition. As is usually the case, the bowlers knocked down more pins due to the experience they gained during the previous week.
As proof, I submit a comparison of the tally of notable games and series from last week and this week: games over average last week 5, this week 9; series over average last week 1, this week 3; games over 200 last week 3, this week 4.
As for series over 600, there were none again this week. However, the high series last week was 543 whereas this week three bowlers rolled series of 575 or better. I feel confident that next week there will be at least one 600 series to report. Now, on to the scores...
Games Over Average: Christopher Clay +38, Steve Lertpaichaiyon +40 +32, Evelyn Lalas +43, Cory Motroni +44 +44, Jimmy Casassa +45 +55, and Robert Groth +76
Series Over Average: Jimmy Casassa and Cory Motroni +73, Steve Lertpaichaiyon +78, and Robert Groth +79
Games Over 200: Ryan Galland 201, Fred Casassa 202, Ken Clay 207, and Robert Groth 236
Series (nearly) Over 600: Jacob Groth 575, Ryan Galland 580, and Ken Clay 593
Bowler of the Week: After starting back-to-back games of 44 pins over average, I really thought that Cory Motroni would be a lock for the BotW award. However, his slightly below average game 3 allowed another bowler to rocket his way into the spot with an incredible game 3 score of 236. If you’ve read the scores above, then you probably already know that this BotW award goes to Robert Groth! Congratulations Robert!
If this sounds like a fun way to challenge your bowling skills, then contact Pins ‘N Pockets or go to facebook.com/groups/PinsSaturdaySport. Until next time, HAVE FUN AND FILL FRAMES!

Letters To The Editor

1979 Feature

I believe it was 1979 that Karen Adams (now Smith) was first woman in San Diego Bowling Assoc to average over 200, She was also Woman Bowler of the Year that year I believe. - Warner Smith

Re- 1979, what ball was I using ? A Benjamin, JC Penney was disbanding all their sporting goods. Bought it for $2.99, picked out heaviest, 16 pound, all were rubber, figured it would be good for Hawthorne (slow) Bowl. Go back in archives, Jan 1980, front page, “ Bowler shoots 289 with $2.99 ball, 707 series. (right ----->) - Vic Bulaich, Westchester

Elaine Hagen Tough to Fall & Recover

Hello bowling friends. I am writing to let you know that Elaine Hagin took a fall yesterday and broke her wrist. She is currently in the hospital and a second surgery is scheduled for tomorrow. She is also having difficulty walking, no doubt from the fall, so she will be going to a short-term care facility until that all gets straightened out. She is expected to make a full recovery and she is in good spirits.
I know she would appreciate a card, if you could take the time to send one. Peter will be minding the house and bringing her mail to her at the facility, which is yet to be determined. Please send your card to her home address: Elaine Hagin 20444 Almeda St., Castro Valley, CA 94546
Feel free to pass this along to friends of Elaine.
- Cordially Yours, Jackie Wyckoff

289 With $2.99 Ball

By Bob Shepard

HAWTHORNE--Two stubborn pins, a 10 in the first frame and a 5 on the final ball, bookended 10 strikes in a row, thus earning Vic Bulaich a lofty 289 in the Elks Foursome at Hawthorne Bowl.

Vic started the New Year off right with a 223 and rode 512 in for a 707 scratch set. Both are per sonal highs and season best at this old house.

Vic used a rubber ball purchased at J.C. Penney's for $2.99 and drilled at L.A. Bowling Supply. He also cashed in the Grant Classic with the same ball. (Hello, John Petraglia.)

BUDDY'S BOWLING SUPPLY CLINCHES THIRD ROUND
by Mike Cammarata

DOWNEY – Four teams started play on Monday night with a chance to win the third round of the Brunswick Invitational. After two games, only one of them had been eliminated from contention. In the third and final game of the night, Ray Minter found a line that the rest of the pair wasn't hitting, and when the game ended his 268 had been more than enough to clinch a spot in the playoffs for Buddy's Bowling Supply.

Keystone Lanes held a one game lead for the round heading into their match with Buddy's Bowling Supply. A 3-2 win would be what the needed, but four wins would like out the second pair as well. Things started well for Keystone as they won the first game by 43 pins behind a strong effort from Herbert Jones with 214 and Nicole Van Daniker who added a 202 game. Eddie Van Daniker, of Keystone Lanes, got rolling in the second game with a 221, but the rest of the team struggled, allowing Buddy's to get back into the match. Buddy's Bowling Supply won the second game by 40 pins, essentially evening the match and putting it all on the final game. In game three, after opening in the second frame, Ray Minter put together nine strikes in a row for a 267 game, leading Buddy's to a 100 pin victory that would eventually seal the round for them.

Herzog Insurance and Bowlm both began the night needing a couple of things to stay in contention. They need to sweep their opponents, and they needed a split on the top pair. After two games, they saw the split on the top pair happening. In their match, Herzog Insurance looked unbeatable through the early going. Herzog took game #1 by 101 pins, with Danny Wilson's 225 leading the way. Ralphie Ramirez was right behind, helping out with 214. In the second game, it got even worse for Bowlm as Herzog Insurance posted an 892 game to win by more than 170 pins, opening an insurmountable lead for totals. Chris Hefner (237), Ralphie Ramirez (235) and Gary Duran (226) were all on fire in that game for the big win. Bowlm, now forced into the role of spoiler, did just that. Herzog needed the final game to force a tiebreaker for the round, but Billy Myers Jr. of Bowlm posted a 244 to lead them to a 58 pin win and end the hopes Herzog had for the round. It was a tough ending to a nice run towards the top for Herzog Insurance.

In other action, Threadworks swept all five games from Linder's Insurance. Threadworks was led by Butch Jackson who shot a 227-226/650 series. Paul Varela helped out with 220/604. Vernon Adams led the Linder's squad with 218/616.

Forest Lanes closed the round with a bang, going 9-1 over the final two weeks. On Monday, they took four out of five from Cal Bowl. Eric Espinoza led Forest Lanes with 229/594. DeeRonn Booker added a 236 game and Jon Diso a 221 to help in the win. Ramon Torres of Cal Bowl led the pair with 218-217/601. Leonard Ruiz may have beaten him, but they didn't write down a third game score for him and I didn't look it up.

Tito's Handmade Vodka battled Professional Approach on the next pair, and came out on top of a tight match, 3-2. Tito's won only the middle game, but won it by enough that they took total pins as well, giving them the edge. Jon Huff substituted for Raul "Spanky" Rosales and led the pair with 207-221/611.

A 246/615 series for Bobby Campagnale led Three Olives Vodka to a 4-1 win over Los Altos Trophy on the next pair of lanes. Nick Rodriguez was the top scorer for Los Altos with 220/599.

Century 21—My Real Estate got five needed wins in their match against Bowling Guys. While the round was not in reach, Century 21 is still in the hunt for wild card action, so all wins are a good thing. Johnny Sikkens led the pair by almost 80 pins with his 258-226/671 set.

DV8 got a 4-1 win over Don Julio Tequila to close out the action between non-round winners. DV8 was in control of the match after two games, but a strong final game from Don Julio got them a morale building win to end the round. Sam Hitchcock topped the pair, leading DV8 with 230-207/599.

First and second round winners, Sysco and J.A.T., squared off against each other, and this match ended in a sweep for J.A.T. The match was much closer than the win total indicates, as J.A.T. won the first game by only three pins and the second game by less than twenty. Still, it's a sweep just the same. Larry Campbell of J.A.T. was the top shooter in the match, with 257-223/625. (I'll do the math for you, that other game was 145). Kevin Valmonte added a 215/601 to help out.

Sam Hitchcock won the first sidepot of the night with his 230 game. Eddie Van Daniker was next to cash in, winning the second game with 221. The third game super pot was taken by Leonard Ruiz Jr., who won $162 for his 246 game.

Chris Hefner took the Financial Advisors Pot. He won $190 for his 237 in the second game. Alex Abieras was the runner up, winning $100 for his 227 score.

The fourth round of the Invitational begins next Monday night. Three of the six playoff spots have been secured. Three remain. 15 teams are hungry to get the remaining spots, and the standings are reset for the new round, bringing hope to all of them. Come down to watch the action at Del Rio Lanes in Downey beginning at 8:30 p.m.
